NCAA DIVISION II NATIONAL CHAMPIONS (1990, 1991, 1997)

KENDRA POTTS

Head Coach | Third Season at West Texas A&M
West Texas A&M '04 | Marketing

Kendra Potts enters her third season at the helm of the Lady Buffs as she was named the 15th head coach in WT Volleyball history on December 10, 2018.

Potts and the Lady Buffs overcame unexpected challenges during the 2020-21 campaign as the Lone Star Conference moved their normal volleyball schedule to the spring while shortening the season due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Lady Buffs finished the spring with an overall mark of 10-4 including a 9-3 mark in league action as they advanced to the program's 16th consecutive and 26th overall appearance in the LSC Tournament. WT also finished with an unbeaten 6-0 mark inside of "The Box" to mark the first undefeated season inside of the facility since 2013.

The former Lady Buff All-American led her alma mater to the South Central Regional Quarterfinals during her first season at the helm in 2019 to become just the fourth head coach in program history to guide WT to the NCAA Tournament during their first season. Junior libero Chandler Vogel picked up her second straight LSC Libero of the Year accolade while Torrey Miller was named the league's Freshman of the Year, both student-athletes earned AVCA and D2CCA All-South Central Region honors as Miller was named the Region's Freshman of the Year.

Potts served as the club director and recruiting coordinator for the Corpus Christi Force since 2015 as she has built the program into one of the top club teams in the country. The Force finished 2018 as the Top Club Team in South Texas while ranking in the Top-30 nationally as 100% of players moved on to play at the collegiate level.

She spent six seasons as the top assistant and recruiting coordinator at Texas A&M-Corpus Christi under former WT head coach Tony Graystone where they turned the Islanders into one of the premier volleyball programs in the Southland Conference.

The Islanders improved their win total in each of her first four seasons on the Island, culminating with the 2013 season, which was a historic season for the team.

TAMUCC finished with a 20-12 record, including a then school-best 13-5 record in Southland Conference play as the Islanders made history by advancing to the semifinals of the Southland Conference Tournament for the first time.

Texas A&M Corpus Christi was recognized as a Top-75 Recruiting Class in 2010 by PrepVolleyball.com while registering an improvement of 230 RPI spots from 2009 (#312) to 2012 (#82), considered the most improved program in the country. Brianna Brink was named the program's first All-American in 2014 as the Islanders had a top ranked recruiting class with three high school All-American candidates, a pair of Top-50 national recruits and two Junior Olympic Champions.

Potts spent four seasons as an assistant in Canyon from 2005-2008 where the Lady Buffs went 131-27 during that span with a pair of appearances in the NCAA Division II National Semifinals. WT went an incredible 43-2 in league action during her four seasons on the sideline with three undefeated Lone Star Conference Championships and three LSC Tournament titles.

The Amarillo High product registered a standout collegiate career for the Lady Buffs, becoming a three time All-American and the LSC's all-time assists leader with 6,087. She finished her career as just the 12th person in NCAA Division II history to reach 6,000 career assists.

The 2014 WTAMU Hall of Champions inductee was named to the Lone Star Conference 75th Anniversary Team, her senior campaign in 2003 saw Potts earn LSC Offensive Player of the Year and Panhandle Sports Hall of Fame Volleyball Player of the Year accolades. During her four year career in Maroon & White, the Lady Buffs went 129-16 overall including 39-1 in league action with four NCAA Tournament Appearances and a pair of Regional Championships (2000, 2003).

During her prep career, Potts led the Lady Sandies to back-to-back appearances in the Class 5A State Title match including an undefeated 39-0 season in 1998. She earned a bachelor's degree in Marketing ('04) and a master's in Business Administration ('07) from WT. Kendra and her husband Jim are the proud parents of three children: Ella, Easton and Elizabeth.

CASEY SHINGLER

Associate Head Coach | Fifth Season at West Texas A&M
Arizona '09 | Physical Education

Casey Shingler enters his fifth season on the sidelines at West Texas A&M. The Tucson, Arizona was elevated to the program's Associate Head Coach in March of 2020.

WT made a run to the South Central Regional Quarterfinals in 2019, finished the campaign with an overall record of 22-7. 2019 marked the 27th overall appearance by the Lady Buffs in the NCAA Division II Volleyball Postseason.

The Lady Buffs finished the 2017 campaign with an overall record of 23-14 with a 12-8 mark in the Lone Star Conference as WT made their 26th appearance in the NCAA Division II Volleyball Postseason as the seventh seed in the South Central Region. The Lady Buffs then went on a run as they topped then #12 Tarleton State and Metro State to advance to the program's 16th Regional Championship match before falling to #9 Regis in four-sets.

