▶ FIRST-AND-10

• Michigan State closes the regular season against No. 11 Penn State on Friday, Nov. 24 at Ford Field in Detroit. Kickoff is set for 7:35 p.m. The game will be televised on NBC and streamed live on Peacock with Noah Eagle (play-by-play), Todd Blackledge (analyst) and Kathryn Tappen (sidelines) on the call.

• The Spartans (4-7, 2-6 Big Ten) defeated Indiana on the road last week, 24-21, to reclaim the Old Brass Spittoon from Hoosiers, while Penn State (9-2, 6-2 Big Ten) won 27-6 over Rutgers on Senior Day in Happy Valley. The Nittany Lions are ranked 11th in this week's College Football Playoff rankings, and are also ranked 11th in the AP and Coaches Polls.

• Friday's game marks the 38th meeting between Michigan State and Penn State. The Spartans have won six of the last 10 meetings against the Nittany Lions and the all-time series is tied, 18-18-1. This marks the first-ever neutral site game between the two schools.

• Since the renewal of the series in 1993, the winner of the Michigan State-Penn State game has been presented the Land-Grant Trophy. The trophy honors the two universities' unique places in history as the two pioneer land-grant schools in the nation. Each institution was founded in 1855: Michigan State on Feb. 12 and Penn State on Feb. 22. The schools were the prototypes after which the land-grant system was patterned. Since 1993, Penn State leads the series, 17-10, but the Spartans have won six of the last 10.

• Friday's game against Penn State marks the second-ever game for Michigan State at Ford Field. The Spartans beat Florida Atlantic, 30-17, on Sept. 11, 2010, during their first appearance at the facility. Prior to that win over Florida Atlantic, MSU's last visit to downtown Detroit was Oct. 27, 1944, when Coach Charlie Bachman led the Spartans to a 32-0 victory over Wayne State in a contest played at University of Detroit Stadium. Michigan State also played Detroit at U of D Stadium in 1923, 1928, 1931 and 1933.

• Although this marks the first time Michigan State has played a game on the Friday after Thanksgiving, the Spartans had a long tradition of playing on Thanksgiving for many years, beginning in the second-ever official season for the school in 1897. Michigan State has played on Thanksgiving a total of 17 times (1897-99; 1901; 1906-09; 1911-12; 1917-22; 1963).

SPARTAN ALL-ACCESS
Spartan All-Access is a sports docu-series providing an exclusive look into Michigan State Athletics, its student-athletes, coaches and the people that make the Michigan State Athletics family what it is. The series airs on MSU Athletics' social media platforms throughout the season. The show is produced by the Emmy award-winning Spartan Vision team.

Michigan State interim head coach Harlon Barnett is in his 15th year overall on the Spartan coaching staff. A former All-American defensive back at MSU, Barnett has coached in four BCS/New Year's Six Bowl games with the Spartans and has been on three Big Ten Championship staffs. He recorded his first win as a head coach on Nov. 4 as MSU beat Nebraska on Senior Day, 20-17.

• Michigan State's schedule currently ranks tied for the most difficult in the FBS – along with Penn State – according to the NCAA (opponents with a .664 winning percentage; 73-37 record). The Spartans have played three AP Top-10 teams (No. 2 Ohio State, No. 3 Michigan, No. 4 Washington) and seven opponents have clinched postseason berths (Richmond, Washington, Maryland, Iowa, Rutgers, Michigan, Ohio State). Penn State will be MSU's fourth ranked opponent of the season, and five of MSU's opponents are currently in the College Football Playoff rankings (Ohio State, Michigan, Washington, Penn State, Iowa).

• Secondary coach Harlon Barnett, who is in his 15th year overall on the Spartan coaching staff, was named acting head coach by MSU Vice President/Director of Athletics Alan Haller on Sunday, Sept. 10 and has since been appointed interim head coach. Barnett came back to East Lansing in 2020 after spending two seasons (2018-19) as the defensive coordinator at Florida State. He previously spent 11 seasons (2007-17) as the secondary coach at Michigan State, including three seasons as the co-defensive coordinator (2015-17) and one as the associate head coach (2017), before departing for FSU. Barnett has coached in four New Year's Six/BCS bowl games with the Spartans (2014 Rose, 2014 Cotton, 2015 CFP Semifinal, 2021 Peach) and has been on staff for three Big Ten Championship teams (2010, 2013, 2015). Barnett recorded his first victory as head coach of the Spartans with a 20-17 win over Nebraska on Nov. 4 in East Lansing.

• Michigan State has nine players from Detroit on its roster (OT Brandon Baldwin, WR Sebastian Brown, DB Dorian Davis, WR Antonio Gates Jr., DT Derrick Harmon, RB Jaren Mangham, RB Davion Primm, S Armorion Smith, DE Jalen Thompson). A total of 28 players on MSU's roster are either from Detroit or the Metro Detroit area.

• Michigan State had two players recognized by the Big Ten Conference for their performances in the win at Indiana. Redshirt junior tight end Maliq Carr was named the Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week, while redshirt freshman quarterback Katin Houser was tabbed the Big Ten Freshman of the Week. Carr had a career-high seven catches for 119 yards, the most by a Spartan tight end since Dion Sims had 122 vs. Eastern Michigan in 2012, to go along with a career-high two touchdowns. He opened the game on MSU's first series with a 17-yard TD catch in the corner of the end zone. Down 21-17 with 4:06 remaining, the Spartans marched down the field 75 yards for the game-winning touchdown drive. Houser connected on a 36-yard TD pass to Carr with just 1:19 left on the clock to put MSU on top, 24-21. Carr caught the ball inside the 15-yard line, absorbed a big hit, then raced into the end zone for the game-winning score. Houser finished his best game as a Spartan with 279 passing yards while completing 25-of-39 throws for three touchdowns. He also connected on a 29-yard TD to Montorie Foster Jr. in the second quarter.

