IRD Abolishes Nine Positions

Nine civilian positions are being abolished in the Industrial Relations department effective the first week in November, it was announced this week. The positions are being abolished because of budget cuts.

Positions affected are: one auto, mobile mechanic, body and fender; four auto mechanics, one helper machinist; one clerk, GS-2; one clerk-typist, GS-2; and one P&S Clerk, GS-3.

Individuals affected have been notified. No further reduction-in-force is contemplated at this time, although it is expected that some further reductions will be accomplished by normal attrition.

13,000 Fans Witness Action During Windward Rodeo

By PFC. CHARLES KANE

Roaring on with the unabated fury of a hurricane, bone crushing, leather-popping action during the Windward Oahu Stampede at K-Bay's Truan arena left little to be desired in the way of thrills and spills in the race for top prize money. An appearance by Mitzi Gaynor, leading lady of the forthcoming 20th Century-Fox production "South Pacific" presently being filmed on Kauai, highlighted the "Grand Entry" Sunday. Col. Jack R. Cram, commanding officer, Marine Corps Air Station, and a participant in the mounted cowboy parade, officially welcomed the vivacious Mitzi with the traditional Hawaiian leis of aloha.

Over 6,000 persons were on hand to witness the closing of the two day affair, bringing the total attendance up to approximately 13,000. All proceeds from the rodeo will be turned over to the Windward Oahu Hospital Building Fund.

In all, 112 levi-clad aspirants to the title of All-Around Champion plunked down entry fees for the various events. These leathery skinned cowpokes hailed from western and mid-western states on the Mainland, from Oahu and other islands in the Hawaiian chain, and from both civilian and military organizations.

Top hand of the two days of ridin' and ropin' was Marine Cpl. Austin Sugar, of the Brigade's. See RODEO ACTION, P-8

JUDGED ALL-Around Champion in the Windward Oahu Stampede, Marine Cpl. Austin Sugar, accepts a handsome saddle from Air Force Col. Bob Clark, rodeo director, at the close of the two-day affair at K-Bay's Truan Arena. Austin won the senior bull and bareback bronc riding events. He captured the title on a turn of the cards after he tied with Jimmy Dowsett of the Big Island for top honors with eight points. The Leatherneck cowpoke drew a nine of spades to shade Dowsett's eight of diamonds, drawn by Tommy Campos. He also won over $300 in prize money plus rodeo belt buckles for the two events in which he won first place.

December Reassignments

Lt. Gen. Megee Named CG, FMFPac; CG, FMFLant Post to Gen. Pollock

Lt. Gen. Edwin A. Pollock, will be reassigned as Commanding General, Fleet Marine Force, Atlantic, with headquarters in Norfolk, Va., the Marine Corps announced Monday. Lt. Gen. Vernon E. Megee, presently Assistant Commandant of the Marine Corps and Chief of Staff at Marine Corps Headquarters will assume command of Fleet Marine Force, Pacific. The reassignments will be effected about Dec. 1, the announcement said.

Lt. Gen. Pollock will take over the post now held by Lt. Gen. Ray A. Robinson. Lt. Gen. Robinson plans to retire sometime prior to Jan. 1.

Advancing to three-star rank from his post as Deputy Chief of Staff at Headquarters, Marine Corps, Maj. Gen. Robert E. Hogaboom will take over the billet of Chief of Staff.

A veteran of the Korean fighting, three World War II campaigns and pre-war expeditionary duty in Haiti, China and Nicaragua, Lt. Gen. Megee is the first Leatherneck aviator to hold the post of Assistant CMC and Chief of Staff.

In Korea he commanded the 1st Marine Aircraft Wing from January to December, 1953, winning the Air Force Distinguished Service Medal in that capacity. In World War II he saw action in the Iwo Jima, Okinawa and Western Carolines operations, earning the Legion of Merit with Combat "V" as commander of Landing Force Air Support Control Unit One at Iwo Jima and the Bronze Star Medal with Combat "V" as commander of all the Marine landing force air support control units at Okinawa. He also earned the Navy and Marine Corps Medal for commendatory achievement June 19, 1930, while flying as an observer and machine gunner in an attack on a large force of rebel bandits in Nicaragua. Lt. Gen. Pollock took command of the Marine Corps' largest air-ground combat force in the world on Sept. 1, 1956, in ceremonies at Camp. H. M. Smith, headquarters of Fleet Marine Force, Pacific.

Lt. Gen. Pollock holds the Navy Cross, the nation's second highest award, which he won as a battalion commander with the 1st Marine Division in the Guadalcanal action. He won the Army Distinguished Service Medal as commander of the same division in the "Reno-Carson-Vegas" fighting in Korea.

Corps Announces

Change in Uniform Regs Set

Certain changes in Marine Corps uniform regulations have been announced by Marine Corps Order 1020.24. The order concerns the blue cap cover, marksmanship badges, officers swords, French-cuff shirt, necktie clasp and cuff links, chevrons and service stripes, service coat for officers and pay grade E-7, and the wearing of ribbons on khaki shirt. BLUE CAP COVERS became obsolete Oct. 1 for all male personnel. It is no longer authorized for wear. The white cover will be worn at all times with the blue and dress uniforms.

