THE OPENING KICKOFF

• Houston Football begins its 78th season (1946-present) and first as a member of the Big 12 Conference when the Cougars host UTSA on Saturday at TDECU Stadium. The Cougars are 41-34-2 all-time in season openers including an 11-4 mark since 2008. The Cougars are 16-10-2 all-time against in-state programs in season openers.

• Houston's 98 victories since the start of the 2011 season are tied with TCU for the most in Texas among FBS programs. The Cougars' 80 wins over the last decade (2013-present) also matches the Horned Frogs for the top spot and is one more than Texas A&M (79), two more than Baylor (78) and 11 more than Texas (69).

• Houston is one of five schools nationally (Alabama, Air Force, Fresno State, Georgia) and the only program in Texas with 20+ wins and 2+ bowl wins over the last two seasons. Saturday's game features two of the Top 10 winningest teams over the last two seasons. UTSA's 23 wins rank fourth nationally while Houston's 20 wins rank tied for eighth.

• Houston is facing UTSA in the second consecutive season opening matchup between the teams. On Sept. 3, 2022, the programs delivered a game for the ages. Houston overcame a 14-point second half deficit and quarterback Clayton Tune leaped over a defender to score on a 13-yard run as the Cougars outlasted the Roadrunners, 37-35 in triple overtime.

• The 2023 season will be Head Coach Dana Holgorsen's 17th coaching in the Big 12 Conference. Holgorsen has coached four of the league's 14 schools, totaling a combined 74 Big 12 victories at West Virginia (2012-18), Oklahoma State (2010) and Texas Tech (2000-07), including a combined 18-9 conference record over his final three seasons with the Mountaineers.

• Excitement for the 2023 season has been palpable – to the tune of 26,000+ season tickets, a TDECU Stadium record – including 7,000 new season tickets. Houston's fundraising arm, Cougar Pride, has raised over $50 million for the Football Operations Center (FOC) which will break ground immediately following Houston's regular season home finale against Oklahoma State.

• The lone new face on Houston's 2023 coaching staff is Houston-area native Eman Naghavi (pronounced ee-MAHN nuh-GAH-vee) who joined the Cougars prior to the start of spring practice. Naghavi serves as Co-Offensive Coordinator/Run Game Coordinator and joined the program after directing Tulane's offensive line as part of the Green Wave's historic 2022 season which included an American Athletic Conference title and Cotton Bowl victory over No. 10 USC.

• Following the departure of Shannon Dawson for Miami (Fla.), the Cougars promoted Mike Burchett from Analyst to Quarterbacks Coach. Burchett spent the previous four seasons as an Offensive Analyst with the Cougars, helping Houston rack up nearly 20,000 yards of total offense. The Cougars' 106 passing touchdowns in that timeframe ranks 24th nationally.

• Houston has a history of early success in new leagues. Houston won three of four Southwest Conference Championships when it entered the league including capturing the 1976 title during its first year in the conference. The Cougars also won the Conference USA Championship during their inaugural 1996 season. Houston entered The American in 2013, going 17-7 in league play during its first three seasons including taking home the conference title during Year 3 as part of its magical 2015 season.

• Houston has scored in 283 consecutive games, a mark that ranks tied for the 11th longest active streak nationally. The streak, which began Sept. 30, 2000, is the 20th longest streak in FBS history. Houston has scored 10+ points in 111 consecutive games which ranks as the second-longest active streak nationally (Alabama, 158 games) and fifth-longest in FBS history.

TEAM NOTES

INSIDE THE SCHEDULE

• Houston's matchup against UTSA is the first of seven total games against in-state programs. The Cougars will play 10 games in the state of Texas – their most since 1990. UH's seven on-campus games are its most since 2015. The Cougars leave the state just twice, their fewest since playing as many out-of-state games in 1994, and will only fly three times (at Texas Tech, at Kansas State and at UCF).

• Saturday marks just the second time in the last eight years (2016-present) that Houston has opened its season at TDECU Stadium (2020 vs. Tulane). The Cougars have opened at NRG Stadium twice and on the road four times.

• Based on 2022 win-loss record, UH's schedule ranks tied for the sixth toughest nationally. Cougar opponents went 96-60 (61.5%) a season ago. The schedule is the toughest in the state of Texas and second toughest in the Big 12 [No. 3 West Virginia – 98-59 (62.4%)]. Ten of Houston's 12 opponents reached a bowl, eight were ranked in the AP poll and four reached their conference title game in 2022.

