JAVELINAS IN THE PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

GENE UPSHAW • CLASS OF 1987

"Running over those defensive backs is my biggest thrill in football and that's why I just love the sweep. If it was up to me we'd run it every play. I know football's a team game and I know I have to sacrifice and all, but I still wish we'd just run sweeps all day."

Eugene Thurman Upshaw, Jr. ... First who played guard exclusively to enter hall ... No. 1 Draft Pick, 1967 out of Texas A&I ... Won regular left guard job as rookie ... played in 307 games altogether ... Possessed size, speed, intelligence, intensity, exceptional leadership ability ... extremely effective leading sweeps ... Played in 10 AFL/AFC Title Games, three Super Bowls, seven Pro Bowls ... All-League seven years, Second Team All-NFL four other times ... Born August 15, 1945 in Robstown, Texas ... Died August 20, 2008, at the age of 63

Gene Upshaw was the Oakland Raiders' first-round choice in the first combined AFL-NFL draft in 1967. The 6-5, 255-pound lineman had played center, tackle, and end while winning NAIA All-America honors at Texas A&I.

The Raiders' coaching staff decided left guard would be Gene's best pro position and Upshaw won the starting job in his rookie training camp. Upshaw's size, it was felt, would help neutralize the effectiveness of Ernie Ladd and Buck Buchanan, two huge defensive tackles in Oakland's division.

Gene held the guard spot for the next 15 seasons, starting in 207 straight regular season games until finally being forced out of action for one game in 1981. Upshaw returned the next week to play 10 more games in what turned out to be his final season. He was scheduled to play again in 1982, but an injury in the summer season put him on the injured reserved list for the entire campaign.

Altogether Upshaw played in an incredible 307 pre-season, regular season, and post-season contests. Included in his 24 post-season games were three AFL and seven AFC championship games and Super Bowls II, XI and XV. Counting the AFL championship in 1967 and victories in Super Bowls XI and XV, Upshaw became the only player ever to start on championship teams in both the AFL and NFL.

Honors came frequently for Upshaw. He was named first- or second-team All-League or All-Conference 11 consecutive years, and he was named to play in seven Pro Bowls. Upshaw was an intense, intelligent, dedicated competitor who used his excellent size and speed to best advantage.

Extremely effective leading wide running plays; Gene was an integral part of the powerful offensive line that spawned the Raiders' lethal running attack of the 1970s. Recognized as a team leader, Upshaw captained the Raiders' offensive unit for eight seasons.

DARRELL GREEN - CLASS OF 2008

"I was born with a great measure of speed and talent...but I also was born with desire, the desire to go faster every year. I've set it as a personal goal and by preparing harder and setting my goals higher, I've achieved that."

Darrell Ray Green ... First Round pick by Washington, 28th overall, 1983, from Texas A&I ... Intercepted pass in NFL-record 19 straight seasons ... Known for great speed ... Intercepted 54 career passes for 621 yards, six touchdowns ... also returned 51 punts for 611 yards ... Holds team record for longest fumble return, 78 yards ... Named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s ... Selected to seven Pro Bowls ... Named All-Pro in 1986, 1987, 1990, and 1991 ... Born February 15, 1960, in Houston, Texas

Darrell Green, a first round draft pick (28th overall) by the Washington Redskins in the 1983 NFL Draft, enjoyed instant success in the NFL. As a rookie, he set the tone for things to come when he scored the very first time he touched the football. That touchdown came on a 61-yard punt return in a preseason game against the Atlanta Falcons. Green started all 16 regular season games during his rookie campaign and finished fourth on the team in tackles with 109 that included a team-leading 79 solo stops. He was runner-up for the Associated Press NFL Rookie of the Year Award.

Green quickly developed into a premier cornerback in the NFL and maintained his high standard of play throughout his remarkable 20-season career with the Redskins. Extremely durable, Green's consistent play was exemplified by his recording of an interception in a record 19 straight seasons. The only year where he did not record a pickoff came during his final season in 2002.

In all, Green totaled a club record 54 interceptions for 621 yards and six touchdowns. He also added two additional touchdowns on interception returns in the post-season. Three times he recorded a career-best of five interceptions in a season (1984, 1986, and 1991). He registered a career-high three interceptions in a game against the Detroit Lions on November 15, 1987.

Known for his speed, something he never lost even as he played into his 40s, Green also had success as a punt returner. He averaged nearly 12 yards a return as he recorded 51 career returns for 611 yards. In addition, he owns the team record for longest fumble return – a 78-yard TD against the Colts in 1993.

Green played in four NFC championship games and three Super Bowls including the team's victory in Super Bowls XXII and XXVI. In the 1987 NFC Championship Game, on a pivotal fourth-down pass play at the goal line late in the game, Green jarred the ball from Minnesota's Darrin Nelson to secure a Redskins 17-10 victory that catapulted the team into Super Bowl XXII.

Green was named All-Pro in 1986, 1987, 1990, and 1991 and voted to seven Pro Bowls. He is also a member of the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s.

JOHN RANDLE - CLASS OF 2010

"This is like being a kid, having fun and being animated. If I didn't do any of this, I would be too mechanical, too uptight. I want to be loose. I am at my best when I am rolling and throwing. I am different, but I am consistent."

John Anthony Randle ... Little All-American Pick as a senior at Texas A&I ... Signed by the Vikings as an Undrafted Free Agent ... Recorded 137.5 career sacks ... Had eight consecutive seasons (1992-99) with 10-plus sacks and a ninth in 2001 ... In 1997, had career-best and league-leading 15.5 sacks ... Named First-Team All-Pro/All-NFC six consecutive years (1993-98) and once All-AFC with Seahawks (2001) ... Named to seven Pro Bowls ... Born December 12, 1967, in Hearne, Texas

John Randle, a Little All-America from Texas A&I, signed a contract as an undrafted free agent with the Minnesota Vikings in 1990. He played in all 16 games as a rookie before he earned a starting role at defensive tackle in his second season.

Injuries forced him out of the starting lineup for parts of the 1991 and 1992 seasons before embarking on an impressive streak of 176 consecutive games played and 133 straight starts with the Vikings. After joining the Seattle Seahawks as a free agent in 2001, he ran the string to 183 games and 140 starts before a knee injury forced him out of a game.

Randle showed signs of becoming one of the NFL's most dominant pass rushers during his second NFL season when he recorded 9.5 sacks. The following year he added 11.5 sacks which marked the first of eight straight seasons with double-digit sack totals.

In the 1993 season, Randle registered 12.5 sacks, amassed 59 tackles and forced three fumbles to earn All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl invitation for the first time. It began a string of six straight All-Pro and Pro Bowl seasons for Randle. He improved his sack total again in 1994 with a NFC-high 13.5 sacks. Randle recorded perhaps his finest season in 1997 when he led the NFL with 15.5 sacks and also had a career-high 71 tackles.

His single best performance came against the Green Bay Packers on September 22, 1996 when he had a career-high 3.5 sacks and forced two fumbles as the Vikings raced out to a 4-0 start on the season after defeating the Packers, 30-21. Randle was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his performance and then earned NFC Defensive Player of the Month.

In all, Randle amassed 137.5 sacks during his 14-season career. He led the Vikings in sacks nine times and the Seahawks twice. Thirty-five times he recorded multi-sack games including eight games with three or more sacks. Randle was elected to seven Pro Bowls (1994-99, 2002) and named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s.

The title years were 1959, 1969, 1970, 1974, 1975, and 1976. When he retired after the 1976 season his team had won 39 consecutive games. He took that team on tour.
