NOTES

LAST TIME OUT: Villanova is coming off a 90-62 home win over the Temple Owls on Sunday, Nov. 19. Villanova led 20-15 after the first quarter and started the second period on a 7-0 run to take a 27-15 lead. Junior guard Lucy Olsen led the spurt by scoring five of the seven points. Senior Bella Runyan added a breakaway lay-up for the other two points. After two free throws by Temple's Tarritonna Gary cut the Villanova advantage to 34-24 with 2:27 left in the second quarter, the Wildcats scored the last nine points of the half to take a 43-24 lead into intermission. The nine points included a three-ball and 15-foot jumper by Olsen, a lay-up by junior center Christina Dalce and a long two by junior guard Zanai Jones. Olsen was outstanding the game's first 20 minutes scoring 26 points on 9-of-16 shooting, including a 4-of-5 effort from three and a 4-of-4 performance from the foul line. Leading 53-34 with 5:30 remaining in the third quarter, Villanova used a 10-2 spurt to open-up a commanding 63-36 lead at the 3:57 mark. Junior Kaitlyn Orihel sparked the Wildcat run by scoring the first five points on a three-point field goal from the left wing and a driving lay-up. Following two Olsen free throws, freshman Maddie Webber drained a triple from straight away. The Owls would not get within 17 in the fourth quarter and Villanova led by as many as 28 and cruise to the win. Olsen was the story of the game for Villanova scoring 40 points on 12-of-22 shooting, including a 4-of-6 effort from three-point range. She was also 12-of-13 from the foul line. She becomes the fourth Wildcat player in school history to reach the 40-point mark. Maddy Siegrist accomplished the feat on four occasions, while Shelly Pennefather and Lisa Ortlip did it once each. For the game, Villanova was 30-of-62 from the field (48.4%), 7-of-14 from three-point range (50.0%) and 23-of-35 from the foul line (65.7%), while Temple shot 34.7 percent from the floor (25-of-72), 16.7 percent from downtown (4-of-24) and 57.1 percent from the charity stripe (8-of-14). The Wildcats owned a 48-40 advantage on the backboards. Webber joined Olsen in double figures with 13 points to go with six rebounds, while Dalce added seven points and a career-high 18 rebounds. Temple was paced by Aleah Nelson with 16 points and Gary who had 12 points.

PAVILION SUCCESS. Entering play versus Holy Cross on Tuesday evening, the Wildcats have won 25 of their last 27 home games. Villanova captured 11 straight home contests to finish the 2021-22 season and were 13-2 at home last year. The Wildcats won the 2023-24 home opener on Sunday with a 90-62 win over Temple. Under fourth-year head coach Denise Dillon, the Wildcats are 33-7 (.825) in games played at the Finneran Pavilion.

IT HAS BEEN A WHILE: Villanova and Holy Cross will meet for the first time since 1990 when the two teams battle on Tuesday night. The all-time series is currently tied at 2-2. Holy Cross tallied a 69-46 win over Villanova in the last meeting on Dec. 20, 1990.

VILLANOVA CONNECTION: Holy Cross head coach Maureen Magarity has a family connection to the Villanova women's basketball program. Magarity's aunt, Rosemary Magarity Knouse, played at Villanova from 1988-92. As a freshman in 1988-89, she was named to the BIG EAST All-Rookie team. In another Villanova connection, Magarity's father, Dave, was the head coach at Marist College when Maddy Siegrist's father, George, played for the Red Foxes. Siegrist went on to be an assistant at Marist under Dave Magarity.

40-POINT EFFORT: Junior guard Lucy Olsen was sensational in Sunday's win over Temple. In 33 minutes of action, Olsen scored a career-high 40 points on 12-of-22 shooting, including a 4-of-6 effort from three-point range and a 12-of-13 performance from the foul line. This is the seventh 40-point game in program history, and she becomes the fourth Wildcat to accomplish the feat.

Lucy Olsen	40	vs. Temple	11/19/23

FAST START: It has been a great start to the 2023-24 season for junior guard Lucy Olsen. After three games, she has scored 84 points for an average of 28.0 points per game. She is currently shooting 50.0 percent from the field (31-of-61), 46.2 percent from three (6-of-13) and .727 from the foul line (16-of-22). Her three-game point totals include 20 at Portland State, 24 at Oregon State and 40 versus Temple. Olsen had three 20-point games all of last season. She now has eight 20-point efforts for her career.

BOARD GAMES: Junior center Christina Dalce was dominant on the backboards in Sunday's win over Temple. In 29 minutes of action, Dalce grabbed a career-high 18 rebounds (10 offensive) to go with seven points, three assists, one steal and one block. She has 33 rebounds in the first three games of the season for an average of 11.0 per contest.

BLOCK PARTY: Junior center Christina Dalce led the BIG EAST Conference last year with 86 blocks which also set a Villanova school record for blocks in a season. She recorded a career-high five blocks on three occasions last year against Marist, Baylor and Miami (Fla.). Dalce ranked third on the team in scoring last season with a 7.3 points per game average. She has tallied four blocks in the first three games of the young 2023-24 season.

