From the Pastor: Father Paul Shovelain

Called Forth to Life!

Happy Easter! Jesus is alive and has unlocked the gates of Heavens so that we can be Called Forth to eternal life after physical death. This gives us hope and encouragement as we navigate the ups and downs of life.

This year we have already celebrated 22 Baptisms and 21 funerals. We have celebrated the Sacrament of Marriage for 5 couples as well as Confirmed 13 new Catholics! We had a 48 men and 48 women attend the Awaken retreats, and we can see the Lord is calling many people forth on the journey of faith! How is all this possible? Because Christ is alive, and we get to participate in His ministry as we GO. MAKE. TEACH.

As we celebrate Easter, and begin this joyous season, remember to praise God for the blessings He has bestowed upon us through the calling forth of those around you. I am grateful to God for your yes to responding to the invitation to take the next step on the journey of faith. Jesus is living in you and breathing life into you through the Holy Spirit. That allows us to have the strength to continue to grow in holiness and take the next step on the journey of faith.

We are now in the season of Sacraments, and I invite you pray for all those preparing for the Sacraments. May they be open to the fullest possible degree as the Lord shares His life and love with them.

On behalf of St. John the Baptist Catholic Church and School, I wish you a very Blessed Easter Season!

Chapel Update

The Chapel of the Angels project is coming along nicely. The new LED lighting has been installed and the HVAC airflow issues have been resolved. The brick work around the altar has been completed and wood work and trim will be installed soon. I am anticipating the work will be completed at the end of April or early May. The statues will be added late summer as they are being sculpted in Germany and take longer to complete.

Liturgy Update

We will continue to pray the St. Michael the Archangel prayer after the final blessing at Mass even after Lent. It will continue to be printed in the Mass Leaflets. Given the very clear presence of evil in our world and the distorted view of reality, we need to pray for protection against the enemy and ask that St. Michael and all the angels to protect us. This is a good ending to Mass as at the beginning of the Eucharistic Prayer we join the angels in prayer and praise. Thus it is a nice end to the Mass to join them in prayer again.

As the Father loves me, so I also love you!

Father Paul Shovelain

Purgatory: The Secret Revelations of St. Padre Pio

Who knows what lies beyond the grave? Explore evidence from both the science surrounding near death experiences and the mystical revelations of saints like St. Stanislaus Papczynski (1631-1701), St. Faustina Kowalska (1905-1938), and St. Padre Pio (1887-1968) on the afterlife. Mixing expert testimony with dramatizations, explore the reality of Heaven, Hell, and Purgatory. This powerful film invites us to become aware of the survival of the soul, the presence of our departed loved ones, and how often they need our prayers.

Come for the donuts, stay for the truth!

Generous Spirit

St. John's Endowments

Every year St. John the Baptist receives financial support in the form of distributions from our five parish, school, and cemetery endowment funds.

The General Operations Endowment provides support to meet the needs of the parish including the upkeep and repair of our physical plant, the development of our staff, and enabling the parish to respond to emergencies and special opportunities.

This past year the Operations Endowment funded three new water bottle filling stations on the three floors of the Pastoral Center. These stations are good for the health of our community and good for the environment as well! They are designed to be contact-free, and even include a counter to show how many bottles have been saved.

To learn more about contributing to the Operations Endowment or another SJB endowment fund, contact Mary May, Development Associate, at 651-633-8333, x1253, or email maym@stjohnnyb.org. You may also go to www.stjohnnb.com, select "Donate," then click "Legacy Gift" or simply scan the QR code with your phone.
