d. From Floor:

1. John Merritt moved and Tom Telander seconded to reconsider Item A under old business - Motion failed
2. Kathy Bramwell moved and Paul Weyhe seconded that we accept the resolution on SRJC's stand on tuition.

The resolution reads:

To cope with this age of industry, it is essential to continue one's education beyond the level of a high school education. It is no longer pertinent to argue as to whether higher education is a right or a privilege, it is a necessity, both to the individual and society. To reduce financial support of our institutes of higher learning would reduce the quality and quantity of such educational facilities. To impose greater financial burdens upon the students and the students' families in the form of tuitions would not allow many of those to whom higher education is of the greatest necessity, to continue their education.

Therefore, be it resolved that we, the students of Santa Rosa Junior College are opposed to the budget reduction concerning education and the proposed charge of tuition at state colleges.

Due to the number of CSA members absent from the meeting at this time, Evan Jenkins moved and John Turner seconded to table this motion until the next meeting. Motion passed

If this resolution does pass at that time, it will be presented to CFC by Kathy Bramwell.

CJCSGA has not been effective in getting resolutions to legislation.

Reasons:

International Day

On May 27, 1967, the International Relations Club will hold SRJC's first annual International Day.

This event will consist of two main parts. The official part will include several foreign speakers. The keynote speaker will be Mr. Fred Taylor who will speak on "People, Problems, and Purpose". Besides speeches, there will be a picnic luncheon, bands, chorus, dances, and a flag ceremony.

It will cost approximately $750 to put this on. Members of the IRC have requested funds from the Associated Students of SRJC, however, due to a very tight budget it has been advised that they ask for an allotment from the Board.

Dance Policy for the Quicksilver Messenger Service dance

1. Evan Jenkins moved and it was seconded that we establish a special policy for the Quicksilver dance due to the popularity of the group. Pre-sale tickets will be sold the week before the dance. They will cost:

Guests - $1.25

SRJC students - $.75

Three hundred guest tickets will be sold.

2. Scott Sorenson moved and it was seconded to amend this motion to include the provision that if by Thursday. 300 student tickets haven't been sold that the number of guest tickets available be raised to 400. The remainder of tickets left may be sold to student card holders at the door. Motion passed.

3. The main motion passed.

MINUTES

The meeting was called to order by Executive Vice President John Merritt at 12:10 p.m.

Evan Jenkins moved and Sheri Gonsalves seconded that Mr. Canevari be given the responsibility of arranging the graduation speakers as it has been done in the past. Motion passed.

Two speakers will be chosen out of the top twenty students with the highest grade points.

Norman Boyer moved and Evan Jenkins seconded that we let a club take the Bear Fair Queen contest. Motion passed.

Norm also announced that Circle K is taking the Unly Man Contest and that Medical Assisting is taking the Spring Festival.

A.W.S. would like to request a classification change from club to association. The primary reason for this request is that they feel the structure and functions of A.W.S. as it is organized nationally do not fit into the framework of the club organization on our campus. All women students are automatically a member of A.W.S. Since A.W.S. activities are all oriented to the entire college, and since they are primarily a service organization, they feel that a greater amount of their budget should be backed by C.S.A. They would request that the president of A.W.S. be a member of C.S.A. This seems a way to them to build school interest and spirit and a way to get more people doing something for the college.

The request is to be worked over and rewritten before further action is taken.

Melinda Mills was appointed as publicity commissioner to replace Judy Simons.

Jody Littleton asked John Turner why the police gave parking tickets after 3:00 pm.

Daymon Boss stated that he hoped that the CJCSGA delegates would present a detailed report. He said that he felt that a tax for CJCSGA was being imposed upon the students by raising the price of the Quicksilver dance. He moved that 2/3 of the election should decide whether to send five delegates to CJCSGA or have entertainment programs for the students.

Russ Gleason stated that it was not a form of taxation to raise the dance prices. He further stated that the agenda had been set at CJCSGA and because of that we were unable to finish all the resolutions.

Mr. Canevari stated that CSA tried to get the budget balance established and that's why the dance price was raised, not because of CJCSGA.

Daymon wanted to know what came up at CJCSGA that would affect the student directly and that had not been brought up for many years. Russ stated the pass-fail system and birth control information on campus.

REPORT ON CJCSGA

ROLE OF FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION WORKSHOP

The first question that I was confronted with when I returned from the State CJCSGA Conference in Los Angeles was, "It wasn't worth $100 of the student's money to send you there, was it?" My reply was that it was probably not worth anything to those who did know there was such a thing as CJCSGA, there would be no benefit until there was use of the ideas, resolutions, and discussions that came out of the conference. As far as what I learned and experienced, I only ask, "How can you put a price tag on experience?" I am sure that I have had greater experiences for less money, but also that I have had far lesser experiences spending much more money.

The things that I learned and experienced should be conveyed to the students. I hope that every student on campus will ask all five who attended this conference what ideas they got out of it. Only in this way are the students going to achieve real satisfaction and their money's worth. I hope the following will help these questions be asked and provide a reference for future convention delegates:

1. Keynote Speaker-- Dr. Melvin Casberg.

"The Challenge of Insecurity". This speaker was very well accepted, and started the conference off on a very good note. He challenged the audience of students to accept insecurity as a tool of thought and not as a crux.