A native of Tucson, Shingler graduated from the University of Arizona with a B.S. in Physical Education in 2009 and completed his Master's in Educational Leadership from Arkansas-Monticello in 2012. While at the Arizona, Shingler was a libero for the Wildcats, winning the 2009 Mountain West Conference Title and earning a 5th place finish in the National Tournament.

After graduation, Shingler was hired as an assistant coach at the University of Arkansas-Monticello. When he was promoted to head coach in 2011, he more than doubled the win total of UAM and claimed four conference matches in the Great American Conference after the team had gone winless in league play in 2010. During the 2012 season, Shingler was an assistant coach at the University of Pennsylvania. During his time at Penn, they produced the nation's highest dig average and All-American Dani Shepard.

Shingler has also coached at the club level, leading multiple teams to Top 16 finishes including a Zona 17-1 2nd place finish at 2014 Far Westerners Qualifier and a 5th place finish at 2014 GJNC.

CHRISTA BRANSON

Assistant Coach | First Season at West Texas A&M
Lubbock Christian | Exercise Science/Health Promotion '15

Christa Branson was added to the WT Volleyball Coaching Staff in the Summer of 2021 after serving as the Interim Head Coach at Lubbock Christian during the spring 2021 season. She joined the Lady Chap coaching staff in the summer of 2019 after serving two seasons as head coach at Lubbock Christian High School.

She led the Lady Eagles to the Area Round of the TAPPS 4A playoffs in 2017 where they fell to eventual state champions Grace Prep. Under her guidance, Branson and the Lady Eagles were recognized by Side-Out Foundation and American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) for fundraising efforts through the Dig Pink® Rally.

The Aledo, Texas native played four seasons at LCU, spending much of the time at libero. Branson combined for 986 digs (3.78 per set) in 83 career matches for the Lady Chaps. In 2014, she ranked ninth nationally and fourth in the Heartland Conference in digs per set with a rate of 6.13. Prior to coaching at Lubbock Christian High School, she served as student involvement coordinator at Lubbock Christian University. Christa and her husband Alex have one son, Bishop.

WTAMU FIELDHOUSE "THE BOX"

West Texas A&M is fortunate to have one of the best home environments in all of NCAA Volleyball, in any division...

The WTAMU Fieldhouse is more affectionately known as "The Box," is home to the Lady Buffs volleyball program, and three NCAA Division II National Championship banners attest that it has been a very good home, indeed.

With the opening of the First United Bank Center in 2002, the WTAMU Fieldhouse was renovated to become one of a select few "volleyball-only" arenas in NCAA Division II. Seating just over 2,000, "The Box" provides fans an opportunity to virtually sit on the court and cheer on the perennial championship-contending Lady Buffs.

The Box has a long and rich history at West Texas A&M. Built in 1950, the Fieldhouse was the home of championship Buff & Lady Buff Basketball for half a century. It has also seen its fair share of concerts and other entertainment, as performers such George Strait, Willie Nelson, John Denver, Ike & Tina Turner and comedian Steve Martin have played the Fieldhouse. President Gerald Ford delivered an address in The Box in 1976.

The West Texas A&M volleyball team is accustomed to excellence in the WTAMU Fieldhouse, better known in the Texas Panhandle as "The Box." The Box is a facility student-athletes and fans love. In stark contrast, opponents fear stepping into the home of the Lady Buffs. Built in 1951, The Box has been the scene of many exciting moments and has seen a role in winning streaks for all three athletic programs. Success stems partially from the fans who crowd The Box and fill it to its 2,557 seat capacity.

Until a hard-fought, five-game loss to Angelo State University on Nov. 6, 1993, the WTAMU volleyball team had a 49-match winning streak in the Box dating back to Sept. 23, 1989. Counting four contests at the Amarillo Civic Center and two at the Tascosa Activity Center, WTAMU had won a then-record NCAA Division II record of 55 home matches in a row, which now ranks fourth-best in all collegiate volleyball levels. That streak was later bested by a 57-match winning streak, occurring from 1996 to 1999. WTAMU had a 40-match home streak snapped in 2003.

The Lady Buffs boast one of the best home court advantages and winning percentages in any level of NCAA Volleyball, the storied tradition of the program is unmatched at the Division II level.

NCAA POSTSEASON RECAPS

West Texas A&M University emerged on the national spotlight in 1988 as the Lady Buffs reached the NCAA Division II playoffs for the first time. WTAMU finished the season 33-8, ranked 11th in the nation and pulled off a four-game victory over Metro State in the regional semifinals.

Jill and Julie Myatt, both juniors on the Lady Buff squad, also recorded firsts in school history, as they both were selected to the American Volleyball Coaches Association All-American Second-Team. Hudson was named South Central Region Coach of the Year. At one point during the season, WTAMU won 18 straight matches. The Lady Buffs went undefeated through the Lone Star Conference schedule to win their first league crown.

