Paint the towns green for

St. Patrick's Day

BY SAMANTHA SKOLNICK

NIGHT & DAY MAGAZINE

Get ready to enjoy the Irish season this year by attending the amazing parades the Jersey Shore has to offer. Listen to incredible pipe bands, watch floats pass by and be entertained by so much more this March when you attend these St. Patrick's Day parades.

BELMAR/LAKE COMO

The Belmar/Lake Como St. Patrick's Day Parade is back again this year on Sunday, March 6 at 12:30p.m. Get ready for one of the most famous St. Patrick's Day Parades in New Jersey.

This year it was announced that there will be two Grand Marshals: Amanda Louise Cregan and Craig Coyle.

Ms. Cregan is the very first woman to ever have the honor of being a Grand Marshall for the Belmar/Lake Como St. Patrick's Day Parade. She was raised in Belmar and calls West Belmar home with her fiancé and family. Throughout her life she has been the President of the Women of Irish Heritage Jersey Shore, a Committee Chair of Manasquan Cub Scout Pack 59 and Manasquan Scout Troop 59 Committee. This is not her first time in the parade, she's been a part of this amazing event since the 1980s where she started with marching band, which then led her to become a member of the Barnegat Bay Pipe Band and then Pipes and Drums of the Jersey Shore Shillelaghs.

Mr. Coyle of Neptune has a large family and has many special ways of connecting with his Irish heritage. He is the Vice President with the Friendly Sons of the Shillelagh, and is a former Shillelagh of the Year and Ancient Order of the Hibernians Irishman of the Year. In his free time, he is also an active member of the Jersey Shore Running Club, and enjoys being involved with many fundraisers for the Friendly

Songs of the Shillelagh.

The parade route begins on North Lake Boulevard and Main Street in Lake Como and proceeds north along Belmar's Main Street toward Avon-by-the-Sea.

For more information visit belmarparade.com.

OCEAN COUNTY

Get ready to enjoy the luck of the Irish at this year's Ocean County St. Patrick's Day Parade. It will step off at noon on Saturday March 12 at Noon.

The parade will go down the Boulevard in Seaside Heights.

The official home of the parade this year will be Klee's Bar and Grill located at 101 Boulevard Seaside Heights.

B98.5 will have a live broadcast from the Grand Stand.

At the end of the parade, meet at the Hershey Motel for a post parade party and entertainment by the band Ballyhaunis!

This year's St. Patrick's Day Parade committee members include President Tom King, Vice President Patrick Jockel, Treasurer Brian Morton, Secretary Robyn King, and Trustees Bernie Mackle, Erin Ryan, and Dennis Morton.

For more information, to complete a march application, or become a sponsor, go to ocstpatricks-dayparade.com.

FREEHOLD

Celebrate St. Patrick's Day this year in Downton Freehold for the Freehold Borough Arts Council's 10th Annual St. Patrick's Day Parade 2022. It will be held on Sunday, March 13 at 1 p.m.

This year's Honorary Grand Marshal is Lori-Anne McLane. McLane is the President and CEO of United Way of Monmouth and Ocean Counties.

Many organizations are working to make this parade possible, including the Ancient Order of Hibernians St. Oliver Plunkett Division #16, the Freehold Elks Lodge No. 1454, the Columbian Club/ Knights of Columbus, and DowntownFreehold.com.

The parade will start at 10 East Main Street, in Downton Freehold.

For more information visit downtownfreehold.com.

ASBURY PARK

St. Patrick's Day is back in Asbury Park for this year's St. Patrick's Day Parade. The parade will be held on March 13 at 1p.m. This year's official headquarters will be Johnny Mac House of Spirits.

The parade will begin on Ocean Avenue with a staging area, the reviewing stand will be at Cookman Avenue, and it will end on Main Street.

This year's Grand Marshal will be John McGill-lion. McGillion was one of the proud founders of the St. Patrick's Day Parade, and will be posthumously honored as the Grand Marshal. He and his wife, Mary, created the Johnny Mac House of Spirits. Sadly, McGillion passed away at the age of 78 on July 12, 2020. McGillion will be honored on a Johnny Mac House of Spirits float to celebrate him.