▶ OFFENSE

• The Spartans' 279 passing yards were their most in a Big Ten game (previous: 274 in the league opener vs. Maryland on Sept. 23).

Duplain's 41st straight start not only leads all active Spartans, but moved him up to tie for No. 4 on MSU's career consecutive starts list, matching Shilique Calhoun (2012-15) . . . Duplain has the second-most consecutive starts by an offensive player in program history, behind school record co-holder Shane Hannah (1991-94) with 44, tying linebacker Dan Bass (1976-79).

• The 46 overall career starts also has Duplain at No. 2 on MSU's most starts by an offensive lineman list, trailing only Joel Foreman (2008-11) with 49 total starts.

• Redshirt freshman Katin Houser made his sixth straight start, finishing with career highs for completions, attempts, yards and touchdowns, going 25-of-39 passing for 279 yards and three TDs . . . • Carr's 100-yard receiving outing is MSU's first 100-yard receiving game of the season, and first since last year's meeting with Indiana (11/22/22), with Keon Coleman snaring eight receptions for 107 yards . . . it's the most receiving yards by a Spartan tight end since Dion Sims had 122 vs. Eastern Michigan in 2012.

• The two TD catches by Carr is the most by a Spartan receiver in a game this season.

▶ MSU/PENN STATE SERIES NOTES

• Friday's game marks the 38th meeting between Michigan State and Penn State. The Spartans have won six of the last 10 meetings against the Nittany Lions and the all-time series is tied, 18-18-1. This marks the first-ever neutral site game between the two schools.

• Since the renewal of the series in 1993, the winner of the Michigan State-Penn State game has been presented the Land-Grant Trophy. The trophy honors the two universities' unique places in history as the two pioneer land-grant schools in the nation. Each institution was founded in 1855: Michigan State on Feb. 12 and Penn State on Feb. 22. The schools were the prototypes after which the land-grant system was patterned. Since 1993, Penn State leads the series, 17-10, but the Spartans have won six of the last 10.

• Barnett came back to East Lansing in 2020 after spending two seasons (2018-19) as the defensive coordinator at Florida State. He previously spent 11 seasons (2007-17) as the secondary coach at Michigan State, including three seasons as the co-defensive coordinator (2015-17) and one as the associate head coach (2017), before departing for FSU. Barnett has coached in four New Year's Six/BCS bowl games with the Spartans (2014 Rose, 2014 Cotton, 2015 CFP Semifinal, 2021 Peach) and has been on staff for three Big Ten Championship teams (2010, 2013, 2015).

In 2015, Michigan State became just the sixth school to have cornerbacks selected in the first round of the NFL Draft in consecutive years, joining Alabama (2012-13), LSU (2011-12), Miami-Florida (2005-06), Ohio State (1999-2001) and Notre Dame (1993-94). In addition to Dennard and Waynes, Jeremy Ware (2010, Oakland, seventh round), Chris L. • In addition to the four All-Americans, Barnett has coached three Thorpe Award semifinalists (Dennard, Waynes, Otis Wiley) at MSU. A unanimous All-American, Dennard became the first Spartan to win the Thorpe Award, given to the nation's best defensive back, in 2013.

• Barnett's players have earned All-Big Ten honors 31 times as secondary coach at MSU, including nine different first-team players (Wiley in 2008; Robinson in 2011; CB Johnny Adams in 2011-12; Dennard in 2011-12, S Isaiah Lewis in 2013; Drummond in 2013-14; Waynes in 2014; S David Dowell in 2017; Brown in 2020). All four of MSU's starters in the secondary garnered All-Big Ten recognition during the 2010, 2011 and 2013 seasons, and Barnett has coached two Big Ten Defensive Backs of the Year (Dennard in 2013, Drummond in 2014).

• A native of Cincinnati, Barnett was a three-year starter and a four-year letterwinner for Coach George Perles at Michigan State (1986-89). He was a member of the 1987 Big Ten and 1988 Rose Bowl championship team that went 9-2-1 overall and finished eighth in the final polls. Barnett, who also played in the 1989 Gator Bowl and the 1989 Aloha Bowl during his time as a Spartan player, earned first-team All-America recognition by The Sporting News as a senior in 1989. He was a primary reason that the Green and White ranked No. 1 in the Big Ten and No. 11 nationally in both rushing defense (95.4 ypg.) and total defense (280.5 ypg.). He finished his career with 154 tackles, six interceptions and 13 pass break-ups. Barnett is the fourth former Spartan player to lead his team as head coach (George Gauthier, 1918; Frank "Muddy" Waters, 1980-82; George Perles, 1983-94).

• Haller also announced on Sept. 10 that former MSU head coach Mark Dantonio, the winningest head coach in school history, will return to the Spartan staff as an associate head coach. Dantonio will serve as an advisor to Barnett and the coaching staff on game days and throughout the week at practice and in meetings. After a storied 13 seasons as head coach of the Michigan State football program, Dantonio announced his retirement on Feb. 4, 2020. He finished his career with a record of 114-57 in East Lansing, 132-74 in 16 seasons overall. During his time at the helm of the Spartan program, Dantonio compiled an impressive list of accomplishments including three Big Ten Championships, two victories in the Big Ten Championship Game, victories in the 2014 Rose Bowl and the 2015 Cotton Bowl, and an appearance in the 2015 College Football Playoff, finishing his career as the winningest football coach in Michigan State history.

