THE FINAL TENNESSEE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The 54th and final Tennessee Annual Conference was held online on June 10 and 11, 2021. This was the second year that COVID-19 restrictions limited large gatherings. Lay and clergy members participated via Zoom webinar with the production assistance of a team from GNTV working out of the Tennessee Conference center in Nashville.

Throughout the conference, videos were shown that presented different periods in the history of the Tennessee Conference. Worship teams contributed to both the Tennessee and Memphis annual conference sessions via video. Those teams were from Clark UMC, McMinnville, Gordon Memorial UMC, Christ UMC, Franklin, Fairfield Glade UMC, Covington First UMC, and Paris First UMC.

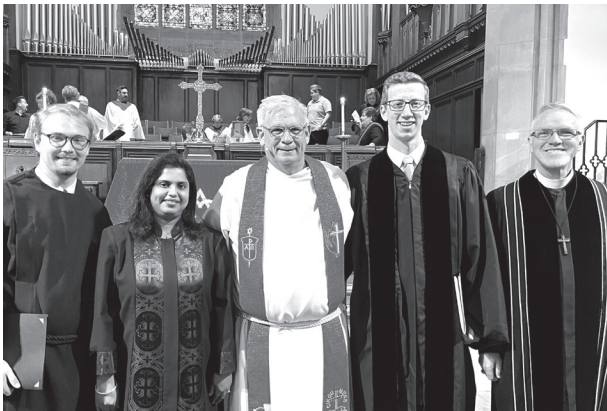

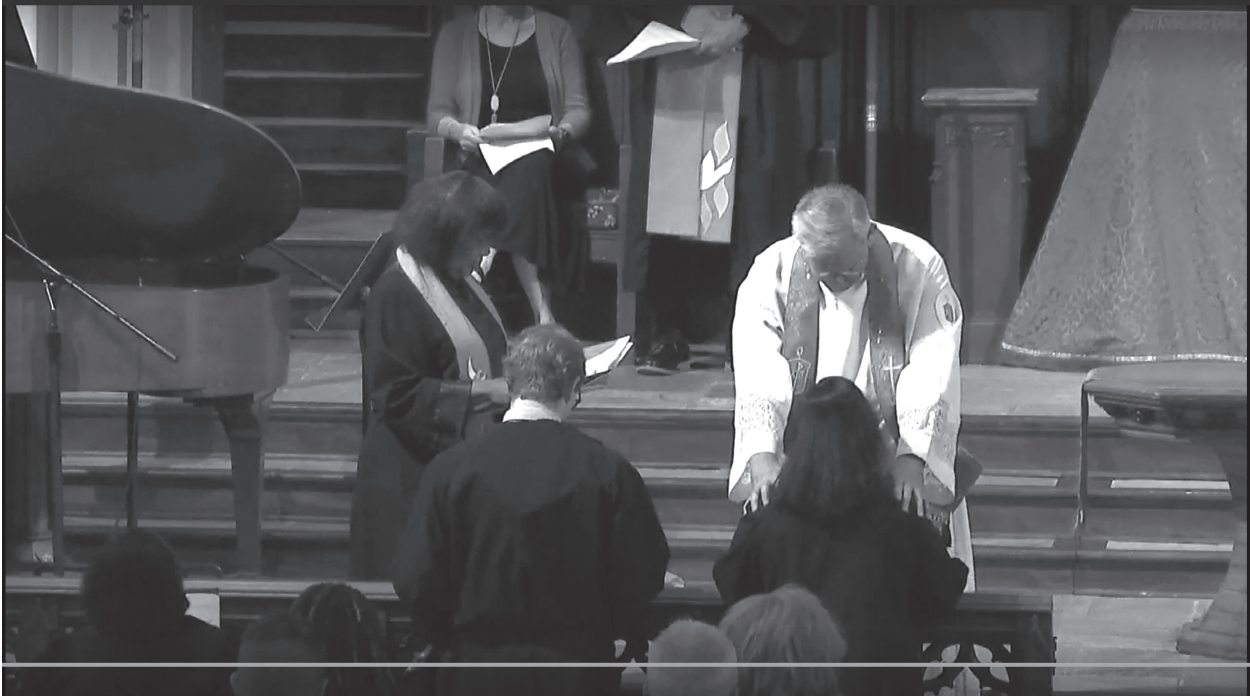

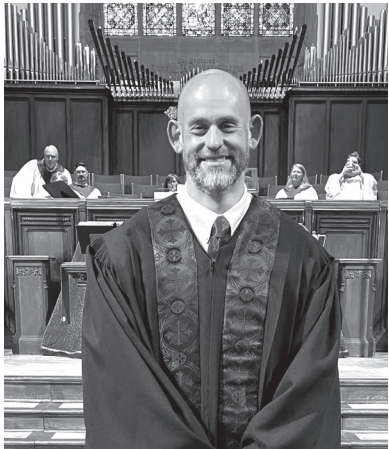

Photos and screen shots: Jacob Vaughn, Kylie Marino, Meg Young, Steven Adair.

SERVICE OF LICENSING, COMMISSIONING, AND ORDINATION

Candidates from both the Tennessee and Memphis conferences were licensed, commissioned, and ordained jointly at two services held on June 19, 2021, at West End UMC in Nashville, TN. The services were live-streamed, and a limited number of guests and participants were able to gather in person. Leaders from both conferences participated in both services. The sermon message, "I've Laid Down A Pattern For You," was offered by Bishop William T. McAlilly.

Presentation of Resolution Regarding Approval of Plan of Union for the Western-Kentucky Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church.

1. Bishop McAlilly introduces the Honorable Connie Clark, Rev. Dr. Mark La Branche, and Dr. Roy Nicks who are available to respond to any questions related to the resolution on Martin Methodist College
2. Connie Clark speaks to the history of Martin Methodist College and its legacy with the Tennessee Annual Conference.
3. The University of Tennessee (UT) approached Martin Methodist in order to expand leadership and training. This would move Martin Methodist College to become a campus of the UT system.
4. The Trustees of the Board of Martin Methodist have requested that the change in relationship be granted, to release Martin Methodist College and the property that it owns, with the exception of the financial endowment, to allow the Tennessee Legislature to allow this merger to occur. This change of relationship would take place at the end of the 2021 Annual Conference.
5. The conference Board of Trustees will be authorized at the conclusion of this session and when all other legal matters are completed, to release the assets of Martin Methodist College from the trust clause of The Book of Discipline.
6. Tom Pierce, laity, Belmont UMC, Cumberland District: Have any other institutions been approached?
 - a. Clark responds that to her knowledge Martin Methodist has not been in conversation with any other institutions. On the legislative side, input was given by other colleges and individuals. There is a 14-county area in southern Middle Tennessee that currently has no other four-year college or degree-granting program except for Martin Methodist. Because other UT campuses are many miles away, many students are going over the border to Alabama to attend the University of Huntsville.
 - b. Mark La Branche adds that Middle Tennessee State University (MTSU) initially resisted this action and suggested that Martin Methodist might be an extension of the MTSU campus, which is different from being its own campus. Martin Methodist did not entertain that idea. They have come to an understanding about this.
7. Bishop McAlilly indicated that there was a question about this new partnership.
 - a. La Branche responds that the name of the new school will be The University of Tennessee Southern. That was selected through a process of surveying many people while keeping in mind that this would represent the region.

- b. Clark adds that there is already a University of Tennessee Martin, so that name was never an option for this new campus of UT.
- 8. Laura McMasters, clergy, Pulaski District, seconds the motion.
- 9. Bishop McAlilly clarifies that a second is not necessary because it comes to the body with approval from the Resolutions Committee.
- 10. Bishop McAlilly indicates that there is a question about the location of the campus ministry center.
- 11. Clark clarifies that there is an agreement with Pulaski First UMC to house the campus ministry temporarily because UT cannot use their property for religious organizations. Funding will be available later for the ministry to rent or purchase property to house the ministry.
- 12. La Branche noted the campus ministry will receive a minimum of $45,000 per year in perpetuity to direct to a facility. They have also identified a candidate who has been part of a very successful ministry.
- 13. Bishop McAlilly indicates that there is a question related to the scholarships that individual United Methodist churches have provided to Martin Methodist College and how those will be used.
- 14. La Branche responds that they have sent a letter to every church and individual that currently holds a scholarship in the Martin Methodist College endowment. The endowment is staying with the college. They are going to have a charter for the endowment and it will be administered by a board so that those scholarships can be dispersed in the same manner that they have been.
- 15. Bishop McAlilly relays another question regarding whether there will still be a religion department and a major in religious studies, along with a companion question about whether the church vocation program will be eliminated.
- 16. La Branche responds that UT Southern will still have a religion department and a pre-ministry degree. Current programs will continue.
- 17. Martin Methodist resolution passes.
 - a. Yes 482, No 60

Davis offers an update for 2021.

- 1. Tennessee Conference invested reserves
 - a. Ended the year in a positive financial position
- 2. Financial highlights for 2021
 - a. Clergy Health Plan financial issues
 - i. This is the first year both conferences aligned our health plans. We began using a blended rate.
 - ii. With Wespath Flex Plan, the cost of health care for each church will be the same, about $13,560, regardless of whether the pastor is a single plan participant or needs to cover his/her spouse and children and regardless of the conference to which he/she is appointed.
 - iii. Plan participants had six plans to choose from and could choose a high deductible (with HSA) for no additional monthly premium or pay a monthly premium with a lower deductible. For the first time in years, participants with children and/or a spouse will have access to affordable health care.
 - iv. For Tennessee, because of residual reserves from prior years, in 2021 the conference will bill only 75 percent of the cost to the local churches and pay 100 percent of the health care cost for plan participants not appointed to a local church with those reserves.
 - b. Direct bill and pension highlights as of May 31, 2021
 - i. Tennessee billed 286 churches
 - ii. Collection rate is 100 percent
 - iii. Equitable compensation is provided to a few churches
 - iv. Memphis billed 243 churches
 - v. Collection rate is 90 percent
 - vi. Missional salary support is provided to a few churches
 - c. Projected direct bill and pension costs for Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference in 2022

 - ii. Pension cost will be billed according to work status:
 - 1. Full time will be 12 percent of plan compensation (salary plus housing)
 - 2. Part time will be 9 percent of plan compensation
 - 3. The Board of Pensions approved a 3 percent CPP holiday for all churches
 - d. Tennessee Conference offered a pension rebate, which was paid out earlier this year
 - e. Connectional commitment
 - i. 46 churches are current or have paid 100 percent of their connectional commitment

- ii. Almost a quarter of our churches have not paid any of their connectional commitment for this year, though people are still learning how to use the new billing system
- f. Paycheck Protection Program
 - i. Both conferences received the Paycheck Protection Loan
 - 1. Tennessee received $938,500
 - 2. Memphis received $250,000
 - 3. Both loans were forgiven in total this spring
- g. 2021 funding formula
 - i. Connectional commitment is replacing tithing and apportionment systems of the former conferences
 - ii. Local churches are asked to pay 11 percent of line 52(t) in 2021
 - iii. Each annual conference will be asked to approve this formula at 10.75 percent in 2022
- h. 2021 district and campus ministry budgets
 - i. All district superintendent salaries are now aligned; this led to a reduction in salaries for Tennessee district superintendents
 - ii. Memphis districts will be moving their accounting into the treasurer's office
 - iii. CFA is working with Wesley Foundations to look at fundraising strategies for the future

Pearce presents the 2022 budget for consideration.

1. CFA recommended 2022 budget can be found here: <https://www.tnumc.org/wp-content/uploads/2021/05/2022-CFA-Recommended-Budget-PDF-file-5-11-21.pdf>

 - a. A joint budget for the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference has been recommended by the joint councils on Finance and Administration
 - b. The revenue formula is based on 10.75 percent of line 52(t) of annual statistical reports adjusted for collection expectations
 - c. A revised General Church Apportionment is based on General Council on Finance and Administration reduced amounts due to the pandemic
 - d. Health care costs will be fully directly billed to local churches and the conference budget (for conference payroll employees)
 - i. Any employees on the conference payroll will be paid for out of pension reserves rather than charging those specific programs
 - e. The Board of Pensions agreed to use pension reserves to fund a 3 percent CPP holiday (reduction) for all churches in 2022
 - f. Districts are now better aligned
 - g. Connectional Ministries budget was organized by the Strategy Team
 - i. Connectional Ministries now has a salary pool for creating job descriptions and salaries in the new combined conference
 - h. Future projects and concerns
 - i. New Church Development is currently funded out of reserves. Reserves will not last forever.
 - ii. Administrative costs need to be consolidated in order to protect ministry
 - iii. Campus Ministries need additional revenue sources
 - iv. CFA and others need to define relationships with covenant entities
 - v. Board of Pensions will request analysis from Wespeth as to what pensions look like for a combined conference
 - vi. Board of Pensions will look at pension reserves for the combined conference
3. 2022 budget highlights:
 - a. 10.75 percent of line 52(t) would yield $13,962,907
 - b. Projected net revenue is $11,282,945

- g. Equitable compensation will total $642,000
- h. General Church Apportionments total $3,318,465 for two conferences combined
- i. TWK ministries total $3,357,304
- j. Connectional Ministries salary pool will total $900,481

Pearce addresses questions regarding the proposed budget.

1. What does line 52(t) represent?
 - a. Each church files yearly with GCFA and conference a statistical report. Line 52(t) of that report represents all of the local church's revenue, except for capital campaign money and monies earned by an endowment or trust fund. It did not include PPP loan funds this past year. It encompasses 80-85 percent of the total revenue of our local churches throughout the conference. The treasurer's office can help you fill that out if you need assistance.
2. What do we do with the $500,000 that was earmarked for Martin Methodist College in the past?
 - a. Last year the conference agreed to continue paying 1/12 of that amount each month as long as Martin Methodist College remained independent. Once they merged with the University of Tennessee, we would discontinue those payments. We are expecting to stop making those payments as soon as Martin Methodist College is officially absorbed into the UT system. We have allocated $50,000 of that to be used as start-up money for the Wesley Foundation at UT Southern; that was what was left for the second half of the year. It is simply not in the budget for 2022. This reduced the Connectional Ministries section of the budget by approximately $350,000. Some of the savings will be used to fund other ministries.