An after party will be held at the Wonder Bar on Ocean Avenue.

To be a part of the parade an application fee will be $50 and a float will cost $250. Applications must be mailed to Asbury Park St. Patrick's Day Parade, P.O. Box 694, Asbury Park, NJ 07712.

For more information, visit asburyparkstpatricksparade.com.

RUMSON

One of the best parades around, Rumson will be having the St. Patrick's Day Parade on March 12 at 1p.m.

The Grand Marshal is Charles Hill Jones. Jones and his wife, Hope Haskell Jones, have been an important part of Monmouth County for a number of years. Together, they raised three children and have been a part of civic and education organizations. He was a President of the Board of Trustees of Rumson Country Day School, Trustee and Treasurer of the Child Service Organization in Newark, NJ, and Trustee and Chairman of the Finance Committee for Monmouth Medical Center in Long Branch, NJ.

This year's parade beneficiary is Shore House.

Along with the parade, Rumson is also holding an Irish Heritage Poster Contest and an Irish Essay Competition, both with a deadline of March 4.

For more information visit rumsonstpatricks-dayparade.org.

HIGHLANDS

Enjoy March 17th in the best way possible at the Highlands St. Patrick's Parade! It will take place on Saturday, March 19 at 2 pm.

The Grand Marshals are Nancy Burton and Eileen Ricco, owners of the florist ship, In the Garden. Burton has always been an important member of the Highlands community. From 2007-2008 she was on the Highlands Business Partnership and from 2033-2007 she served as Councilwoman for the Borough of Highlands. Ricco lives in Belford, and became Burton's business partner after Hurricane Sandy. Together they help many non-profits such as the Visiting Nurse Association, the Middletown Art Center, and Sandy Hook Foundation.

Hundreds will march starting at Waterwitch Avenue and on the one mile Bay Avenue. The Henry Hudson Regional Marching Band and Cheerleaders will perform as well as the Monmouth County Police & Fire Pipes & Drums, Friendly Sons of the Shillelagh Pipes and Drums of Old Bride, the Middlesex County Police & Fire Pipes and Drums and many more.

For more information visit highlandsnj.com.

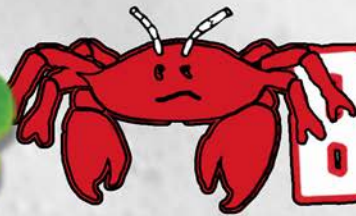

KEYPORT

See if you could get to the end of the rainbow for a pot of gold at this year's St. Patrick's Day Parade in Keyport.

Bring the entire family to enjoy pipe bands, marches, fire trucks, and so much more at this annual event. It will be held on March 19, 1p.m. to 2 p.m.

For more information visit Keyport St. Patrick's Day Parade on Facebook.

TAKE A POLAR PLUNGE!

Plunging for a cause

BY STAR NEWS GROUP STAFF

Freezing cold plunges into the ocean can be restorative and provide many health benefits, but most of the 2022 plunge participants did not do their annual plunge for themselves.

The 2022 cold winter season provided an outlet for several local organizations to fundraise for their worthy causes.

In total, four local plunges raised an estimated $450,000 for various organizations including the LADACIN Network, Local Initiative For Troops [LIFT] Fund for Veterans at Coastal Habitat for Humanity, Elks Camp Moore and Joan Dancy and PALS [People with ALS] and Stay Tough, Fight Hard foundations.

LADACIN MANASQUAN PLUNGE MAKES A SUCCESSFUL RETURN

More than 150 individuals excitedly dashed into the Atlantic Ocean off Main Street Beach in Manasquan on a frigid Saturday afternoon in January, making a splash and a difference in support of persons with disabilities.

The ocean water temperature for the 14th annual LADACIN Plunge on Jan. 15 was in the mid-40s, but the air temperature was 19 degrees. Before braving the icy Atlantic, plungers gathered at Leggett's Sand Bar & Restaurant.