2. Workshop Speaker-- Dean Wayne L. Allen.

"The Role of Faculty and Administration to Student Government." This speaker gave an audience of approximately 70 students the basis for study in our workshop. He spoke as an administrator, but seemed to understand that student's did have problems and that these problems must be dealt with, whether they be of a personal or general nature, whether they be along curriculum lines or of an extra-curricular nature."

3. Area 7 Caucus.

Unfortunately another Keynote Speaker, Edward Robings of Los Angeles Harbor College, did not maintain as did the one in my workshop and thus made some rather pert statements, unjustly founded, about Area 7, C.F.C., and Northern California and Bay Area students in general. His speech seemed to justify the original fears of Area 7-- that they were unwanted in CJCSGA. This meeting came up with no concrete ideas of retaliation, only moderation was suggested to combat the threats of the southern region.

4. The Role of Faculty and Administration to Student Government Workshop, (small colleges section).

This, I believe, was the highlight of the convention. In it we discussed issues within the topic that were pertinent to all colleges. Included in these discussions were: Dress Codes, student funds, student journalism censorship, curriculum, counseling and guidance, and the controversy of teacher evaluation.

One of the most talked about points in this workshop was the fact that J.C. students have neither the time or the background (being at J.C. no more than 2 years) to be active participants in curriculum choices, class scheduling, admissions, probation of students and other areas that administration and faculty can evaluate over a longer period of time. However, it was decided that having students on boards concerned with these problems would be of great assistance.

5. Tour of the Universal Movie Studios.

This tour proved interesting, but, in my mind, totally beyond the scope of a student government conference.

6. Workshop-- combined large and small colleges.

Unfortunately our chairman, Sue Dockins of Long Beach City College, LAC, had neither the background nor the force to lead a profitable meeting. after one hour of worthless babble and parliamentary ping-pong, I walked out of this meeting followed by 4 other Area 7 colleges.

This workshop's purpose was to provide legislation for the following general assembly. Due to the chairman's lack of leadership and the delegates unwillingness to cooperate, this workshop only produced repetitious legislation and meaningless garble, in the general assembly of the following day.

7. General Assembly.

Because of a good chairman, electronic voting and previous workshop activity, this assembly passed in 4 hours approx 40 pieces of legislation--a majority of it worthless trivia and legislation beyond the purpose of CJCSGA. There were, However, a few pieces that were well thought out (evaluation of these appear below).

EVALUATION

I firmly believe that CJCSGA can provide the services that it promises in the Preamble to its constitution.

PREAMBLE

We the student governing bodies of California Junior Colleges; in order to provide an effective channel of representation for California Junior College students, to promote maximum communication among the local colleges and to offer junior college students an opportunity for democratic government in action for the benefit of the students and junior colleges of California, do establish and promulgate this constitution to establish a statewide Junior College Student Government Association.

There were at this convention some resolutions beyond the scope and purposes of CJCSGA. I include here a few examples of such:

(Changing Student #10)

Resolved: That CJCSGA go on record as supporting the Beilenson Therapeutic Abortion Act, SB 462.

Resolved: That the CJCSGA go on record as favoring a reevaluation of the present narcotic laws.

(Presidents #26)

Resolved: That the CJCSGA do on record of supporting the Free Mail Plan now in Congress.

(Presidents #8)

Resolved: That the CJCSGA go on record as favoring legislation by the California legislature to lower the legal voting age in California to 19 years of age.

I am not saying that there were not important pieces of legislation presented, but through discussion of some of those above, we did not have time for the "Student Rights resolution." This resolution is definitely within the scope of CJCSGA.

(Changing Student #7)

Resolved: That the CJCSGA go on record as favoring the adoption of student rights:

1. The right to a press free from censorship.
2. The right of students to take public stands on issues directly or indirectly pertinent to the junior college.
3. The right to form an organization around any particular interest.
4. The right of a student body to be informed of all matters concerning their respective colleges.
5. The right of students to participate with their administrators in decisions which affect their respective student bodies.
6. The right of student organizations to speak on any subject or to hear speakers on any subjects; and be it further

Resolved: The above rights may not at anytime violate State or Federal laws.

There were a number of good pieces of legislation that did get a chance on the floor. The pass-fail system of grading and support of Assembly Bill 440 were among these.

Workshop time was all too limited for thorough discussion of the topic and for clearly thought-out resolutions to be formulated. Perhaps, as I have implied before, these difficulties were only present in my workshop. However, after talking with others, I see an obvious need of more workshop time.

It seems, from my observation, that S.R.J.C. should be in the larger college section of the workshop. College of Marin and S.R.J.C. throughout the problems discusses seemed to have the best situation of all. Where other colleges in the workshop had problems, Marin and Santa Rosa had what the workshop termed, the Ideal Situation.

It is for the above mentioned reasons that I propose the following recommendations:

1. That S.R.J.C. actively participate in C.F.C., to discuss issues pertinent to this area and outside the domain of C.J.C.S.G.A.
2. That S.R.J.C. encourage the leaders of CJCSGA to provide more workshop time, through the limitation of social activities to nighttime dances and a short afternoon "free-time", and that S.R.J.C. encourage CJCSGA to stay within the limits of Student Government and education discussion.
3. That S.R.J.C. continue active participation in Area 7 and send more than 1 representative to state only if Area 7 conference participation shows a need of sending a group of delegates.
4. That S.R.J.C. does not withdraw from State entirely at any time unless our representation there provides our Student Body and Student Government with absolutely nothing.
5. That S.R.J.C. when attending another state conference sit with the larger colleges in all divided workshops.