• Michigan State has two new assistant coaches for the 2023 season. Diron Reynolds joined the Spartan staff in January as the program's defensive line coach. Reynolds, who has more than 25 years of coaching experience both at the NFL and Power 5 levels, previously spent the past seven seasons (2016-22) as the defensive line coach at Stanford. He has coached on multiple championship teams, including winning a Super Bowl ring with the Colts, and has worked with numerous All-Americans, NFL Draft picks and All-Pro players. During his time at Stanford, Reynolds coached four NFL Draft picks on the defensive line, including Solomon Thomas, who was the highest defensive player drafted in school history at No. 3 overall in 2017 by the San Francisco 49ers.

• Jim Salgado was named the program's cornerbacks coach on March 16. Salgado, who has nearly 30 years of coaching experience, spent the past six seasons with the Buffalo Bills (2017-22). He arrived in Buffalo in 2017 and spent his first three seasons as a defensive assistant. Salgado was promoted to nickelbacks coach in 2020 and was the team's safeties coach in 2022. While he was in Buffalo, Salgado coached multiple Pro Bowl players as the Bills won three consecutive AFC East titles (2020-22). The Bills' defense regularly finished among the best in the NFL during his tenure, ranking second in total defense in 2018, third in 2019, No. 1 in 2021 and No. 6 in 2022. In addition, the Bills were the top-ranked pass defense in the NFL in 2021 and ranked third in the league with 19 interceptions. Prior to coaching in the NFL, Salgado spent 23 seasons in the collegiate ranks.

• Chris Kapilovic, who enters his fourth season as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator at Michigan State, was promoted to assistant head coach in January 2021. Kapilovic, 54, joined MSU's staff in East Lansing in February 2020 after spending the 2019 season as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator in Colorado. Kapilovic has more than 30 years of coaching experience, including roles as an offensive coordinator and/or run game coordinator at Southern Mississippi (2008-11), North Carolina (2012-18) and Colorado (2019). He has coached multiple NFL players, first-round draft picks and record-setting offenses during his career. In 2021, the Spartan offensive line was named one of 13 semifinalists for the Joe Moore Award, which is given annually to the nation's top offensive line.

• Jay Johnson, a 2021 Broyles Award nominee for the nation's top assistant coach, begins his fourth season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Michigan State. Johnson, 53, is a veteran coach and administrator of 28 seasons, including 13 as an offensive coordinator at five FBS schools (Michigan State, Colorado, Minnesota, Louisiana, Southern Mississippi) in addition to coaching quarterbacks, running backs and tight ends as a position coach. Johnson arrived to East Lansing after serving as the offensive coordinator at Colorado for one season (2019).

• A 27-year coaching veteran with stints at all levels of collegiate football and the NFL, Scottie Hazelton is in his fourth season as the Secchia Family Defensive Coordinator. Hazelton arrived in East Lansing after spending one season as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Kansas State in 2019. He also serves as the program's linebackers coach.

• Ted Gilmore coaches the tight ends for the Spartans. Gilmore, who has coached 28 years, has experience at the FBS and NFL ranks and has developed numerous NFL players, draft picks and All-Americans during his career. He was named the 2011 FootballScoop Wide Receivers Coach of the Year after mentoring consensus All-American Robert Woods and 2011 Freshman All-American Marqise Lee at USC. Gilmore, 56, previously spent five seasons (2015-19) as the wide receivers coach at Wisconsin.

• Former Spartan great Courtney Hawkins is in his fourth season as the wide receivers coach. Hawkins helped develop back-to-back NFL Draft selections the past two years in Jalen Nailor (2022, sixth round, Minnesota Vikings) and Jayden Reed (2023, second round, Green Bay Packers).

• With more than three decades of coaching experience, Ross Els is in his fourth season as the program's special teams coordinator. In addition, after coaching the linebackers his first two seasons in East Lansing, Els helped assist the nickelbacks in 2022. Els, 56, has previous experience in the Big Ten, serving as the defensive coordinator at Purdue in 2016 and four seasons at Nebraska under Coach Bo Pelini from 2011-14.

• Effrem Reed, who served as an offensive analyst in 2020-21, was promoted to running backs coach in January 2022 and returns for his second season on the full-time offensive staff.

• Defensive analyst TJ Hollowell was designated as MSU's 10th on-field assistant coach on Sept. 15. ▶ SENIORS TRE MOSLEY AND MONTORIE FOSTER LEAD YOUNG WIDE RECEIVER ROOM
• Michigan State has a group of talented young wide receivers that have had increased roles in the offense in 2023, but the unit is led by fifth-year graduate senior Tre Mosley, who has played in 44 career games, including 28 starting assignments, over the past five seasons (2019-23). Mosley has given the Spartans steady production over the course of his time in East Lansing with 126 career receptions for 1,464 yards and 10 touchdowns in his career. He ranks among MSU's all-time leaders in catches (tied for 17th with 126), TD receptions (tied for 25th with 10) and receiving yards (28th with 1,464). Mosley had caught at least one pass in 25 consecutive games, but he has missed the last three games with an injury.

• In addition to his play on the field, Mosley's leadership will be counted on to mentor the wide receiver room. He is also nominated for the AFCA Good Works Team and the Wuerffel Trophy for his work in the community.

• Mosley currently ranks second on the Spartans with 28 catches for 288 yards and two TDs.