RIBBONS on the khaki shirt, as part of the summer service duty uniform, may be worn at the option of the individual. They must be worn on leave, liberty and ceremonial occasions when the khaki shirt is worn as an outer garment.

MARKSMANSHIP QUALIFICATION BADGES have been redesigned and have been ordered by the local Marine Corps Exchange. A detailed description of the changes in design may be obtained by reading the order. It is contemplated that the new badges will be available for issue to Marine Corps personnel during Fiscal Year 1959.

OFFICER SWORDS are required by certain temporary and reserve officers. The order is quoted as follows:

"Reserve officers: Effective upon receipt of this order, all commissioned officers and warrant officers entering on active duty, except those coming on active duty for training, will be required to possess the officers' sword and accessories. All temporary and reserve officers presently on active duty, except those on active duty for training, are required to possess the sword and accessories as part of the uniform by July 1, 1959."

A FRENCH-CUFF shirt in the same basic style and design as the standard khaki shirt has been adopted for wear by male officers and staff non-commissioned officers, as part of the service uniform. It may be worn as part of the service uniform for leave and liberty. Wear of the shirt while on duty is at the discretion of the Most children learn early in life that if they touch a hot stove they'll get burned.

But as they grow up some forget that carelessness with fire can do more than blister a finger.

It can roar through a building more quickly than you can wake from a sound sleep and the best fire department in the world can't always help.

It can level the work of a lifetime in a few minutes. And it can take lives.

Fire prevention, singled out for national attention for a week each year, is obviously a year-round job. (AFPS)

TOASTMASTERS CLUB 1805

By Skipp Wishall

"THEY TEACH THEMSELVES TO SPEAK ON THEIR FEET" PART II

Last week we mentioned the use of the Training Manual used in Toastmasters and how it helps mold the speaker. We will now go into detail. The training manual suggests that the new Toastmaster talk about himself in the first speech before the club, and tells him more or less how.

The main object is to see whether he can live through the ordeal.

The general theme of the first speech is his autobiography. If he does survive, he proceeds through the other 11 assignments as his turn comes up. Each talk is designed to teach him some fundamentals of good speaking.

For instance, Earnestness is the goal in speech No. 2, Good Organization in No. 3, proper Use of Hands in No. 4, Voice Modulation in No. 5, and so on. Meanwhile, each member is absorbing a lot of other speech training. At every meeting someone designated as "table topics chairman" for the day prepares a subject and each member must give a 30-second extemporaneous talk on it.

Members are also assigned outside speeches. The club offers members' services to the local Community Chest drive, and other similar projects that come along. All this time, club members are serving as critics of each speaker. After every talk, certain appointed "evaluators" take the speaker's efforts apart in constructive fashion, and their comments are written into his manual for him to study later.

After a member has completed his 12 assignments in a manner satisfactory to his critics, the home office in Santa Ana sends him a "certificate of merit" attesting to his achievement. (If he wishes, headquarters will pass the word along to the C.O.).

And then what? Well, then he goes right on speaking and studying through advanced courses. As members like to say, "The only thing that graduates you from Toastmasters is your own conceit." See you at the Staff Club next Wednesday night at 6:30 p.m. The meetings only last two hours.

WATCH THAT CREDIT!

Overextension of credit is dangerous!

All-to-often military personnel have indebted themselves to the extent that they are unable to make their legal payments and support their families.

The use of credit is necessary in some cases but a legal obligation to pay is incurred by the use of credit.

It's so easy to get in but so hard to get out!

the K-BAY KIBITZER by bradley

Mitzi Gaynor has left Hawaii and I honestly am sorry to see her go. I have come to the conclusion that she is a very delightful, very genuine person. When you add this to the fact that she is glowingly lovely and most photogenic, you've got a prize package that's pretty hard to surpass.

I have come to these conclusions from having had something to do with her appearance here at K-Bay. Her last one was at the rodeo Sunday. Let me give you the background.

Her appearance had to be a last-minute proposition because of the shooting schedule on Kauai. Those schedules can change hour by hour. But she promised to be here Sunday.

The schedule became a little tighter than anticipated so that she didn't get away from Kauai until late Saturday. She came out here as planned Sunday morning and was rushed all of the way in order to appear in the Grand Entry at 1 p.m.

She stood in the hot sun at the arena while the dust from the horses swirled around her. She rode into the arena in a dusty convertible and she received another portion of the brown dirt as the cowboys rode out of the arena.

Mitzi was hailed from all sides as she rode through the carnival area enroute to the stands and she posed for pictures with countless lads who suddenly closed in on the car.

When she arrived at the stands and watched the rodeo, she appeared to be enjoying herself and was reluctant to leave early to keep another appointment.

As those who were there know, Mitzi wore a filmy pure white dress for the occasion.