SINGLE DIGITS

• Each season, Houston Football players vote to determine who will wear, or retain, single-digit jersey numbers. Outside of being a team captain, those who wear single digits garner the highest respect from their teammates.

• Houston's 10 new single-digit honorees for the 2023 season include #0 Joseph Manjack IV (previously #18), #0 Sedrick Williams (previously #13), #1 Alex Hogan (previously #19), #1 Donovan Smith (transfer), #2 Matthew Golden (previously #10), #3 Lucas Coley (previously #12), #3 Jalen Emery (previously #32), #4 Samuel Brown (previously #13), #6 Noah Guzman (previously #16) and #8 Malik Robinson (previously #24).

ROSTER MAKEUP

• Houston's roster features 50 newcomers including 23 transfers. Approximately 25% of the Cougars' current roster has experience at a Power 5 program and 70% of its roster received at least one Power 5 offer.

• UH student-athletes have played 210 games at Big 12 programs, led by defensive lineman David Ugwoegbu (Oklahoma; 51 games), tight end Mike O'Laughlin (West Virginia; 31), running back Tony Mathis Jr. (West Virginia; 31) and quarterback Donovan Smith (Texas Tech; 21).

• UH has no shortage of experience on the offensive line. Houston o-linemen have played 192 collegiate games and made 145 starts. The 145 starts are the fifth-most nationally and most in the Big 12. The unit has played 9,981 Division I snaps on the line, led by Patrick Paul (2,190), Jack Freeman (1,919), Peyton Dunn (1,293), Tank Jenkins (1,192) and Max Banes (1,155).

TALKING SEASON

• Several Houston student-athletes earned preseason praise (full list: Page 14) including five Pro Football Focus All-Big 12 Conference honorees – edge Nelson Ceaser (First Team), safety A.J. Haulcy (Third Team), cornerback Alex Hogan (Third Team), offensive lineman Tyler Johnson (Third Team) and offensive lineman Patrick Paul (Third Team).

• Freshman wide receiver Mikal Harrison-Pilot was projected to have the "biggest true freshman impact at a Texas program in Texas" by Cory Hogue of Dave Campbell's Texas Football. Sophomore wide receiver Matthew Golden, who set UH's true freshman receiving touchdowns record in 2022, was named Athlon Sports Preseason All-Big 12 First Team and to the Maxwell Award Preseason Watch List.

• No one is catching more eyes than left tackle Patrick Paul who has been recognized as Dave Campbell's Texas Football's No. 2 best returning offensive lineman. The Outland Trophy Watch List honoree is also a Phil Steele First Team Preseason All-Big 12 honoree.

CHURNING OUT NFL TALENT

• Houston made another major imprint on the NFL Draft during 2023 with four total selections – the most for the program since matching the feat in 1997. It marked just the fifth time in the last 40 years Houston had 4+ players selected. The four picks ranked tied for 20th nationally and third among in-state programs, trailing only TCU (8) and Texas (5).

• After wide receiver Nathaniel Dell was taken in the third round (69th pick) by the Houston Texans, quarterback Clayton Tune followed with his fifth-round (pick 139) selection by the Arizona Cardinals. Two more Cougars heard their names called in the seventh round as Derek Parish, drafted as a fullback, was taken with the 240th overall pick by the Jacksonville Jaguars and defensive back Gervarius Owens was picked up by the New York Giants with the 254th pick.

• Houston has seen 3+ players selected in the NFL Draft on six occasions since 2016. The mark ranks second among 2023 Big 12 members (Oklahoma, 8) and second among all programs in Texas (Texas A&M, 7).

A VICTORY WOULD

• Move Houston to 3-1 all-time against UTSA and be the Cougars second straight victory against the Roadrunners.

• Move Houston to 47-31 in home openers and be the Cougars eighth home-opening victory in the last nine seasons (2015-present).

• Move Houston to 25-11 against in-state programs since the start of the 2011 season.

• Improve Houston to 13-4 in non-conference home games at TDECU Stadium (2014-present).

• Move Dana Holgorsen to 9-4 in season openers during his tenure as a head coach including 3-2 at Houston.

• Make Houston 25-9 in the month of September since the start of the 2013 season.

OFFENSIVE OVERVIEW

Houston had its first true quarterback competition since 2018 following the NFL Draft selection of Clayton Tune. The winner of the job will have several key weapons at his disposal including arguably Head Coach Dana Holgorsen's deepest wide receivers' room at Houston. Houston scored 30+ points in 11 games a season ago and has piled up 20,000+ yards of total offense in four seasons under Holgorsen. With Eman Naghavi joining as Running Game Coordinator/Co-Offensive Coordinator and Mike Burchett being elevated to Quarterbacks Coach, UH looks to remain one of the nation's top offenses.