One season removed from just missing an Elite Eight berth by one match in its first-ever playoff appearance, WTAMU landed in the Elite Eight for the first time with a four-game victory over Northern Colorado at Greeley, Colo. The playoff high faded quickly however, with a three-game loss to Elite Eight Tournament host Cal State-Bakersfield in the quarterfinal round. The Lady Buffs finished the year 31-9.

Hudson was chosen South Central Region Coach of the Year for the second year in a row, while Julie Myatt earned the school's first-ever All-American first-team selection. Twin sister Jill earned second-team All-American, while Eve Posey was tabbed South Central Region Most Valuable Player.

WTAMU rolled through the 1990 season like a speeding Indy car en route to a school-best 38-1 record and the school's first-ever national championship. The checkered flag to the memorable season was waved following the Lady Buffs' 15-0, 15-5, 15-3 dismantling of North Dakota State in the championship match at Bakersfield, Calif.

WTAMU, who graduated twin sisters Julie and Jill Myatt the prior year, gained a new sister act in Carol and Cristina Pereira. The Pereira sisters allowed the Lady Buffs to take their game to the highest level, and both were honored as All-American first-team picks. Carol tallied 586 kills and 107 blocks, while Cristina chalked up 580 kills and 131 blocks in leading a potent WTAMU attack and defense at the net.

Further, Hudson was recognized as the AVCA NCAA Division II National Coach of the Year. She elected to resign her position at WTAMU to take an NCAA Division I head coaching position at Northern Arizona prior to the start of the 1991 campaign.

WTAMU netted its second consecutive NCAA Division II volleyball title in 1991, this time in front of a record crowd at the Amarillo Civic Center. Playing in front of an NCAA Division II post-season record 3,188 fans, the Lady Buffs swept Portland State 15-10, 15-5, 15-12 to defend their national title.

Cristina Pereira was tabbed the NCAA Division II National Player of the Year after leading WTAMU to a 36-2 record. She totaled 515 kills and 185 blocks during the season, while sister Carol contributed 625 kills and 95 blocks to become a first-team All-American herself. WTAMU was guided by first-year head coach Jim Giacomazzi, who took over the coaching reins in August, two weeks before the start of the season.

The Lady Buffs, playing their second season as an NCAA Division II independent, reached the Elite Eight Tournament for the third time in as many years, but dreams of a three-peat were shattered with a semifinal loss to Northern Michigan at Portland, Ore. WTAMU would bounce back to win the third-place match versus Cal State-Los Angeles, a victory allowing the Lady Buffs to reach the 30-win plateau for the fifth-straight year.

Carol Pereira, a first-team All-American, tallied a WTAMU record 814 kills during the season while hitting .438. She finished her career as the all-time leader in kills with 2,025. Pereira graduated from WTAMU following the 1992-93 season and elected to forego her senior season.

After a one-year hiatus from the NCAA Division II playoffs, WTAMU earned a bid to the South Central Regional Tournament held at Central Missouri State. Debbie Hendricks, as the second-year Lady Buff head coach, rallied the troops from a disappointing 1-6 start to finish 19-11.

Back-to-back losses to Lone Star Conference rival Central Oklahoma to end the season produced quite a sting. The Brochos defeated WTAMU in the LSC Tournament, and in the regional semifinals.

The Lady Buffs were one game away from the Elite Eight Tournament before Central Missouri State handed WTAMU a 15-12 rally-scoring loss in the South Central Regional finals at Warrensburg, Mo. WTAMU, 30-8 overall on the season plus a forfeit victory over Eastern New Mexico, captured the Lone Star Conference crown for the fourth time.

Leslie Brown, Holly Morgan and Wendy Ward led the Lady Buffs during the season. Brown recorded 124 block assists in a break-out junior campaign, while Morgan earned LSC Freshman of the Year honors with 399 kills and 466 digs. Ward ran the offense effectively with 1,558 assists. Both Brown and Ward were all-region selections.

WTAMU reached the South Central Region Tournament semifinals played at Florence, Ala., but the Lady Buffs' third loss to Central Missouri State of 1996 put a damper on the season. The Lady Buffs won their second straight LSC crown and won 14 of 15 matches entering the regional tournament, including three wins against nationally ranked opponents. Still, WTAMU could be proud of its 26-6 season as a whole.

Senior Leslie Brown was chosen to the all-region team as a middle blocker who established a then-record of 125 block assists during the season. Amanda Sweatt, also a middle blocker, was named to the all-region team as a junior.

What a year for the Lady Buffs as they capped a 37-3 season with a season-ending 18-match winning streak and the hard-fought five-game victory over Barry in the Elite Eight championship at Bakersfield, Calif.

WTAMU put a stamp on being the top volleyball program of the decade with its third national title, but this one did not come easily. The Lady Buffs breezed past New Haven in 46 minutes in the quarterfinals, then knocked out host Cal State-Bakersfield in a four-game 18-16, 15-11, 7-15, 16-14 thriller.