And yet, never once did she complain or lose her composure. She was amenable to suggestion and was interested in doing only what had been planned even though she did not know in advance what the plans were.

Even in the privacy of the stands, there was never a comment about dust, dirt or heat. When she left, dusty and hot as she must have been—and probably a little tired—she still stopped for pictures and was as pleasant and fresh looking as ever.

Her husband, Jack Bean, was equally as pleasant and friendly throughout the visit. Now I ask you, is it any wonder it's a pleasure to know and be with such grand people?

She left yesterday for the West Coast. But I have a feeling she won't be forgotten and that there will be a large number of persons who go to see her star in 20th Century-Fox's movie SOUTH PACIFIC.

After this delightful subject, I reluctantly go on to one much less appealing.

Last Thursday evening two performances of the Aloha Week Preview were scheduled at the main station theater. Only one was held. Let me tell you why.

The performers, some forty of them, arrived at the theater on schedule for the first show at 8 p.m. They left work, many of them, got their costumes, went to the Honolulu Armory and boarded buses for the station. Missing in this schedule was chow.

The performers work for nothing because they believe in what they are doing and they enjoy presenting a picture of island pageantry—to a good audience.

Unfortunately, they had very little audience. There were perhaps three to four hundred at the first show. Those who were there appeared to enjoy themselves and they were receptive so that the performers felt the audience was with them. That helped to make it worthwhile.

But I was ashamed. The show was free, although it was hoped that a large share of the audience would purchase Aloha Week ribbons at 50 cents each. This seems little enough outlay to see an hour and a quarter of the only show of its kind in the world, a show full of color, entertainment and pageantry.

Now there are about 8,000 Marines here and I would guess about 1400 military families. Surely there must be more than three hundred people interested in this type of show. And there should be more than three hundred who would be willing to part with 50 cents to see the show.

Oh yes, for the handful of persons who showed up for the second show and didn't see it, I would like to explain that it seemed a shame to have more entertainers on stage than persons in the audience. Hence the show was cancelled so the performers could get a bite to eat and go home.

Back to the rodeo. It's over and I think it offered the promised action—plus the atmosphere, clear skies and all of the dust of a genuine western stampede.

There were spills and laughs but nobody was seriously injured. The crowds were good and the carnival was a real, going concern. The cowboy parade on Saturday was the biggest yet and the one on Sunday might have been almost as big except that none of the contestants rode in it. It was found Saturday that there was a little delay in starting the rodeo because the contestants were not back to the arena early enough.

In case those who were there Saturday wondered about Austin Sugar when the ambulance picked him up after a bronc ride, let me say that it was purely a gag.

Some movies were being made for mainland television stations. Since the events and the setting looked so much like the west, it was necessary to inject a bit of Hawaii. This was done by staging the fall, having the ambulance pull up and two hula girls hop out. The girls were Loretta Madeiros and Carmen Garcia from Waimanalo. They are members of Eleanor Heavey's Hula Troupe and volunteered for the job. Providing the Aloha Oe music were the talented Tilton sisters.

While it was purely a gag, it should serve its purpose. I do know that some spectators thought it was for real.

Commissary Store Curtails Service

The curtailment of services at the K-Bay Commissary Store is announced in Station Bulletin 4065. The Bulletin states that the increase of sales volume in the Commissary Store has made it impossible to operate at the desired level of service with personnel presently available.

"Until such time as additional personnel can be obtained, the Store will be closed all day every Thursday," the bulletin states. The change went into effect yesterday.

Store hours are:

Tuesday—9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Wednesday—9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Friday—11:30 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Saturday—9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

These new hours will also permit shelves to be restocked, the store cleaned, and supplies brought in from outlying warehouses.

As a special feature, Gen. Pollock attended the 1st Marine Brigade ABCD school graduation and presented certificates to personnel who had successfully completed the course.

During the ceremonies, the general pointed out the importance of each and every Marine, regardless of rank, in uniting for the team effort which makes the Marine Corps elite.

A tour of Service Bn. facilities followed on the agenda before the General returned to his headquarters at Camp Smith.

JONES COMPLETES MCI COURSE

Sgt. Paul G. Jones, H&MS-13, MAG-13, recently completed a Marine Corps Institute course in "FM Transmission and Reception, S-T510-12." The sergeant was congratulated by his commanding officer, and the notation that he completed the course was entered in his service record.

ALOHA WEEK was glimpsed by a K-Bay audience in the Main Theater last Thursday. What they saw were the King and Queen and their court and dancers of a local hula troupe garbed in colorful costumes. There were hula and Tahitian dances, all entertaining and some humorous. In the picture at left, the hula is demonstrated by a quartet, and at right, the popular Tahitian hula is performed. It's just a sample of the entertainment slated for Aloha Week which takes place on Oahu from Oct. 20 through 27. For those who saw the entertainment-packed program, no more need be said; for those who didn't see it, you really missed a good FREE show.—PHOTOS BY CPL. JOE SCOTT.