It is important for an individual involved in any sort of government organization to at least have some basic concept of a political philosophy. It has become apparent from some of the charges leveled at C.S.A., and particularly those who represented C.S.A. and the student body at the recent C.J.C.S.G.A. Conference, that there are some very hazy concepts as to the accomplishments and aims of a government organization.

Government organizations are, by nature, bureaucratic and cumbersome and the wheels of progress sometimes move with agonizing slowness. This is, of course, unfortunate but the alternative of the present time is reverting to a Thoreauian type of isolation. Our own American government has indeed tried isolation and thankfully have changed their position since World War I.

We here, at Santa Rosa Junior College, are faced at this time, with much the same problem. There are those among us who would have you believe that severing relations with C.J.C.S.G.A. and other colleges would be a boon to the student body because they, the students, would not be faced with the "over-burdening" taxation brought about by sending student representatives to the semi-annual C.J.C.S.G.A. Conference.

I question the validity of this argument, both on a monetary and ideological basis. Monetarily speaking, the expenditure for both C.J.C.S.G.A. Conferences amounts to less than 2% of the annual budget, and the question must be immediately raised whether or not this amount is justified. I feel this expenditure is certainly justified, for it means the difference between a static student government and one which is truly dynamic and enlightened. C.J.C.S.G.A. and its subsidiary organizations offer the various student leaders throughout the states junior colleges, the only medium and forum through which an exchange of ideas can take place. This interchange of thoughts certainly does not justify student expenditure unless these ideas are brought home, and presented to the parent college, and then possibly, institution of these ideas take place. Instituting new ideas and policies is often difficult because of the maze of red tape one has to go through to make a college policy change; primary considerations are, of course, the drive of student government and the intelligent use of information gathered by the student leaders at the C.J.C.S.G.A. Conference.

The cries have been raised that this exchange of ideas is a fine and worthy project but that nothing dynamic ever happened on the campus after the C.J.C.S.G.A. conferences. I don't know whether this was because of apathetic student leadership or just a case of the faculty and administration negating all efforts the student leaders made in instituting new policies.

It must be clear to all members of C.S.A. that to pull out of C.J.C.S.G.A. would be one of the most serious and detrimental steps that this body could undertake. We as student leaders must always try to go forward and this is a virtual impossibility without the aid of C.J.C.S.G.A. C.S.A. as a single entity can institute nothing on a state level without the aid of our sister colleges, and I am afraid a college without a forum and ideas gained from other schools will be politically dead.

On a more specific basis, I feel the accomplishment of the state conference far out weighed the minor irritants such as the will intentioned tour through Universal Studios. Even more specifically, I have brought back two ideas gained at the state C.J.C.S.G.A. Conference that I personally will try to institute with the help of C.S.A.

Of major importance was the idea of a Faculty Evaluation System, whereby students could know before entering a class what the instructor was like. Faculty evaluation might also serve to up-grade teaching methods and point out constructively some of the teachers failings.

Another important idea was that of having students serve on the curricula board and thereby bringing to the attention of Faculty and administration courses not offered that might be in the future.

Both of these programs have a good chance of being instituted if C.S.A., the body politic, will join together and present rational and valid arguments to the administration.

CJCSGA Report
CAMPUS CURRENT

"The Impact of Tuition upon Higher Education "

Thursday night in my workshop the guest speaker was Dr. George Dotson. He presented both sides for the question on tuition, however he ended by taking a stand for tuition. Due to the late hour that was all that took place at this meeting. It seems that more interesting things were taking place in another workshop. Because of the speaker in Role of Campus Organizations Area 7 held a meeting to decide what action if any should be taken against what was being said about Area 7 and CFC.

Friday morning in my workshop we went through the agenda and discussed each item on it carefully. The topics that were covered are as follows: What is the role of free education in a democratic state? Is free education really free? To what level shall free education remain free? Under what circumstances should students pay? Who should determine policy regarding tuition? Are there any alternatives to tuition? If tuition were imposed, would students demand greater control and responsibility in the running of the school? Should tuition be charged at California State colleges and universities? What would be the effects of tuition at the state college and university level? on the junior college level? Will tuition change the educational principles of the junior college? What would be the effects upon the junior college "open door" policy? What would be the effects of tuition on the underprivileged students?

At 11:30 the workshop was dismissed and that afternoon we went to Universal Studios. It was my feeling that this part of the conference was a complete waste. Due to the fact that we had much work and many resolutions to draw up and vote upon it seemed that the tour should have been forgotten. Because the tour took all of Friday afternoon we were unable to finish voting on all the resolutions.