Bishop McAlilly requests that Jefferson Furtado, clergy, address a question about why money in the budget for conference youth was being used to fund Youth Ministry Architects.

1. Jefferson Furtado: All that we are doing with Youth Ministry Architects is moving toward a new model of youth ministry for our new conference. We are delaying the hiring of a person to work in youth ministries until 2023 as we move to the end of our contract. We have shifted money to cover the cost of Youth Ministry Architects, but we do not believe it will have a negative effect in any of the conference programming that we currently have and the new programming that we will be launching.
 - a. Bishop McAlilly requests that Jefferson say a word about what Youth Ministry Architects are offering or the work that they are doing with us.
 - b. Furtado: Much of the work is in helping us to build capacity to carry forward the work of the new conference. We are thinking very deeply about what new opportunities becoming one has presented to us, what are the great things that each of our conferences are bringing forward, what are some practices that we may need to lay aside. Then we are trying to reimagine how we can equip districts and local churches to carry this very vital work in the life of congregations in the new conference. Our hope is that the fruit of this work will be local congregations that are strengthened to minister to youth, not only in their own four walls, but in the community at large, and new relationships within districts and new relationships across all of the boundaries that we once knew. So, we are looking to preserve what is great, to prune what is not so great, and to plant new seeds so that our future will be even greater and brighter.

Pearce encourages people to contact Larry Davis, David Hayes, or himself if they have questions. They want to be as transparent as possible about the process.

1. Pearce moves for approval of the proposed 2022 Tennessee-Western Kentucky budget on behalf of the joint CFAs.
 - a. Motion passes
 - i. Yes 456, No 18
2. Pearce proposes voting on all four of the remaining CFA action items together.
 - a. CFA action items
 - i. Action Item #2: CFA moves that the TWK cabinet be authorized by the annual conference to use the Cabinet Reserve Fund in accordance with its written process, in its sole discretion, in an amount up to $250,000 for calendar year 2022. Any amount above $250,000 within the calendar year shall require consultation with, and agreement of, CFA.
 - ii. Action Item #3: CFA moves that the travel expense for staff and members of councils, boards, committees, and other entities of the conference be reimbursed at the rate set by the entity, not to exceed the maximum mileage reimbursement amount allowed by the Internal Revenue Service for business travel.
 - iii. Action Item #4: CFA moves that the housing allowance designated for clergy conference staff pursuant to Internal Revenue Code Section 107 be approved for 2021-2022 as printed in the conference journal.
 - iv. Action Item #5: CFA moves that the plan compensation for the district superintendents for 2022 be set at $121,600 inclusive of the housing allowance.
 - b. Pearce speaks to the action items:
 - i. Action Item #2: When the conference went from seven to five districts several years ago, each district held funds in different places. To the extent that those funds were designated, they were transferred to the treasurer's office and those designations were maintained. To the extent that they were not designated, they were moved into the Cabinet Reserve Fund that was held and managed by the cabinet. In response to a request by our auditor a couple of years ago, we have been asked to have some kind of resolution that enables the district superintendents and the cabinet to spend some of that money because it technically belongs to the conference and it is not in the budget. The same motion was presented and passed last year, except that it said "Tennessee Conference," instead of "TWK." The cabinet didn't spend $250,000 last year.
 - ii. Action Item #3: This is a standard action item that is presented every year.
 - iii. Action Item #4: Ministers of the Gospel, under Internal Revenue Service code, have the ability to designate, in advance, a portion of their compensation as a housing allowance, which is not subjected to federal income tax. It is subject to employment taxes. It does not cost the conference anything, but it is a tremendous benefit to clergy on the conference payroll. It is important that we approve this in advance in accordance with IRS regulations.
 - iv. Action Item #5: Plan compensation includes the housing allowance and is set for all nine district superintendents across the conferences.
 - c. Motion to approve CFA action items passes.
 - i. Yes 473, No 12

Paul Purdue, clergy, Cumberland River District: Point of Personal Privilege

We affirm the spirit of lament and repentance in the Tennessee Conference’s sins of racism, especially as we once affirmed enslavement as an expression of the Gospel. We affirm Bishop William McAlilly’s call to each local church to engage in the work of anti-racism. In receiving our first historical video, our hearts were sickened by our Methodist forebearers’ role in the genocide against native peoples throughout the Tennessee Conference (which once consisted of all lands west of Pennsylvania, Virginia, and the Carolinas).

The 1996 Book of Resolutions included:

“The Church is called to repentance, for it bears a heavy responsibility for spreading false beliefs and for unjust governmental policies and practices. The preaching of the gospel to America’s natives was often a preparation for assimilation into white culture. The evangelizing of the native nations often affected the policies of the government.

The Church has frequently benefited from the distribution of native lands and other resources. The Church often saw the injustices inflicted upon native peoples but gave assent or remained silent, believing that its task was to ‘convert’ the heathen.

The Church is called through the mercy of almighty God to become a channel of the reconciling Spirit of Jesus Christ and an instrument of love and justice in the development of new relations between native nations, other minorities, and whites, in pursuit of the protection of their rights.”

Therefore, we confess, lament, and repent of our sinful treatment of native peoples, and pledge to engage in the work of anti-racism by:

- Encouraging all churches to enter into dialogue with Native American people.

- Acknowledging our historical role in harming Native people and the ways past and present actions continue to harm Native peoples;
- Advocating for governmental financial resources to tribes as a tangible start toward reparations;
- Renewing our denominational and congregational commitment to Native American Ministry Sunday and offering, and
- Using our collective voices to stand up and speak out for sacred lands that are still under attack.

This statement is submitted by the following: Paul Purdue, Ingrid McIntyre, Neelley Hicks, Stacey Harwell-Dye, Heather Harriss, Ken Edwards, Carol Cavin-Dillon, Darren Mayberry Wright, Brandon Baxter

REPORTS AND RESOLUTIONS

A. REPORTS

BOARD OF CAMP & RETREAT MINISTRY

Russell Casteel, Executive Director, Tennessee Conference Camp and Retreat Ministry

COVID-19 and Camp and Retreat Ministries

The pandemic ground camp and retreat ministry to a halt in 2020. After prayerful and careful discernment, summer and early fall operations were suspended, taking into consideration the state's limitation on gatherings as well as best practices from the CDC and the American Camp Association. "Do no harm" was the ethic that guided these decisions, knowing that camp and retreat is a place where people feel near to God, hear a call, and find sabbath in places where a spirit of unity and resurrection can be found.

Camp and Retreat ministries wishes to thank Bishop McAlilly, retired conference Treasurer Jim Allen, current Treasurer Larry Davis, Committee on Finance and Administration, and Director of Connectional Ministries Melinda Britt for their tireless support of camping ministry, its staff, and its mission. Their support in these difficult times will allow camping to serve a church and her community in need of retreat, vocational discernment, and time in creation in the season to come.

Cedar Crest Camp

Summer 2020 provided a unique opportunity to offer vocational discernment to young adults missing the summer camp season. We worked together with Rev. John Weaver from MTSU Wesley and Sarah McCormick from Project Transformation to create a Vocational Discernment Cohort for young adults in the Nashville Episcopal Area. It centered on call exploration, spiritual gifts, ministry exploration, and vocational discernment; a combination of Bible study, conversation, and conversational videos (created specifically for our group) were used for the summer. We had 18 young adults meet for eight weeks during the summer, and over 80 young adults from this conference participated in the cohort this summer. Our Program Director Jessi Persson helped lead and facilitate these conversations, helping young adults to have space to discuss race, theology, and call in the midst of a turbulent and trying 2020.

Last year our team—led by Davis Winstead (ground director) and Philip Salter (environmental education director)—helped to create and finish our perimeter trail. Six miles of trail are completely finished and trail-ready for walking, running, and mountain biking. There are overlooks, beautiful hills and hollers, stunning trees, a few moonshine stills, and a reminder of the beauty of Cedar Crest. With an addition of a grant from AmeriCorps, bridges, berms, and trails were created, readying new experiences for summer 2021.

Summer camp 2021 registration is open! Campers have begun to register for this season, which will have a limited capacity. In addition, all of our permanent staff members and summer program staff will have received the vaccine by the end of March. Tiered pricing is available, giving families the opportunity to choose a reduced cost; in addition, scholarship will be available to anyone who needs assistance in getting to camp this summer.

Beersheba Springs Assembly

2020 was a difficult season on the mountain as few retreats were able to be had. Several personal retreats, small church gatherings, and district retreats were able to happen, providing important sabbath experiences for our community. The Beersheba team invested in a year of deep hospitality including: painting all of the rooms inside Eastside, hotel breezeway, and a few spaces outside; power washing and scrubbing of buildings; a blessings box for community food was built and installed, the fence has been painted, the chapel roof and Turner Lodge chimneys have been repaired.

In the spirit of this season of hospitality, the Beersheba Springs team is excited to announce the creation of The Nest Art & Spirituality Center. The Nest is a space where all can heal, create, and grow into wholeness together. The Nest will offer creative spiritual practices to enhance your retreat, experience during free times, or offered as a special workshop/day event. The Nest will be our new hub for retreats based on art and spirituality, such as SoulCollage, Prayer Shawl Ministry, Creating as a Spiritual Practice, Creative Writing, and many more. The center room of Gill Dorm is home to this new creative space. Gill offers easy access to all of Beersheba's guests and visitors coming for day experiences. The Nest will not change the availability of Gill but will allow us to repurpose a rarely used space.

Beersheba Springs Assembly Director Sarah Ratz will continue to guide the transformation of the assembly with a new certification. This spring, Sarah completed courses at the Haden Institute to become a Certified Spiritual Director, a two-year program that enables her to offer creative opportunities to integrate art and spirituality to complete the mind, body, spirit connection. Sarah can help you, your church, or your team explore activities such as soul collage, the Enneagram, creative and spiritual craft creation, and much more. Contact her to learn more about what Beersheba has to offer you!

BOARD OF LAITY AND LAY SERVANT MINISTRIES

George Brown, Janice McCallen, and Holly Neal Conference Lay Leaders and Susan Davidson and Dianne Holland, Conference Lay Servant Ministries Directors

Who are the laity? We are not ordained clergy. We are not just the lay leaders, committee chairpersons, or the lay speakers in the local church. We are the congregation, those not ordained but equally called to be in ministry.

The future Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference Board of Laity consists of Bishop McAlilly; the Memphis and Tennessee conference lay and associate lay leaders; the Tennessee and Memphis conference directors of Lay Servant Ministries; the Memphis and Tennessee district lay leaders and the district directors of Lay Servant Ministries; presidents of the conference United Methodist women and men; a cabinet representative; at-large members; and the conference director of Leadership Formation and Development.

We have faithfully been aligning the Memphis and Tennessee conference boards of laity over the past few years to most effectively represent (be the voice of) the laity in all aspects of the future Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference.

This year, we celebrate the great cloud of laity and clergy witnesses that have faithfully laid the foundation equipping and encouraging the laity of today to be all that God has called us to be. The ministry of laity flows from a commitment to Christ's outreaching love. Lay members of The United Methodist Church are, by history and calling, active advocates of the gospel of Jesus Christ. Every layperson is called to carry out the Great Commission (Matthew 28:18-20); every layperson is called to be missional. The witness of laity, their Christ-like examples of everyday living as well as the sharing of their own faith experiences of the Gospels, is the primary evangelistic ministry through which all people will come to know Christ and The United Methodist Church will fulfill its mission.

This past year, God has inspired laity in new ways to minister to our neighbors fulfilling (Matthew 25:31-46) by feeding the hungry, giving a drink to those thirsty, shelter for the homeless, clothing for those in need, and visiting the sick and those in prison.

Lay Servant Ministries (LSM) is one of the most significant lay leadership development programs available within the United Methodist connection. It is a team ministry—a partnership of laity and clergy working together in ministry. And this year more than ever we have taken advantage of this partnership through instructors leading classes, individuals sharing planning and technology skills, and publicity. This system of equipping and empowering lay servants provides the opportunity for laity to grow as disciples of Jesus Christ who then go and make other disciples.

During the last year, both the current Tennessee Conference Lay Servant Ministries group and the current Memphis Conference Lay Servant Ministries group have been working together to “do” ministry jointly to provide online training classes in both conferences for the basic course, advanced courses, and Certified Lay Minister (CLM) course work. These joint classes have made it possible for people from both conferences to meet online and be a part of these trainings.

People who serve in LSM have a variety of gifts and strengths. During the past year, we have been very grateful and thankful for those who have the technical skills to be a part of offering these LSM trainings online.

We celebrate that over 210 people participated in basic and advanced classes since fall 2020. This number includes 25 people in the Spanish speaking classes. Nine persons have continued their education to work toward becoming CLM's. In addition, many of our trained laity are assigned to churches providing preaching, care ministry, program leadership, and witness to the community as part of a mutual ministry team.

As the Tennessee and Memphis annual conferences conclude, we—the future Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference Board of Laity—look forward to the future living out Hebrews chapter 12 in our churches, neighborhoods, and into all the world:

“Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles. And let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of our faith. For the joy set before him he endured the cross, despising the shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God”.

BOARD OF PENSIONS AND HEALTH BENEFITS

Steve Curry, Chair

Most of our full-time active and retired clergy participate in defined benefit (DB, or traditional pension) plans. Our plans were funded by the annual conference and are administered by Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath), formerly known as General Board of Pension and Health Benefits.

