

Implementing Accessibility: Learning from the South Carolina Department of Education

The U.S. Department of Education Office of Educational Technology (OET) and Office of Special Education and Rehabilitative Services (OSERS) invite you to a webinar in honor of Global Accessibility Awareness Day (GAAD) on May 18, 2023.

Join this webinar to learn how the South Carolina (SC) Department of Education creates and implements accessibility initiatives for their staff, educators, and families. They will share how they enact change to support the department's workplace culture and policies, the district administrators, the educators in the classroom, and the school communities as a whole.

When is the webinar?

Thursday, May 18, 2023, 2 – 3 p.m. ET / 11 a.m. – 12 p.m. PT

How can I join the webinar?

Complete this registration form to join the live webinar. If you cannot join live, the recording will be posted on the Office of Educational Technology's YouTube Channel.

Who should join this webinar?

State and local educational agencies: leaders, technology specialists, website developers and designers and professional development leaders.

Education and accessibility organizations focused on: school leadership and policies, digital accessibility, accessible educational materials, and educator professional development.

Accommodations: Auto-closed captioning and ASL interpreters will be available.

For any other needs, share in the "comments" section in the registration form.