• Senior Montorie Foster Jr. has had his best year as a Spartan, posting career highs in catches (41), receiving yards (538) and TD receptions (3). Foster had a career-high eight receptions for 79 yards at Iowa, and had a career-best 94 receiving yards on four receptions on Senior Day vs. Nebraska on Nov. 4.

• In the win at Indiana on Nov. 18, Foster had a highlight reel one-handed catch in the middle of the field at the IU 22-yard line, then spun around a defender and raced into the end zone to put the Spartans on top, 14-7, at the 1:10 mark in the second quarter. The catch was named the No. 1 play of the week by the Big Ten Conference. Foster had seven catches for 94 yards overall agains the Hoosiers.

• A three-year letterwinner, Foster has played in 41 career games and has 60 receptions for 802 yards and five TDs.

• Two-year letterwinner Christian Fitzpatrick (R-Jr.), who missed the final seven games of last season due to an injury, is back this season for MSU. After playing in a reserve role the past two seasons, Fitzpatrick, a former Louisville transfer, has contributed more to the offense in his third season at MSU. Fitzpatrick has a career-high 16 catches for 237 yards (14.8 avg.) and one TD, including a 72-yarder in the season opener vs. Central Michigan and a 61-yarder in Week 3 vs. Washington.

▶ TRIO OF YOUNG RECEIVERS PROVIDING PRODUCTION FOR MSU
• Sophomore Tyrell Henry, who earned a letter as a true freshman returning kicks in 2022, has had an expanded role in the offense this fall, along with redshirt freshmen Antonio Gates Jr. and Jaron Glover. The young trio all showed promising signs during spring practice and continued to work on their development in preseason camp heading into the season.

• Henry has 23 catches for 194 yards and a team-leading three touchdowns, including a leaping one-handed TD grab vs. Central Michigan in Week 1 that was named the No. 3 play of the day on ESPN's SportsCenter. He also has 12 punt returns for 88 yards (7.3 avg.) and 10 kick returns for 167 yards (16.7 avg.). He ranks third on the team in all-purpose yards (43.5 ypg; 435 yards).

• In his first career start against Nebraska on Nov. 4 with Tre Mosley out of the lineup, Henry responded with a career-high four catches for 52 yards; he had 73 all-purpose yards in the game, second most on the team (54 receiving, 11 kick return, 8 punt return).

• Glover is averaging 18.6 yards per catch with 14 receptions for 261 yards in eight games (did not play vs. Michigan due to sickness; missed last two weeks with an injury). He has had six catches of 20-plus yards.

• Gates caught his first collegiate pass for a 45-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter against Richmond. For the season, he has five catches for 82 yards (16.4 avg.).

He posted career highs in catches (16) and yards (191) last season while playing in all 12 games, including 10 starts. His speed and versatility will give the Spartans another option in the passing game in 2023. For the season, he has eight carries for 15 yards and three catches for 27 yards; he also threw a 42-yard pass to Montorie Foster Jr. against Nebraska.

▶ J.D. DUPLAIN, NICK SAMAC BRING FIVE YEARS OF STARTING EXPERIENCE TO O-LINE
- Michigan State returned five players with starting experience on the offensive line this season, led by multi-year fifth-year senior starters J.D. Duplain and Nick Samac, who are both using their extra year of eligibility in 2023.

- Michigan State has used a total of five different starting combinations on the offensive line in 11 games this season.

- Duplain, a native of Strongsville, Ohio, has started 41 consecutive games at left guard, the second-longest streak by an offensive lineman in school history (Shane Hannah with 44 from 1991-94). Duplain's 46 starts overall are also second most in MSU history by an offensive lineman (record: Joel Foreman with 49 from 2008-11). The four-year letterwinner has played in a total of 52 career games for the Spartans from 2019-23; he started five games as a true freshman in 2019, then five more during the pandemic-shortened 2020 season. Duplain started all 13 games in 2021 and all 12 in 2022. He has earned honorable mention All-Big Ten accolades the past two seasons. Duplain's starting streak dates back to Nov. 7, 2020, at Iowa.

- Samac, who was named to the Rimington Trophy Watch List, started all 12 games at center last fall and has 32 starts overall in his career while playing in a total 49 games the past five seasons (2019-23). He played a career-high 803 snaps in 2022, most on the Spartan offense, and earned honorable mention All-Big Ten by the coaches and media. Unfortunately, Samac suffered a season-ending injury in the first half at Indiana. Redshirt junior Dallas Fincher, who started the season opener at center, took over for Samac last week.

- Graduate fifth-year senior Spencer Brown started all 12 games last season at right tackle and started 20 consecutive games at the position before sitting out the first half at Minnesota on Oct. 28. He started his first career game at left tackle vs. Nebraska with Brandon Baldwin out due to an injury, and was also the starting left tackle last week at Ohio State. Brown returned to his starting right tackle position last week at Indiana.

- Redshirt junior Brandon Baldwin took over the starting role at left tackle the final four games of the 2022 season and gained valuable experience while playing a total of 405 offensive snaps. It was Baldwin's first season playing at the FBS level after redshirting in 2021 following two years at Independence Community College. He started at left tackle in the first eight games to run his streak to 12 straight starts at the position before missing the last two games due to an injury; he returned to the starting lineup at Indiana.