The annual conference, this board, and their predecessors have been good stewards of the funds entrusted to us. As a result, the Tennessee Conference has pension reserves that should protect our retirees well into the future.

The 2022 Comprehensive Benefit Funding Plan for the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference will be prepared and submitted to Wespath as required by the Book of Discipline (2016), ¶1506.6. We have sufficient projected revenues and reserves to fully fund all the conference's benefit obligations for the foreseeable future.

Please refer to Joint Distributing Committee Report for Past Service Rate information.

I want to express my appreciation for the extraordinary commitment and dedication by the members of the Board of Pensions. Their service is utmost important and invaluable.

Active Clergy Health Insurance

Wespath, through Healthflex Exchange, is opening six medical insurance plan options for full-time clergy and their families, billing the annual conference a blended rate. For churches with full-time clergy on the conference plan, premiums billed to the churches will reflect that blended rate in the form of a fixed premium credit. Each church will be billed the same amount of no more than $13,440 annually. The full-time clergy then choose the insurance plan that best fits their needs and pay the premium appropriate to their selection through a pre-tax salary reduction.

Dental and vision coverages remain optional, and those premiums may also be paid in full or in part through a pre-tax salary reduction. Through Healthflex Exchange, there are three dental and two vision plan options from which the clergy may choose.

The due date for submitting premium payments is the 25th of each month, and a 2 percent late fee will be added for payments received after the due date. Insurance may be subject to cancellation after 90 days of nonpayment.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Paul E. Gardner, President

The trustees of the Tennessee Annual Conference have completed another year, securing the property interests of the Church and seeking to be faithful to the word of God through all of our actions.

Most of the work of the trustees is routine and is set by the parameters of precedence. However, there are times when the work of the trustees intersects with the work of other ministry groups to produce a new and vibrant possibility of God's work being done through the mundane work of property. Such is the case with the lease of vacant properties within our conference. This year, we continued the lease to Home Church of the former Inglewood property and to Trinity Community Commons for the ministry work through the former Trinity United Methodist building. We have also entered into an agreement with the Livingston Fellowship to see if there can become a revival of the United Methodist dream in that community in the Upper Cumberland.

This year, we have entered into another agreement with Ebenezer United Methodist Church to become the primary tenant of the former Barth Vernon property. It is anticipated that this property will become a central hub for United Methodist outreach in the west corridor of the Metro Nashville area. We are in conversations related to the Ernest Newman property to preserve that property as a ministry opportunity.

During this year, we have passed enabling resolutions to facilitate the move by Martin Methodist College to become a part of the University of Tennessee System. While the trustees lament the loss of this institution to the Tennessee Conference, we celebrate that our ministry continues in the Pulaski area.

We continue to cooperate with the newly formed Closed Church Fund Committee and have made several grants this year to local churches to improve their ministries.

I want to thank those who have given above and beyond to the trustees' work. Raúl Alegria has been wonderful keeping our minutes in order and John Feldhacker has been faithful as our vice president. Charlie Warfield, Jane Melrose, Kelsie Jones, Lee Stevenson, Paula Smith, Paula Grout, Carolyn Schott, Tammy Gaines, and Jim Grove have been wonderful in keeping us on track. Alice Grunau has been my right hand, keeping all the details from falling through the cracks; thank you to Larry Davis and Lisa Carson for providing logistical and legal assistance to our work.

We also appreciate the work of our partners and vendors: A. Anthony (property management), Foundry (brokerage) and Church Mutual (insurance). Over 100 churches are receiving safety dividends from Church Mutual as the result of our combined efforts to minimize claims.

Thank you for the opportunity and the trust you place in the hands of the trustees to oversee the properties and the needs of the Tennessee Conference.

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

Leland T. Carden, Chair
Gratia Downs Strother, Conference Archivist

The Tennessee-Western Kentucky Commission on Archives and History preserves and makes available artifacts and information that document our TWK Conference and United Methodist heritage. We are here to strengthen faith and grow a sense of heritage in this work.

Our activities the past year:

1. Virtual online archive – We have begun the process of developing a website so the public can search a catalog of our holdings, and for many of those holdings, view and download PDF files of the actual historic documents and view photographs of artifacts online.
2. Collections Management System (CMS) – We have begun the process of implementing software that will allow us to create a searchable database with descriptive information about each item in our archive. Not all archive elements are appropriate for the online archive, so this CMS serves as our primary inventory.
3. We have begun the process of implementing industry standard archival description for our collections. We are also developing a system for processing and managing collections to extend usability and lifespan.
4. By working remotely during the COVID-19 pandemic, we have continued to serve the public and the church.
5. At the request of the TNUMC Annual Conference Design Team, conference archivist Gratia Strother researched Tennessee Conference history, gathered images, and wrote scripts for the development of a series of history videos to be used at annual conference 2021.
6. Rev. Mark Matheny is leading preparations for the sharing of Memphis Conference history at annual conference 2021.
7. TWK leadership has asked that we assist a team in collecting laity and clergy stories of our faith experience over the past 50 years, to share as a living history during the 2022 annual conference.
8. The project of helping the Bethlehem Center organize their archives was delayed during late March due to COVID-19. That project will resume in the latter part of 2021 as conditions allow.
9. We have begun the process of building a network of active church historians across our conference. This work is an ongoing focus.
10. We have engaged in continuing education programs to keep our archives on the cutting edge of industry standard methodology and processes. This has been easier and more affordable during 2020, due to the increased use of online formats for continuing education.
11. We have continued to preserve the UMC historic sites in our care—the Asbury-Babb House in Wilson County and Strother’s Meeting House on the campus of Scarritt-Bennett Center.

For the coming year, we are committed to this work. We will continue to preserve and make available to the church and the public artifacts and information that document our TWK Conference and United Methodist heritage.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

George L. Jensen/Tennessee and Dell King/Memphis, Chairs

The purpose of the Equitable Compensation Commission (ECC) is to support full-time clergy serving as pastors in the charges of the annual conference by: (a) recommending conference standards for pastoral support; (b) administering funds to be used in base compensation supplementation, and (c) providing counsel and advisory material on pastoral support to district superintendents and committees on pastor-parish relations; and (d) submitting an arrearage policy to be adopted by the annual conference. This purpose is consistent with the provision of ¶ 625 of The Book of Discipline (2016).

We recommend the following to the conference for action:

I. MINIMUM COMPENSATION LEVELS:

The commission recommends the following minimum compensation levels for 2022. Compensation does not include housing, which is the obligation of the charge, ¶252.4e however a charge without a parsonage is expected to pay a minimum of 25 percent of the minimum compensation amount for housing. Also note that this does not include the local church's fund for reimbursement to pastors for expenses incurred in the fulfillment of their professional responsibilities ("accountable reimbursement"). That reimbursement is in addition to the pastor's salary ¶ 627.

Full Conference, Provisional and Commissioned Members:	$43,701
Full Time Local Pastors:	$40,066

II. QUALIFICATION PROCESS FOR EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

To qualify for an Equitable Compensation Grant, a charge must submit an application to the Commission on Equitable Compensation through their district superintendent. The application will explain in detail why conference funds should be used for this charge, and what efforts have been made to raise the funds needed to pay the pastor's salary. Additionally, the application must explain the goals for the charge and pastor, and how it is engaging in its mission field. The following information must be included with the application:

1. Equitable Compensation Commission Questionnaire
2. Current Clergy Compensation Package approved by charge conference
3. Church Audit or Financial Statement (income statement and balance sheet)
4. Current Year Church Budget
5. Current Year Church Statistical Report (Table 1,2,3)
6. Direct Deposit Form (all payments will be direct deposited into church's account)

The application must be signed by the SPRC or council chair, and district superintendent, and recommended by the cabinet to the Equitable Compensation Commission. If a grant application is approved by the commission, Administrative Services will be instructed to forward the funds monthly to the church's bank using ACH (direct deposit).

At the date of this submission, the appointments for 2021-22 have not been finalized. Therefore, the Commission on Equitable Compensation will meet with the bishop and cabinet from time to time as needed to determine the amount that will be awarded to various charges from this budgeted amount based on justified need and availability of funds.

III. ARREARAGE POLICY

According to The Book of Discipline (2016), ¶¶624.1 and 625.2d, the Commission on Equitable Compensation is to submit "an arrearage policy to be adopted by the annual conference". This policy is to address the situation where a church is slow or unable to pay the agreed upon compensation of its pastor.

1. In the event the local church treasurer becomes aware that the church will be unable to provide to the pastor full payment of a regularly scheduled payroll or housing allowance installment, the church treasurer shall immediately notify both verbally (within 24 hours) and in writing (within three days) the pastor, the lay leader, and the chairs of S/PPRC, finance, trustees, and the administrative/church council of the impending arrearage. Upon receipt of such notice, the chair of S/PPRC and/or the pastor shall immediately (within three days) notify the district superintendent of the impending arrearage. If the pastor does not receive an agreed upon payment and does not receive written notice from the local church treasurer required above, the pastor may initiate this process by notifying the district superintendent within 30 days of the missed payment. It is the pastor's responsibility to keep copies of all such written notifications and to provide additional written confirmation (see #8 below) to the district superintendent when an arrearage has taken place. Failure to document salary or benefit arrearages may result in a loss of compensation and/or forfeiture of benefits

.2. Upon receipt of notice of a pending arrearage, the chair of S/PPRC shall immediately (within three days) call a meeting of the pastor, lay leader, and chairs of finance, trustees, the administrative/church council, and the district superintendent to discuss the financial situation and seek remedies to prevent an arrearage from occurring. Such remedies might include:

- Drawing from invested funds, including short-term borrowing from board-designated funds
- An emergency appeal for special giving from the congregation
- Emergency grants or loans from the district or conference

According to The Book of Discipline ¶624.1, such remedies cannot include a reduction in the pastor's compensation until the beginning of the next conference year.

3. If, after consultation among the lay leader and chairs of S/PPRC, finance, trustees, the administrative/church council, and district superintendent, it becomes apparent that the church may be facing a long-term financial crisis, the chair of S/PPRC shall notify in writing the pastor and district superintendent that an Equitable Compensation Subsidy Grant may be necessary to maintain compensation for the remainder of the conference year, or a change in pastoral compensation or appointment may be necessary at the beginning of the following conference year.

4. If the local church becomes delinquent in the pastor's compensation (i.e., more than 30 days delinquent), then the district superintendent shall notify the Commission on Equitable Compensation, which on its own initiative may do any or all the following, but not limited to:

- Sending a representative from CEC to meet with the local church and pastor to seek resolution of the issue
- Developing with the local church a payment plan so that the pastor receives full payment of compensation by the end of the conference year. The district superintendent shall be invited to participate in this process.

5. If the local church is already receiving a subsidy grant from the Commission on Equitable Compensation, the commission may also:

- Examine the original subsidy grant application to determine if the amount requested to meet minimum compensation was reduced
- Require an outside audit of all church funds in compliance with GCFA Guidelines (www.gcfa.org)
- Notify the district superintendent of its findings and recommendations in writing

6. ¶2543.1 of The Book of Discipline (2016) makes clear that no real property on which a church building or parsonage is located shall be mortgaged to pay for the current or budgeted expenses of a local church (including arrearages), nor shall the principal proceeds of a sale of any such property be so used. This provision shall apply alike to unincorporated and incorporated local churches.

7. In extreme and unresolved circumstances, the local church and/or pastor may petition a session of the annual conference, following proper procedures, for assistance in payment of the arrearage not to exceed the minimum conference compensation standards. However, it is the responsibility of the local church to provide a minimum compensation for its appointed clergy (¶624).

8. It is the responsibility of the pastor to provide evidence of an arrearage by providing documentation such as: treasurer's reports, charge conference reports of adopted salary and compensation, check stubs, W-2 forms, and a Certification of Payment form signed by the pastor, S/PPRC chair, trustee chair, treasurer, and administrative/church council chair. If such persons are not making themselves available to sign, the information will be provided with the signature of the pastor and the district superintendent.

9. The statute of limitations for filing a claim for funds from the annual conference (i.e., notification to the district superintendent of the arrearage) for any salary arrearage is one year from the date of the initial arrearage. Once an appointment ends the pastor no longer has claim on the local church for compensation funds (¶342.4).

COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS RELATIONSHIPS

Nick Baird-Chrisohon, Chair

The Conference Committee on Christian Unity and Interreligious Relationships (CUIR) is committed to cross-denominational dialogue, even during a global pandemic. Like many organizations in the conference, we adapted our methods for meeting and programming to a virtual platform so that the work may continue unhindered.

We were honored to be one of a select few groups to receive a grant by the Council of Bishops in late 2020. Our proposal utilized the new ecumenical training curriculum provided by the Council of Bishops' office in our existing clergy and lay network. We are adapting the training for mixed groups of United Methodists and other denominations for better cross-denominational understanding and study of shared value. We began the project in the fourth quarter of 2020 and finished it in spring 2021. The group continues to meet via Zoom to cover topics ranging from transformational conversations around division to prayer to women's roles in interfaith gatherings.

We welcome any who are interested in ecumenical and/or interfaith partnerships to join our team. Please see Rev. Nick Baird-Chrisohon or any member of our team if you are interested in partnering or joining with us.

Kent McNish, Chair

The faithful and effective leadership of Bishop Bill McAlilly has kept our Tennessee Conference congregations, clergy, and laity focused on the primary task of the Church—to go and make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. During 2020, his leadership was demonstrated in shepherding the people called Methodists through natural disasters and an international pandemic while also continuing the work of the future Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference.

Bishop McAlilly has provided the biblical and practical guidance to make this transition fruitful and effective. Both committees on episcopacy—Memphis and Tennessee—know from working with Bishop McAlilly, the cabinet, and the episcopal staff that much is yet to be done. Having benefitted from his leadership and witness, both committees prayerfully urge the Southeastern Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy to return Bishop and Mrs. McAlilly to the Nashville area for the next quaddrenium. The launching of a new conference and the lack of clarity surrounding action of the General Conference leads us to state unequivocally that we need Bishop McAlilly to lead us for four more years.