Friday night we again met in our workshops to draw up and vote upon resolutions. In my workshop we presented seven resolutions to the general assembly. I will give the resolved clause and tell how I voted on it in the workshop, how SRJC voted on it in the general assembly and if it passed or failed. Resolution 1: Therefore be it resolved that CJCSGA go on record as strenuously opposing any tuition changes at the California state colleges and universities (amended to read except out of state students). Voted yes all the way through. Passed. #2 Therefore be it resolved that the executive officers of CJCSGA set up a meeting with available State authorities to explain our position on the problems of tuition. Yes- #3 Therefore be it resolved that CJCSGA go on record in favor of augmentation of the present State Scholarship and aid programs both in number of students served and the types of costs covered. Yes- #4 Therefore be it resolved that CJCSGA go on record as supporting a revision of the state tax structure by placing more reliance on the progressive state income tax and a revamping of the regressive state property tax. We voted no, however it passed in the general assembly. #5 Therefore be it resolved that the CJCSGA go on record as favoring that the State of California establish a state lottery to produce income for education. We voted yes, however it failed on the general assembly floor. #6 Therefore be it resolved that the CJCSGA go on record as being in favor of the State of California increasing the financial support of higher education in accordance with the national average of 4%. Yes- #7 Therefore be it resolved that the CJCSGA go on record as favoring a "living allowance" for potential but underprivileged students to allow them to begin or continue higher education: Therefore be it further resolved that the CJCSGA form a committee to study the factors of such a proposal. Yes-No-Failed.

Due to the tight schedule not all the resolutions were voted upon in general assembly. However the majority of the resolutions were voted upon. I believe that CJCSGA is an important part of our student government body and it would be a mistake to drop out. I was quoted as saying that I thought for the amount of work we accomplished at ~~state~~ state it really wasn't worth it. When I made this statement I was referring not to the general assembly or the CJCSGA as a whole, I was speaking about my workshop. I felt since the tuition had been put off we were somewhat anti-climatic. However this was my own feeling and should not affect any feelings toward or against CJCSGA. As long as we can work within the frameworks of both CJCSGA and CFC I feel that we are doing our best to support our student government for the students.

Subj: C.J.C.S.G.A. 43rd Biannual Conference; report of

1. I shall attempt to report on the following paper the consequences and subsequences derived from my personal observations at the C.J.C.S.G.A. Conference.

2. Accomodations in Los Angeles were quite satisfactory, considering the physical practicality of accommodating representatives of 79 junior colleges.

3. I personally found the conference beneficial. Further, with what I learned, observed, and discussed with other delegates, I feel that the students of Santa Rosa Junior College will be ultimately benefitted.

4. I do not intend to list a schedule of the conference, or pages of stereotyped answers, since detailed information regarding the official program is readily available to all who are interested. Further, I do not intend to give any detailed information and comments regarding the "make-up" of resolutions and how the mass voted, and how Santa Rosa voted, as I think that this would be both time consuming and unnecessary. Rather, I would like to give somewhat of a personal philosophy.

5. Unfortunately, owing to an exceedingly demanding itinerary, without the benefit of enough time to fulfill the conference schedule, and further owing to an unnecessary, unjustifiable, but mandatory tour of Universal City, we did not complete the program as planned. This is really the only complaint I have against the planning of the conference.

6. I feel, that student government leaders, who are representing the students as a whole, either do an exemplary job as such, or a fairly poor job, depending upon the interest, insight, initiative, courage, wherewithal, and time and effort put into the office which they represent. It is truly unfortunate that the present administration has been so criticized; so accused of being incapable of recognizing that the State Conference is nothing more than "getting a short vacation from SRJC," (which must be fact, because the last administration said so); and misrepresented by that exemplary tool of flourishing words, that organ of "straight dope", our own Oak Leaf. This is not a rebuttal as such, just a personal comment.

7. I do not feel that the State Conference was in any way, shape, or form, a vacation from SRJC. The schedule was, for the most part, very demanding. My idea of a vacation is NOT getting up in the morning at 7:00 a. m. and trying to get to bed at about 2:00 a. m.

8. I attended the "Role of Campus Organizations" workshop. The recommended legislation that came out of this workshop was discussed, provoked, repressed, and many other things, prior to being recommended for approval or disapproval. Many, many ideas were exchanged, debated, well-taken, and discussed between the delegates of 79 junior colleges throughout the state.

9. The keynote speaker in the workshop that I attended, was a gentleman from Los Angeles Harbor College. He is the Dean of Student Activities at that college and a very intelligent man. Unfortunately, he was both misinformed, and misguided in his concepts of junior colleges in Northern California. He gave a speech that degraded the colleges in the area of California in which Santa Rosa is situated. He informed his audience that colleges north and east of San Francisco Bay consisted of "hippies," "happeners," and the like. I was personally outraged by these comments and practically violently opposed his captivating an audience and then misinforming them with such trash. After the 1st workshop (in which he gave his speech), I discussed at length with this man, Santa Rosa's resentment to such misleading information, and, to be succinct, set him straight. It was apparent that this man was representing the general resentment of Northern California Junior Colleges as felt by the South (Los Angeles). I feel that after approximately two hours of straightforward discussion with this man, that we (Russ Gleason and I), gave him not only food for thought regarding Northern California Junior Colleges, but a new respect for Santa Rosa Junior College in particular. It is my hope (and I feel that it will be realized), that he will take this new information back to his colleagues, and the resentment will be reevaluated.

10. Also, in the workshops, it became apparent to me, that Santa Rosa Junior College is indeed fortunate to have the things that we, as students often take for granted. When I told the delegates of 79 colleges of the Open Forum, Mid-Day Series programs, debates, Values in Life week, guest speakers, academic freedom, etc., etc., etc., that SRJC actively has on its campus, the majority of the representatives were amazed. It indeed made me feel proud that SRJC is such a superior college. What I'm leading up to is the fact that after discussing the programs that are promulgated on our campus, I have new insight, new ideas, new hopes, and in many cases, solutions to the representatives of those colleges that are not so fortunate as we. This alone made the conference worth our being there, and being represented, and our being heard as a strong and superior voice from the north.