$60,000 was raised for LADACIN Network, which is a non-profit agency whose mission is to provide a continuum of care, including educational, therapeutic, social, residential, and support services to infants, children, and adults with complex physical and developmental disabilities or delays, stated Patti Carlesimo, executive director of the organization. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, LADACIN hosted a virtual plunge last year instead of the ocean plunge.

Joseph J. Russell Jr. of Manasquan founded and continues to coordinate the event. His cousin, Elizabeth "Liz" Hartnett, is a client of LADACIN Network, and has inspired his involvement in supporting the agency. Her father, J. Michael Hartnett, was a long-time agency board member and advocate for people with disabilities.

Each year participants are encouraged to dress up in festive costumes to celebrate the day.

"It's definitely the coldest year. We're gonna get in there, we're gonna get out of there [and] we're gonna raise some money for a good cause," said Ms. Russell, explaining that in prior years the plunge saw both snow and rain but never temperatures in the low 20s.

MARK R. SULLIVAN NIGHT & DAY MAGAZINE

"All those years it was in the 30s, so this is by far our coldest year," she said.

Pipers and drummers of the Friendly Sons of Shiloh (FSOS) led the plungers with a tune as they made their way to the beach and down to the water.

Scott and Shannon MacDonald expressed their excitement to be attending the plunge.

"It's always a fun event, and a lot of people show up, which is great. It's a good cause," stated Ms. MacDonald. "I'm happy to be here, it's for a great cause and we're happy to get everyone on to the beach with the pipes and drums," added Mr. MacDonald, who has been playing in the pipe band for seven years.

The Manasquan Fire Department, First Aid Squad, Police Department and The U.S. Coast Guard kept a close watch of the participants throughout the plunge.

"It was brutal out there, but it's for a good cause. I'm all for it, and I went fully in," said Victoria Flotard of Oceanport who stated that it was her first time doing the plunge. "I'll be back next year for sure," she added.

SEA GIRL HOSTS ICY PLUNGE
AIDING VETERANS AND HONORING TROOPER
Residents bravely faced freezing waters during Sea Girl's first Patriot Polar Plunge on Saturday, Feb. 5. Proceeds went to the Local Initiative For Troops (LIFT) Fund for Veterans at Coastal Habitat for Humanity. In addition, proceeds will help Jersey Shore area Veterans with home improvement and housing needs.

The event was also in honor of State Trooper Juan Fajardo, who died last November in a motor-vehicle incident.

The LIFT fund was originally created in 2019 with the Sea Girl 5K. It's mission is to assist local veterans with home repairs, from commonly needed improvements to installing handicapped accessible amenities.

The event's main beneficiary was Coastal Habitat for Humanity, an affiliate of Habitat for Humanity International. It's mission is "to put love and respect into action by bringing people of all backgrounds together to build and repair homes and communities," according to its website. Coastal Habitat for Humanity has helped hundreds of Southern Monmouth County since its establishment in 1994.

According to Mike D'Altrui, the head of Sea Girl's Recreation Commission, over 350 people registered for the event, and a few hundred of those participants took part in the actual plunge. Mr. D'Altrui said that between sponsors, participants and individual donations, the event raised over $30,000.

"It was a cold day, windy, so it was quite frigid," Mr. D'Altrui said. "But it came out to be a really special event."

"It was a great success, especially for our first-time event," he continued.

The town assisted the recreation department with the event by providing lifeguards, EMS and "all the things that were needed to put it together."

JOHN SENTNER MEMORIAL PLUNGE RAISES MORE THAN $100K

More than 300 participants dashed into the Atlantic Ocean for the 15th annual John Sentner Memorial Plunge, presented by the New Jersey Elks Association on Saturday, Feb. 12.

Last year, the plunge was held virtually due to the coronavirus pandemic. In its return, preliminary financial reports show the event raised over $100,000, said Elks Committee Treasurer Ann Marie OHare, adding that it was the Elks best plunge yet.

