

Gilia capitata

Globe Gilia

ANNUAL

4 - 36" high.

Leaves finely branched into "fingers."

Fifty to one hundred flowers in terminal head - color varying, but often blue - spring.

There are many subspecies of Gilia capitata.

Native habitat: rocky or sandy soils in a wide range of habitat throughout California - 0 - 7000'

Full sun to part shade.

Good in mixed annuals.

Attracts butterflies and other insects.

Photographs by Margaret L. Fillius

Gilia capitata ssp. abrotanifolia