11. Indeed, I agree with those persons of the delegation from SRJC who think that the State Conference should be "re-vamped." There are many things that could be done to make this conference a more effective one.

However, to "pull out" of this conference would, at present, be disasterous. Instead, I feel that SRJC could work to make a more effective conference.

12. In conclusion, I should like to say that this is a very succinct report; not an exact one. To put down on paper all the resolutions, ideas, comments, and effects of the conference would take reams of paper. I am more than willing to discuss the conference with any member of the college community who wishes to discuss it and who is interested enough to take the time to talk with the student government representatives of Santa Rosa Junior College. To go one step further, I would heartily encourage any interested member of the college community to come in and see me - to discuss this conference and its effects, my opinions, or anything else relating to the conference.

REPORT ON THE
CALIFORNIA JUNIOR COLLEGE
STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION
CONVENTION SPRING 1967

Delegates:

Russ Gleason-ASB President
Norman Boyer-ASB Vice-Pres.
Kathy Branwell-Corresponding Sec.
Evan Jenkins-Finance Comm'r.
Scott Pineo-Parliamentarian

May 8, 1967

May I begin my report by stating that I am strongly opposed to the suggestion by some to drop CJCSGA. I am a firm believer that nothing can be accomplished by quitting and that those who advocate such action have little desire to further the freedoms and advancements of our college and other educational institutions of our state.

The colleges of Northern California are in the minority, due to the fact that more colleges are established in the more populated areas of our state around Los Angeles, but the thinking and problems on college campuses throughout the state are really the same. Here at Santa Rosa, and Area 7 as a whole, we enjoy the most liberal freedoms of speech, dress, assembly, and press, but unfortunately, this is not true in all colleges. This is why many such alarming and thought-probing resolutions from Area 7 put other conservative areas at ill-ease. If Area 7 did nothing less (which is untrue) it made the other colleges take notice and in some respects admire us. Area 7 with little hesitation, dove into the evil taboo of controversial speakers, birth control information, Black Power, tuition, and the war in Viet Nam. We brought to the state conference the real problems that face the college student and sought solutions for them. As the record will show, Area 7 resolutions were acted upon and the overwhelming majority of them passed. We were not black-balled by the South, but rather we cleared up the confusions of liberal thinking and demanded action.

When your delegates arrived at State, we were shocked to learn we were thought of as "free love swinging hippies", and that we were nothing more than a communist political training camp for Cal Berkeley. Through the efforts, thinking and actions of your delegates much was accomplished to curtail such misinformation.

The question has been raised of how the work of your delegates at State will benefit the whole student body. Also fears expressed by Mr. Doss, our former ASB President, that resolutions passed at State would be forgotten as in the past two delegations sent. I hope I may answer these questions and fears.

If sex on the college campus does not concern every student on our campus, then we are a unique campus. If drugs do not concern us at SRJC, then we are blind. If the war in Viet Nam does not affect the student, then we are blessed. If Black Power and the plight of the American negro does not concern the student, then we have little business in being in college and shaping our country's future. And if tuition does not concern every student on this campus, then they have been ignorant to the news media and the issues at hand. These are but a few of the resolutions passed at State and action on these issues is now in process.

Letters from CSA, myself, Mr. Canevari, our advisor, and our Board of Trustees in favor of mandatory student body cards, were sent to the leaders of State. Letters were also sent to the State conference concerning SRJC's, CSA's, and my own opinion opposing tuition.

Contacts with the Sonoma County Board of Health concerning birth control information were also taken to State.

These were some of the problems which were acted upon at State and to which we at SRJC have shown our response. In my mind, the convention was a success, both for the delegates attending, the colleges involved, and the students deriving the benefits of the conference. I thoroughly am in favor of attending State as long as those attending have the same desire and attitude towards a fruitful end, as was shown by this year's delegates.

- 1) The College Student Assembly passed a motion last Monday to raise student card fees from $14.50 to $16.00 for the year. $9.00 for the Fall and $7.00 for Spring Semester. This action was requested by the Finance Commissioner. I concurred
- 2) Associated Students are paying 75¢ per student per semester matched by District funds and an additional 40¢ per semester per student or 80¢ per year per student not matched by District funds -- just for insurance.
- 3) All budget requests are up this semester. Two examples of increased needs are Drama and Athletics. Athletics - $10,250 up to $11,937, or an increase of $1,600.00.
Drama -- $1,200 up to $1,600.00
- 4) Card prices were set in 1938 with the 75¢ insurance charge per semester added at a later date. -- Obviously costs have risen since 1938.
- 5) Also we have an increased work load in our area, thus larger salaries for supporting staff.

Increased Income $700.00 Fall

Santa Rosa, California

ATTN: Daymon Doss, Executive Vice President

Dear Fellow Student Leaders:

Sometimes, a great many happenings seem to add up and, in regards to my office, these "happenings" add up to justify a resignation. Therefore, I wish to inform you that I will terminate my office and position of President of the Associated Students, Santa Rosa Junior College and this resignation to become effective immediately.