'People-to-People' Program Launched; Navy, Marines Have Significant Part

The attention of all Naval and Marine Corps personnel, both military and civilian, is directed to our President's "People to People" program in which the Navy and Marine Corps have a significant participating responsibility, ALNAV 37 announces.

"The purpose of this program is to give people of other countries a better understanding of our American way of life—our customs and traditions, peaceful aspirations and devotion of freedom and justice for all and, at the same time, generate within ourselves greater understanding of the way of life of foreign peoples with whom we come in contact. Forty national committees, including the Armed Forces 'People-to-People' committee, are currently initiating and conducting efforts in this program in the interest of world peace.

"In view of the number of Americans abroad in connection with assignments and missions, and since world peace may depend upon the effectiveness of this program, full cooperation and promotion of the program by all levels of command in the U.S. and overseas, ashore and afloat, in an effort to achieve its objectives, is vitally important.

"It is appreciated that our naval and Marine Corps personnel have always been in the forefront in the particular role of representing the U.S. and U.S. policy in foreign lands. This is a traditional role which is being performed exceptionally well today by many of our Naval and Marine Corps units and commands. It is desired, however, to make this effort more consistent in order to dissipate the false ideas relative to the U.S. which are now abroad in the world. People of other lands are greatly influenced by what they see of and hear about American service personnel and their dependents. Exemplary conduct, bearing and appearance are minimum essentials, but these, alone, are not enough.

"Motivation of our personnel is the key to success in this person-to-person endeavor. Motivation is the basic responsibility of leadership."

SCALE MODEL of an amphibious landing, and the difficulties confronting personnel establishing a beachhead, is laid out in the training room of "B" Co., 3rd Shore Party Bn., 1st Marine Brigade, and presented by two of the creators, left to right, TSgt. Lacy Atkinson and SSgt. Paul A. McCabe, to the company sergeant, 1st Sgt. Hubert L. Tutor, and to Capt. T. H. Bruce, Shore Party Team One commander. The complete layout took two weeks to complete and models were purchased out of the company fund. The realistic background was painted by SSgt. Richard Hollinger and the rest of the tactical situation includes tanks, bunkers, infantry helicopters, cranes, trucks, and a complete task force lying off shore. Special Meeting Of Mokapu PTA Slated Thursday

There will be a special meeting of the Mokapu Elementary School PTA Thursday, Oct. 17 at 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium. It was announced this week by PTA vice-president OWO W. H. Garing. The volume of matters affecting the local PTA dictates the necessity for such a meeting.

The agenda includes the nomination of a president for the current school year, the formation of necessary committees to conduct business of the PTA, propose a budget for the 57-58 school year, to determine additional delegates to the Hawaii Congress of Parents and Teachers annual convention which will be held at Farrington high school, Oct. 25-26, and to cast 19 ballots for the final 1957 election of officers to the Hawaii Congress of Parents and Teachers. In addition, home room mothers must be organized.

The PTA membership is urged to attend this special meeting.

The regular meeting of the Mokapu PTA will be held at 7:30 p.m., Oct. 24, in the school auditorium.

ARMED FORCES TO OBSERVE UN DAY ON OCTOBER 24

WASHINGTON—The Armed Forces will join the citizens of the United States and 80 other countries in the 12th observance of the founding of the United Nations on Oct. 24. In keeping with President Eisenhower's UN Day, 1957, Proclamation, the services will participate in anniversary programs world-wide.

Formed under a charter ratified Oct. 24, 1945, the UN has grown from 51 to 81 member-nations.

The US, one of the founders of the UN, has consistently supported this free association of sovereign states in its unceasing quest for a durable peace based upon freedom and justice.

Mr. Eisenhower in urging all federal agencies to take part in UN Day celebrations said the devotion of the people of the US to the principles of the UN charter is the expression of a faith deeply rooted in American cultural political and spiritual convictions.

American confidence in and support of the UN is steadily increasing. Public polls show that the vast majority of our citizens approve of the idea of a United Nations.

Not a cure-all for the world's problems, the President said, the UN is doing much to create conditions favorable to peace, security and well-being for all mankind.

Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson has pledged the assistance of the military services in saluting the achievements of the UN in behalf of peace and international understanding.

Uniform Regs

commanding officer, the order states.

A GOLD NECKTIE CLASP and CUFF LINKS with the Marine Corps emblem superimposed thereon, have been approved for wear with the French cuff shirt. Officers and Staff NCO cuff links and necktie clasp are identical except Officers' are silver, and Staff NCO's are gold.

EMBROIDERED INSIGNIA OF GRADE and service stripes to replace the present woven service insignia of grade and dress insignia of grade have been adopted for wear by male enlisted personnel. Date of availability of these items will be announced at later date.

A SERVICE COAT, identical to the standard service coat except with a bellows back has been adopted as an optional item of uniform for wear by male officers and male enlisted grade E-7. This coat replaces the officers' standard service jacket. There are no restrictions on the wearing of the redesigned service coat, whereas the service jacket was limited for wear as part of the duty uniform.

Possession of the bellows back coat does not modify the requirement for the officer or enlisted man to possess the standard service coat.

