#SouthlandStrong

Now in its sixth decade of service, the Southland Conference continues to be a model of innovation, stability and consistent achievement as it celebrates the academic and athletic accomplishments of its member institutions.

Having commemorated its 50th anniversary in 2013, the Southland Conference has transformed itself into a dynamic and respected consortium of 13 member universities in three states. Beginning with a historic meeting of five institutions in Dallas on March 15, 1963, the Southland Conference set on an extraordinary course that has proven successful well into its five decades of existence.

The successful transformation continues, as the Southland Conference welcomed four additional members in 2013: Abilene Christian University, Houston Baptist University, the University of Incarnate Word in San Antonio, and the University of New Orleans.

In addition to its newest members, the Southland also consists of the University of Central Arkansas, Lamar University, McNeese State University, Nicholls State University, Northwestern State University, Sam Houston State University, Southeastern Louisiana University, Stephen F. Austin State University and Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi.

An original Southland member from 1963-73, Abilene Christian rejoined the league as one of the most decorated athletic programs in NCAA history, and the addition of HBU, UIW and New Orleans gives the Southland a regular competitive presence in the key metropolitan areas of Houston, San Antonio and New Orleans. Southland cities encompass approximately 14 million people, and six of its television markets rank among the top 100 in the U.S.

All told, the membership of the Southland encompasses nearly 140,000 current students and an alumni base of nearly 800,000. Famous alums from current Southland Conference schools include former CBS news anchor Dan Rather (Sam Houston State), NBA executive Joe Dumars (McNeese State), ABC news anchor Robin Roberts (Southeastern Louisiana), Major League Baseball star Wade Miley (Southeastern Louisiana), NBA legend Scottie Pippen (Central Arkansas), and track and field Olympians Kenta Bell (Northwestern State), and Bobby Morrow and Billy Olson (both Abilene Christian).

Other notable alums from current members include Grammy Award-winning musicians Frank Ocean (New Orleans), Don Henley and Rodney Crowell (both Stephen F. Austin), and Ronnie Dunn (Abilene Christian), television personality and actress Ellen DeGeneres (New Orleans), current NFL standouts Lardarius Webb (Nicholls State), Terrence McGee (Northwestern State), and Daniel Manning (Abilene Christian), professional golfers Shawn Stefani and Chris Stroud (both Lamar) and Colin Montgomerie (HBU), award-winning filmmaker Richard Linklater (Sam Houston State), American Idol winner Kris Allen (Central Arkansas), NFL Hall of Famer Jackie Harris (Northwestern State), former NFL standouts Bobby Hebert (Northwestern State), Gary Barbaro (Nicholls State), Wilbert Montgomery (Abilene Christian) and Gary Reasons (Northwestern State), former MLB stars Darryl Hamilton (Nicholls State) and Kevin Millar (Lamar), NCAA football coach Charlie Strong (Central Arkansas), actors John Larroquette (New Orleans), Ricardo Chavira (UIW) and Jesse Borrego (UIW), and the late NFL coaching legend O.A. "Bum" Phillips (Lamar and Stephen F. Austin).

The Southland sponsors 17 championship sports, all at the NCAA Division I level. The eight men's sports include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis, and indoor and outdoor track and field. The women compete for nine championships in basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, indoor and outdoor track and field, and volleyball. The conference earns automatic qualification to NCAA championships in baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, football, men's and women's golf, women's soccer, softball, men's and women's tennis, and volleyball.

Continuing its tradition of innovation, the league launched the Southland Conference Television Network in the fall of 2008 and has broadcast more than 160 events. The network has expanded its reach to roughly 13 million households throughout Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas and Oklahoma in recent years, and has also gained national viewership through ESPN3 and Fox College Sports. In its first six years, the network has received recognition for its work, earning numerous College Sports Media and Telly Awards.

The Southland Conference, in conjunction with the city of Frisco, Texas, and Hunt Sports Group, also serves as the host to the NCAA Division I Football Championship Game in Frisco, which has been home to the conference headquarters since 2006. The game is played at Frisco's Toyota Stadium, and after a successful three-year run, the partnership was rewarded with a three-year renewal to serve as the national championship host site through the 2015 season.