The semifinal match was just a prelude to what was to come in the final, as WTAMU and Barry entertained the 1,376 fans attending the title match. Barry opened the match in convincing fashion with a 15-4 victory, however, the Lady Buffs rallied to take a 15-13 win in the second game. Then came 'the game', a 21-19 stanza which saw the Lady Buffs hold a 6-3 advantage in game-points alone. The Buccaneers tied the match with a 15-7 win in the fourth game bringing about a deciding rally-scoring game five.

The Lady Buffs served for the match at 14-13 and 15-14, but Barry held off the match points each time before positioning itself for its own match point at 16-15. After a WTAMU timeout, Sarah Butler pounded down her 26th kill to tie the score. Junior Holly Morgan ended the season with back-to-back kills for an 18-16 win. Butler, the NCAA Division II National Player of the Year as a sophomore, set an NCAA Division II Tournament record with 40 digs in the title match. She along with Amanda Sweatt, Deena Victor and Lisa Thomason were all-South Central Region picks. WTAMU Head Coach Debbie Hendricks was tabbed National Coach of the Year following the season.

WTAMU's 1998 roller coaster season ended abruptly with a loss to Metro State College in the Southwest Region semifinals at Denver. The Lady Buffs opened with a 5-0 record, including three versus nationally ranked foes. WTAMU's 23-match winning streak dating back to 1997 hit a snag with five losses to nationally ranked teams in the next six matches.

WTAMU began its climb back into the regional and national rankings by going on a 19-match winning streak, as the Lady Buffs lost just 10 out of 60 games. A five-game loss to Cameron in the LSC championship match took the momentum away heading into the regional tournament. Sarah Butler, who broke the NCAA Division II record for kills in a four-game match (40), was tabbed first-team All-American. Jenny Robinson was named to the All-Southwest Region team.

The roller coaster continued rolling after the season's end with the resignation of head coach Debbie Hendricks in December. WTAMU hired assistant Tony Graystone to take her place in January, and the roller coaster started its upward climb.

WTAMU started 1999 in record fashion with a 28-0 record, as Tony Graystone, in his first year as a collegiate head coach, did not pick up a loss until the 29th match of the season, and the Lady Buffs nearly capped the campaign with a fourth national title in the 1990s. However, WTAMU finished just short of the championship with a 36-2 record and third-place trophy at the Elite Eight Tournament in Battle Creek, Mich. The Lady Buffs were just two points away from the title match with a 13-10 lead in rally scoring versus Tampa, which rallied from a 2-1 deficit in games to win.

Sarah Butler, who earned her second NCAA Division II National Player of the Year award, tacked on a career-high 41 kills in the semifinal loss. She finished her three-year career with 2,000 kills and two academic All-American awards. Shannon Stroud, the Southwest Region Freshman of the Year and all-region pick, picked up 461 kills in her first season. WTAMU extended its home-court winning streak to a school-best 57 matches before losing to Western State. The Lady Buffs are the only school in any division to have two home winning streaks of 44 or more.

The Lady Buffs averaged 697 fans for third best in Division II, which included a Box record 1,350 fans versus Cameron on Nov. 13 in the LSC championship match. WTAMU drew 1,000-plus fans five times at home.

The Lady Buffs claimed the Southwest Regional title and reached the NCAA Division II Elite Eight for the third time in the past four seasons. National tournament host Augustana College (S.D.), ended WTAMU's title hopes in four games in the opening round in Sioux Falls, South Dakota. Ironically, Augustana had been the only team to have beaten the Lady Buffs during the regular season, with a sweep in September at the Colorado Premier Tournament.

West Texas A&M defeated Nebraska-Kearney in Canyon for the Southwest Regional title on November 18, after eliminating Regis University in the opening round. The Lady Buffs swept 10 Lone Star Conference matches during the regular season, and held a 30-2 record in games while doing so. The conference tournament was held on the home court of North Division champion Cameron University in Lawton, Oklahoma. WTAMU dispatched the hosts in a four-game championship match, after eliminating Eastern New Mexico in the opening round.

Shannon Stroud capped a long list of honors by being named as a second team All-American. She was also a member of the Elite Eight All-Tournament team, the Southwest Region team and the Southwest Region All-Tournament team, and was named the Lone Star Conference South MVP. Kendra Morgan earned Southwest Region and Lone Star Conference Freshman of the Year acclaim, was named to the Southwest Region and Southwest Region All-Tournament teams. Jennifer Catano was the third Lady Buff to gain Southwest Region and Southwest Region All-Tournament team honors.

West Texas A&M finished with the worst record in three years despite being preseason No.1 and leading the nation in kills per game. The 30-3 record, the fourth-most wins of any Division II team, was good enough to win the team's fifth-straight Lone Star Conference title as well as the LSC tournament title.