Your Committee on Episcopacy is appreciative of the steady course set by Bishop McAlilly and the cabinet in these troubling times. The Book of Discipline assigns the annual conference's Committee on Episcopacy responsibility to serve as liaison and wise counsel to the bishop. We provide the bishop with constructive, honest feedback; the voice and sentiment of our conference as we have heard it expressed to us; while offering guidance and direction to the bishop. This year both committees on the episcopacy used the standardized evaluation provided by the Southeastern Jurisdiction COE.

Your committee knows Bishop McAlilly's ministry is not a one-man band. We all owe great appreciation to Bishop McAlilly's wife, Lynn. She is a leader in her own right in our church through Project Transformation, Miriam's Promise, and, of course, the Mama Lynn Women's Center in the East Congo Conference.

The Nashville Area Episcopal Office has two vital staff persons that facilitate the ministry of the bishop. The Rev. Dr. Rob Martin joined the Nashville Area Episcopal Office as the assistant to the bishop in 2020. We are grateful for the gifts and graces that Rob brings to this position. H.G. Stovall has served as the executive office administrator since 2018. Likewise, he works diligently for all our benefit.

In addition to leading two conferences, for the 2017-2020 quadrennium Bishop McAlilly serves on the Connectional Table as president of the board of directors of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry. He is co-chair of the Endorsing Committee. He serves on the Council of Bishops' leadership teams on leadership development and leadership discernment, as well as the Executive Committee. In addition, he serves on the Just Peace board of directors for this quadrennium and is chair of the Quadrennial Orientation for New Bishops Committee. Bishop McAlilly serves as the vice-chair of the board of trustees of Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia, and on the board of trustees of the Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare System board, Memphis, Tennessee. He served as president of the Southeastern Jurisdictional College of Bishops in 2016-17 and continues to serve on the Southeastern Jurisdiction Committee on Coordination and Accountability.

Bishop McAlilly reminds us in his writings:

For generations, the people called Methodists in Middle and West Tennessee and Western Kentucky have been writing God's story. We are a diverse family—conservative-centrist-progressive. We often disagree, yet we hold firm to the primacy of scripture and the centrality of grace. The work now before us is to continue to walk with our brothers and sisters across the Church. It is often messy, hard, and challenging work.

As United Methodists, we now need a deep healing from all that separates us—COVID-19 pandemic, racial divides, economic hardships for both our churches and our people, and potential divisions caused by differing understandings of how God works in and through us in Jesus Christ.

As your chief pastor, we must find ways to love one another. Some of your neighbors, some of your church members, are hurting because of this command. We will continue to love the least and the last, our neighbors in our communities. Our conferences will continue to value local churches as the disciple-making center of our entire ministry. We will continue to be diverse. We will continue to be rooted in Christ, and we will express a deep love for one another. I ask you that you allow us the opportunity—before you or your church make any decisions regarding your relationship with The United Methodist Church—to be in conversation with you.

I invite you to continue praying for the future of our denomination, for the future of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference, for the work that God has called us to do in a very specific, particular place called the Nashville Episcopal Area.

With hope and prayer, we affirm that God is good; God is good all the time. Respectfully submitted by the Tennessee Annual Conference Committee on Episcopacy, Kent McNish, chair.

COMMITTEE ON NATIVE AMERICAN MINISTRIES

Mary T Newman, Coordinator of Native American Ministries

The Committee on Native American Ministries (CONAM) is currently co-chaired by Pat Bryan and Debbie Fitzhugh. Coordinator of Native American Ministries, per CONAM, is Mary T Newman. The committee is inclusive; approximately one-half of its membership is Native American. In 2020, we added two youth—one young adult and one representative to the UMW.

Native American Ministry Sunday (NAMS) is one of the UMC six Special Sunday offerings. We did average 40 churches contributing to the offering with an average of $6,000. Due to the COVID pandemic, this was drastically lower. One-half of money received remains in the annual conference and is used by CONAM and one-half is used for seminary scholarships by Native Americans and other educational endeavors. Recognition and celebration of Native American Ministry Sunday is a challenge. On the church calendar, NAMS follows Easter and is in the time frame of Mother's Day so we encourage celebrating any time of the year.

Our scholarship program is in memory of Allison Fitzhugh who left us too soon. The scholarship is to be used by Native Americans for higher ed or trade school.

We continue to maintain a 6' x12' enclosed trailer and are seen on the roads and at events. With the logos so visible, we have opportunity for conversation and can pull up to an event and have everything on hand for our booths. When travel bans are lifted, it will be on the road again! Pages are also maintained on the tnumc.org/native site and moccasinfootprints.org.

Our annual Native American Resource Day is held the first Sunday of March. 2019 was our 17th year. During this time, we have a traditional Native American meal, present audio/video resources, and speakers to engage the participants. We have large displays and book resources. Every church receives a binder full of re-printable materials. Distribution of current and accurate information is vital and we have garnered materials which validate the importance of Native Americans at the table. Due to the pandemic and gathering restrictions, we concentrated on personal contact with churches.

We acknowledge that there are individual churches with their own personal ministries with Native Americans. The resource day is valuable to those churches also, and CONAM gladly offers the resources, displays, and scheduling of speakers to all churches. Our committee has developed or gathered resources that are available to the local church. They can be used for services, study groups, youth and children's groups, or as part of an ongoing opportunity for understanding through education. Gone are the days of missionizing, rather, the goal is in partnership and being in mission together.

We were blessed in 2020 with a partnership with Ashland City United Methodist Church offering us office space for our ministry. Newman maintains the office. Our ministry continues.

Native Moccasins Rock (NMR) is our annual weekend of interactive learning. Although postponed due to the pandemic, our event will return in 2021 and is on the schedule for August 6-8. Mocs Rocks is based on fellowship and friendship. Understanding through education remains one of our primary goals. 2019 was our 18th year. Memphis Conference has also been a partner in the sponsorship of the event. Our leadership is internationally and nationally known. Held every August, we have an age span of babies to grannies which highlights Mocs Rocks as an intergenerational event. There is a focus in our activities for children, youth, and adults with breakout sessions per age groups. Culturally based workshops in the area of arts and music attract the participants. The interactive workshops are drawn from traditional skills and taught by dedicated leadership. A Time for Spirit is one of the foci when everyone is together to cover the theme of the year. We end with a powerful prayer circle. Tears of joy, sadness, and lifting up of the ones who have crossed over are shared.

Of great joy is the continued relationship with the Mississippi Band of Choctaw who bring youth every year. In 2019, we were blessed with the addition of a Choctaw youth group who travels with the focus on education and interaction at events, which broadens their horizons and opportunities. We now have four in college who have attended for 15 years. The members of CONAM share who we are in Christ, our connectional system of the UMC, and celebrate opportunities to form relationships. Sadly, one of the young men from Mississippi Band Choctaw passed on from COVID.

Native American Indian Association of Tennessee (NAIA) has the longest running NA charter with the state. We formed a relationship to sponsor a health fair at their powwow which is the largest powwow in the state. We are the first denomination to have this relationship. Their words are “someone always wants something for themselves”. Our reassurance was “we just want to share”. We distribute multiple resources relating to health concerns and have materials with a focus on spiritual health.

In 2019, we continued our relationship with Meharry Medical College. With a tent for testing blood glucose and blood pressure checks, we have enlarged our health fair by including the dental tent with an average of 17 students and presiding instructors. Every year the comments such as, “We didn’t know the UMC is involved”, and, “I am United Methodist and didn’t know”, reminds us that there is more to do to grow the connection and enlarge the circle of God’s kingdom. Cancelled due to the pandemic, the powwow is returning in 2021 with safety protocols set by the state park system and the state health protocols.

Our partnerships also include Native American Indian Services and Native American Educational Resources. Both groups work with the public and with Native Americans across the state. There are still 569 federally recognized tribes and there are state recognized tribes. To date, there are 363 native languages—quite a challenge for us to be aware of the different cultures and traditions but we are committed to enlarging the breath of life our great Creator gifts us with.

We have dedicated committee members who have been committed to the work of CONAM. Individuals on the committee also have personal ministries. Wes and Pat Bryan have contacts across the U.S. and during their travels, they schedule stops at reservations and churches. They sent school supplies and new coats, etc. There has been a long-standing partnership with Gary and Kathy Collier of the Memphis Conference. The ministry is called Volunteers for Cherokee Children. Quarterly trips to Cherokee are made to deliver coats, clothing, and hygiene supplies. There is an emphasis on school supplies. The relationship with a social worker and partnership with the Cherokee UMC Mission Church as home base enables them to learn and work with the community. There is an emphasis also on Elder Project. Christmas was special as our CONAM worked with the social worker to have Christmas presents and baby supplies sent to Cherokee as the tribe restricted incoming supplies due to the pandemic. We have a system in place to deliver supplies locally to N.A.I.A. which benefits their efforts of working with Native Americans across Tennessee. This was still accomplished during the pandemic. Part of our funds have helped them with emergency relief efforts.

As a part of the connection, we work with Native American Comprehensive Plan (NACP) and Southeast Jurisdictional Association of Native American Ministries (SEJANAM). Newman serves on NACP with the executive team and is on the council board of SEJANAM. We are also represented in the southeast as Newman is chair of the Southeast Regional Native American Caucus (SERNAC), which places her on the Native American International Caucus (NAIC). NAIC is the advocacy arm of the UMC. We continue to be in prayer and work toward raising the level of awareness so we can all call upon our great Creator God for discernment and healing.

CONAM continues to stand on our Social Principles. Environmental concerns and socio-economic challenges have come to the forefront with the Water Protectors at Standing Rock who took a stand to protect the water. Thirty waterways branch off the Missouri River. Although the land seemed in dispute, Federal Tribal Law states that unless a treaty is nullified, land remains Indian land even though the size of a reservation changes. Although this seemingly past event is not in the news, we are still involved with environmental concerns and uphold the work of Creation Cares.

No one wants to lead statistical tables, but rates of suicide among native children and youth are still on the rise and we share current information as an awareness tool. Native Americans have the higher rates for poverty and health concerns. We try to keep a focus on education as the general public is so unaware of what happens on and off reservations. Our resources are available to the local church and we encourage contact to share them.

Nationwide one in every 475 Native Americans has died from COVID-19 since the start of the pandemic, compared with one in every 825 white Americans and one in every 645 Black Americans. As we moved into 2021, 985 coronavirus-related deaths among Native Americans occurred in January — up 35 percent from December and the biggest rise among other groups. Deaths only rose 10 percent for white Americans in the same period. Members of CONAM have lost friends and partners in ministry among the native communities. There have been detrimental statements made, i.e., “COVID caused by Indians”, even while mission teams had to send masks and sanitizer to reservation areas. Body bags instead of masks, etc. were sent. These are demeaning acts which violate our own social principles.

Our CONAM is still known as one of stronger CONAMs in the U.S. Members of CONAM continue to participate nationally in leadership training opportunities. Of course, due to restricted travel, a lot of work was continued with Zoom calls, webinars, etc. Very few Native Americans are representatives within jurisdictions and thankfully Newman serves the Southeast Jurisdiction on Global Ministries (GBGM). Newman works on the task force concerning the mascot issues and serves on the Program Advisory Group for the UMW and the Bylaws and Legislation Committee. In 2019, Global Ministries met in Upper Sandusky, Ohio, and returned the deed to the Wyandotte Nation. The deed was entrusted to the Methodist Church when they were removed to Oklahoma. The land included the mission church and cemetery-holy ground where chiefs and their first missionary, John Stewart, were laid to rest. We mention this again as it is a significant celebration that still impacts our relationship with the Native American communities and the Kingdom. The event was part of Global Ministries bicentennial and also shows us what the Act of Repentance resolutions from General Conference can mean.

We continue to walk what is known as the red road of ministry. The committee continues our current relationships within the Native American communities, the local church, and the secular community. We strive to create new paths of understanding through fellowship and friendship which continues to establish trusting relationships. Native American and indigenous peoples see our great Creator God in many ways and with many names from many languages. As United Methodists, we speak of making disciples for the transformation of the world. Our challenge as the Church may be to see Jesus as they do, then there will truly a transformation of the world. Claiming Acts 17:26, we share that God, as we know him, understood the concepts of tribes. If Jesus was, is, and always will be a tribal man, how better to say, “We know a tribal man who would love to know you”.

CONFERENCE PERSONNEL COMMITTEE

Alice Grunau, HR Specialist

Because of activity around planning for the new conference, the Personnel Committee chose not to implement any new initiatives this year, beyond those things done by Alice Grunau, our conference HR specialist, who continues to provide support to local churches and to conference directors by consulting on various HR and employee relations topics.

The HR Team, which is involved in planning for the new conference, is working with both the Tennessee and Memphis conferences to create consistency in job titles, job description formatting, and policies for the new Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference.

- Plan participants may choose a high deductible (with an HSA) for no additional monthly premium or pay a monthly premium with a lower deductible. For the first time in years, participants with children and/or a spouse will have access to affordable health care
- For TAC because of some residual reserves from prior years, in 2021 the Conference will bill only 75% of the cost to the local churches and pay for 100% of the Health Care Cost for plan participants not appointed to a local church with those reserves.

DELEGATIONS TO GENERAL AND JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCES

Harriet Bryan and Jim Allen, Heads of the Delegation

Your Tennessee Conference delegations to General and Jurisdictional conferences have continued to pray for one another and meet periodically by Zoom in order to stay abreast of information and expectations regarding our roles. Each delegate prepares in their own way, and there are multiple resources from which to glean the latest facts, which we collectively attempt to distinguish from the rumors du jour.