DEFENSIVE OVERVIEW

Houston welcomes back a pair of key pieces who missed significant time a season ago due to injury. Defensive back Alex Hogan's (left knee; missed final seven games) 10 passes defended were the most through the UH's first six games of a season since William Jackson III had 12 in 2015. Linebacker Malik Robinson, who missed the final 11 games (torn pectoral muscle), logged 15 tackles in UH's first two games of 2022, ranking second on the team.

UH is looking to bounce back from an overall disappointing defensive performance during 2022, which included a rash of injuries, and return to their prowess from 2021 which featured the nation's top third-down conversion percentage defense. Houston will be tasked with replacing its top five tacklers including defensive back Gervarius Owens (7th round, NFL Draft). The Cougars brought in seven defensive players with prior Division I experience including 2022 Honorable Mention All-Big 12 Conference defensive lineman David Ugwoegbu (Oklahoma) and 2022 All-American Athletic Conference Second Team defensive back Malik Fleming (East Carolina).

DEFENSIVE LINE

- Nelson Ceaser (Jr.) – 2023 Athlon Sports Preseason All-Big 12 Conference Third Team ... No. 3 grade in The American among edge defenders per PFF (82.7) in 2022 ... second on team in tackles for loss (10.0) during 13 games ... 11 starts at defensive end.
- Chidozie Nwankwo (Jr.) – Heads into fourth season at UH having started 27 career games ... started all 12 games at nose guard in 2022 ... five-plus tackles in four of final eight games ... 36 tackles, 3.5 tackles for loss and one sack in 2022.
- Sedrick Williams (Sr.) – Enters fourth season at UH ... appeared in all 13 games and made six starts in 2022 ... 20 tackles, seven tackles for loss and one sack.
- David Ugwoegbu (Sr.) – Joined UH in January after spending four seasons at Oklahoma ... played in 51 games with Sooners ... fourth in Big 12 with 8.4 tackles per game in 2022 ... at least six stops in every contest ... played 13 games and made four starts during 2021 ... totaled 49 tackles ... played in all 11 games in 2020, making 34 tackles ... four-star recruit out of high school including the No. 38 overall prospect in Texas by Rivals.

Houston's renowned defensive line, 'Sack Ave,' looks to write its next chapter in 2023. The Cougars are two seasons removed from ranking sixth nationally in sacks (43) and 12th in tackles for loss (94).

HEAD COACH DANA HOLGORSEN

FIFTH SEASON AT HOUSTON (27-20) | 12TH SEASON OVERALL (88-61)