ROOKIE EARNS RAVE REVIEWS: Freshman guard Maddie Webber turned in the best game of her young career on Sunday in the win over Temple. In 23 minutes of playing time, Webber registered 13 points and six rebounds. She was 4-of-7 from the field, 1-of-2 from three and 4-of-6 from the foul line. She has scored 22 points in her first three games for an average of 7.3 points per contest.

STAY BEHIND THE LINE: Senior guard Maddie Burke is one of Villanova's top three-point shooters. In 37 games last year, Burke tallied 228 field goal attempts with 191 of those attempts coming from three-point range. Burke was 69-of-191 from behind the arc for 36.1 percent. She was also a perfect 19-of-19 from the foul line last season. Burke finished fourth on the team in scoring a year ago with a 7.1 points per game average. In three games this year, she is 4-of-15 from downtown and she ranks second on the team in scoring with a 9.3 points per game average.

DEFENSIVE DOINGS: The Wildcats scoring defense entering play versus Holy Cross currently stands at 55.6 points per game and opponents are shooting just .366 from the field (67-of-183) and .200 from three-point range (10-of-50). Villanova has also forced 44 turnovers in the first three games for an average of 14.7 per game.

STEALING THE SHOW: The Wildcats have been credited with 24 steals in the first three games of the season for an average of 8.0 per contest. Lucy Olsen leads the team in the steal department with eight, while Christina Dalce and Zanai Jones have been credited with four each.

BIG EAST HONORS: Junior guard Lucy Olsen was a unanimous selection to the preseason All-BIG EAST team. Olsen is coming off a stellar sophomore season where she averaged 12.4 points per game and 4.1 rebounds per contest to go with a team-high 163 assists. In 37 games a season ago, she shot .411 from the field (173-of-421) and .356 from three-point range (52-of-146). For her efforts last year, Olsen earned second team All-BIG EAST honors.

621 IN A ROW: Entering play versus Holy Cross on Tuesday evening, Villanova has made at least one three-point field goal in 621 consecutive games. The last time Villanova failed to connect on a triple was against Boston College on Jan. 2, 2004, when the Wildcats were 0-for-10 from long distance in a 61-48 loss.

A LOOK BACK: Villanova registered one of the best seasons in program history last year with a 30-7 overall record and a 17-3 BIG EAST mark. The 30 victories represent the most wins in program history. The Wildcats earned a No. 4 seed in the NCAA Tournament where they defeated Cleveland State and Florida Gulf Coast in the first and second round and advanced to the Sweet 16 for just the second time in program history.

USA BASKETBALL: Two Villanova Wildcats spent their summer playing for USA Basketball. Junior guard Lucy Olsen and junior forward Christina Dalce helped the U21 team win the 3x3 Nation's League title in a tournament played in Mongolia in September. The duo was joined on the team by Creighton's Morgan Maly and Minnesota's Mara Braun.

BIG SHOES TO FILL: Villanova will have the tough task of replacing star forward Maddy Siegrist who graduated last year. In her final season as a Wildcat last season, Siegrist led the country in scoring with a 29.2 points per game average. For her efforts in 2022-23, she was the BIG EAST Player of the Year, a consensus first team All-American and she won the Katrina McClain Award as the top power forward in the country. Siegrist finished her illustrious career as Villanova's all-time leading score for both men and women with 2,896 points and she was the third overall pick in the 2023 WNBA Draft by the Dallas Wings.

NEWCOMERS: Villanova has added three newcomers to the 2023-24 roster, including two freshmen and one transfer. The two freshmen are Brynn McCurry and Maddie Webber. The transfer is junior Denae Carter who comes to the Wildcats from Mississippi State. Carter will miss the entire season due to an injury.

WILDCATS PICKED FOURTH: In the BIG EAST preseason predicted order of finish, Villanova was picked to finish fourth in the league standings with 76 points. Connecticut was selected to win the conference championship with 100 points and 10 first place votes.

HEAD COACH DENISE DILLON

Denise Dillon will be entering her fourth season at her alma mater in 2023-24. In her first three years as the Wildcat head coach, Dillon has led Villanova to a 71-23 overall record (.755) and a 41-12 BIG EAST mark (.773).

The 2022-23 season was a magical one for Dillon and the Wildcats. Villanova went 30-7 overall and 17-3 in BIG EAST play last year and advanced to the Sweet 16 for the second time in school history. The 30 wins set a school record for single season victories. The Wildcats finished in second place in the BIG EAST regular season standings and played in the conference championship game for the second straight season.