"It was a great day that exceeded our expectations," she said. "I think people were really excited to be back at Martell's doing the plunge. To do it live this year made such a difference."

Following their dip in 40 degree waters, participants were invited to Martell's Tiki Bar for a celebratory reception featuring a gift auction, a 50/50 raffle, food and drink specials.

“Martell’s service to us was absolutely spot-on. They did an outstanding job,” said Ms. OHare.

Amy Sentner, the youngest daughter of John Sentner, the creator of the plunge and its beneficiary, stated the plunge was well planned and well attended and that she was ‘overjoyed’ to be a part of it.

“The weather was beautiful. The crowd was more than I anticipated due to where we are with COVID. I think everybody wanted to get out and celebrate for a great cause. I’m very pleased by the number of participants that actually jumped into the water as well as the attendees that came to the event in support of a great cause,” she said.

Ms. Sentner noted that she was pleasantly surprised with the amount of funds raised.

“The amount of money was overwhelming. I didn’t expect that we would be able to reach our goal of $100,000 almost in one event. Typically we take over three events to get to that. To actually reach what we think of a net profit of $80,000 just for that one day was overwhelming.”

Ms. Sentner, who is also the advisor to the Elks Plunge Committee, added, “It went well. Everybody had a good time. Friends that hadn’t seen each other in a long time had gathered together. A lot of people enjoyed winning prizes and supporting local businesses that contributed to the gift auction from the local surrounding areas.”

The plunge was established by the former Elks state president and Wall Township resident John Sentner, who named his fundraiser the Miracle Plunge. When Mr. Sentner died in 2012, the event was rechristened in his honor and has continued annually.

The plunge is a major fundraiser for Elks Camp Moore, a camp in Haskell dedicated to special-needs children. “Everybody just had a really great time and we were able to raise a substantial amount of money for Elks Camp Moore,” stated Ms. OHare.

The primary goal of Camp Moore is to further develop the recreational and social skills of each child. In a relaxed and accepting atmosphere, each camper experiences new adventures, lasting friendships and opportunities that promote independence and greater self-confidence, according to njelks.org.

ALS PLUNGE DRAWS HUNDREDS TO BEACH

An estimated 500 plungers, cheered on by twice that many spectators, gathered at Manasquan Beach on Saturday, Feb. 12 for the 16th annual Valentine Plunge fundraiser for the Joan Dancy and PALS [People with ALS] and Stay Tough, Fight Hard foundations.

Founder Jim O’Neill called it one of the most successful plunges in the event’s history, raising more than $260,000 in donations.

The fundraiser was boosted by a beautiful day in Manasquan for February, with temperatures in the 50s as participants ventured into the surf.

“I know the weather had something to do with it,” said Mr. O’Neill. “Amen to that because they are looking down on us for sure. We’ve had some crummy weather in the past with this event, but it was a blessing in disguise.”

“The dedication from those with this disease and their families is amazing. Some of these people have been here for 15 to 16 years since our inception. Unfortunately, we lose around ten patients every year, but we also gain ten more. This event will never die unless they cure the disease,” said Mr. O’Neill.

Mr. O’Neill’s brother Tim died from ALS in 2007, at about the time that an annual Special Olympics plunge was moving out of Point Pleasant, leaving an opening for a new plunge event in the general area.

“I saw an opportunity to start one in Manasquan. You don’t have to be an athlete, certain age, or physically fit. You just need the will desire and the stones to do it,” he said.

“Any color or creed, it doesn’t matter because everyone gets touched by this disease. I’m proud to be a part of it.”

According to Mr. O’Neill, the Valentine Plunge has raised more than $3 million in the past 16 years in donations to the Joan Dancy and PALS Foundation, which offers care for people with ALS in Mercer, Monmouth, Ocean, and Middlesex counties.

Other donations are given to Stay Tough, Fight Hard, which provides grants to patients outside of the surrounding counties. According to Mr. O’Neill, these grants provide patients a better quality of life by paying for caregivers, wheelchairs, and the needed equipment for patients.