Following a similar story line from previous years, one team proved to be the Achilles heel of the Lady Buffs. Western State beat WTAMU in the second match of the year and then ended the Lady Buffs' run in the NCAA Southwest Regional at Denver, Colo. The University of Tampa beat WTAMU in the three games during the Tampa Classic. The loss was the first match the Lady Buffs lost in three straight games since the eighth match of the 2000 season versus Augustana.

First-Team All-American Shannon Stroud and LSC Player of the Year Jennifer Cabanilla headlined a squad that rolled off 23 straight wins to get through the LSC and into the NCAA Southwest Regional semifinals. Kendra Morgan earned First-Team All-Southwest Region and Second-Team All-American as setter, while Jess Anne Fernandes quietly earned Second-Team All-Southwest Region and LSC Tournament's Most Valuable Player award.

The West Texas A&M Lady Buffs, led by four-year seniors Jess Anne Fernandes, Kimberly James, and Shannon Stroud, junior setter Kendra Morgan, junior libero Kacie Hyatt, and sophomore transfers Megan Moore and Jenny Donahoo got off to a quick 5-0 start, but stumbled with two losses to Metro State and Augustana (S.D.) in the Colorado Premier. They regrouped to win 29-straight matches before losing to Truman State in the NCAA Elite Eight quarterfinals at the WTAMU Event Center before 2,950 partisan fans.

The team swept to their sixth consecutive LSC South Division championship and won their fourth consecutive LSC Championship over host Central Oklahoma. The Lady Buffs lost the first game to UCO, but then raced over the Bronchos in the next three games. They hosted the Southwest Regional Tournament at the Box sweeping Nebraska-Kearney in the semifinals and losing the first game of the final to Rockhurst 29-31, and then winning the next three, 30-27, 33-31, and 30-23.

Hopes were high as WT hosted the Elite Eight for the first time since 1991 at the Amarillo Civic Center. They met a very young Truman State squad in the quarter finals, and lost the first two games 26-30 and 28-30. The Lady Buffs rebounded in the third game, 30-17, but lost the final and decisive fourth game 23-30. Their 20.6% attack percentage was well below the season average of 26.8%.

The Lady Buffs finished sixth in the final AVCA Coaches Top 25 poll with their 35-3 record. Fernandes was named All-LSC South Division First Team and Offensive Player of the Year, Daktronics All-Southwest Region First Team, Daktronics All-American Second Team, and AVCA All-American First Team. Stroud was All-LSC South Division First Team, Daktronics All-Southwest Region First Team, and AVCA All-American Third Team. Morgan was named All-LSC South Division First Team, Daktronics All-Southwest Region Second Team, and AVCA All-American Third Team. Donahoo was named All-LSC South Division First Team and Moore was selected on the Second Team. Hyatt was the LSC South Division Defensive Player of the Year. Graystone was named the AVCA/Tachikara Southwest Region Coach of the Year and the LSC South Division Coach of the Year.

WTAMU snared its seventh-straight LSC South title with a 9-1 division mark, marking the first time since the North-South divisional alignment was implemented in 1997 that the Lady Buffs did not roll through division play undefeated. 1996 was the last time that WTAMU ended the year with a conference loss.

As the South's No. 1 seed, the Lady Buffs won the right to host the LSC Tournament and a first round bye. WTAMU swept Texas Woman's in the semifinals and then swept Central Oklahoma in the championship, defeating the Bronchos for the title for the second year in a row, as the Lady Buffs captured their fifth-straight LSC crown. In the title tilt, Morgan became just the 12th player in NCAA-II history with 6,000 career assists, and earned LSC Tournament MVP honors.

WTAMU's season came to an end with a four-game loss to Rockhurst in the first-round of the Southwest Regional Tournament, hosted by Metro State College at Denver, Colo.

It was a bountiful year, as members of the team raked in several awards. Morgan was named LSC South Offensive Player of the Year, while Hyatt was named LSC South Defensive Player of the Year and Ambra Clark received LSC South Freshman of the Year. Morgan and Clark were chosen to the LSC South first-team, while Hyatt and freshman middle blocker Megan Spivey earned second-team honors, and freshmen outside hitters Jessica Scherr and Rachel Altman received honorable mention accolades.

Morgan and Hyatt were named to the AVCA All-Southwest Region Team, while Clark received Region Freshman of the Year honors and was named to the honorable mention list. For the third-consecutive year, Morgan received AVCA All-American recognition, as her and Hyatt received honorable mention accolades. The Lady Buffs went 129-16 (.890) in the four years that the Morgan-Hyatt duo wore the maroon and white, winning four LSC titles and advancing to the Elite Eight twice.