Over the past year, the delegation prepared for an abbreviated virtual General Conference called for May 2021, which was subsequently canceled. Currently, the next General Conference is scheduled for August 29–September 6, 2022, in Minneapolis. You can keep up with the latest news, legislation, and other resources at <https://www.resourceumc.org/en/churchwide/general-conference-2020>.

At the time of the submission of this report, we are anticipating a virtual Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference in July, 2021, that will enable us to vote on the formation of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference. It could also determine what interim episcopal coverage will look like in the Southeastern Jurisdiction, where up to five bishops may be retiring prior to 2024.

We are grateful for the trust you have placed in us and remain committed to serving faithfully.

ENCORE MINISTRY COMMITTEE

Michael Lorange, Chair

Dr. Richard H. Gentzler, Jr., Director, ENCORE Ministry

The mission of the ENCORE Ministry is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world by providing consultation, training and support, advocacy, quality resources, and networking opportunities to equip church leaders (clergy and laity) in the Tennessee Conference for intentional ministry by, with, and for older adults.

ENCORE Ministry is a program ministry of the Tennessee Conference and is fully funded by a generous and ongoing grant from the Golden Cross Foundation of the Tennessee Conference. The mission of ENCORE Ministry is carried out by the ENCORE Ministry Committee which is comprised of clergy and lay members of the conference. There is no cost to churches for the services of the ENCORE Ministry Committee (EMC).

The EMC works closely with the district ENCORE Ministry teams, district superintendents, and district leadership strategists in providing intentional older adult ministry training, support, resources, and networking opportunities for local church leaders.

During the past year, and in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic, the EMC made the decision to publish a monthly newsletter, ENCORE Ministry Matters, as a way of keeping church leaders informed of aging concerns and providing resources for local church ministry by, with, and for older adults. Several webinars on older adult ministry were also produced this past year for church leaders and were added to the ENCORE Ministry website at www.encoretnumc.org.

With financial support from the Golden Cross Foundation, the EMC provided churches in the Tennessee Conference with the “2021-2022 Directory of Senior Services” published by AgeWell Middle TN (formerly Council on Aging Middle TN). The directory provides helpful resource information about services for older adults in Middle Tennessee.

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, district and conference events were postponed. Plans are underway during the 2021-2022 conference year for the committee to begin providing local church consultations and on-location district training workshops and seminars in each of the five Tennessee Conference districts. In addition, a conference-wide event for older adults and leaders of older adult ministries is being planned.

In 2020, the EMC welcomed several leaders from the Memphis Conference to become part of the committee. As the Tennessee Conference and Memphis Conference make plans for a new conference, the EMC envisions reaching out to additional church leaders in the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference and providing leadership training and resources in older adult ministry.

ETHNIC LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS

Sharlet Panhalkar, Chair

While this team has experienced a change in leadership, it has continued to carry on the work into 2021. Over the past year, the team has experienced intentional momentum toward collaboration and hospitality with one another as the team learns how they fit within the context of the new conference. Although this team has only existed within the Tennessee Conference, in preparation for the future TWK Conference, leadership is expanding in the coming year to represent the new conference.

There have been district trainings in multiple languages (English and Spanish), and the Memphis Conference has been included in discipleship training. As a team, we celebrate the new vision of soul listening and storytelling.

The last two years have been focused on understanding this team's vision and purpose. Our vision is to invite others to join in the embodiment of the love of Christ in the local church community through the practice of radical hospitality by sharing stories of transformation, creativity, tradition, culture, and knowledge of ethnic constituencies. ELCC exists as a visible reminder of our spiritual covenant to model the family of God for the conference. As such, we are a witness to the expansiveness of God's love that not only encompasses but also embraces the inclusiveness of all voices, including those of ethnic minorities. In this conference, this team is set up as a connecting link between various ethnic ministries: Asian, CAAST (African American), CONAM (Native American), and Hispanic/Latino ministries, and New Church Development.

We believe in Jesus' call to practice a mutual and transformative form of radical hospitality that results in Christians practicing increased respect and care for others. Through our stories of transformation, we seek to provide guidance and resources to churches about cultural awareness and ethnic local church concerns; to provide a forum for dialogue among ethnic constituencies and annual conference agencies; to provide training for annual conference and congregational leaders; to promote and interpret ethnic local church concerns to the annual conference; and to nurture leadership of ethnic communities.

THE GOLDEN CROSS FOUNDATION

Golden Cross Foundation Board of Directors, Charles Hewgley, Chair

The Golden Cross Foundation (GCF), a ministry of the Tennessee Conference of The United Methodist Church (UMC), awarded more than $125,000 to churches and organizations throughout the conference in 2020. Money from the grants has been used toward retrofitting a parsonage to house low-income older adults, establishing food pantries, retrofitting churches with lifts, and repaving parking lots making them more accessible and welcoming.

Founded in 2013, the Golden Cross Foundation (GCF) provides funding assistance for new and ongoing ministries and services with older adults and congregations in the Tennessee Conference. Additionally, the GCF funds 100 percent of the work of the ENCORE Ministry Committee, the official older adult ministry of the Tennessee Conference.

“From its beginning, the foundation exists to fund and support financially a wide variety of local church older adult ministries,” said GCF Board Chair Charles Hewgley. “Each year, GCF board members review and approve grant requests from UM churches and organizations throughout the Tennessee Conference. Emphasis is given to ministries that serve the greatest needs of older adults—food security, affordable housing, adequate healthcare, and transportation.”

In 2020, 21 grants were awarded ranging from $1,000 to $10,000. Several churches receiving grant money applied it toward feeding ministries, including Elder's Chapel UMC in Smyrna. Now, more than ever, its food pantry is a vital community ministry.

“Without the Golden Cross grant, our food pantry would not be thriving today,” said Elder's Chapel member Shelia Howse. “Our numbers have increased 100 percent over the last six months due to the COVID-19 virus. We thank God that we can continue the food pantry during these times of uncertainty. The nutrition needs of seniors and others within the community go on despite the virus and we at Elder's UMC are here to aid in meeting their needs.”

Other churches applied grant money toward retrofitting their churches with new lifts or improving parking lots to increase accessibility. Such improvements can make older adult worshippers feel welcomed and valued. In some cases, the upgrades encouraged worshippers to return to church.

Grant money is also being used by churches and organizations for new and innovative programs. Members of New Providence UMC in Clarksville used their grant money to help retrofit a parsonage on the church property that, when complete, will house low-income adults.

“I look forward to the opportunity for our church to be the hands and feet of Jesus in our community,” said the Rev. Jodi McBryant, pastor at New Providence. “Thanks in part to the Golden Cross Foundation grant helping fund our parsonage’s retrofitting project, this is one way we can do that. Many times, churches seem to focus more on children and youth. While they are certainly important, my heart breaks for older adults in our communities who are often forgotten.”

Golden Cross Foundation grant money also helped fund a Safer Worship Grant. Established by the office of Bishop William McAlilly, Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare, and the Turner Center at Martin Methodist College, the grant helped 34 churches provide safer in-person worship experiences. After local health officials deemed it safe to gather and churches began to reopen in the summer and fall of 2020, funds were used to help reimburse expenses for masks, hand sanitizer, and cleaning supplies.

During the pandemic, GCF’s board of directors met, virtually, to review grant proposals. In 2020, grants went to churches of all sizes, including 30-member Scott’s UMC in Shelbyville and 925-member Belle Meade UMC in Nashville. Here is a list of recipients.

Since 2014, more than $620,000 in grant money has been awarded to 61 churches and organizations.

“Word continues to spread about the Golden Cross Foundation grants and ENCORE Ministry’s work and the positive impact they are making in older adults’ lives,” GCF Executive Director Kent McNish said. “If your church wants to start or expand an older adult ministry or you want to retrofit your building to make it more accessible, safe, and welcoming, we encourage you to apply.”

Grant applications are accepted all year and reviewed at quarterly GCF board meetings. For more information and an online application visit <https://goldencrossfoundation.org/applicants/grant-application/>.

COMMITTEE ON HEALTH AND WELLNESS

Marie C. King, Chair

The Health and Wellness Committee of the Tennessee Conference of The United Methodist Church shall provide resources and educational opportunities to support health initiatives which are wholistic (focused on the whole-person) and therefore multifaceted. The Health and Wellness Committee recognizes that individual, local, regional, and global healthcare concerns are a physical concern, mental, environmental concern, justice and political concern, a human right, cultural concern, and financial concern.

A tornado hit the Nashville area, March 3, 2020. On March 11, 2020, the World Health Organization (WHO), declared COVID-19 a pandemic. The world shut down. Travel plans were cancelled. Meetings were immediately either cancelled or postponed to virtual options. Schools were rushing to figure out at-home and virtual learning opportunities. The world is experiencing a disease that has changed the way we define every day and normal. Hugs, handshakes, and group meals outside of our family bubble are no longer safe. We smile at each other behind a mask that protects the air we breathe. Worshipping together inside of the physical edifice of the church building has changed forever. Singing side-by-side, saying liturgies of the church, and the call and response of in-person worship have all been changed to be our new normal for the time.

Members of the Health and Wellness Committee supported development of the Guidelines for In-Person Worship and Ministry during COVID-19.

Ministry Events and Support for 2021

- The Health and Wellness Committee has partnered with local congregations to provide a workshop and worship service addressing depression and holiday blues. The workshop and worship service will also share a time for processing grief through lament.
- We have partnered with Steal Away Women, a ministry founded to focus on wholeness and well-being for women through being refreshed, restored, and renewed. Workshops and retreats are scheduled for 2021 for women, clergy, and laity, United Methodist and ecumenical.
- Partial grant funding for a registered nurse seeking to complete the course for Faith Community Nurse/ Parish Nurse.
- Support the Golden Cross Foundation to meet the needs of the seniors and vulnerable adults.
- Provide gift cards for food baskets for families and individuals navigating emergency situations.
- Provide education and support to navigate the COVID-19 pandemic.

We continue to follow the leading of the Holy Spirit to be flexible to the needs of the community we are called to serve. As members of the body of Christ, as Christian ministers, we are called to use our God-given gifts to teach, preach, and heal. As members of The United Methodist Church, we seek to, “Do all the good we can, by all the means we can, in all the ways we can, in all the places we can, at all the times we can, to all the people we can, as long as ever we can.” We pray that in doing so, the ministry of Health and Wellness will, make disciples of Jesus Christ, for the transformation of the world.

Respectfully submitted,

The members of the Health and Wellness Committee

Mr. Michael Rashon Adkins, educator

Dr. Carlenda Smith, MD

Rev. Dr. Paula Smith, pastor

Rev. Dr. Vona Wilson, pastor

Rev. Micah Myers, pastor

Rev. Timothy Holton, pastor

Rev. Marie C. King, pastor/faith community nurse, chairperson, Health and Wellness

HINTON RURAL LIFE CENTER

Dr. Jacqueline Gottlieb, Ed.D., President and CEO

Our mission statement: Inspired by Jesus Christ, Hinton Rural Life Center’s purpose is to engage individuals, congregations, and communities in transformation through retreat ministries and missional outreach.

I’m happy that 2020 is behind us and hopeful for 2021! At Hinton Rural Life Center, we are blessed to have secured a strong foundation over the past decade and with the generosity of The Duke Endowment, North Carolina Health Foundation, the Nantahala Health Foundation, Dub and Murray Martin, the Payroll Protection Program, and our donors. We were blessed with an incredible giving response in 2020 from individuals, churches, and other organizations — with a 46 percent increase over 2019 giving. All of this financial support enabled Hinton to continue to cover the cost of operations and to reach out in mission and ministry over the past year.

I’d love to have a standing ovation for Hinton’s talented and dedicated staff. Even through layoffs and payroll deductions required to navigate cash flow in 2020, our staff facilitated online webinars and summer staff training, hosted a virtual missional training event for young people, implemented and maintained new cleaning and operating protocols, and creatively and safely met needs in our community through our Safe and Healthy Home Repair ministry, firewood ministry, garden ministry, and Christmas Care.

- Over 460 households were served, which included 84 home repair projects and over 300 children receiving new clothing items for Christmas.
- Over 450 truckloads of firewood were distributed, an increase of 80 loads from 2019.
- Over 1,150 pounds of garden produce was shared through local food pantries and with guests, up 300 pounds harvested from 2019.

As for 2021, we are excited about:

- Campus enhancements: renovating the McCall Retreat House and Sells Cottage for families and small groups; improving and creating new sanctuary trails and gardens; updating our disc golf course.
- Partnering with a local medical provider to further connect our home repair ministry with improving the health and safety of our neighbors.
- Continuing to offer virtual equipping and learning opportunities, including mental health first aid and webinars that explore and support the rural church.
- Offering discipleship and leadership training opportunities for young people that include summer staff training, Hinton YouthLead Academy, Youth Leadership Chatuge, and Staffers-in-Training. These are bearing fruit as participants are discerning calls to ordained ministry! We are also planning a Confirmation Retreat ministry to launch in Spring 2022.
- Celebrating Hinton's 60th anniversary, as an agency of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church, with special events that recognize and give thanks for 60 years of fruitful mission and ministry for the glory of God! We are honored to have Bishop Ken Carter as the guest preacher at our Service of Celebration on September 25.

Located in the southwest corner of North Carolina in the Appalachian Mountains on Lake Chatuge, Hinton Rural Life Center is dedicated to serving all with retreat and renewal ministries; mission outreach opportunities for individuals, families, and church teams; and equipping and discipleship programs that impact individuals, groups, and congregations for transformational ministry in their own communities.

MCKENDREE VILLAGE FOUNDATION

McKendree Village Foundation, Inc. Board of Directors

McKendree Village Foundation (MVF) is a non-profit extension ministry of the Tennessee Conference founded in 1998 to financially support McKendree Village and its residents. McKendree Village was founded in 1963 and remained a ministry of the Tennessee Conference until September 2011.