I do feel that I should give my reasons, since I was just recently re-elected and, at the least, owe the voters something.

It was no one event, but many. I have felt for sometime now that I was losing my most guarded love: freedom. The amount of time and energy I have spent has left me little or no time to enjoy some of the most memorable moments of college life and I have found myself without the time I need for my own personal life.

Another reason is, although I have received a tremendous amount of cooperation from the Administration of the college, I am tired of the back-stabbing, rumors and anti-student attitude of a great many faculty members and clerks and secretaries of the college.

Poor grades also contributed heavily to my decision as did the possibility I would not be in the area too much towards the last month or two of the Spring Semester.

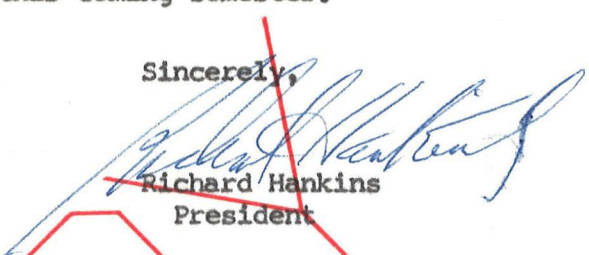

I feel that I can resign and know that the accomplishments, the ideals and standards of my administration will be followed and carried out and I am thoroughly confident that you will all strive for a strong, honest student government that I have attempted to bring to this campus.

v m Of course, I leave with hesitation for I have enjoyed my work and had a sincere belief that I was doing a benefit to the students and the college.

I wish to thank all of you because I have come to admire you all for your aid and efforts in helping student government.

I will be around to help in anyway I can, upon request, and give you all my best of wishes and luck this coming semester.

Sincerely,

~~Richard Hankins~~
President

Mr. Canevari,

It has been my extreme pleasure to briefly work with you in connection with putting on rallies. And it is with a sincere regret that I am forced to resign.

I have been accused of having a "split personality" but I feel it would cause me a degree of uncomfortableness^(?) to attempt attending CSA on Monday afternoons while also attending Drama 12A at the same time.

I would deeply appreciate being remembered when, later in the year, it comes time for the Spring Sing.

Thank you for your understanding and consideration shown to me in this past semester.

Very Sincerely,

Sandi (Big Rocky) Tufts

BOARD STATEMENT ON SELECTIVITY -- February 9, 1967

The Board of Trustees reaffirm its action of May 14, 1965, wherein the Board stated the official policy of this college to be that student clubs shall not exercise selectivity of membership based on vote of their members, and further that the Board interprets the policy to prohibit the use of any device or practice which in effect implements selectivity, and further, that the Board expects compliance in spirit and fact with the policy of open membership.

Mr. Canerari

TO: The Editor of the Oakleaf

FROM: "stick to typing, filing and keeping quiet" student

In view of the "sour grapes" statements expressed by the "Hankins Gives Up Post" article, I believe that the "worst violator" is the student who feels that it is his responsibility to run the SRJC Administration.

The realized "sickness" was simply one of the inability of the past president, Mr. Hankins, to have remembered that he was first a student that was elected to the office of Student Body president to represent the students in the SRJC Administration framework.

The organization of any large institution requires people who have had long-term experience, right down to the "clerks and secretaries". Big Business has spent thousands of dollars in research to avoid the "3 year term" just so that they would have people in their employment who "know the ropes".

A captain in office 8 months stamping his feet saying, "If I can't have my way, I won't play" is acting like a baby monkey who discovers he can hang by his tail from a limb, but doesn't know which direction to swing in.

Mr. Hankins wasn't required to resign his position due to pressures; he had to give it up. And he owes it to the Student Body public to explain that he had to resign because he did not earn the required two point grade average for the $10\frac{1}{2}$ units which he carried last semester. He didn't earn the right to keep the position.

A college leader should first be a student, then should be big enough to take criticism, and third, should know his place. The Community taxpayers have delegated a place where students can learn leadership from Administration, not impose their own leadership on Administration. It's about time that we students recognize that we are not politicians; we are students. We are here to learn from both Administrators and teachers.

Mr. Hankins is a Journalism major, yet he has stooped to the lowest form of yellow journalism. Moreover, his statements are not only in very poor taste, but are unprovable wherein he is casting shadows of doubt in the Administration's ability to hire, judge, and fire its employees, "clerks and secretaries" included.

The student body, as well as Mr. Hankins, paid a high price for his "turmoil-filled" office. The controversially diverting activities of last semester consumed valuable student study time without showing any significant results in the effect in student body government. Hopefully, the new President will be able to restore order from chaos.

Hankins' reasons for resigning his membership in the proposed Doyle Student Center Commission are not valid as presented on page 2 of the Feb. 9 issue of the Oakleaf. As reply to the Student Affairs Committee, Dr. Newman submitted a report which specifically outlined a ratio of 5 - 5 of faculty and students. This is not a "reversal" of the Hankins proposal of 5 students and 4 faculty members, but a stand for equalization of responsibilities and vote.

It is obvious then, that the role of the Administration is for equal representation as such. To date, equal representation has not been considered a matter of "babysitting".

We are now in a new semester, with a new Student Body Government. We cannot change what has been, but we should profit from it and move forward towards more tolerance and better relations.