No Motorcycles

Motorcycles are prohibited from operating aboard the Marine Corps Air Station by Station Order 5560.8 published last week. The order defines motorcycles as "all bicyclic frame, self-propelled vehicles of 11 horsepower or greater."

The order is applicable to both Brigade and Station personnel.

2 MCAS Marines Cited at Mast

SSgt. Donald M. Ness and Sgt. James P. Wallace, both of Hq. and Hq. Sqdn., were honored at a meritorious mast last week by Col. Jack R. Cram, CO, MCAS, for the vital part they played as aircraft control operators in the rescue of a pilot from a downed plane.

When a VMC-1 pilot was forced to abandon his flaming plane at sea, both men took immediate action to effect his rescue. The cita-

This situation occurring while control was maintained over numerous other aircraft engaged in normal night operations, demonstrated a thorough knowledge of their duties and an outstanding ability to act promptly and correctly in any emergency," the citation said.

All golf enthusiasts are cordially invited to participate in the tourney.

2nd Bn, Serv Bn, and MB, PH Winners As Six-Man Football Squads Open '57 Season Here

First week action in the 1957 Brigade-Station 6-Man Football League found Serv. Bn., 1stMarBrig; 2nd Bn., 4th Marines, and Marine Barracks, P.H. all once victorious as the 55-game league calendar got underway last Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 2, here at K-Bay. The Defending champions of the 6-Man grid circuit, the 1st Bn., 4th Marines, found the going a little rough in their first two encounters of the season, losing a tilt opening day to the 2nd Bn., 4th Marines by the margin of a single point, 20-19, and ending up on the short end of a 12-6 count-Monday against Marine Barracks, P. H.

Following is a recap of the week's action in the Brigade-Station 6-Man Football League:

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 2
2nd Bn. 20—1st Bn. 19

All the scoring in this contest was accomplished in the first half of play which featured some wide open play by both squads.

The second half, however, found both teams playing a tight defensive game with 2nd Bn. edging the defending champions 20-19.

Serv. Bn. 31—Camp Smith 25
Overcoming a half time deficit of six points, Camp Smith rallied in the third period to knot the count at 25-all. The score remained the same until the last moments of the game when with only one minute and 47 seconds left to play, the K-Bay representatives tallied a final six points on a pass from quarterback Sgt. Max Eaton to right end Pfc. Harold Collins which covered 45 yards. The try for the extra point was unsuccessful and Serv Bn. gained the win by a count of 31-25.

MONDAY, OCT. 7

Marine Barracks 12—1st Bn. 6

The Pearl Harbor contingent led at the half 6-0, but 1st Bn. tied the count in the third period when they marched down the field on a series of first downs, finally reaching pay dirt by virtue of a five yard end run. The try for the point was no good. With approximately one minute of play remaining, however, Marine Barracks tallied on a two yard pass play from back Sgt. Llewelyn Baybayan to receiver Pfc. L. E. Johnson, to win this engagement 12-6.

Shooters Needed

Candidates for Rifle & Pistol Teams Urged to Tryout at Station Range

Brigade Bulletin No. 3592 announces a stepped-up program to attract candidates for the K-Bay Marine Rifle and Pistol teams who have lost key personnel recently through transfers. Tryouts for rifle and pistol shooters have been held the past two weeks for prospective team members with one more tryout session for pistol enthusiasts slated for 12:30 this coming Tuesday at the Station Range.

According to team coach, TSgt. Guy Graves, who has been screening the candidates, a need exists for experienced shooters and all unit commanders are requested to extend their fullest cooperation in the canvass of their respective commands for shooters who have a National Rifle Association rating or who have consistently fired high requalification scores.

All interested personnel are asked to contact TSgt. Graves at the Station Rifle Range (72067) for further information.

It is expected that Marine marksmen will face a high level of competition from other service teams during the large number of rifle and pistol tournaments scheduled for the second quarter of the current fiscal year and new men are needed to fill the billets vacated by departing team members.

A man is never so weak as when some pretty girl is telling him how strong he is.

The rifle and pistol teams each have an 18-man personnel quota.

At present the Rifle team has only four members with established NRA ratings. All Master shooters, they are: TSgt. W. E. Pierce, SSgt. R. C. Allison, SSgt. E. E. Skaggs, and TSgt. C. P. Johnson.

The Pistol team currently boasts three NRA established marksmen. Master shooters TSgt. William E. Eubanks and team coach TSgt. Guy Graves. Station Sgt. Maj. D. E. Waldron qualifies as an Expert.

14th ND Pistol Meet Slated for Oct. 19

The monthly 14th Naval District Pistol Tournament will be held next Saturday, Oct. 19, at the Hawaii National Guard Range, Diamond Head Crater.

Registration begins at 7:30 and the first match will get underway at 8 o'clock.

Eligibility, fees, awards, rules, and events will remain the same as in previous monthly shoots.