With the purchase of McKendree Village in September 2011 by a private, for-profit company, the foundation became a totally self-operating entity with responsibility only for benevolent care of eligible residents. The eligibility was based upon residents having a contract with McKendree Village, Inc. prior to September 30, 2011. The McKendree Village Foundation affirms a past and continuing shared heritage with eligible residents of McKendree Village and the Tennessee Conference.

This benevolent commitment was made over 56 years ago to eligible residents of McKendree Village by the McKendree Village, Inc. Board of Directors representing the Tennessee Conference. The McKendree Village Foundation has kept the promise of benevolent care to eligible McKendree residents through the extravagant generosity of its donors.

The McKendree Village Foundation is self-sustaining—receiving no funds from the Tennessee Conference or from the Golden Cross Sunday offering. Funding for its mission comes from the income of the donor-designated endowment for this purpose, wills and bequests, and individual donations. The current donor-designated endowment for benevolent care is now approximately $5.2 million. The endowment is kept with the United Methodist Foundation for the Memphis and Tennessee conferences. The performance and service of the UMFMTTC has been outstanding. Income from the MVF endowment has enabled the foundation to meet its benevolent care obligations plus the McKendree Village Foundation has distributed approximately two million dollars to the Golden Cross Foundation, an extension ministry of the Tennessee Conference. The Golden Cross Foundation funds completely the ENCORE Ministry Committee, which is the official older adult ministry of the Tennessee Conference. Additionally, the Golden Cross funds expansion of older adult ministries and services through grants to Tennessee Conference congregations and agencies.

McKendree Village Foundation is proud to be in ministry to Tennessee Conference older adults. For more information and/or questions about this ministry, email kmcnish44@gmail.com.

MIRIAM’S PROMISE

J. Dietz Osborne, President and CEO and Hailee Hunt-Hawkins, Chair, Board of Directors

Since 1985, Miriam’s Promise has offered hope and healing to thousands of Middle Tennessee expectant parents, birth parents, children, and adoptive families coping with issues of grief, loss, and transition. We are excited to celebrate our 36th year of ministry within the Tennessee Conference. The heart of our mission is to ensure the well-being of the child by nurturing individuals and families. Miriam’s Promise continues to meet this mission by offering the following programs:

- Non-directive, option-based pregnancy counseling at no charge to the expectant parent
- Holistic parenting coaching which includes attachment work
- International and domestic adoption services including home studies and adoption training and education

Miriam’s Promise is a licensed child-placing agency serving Middle Tennessee and is Hague Accredited by the Council on Accreditation and a member of the National Council for Adoption. Miriam’s Promise offers services without regard to race, creed, gender, color, national origin, religion, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, or gender identity/expression.

As for all non-profit entities, 2020 proved to be a challenging year. Because of the pandemic, each of our fundraisers had to be adjusted to adhere to local health guidelines and were presented virtually. Although our team was working from the safety of our homes, we were able to meet the needs of our clients without interruption. With the slowdown, we were able to take a step back, slow down, and evaluate our services to ensure we were still meeting our mission in the most effective and efficient ways possible. Because of this evaluation, we have added a web-based educational component to our programming—offering webinars on topics related to adoption. We have also begun conversations with the Racial Justice Ministries office at the Scarritt Bennett Center to collaborate on anti-bias/anti-racism training for our staff, board, and prospective adoptive families.

We are seeing a trend in the expectant parents who come to us for counseling. Eighty five percent of our expectant parents have or are experiencing homelessness, many are facing addiction issues, they are parenting other children, they are dealing with domestic violence situations, and few have support systems in place. Our staff is committed to meeting these needs so that an expectant parent can make the best decision for their unborn child.

As an affiliated agency started by The United Methodist Church, we continue to be a vital part of ministry within the Tennessee Conference. Miriam’s Promise is an avenue for the Tennessee Conference to uphold the Social Principles of the UMC on adoption:

“Children are a gift from God to be welcomed and received. We lament that some instances, birth parents are unable or unwilling to fulfill their caregiving obligations. Under these circumstances, we applaud the willingness of extended families and foster and adoptive parents to step in as primary nurturers. Even in these situations, however, we recognize the trauma that may be caused by separating children from their families of origin and urge that such actions be handled justly, sensitively, and compassionately. Where appropriate and possible, we encourage open adoption so that children may know all information relevant to them, both medically and relationally.” — Social Principles, 2020, page 21, paragraph A.

The relationships with the Tennessee Conference and local churches are vital elements of the agency’s mission and outreach. We have seen when the conference and Miriam’s Promise work together to share the story, more expectant parents find hope, more children find homes, and more families are grown. We are grateful for the support and engagement of the Tennessee Conference.

NASHVILLE EPISCOPAL AREA DISASTER RESPONSE

Robert Craig, Disaster Response Coordinator

The mission of United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) Disaster Response is to offer a caring Christian presence to communities that have experienced disaster. The purpose of disaster response in the future Tennessee-Western Kentucky (TWK) Conference is to live into that mission in our own neighborhoods. Large scale disasters occasionally make it necessary to partner with conferences outside of the Nashville Episcopal Area. However, the primary focus of disaster response ministry in the future TWK Conference is to prepare churches and individuals with training and resources to respond when their neighborhoods are impacted by disasters.

This year has been a struggle in disaster response ministry. One of the most important aspects of disaster response is preparation. This has been an area difficulty. Obviously, trainings for churches and individuals have been halted until it is safer to gather. UMCOR has altered some of the training protocols to include virtual recertifications. This will allow us to resume some trainings in the very near future. Another area where we have struggled is in response. As disasters continue to impact our area, the need for volunteers continues as well. Understandably, our trained responders and other volunteers have been leery of responding in the midst of a pandemic. This is not unique to The United Methodist Church. Most of our partner agencies in disaster are having similar experiences. As the pandemic conditions improve, we are hopeful that volunteer response will too.

There has also been an area of great success in this past year. The conference is involved in the vital work of disaster case management with survivors of the tornados in Middle Tennessee, and we will remain involved in this work until the recovery is complete. In the midst of this recovery, a large flood event happened in March 2021. Many of the same areas were impacted by this flood. The conference has been working alongside dozens of community partners with flood survivors in the relief phase to meet immediate needs. We will continue in the disaster case management relationship with flood survivors for the duration of their recovery.

The conference's ability to respond to our neighbors impacted by disaster is made possible by donations and grants. Churches and individuals responded in amazing ways to the tornado disaster in 2020. We need a similar level of support for this flood recovery. This disaster was not largely covered by news sources and that result is a lack of donor funding throughout all of the community partners. Additionally, grants from UMCOR and the Community Foundation of Middle Tennessee have helped make the relief and recovery work of the conference possible for these disasters. UMCOR recently awarded the conference another Solidarity Grant for immediate relief needs for the flood survivors. More funding will be required for this recovery to be successful. The support of our connection makes the ministry of restoring hope possible.

NEW CHURCH DEVELOPMENT

Rev. Dr. Vona Wilson

The New Church Development (NCD) Team continues adapting and serving in new ways as communities and our conference experience much change. We celebrate having a clear vision, mission, and focus that provides guidance during this time. We remain confident that God is birthing both traditional churches and new expressions of the body of Christ at this time of history. For this we are grateful and prayerful.

Our work is challenging as we discern what constitutes “new church” in an ever-changing environment. Online worship, gathering in large groups, and access to spiritual communities are all factors that are reshaping our context. As we shared in August 2020, our best work is ahead!

NCD Vision

The future Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference unleashes, establishes, and generates faithful strategies for the fulfillment of the kingdom of God on earth.

NCD Mission

Establish new faith communities in the future Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference for the glory of the resurrected Christ; faithfully using what God has placed in our basket.

NCD Current Objective

Establish systems and strategies for sustainable collaboration and response to what the Spirit is doing right NOW, right HERE.

We maintained our team covenant that holds us accountable for discerning and following the leadings of the Holy Spirit to take risks in obedience to what God calls us to do. A few highlights since our August 2020 report:

1. The beta test of a collaborative visioning model within specific corridors of districts continued. The northwest corridor of the Red River District has beautiful expressions of ministry emerging. This visioning team involves laity and clergy, several different churches, and mission organizations. Fruits coming from this work:
 - a. Ebenezer Metodista Hispanic Fellowship, led by Pastora Myriam Cortes, moved into the closed Barth Vernon property (05-01-21) and is establishing the anchor presence of leadership and for ongoing visioning in the northwest corridor. In addition to ministry collaboration this is an administrative collaboration as trustees, Closed Church Committee, and New Church Development teams are all working together.
 - b. Tennessee State University, UMC, and other local partners are engaging to assist in the development of collaborations and communications within the community for a multicultural presence of the UMC.
 - c. NCD Team has recommended and is supporting the reuse of the Ernest Newman property in North Nashville for a new vision of ministry with the African American population, led by Rev. Dr. Stephen Handy and collaborative partners. This is unfolding but represents new expressions and innovations to follow God faithfully in this time.
2. We shifted strategies to encourage full collaboration across the future Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference to maximize our assets and identify where God is at work, so we are launching ministry planters into those communities. Organizing resources for the future is a priority.
3. We continued supporting traditional church plants and missional faith communities.
4. We welcomed additions to our team, celebrating the fruit of having greater diversity in age, ethnicity, and ministry locations. We continue to work on this commitment.

NEW CONFERENCE REPORT: GUIDE TEAM, TRANSITION TEAM, CONNECTIONAL TABLE

Rev. Melinda Young Britt, Director of Connectional Ministries, Memphis and Tennessee Conferences

Rev. Dr. Robert Martin, Assistant to the Bishop

Guide Team Co-Chairs and Conveners of Connectional Table

The work over the past year of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky (TWK) Guide Team, TWK Transition Team, as well as the new Connectional Table and strategy teams will be outlined together in this report.

During the 2020 Tennessee and Memphis annual conferences, a resolution was passed that launched the bold next steps to create the TWK Conference. Bishop McAlilly led the New Conference Guide Team and Advisory Team as they created a mission, vision, values, and strategic foci that would provide the framework for next steps: a new conference ministry structure that we would live into as we navigated the postponement of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference.

Since 2020 annual conferences in September, the Guide Team has continued with the detailed work of creating a new conference, working in covenant and collaboration with existing ministry teams. The original Gantt chart of nearly 300 items is narrowing to a few remaining tasks. The Guide Team has created Plan of Union which will be voted upon during the 2021 Memphis and Tennessee conferences. They will follow through with the Plan of Union and pass the full leadership baton to the Connectional Table and Strategy teams on January 1, 2022.

The Guide Team asked the Transition Team, comprised of leaders from the legacy conference Connectional Ministries leadership teams, to create a next iteration of a budgeting process from what they learned during 2020. The new budgeting process created strategic conversations, empowered ministry teams, aligned budget requests to the mission, expected adaption, and measured outcomes. The challenging task of creating a budget process that would help two legacy conferences join together in the process has been successfully navigated.

The Guide Team has also asked leadership from the Advisory Team to continue providing guidance in other areas of ministry working to become new.

Next Gen/Young People's Ministry

2020 was a monumental year for ministries with young people in the future TWK Conference of The United Methodist Church. The year began with a renewed sense of purpose as young leaders from the legacy Memphis and Tennessee conferences continued to dream about the future of possibilities and new opportunities under the banner of the new conference.

Warmth In Winter led the way toward full collaboration, bringing together over 2,100 youth, adults, and the leadership teams from both conferences. The challenges of COVID-19 offered opportunities for innovation as youth leaders in Memphis and Tennessee quickly adapted and worked to offer virtual opportunities for fellowship and spiritual growth. A beautiful highlight from the early months of the pandemic comes from the Memphis CYC. In a time of uncertainty and fear, the youth developed digital devotions, speaking words of encouragement, faith, and hope into the lives of their peers.

Despite the challenges presented by the pandemic, the work of becoming a new annual conference continues to flourish. The young people of the future TWK Conference continue to dream of and work for "...a future where youth will be equipped by their local church ministries, which will be supported by the Conference Youth Ministry team, and our young people will become the creators of ministry rather than primarily the consumers of ministry products." We believe in the words spoken by the Prophet Isaiah (43:19), assuring us that God is indeed doing something new. The work God has called us to do also requires that we develop new systems and practices. To this end we have developed a collaborative partnership with Ministry Architects of Nashville, Tennessee. Ministry Architects will work with the future TWK Conference over the next two years, helping us to grow in our capacity and live God's preferred reality for young people in our midst. Jefferson Furtado, Jordan Littrell, and Amanda Hartmann-Westmoreland continue to be liaisons in this work.

Human Resources

In order to provide the best staff support for the adopted structure of the new TWK Conference, the Guide Team contracted the help of Mike Bonem, a recognized author, consultant, and coach for church leaders and judicatories. Bonem recently assisted the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry with a restructuring plan. Upon receiving a set of recommendations from Bonem, the Guide Team accepted those recommendations and began a process to facilitate their implementation. Central to that process was the formation of HR Task Team consisting of lay and clergy from both the Tennessee and Memphis conferences. The HR Team includes lay members David Hayes, Susan Graham, and Alice Grunau, and clergy members Cynthia Davis, Jathaniel Cavitt, and B.J. Brack. That team is currently engaged in developing job descriptions, policy manuals, hiring procedures, and compensation recommendations for staffing the future TWK Conference ministry structure.

The strategic work of laying the leadership foundation for the future TWK Conference has begun with the Connectional Table and future TWK strategy teams that were nominated at the September 2020 annual conferences. The Holy Spirit has woven together the team building of these leaders as they have developed a working covenant, learned through reading Tod Bolsinger's Tempered Resilience, and begun the foundational phases of team building in the Discover/Send, Equip, Connect, and Administration strategy teams.