TO: College Student Assembly

FROM: Daymon Doss, President Associated Students

Due to circumstances beyond my control, I find myself in a position in which I must resign my post as President of the Associated Students of Santa Rosa Junior College.

There are several main reasons why I must resign, the main one being of a financial nature. This semester I have 17 1/2 units and work between 20 to 30 hours per week. When in C.S.A. I am forced to use perhaps shakey political tactics and at times discredit individuals to get a certain document passed in the student assembly then C.S.A. becomes distasteful to me.

Perhaps the most disgusting thing about C.S.A. is the extent of apathy that it has reached. If you do not really want to serve then you are morally obligated to resign. Student apathy is as great, or perhaps greater than, that in C.S.A. This apathy was very apparent in the Open Forum held on tuition held last week.

Perhaps when one becomes too involved in C.S.A. he has a tendency to forget he is a student. I would like to caution C.S.A. about your financial decisions and to congratulate you for your recent trend to reward students through financial aid. I have enjoyed to a certain extent C.S.A. and I hope you will attempt to show more courtesy to fellow C.S.A. members than I and others have in the past. You will always be criticised, but very rarely are any suggestions given to you. I hope that C.S.A. will reverse its decision on the I.C.C. Code and vote to go to complete and absolutely open membership for clubs.

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS
SANTA ROSA JUNIOR COLLEGE
SANTA ROSA, CALIFORNIA

College Student Assembly
Attn. Russ Gleason
Exec. Vice-president

It is with a great deal of regret that I must inform you of my intent to resign from the office of Associated Students President of Santa Rosa Junior College. Although I have know great philosophical reasons to resign there are several ideas that I would like to convey to the College Student Assembly.

I feel that at times that C.S.A. is a function that benefits only those who are in C.S.A. When C.S.A. does take responsible action it is often bogged down in petty arguing. I have begun to believe that C.S.A should start to help not only the students who want ot hold dances, but should help those students who have gained academic merit and other recognition for the school. I am specifically talking about the two students who made the film "The Flower", the First Leaves, and the two students who have been selected to play at the Notre Dame Jazz Festival.

I do not feel that the administration of this college has held back the progress of Student Government. The only real thing that has held back the progress of the students is the students themselves. I feel that Mr. Canevari is a great help to the C.S.A. and one that should be recognized. Dean Dougan is very helpful to the students, and if such a time occurs that students recognize their problems the whole works will run much smoother. Dr. Newman has also been a great help to us even though most students feel that he is some type of great dictator.

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS
SANTA ROSA JUNIOR COLLEGE
SANTA ROSA, CALIFORNIA

The main reasons for my recognition of these gentleman is that often students have a tendency to overlook all but there own reasons for an action that has been taken. Students are always asking for more responsibility, perhaps it time we started to think like adults and not mindless petty children.

I feel that with 18½ units and working 25 hours a week I can not maintain an adequate grade point and do a good job as President. I hope my resignation will not be interpreted to mean any thing else than my classes and the hours I have to work. For the first time since I have been in this school I would like to be just a student and that is all. I can guarantee that I will not be one to criticize the actions taken by C.S.A. for the following semester, unless asked or forced to say something.

Again I must state with great regret that I must resign and that this resignation will take affect on Feb. 15, 1967.

PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

based upon Sturgis Standard Code of Parliamentary Procedure

Introduction:

The basic reason for having any standard procedure is to dispose of the business before the assembly as quickly, efficiently, and justly as possible.

The most important principles underlying parliamentary procedure are the following:

1. Parliamentary rules exist to facilitate the transaction of business and to promote cooperation and harmony.
2. The vote of the majority decides.
3. All members have equal rights, privileges, and obligations.
4. The minority has rights which must be protected.
5. Full and free discussion of every proposition presented for decision is an established right.
6. The simplest and most direct procedure for accomplishing a purpose should be followed.
7. Motions have a definite and logical order of precedence.
8. Every member has the right to know at all times what question is before the assembly and what its effect will be.
9. Only one question can be considered at a time.
10. Those to whom power is delegated must be chosen by democratic processes.

Definitions:

1. Motion--A proposal submitted to an assembly for its consideration and introduced by the words, "I move that . . ."
There are four types of motions.
 - i. Main motion-- a motion presenting a subject to an assembly for discussion and decision.
 - ii. Subsidiary motion-- a motion which may be applied to a main motion in order to modify, delay or dispose of the main motion.
 - iii. Privileged Motion-- a motion affecting the comfort or convenience of the assembly or one of its members, and having the highest order of precedence.
 - iv. Incidental Motion--a motion relating to questions which arise incidentally out of the business, or order or manner of considering the business of an assembly.
2. Pending-- A question is said to be a Pending Question when it is before the assembly and has not yet been voted upon. The Immediately Pending Question is the last question proposed when several questions are on the floor, and it is the first question that the assembly must decide.
3. Previous Question--A motion made to close debate upon a matter of business and to have a vote taken at once upon the immediately pending question. It requires a two-thirds vote and the correct form is, "Mr. Chairman, I call the Previous Question."
4. Put the Question-- The Chair asks for a vote on the question seeing that there is no more relevant discussion on the question.

Method of Conducting Business by Sturgis and other parliamentary codes--

The most common means of introducing business to the gathered assembly is the motion. In the case of receiving committee reports, etc. it is not required to make a formal motion.

