Parish Mission Statement

We, the Parish Family of St. Mark's in our quest to follow the Gospel of Jesus Christ, are building a faith-based community that assists all people in life's journey to be open to God's love and to share His joy. We are further committed to address the spiritual, physical, emotional and social needs of all people through service to individuals, families, parish and the greater community. As responsible stewards using our individual gifts, we promise to celebrate, renew and strengthen our faith, and to live our lives as a reflection of Christ's love for others.

St. Mark's is designated as a Center for Hispanic Ministry in the Diocese of Trenton.

VENI SANCTE SPIRITUS

The hymn "Veni Sancte Spiritus" (as it is known from its title in Latin) is sung at our Pentecost Masses. This hymn became part of the Roman Missal used for Mass in the 16th century. It is also known as the "golden sequence" (sequence being a term for a hymn spoken or sung before the Gospel at certain Masses).

The sequence Dawne Mechliniski, our music director, has selected for this Pentecost Sunday invokes the coming of the Holy Spirit to bring comfort and forgiveness to the faithful. It opens with many repetitions of the word "come," and closes with the request to "give." Along the way, it affirms various titles and attributes of the Spirit. The hymn asks the Spirit to shine in the hearts of the singers and to grant healing, strength, forgiveness and salvation.

This sequence used to appear in the liturgy every day during the octave of Pentecost but today it is sung only on the day of Pentecost. The original Latin verses are commonly regarded as one of the greatest masterpieces of sacred poetry ever written. Its beauty and depth have been praised by many. The hymn may have been composed by Pope Innocent III (1161-1216) but history seems to point to Stephen Langton (d 1228), Archbishop of Canterbury, being its author. Pentecost Sunday

Acts 2:1-11 And at this sound the multitude came together, and they were bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in his own language.

Psalms 104:1, 24, 29-31, 34 If you take away their breath, they perish and return to their dust. When you send forth your spirit, they are created, and you renew the face of the earth.

1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13 To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.

Sequence: Veni Sancte Spiritus

John 20:19-23 On the evening of that day, the first day of the week, the doors being shut where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you."

Veni Sancte Spiritus Sequence from the Taize Community by Jacques Berthier

Come, Holy Spirit, from heaven shine forth with your glorious light.
Veni Sancte Spiritus

Come, Father of the poor, come, generous Spirit, come,
light of our hearts.

Veni Sancte Spiritus

Come from the four winds, O Spirit, come breath of God;
disperse the shadows over us, renew and strengthen your people.

Veni Sancte Spiritus

Most kindly warming light! Enter the inmost depths of our hearts, for we are faithful to you.

Without your presence we have nothing worthy, nothing pure.

Veni Sancte Spiritus

You are only comforter, Peace of the soul.

In the heat you shade us; in our labor you refresh us,
and in trouble you are our strength.

Veni Sancte Spiritus

On all who put their trust in you and receive you in faith, shower all your gifts.

Grant that they may grow in you and persevere to the end.

Give them lasting joy!

Veni Sancte Spiritus

Spotlight on a Ministry: St. Mark's Rosary Makers

The mission began at St. Mark's in 1992 in response to a request by Father Patrick Peyton, CSC, who had a mission to fight communism by sending one million rosaries to Russia. That's what inspired Celia Ostrowski to approach Msgr. Constance with her idea to invite 10 friends, including Elizabeth Keegan, Marion Wassmer, Maura Boyan, Mary McClusky, Mary Moore and Margaret McGuire, to help her make 500 rosaries to contribute to Fr. Peyton. Celia had a special bond with the pastor because he brought Holy Communion to her ill husband every Friday. When her husband died, Celia became the founder and director of the St. Mark's Rosary Makers. The ministry grew from 7 to 35, with members from ages 60 to 93. Many will remember how Doris Wilson and Nancee McManus continued Celia's legacy.

St. Mark's tens of thousands of rosaries have reached all parts of the world, including Eastern and Central Europe, Asia, Africa, Mexico, North and South America and Central America. One year, 500 rosaries were hand delivered by the pastor of the "Star of the Sea" Parish in Long Branch to an orphanage in the Philippines. In June 1997, when St. Teresa of Calcutta was in Newark, she was presented with a box of rosaries made by St. Mark's Rosary Makers and sent back 35 rosaries that Mother herself had blessed for the members.

Today when members join, they continue the thread of hope spread by this amazing ministry which connects with churches and missionaries throughout the world. Some end up in the hands of our servicemen and women. Monthly gatherings for collecting finished rosaries and receiving more supplies (or learning how to make a rosary) are held on the last Monday, September to June, at 1 PM in Church basement. For the more experienced, it takes about two to three hours to string the beads but no matter how long it takes, it's always a labor of love and much appreciated by the recipient. Over the decades, letters of gratitude have come in from around the US and the world, such as the one below that came in recently from Ohio.

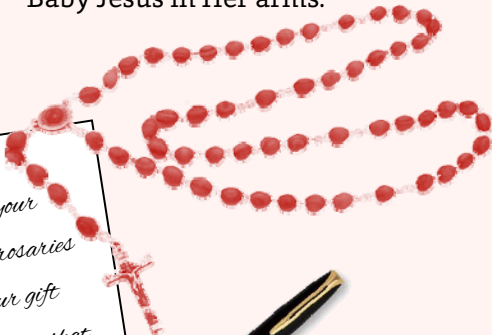

The modern Rosary, which means "garland of roses," was spread by St. Dominic after the Blessed Virgin began appearing to him. Sometimes Our Lady came to him with St. Catherine of Alexandria and St. Cecilia but when She asked the saint to spread the Rosary, She appeared carrying the Baby Jesus in Her arms.

"A World at Prayer is a World at Peace"

Father Peyton was born on January 9, 1909 in Attymass in the County Mayo, Ireland, about 25 miles from the Shrine of Our Lady of Knock. His devout Catholic parents prayed the rosary together as a family every day and instilled the faith well within their children. After a few failed attempts to become priests, Peyton and his older brother Thomas decided to go to America where later they were both ordained. His father told them before they left, "Go down on your knees and make me a promise here before the picture of the Sacred Heart. From now on there will be nobody but yourself to advise you and to decide for you. But your first responsibility will always be to save your soul, and so I want you to promise to be faithful to Our Lord in America."

On December 18, 2017, Pope Francis declared Father Patrick Peyton, founder of Family Rosary Crusade and Family Theater Productions, venerable. In 1989, Sister Anthony, Little Sisters of the Poor, overheard Fr. Peyton on the phone speaking to someone about the fall of the Iron Curtain. He was telling whoever he was speaking to: "Now you can send those rosaries." He would be with the Little Sisters of the Poor in his final hour. "It was the experience of a lifetime, to be with a saint as he was dying," said Mother Marguerite. What struck her most was how Father Peyton was "just like anyone else in the last moments. Just like somebody that was unknown to anyone, except was totally known by God Himself and was waiting for him."

The Sisters recorded his last words, "Mary, my Queen, my Mother."

*Dear St. Mark's Rosary Guild,
"God's timing is impeccable! We received your rosaries the day when we had distributed rosaries to fulfil 2 requests that had come in. Your gift helped restock the shelves for the next requests that are to come.
Thank you!