Devilpups Blank Wheeler AFB 7-0; Open Regular Season Here Oct. 19

The K-Bay Devilpups closed their pre-season series of exhibitions here last Saturday morning by shutting-out the Wheeler AFB midgets by a count of 7-0. The Oahu Pop Warner Football League opener is slated for next Saturday, Oct. 19, at the midget gridiron here when TSgt. Al Rappold's eleven tangles with the Kaimuki squad. The site of all league midget football contests aboard the Station this season will be the field adjacent to Hank Bauer Field.

In last Saturday's practice game the Devilpups tallied the only TD of the game in the first half on a slick reverse play that went from quarterback Rod Nicol to Mike Young to Randy Joubert, who carried the pigskin into pay dirt for the Station midgets. Nicol scored the point after touchdown on a quarterback sneak.

According to team mentor Rappold, the locals played a very fine defensive game, especially on the ground where the bigger Wheeler squad enjoyed a definite size advantage.

Varsity Gridders Upset by Rams; 14-12 Defeat First in 12 Games

By the slim margin of two points gained via the same number of successful point after touchdown attempts, the civilian Hawaii Rams staged a major upset in the young University-Armed Forces Football conference last Sunday afternoon by upending the heavily favored Hawaii Marines 14-12 before an estimated 5,000 unbelieving grid fans assembled in Honolulu Stadium. In dealing the Island Leathernecks their first defeat in 12 games, the Rams overcame an early two touchdown deficit to tally in the second quarter and once again in the opening minutes of the second half to even the Marines' won-lost record in 1957 grid competition at 1-1.

Dominating play in the early stages of the game, coach Maj. Marvin Hewlett's eleven tallied their initial TD with four minutes remaining in the first quarter on halfback Pfc. Ed Post's two yard plunge into paydirt after a series of plays which originated from the Ram 13.

Six minutes later the Leathernecks scored once again on fullback Lt. Fred Franco's three-yard carry. Lt. Dick Gagliardi's two tries for the extra point were wide of the mark.

Minutes later after a Marine drive downfield to the Ram 33, the civilians broke into the scoring column on a 75-yard runback of an intercepted pass. The try for the point was good.

Acquiring new confidence, the Rams disregarded the 12-7 halftime score to tally the winning TD early in the third period on veteran John Dang's two yard plunge.

A determined Leatherneck scoring drive in the closing minutes of the game stalled just two yards shy of the goal line.

Results of last night's Marine-Navy tilt on Maui were not available at press time.

INTERRUPTED AERIAL—Hawaii Marine offensive ace HM3 Ken Wedemeyer, performs a slick bit of larceny as he intercepts a Benny Mateo pass intended for Ram flanker, Art Tamburi, during the University-Armed Forces Conference tilt last Sunday in Honolulu Stadium. Late in the second quarter, with the Rams driving for a second TD, the alert Marine halfback snared the ball on the Leatherneck 19 and ran it back nine yards to the 28, with the help of a neat block by Cpl. Al Daniels (22) who moved Art Tamburi (20) out of his way. Trailing at halftime, the red-hot Rams scored a major upset by downing the defending conference champs 14-12. The Ram victory is their second in two starts this season and the first Marine loss in 12 games.—PHOTO BY CPL. TOM TURNER.

New Cage Loop Organized for Isle Quintets

The Hawaii Marine Basketball team will participate in the newly organized Hawaiian Senior Invitational Basketball League this coming hoop season, it was announced this week. The old University-Armed Forces circuit has been disbanded with the prospect of eight teams and a possible ten quintets slated to comprise the new loop, including one civilian team, Ah Choo Goo's L. G. Balfours.

Due to a recent NCAA ruling, the University will not be able to participate in the Senior conference. The tentative entries in the new loop are Ft. Shafter and Schofield Barracks, both of them Army quintets.

The league is slated to commence play Dec. 1, with games to be played each Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Teams entered in the circuit are the Marines, SubPac, Ford Island, ComServPac, Barber's Point, Hickam, L. G. Balfour, and Naval Base.

Marine Mittmen Enter 2-Day 'War' Tonight in Maui Fight Tournament

A twelve-man detachment of Leathernecks representing elements of the Fleet Marine Force, Pacific, will "invade" the island of Maui this evening. Armed with no more than two 10-ounce gloves per man, but seasoned with months of intensive training, SSgt. Matt Hardiman's Hawaii Marine team will conduct a two-day maneuver tonight and tomorrow, against "aggressor" forces composed of the top pugilists from the Army's 25th Division and Maui athletic clubs, in one of the feature sport events of the 35th Annual Maui County Fair which opened last night.

Rifle-Pistol Club

BY LEIGH HOAR

The past weekend found the firing on the range somewhat curtailed, due no doubt, to the rodeo. However, the diehard shooters were on the line as usual, burning much powder. I have often wondered what the outcome is when a shooting bug says "I want to shoot," and the wife says "Do this." Saturday's shooting seemed to point up that sometimes the smell of gunpowder is more enticing than the call of home.