- Redshirt sophomore Geno VanDeMark earned starting assignments at right guard the last two games of the 2022 season and has an increased role on the offensive line heading in his third season in East Lansing. He started the three games at right guard this season before missing two games with an injury (Maryland, Iowa). He returned to play 33 snaps at Rutgers on Oct. 14 and was back in the starting lineup at right guard vs. Michigan on Oct. 21; however, he did not play at Minnesota on Oct. 28. VanDeMark again returned to the starting lineup in the win over Nebraska on Nov. 4 and also started at Ohio State, but missed the game at Indiana.

• Redshirt sophomores Ethan Boyd and Kevin Wigenton II also earned their first letters as Spartans last year and have seen increased time in the playing rotation. Wigenton earned starts in three straight games at right guard (vs. Maryland, Iowa and Rutgers) with VanDeMark sidelined and has five starts overall, while Boyd has seen his snap count increase at right tackle throughout the season. Boyd earned his first career start on Oct. 28 at Minnesota and started three consecutive games at right tackle.

• Assistant head coach Chris Kapilovic is in his fourth season as MSU's offensive line coach and run game coordinator. Kapilovic's unit in 2021 was named a semifinalist for the Joe Moore Award, which is given annually to the nation's best offensive line.

• True freshman Brennan Parachek, a four-star recruit from Dexter High School, has seen his playing time increase the second half of the season. He has six catches for 55 yards, all coming in a four-week span (vs. Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, Ohio State), but missed last week's game with an injury.

SPARTAN FOOTBALL PROGRAM NOTES

► PRODUCTIVE BYE WEEK FOR SPARTANS
• For the second consecutive year, Michigan State spent its bye week sending players to various locations throughout the Lansing community. This year, players spent time at the Ronald McDonald House and also visited Sparrow Hospital. Inspired by the family of former Spartan Todd (T.J.) Duckett, who stayed at RMHC Ann Arbor while their son was hospitalized, Battle for the Houses was a friendly competition to build awareness and raise funds for RMHC Ann Arbor and RMHC Mid-Michigan.

► SPARTANS UNVEIL NEW NIKE UNIFORM DESIGN FOR 2023
• The Michigan State football program has unveiled new uniforms, designed by Nike, for the 2023 season. Members of the 2023 team received the first glimpse of the new uniforms, along with new helmets, at a program event – "Thy Shadows" – Friday, July 28 at the Pasant Theatre inside the Wharton Center on campus.

• The uniforms are part of the Field Utility Special Edition by Nike Vapor F.U.S.E., which combines leading edge fabric technology with a precision fit. It is the first football uniform to meet Nike Dri-FIT standards.

• The new helmet design features the "Spartan Pattern" down the middle while keeping the traditional Spartan logo on the sides. The Spartan Pattern, which was inspired by a traditional Greek key pattern, was designed in 2010 to strengthen the connection to the school's Greek history and nickname.

• The Green and White uniforms also feature the Spartan Pattern along the neckline and on the shoulder pads, while keeping the primary "Michigan State" wordmark across the front which has been used since 2010. The Spartan Pattern is also used down the side of the pants.

• MSU introduced the "Shadows" uniform as well over the summer, featuring a black chrome helmet along with black jerseys and pants. The numerals are in white, outlined by green, and feature the green Spartan Pattern along the neckline, shoulder pads and pants. Michigan State wore the uniforms for the first time on Oct. 21 for the Michigan game.

► MICHIGAN STATE CELEBRATING 100TH ANNIVERSARY OF SPARTAN STADIUM IN 2023
• This season marks the 100th anniversary of Spartan Stadium, which hosted its first game on Oct. 6, 1923. Michigan State Athletics will commemorate the 100th anniversary of Spartan Stadium throughout the fall. For more information, please visit msuspartans.com/SpartanStadium100.

• A special logo was created for the 100-year anniversary, which incorporates elements from the structure of Spartan Stadium and also pays homage to MSU's six national championships in football.

• Michigan State began playing at the present site of Spartan Stadium with four home games in 1923. A series of projects paralleling the Spartans' rise to national football prominence enlarged the steel-and-concrete facility from its original 13,064 seats in 1923 to its present size of nearly 75,000.

• MSU has won nearly 70 percent of its games played in Spartan Stadium (all-time record: 386-169-13, .690).

► MICHIGAN STATE ONE OF THE WINNINGEST FBS PROGRAMS IN HISTORY
• Michigan State is one of 34 programs in the FBS to win more than 700 games. The Spartans currently rank No. 27 all-time with 730 victories (all-time record: 730-486-44, .597). Michigan State is in its 127th season of football in 2023.

► ALL IN THE FAMILY
• Michigan State has a deep family legacy on the 2023 roster, from siblings to fathers to relatives. In fact, four players and two staff members have direct family connections who played Spartan football, or are alumni of the program.

Legacy: Charles Brantley (cousin Herb Haygood); Dallas Fincher (father Mark); Darius Snow (uncle Percy), Geno VanDeMark (grandfather Allan).

Siblings: Jaren/Jaden Mangham

Alumni: DB coach Harlon Barnett (CB from 1986-89), WR coach Courtney Hawkins (WR from 1988-91)

IOWA CITY, Iowa -- The Michigan State football team fell at Iowa under the lights, 26-16, before a crowd of 69,250 at Kinnick Stadium. The Spartans held a 16-13 lead after three quarters, but the Hawkeyes rallied to score 13 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to earn the comeback win.

MSU outgained Iowa, 349-222, and held advantages in first downs (20-15), rushing yards (156-61) and passing yards (193-161), but turned the ball over four times.

With the score tied at 16, Iowa's Cooper DeJean ran a punt back 70 yards for a touchdown with just 3:45 remaining to give the Hawkeyes the lead for good. Iowa added a late field goal with under a minute left to make the final 26-16.