The seventh-seeded Lady Buff's stay at the NCAA-II Southwest Regional was limited to one match, as WTAMU's season came to an abrupt ending with a 3-0 (30-27, 30-28, 30-26) loss to second-seed Metro State College. WTAMU ended its season with a 27-10 mark, as the Lady Buffs returned to the NCAA-II Southwest Regionals, after missing the tourney in 2004 for the first time since 1993.

The Lady Buffs fell in five games to the University of Central Oklahoma in the semifinals of the LSC tournament. This was the 10th time in the last 11 seasons that the Lady Buffs reached the 20-win plateau. Bell and middle blocker Cynthia Carter were the two seniors on the Lady Buffs' roster, as they finish their four-year career with a 110-37 (.748) record while wearing the maroon and white, winning two Lone Star Conference Championships, advancing to the Southwest Regionals twice and the Elite Eight in 2002.

Bell was an American Volleyball Coaches Association honorable mention, as well as a first-team AVCA All-Southwest Region. Bell leaves as the WTAMU and LSC career digs record holder, finishing her Lady Buff career with 2,150 digs, which ranks No. 6 on the NCAA-II Career Digs list. She also has established a new LSC single-season record with 739 digs, which is also a WTAMU record. Her 692 digs in 2004 is the No. 2 spot on WTAMU's single-season digs list. The 739 digs this season is in the Top 10 on the NCAA-II Single-Season Digs With 30-point Scoring Format/Unlimited Libero Substitutions List. Bell's 5.91 dpg average sets a new LSC record and ranks in the top five on the NCAA-II list.

Led by four determined seniors, the 2006 Lady Buffs returned the program to its place among the nation's elite with a dominant regular season and an impressive playoff run that saw them reach the Elite Eight for the ninth time in school history. The squad ended the season with a 34-4 overall mark, the most wins in a season since 2002, and also tied a school record for consecutive victories at 29.

The playoff run began at the "The Box" as by virtue of their impressive regular season, the Lady Buffs were selected to host the Southwest Regional Tournament. In the early rounds, WTAMU easily got back scrappy foes in Abilene Christian and Montana State-Billings to set up what would become an epic regional final against Mesa State. The Lady Buffs took two of the first three games but the Mavericks battled back to claim game four and send the match to a deciding contest. In the final frame, WTAMU got an impressive performance from sophomore middle blocker Kelly Culley to secure the Regional Championship.

During the Elite Eight in Pensacola, Fla., the Lady Buffs claimed an opening day victory over Lock Haven, before falling to North Alabama in the National Semifinals. Senior setter Libby Garza earned AVCA honorable mention All-American accolades, while Natalie Johnson was named Southwest Regional Freshman of the Year and Tony Graystone was selected as Southwest Regional Coach of the Year.

After graduating four leading seniors, the young 2007 Lady Buffs had a lot to prove, and they did it in a dominant fashion, reaching the Elite Eight for the second consecutive year and the tenth time in school history. The squad ended the season with an overall record of 36-8, going undefeated in Lone Star conference play at 12-0.

The No. 10 Lady Buffs ended No. 22 Nebraska-Kearney's 19-game winning streak with a 3-0 (30-28, 31-29, 30-24) sweep in the NCAA Division II Southwest Regional Final in Kearney, Nebr. The lack of senior leadership was never apparent as sophomore Natalie Johnson led the team with 17 kills and two block assists and freshman Lauren Theford had 12 kills and three block assists in addition to her team-leading digs.

During the Elite Eight in Topeka, Kans., the Lady Buffs beat Grand Valley State 3-2, before falling to Concordia-St. Paul in the National Semifinals. Junior Sara Contreras set a new school record for digs in a season with 869, surpassing the former record of 739 set by Britanni Bell in 2005. Sophomore Katie Rickwartz earned AVCA honorable mention All-American accolades, and sophomore Laura Prinsen was the LSC Offensive Player of the Year. Coach Tony Graystone was honored with the LSC Coach of the Year and the AVCA Coach of the Year awards for the second consecutive year.

With a strong group of returners to the 2008 team, the Lady Buffs had high hopes for a strong postseason appearance, reaching the NCAA South Central Regional tournament for the 19th time in school history. The Lady Buffs finished the season with an overall record of 34-5, and another undefeated record in Lone Star Conference play at 13-0.

After a dominant finish at the LSC Tournament, the #4-ranked Lady Buffs faced #11-ranked Pittsburg State in the first round of the NCAA South Central Regional tournament. Having been beaten by Pitt State earlier in the season, WT came ready to play as four Lady Buffs posted double-digit kills. Juniors Natalie Johnson and Laura Prinsen recorded 26 and 19 kills, respectively, to lead all kills. WT won the first two sets before falling in the third set and taking the fourth set for the win.