Southland Conference football ranks among the best Football Championship Subdivision leagues in the nation, and enjoys an annual expectation of competing for the national championship with multiple teams advancing to the NCAA playoffs each year. In 2013, three Southland teams – Southeastern Louisiana, McNeese State and Sam Houston State – all qualified for the NCAA Division I Football Championship, and in 2011 and 2012, Sam Houston advanced to the national championship game. Also, in 2002 and 2003, McNeese State finished the regular season ranked No. 1 in the nation, and advanced to the 2002 national championship contest. The conference has been represented in eight national championship games since the league joined the FCS (formerly I-AA) in 1982. All told, Southland teams have played in 109 Division I playoff games in 32 years, winning 53 of the contests.

Historically, the Southland's successful football heritage has sustained itself through numerous membership and classification changes. The Southland joined the NCAA College Division in 1964, and was designated as NCAA Division II in 1973 before joining Division I in 1975. The Southland was an NCAA Division I-A league from 1978-81, before joining the ranks of FCS in 1982, its home ever since.

During its tenure as a Division I and I-A conference, the Southland Conference initiated the startup of the Shreveport, La.-based Independence Bowl in 1976. The Southland representative served as the host team of the bowl until 1980, compiling a 2-3 record in those contests.

The Conference can lay claim to five national championships, including College Division championships through former members Arkansas State (1970, UPI) and Louisiana Tech (1972, National Football Foundation). Louisiana Tech also won the first NCAA-sanctioned national title, winning the Division II playoffs in 1973. Tech followed that with the UPI's Division II national championship in 1974. Louisiana-Monroe won the 1987 Division I-AA national championship.

McNeese State, which has made 15 appearances in the national playoffs, also played in the 1997 NCAA Division I Championship game, while Stephen F. Austin played in the 1989 title contest and has six playoff appearances, including 2009 and 2010. Sam Houston State has earned seven trips to the football, while Northwestern State has played in the playoffs six times. Nicholls State has participated three times in the playoffs, and Central Arkansas has made consecutive playoff appearances in 2011 and 2012. On five occasions, the Southland has placed three teams in the NCAA playoffs.

The Southland has produced 172 first-team football All-Americans during its history and in 2010, Stephen F. Austin quarterback Jeremy Moses became the first player in Southland history to receive the Walter Payton Award, which is presented annually to the most outstanding football player at the FCS level.

The Southland is one of five FCS conferences with at least 200 selections (206) in the National Football League draft. There have been 26 Southland players taken in the draft since 2000, including Southeastern Louisiana defensive back Robert Alford, who was picked as the first FCS player in the second round of the 2013 draft. There are over 20 former Southland players on NFL rosters heading into the 2014 season.

Southland Conference alumni in the NFL include Buffalo's Terrence McGee (Northwestern State) and Chicago's Josh McCown (Sam Houston State), who have each been in the league for the last 11 seasons. Other recent NFL additions from the Southland include Green Bay's Kevin Hughes (Southeastern Louisiana), St. Louis' Jabara Williams (Stephen F. Austin) Washington's Devin Holland (McNeese State), Atlanta's Marcus Jackson (Lamar), Cleveland's Dominique Croom (Central Arkansas) and New Orleans' Tim Flanders (Sam Houston State).

The Southland has seen former Nicholls State players win Super Bowl rings in recent seasons, as former Colonel Antonio Robinson was a member of the Green Bay Packers' Super Bowl XLV champions. And, Nicholls-ex Lardarius Webb was a member of the Super Bowl XLVII champion Baltimore Ravens.

Among the former NFL stars from the Southland include Fred Dean, who was inducted to the Professional Football Hall of Fame in 2008 to become the first former Southland Conference player to earn induction in Canton. Other great NFL players from the Southland include Super Bowl XXIX quarterback Stan Humphries, Bill Bergey, Mike Barber, Fred Barnett, Bubby Brister, Ray Brown, Roger Carr, Larry Centers, Bruce Collie, Jackie Harris, Buford Jordan, Tim McKyer, Kavika Pittman, Billy Ryckman, Rickey Sanders, Eugene Seale, Rafael Septien, Terrance Shaw, Leonard Smith, Marcus Spears, Pat Tilley and Marvin Upshaw. Both Dean and Smith are recent inductees to the College Football Hall of Fame.

The Southland Conference has also seen its share of great coaches during its history in Maxie Lambright, Ernie Duplechin, Sam Goodwin, Jack Doland, Bennie Ellender, Bobby Keasler, Larry Laceywell, Bill Davidson, Dennis Franchione, Pat Collins, and Ron Randleman.