I have some information here I would like to pass along to all aspirants to the Marine Rifle or Pistol Teams. Brigade Bulletin 3592 enumerates the request for personnel to shoot on these teams. The team has a full schedule of matches in the future and the team is being seriously depleted through rotation. Tryouts are being held on the dates indicated in the Bulletin.

All people being selected for the team will receive a match grade rifle to fire, in the case of rifle shooters, and a set of accurized pistols for the varsity team pistol shooters. This is well worth trying for, because some of the matches are being held on the other Islands, and all entry fees, transportation, and chow is paid for by the Marine Corps. The National Service Rifle Champion, SSgt. Michael Pietroforte, was a member of the Rifle Team until he shot his way into the National Matches at Camp Perry, via the Marine Corps Matches at Camp Matthews. So, you can see it might be well worth your effort to check on this.

Women's Golf

The K-Bay Women's Golf Association held a "Best 16 Holes" tourney last Thursday, Oct. 3, and the winners were as follows: Class A—Helen Finn with a 96-22-74 and a 58 total for 16 holes. Carol Wilder took second place honors with a 90-17-73 and a 16 hole total of 59.

In Class B competition, Elaine McRae swept top honors with a 98-27-71 and a 56 for the 16 holes. D. J. Richardson took second in this division with a 105-34-71. Her 16 hole card was 57.

Carol Wilder posted a mark of 90 to lead all entrants in the qualifying round of the Fall Handicap Tournament. The first rounds of this tourney are now being played.

Nine bouts will take place tonight at the Kahului Fairgrounds site and nine more tomorrow evening in the wrap-up.

All Marine Lightweight champion and 1956 U. S. Olympic Team member Cpl. Luis Molina will highlight Saturday night's card. The veteran Leatherneck mittman will be paired against the Army's Paul Lacio in the evening's feature event. Lacio is an ex-Maui amateur champion.

While a definite nightly schedule of bouts has not yet been announced, at latest report the following pairings have been made in the respective weight classes.

- 119-Pfc. Walter Nakama (Marines) vs. Paul Villanueva (Army).
 - 125-Cpl. Carmen Scialabba (Marines) vs. Ed Polite (Army).
 - 132-Cpl. Luis Molina (Marines) vs. Paul Lacio (Army).

Bowlers Gain Tie for 6th Place With 2-1 Victory Over NavComSta

The Kaneohe Marine Bowling team won two match games and lost one to NavComSta (Wahiawa) last Friday night at the Hickam lanes to move into a three-way tie for sixth place as the Oahu Armed Forces Classic Bowling League completed eight weeks of action. At present the K-Bay Keglers share the sixth position with Hickam No. 1 and Tripler.

Cpl. Frank O'Bryant led the Leatherneck quintet of team captain TSgt. Von D. Michael, TSgt. Arthur Culver, Sgt. Roger Smith and TSgt. James Thresher with a high series of 529. All four of O'Bryant's teammates hit the 500 mark in last Friday's competition with TSgt. Culver second to the high shooting corporal with a mark of 515, followed by TSgt. Michael, Sgt. Smith and TSgt. Thresher with scores of 512, 510, and 507, respectively.

High team game honors for the week in the Armed Forces loop went to the Hickam No. 1 team who achieved the distinction with a pinfall of 1009.

Tonight the Marines have an excellent chance to move up in the standings when they face Tripler at the Wheeler AFB lanes. The first game is slated to begin at 8:30.

Aku-Marines

By SSGT. BILL BORGMAN

The club meeting last Monday night was highlighted by the showing of two underwater color films on skin and lung diving. They were enjoyed by all members present, the audience even including some members' wives.

MSgt. Shorty Fenn also took an active part in the meeting by displaying some sea shells which he had found along the shore here that very night.

Capt. Bill Brothers, Lt. J. Adkins and myself enjoyed a couple of afternoons of fine fishing last week out along the old beach headquarters area by the golf course. We took many lobsters in the six pound class Thursday and returned Sunday to net another good bag of lobsters and one small sea turtle. As a side note, I would like to say that turtle meat is very tasty and the shells can be used as attractive trophies for your den after a little work is put on them.

Club members are urged not to forget that the fishing contest is still on. Fish caught are to be weighed at the Station fire house and the weight recorded by Nov. 4.

Aku Marine Skin Diving Club meetings are held each and every Monday night at 7 p.m. at the Rod and Gun Clubhouse.

Marines Warned To Check Status Of GI Insurance

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Headquarters Marine Corps this week urged Marines to check their government insurance policies.

Approximately 200,000 to 250,000 in-service policies are still in "under waiver" status.

Only about one-fifth of these policies should be kept under waiver to benefit both policyholders and beneficiaries. The remaining policies should be modified so that dependents will be eligible for more liberal compensation and indemnity payments in event of the policyholders' death.

Commanding officers have been urged to reemphasize the consequences of policies being left under waiver.

Rodeo Action

HMR-161. He tied Jimmy Dowsett of the Big Island with eight points but won the coveted title on a turn of the cards. Austin drew a nine of spades to beat an eight of diamonds drawn by Tommy Campos substituting for Dowsett who had flown back to the Big Island before the judges had made the announcement.

