Robert Kyle Joins RTD as the New Chief Financial Officer

Stockton, CA— San Joaquin Regional Transit District (RTD) announces Robert Kyle as the newest member of the executive leadership team. As CFO, Kyle will oversee RTD's operating and capital budgets, financial reporting, grants, and procurement.

Kyle brings over 24 years of experience in financial leadership positions, most recently serving as CFO for a manufacturing plant in Stockton. Prior to that, he worked as a contractor in Kabul, Afghanistan for the United States Agency for International Development (USAID) as the Director of Finance where he was involved in two notable projects; Sika South (Stabilization in Key Areas) and ACEP (Afghanistan Clean Energy Program).

"Finding the right CFO is no small task, said CEO Alex Clifford. "Mr. Kyle brings with him a wealth of financial management experience and a track record of achievements. For these reasons, he is the ideal leader to take the helm of our finance operations and deliver a comprehensive strategic financial vision that will help drive RTD's future and success."

Kyle is dual licensed as a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and as a Certified Management Accountant (CMA). He is a six-year U.S. Army veteran having assignments in South Korean, West Germany, and Georgia, U.S.A.

San Joaquin Regional Transit District (RTD) is the regional transit provider for San Joaquin County. RTD's mission is to provide a safe, reliable, and efficient transportation system for the region.