WT then faced #5-ranked Emporia State in the second round of the NCAA South Central Regional tournament, falling in three sets to the Hornets. Senior Sara Contreras and juniors Laura Prinsen, Melissa Harper, and Katie Rickwartz all earned all-America honors. Prinsen received LSC Offensive Player of the Year accolades and Rickwartz was honored with LSC Setter of the Year honors for the second-consecutive season. Contreras set a new career digs record with 2,248, surpassing the previous record of 2,150 set by Shannon Stroud and was also named as the LSC Libero of the Year.

Led by four experienced senior, the 2009 Lady Buffs returned the program to its place among the nation's elite with a 39-4 overall record and their fourth straight perfect run through the Lone Star Conference with a 13-0 mark under first year head coach Jason Skoch.

The playoff run began in Warrensburg, Missouri as the Lady Buffs swept Truman State and Washburn before taking on host Central Missouri in the South Central Regional Finals, WT defeated the Jennies in four sets to advance to the Elite Eight in St. Paul, Minnesota.

The Lady Buffs defeated California (Pa.) on the opening day of the Elite Eight in four sets then advanced to the National Championship match for the first time since 1997 with a four set victory over Flager. The #5 Lady Buffs would fall to #1 Concordia-St. Paul in three sets to finish the season with a 39-4 overall record.

Seniors Laura Prinsen, Katie Rickwartz, and Melissa Harper were all honored as AVCA All-Americans. Harper was named the Lone Star Conference Offensive Player of the Year and Rickwartz was named the Setter of the Year for the third straight season. Laurent Theford was honored for her hard work in the classroom, being named the conference's Academic Player of the Year.

The Lady Buffs were knocked out of the first round of the South Central Regional tournament for the first time since 2005, falling in four sets (25-22, 20-25, 21-25, 24-26) to Emporia State at the Central Missouri Multipurpose Complex in Warrensburg, Mo. It was a bitter ending for the Lady Buffs who overcame a mid-season struggle to close out the regular-season with a 27-9 overall record, which included WT going undefeated for a fifth-consecutive season in the Lone Star Conference.

The Lady Buffs not only went undefeated in conference play, but also managed to break a NCAA Division II record for the second time in program history - capturing it's 78th-consecutive match victory over an LSC opponent. WT took down Tarleton State in an epic, five-set match on Oct. 28, to break the original record of 77-straight matches that was set by the Lady Buffs back in 2003. WT then closed out the season winning five-straight matches over LSC opponents and will begin the 2011 campaign having won 83-consecutive matches over conference foes.

Senior Lauren Theford, who ended her career as just the fourth Lady Buff player in history to collect over 1,000 kills and 1,500 digs, was named to the all-LSC first team and became the LSC's first ever volleyball player to win back-to-back Academic Player of the Year honors. Juniors Erika Dupree and Keidra Williams each earned second team honors, while sophomore Stormi Lancaster and freshman Ashley Davis were both named honorable mention. Williams was tabbed the conference's Newcomer of the Year and head coach Jason Skoch took LSC Coach of the Year honors.

The Lady Buffs clinched their sixth straight Lone Star Conference Tournament Title to claim their seventh straight and 22nd overall appearance in the 2011 NCAA South Central Regional Tournament. WT topped Arkansas Fort Smith in four sets before falling to second seed and #5 nationally ranked Washburn in straight sets in the Regional Semifinals.

It was a tough ending for the Lady Buffs who finished the season with a 34-3 overall record, claiming the LSC regular season and tournament championship.

Lady Buffs' Ashley Davis, Erin Dougherty and Lacey Hayes were named AVCA All-Americans for their efforts on the court. Davis was named the LSC Co-Offensive Player of the Year with Dougherty the Defensive POY and Hayes the Setter of the Year in the league. Head coach Jason Skoch took LSC Coach of the Year honors for the second straight season.

The Lady Buffs clinched their seventh straight Lone Star Conference Tournament Title to claim their eighth straight and 23rd overall appearance in the 2012 NCAA South Central Regional Tournament held on the campus of Regis University in Denver, Colorado as the #2 overall seed. WT topped Arkansas Fort Smith in straight sets in the quarterfinals before outlasting Colorado School of Mines in four sets in the semifinals to set up an All-LSC Regional Final against rival Angelo State where the Lady Buffs topped the Belles in four sets for their 12th Regional Championship.

The Lady Buffs fell to BYU-Hawaii in the opening round of the 2012 NCAA Elite Eight held on the campus of West Florida in Pensacola, Florida. The Seasideers used a powerful front line and outside hitters as they topped the Lady Buffs in straight sets (25-25, 25-16, 25-14).

Lacy Hayes, Erin Dougherty and Lauren Beville were named All-Americans for their efforts on the court while Beville became WT's all-time career leader in digs on November 6th in Portales, New Mexico. The senior from Hereford, Texas finished her stellar career as a Lady Buff with 2,423 career digs.