For their efforts, Villanova earned a four-seed in the NCAA Tournament and were chosen as a host site for the first and second rounds. This marked just the second time in program history that Villanova hosted NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament games. In front of near capacity crowds at the Finneran Pavilion, the Wildcats defeated Cleveland State in the first round and Florida Gulf Coast in round two to advance to the Sweet 16. The Florida Gulf Coast triumph was extra special for Dillon who registered her 400th career victory in the win. Dillon helped senior forward Maddy Siegrist lead the country, as well as the BIG EAST for a third straight year in scoring with a 29.2 points per game average. Siegrist was rewarded for her standout play by earning BIG EAST Player of the Year honors for a second consecutive season and she garnered consensus first team All-American acclaim. Siegrist also claimed the Katrina McClain Award as the top power forward in the country. In April, Siegrist was selected with the third overall pick of the 2023 WNBA Draft by the Dallas Wings. Dillon also guided sophomore guard Lucy Olsen to second team All-BIG EAST accolades a season ago.

Under Dillon's direction in 2021-22, Villanova tallied a 24-8 record, including a 15-4 BIG EAST Conference mark which was good enough for a second place finish in the final league standings. For their efforts, the Wildcats earned an at large bid to the NCAA Tournament where they defeated BYU in the first round before falling to Michigan in round two. Villanova also went 3-1 in Philadelphia Big 5 play to capture the City Series championship.

For her efforts in 2021-22, Dillon was named both the BIG EAST and Philadelphia Big 5 Coach of the Year. This marks the fifth time that Dillon has been named a conference coach of the year. During her Drexel career she was a four-time CAA Coach of the Year.

Dillon came to Villanova from Drexel University where she built the Dragons into a perennial contender, making a name for herself in the Philadelphia sports scene and the women's basketball coaching ranks, while bringing her team national attention for its consistent success and high level of play. She led the Dragons to 10 postseason appearances, including winning the WNIT championship in 2013. During her 17-year Drexel career, Dillon compiled a 329-204 (.617) record.

From 2016-20, Dillon's Drexel teams boasted a 96-35 record (.732) and advanced to national postseason play each season. In all, the Dragons won 20 or more games seven times under Dillon's watch, claimed four CAA titles and played in five conference championship games. Dillon was named the CAA Coach of the Year in 2005, 2009, 2018 and 2020.

The traits that have allowed Dillon to excel during her coaching career were honed during her time as a Villanova student-athlete. She played for head coach Harry Perretta and was part of Wildcats teams that went 68-43 (.613) during her collegiate career. Dillon accumulated 1,355 points and 677 rebounds while developing into an All-BIG EAST honoree and a three-time All-Big 5 selection. She remains one of the all-time greats in the Villanova program and is enshrined in the Big 5 Hall of Fame (2004), the Villanova Varsity Club Hall of Fame (2012), the Delaware County Athletes Hall of Fame (2012) and the Cardinal O'Hara High School Hall of Fame (2018).

Dillon was appointed as the head coach at Drexel prior to the 2004-05 season after spending one year as the program's interim head coach. She led that 2004-05 squad to a 19-10 record and a first-round bye in the CAA Tournament. The Dragons eventually advanced to the semifinals and came within one point of toppling Old Dominion, a feat that had never before been accomplished in the conference tournament.

Drexel boasted a winning record in 11 of the last 12 seasons under Dillon, but the first true breakthrough of her coaching career came in 2008-09 when the Dragons played their way to the 2009 regular season CAA title and a then-program record of 24 wins. What came next was the feat that had so narrowly eluded Drexel a few seasons earlier; the Dragons knocked off 17-time defending conference champion Old Dominion and ended the Lady Monarchs' NCAA-best 50-game conference tournament winning streak. Drexel went on to defeat James Madison on its home court to bring home the school's first CAA title and earn its first NCAA Tournament appearance.

In 2012-13, Dillon led the Dragons to a school-record 28 victories and the WNIT title after a remarkable postseason run that saw Drexel defeat Iona, Harvard, Bowling Green, Auburn, Florida and Utah on its way to the first postseason tournament championship in both CAA history and Philadelphia Division I women's basketball history.

Dillon's teams netted Drexel's first-ever victories over teams from the SEC (Auburn, Florida), the Pac-12 (Utah) and the ACC (Syracuse). She posted two wins over nationally ranked opponents, including the victory over the 11th-ranked Orange in 2016-17 when Syracuse was coming off a national runner-up finish one year earlier. During her Dragons tenure, Dillon saw her student-athletes be named All-CAA performers a total of 27 times. She coached three CAA Rookies of the Year, two CAA Players of the Year, the program's first AP All-American, the leading scorer in Philadelphia women's basketball history and the first Drexel women's player to be selected in the WNBA Draft. In 2018-19, she mentored the CAA Player of the Year (Bailey Greenberg) and during the season became the first Drexel basketball coach to win 300 career games at the school. Dillon's 2018-19 squad also led the nation in scoring defense, giving up just 50.5 points per contest.

Off the court, Dillon's commitment to helping student-athletes grow as players and as people has been one of the Drexel program's greatest success stories. She produced five winners of the CAA's prestigious Dean Ehlers Leadership Award, while Nicole Hester '09 was the recipient of the John Randolph Inspiration Award and the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association's Most Courageous Award. Drexel also was active in the community throughout Dillon's tenure. The program made visits to the Ronald McDonald House and several local daycare centers, organized fundraisers and rallied the Philadelphia community while using their collective experiences to grow as individuals.