The Southland Conference has repeatedly demonstrated its commitment to the academic and athletic success of its student-athletes. With the F.L. McDonald Postgraduate Scholarship Award, the league annually honors one male and one female scholar-athlete with a stipend for postgraduate study. The Scholar-Athlete Award is given to each institution's male and female student-athlete with the highest grade-point average. Also, student-athletes with grade-point averages above 3.0 are honored on the Southland's annual All-Academic teams and Commissioner's Honor Roll. A total of 856 student-athletes appeared on the honor roll following the 2013 spring semester, and total of 1,553 student-athletes earned a spot on the honor roll at the end of the fall and spring semesters during the 2012-13 academic year.

While successful on the fields and courts, the Southland Conference has repeatedly demonstrated its commitment to the academic and athletic success of its student-athletes.

GAME 1 • Aug. 30

Sam Houston State 74, HBU 0

HUNTSVILLE, Texas – It was not the beginning HBU was hoping for, but it was a beginning nonetheless and Huskies football is now a reality.

Freshman running back B.J. Kelly gained 53 yards on 13 attempts for the Huskies (0-1), while freshman quarterback Ka'Darius Baker completed 6-of-15 passes for 33 yards and an interception. Sophomore wide receiver Trey Sudds caught one pass for 20 yards, while freshman Wesley Lewis caught two for 15 yards. Freshman safety Cody Moncure led HBU with 11 tackles, while Taylor Thompson added nine and Terrell Brown and Garrett Dolan had seven each.

Steven Hicks rushed 17 times for 99 yards and a touchdown, while Richard Sincere had three carries for 64 yards for the Bearkats (1-0). Tim Flanders rushed nine times for 52 yards and a score, while Cory Idlebird had six carries for 51 yards. Brian Bell completed 5-of-9 passes for 90 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Torrance Williams made two receptions for 72 yards and a touchdown for the Bearkats.

In the first quarter, SHSU opened the scoring as Flanders scored a four-yard touchdown with 11:27 left. Keshawn Hill added a four-yard touchdown run of his own to put the Bearkats ahead, 14-0, with 8:58 to go. Bell hooked up with Torrance Williams for a 66-yard touchdown pass with 6:19 left.

The Bearkats went up 28-0 when Josh Lyons made an eight-yard reception out of the backfield for a score with 13:12 left in the second quarter. Shelby Davis intercepted a pass by Fleming and returned it 48 yards for a touchdown to give SHSU a 35-0 lead with 11:38 remaining in the half. Bell kept the ball on an option and ran two yards to put the Bearkats ahead, 42-0, with 6:28 to go. Steven Hicks scored on a rush from four yards out as SHSU took a 49-0 lead at the half.

SHSU got on the board in the second half on Luc Swimberghe's 48-yard field goal to take a 52-0 lead with 10:44 left. The Bearkats quickly scored again when Tristan Eche intercepted a Baker pass and returned it 25 yards for a touchdown. Don King III added a three-yard run for a score with 4:03 remaining. On the ensuing kickoff, Eli Oldham fumbled and HBU's Ore Bankole recovered the ball at the OBU 26. Baker completed a 20-yard pass to Lewis down to the six, then three plays later Kelly found the endzone from three yards out to put HBU ahead 14-3 with 7:29 left.

On the first play of the fourth quarter, Grauer was sacked by Keith Ewing, fumbled the ball, which was picked up by Kameron Lecoq and returned 25 yards for a touchdown as HBU led, 21-3.

After the Bison got the ball back, Grauer found Derek Serowski for a 30-yard gain to the HBU 25, but on the next play, Thompson came up with his second interception of the game at the 1-yard line and returned it 24 yards to the 25.

On the Huskies' next drive, Baker's 23-yard completion to Kenneth Bibbins gave HBU a first down at the OBU 35. Bell rushed four-straight times down to the 5-yard line, then Kelly punched it in from three-yards out again as HBU went ahead, 28-3.

In the closing moments, OBU drove down to the HBU 32, but Grauer was intercepted by Garrett Dolan, who took it back 80 yards for a touchdown with seven seconds left to give the Huskies a 34-3 lead.

Harrison Stewart hit 23-of-40 passes for 383 yards and five touchdowns, while Deric Davis hit 6-of-10 for 91 yards and a score for A&M-Commerce (7-3). Vernon Johnson made 10 catches for 180 yards, Seth Smith had six catches for 115 yards and three touchdowns, while Hayden Marsh and Stacy Howard each caught a touchdown pass for the Lions.