The Lady Buffs they claimed the program's 18th overall Lone Star Conference Championship with a perfect 16-0 league record before claiming their 15th overall and eighth straight LSC Tournament Championship on November 23rd in Canyon with a five set win over then #20 Angelo State.

West Texas A&M was selected to host their ninth South Central Regional Championship on December 5-7 as they registered wins over Dallas Baptist, Regis and #20 Angelo State to claim the program's 13th Regional Championship. The tournament marked the first time that WT had hosted a regional since 2009, the three wins this season moved WT to a perfect 17-0 when hosting the regional tournament.

WT made their way to the NCAA Elite Eight in Cedar Rapids, Iowa as they swept past East Region Champion LIU-Post in the quarterfinals before falling to BYU-Hawaii in a five set thriller in the semifinals. The Lady Buffs dropped the opening two sets to the Seasideers but battled back to hold an 11-8 lead in the fifth and deciding set before BYUH ended WT's season with seven straight points for the 15-11 win.

Three members of the 2013 team joined an elite group of Lady Buffs as they were named All-Americans, WT has produced a staggering 25 All-Americans in program history including three National Player of the Year recipients. Laura Iwuchukwu was named an All-American by Daktronics (1st Team) and the AVCA (2nd Team) while also being honored as a 1st Team Capital One Academic All-American for her efforts in the classroom. Lauren Bevan and Halie Harton picked-up AVCA Honorable Mention All-American accolades while Jason Skoch was named the AVCA South Central Region Coach of the Year after leading the Lady Buffs to a 35-4 overall record.

The Lady Buffs finished the 2014 season with an overall record of 32-5 as they claimed the program's 19th Lone Star Conference Championship with a 16-0 record to mark the 16th time since 1986 that WT has finished the league schedule undefeated. The Lady Buffs made their 10th straight and 25th overall NCAA Postseason appearance, which is fifth all-time, before falling to host Colorado Mesa in the South Central Regional Semifinals in Grand Junction, Colorado.

Lauren Bevan was named an AVCA 1st Team All-American along with a Daktronics 3rd Team selection while fellow senior Kameryn Hayes was named a Daktronics Honorable Mention All-American for her efforts on the court. Bevan, the Lone Star Conference Offensive Player of the Year and Daktronics South Central Region player of the Year, registered one of the best seasons in recent memory for the Lady Buffs as the Ventura, California native led the LSC in kills during the regular season. Hayes guided the powerful WT offense as the senior was named the Lone Star Conference Co-Setter of the Year for the Lady Buffs who finished the season 32-5 with an appearance in the South Central Regional Semifinals.

The 2014 campaign saw the Lady Buffs start the season 2-2 following the annual BritKare Lady Buff Classic but Lone Star Conference Coach of the Year Jason Skoch turned the team around as they registered a perfect 16-0 mark in league play during the regular season while also tallying a 23-match win streak throughout the heart of the season which ranks tied for the fourth longest streak in West Texas A&M Volleyball history. Skoch was named the league's Coach of the Year for the second straight season and the fourth time in his six years at the helm of the Lady Buffs.

The Lady Buffs finished the 2017 season with an overall record of 23-14 as they made an appearance in the program's 26th appearance in the NCAA Division II Postseason, advancing to the South Central Regional Finals before falling to the Regis Rangers at the Regis Fieldhouse in Denver, Colorado.

WT topped rival Tarleton State in four sets during the Regional Quarterfinals before sweeping past Metro State in the Semifinal round, but the high-powered Ranger offense was too much for the Lady Buffs as they fell in four sets during the Regional Finals.

West Texas A&M's Erin Clark was named the Lone Star Conference Freshman of the Year while Crystal Thomas, Selene Batiste and Kamilie Jones were all honored for their efforts on the court with All-Lone Star Conference accolades.

Kendra Potts led her alma mater to the South Central Regional Quarterfinals during her first season at the helm in 2019 to become just the fourth head coach in program history to guide WT to the NCAA Tournament during their first season as the Lady Buffs finished the campaign with an overall record of 22-7.

Torrey Miller, the AVCA South Central Region Freshman of the Year became one of the top outside hitters in all of Division II Volleyball during her first season in Maroon & White as the Brownwood native registered 433 kills on 1,046 swings with 165 attack errors to hit .256 on the season to average an impressive 4.08 kills per frame. She was named an All-American by D2CCA (Honorable Mention) and the AVCA (Second Team).

Chandler Vogel, the two-time reigning Lone Star Conference Libero of the Year, has been a staple in the back row for the Lady Buffs as the Hereford product led the team in service aces (31) and digs (582) to average an incredible 5.70 digs per frame. The Hereford product was tabbed an Honorable Mention All-American by the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) as she entered her senior campaign ranked fifth on WT's all-time digs list with 1,827.