“When you look at all the things people need, which our donations go to, it makes you want to cry, how bad and debilitating this disease is,” he said.

“Joan Dancy and PALS provides nurses for people with ALS,” Mr. O’Neill said. “They will hold your hand from the time you get it to when you die. There are different levels to the disease, and hopefully, we find a cure soon, but all our donations go to quality-of-life issues.”

The Stone Pony

Beat your cabin fever with a Stone Pony show

BY KATIE JACOBS
NIGHT & DAY MAGAZINE

It can be hard to endure the long nights of winter at home with just your playlist to keep you entertained, so why not get out of the house — beat your cabin fever — and head over to The Stone Pony in Asbury Park. The March lineup at the Pony is diverse with so much talent packed into one month, you're sure to find an old, or new, favorite to enjoy. Visit stoneponyonline.com/ to purchase tickets.

LAUREN ALAINA

Lauren Alaina is ten years into her Nashville career and she has earned a reputation as one of the genre's most compelling storytellers. This "Top of the World Tour" will give you a glimpse into her bold lyrics that incorporate her struggles and heartaches. She is joined by special guest Spencer Crandall on Thursday, March 3 at 7p.m. on the Stone Pony stage. Tickets are $20 in advance, $25 at the door.

JUDAS PRIESTESS

Friday, March 4 is girl's night, so to speak, at the Pony. The all-girl tribute to metal gods Judas Priestess hits the stage at 7p.m. with special guests Metal Life Crisis and more. Boys and girls alike will enjoy this heavy metal phenomenon and enjoy their take on classic metal. You can get your tickets in advance for $20 or $25 at the door.

JAKE CLEMONS BAND

Solo artist and E Street Band member Jake Clemons returns to The Pony with his band on Saturday, March 5 at 7p.m. Kick off the show with Jake's cousin Jarod Clemons and his band, the Late Nights, as the opening act. Jake's musical endeavors this past decade have made him a familiar figure around the world and now is your chance to see him right in your backyard. Tickets are $25 in advance and $30 at the door.

TRAMPS LIKE US

Springsteen fans can roll right off the Clemons show into a two-set four-hour show of classic Bruce favorites when Tramps Like Us takes the stage on Friday, March 18. Doors open at 7 p.m. and the show runs from 8p.m. to midnight. Tramps Like Us is renowned for their fan rapport often playing endless requests from the audience during their shows. The Stone Pony is one of their favorite places to play and please Asbury Park fans. Grab your tickets $22 in advance or $25 at the door.

THE NERDS PLAID PARTY

The Nerds first-ever Plaid Party is at the one and only Stone Pony on Saturday, March 19. Celebrate St. Paddy's Day weekend dressed in your best plaids and enjoy the Nerds with special guest The 7th Realm. Doors open at 6:30p.m. and the show is 7p.m. to 11:30p.m. Tickets are $20 in advance, $25 at the door. If you haven't experienced The Nerds live yet, here's your chance!

WOLF ALICE

UK favorites, Wolf Alice, will be on the Pony Stage on Thursday, March 24 at 7p.m. Ellie Rowsell (vocals, guitar), Joff Oddie (guitar, vocals), Joel Amey (drums) and Theo Ellis (bass) formed their band in 2015 and have seen success ever since. Their gold-selling debut album "My Love is Cool" has soared to #2 on the UK charts and their sophomore album "Visions of a Life" picked up a Grammy nomination for Best Rock Performance.

SOCCER MOMMY

Sophie Allison, aka Soccer Mommy, takes the Stone Pony stage on Friday, March 25 with meaningful lyrics off her "color theory" album. The album confronts the ongoing mental health and familial trials that have plagued the 22-year-old artists since pre-pubescence, presenting listeners with an uncompromising honest self-portrait. Tickets are $22 each on stoneponyonline.com

MOROCCAN SHEEPHERDERS

Come enjoy what the Moroccan Shepherders themselves call a "heady melange of genres ranging from tribal ambient trance to hard-core, blue-eyed blues-rock," because after hearing that description, how could you not go hear it for yourself?! On Saturday, March 26 you have your chance to give this unique band a listen on the Stone Pony stage. Tickets are $17 in advance and $20 at the door.