In order to make a motion, the speaker must be recognized by the chair. An example of the procedure of making a motion follows:

MR. A (rising and addressing the chair): "Mr. Chairman."

CHAIRMAN: "Mr. A."

Mr. A: "I move that this club undertake a campaign to raise funds for the purchase of the property adjoining our clubhouse."

Mr. B (without rising): "I second the motion."

CHAIRMAN: "It has been moved and seconded that this organization undertake a campaign to raise funds for the purchase of the property which adjoins our clubhouse. Is there any discussion?"

Discussion of the motion is then in order.

All motions should be addressed to the chair in similar fashion. Many motions do not need seconds and are not debatable. These motions along with all other motions are listed in order of precedence on the yellow sheet accompanying this leaflet.

Secondary motions to the main motions may be proposed and discussed. If a question incidental to the business arises, it becomes immediately pending question and must be disposed of before returning to the main motion.

Voting takes place when all debate has ceased. The chair asks, "Are you ready for the question?" If it is clear that no one objects, he then puts the question. Voting may take place in one of eight ways. The most important of these are: voice vote, rising vote, count vote (show of hands), roll call, ballot, and Unanimous consent.

This is just a small part of the many rules that must be followed in order to conduct an effective and orderly assembly. However, the codes of parliamentary law are flexible and may be changed slightly to eliminate unwanted formalities in certain assemblies.

I refer anyone interested in the organization and procedure of assemblies to Sturgis Standard Code of Parliamentary Procedure. This will help you understand many of the things which I have not included here and some of the things that I have only lightly touched on. I hope that this paper will help you, in your meetings, to understand and simplify procedures and the handling of business. I would appreciate any questions on this or on Sturgis and its relationship to running your club, I.C.C., C.S.A. or other meetings.

Parliamentary Procedure Seminar

March 8, 1967

The purpose of this meeting is threefold: 1. With it we intend to inform all those interested in the fundamentals of parliamentary law and its application in day to day meetings. 2. It is concerned with enabling those in authority on this campus to evaluate their code of procedure and find its shortcomings. 3. The mock meeting will help those who are in doubt as to the correct forms to use and when an item is in order. There will be no intentional infringement on the laws of procedure in this meeting. The topics for discussion, it is hoped, will lend themselves to discussion, not only from a parliamentary point of view, but also from the view of interest.

There are four main parts to this docket that will be of importance today. The green sheets deal with the presentation and the mock meeting. The white sheets are a summary of Sturgis, and a very general outline of forms to use. The yellow sheet is a chart that will be very valuable in this meeting, as well as in day to day use. The pink and blue sheets deal with the mock meeting and are correct forms of written items to be considered.

The Parliamentarian and any other officers of C.S.A. will be glad to discuss Sturgis Standard Code of Parliamentary Procedure and the possibility of future meetings like this with you. This is not meant to be substituted for a more formal knowledge of Sturgis through reading or through a class in parliamentary procedure. Please help us, by your questions and discussion to be a helpful meeting for you.

Mr. Canevari

March 9, 1967

Mr. Russ Gleason
Associated Student Body President
Santa Rosa Junior College

Dear Mr. Gleason:

To everything ^{here} here is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heavens. The season has arrived when I have to accept that I cannot continue with my important office of Associated Student Body Vice President. My school plans makes it very undesirable that I should stay in office.

My intention to double major in Political Science and Philosophy then go to Law School makes it very undesirable for me to go to college unsponsored. This is not an easy undertaking I have applied to many public and private organizations for scholarship aid. It has been discouraging to learn that scholarship foundations do not usually offer scholarships to non-citizens and that the few that do require that the candidate for scholarship be in his/her home country at the time of application. This leaves me with the only possibility of competing for scholarship to a private university.

The above reason plus the fact that I would have to spend much time even to do the least possible amount of good for the college demands that I forward this resignation to you. I could offer only minimum necessary time for the college but it is evident to me that the climate does not allow one who puts a minimum period to be able to do any good, and it is obvious I cannot afford more than the minimum.

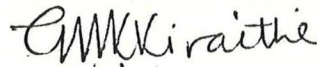

As time has come when I have to respond to the call for serious studies, honour my thanks and respect for you, CSA, Mr. Canevari, Mr. Dougan, Mrs. Fischer, and all who have made SRJC a wealth of experience for me. You have all contributed much towards my adjusting to the American Life. You have been warm in heart, word, and deed. You cannot imagine what it means to a foreigner to find warm and sincere people in a culture completely different from his own. You have definitely brought my country and yours much closer. I hope the seed we have planted will be ever productive. You have been good ambassadors in your OWN country-you have sold America for a good price.

I wish you luck in your present and future undertaking. I will ever remember the world of experience I have been given a chance to acquire and I am sure it will be useful experience in my law career. Through leadership positions such as Vice President of Clubs, class, and college and through delegative and representative capacities for college, I have learned more than any books could have taught me. ~~All~~ All this is to the credit of the "individual" For What He Is" oriented student body of Santa Rosa Junior College. I have found this college to be a community of people who admire qualification of any individual be he yellow, black, white, or red.

Again let me repeat, you have sold America for a good price. Thank you again.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Kanampio George Kiraithe". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned above the printed name.

There were several resolutions passed. All were against tuition. The resolutions which passed the general assembly will be forwarded to the state conference.