- Named head coach at Houston on Jan. 1, 2019, after eight seasons at West Virginia.
- Has tutored 23 All-Americans, 11 national award winners and 14 national award finalists. In four NFL Drafts since taking the helm at Houston, 11 Cougar players have been selected including five in the top three rounds.
- Houston has won 20 games over its last two seasons (2021-22) marking the program's third highest total in a two-year span. The run has featured back-to-back bowl victories (2021 Birmingham Bowl; 2022 Independence Bowl) for the first time since 2014-15. With a win in the Independence Bowl on Dec. 23, 2022, Holgorsen became the first Houston Head Coach since Bill Yeoman to register multiple bowl victories.
- Houston went 13-3 over its final 16 American Athletic Conference contests (2021-22). The Cougars won a national-best 10 road contests between 2021-22 including six consecutive matchups from Oct. 1, 2021-Oct. 22, 2022, which ranked as the nation's second longest streak in that timeframe.
- Since Holgorsen's arrival in 2019, Houston is the only program nationally to boast a punt return touchdown and kickoff return touchdown in four consecutive seasons (2019-22).
- Guided Houston to an 8-5 record and Independence Bowl victory in 2022. The Cougars won six of their final eight games while ranking eighth nationally in passing offense (314.0), 10th in punt returns (15.0 per return), 11th in team tackles for loss (7.2 per game), 12th in passing efficiency (158.38) and 16th in scoring offense (36.1).
- As part of his commitment to the future of Houston Football, Holgorsen pledged $1 million towards University of Houston's "Houston Rise" campaign towards the development of the program's state-of-the-art Football Operations Center (FOC).
- Under his leadership in 2021, the Cougars won 12-plus games for just the third time in program history. Houston won 11 consecutive games, its longest stretch since 2011, en route to an appearance in The American Football Championship.
- In the 2021 Birmingham Bowl, Houston knocked off Auburn to clinch the program's first bowl victory since 2015.
- Houston was one of six teams nationally to rank in the top 20 in both points per game (35.9) and opponent points per game (20.4).
- For the second time in his coaching career, Holgorsen tutored a Paul Hornung Award winner as consensus All-American Marcus Jones captured the award in 2021.
- Closed his tenure at West Virginia as the second-winningest coach in Mountaineer history with an eight-year record of 61-41. His 61 wins trailed only College Football Hall of Famer Don Nehlen for most wins in West Virginia history.
- Led the Mountaineers to bowl games in seven of his eight seasons including his final five seasons. His first season at West Virginia ended with a 70-33 rout of Clemson in the Orange Bowl.
- West Virginia had 10 NFL draft picks in first three rounds in his final seven years, the second most in Big 12, including at least one Top-15 draft pick in four of his final seven years. In all, he had four NFL Top-15 draft picks during a seven-year stretch, the most in the Big 12, and 20 players drafted in seven years at WVU, tied for second-most in the Big 12 during that span.
- An offensive genius, his passing offenses and total offensive output have ranked in the Top 10 nationally all but four years during the 14-year span since he became offensive coordinator at Texas Tech in 2005.
- He's had eight quarterbacks pass for 4,000 or more yards and 10 throw for 30 or more touchdowns in a season with 20 receivers finishing with 1,000 or more yards in a season, including 11 finish with 90 or more receptions and 16 finish with double figure TD receptions in a season.
- He is the only coach in West Virginia history to have coached a team with at least 450 rushing yards in a game (Oklahoma, 2012) and at least 450 yards passing in a game (six times).
- He had 10 wins over Top 25 opponents in his eight-year tenure at WVU.
- West Virginia was ranked in both major polls at least one week in seven of his eight years including the entire 2018 season with several weeks inside the top 10.
- In 2018, Holgorsen led a West Virginia team that was ranked every week during the season and finished the regular season with a No. 15/16 ranking in both major polls.
- Under his leadership, quarterback Will Grier finished No. 4 in the Heisman Trophy race and was a finalist for the Maxwell Award, The Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, the Senior CLASS Award and the Manning Award. Grier was ranked in the top 10 nationally in 11 offensive categories and seven categories in the top five.
- Outside of football, Holgorsen served as the chair of the WVU Medicine Children's capital campaign, raising $60 million to build a new home for pediatric and maternal services.
- In 2016, the AFCA District 4 Regional Coach of the Year and Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year finalist led the Mountaineers to a 10-3 overall mark and 7-2 record in the Big 12.
- His 2016 team achieved the ninth 10-win season in school history, becoming one of six WVU teams to do it in the regular season. Holgorsen is one of three WVU coaches, along with Nehlen and Rich Rodriguez, to post multiple 10-win seasons.
- In 2012, Holgorsen led WVU into its first year of competition in the Big 12 Conference, guiding West Virginia to a 7-6 overall record and an appearance in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl. Five Mountaineers earned 25 All-America honors and three were drafted in the top three rounds of the NFL draft.
- Holgorsen had a successful first season at WVU in 2011, coaching the Mountaineers to a 10-3 record, the Big East championship and a 70-33 Orange Bowl rout of Clemson. The victory was WVU's third Bowl Championship Series championship in school history and earned Holgorsen the First-Year Coach of the Year award by the Football Writers Association of America.
- Before West Virginia, Holgorsen spent the 2010 season as offensive coordinator at Oklahoma State. He was a finalist for the 2010 Broyles Award, given to the nation's top assistant, and also named the Rivals.com Offensive Coordinator of the Year.
- During his two-year tenure with Houston, his offenses put up explosive numbers, accounting for 563 yards of total offense per game, passing for 433.7 yards per game and totaling more than 42.2 points per game. His offense ranked No. 3 in total offense in 2008 and No. 1 in 2009. His quarterback, Case Keenum, led the nation in total offense in 2008 and 2009, totaling 403.2 yards per game as a sophomore and 416.4 yards his junior season. He also ranked among the Top 10 nationally in pass efficiency both years.
- Holgorsen was a member of the coaching staff at Texas Tech from 2000-07, serving as the inside receivers coach from 2000-04, before being elevated to co-offensive coordinator in 2005 and offensive coordinator in 2006-07.
- Holgorsen also spent time at Valdosta State (1993-95) as the quarterbacks, receivers and special teams coach, Mississippi College (1996-98) as the quarterbacks, receivers and special teams coach and at Wingate (1999) as the quarterbacks and receivers coach.