THE RECORD COMPANY

This Los Angeles trio hits the Jersey Shore coming off their third album, "Play Loud" and pushing themselves into uncharted territory with new tracks that move beyond the homemade sound of The Record Company's first two albums. Band members Alex Stiff, Chris Vos and Marc Cazorla take the stage on Thursday, March 31 at 7p.m. Tickets are $25 each on stoneponyonline.com.

Local business Bungalow Road shares reflection of 2021, plans for 2022

BY ANTHONY J. GARCIA
NIGHT & DAY MAGAZINE

AVON-BY-THE-SEA — Bungalow Road, a business located at 507 Main St. has for over a decade offered customers items to purchase as gifts for loved ones.

What items does your store have for sale?

We sell women's clothing, jewelry, accessories, baby gifts, children's activities and crafts, candles and celebration gifts from weddings to birthdays to Mother's Day or even a simple hostess gift.

How has your business adapted because of the pandemic?

People are embracing entertainment at home. We continue to sell items that lend themselves to enjoying your home: candles, puzzles, fun cocktail napkins and dish towels, pretty serving platters.

What was the greatest challenge for the store in 2022?

Our biggest challenge was the supply chain. Due to the pandemic, many gift shows, venues for purchasing were canceled. We had to do our buying from catalogs and websites. It is always more helpful to see the product in person.

What's on the agenda for Bungalow Road in the new year?

Always on our agenda is finding new gift ideas that continue to satisfy customers and keep them coming back to shop

When did the store open?

We opened in Avon in 2011, Atlantic Highlands in 2014 and Sea Bright in 2018. We have four owners – Katie Cashman, Bridget Duffy, Chrissy Stansbury and Kara Wirin.

How can people get in touch with Bungalow Road?

Our stores are open seven days a week 10 a.m to 5 p.m. and Sundays noon to 4 p.m. Visit us on our website www.bungalowroad.com. Follow us and DM us @Bungalow_road.

Bungalow Road in Avon-by-the-Sea is the original location of the gift store, which has expanded since, opening two more locations.

Warm up on a cold winter's day with The Kitchen at 35's hot tomato soup and a cheesy and tasty grilled cheese sandwich. This Night & Day top pick is located at 2601 Route 35 in Manasquan and offers a large menu with plenty of breakfast, lunch and dinner specialities to choose from.

TOP COMFORT FOOD

TOP LOBSTER

This Highlands staple, Bahrs Landing, was recently spotlighted in a Super Bowl commercial featuring the Soprano offspring, but if you visit, the lobster is the real star at this waterfront location. Bahrs offers a giant menu for lunch, dinner and specials with so many favorites to choose from. Be sure to visit the outdoor tiki bar when the weather warms.

Leggett's Sand Bar offers wood fire brick oven pizza that is packed with flavor. This Margherita Pie is just one of 21 varieties available on the Leggett's menu. Grab a cold drink and a warm slice next time you're on the beachfront. Leggett's is located at 217 First Avenue, Manasquan.

Blend On Main's Asian Calamari is served artfully as a takeout container that took a spill. The domestic calamari is served battered with thai chili plum sauce and complimented by wasabi crema and nori furi kaki seasoning. It's a must have from the conversation starters menu at this 152 Main Street, Manasquan hot spot.

Restaurant re-opening welcomed on historic site of former livery stable

BY COREY ROTHAUER
NIGHT & DAY MAGAZINE

SPRING LAKE — Mayor Jennifer Naughton, along with members of the borough council, joined a gathering at 1300 Third Ave. this month, to celebrate the grand re-opening of a restaurant located in one of the borough's historic spots, home to a livery stable during the 1870's.

According to the Spring Lake Historical Society, the stable had been one of several operating in the borough during that era, but a fire in 1900 was followed by a rush of new construction along Third Avenue. It included a building on the former stable site that first housed Hill's Pharmacy and later Dale's Coffee Shop.