The Lions received the opening kickoff and wasted no time scoring, as Stewart found Smith for a 45-yard touchdown just 56 seconds into the game. The Huskies looked to have an answer as Taylor Thompson returned the ensuing kickoff 50 yards to the A&M-Commerce 44, then freshman wide receiver made a 26-yard gain on the first play from scrimmage. Two plays later Baker fumbled and Pablo Vasquez returned it 84 yards for a touchdown to give the Lions a 14-0 lead with 12:34 to go.

After each team had a quick three-and-out, HBU got the ball back on a punt to the 19. The Huskies took a deep shot down the sideline for incompleton on first down, but Kelly ripped off a 75-yard run down to the six on second down. Larry Day took it in from six yards out to make it 14-7 with 9:38 left.

A personal foul and a fumbled snap had A&M-Commerce facing a third-and-40, but only picked up three yards, and a poor punt set the Huskies up at the Lions' 49. To cap the drive, Lewis made a one-handed basket catch for a 25-yard touchdown to tie the game at the 4:19 mark of the first quarter.

A&M-Commerce took the lead for good on an 11-play, 66-yard drive that was capped by Marsh's 12-yard touchdown catch from Stewart.

In the third quarter, Lazard's 14-yard run set up Kelly's fourth-and-goal, one-yard leap over the top for a touchdown cut the deficit to 41-21.

PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETES

Who is a prospective student-athlete?

A "prospective student-athlete," better known as a "recruit" or "prospect", is a student who has started classes for the ninth grade, with the exception of men's basketball which is a student who has started classes for the seventh grade. In addition, any younger student-athlete who receives any benefits from the institution would be considered a recruit.

Recruiting

Only coaches and athletic department staff may be involved in the recruiting process. Athletics representatives are prohibited from contacting a prospective student-athlete or members of his/her family by telephone, letter, e-mail, or in person for the purpose of encouraging participation in athletics at Houston Baptist University. This prohibition remains in effect even after the prospect signs a National Letter of Intent (scholarship offer).

NCAA Recruiting Definitions

NCAA Recruiting Calendars

Visiting HBU

An "official visit" is a visit paid in whole or in part by the university and cannot exceed 48 hours in length. A prospect can make a total of five official visits, with a limit of only one per university.

Official Visit Checklist (link to .pdf file)

An "unofficial visit" is a visit made at the prospect's own expense. The university may provide (a) three complimentary tickets to an on-campus athletics event in which the university's team is competing and (b) transportation to view off-campus practice and competition sites within a 30-mile radius. Prospects can make as many unofficial visits as they want.

National Letter of Intent

The National Letter of Intent (NLI) is a binding agreement between a prospective student-athlete and an institution in which the institution agrees to provide a prospective student-athlete who is admitted to the institution and is eligible for financial aid under NCAA rules athletics aid for one academic year in exchange for the prospect's agreement to attend the institution for one academic year. All colleges and universities that participate in the NLI program agree to not recruit a prospective student-athlete once he/she signs an NLI with another college or university. Therefore, a prospective student-athlete who signs an NLI should no longer receive recruiting contacts and calls and is ensured an athletics scholarship for one academic year. The NLI must be accompanied by an institutional financial aid agreement. If the student-athlete does not enroll at that institution for a full academic year, he/she may be subject to specific penalties, including loss of a season of eligibility and a mandatory residence requirement.

Who is a "Representative of Athletic Interests?"

A "representative of the institution's athletics interests" or Booster can be an individual, independent agency, corporate entity or other organization

Stringent rules apply in these instances and written records must be kept regarding employment.

DO NOT provide transportation for prospects or student-athletes in your employ unless transportation is provided for all employees.

DO NOT provide employment for student-athletes during the academic year without contacting the HBU Athletic Department first. The NCAA has strict rules about the amount and source of outside funds during the academic year.

DO NOT use the name or picture of an enrolled student-athlete to directly advertise, recommend or promote sales or use of a commercial product or service of any kind. Even the sale of a picture of an enrolled student-athlete would jeopardize his/her eligibility.

DO NOT provide awards or gifts to a student-athlete for his or her athletic performance. All awards must conform to NCAA regulations and must be approved by HBU.

DO NOT allow a student-athlete, his/her friends or relatives to use your telephone to make long distance calls even if it is a free call. THIS INCLUDES CELL PHONES!

DO feel free to invite an HBU team for dinner or to meet with a group of alumni in a city where they are competing. The NCAA permits student-athletes, AS A TEAM, to receive special benefits not permitted as individuals. Arrangements for such events can be made in advance with the head coach or Athletic Department.