The Communications Strategy Team began to work as a TWK team almost two years ago in anticipation of the new conference. This team exists to advise and assist the areawide communications strategies and staff with planning communications and related outputs to support the future TWK Conference. This is an evolving and collaborative team, made of the two legacy teams and new members through nominations. The mission for the team is to celebrate, inform, and strengthen the mission of the Future TWK Conference with consistent and clear communications. During the past year, the Communications Strategy Team:

1. Expanded the team and continued to meet online and tackle projects despite the pandemic
2. Identified and selected a professional website developer to design the future TWK web site
3. Planned and implemented a unified e-mail newsletter and TWK social media platforms
4. Transitioned the team focus and title from Pre-Launch Communications to TWK Communications Strategy
5. Offered communications training for local church communicators through a partnership with UMCOM

During the last half of 2021, the Connectional Table and strategy teams will continue to take next steps in the formation of the TWK Conference. They will continue their leading in the TWK Conference beginning January 1, 2022.

PROJECT TRANSFORMATION TENNESSEE

Courtney Aldrich Lawson, Executive Director

Project Transformation (PT) has always been all about relationships – deep person-to-person, face-to-face relationships among children, their families, young adults, volunteers, and partners. Together, we ask God to transform us all through these relationships. And yet this last year, we stayed socially distanced. We wore face coverings. We closely monitored federal and local health guidelines. We completely reconfigured our ministry to protect the health and safety of everyone in our community. At the same time, our children, our young adults, our churches were turning to these trusted relationships for support and stability during this public health crisis—in ways that reach beyond a program goal or a statistic. We were, and we are still — Together, while apart.

During our ninth year of ministry, our Project Transformation community included 40 young adults, 500+ families and more than 600 community volunteers. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, we were unable to hold in-person programming during much of 2020. Together, while apart we supported one another in creative ways through phone calls and texts, meals and learning supplies, virtual gatherings, socially-distanced gatherings, homework help, and book clubs. We shared 14,226 healthy meals and 7,276 new books with children. Though a summer camp experience with PT cannot be assembled in a bag, we certainly tried our best to make summer 2020 fun for children as they were at home; 4,897 summer camps-in-a-bag were distributed last year. Each bag was thoughtfully curated with books, snacks, and supplies for children to engage their mind, body, and spirit from home. This year, 423 pen pal letters were exchanged between children and community volunteers; 383 virtual learning opportunities were created for families.

And through it all, we were reminded in powerful ways that God created us to be in community with one another. At PT, we envision a world that is rooted in love, pursues the equity of all people, and amplifies God’s call on every life. It is this vision that inspires our programs with children and young adults; that guides our approach to partner with families, young people, neighbors, and churches. God calls us to embody love and work for justice. And we have faith that God will transform us and the broken systems in our world.

As we embark on our 10th year of ministry, we believe that — now, more than ever — the ministry of Project Transformation is needed. In fact, because of our established network of church and community partners, we believe PT is uniquely positioned for just such a moment as this. We anticipate a long road ahead of healing and remedial learning for our community. Many of our students have gone almost a year without stepping foot into the doors of a brick-and-mortar classroom, while parents and teachers have worked tirelessly to create a positive virtual learning environment. On top of this, many children have experienced a wide range of trauma over the last year. By some estimates, adverse childhood experiences have increased by 35 percent. Because we understand the critical link between learning and social emotional health, we believe Project Transformation is equipped for the task ahead.

Children are not the only ones who have experienced the trauma during this time. The CDC reports that one in four young adults have considered suicide over the last year. Our young people are longing for community. That is why our approach this summer prioritizes nurturing the social-emotional health of children and young adults, all while maintaining safety. Our holistic program integrates academic progression in literacy, social and emotional learning, and plain old fun. Daily activities include reading with community volunteers, structured physical fitness, creative arts, recreational play, mindfulness activities that target self-management, and responsible decision-making. Planning and leading these programs are our talented college-age young adults, who serve as mentors and role models to our children. All the while, they are discovering new gifts and exploring vocation.

We are grateful for the hospitality and partnership of our nine host churches: Antioch UMC, Matthews Memorial UMC, Trinity Community Commons, Smyrna First UMC, First Cumberland Presbyterian Church of Murfreesboro, Centenary UMC, Longstreet UMC, Scenic Hills UMC, and New Providence UMC.

SAFE SPACES MINISTRY

Rev. Terry Carty, Dean Emerson, Co-chairs

The purpose of Safe Spaces Ministry is to equip lay and clergy leaders with knowledge and methods for creating safer environments in which to worship and to make disciples of Jesus Christ. The Safe Spaces Ministry consists of the Healthy Boundaries and Sexual Ethics Team, the Safe Sanctuary Team, and the Conference Response Team.

Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team – guides the portion of the Safe Spaces Ministry tasked with reviewing policies and implementing training opportunities in the best practices to create and maintain healthy boundaries for ministry.

Safe Sanctuaries Team – guides the portion of the Safe Spaces Ministry tasked with reviewing policies and implementing training opportunities in the best practices to protect children, youth, and vulnerable adults participating in ministry as well as those who serve in ministry in these populations.

Conference Response Team – members are trained advocates who assist congregations that have been traumatized by violators of safe boundaries. They provide care and pastoral support for those who are victimized directly and indirectly as well as those who are accused. The role of the Conference Response Team is one of care-giving, not investigation. The Response Team coordinator is available for consultation with the bishop and district superintendents in a congregational crisis arising from boundaries violation.

The members of these teams work all year to accomplish safer environments in our congregations and events. Their work in the 2020-21 conference year has included the following:

- In moving forward into the new Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church (TWK), Rev. Dean Emerson, chair of the Memphis Conference Misconduct Response Committee, and Rev. Terry Carty, chair of the Tennessee Safe Spaces Ministry, agreed to cooperate as co-chairs of an areawide Safe Spaces Ministry. The joint ministry is being called the TWK Safe Spaces Ministry.
- The TWK Safe Spaces Ministry is working from a joint budget that is funded by the 2021 budgeted funds of both Memphis and Tennessee annual conferences. And the Safe Spaces Ministry has submitted a budget request for 2022 with the goal of providing consistent resources across the entire Nashville Episcopal Area.

- The Healthy Boundaries Team provides training based upon the FaithTrust Institute curricula and the current Tennessee Conference Board of Ministry standards. This is offered semi-annually. The boundaries training is required every four years for all who are ordained, commissioned, and appointed to serve congregations. It is recommended for church staff.
- The Safe Sanctuaries Team provides training for safe sanctuary policies and procedures in all types of ministry. This training, offered semi-annually, is required for all who are ordained, commissioned, and appointed to serve congregations. It is recommended for all church staff and volunteers who work with children and vulnerable adults.
- In order to offer these trainings during the COVID restrictions, Brad Fiscus and Terry Carty developed BaSE and Safe Sanctuary training online. This will provide a basis for improving access for future training across the wider TWK area.
- A refresher course, It's More than Safe Sanctuaries, is provided online for those who have previously attended the in-person training for Safe Sanctuaries. This meets the conference requirement for quadrennial renewal in both BaSE and Safe Sanctuary trainings. This feature made it possible to offer the free refresher course to all across TWK before the end of the quadrennium.
- A TWK Safe Spaces Ministry website is being maintained and updated for providing resources to congregations for safe sanctuaries and other risks.
- The Safe Spaces Ministry has partnered with the Safe Gatherings organization to provide a reasonably priced package of background check, reference check, and safe ministry training for congregational leaders. We are still registered with Trak-1 to conduct background checks for all congregations in the conference. This leaves only the cost of each background check to be paid by the local church. As a result, we currently have more people with backgrounds checked and trained in Safe Sanctuary than ever before.

SOUTHEASTERN JURISDICTION COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY

Harriet Bryan and Jim Allen, Representing the Tennessee Conference

The Southeastern Jurisdiction Committee on Episcopacy continues to try to ascertain the need for interim episcopal coverage prior to an in-person General Conference as our episcopal leaders who were slated to retire in 2020 may elect to retire but are not mandated to do so. Our struggles come from financial challenges presented by reduced funding to and from the Episcopal Fund, which funds salaries and operating expenses for all bishops worldwide, including our own.

We give thanks for our bishops and the ways in which they have given their lives to form and bless the Church.

TURNER CENTER AT MARTIN METHODIST

Allen T. Stanton, Executive Director

This has been a year of transitions, both large and small. For the Turner Center, a significant part of this year has been one of planning for our own organizational transition. Like the rest of Martin Methodist College, pending approval from all the requisite entities, the Turner Center will become a department of the University of Tennessee-Southern. Over the last academic year, we have held deep conversations with important stakeholders, reviewed the mission of the center, and worked to ensure that we can continue in our mission.

It is our deepest belief that this transition will enable us to broaden and deepen our work. As always, a significant priority will be supporting rural congregations as they seek to become community leaders. Working under the University of Tennessee banner will allow us to continue to build meaningful partnerships, leverage new opportunities, and strengthen our ability to cultivate thriving rural communities.

While this year has been focused on transition, our important work has continued. In the fall, we piloted a new partnership with Duke Divinity School, a first in the nation certificate program. As both Duke Divinity and our own institution navigate the waters of change, we are working to solidify this partnership. Likewise, earlier this fall we finished our second cohort of Turner Fellows, all of whom are working to lead community transformation in the Harpeth River District. We are looking forward to leading future cohorts when the confines of Covid-19 are lifted.

Throughout this year, we have been building the infrastructure of our newest initiative, the Rural Health Advocacy Network. Modeled upon Methodist Le Bonheur's Congregational Health Network, this program will help us to lower the cost of healthcare to patients and providers in our region by helping patients find the right doctor at the right time, strengthen their preventative care, and reduce re-admissions to the hospital. All of this, in turn, contributes to lowering poverty for rural communities. Our partner congregations remain the backbone of this initiative.

Most recently, we have begun a partnership with the Tennessee Department of Health to speed up our return to normal. Through this partnership, we are promoting vaccine literacy, supporting registrations for the vaccine, and working with local congregations to host vaccination hubs, enabling more people to be vaccinated.

Finally, we continue to produce resources for rural congregations. Most recently, our executive director has released his first book "Reclaiming Rural: Building Thriving Rural Communities," available from Rowman & Littlefield.

Though this is a time of great transition, we know that there is important work left to be done. The Turner Center looks forward to continuing our partnerships to strengthen rural congregations' capacity to lead and to support the vitality of our rural spaces.

TURNER CENTER FOR CHURCH LEADERSHIP

J. Thomas Laney, Jr., Director

The unprecedented disruptions to church life in the past year caused by the COVID-19 pandemic forced pastors in all settings to adapt to circumstances markedly different from any they had dealt with previously. In the early months of the nationwide shutdown, many pastors and lay leaders found themselves wrestling with the challenges of providing meaningful online worship and effective pastoral care when face-to-face interactions virtually ceased. Questions about leadership formation and the long-range future of congregations moved to the back burner as leaders focused on survival.

These shifts inevitably affected the work of the Turner Center (TCCL). In a matter of days, groups that were struggling with the direction of the denomination found that they had to turn their attention to more immediate matters. Consultations around visioning and conflict were no longer needed.

At the same time, several TCCL projects were able to continue once the shift was made from meeting in person to meeting online. The Spiritual Leadership Development Team, led by Deborah Owens, continued to meet by Zoom to help promote a conference-wide understanding of faithful spiritual leaders for the new TWK Conference.

The local pastor peer preaching group, facilitated by Rev. Monica Mowdy, also had to shift from in-person sessions to online meetings. Rev. Mowdy deftly guided the transition and the group ended its nine-month program without any problems.

Similarly, the Local Pastor Academy (LPA—designed for part-time local pastors and certified lay ministers) which had been meeting monthly in Jackson, Tennessee, for four hours of fellowship and instruction switched to an online format with the April 2020 session and completed the curriculum as planned. The LPA for the 2020-21 year began as an online program and will remain so for the full year. Instruction topics include guidance for preaching, weddings, funerals and pastoral care, ideas for missional community engagement, emotional intelligence and leadership, and managing the multiple demands of ministry. Feedback from these groups is shared with the bishop and cabinet.

The most important new program of the year was the creation of the Innovation in Mission Cohort with several pastors and lay leaders who had participated in the M-Lab program a few years ago. M-Lab was a collaborative program with two other conferences that sought to introduce design thinking concepts and practices into the local church. At Bishop McAlilly's instruction, the Turner Center shifted focus from the three-conference M-Lab program to efforts that would equip more pastors in the TWK Conference with design thinking skills. The Innovation in Mission Cohort emerged as an effort to provide in-depth, year-long training for small teams of leaders from five local churches. This cohort has met monthly to learn about adaptive leadership, missional discipleship, and design thinking. At the end of the training period, each church team will receive a microgrant of $2,000 to implement an innovation in mission plan for their church and community.

In the late summer of 2020, as the pandemic persisted, I became curious about its impact on pastors in the area. Over the next few weeks, I partnered with Rev. Whitney Mitchell, the district strategist of the Stones River District, to develop an online survey for elders and deacons regarding their morale and ministry focus in the midst of the lockdown. The results of the survey were compiled in a report and shared with the bishop, the cabinet, and others in leadership in the conference.

As pastors, lay leaders, and churches ease back into a more normal way of functioning, some of the changes wrought by the pandemic will continue to be felt. The Turner Center remains committed to provide support and equipping for this vital work.

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION FOR THE MEMPHIS AND TENNESSEE CONFERENCES

Rev. Dr. Philip Jamieson, President

“Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, and led them up a high mountain apart, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no one on earth could bleach them. And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, who were talking with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus, ‘Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.’ He did not know what to say, for they were terrified. Then a cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud there came a voice, ‘This is my Son, the Beloved; listen to him!’ Suddenly when they looked around, they saw no one with them anymore, but only Jesus.” (Mark 9:2-8)

I write this during our celebration of Easter, our Lord's triumph over death and anything else that would stand between us and the abundant life that he promises and provides. The transfiguration recorded in the scripture above is a foretaste of Jesus' resurrection.