Redshirt sophomore running back Nate Carter recorded his third 100-yard game of the season with 108 yards on a season-high 20 carries. In the passing game, Montorie Foster Jr. hauled in a career-best eight receptions for 79 yards, while tight end Maliq Carr had six catches for 43 yards in the first half alone before leaving the game with an injury.

Redshirt junior Noah Kim was 25-of-44 passing for 193 yards, but threw three interceptions.

Jonathan Kim made a career-high three field goals, including a Kinnick Stadium record with his 58-yarder as time expired in the first half. He also connected on a 31 and 32-yarder in the first half, although his fourth attempt, a 50-yarder, hit the uprights and missed in the third quarter.

Malik Spencer and Cal Haladay led the Spartans with eight tackles apiece.

Iowa opened the game with a field-goal drive, but the Spartans answered with their own field goal at the 3:48 mark in the first quarter to tie the game at 3 as Kim drilled a 31-yard attempt.

Kim made his second field goal of the half, this time from 32 yards out, with 11:04 left in the second quarter to put Michigan State on top, 6-3.

On their fourth series of the half, the Spartans drove the ball to the Iowa 20-yard line, but Kim's pass on first-and-10 was intercepted in the end zone. The Hawkeyes took advantage of the turnover and went on a five-play, 80-yard touchdown drive in just 2:16, capped by Deacon Hill's 13-yard pass to Erick All, to go back on top, 10-6.

Kim closed the first half with a 58-yard field goal as time expired, which was the longest in Kinnick Stadium history and the fourth-longest in school history, to trim the deficit to 10-9.

The Spartans threw an interception on their first series of the second half, but on the very next play, Tunmise Adeleye forced a fumble on Iowa running back Leshon Williams, and Haladay picked up the ball and ran 42 yards for the touchdown to make it 16-10 in favor of MSU. It marked the third career defensive TD for Haladay, which ties a school record.

Michigan State recorded its second turnover of the third quarter on Angelo Grose's interception, but the Spartans didn't get a first down on the ensuing series after getting stopped on fourth-and-1 from the Iowa 30-yard line. MSU's defense stepped up and didn't allow a Hawkeye first down on the ensuing series, but Iowa's Drew Stevens did kick a 53-yard field goal to trim the Spartan lead to 16-13 midway through the quarter.

The Hawkeyes tied it at 16 with 5:19 left in the fourth quarter before taking the lead on the 70-yard punt return for a score by DeJean.

Graduate senior placekicker Jonathan Kim made a 58-yard field goal as time expired in the first half, setting a new Kinnick Stadium record.

PISCATAWAY, N.J. -- The Michigan State football team took a 24-6 lead into the fourth quarter, but Rutgers scored 21 unanswered points to rally for the 27-24 victory over the Spartans on the afternoon of Oct. 14 at SHI Stadium.

Making his first career start at quarterback, redshirt freshman Katin Houser was 18-of-29 passing for 133 yards and two touchdowns. Graduate senior Tre Mosley caught a team-high six passes for 36 yards, including a 4-yard touchdown in the third quarter, while senior Montorie Foster Jr. had five receptions for 48 yards. Redshirt sophomore Nate Carter led the Spartans on the ground with 52 yards on 20 carries, while redshirt junior Jalen Berger had a season-high 49 yards on 11 carries.

Defensively, redshirt junior linebacker Cal Haladay posted a team-best eight tackles, including an 11-yard sack. Jaden Mangham recorded his second interception of the season, while Chance Rucker picked off his first career pass

The Spartans (2-4, 0-3 Big Ten) scored a touchdown on their opening drive for the first time this season, driving 75 yards on 14 plays over a span of 7:28, capped by a 13-yard pass from Houser to Foster.

Rutgers (5-2, 2-2 Big Ten) responded with a 22-yard field goal by Jai Patel on its opening drive to make it 7-3 in favor of MSU with 2:52 left in the first quarter. The Scarlet Knights added another field goal, this time from 47 yards out by Patel, on its second drive to trim MSU's lead to 7-6 early in the second quarter.

Michigan State took advantage of three Rutgers turnovers in the second quarter to take a 17-6 lead into halftime. Although the Spartans couldn't capitalize on Rucker's first career interception and were forced to punt, Rutgers' Rashad Rochelle fumbled the punt return at the Scarlet Knights' 12-yard line. On the next play, Houser raced up the middle 12 yards for the touchdown to make it 14-6 with 1:46 left in the first half.

Rutgers quarterback Gavin Wimsatt threw another interception on his next series as Jaden Mangham recorded his second interception of the season. The Spartans then went on a 10-play, 50-yard drive right before the half, finished off by a 37-yard field goal by Jonathan Kim.

MSU had a strong start to the second half, forcing a Rutgers punt on its first series, followed by a 14-play, 80-yard touchdown drive to give the Spartans a 24-6 lead at the 3:41 mark in the third quarter. Houser closed the drive with a 4-yard TD pass to Mosley.

But Rutgers took advantage of Michigan State miscues in the fourth quarter to outscore the Spartans 21-0 in the final 15 minutes.

Rutgers first capitalized to start the fourth quarter as a fumbled snap on a Spartan punt in the end zone led to a Scarlet Knights touchdown, cutting the MSU lead to 24-13. After forcing a Spartan punt, Rutgers went down the field 73 yards on 12 snaps in just 3:45 to score its first offensive touchdown of the afternoon; it added a 2-point conversion to trim the Spartan advantage to 24-21 with 8:30 left in the game.