In May of 2021, the building was purchased by Bradley Rodriguez, 38, of Neptune, who opened Spring Lake Seafood there with his wife, operating through the summer, before closing for renovations.

By that time, the restaurant had established itself in the community as a good place to enjoy fresh seafood, according to Spring Lake councilwoman Syd Whalley.

"Ever since I was a little kid, I wanted to open up a fish market restaurant down here. I grew up going to Spike's, and I worked at the old Jody's [seafood market] in Manasquan that's now Surf Taco. I've always loved cooking, and the opportunity wasn't there until now."

BRADLEY RODRIGUEZ

"Having dined at Spring Lake Seafood many times since they opened last year, I am pleased to see the fresh look that Brad and Lula have created and anticipate many more delicious meals here. The whole town is excited to see the new look and have such great seafood within walking distance," said Ms. Whalley

For Mr. Rodriguez, who works with his wife Lula, daughter Rebecca, and his aunt, the re-opening of Spring Lake Seafood represents a lifelong dream.

"We took this space over the week before summer last year," Mr. Rodriguez said. "We did what we could to get through the summer. My wife and I knew we were going to renovate it, but we didn't realize it would be this good."

"Ever since I was a little kid, I wanted to open up a fish market restaurant down here. I grew up going to Spike's, and I worked at the old Jody's [seafood market] in Manasquan that's now Surf Taco. I've always loved cooking, and the opportunity wasn't there until now," said Mr. Rodriguez.

To Mr. Rodriguez, Spring Lake is the perfect place for him to pursue the dream of owning a seafood restaurant. He's been fishing along the garden state coast for his whole life. He's recently done a lot of spearfishing, and Last year, he said he had over 130 dives.

"I've been fishing my whole life, started in freshwater but now mostly saltwater. I'm either on, in, under the water every day," he said.

"Spring Lake is the perfect spot for a fish market restaurant. You got to go to Klein's [Fish Market] in Belmar ... for the nearest one. The town and people of Spring Lake are awesome, so this was a home run."

Mr. Rodriguez hopes to create a conscious business that ensures people get the best ingredients and know the difference in quality.

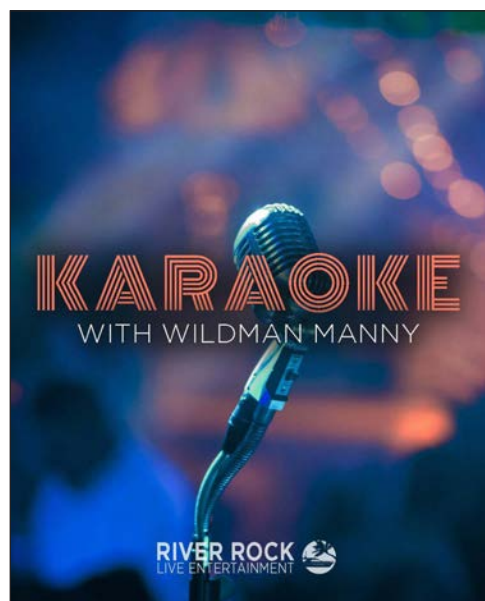

"The most important thing to let people know is that our mission is to create lasting memories and create a sustainable business model. If you look at trends in food and resources in the last 100 years, humankind is very good at abusing resources and trying to recreate them," said Mr. Rodriguez.

Mr. Rodriguez says his goals are to stay connected to the supply chain and find the most sustainable products in the market. He's helped open up seafood restaurants in the past and has forged relationships with suppliers across the state.

"There's a lot more transparency for consumers who are more educated on where their food is coming from. When people get it in their hands, and it's cooked properly, they really will notice the difference when they eat something grown properly and sustainably without added hormones or antibiotics."

Come party with The Ruckus at Lake Como's newest hotspot Salty's Beach Bar. The Jersey Shore party band will bring to life hits from all genres including country, dance, pop, rock and hip hop on the Salty's Beach Bar stage. The music starts at 8pm.