Dowsett's sensational time of 13.9 seconds in calf roping was easily the outstanding performance of the two days' competition. It is considered to be of prize-winning caliber in any rodeo circuit.

Double winner in two of the most jolting, spine-snapping events on the slate was the victorious Sugar, who rode out of the chute on two separate occasions looking like a man shot from a cannon. Sticking like glue while prodding them on to even greater efforts to unseat him, Austin rode out the clock on his twin tornadoes, one a bareback bronc, the other a fierce-eyed, piston legged bull.

On the second day many new names entered the winners' circle, Garry Cutler won the saddle bronc; Joe Ledward Jr., junior bulls; Lilas Cambra, barrel race; Oliver White, senior rein; Lilas Cambra junior rein; Robert Delima, bulldogging; Bobby Komine and Tommy Gonzalez, ribbon roping; Jimmy Dowsett and Dan Correia, team roping; Austin Sugar, bareback bronc; Austin Sugar, senior bulls and Jimmy Dowsett, calf roping.

CIVIL SERVICE HEAD SPEAKS

The year 1958 will see many advancements in the Federal personnel program, according to John W. Macy, Jr., Executive Director of the United States Civil Service Commission in Washington, D. C., who addressed the Society for Personnel Administration Hawaii Chapter at a special dinner meeting Saturday night at the Princess Kaiulani Hotel.

Discussing highlights of current and planned activities in the field of public personnel administration, Mr. Macy pointed first to the continued if not extended top level support which may be expected from the President during 1958, as evidenced by such recent actions as the establishment of a new White House position as special assistant for personnel management.

"Even in the face of reduction in many agencies," Mr. Macy stated, "the Federal Government will hire from 200,000 to 300,000 people in 1958. A vigorous new recruitment program must tap new sources to attract those people with talents and skills which we need."

"The most crucial problem—now and in 1958," continued Mr. Macy, "is the need for pay reform." A special committee appointed by the Cabinet, he explained, is now making a comprehensive study of the seven or eight inadequate pay systems in an effort to discover a more consistent, yet flexible, system of pay administration.

Other areas to receive special attention during 1958, as outlined by Mr. Macy, include—(1) continued improvement in training programs, with special emphasis on evaluation of results and use of outside facilities; (2) increased effort to improve the "fringe benefits package"—add some form of medical insurance and interrelate the retirement system with the old age and survivor's insurance program; (3) more attention to the process of promotion, which agencies are now neglecting in comparison with time spent on initial appointments; (4) development of a career executive plan which will assure higher standards, better training, increased recognition and greater mobility of those achieving the executive status.

Finally, Mr. Macy looks forward to increased recognition of the public servant and his accomplishments. He referred to the impressive results of the Federal Incentive Awards program. According to the June 30, 1957 report, 86,000 beneficial suggestions were adopted, and more than 2 percent of the total employees received superior accomplishment awards. Tangible benefits were $169,000,000. In other words, employees have contributed mightily toward stretching the cash dollar. "In Hawaii alone, a half million dollars were saved through the suggestion program; 22,000 employees received $95,000 in awards.

In conclusion, Mr. Macy reminded his listeners that the 75th anniversary in 1958 of the signing of the Civil Service Act will give personnel administrators further opportunity to tell the story of the public service and to direct increased at-

EMPLOY THE HANDICAPPED

This is National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week. In connection therewith, the U. S. Civil Service Commission is sponsoring "Operation Understanding" to develop within the Federal service broader understanding and application of the executive-branch policy for employment of the physically handicapped.

The objectives of "Operation Understanding" are to—

1. Develop a better appreciation of the capabilities of disabled workers and the importance of making full utilization of the handicapped.

2. Assure that key officials, supervisors, and employees are familiar with the executive-branch policy and the principles of selective placement.

3. Acquaint supervisors with their responsibilities with respect to utilization of disabled workers.

4. Encourage participation in they year-round program of the President's Committee for Employment of the Handicapped.

It is the Commission's aim to eliminate the obstacles which many of the disabled still face because of prejudice, indifference, caution, and ignorance on the part of some who participate in the hiring or reassignment of employees.

RODEO NEWS

At the Windward Oahu Stampede last week-end, the Supply Department volunteers manned a live duck booth with Antonio Cruz supplying the live ducks. Participants had to throw a rubber ring around the duck's neck. If you didn't win a prize, at least you got a nice shower from the splashing of the ducks in water. Among the civilian volunteers were Ernest Francis, Antonio Santos, Mary Marcum, Pearl Olsen, and the McClellan family.

Public Works Department employees manned two booths, one a strong man booth where you had to hit the gong with a hammer, and a shaved ice booth. Don Bowman, Committee Chairman for Public Works, reported that two and a half hours after the rodeo opened, the shaved ice booth had taken in 1,500 tickets and were on gravy for the rest of the time. Committee members from Public Works included Dean Neves, Andrew Stanley, Fred Gardner, Henry Kam, Yutaka Kusumoto,