Rutgers recovered the ensuing kickoff on a short kick to the MSU 21-yard line, and on the next play, Kyle Monangai raced 21 yards into the end zone to give Rutgers its first lead of the game, 27-24, with 7:05 remaining. The Scarlet Knights failed on the 2-point attempt to keep the lead within three points, but the Spartans were forced to punt on their next possession, and Rutgers ran out the clock with four first downs to seal the comeback win.

Redshirt freshman quarterback Katin Houser made the first start of his Spartan career and his fifth appearance this season. Houser completed his first four passes on the way to finishing the day 18-of-29 passing for 133 yards and two touchdowns. Houser threw his first career TD pass on MSU's opening drive with a 13-yard scoring pass to senior wide receiver Montorie Foster Jr. He also rushed for a 12-yard rushing TD in the second quarter part of eight carries for 21 yards. The rushing score was Houser's second rushing TD of the season, joining a 4-yard run vs. Washington.

MINNEAPOLIS -- The Michigan State football team fell at Minnesota, 27-12, before a crowd of 47,392 at Huntington Bank Stadium on the afternoon of Oct. 28.

The Spartan defense caused three turnovers, but Minnesota outgained MSU, 400-299, including a 200-109 advantage on the ground, and held the ball for 36 minutes and 15 seconds en route to the victory.

Redshirt freshman Katin Houser started his third career game at quarterback for the Spartans and was 12-of-22 passing for 117 yards. True freshman Sam Leavitt played all three series in the fourth quarter and engineered an eight-play, 75-yard touchdown drive on his first series. He finished the game 8-of-12 passing for 73 yards but did commit two turnovers, a fumble and an interception, on the last two drives of the game.

Leavitt was MSU's leading rusher in the game with 52 yards on six carries, while redshirt sophomore Nathan Carter had 11 carries for 44 yards; Carter also had five catches for 9 yards to finish with 53 all-purpose yards.

Michigan State (2-6, 0-5 Big Ten) took advantage of two early Minnesota turnovers to take a 6-0 lead in the first quarter. Derrick Harmon forced a Gopher fumble on the second play of the game that was recovered by Jaden Mangham at the Minnesota 26-yard line, but the Spartans couldn't convert a first down on its first offensive series, leading to a 38-yard field goal by Jonathan Kim.

Minnesota turned the ball over again on its second series, this time with a forced fumble and a sack by Hall that was recovered by Avery Dunn on the Minnesota 33. MSU capitalized on the turnover with Kim's 42-yard field goal to make it 6-0 at the 9:49 mark in the opening quarter.

The Gophers threatened to score midway through the second quarter, but Simeon Barrow Jr. blocked Dragon Kesich's 35-yard field goal to keep Minnesota off the scoreboard.

Minnesota did score on its next two possessions, however, with a 25-yard field goal by Kesich at the 4:54 mark and a 22-yard touchdown pass from Athan Kaliakmanis to Daniel Jackson with 19 seconds left in the half to go up 10-6 at the break.

Neither team scored in the third quarter, but Minnesota drove 87 yards on nine plays, capped by an 18-yard TD run by Nubin, to take a 17-6 lead with 12:07 left in the game.

Leavitt entered the game following the Gophers' touchdown, and promptly led the Spartans on an eight-play, 75-yard touchdown drive in 3:30 to cut the deficit to 17-12 with a 9-yard TD pass to Tyrell Henry, but MSU did not convert the 2-point attempt.

Michigan State tried an onside kick after the touchdown drive, but Minnesota recovered and then answered with a seven-play, 46-yard touchdown drive to go up 24-12 with 4:11 left in the game.

Leavitt then fumbled on his second series, and the Gophers capitalized with a 31-yard field goal by Kesich to make the final 27-12.

Freshman quarterback Sam Leavitt threw the first TD pass of his Spartan career, hitting sophomore wide receiver Tyrell Henry for a 9-yard TD in the fourth quarter. Leavitt ended the game 8-of-12 passing for 73 yards with one TD and one INT, recording season highs for completions, attempts, yards and TD. Leavitt also rushed six times for 52 yards with a long of 22-yards, MSU's longest rush of the day. The six rushes and 52 yards were also new season bests for the freshman QB.

EAST LANSING, Mich. -- Freshman quarterback Sam Leavitt threw a 25-yard touchdown pass to Montorie Foster Jr. early in the fourth quarter and Michigan State held on to beat Nebraska, 20-17, on Senior Day at Spartan Stadium on the afternoon of Nov. 4.

Redshirt freshman quarterback Katin Houser, who started his fourth straight game, completed 13-of-20 passes for 165 yards and one touchdown, while Foster caught four passes for 94 yards and one score and Jonathan Kim kicked a pair of field goals (35 and 50 yards). Leavitt, who played two series in the game, also had a 7-yard run for a first down on his touchdown series in the fourth quarter; he finished 1-of-2 passing for 25 yards.

Defensively, Michigan State forced three turnovers (two interceptions and one fumble) and tied a season high with seven sacks and had 12 tackles for loss.

Sophomore safety Jaden Mangham led the Spartans with seven tackles, including one for loss, one pass breakup and his team-leading fourth interception of the year. Sixth-year senior linebacker Aaron Brule also had seven tackles, including one for loss and a sack. Sophomore cornerback Dillon Tatum added six tackles, including two for loss and a pair of pass breakups, redshirt junior linebacker Cal Haladay had six tackles and a fumble recovery, and freshman linebacker Jordan Hall had six tackles and one pass breakup. Making his first career start, freshman defensive end Jalen Thompson had five tackles, with two sacks, one forced fumble and one quarterback hurry.

