NCAA ALL-AMERICANS

MICHIGAN ALL-AMERICANS

Over Michigan hockey's 101-year history, Wolverine players have always grasped the team-first mentality. A select group of individuals, however, have demonstrated on-ice brilliance worthy of special mention.

Following the 1947-48 hockey season, Wally Gacek, Wally Grant and Connie Hill earned the Wolverines' first All-America honors en route to capturing the program's first NCAA hockey championship.

A total of 78 players have received this prestigious honor a total of 101 times. Sixty-three players have received All-America first team recognition and 19 have picked up second team honors.

A Wolverine has earned All-America recognition in 16 out of the last 22 seasons.

Other highlights in the history of Michigan's All-Americans includes the four Wolverines (Brendan Morrison-first team, John Madden-first team, Marty Turco-first team and Jason Botterill-second team) from the 1996-97 team to earn All-America status.

THE HOBEY BAKER AWARD

The Hobey Baker Story

The Hobey Baker Memorial Award is presented to the outstanding college hockey player in the United States by the Decathlon Athletic Club of Bloomington, Minn.

The idea for the Hobey Baker Award was conceived by then Decathlon Athletic Club chief executive officer Chuck Bard, who modeled the award after college football's Heisman Trophy.

Club directors gave the final go-ahead on Jan. 4, 1980. Bard, with assistance from Walter Bush, then president of the Minnesota North Stars, and Roger Godin of the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame, narrowed down a list of candidates after whom to name the award. The final list included hockey immortals Moose Goheen, Frank Brimsek, John Mariucci and Hobey Baker. The name and exploits of Baker intrigued Bard, who contacted Princeton for more information. Bard also contacted the present day Hobey Baker, a nephew of the award's namesake who resided in New York, and granted permission to use the name.

Baker was the captain of Princeton's hockey and football teams from 1910-14. He was a charter member of the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame and was one of a handful of Americans inducted into Canada's Hockey Hall of Fame. Baker is best known for his outstanding sportsmanship. He was only penalized once in his collegiate career and always visited the opposition's locker room after a game.

The trophy was designed, the sponsor set and the committee enlarged. The first banquet was April 1, 1981. Neal Broten of Minnesota won the first award, and Gordie Howe delivered a memorable speech.

Since then, the award has become recognized as U.S. college hockey's premier individual honor. As such, it has helped promote U.S. college hockey, the skills needed to play the game and the ideals for which the original Hobey Baker lived and died.

BIG TEN CONFERENCE

Big Ten Tournament Titles

2015-16, 2021-22, 2022-23

Michigan won its first Big Ten title on March 19, 2016 at the Xcel Energy Center in Minnesota as the No. 2 seed. Receiving a quarterfinal round bye in the six-team tournament, the Wolverines defeated No. 3 seed Penn State 7-2 in the semifinals on March 18. Michigan defeated No. 1 seed Minnesota 5-3 in the championship. Kyle Connor was named the MVP and was one of four Wolverines on the all-tournament team, including Steve Racine (G), Zach Werenski (D) and JT Compher (F).

Michigan won the 2022 Big Ten Tournament Championship on March 19, 2022 at Mariucci Arena as the No. 2 seed. The Wolverines held a 4-1 lead over the host Gophers, giving up two power-play goals in the final minute for a 4-3 decision. Erik Portillo was named the MVP and one of five Wolverines on the all-tournament team, which also included Matty Beniers (F), Brendan Brisson (F), Mackie Samoskevich (F), and Luke Hughes (D).

The Wolverines swept Michigan State in the quarterfinals 4-1 and 8-0 at Yost Arena on March 4 & 5, and earned revenge for four regular-season losses to Notre Dame - ultimately losing out on the B1G regular season title because of the final two losses in South Bend to finish the regular season - by beating the Irish 2-1 on March 12 at Yost.

Michigan captured its second consecutive Big Ten Tournament Championship on March 18, 2023 at Mariucci Arena as the No. 2 seed. All three of Michigan's tournament titles have been won in the state of Minnesota, when Michigan was the No. 2 seed and all three times they've worn blue.

Adam Fantilli was named the MVP after setting B1G tournament records for most points with 11 and most goals with seven in a single tournament. Gavin Brindley tied the record for most assists in a tournament with seven. Joining Fantilli on the all-tournament team were Rutger McGroarty, Seamus Casey and Luke Hughes.

The Wolverines swept Wisconsin at Yost on March 3 & 4, and took a 7-3 win over Ohio State in the semifinals on March 11.

Captain Kevin Porter accepts the CCHA regular season championship trophy from commissioner Tom Anastos. The 2007-08 Wolverines clinched the title on home ice with a 5-3 win vs. Ferris State.

As the No. 7 seed in 2010, U-M became the lowest seeded team in CCHA annals to capture the Mason Cup. U-M swept a home series vs. Lake Superior State, a road series at Michigan State and upset No. 1 Miami and Northern Michigan in Detroit.

- Michigan's all-time record in CCHA play was 557-313-73
- Eleven CCHA regular season championships were the most in the conference
- Michigan finished first or second in the CCHA regular standings 20 times in the last 23 seasons of the CCHA
- A Wolverine was named CCHA Player of the Year four times
- Red Berenson was the CCHA Coach of the Year twice ('94, '08)
- 23-3-2 record in conference during 2004-05 season set CCHA record for most wins, points (48) and win percentage (.857) in a 28-game schedule

- Nine CCHA tournament titles were second-most in the conference. All nine came from 1994-2013 -- no other school had more than four during the same 19-year span
- The Wolverines advanced to the CCHA tournament semifinals in 25 straight seasons, reaching the championship game in 18 instances
- Eight U-M players garnered the Bill Beagan Award, which honors the CCHA tournament's most valuable player.
- Michigan swept the CCHA championships -- regular season and tournament -- six times, more than any other program.

MICHIGAN HALL OF FAME

DEKERS BLUELINE CLUB

The Dekers Blue Line Club was organized for the purpose of supporting Michigan hockey. The club starts the "season" shortly after Labor Day with a picnic for Dekers and the Michigan hockey team and staff to welcome everyone to the new season.

Dekers member dues assist in accomplishing many of the Dekers Blue Line Club's annual activities and projects. Those include: alumni weekend, which includes alumni games and a golf outing; rings for graduating seniors; Dekers Hall of Fame; annual hockey picnic; parents' weekend; awards banquet; trophies; and a 50-50 raffle.

The Dekers' highly-acclaimed newsletter "Inside The Goal Crease" brings everyone up to date on the current activities of the team and the club. The Dekers Club built and continues to maintain the photo gallery and trophy cases in Yost Ice Arena.

In the past, Dekers donations have assisted in the purchase of uniforms for the hockey pep band, new furniture for the Michigan team locker room lounge, banners for the hockey pep band, team exercise equipment and a car for recruiting.

In its never-ending dedication to the students who play hockey at Michigan, the Dekers Club became the first booster club at Michigan to endow a scholarship. The scholarship covers the cost of room and board for one player each school year.

If you would like to consider joining the Dekers organization and assist in the sponsorship of these events and activities, you can find more information on the internet at MGoBlue.com, stop by the Dekers Booth in the lobby of Yost Ice Arena on home game nights or write to: The Dekers Blue Line Club, P.O. Box 2065, Ann Arbor, MI 48106.

THE ESPY'S

Mike Legg's ESPY-winning Goal

Mike Legg cradles the puck onto his stick blade, skates out in front, flips in a shot and sends the hockey world into a frenzy.

En route to the 1995-96 NCAA title, Michigan was assisted by perhaps the greatest goal ever scored in an organized hockey game - Mike Legg's lacrosse-style wraparound on Mar. 24 against Minnesota in the West Regional. Michigan had been outplayed by Minnesota, but Legg's goal tied the game 7:06 into the second period and provided his team with a new burst of energy. Six days later, Michigan won the national title and Legg, with his game-tying goal in the third period against Colorado College, would enhance his legendary status. The goal received unheard of attention around the sporting world.

Legg's goal won an ESPY for "Outrageous Play of the Year," and he traveled to New York on Feb. 10, 1997, for the black-tie award ceremonies which was televised nationally on ESPN. The goal had earlier won the 1996 "Play of the Year" by TSN and the 1996 "Goal of The Year" by Inside Hockey, a Swedish Hockey Magazine. Legg traveled to Stockholm and received his award at a banquet Aug. 8, 1996.

Media coverage was unprecedented. The night of the goal, CNN's Headline News showed it regularly on its sports updates every half hour, ESPN's National Hockey Night chose Legg's goal as the MCI Play of the Night and CNN Sports Tonight chose it as the Play of the Day. The goal was part of The Albert Achievement Awards on the Late Show With David Letterman and was also shown on Hockey Night in Canada on CBC. The sequence was captured in feature stories by USA Today, The Detroit News, The Boston Globe, The Minneapolis Star Tribune, The St. Paul Pioneer Press, The Wolverine, The Ann Arbor News, The Michigan Daily, The Hockey News, U.S. College Hockey Magazine, Hockey Player Magazine and Drop The Puck Weekly Update.