Michigan State took an early 3-0 lead after driving 71 yards on eight plays on its opening possession, keyed by a 46-yard completion from Houser to Jaylan Franklin. Kim finished off the drive with a 35-yard field goal.

On its third series, Nebraska took a 7-3 lead on a 5-yard touchdown run by quarterback Heinrich Haarberg that capped a 10-play, 59-yard drive at the 12:40 mark in the second quarter.

The Spartans answered right back on their next series, driving 75 yards on just six plays, to regain the lead, 10-7. On a trick play, wide receiver Alante Brown caught a lateral and threw a 42-yard pass to Foster that put MSU in the red zone, and Houser then delivered an 11-yard touchdown to Christian Fitzpatrick for his first career score as a Spartan.

Nebraska tied the game at 10 right before halftime on a 24-yard field goal by Tristan Alvano.

After forcing a Husker punt to start the third quarter, the Spartans scored on their first series of the second half as Kim kicked a 50-yard field goal with 5:11 left in the third quarter, putting MSU back on top, 13-10.

On their first series of the fourth quarter, the Spartans added to their lead on Leavitt's 25-yard touchdown pass to Foster to make it 20-10 in favor of MSU with 12:13 left in the game.

Nebraska cut into the MSU lead late in the fourth quarter, with a 43-yard run from Haarberg setting up a 4-yard touchdown run by Emmett Johnson with 3:35 left in the game.

After the Spartans punted, Nebraska started a drive on its own 22-yard line with 2:32 to play. Haarberg was sacked by Thompson and a fumble was recovered by Haladay, but Kim missed a 44-yard field goal.

Nebraska had one last chance, getting the ball back with 43 seconds left on the clock with no timeouts on its own 27-yard line, but the Spartan defense forced a sack on the third play of the series for an 18-yard loss, and the Huskers' last pass fell incomplete on the final play of the game.

Before the game, MSU honored its 29 Spartan Seniors, who were playing their final home game at Spartan Stadium. Nov. 4 marks the earliest calendar date Michigan State has finished its home season since Oct. 27, 1900. Two of those 29 Spartan Seniors were offensive lineman Nick Samac (59) and wide receiver Montorie Foster Jr. (83). Foster had four catches for a career-high 94 yards with one TD catch in his final game in Spartan Stadium, while Samac helped block the way for MSU to combine to throw for 232 passing yards, the Spartans' second-most in a Big Ten game and the most overall since 274 vs. Maryland (9/23).

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. -- The Michigan State football team rallied in the fourth quarter to defeat Indiana, 24-21, on the afternoon of Nov. 18 at Memorial Stadium, reclaiming the Old Brass Spittoon from the Hoosiers.

Down 21-17 with 4:06 remaining, the Spartans marched down the field 75 yards for the game-winning touchdown drive. Redshirt freshman quarterback Katin Houser connected on a 36-yard TD pass to redshirt junior tight end Maliq Carr with just 1:19 left on the clock to put MSU on top, 24-21. Carr caught the ball inside the 15-yard line, absorbed a big hit, then raced into the end zone for the game-winning score.

Carr finished the game with a career-high seven catches for 119 yards and two touchdowns. He is the first Spartan tight end to record a 100-yard receiving game since Dion Sims in 2012 (122 vs. Eastern Michigan).

Houser also had his best game of the season, completing 25-of-39 passes for 279 yards and three TDs. Senior Montorie Foster Jr. had seven receptions for a career-high 94 yards, including a 29-yard TD catch in the second quarter.

Defensively, senior defensive back Angelo Grose and sophomore defensive back Malik Spencer both recorded 10 tackles to lead the Spartans.

Michigan State leads the all-time series against Indiana, 50-18-2, including a 24-10-1 record in Bloomington.

The Spartans scored a touchdown on their opening drive for the second time this season to take a quick 7-0 lead. MSU went 80 yards on eight plays, capped by a 17-yard TD pass from Houser to Carr.

Indiana tied the score at 7 on Trent Howland's 4-yard TD run at the 9:29 mark in the second quarter.

MSU regained the lead right before halftime as Foster had a highlight reel one-handed catch in the middle of the field at the IU 22-yard line, then spun around a defender and raced into the end zone to put the Spartans on top, 14-7, at the 1:10 mark.

Indiana took advantage of a 26-yard kickoff return on the ensuing series and attempted a 45-yard field goal with six seconds left in the first half, but Simeon Barrow Jr. blocked the kick, his second blocked field goal of the season to keep it 14-7 at the break.

The Hoosiers tied the game once again by driving 75 yards on eight plays, finished off with a 3-yard TD reception by James Bomba, on their first series of the second half.

Michigan State reclaimed the lead with 9:26 left in the game as Jonathan Kim booted a 43-yard field goal to make it 17-14, but Indiana went on an 11-play, 75-yard touchdown drive on its next series to take its first lead of the game, 21-17, with 4:06 left to play.

The Spartans then responded with their own touchdown drive, going 75 yards on eight plays, capped by Carr's 36-yard TD.

On the last possession of the game, Indiana drove the ball to the MSU 25-yard line, but had an intentional grounding penalty which forced a 48-yard field goal with eight seconds left, which Chris Freeman missed wide right.

Redshirt junior tight end Maliq Carr (6) snared a career-high two TD catches, and finished with seven catches for 119 yards, both career highs, and was named the Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week for his performance in the Victory for MSU over Indiana. Carr is the first Spartan tight end to record a 100-yard receiving game since Dion Sims in 2012