I am in my third decade of thinking about, teaching, and preaching about Jesus' transfiguration. Perhaps I am rather slow, but I am not sure that I fully understand what is going on here. Probably the honest thing to admit is after 30 years, I have some hints and guesses. Miracles, of course, are not unusual in the Gospels. However, what is strange here is that Jesus, rather than acting, is being acted upon. It turns out that this pre-resurrection event is the greatest manifestation of his glory. What I marvel at, is that this is not something that he does, but rather, simply who he is.

For a moment, those terrified disciples see him as he really is (or at least to the degree they can handle) and so do we. The detail that stands out for me this time is the conversation; not Peter's half-baked idea about three shrines, but the unknown conversation among Jesus, Moses, and Elijah. Unknown from Mark because he is always in such a hurry, Luke (9:31) tells us that they were speaking about Jesus' "departure," his death in Jerusalem.

One thing that Moses and Elijah had in common was the unusual nature of their deaths. Moses dies alone before God who buries him. Elijah apparently does not die at all but is translated directly to heaven on that chariot that "swings low" for him.

And then there is Jesus. What awaits him and what astounds Moses and Elijah is that this one who is the fulfillment of all the law and the prophets is about to die in a very public way in the most gruesome manner. The one who inspired Moses and Elijah is now moving toward Jerusalem in order to die publicly humiliated with no glory, only shame. Is it not odd that in the end, the greatest manifestation of our Lord's glory, that the talk turns to the cross? His glory is most manifest in his service.

The United Methodist Foundation for the Memphis and Tennessee annual conferences seeks to serve the people and churches of the Memphis and Tennessee annual conferences. Even with the first-quarter difficulties of the markets, we had another excellent year of performance with over an 11 percent return in the foundation. Along with that, the Development Fund continues to provide a 2 percent return on both individual and church accounts. Beyond our service of strong market returns, we served the two annual conferences with over $120,000 in grants. We are thankful to be a part of Christ's great service.

We are also pleased to announce that we were recently awarded a grant from the UMC Clergy Well-Being Initiative. This award is funded by a grant to the General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits of the UMC by the Lilly Endowment Inc.

Working in conjunction with the Memphis and Tennessee annual conferences, the grant will be used to help establish and fund pilot groups. These groups are focused upon personal finance for clergy and will utilize the recently published "Saving Grace" curriculum. Over a two-year period, a pilot clergy group will be launched in each of the nine districts of the Memphis and Tennessee annual conferences. Each clergy person selected for the groups will be given a "Saving Grace" leader's kit in order to offer the class in their ministry setting.

Following completion of the curriculum, individual financial coaching and counseling will be made available to all participants. We are very thankful for this opportunity provided by the Lilly Endowment. We do believe that this program has the potential to strengthen both individual finances and to help local churches become better stewards of all that the Lord has provided them.

Thank you to all those who already invest with us. We look forward to working with the local churches of the Memphis and Tennessee annual conferences now and with the future Tennessee-Western Kentucky Annual Conference.

UNITED METHODIST MEN

William C. Bowen, Sr. Esq.
Tennessee Conference United Methodist Men President

The Tennessee Conference of United Methodist Men in 2021 has been actively involved in the establishment of and revival of men's ministries across the conference. The Tennessee UM Men's key goals for this past year were to organize UM Men district leadership, local unit development, and the chartering and Every Man Shares (EMS) registration increase across our conference.

Another benchmark is to enhance our scouting ministry by identifying leadership for this very strong ministry and continue to lead the way with our Disciple Bible Study of Men, Big Brothers and Big Sisters and Society of St. Andrews (SOSA). We are establishing an e-newsletter and Zoom conferences that will allow us to continue to communicate on a regular basis. This initiative will be distributed to our district presidents and officers and members of the local conference units.

Leadership Development and Growth

Despite the pandemic and connection of district units with the conference team, there is considerable stability and minimal growth around our conference through our men's ministries. Our units are holding their own in the Southeast Jurisdiction in the number of active units, continued charters, and newly developed charters as well as men in our conference becoming EMS members. We thank God that he continues to touch the hearts of men in our conference through their extravagant care for others and our mission.

National Association of Conference Presidents (NACP) Meeting

The NACP met in March virtually by Zoom and conference presidents from all jurisdictions across Methodism met. The Tennessee Conference was represented by Bill Bowen, Tennessee Conference president. This gathering of national presidents sets the agenda for the General Commission on United Methodist Men and shares connectively ideas and concerns. Bowen, at the 2021 NACP meeting, was again appointed to the board of directors of the UMM Foundation.

Scouting

The Tennessee Conference United Methodist Men scouting ministry is stagnant as all others are due to the Coronavirus.

Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Middle Tennessee (BB/BS) and Amachi Programs

The Tennessee Conference continues to have an active program in these areas that serve several hundred children. Ingram Howard and Cliff Steger serve as mentors and also serve on the Ambassador Board.

Charters and EMS (Legacy Builders and Circuit Riders) Enrollments

The Tennessee Conference has approximately 85 local churches chartered with local units and over 120 EMS members along with 60 Legacy Builders and four Circuit Riders. Our total membership still continues to be over 2,000 men.

Conclusion

The Tennessee Conference of United Methodist Men had plans of a conference that was cancelled due to the pandemic. The UMM conference team is a part of developing programs that will involve men across our new conference structure in fellowship, training, and development. Please visit our website <https://bit.ly/Tennessee-UMM> and email us at tnumc.umm@gmail.com for updates and postings.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

Nita Wright, President, Tennessee Conference United Methodist Women

The Spirit of God that fell upon the people in Acts 2 gave birth to the early church — a birthing that would regenerate itself for centuries to come. God’s spirit calls for us to bring life to dead, desolate places so all may see God’s goodness on the earth. The work of United Methodist Women has been a regenerating presence in the lives of women, children, and youth around the world for more than 150 years — a flame catching fire in the souls of people everywhere. It is this contagious fire that compels us to pursue God’s call and share the good news of Jesus Christ.

There is a light at the end of the tunnel as we are now coming back together in person to further our mission! While we certainly didn’t close up and continued to work for the least of these, we are grateful to be able to be together again.

We are again traveling uncharted waters as the UMW’s of the Tennessee and Memphis conferences are now making plans to be ready to be one group in January 2022. We have been meeting together since January and have found that our sisters from Memphis are bold, delightful women who are ready to come together. We have found that our similarities greatly outweigh our differences and, the more we talk, we realize that together we can blend our strengths and can better serve the least of these. We are ready and willing to accept that call and are looking forward to this new journey! #togetherwearestronger

AFRICA UNIVERSITY

James H. Salley, Associate Vice Chancellor for Institutional Advancement Africa University Development Office

It is truly a joy to update and thank the members of the Tennessee Conference as dedicated partners in ministry with Africa University.

Africa University is deeply grateful to the local congregations of the Tennessee Conference for investing 100 percent of the asking to the Africa University Fund in 2020. Thank you for supporting the ministry of Africa University with such faithfulness and generosity. By sharing your blessings, especially in difficult times, Tennessee United Methodist congregations are a source of inspiration, momentum, and strength.

COVID-19 and the measures instituted to control the global health crisis it engendered have brought about profound and lasting adjustments in how we live, work, serve, and connect. For Africa University, these include:

- A shift to online-only teaching and learning from late March through December 2020. Online teaching and remote work required more equipment and training for faculty and staff as well as creative actions to ensure consistent internet access for the students, regardless of location. As the only university in Zimbabwe accredited to offer online degrees, Africa University utilized its existing infrastructure and expertise to transition smoothly and break new ground with competency-based student assessment tools.
- Gifts totaling more than $300,000 from across the United Methodist connection were designated for COVID-19 relief efforts. These second-mile gifts enabled Africa University to care for almost 300 international students who were stranded on its campus between March and late July 2020 and to support students whose families were experiencing dire financial distress due to the pandemic.

- Excellent student retention and modest enrollment growth, with a more than 99 percent uptake of online learning by students. More than 3,000 students enrolled for the 2020-2021 academic year—an increase of 16 percent over the previous year—with 2,395 young people studying full-time. Fifty-seven percent of full-time students were female and 24 percent were international.
- Innovation, outreach, and service through:
 - The development and distribution of masks and hand sanitizer (of its own design/formulation), that have now been certified for commercial production.
 - Farm-to-household delivery of vegetables, meat, poultry, and milk products via mobile app by the Africa University Dream Farm Trust.
 - Two student-led initiatives—Feed a Family and Ben Hill UMC Women’s Residence Girl Child Support Program—provided medical care, food, and school fees assistance to vulnerable families in the wider community. Campus and home-based students raised resources, procured supplies, and organized safe distribution to families.
- The successful completion of two new buildings—the Highland Park UMC-funded student union facility and a dormitory for female students. A new solar farm powers the Highland Park women’s dormitory.

Africa University’s online campus is here to stay, thanks to infrastructure upgrades and the lesson learned while staying focused on its mission in 2020. Bold actions and adaptability in a season of uncertainty fueled Africa University’s unprecedented rise from a ranking of 98th to 39th among the top 200 universities in Africa in 2020. Going forward, Africa University is committed to growing its pan-African presence and impact through new programs, partnerships, and blended learning options.

Thank you, Tennessee United Methodists, for helping to prepare young leaders to be “an aroma that brings life” to a world that is crying out for justice, compassion, healing, and wholeness (2 Corinthians 2:14-16). Through your prayers and gifts, you participate with the students, lecturers, and administrators in disciple-making by example.

By maintaining a 100 percent investment to the Africa University Fund as its tradition, the Tennessee Conference helps Africa University to transform lives and grow vibrant, worshipping communities.

In journeying alongside Africa University in ministry and mission, Tennessee United Methodists are the church in the world—seeding hope and sharing the love of Christ. You affirm that when we are all in it together, God’s grace is indeed sufficient. To God be the glory.

BOSTON UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

G. Sujin Pak, Dean

Dear Colleagues in Ministry:

I am grateful for my first opportunity to thank you for your moral, prayerful, and material support of the Boston University School of Theology (BUSTH). Like many institutions, this past year at BUSTH has been largely influenced by the COVID-19 pandemic, outrage over enduring racial injustices in our country, and concern over rising white supremacy in our nation. Our work at BUSTH is to prepare religious leaders to encounter and engage complex challenges such as these. A year like 2020 makes the school’s historic and ongoing commitments to social justice even more relevant. Below are some BUSTH highlights from 2020. We remain hopeful in our continued partnership with you in the work and witness of the school toward advancing social justice, fostering compassionate communities, and shaping wise leaders for a hurting world.

Breaking News

- Virtual learning: Our faculty, staff, and library successfully pivoted to fully remote learning in spring 2020 upon the COVID-19 lockdown, which continued through the summer terms. Fall 2020 offered a hybrid approach to learning, due to Boston University's Learn from Anywhere initiative, which included a comprehensive on-campus testing program and strict COVID-19 precautions to ensure the safety of students, faculty, and staff. Students were given the most flexibility, with allowances to learn in-person in socially distanced and masked classes or in the comfort of their own homes via Zoom. The redirection to online learning served as an opportunity for BUSTH faculty to develop new online pedagogical proficiency and positions the school for greater engagement with current conversations concerning best practices in distance, hybrid, and online learning options for students worldwide.
- Students: We continue to increase and celebrate diversity in our student body, creating opportunities for in-depth exchanges and a rich virtual community life. Our fall 2020 entering class was among our largest classes ever, with 128 new students enrolling in September, despite the fact that recruitment had to transition to be fully online.
- Faculty: We celebrated dean emerita Mary Elizabeth Moore's 12-year service to the school as she stepped down on December 31, 2020. The institution will be forever grateful for her historic tenure as its dean. The new dean, G. Sujin Pak, began her appointment on January 1, 2021. Dean Pak is known for her commitments to academic rigor, social justice, and United Methodism, which made her a wonderful fit for the deanship of BUSTH at this time. In the coming months, the school plans to appoint a new Martin Luther King, Jr. Professor of Ethical Leadership.
- Lilly Endowment Grant for Thriving Congregations Initiative: BUSTH was awarded a nearly $1 million, four-year grant to work with urban congregations responding to trauma. The project will be focused on responding to congregants who are continually shaped by and reacting to compounding domestic and global traumatic events, such as systemic racism, gun violence, homelessness, or immigration stressors.
- Scholarships: We continue to offer free tuition to UMC-registered candidates for ordained ministry. Building student scholarships and housing opportunities remain key priorities. BUSTH also offers leadership fellowships to support students in ethnic, gender, and sexuality studies: Raíces Latinas, Sacred Worth, Indigenous Studies, Korean Studies, Women in Leadership, and Black Church Studies.
- Online Lifelong Learning: Through a generous grant from BU's Digital Education Incubator, BUSTH began to offer online mini-courses, workshops, and reading groups for interested professional and spiritual enrichment of alumni and other religious leaders. Inaugural groups covered topics such as religious Afro-futurism, spirituality through the writings of Howard Thurman, and rituals and practices of grief in a time of pandemic. To learn about or participate in the next BUSTH Lifelong Learning offerings, visit bu.edu/sth/oll.
- Theology and the Arts Initiatives: Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, our traditional exhibits moved to an online space. The art of John August Swanson is available at <https://butheoartsgallery2020.wordpress.com/john-august-swanson-social-justice-artist>.
- Development: BUSTH's On a Mission campaign surpassed all expectations when it concluded in September 2019, raising $29.4 million—well beyond the $15 million goal set in 2010. These funds reflect broad support from alumni, friends, faculty, staff, and students, with a far-reaching impact on the school's ability to pursue its mission. More than 2,800 donors, including 1,927 alumni (a 50 percent alumni participation rate), contributed to our campaign.

Partnering for Ministry and Transformation

- Doctor of Ministry: The DMin in Transformational Leadership flourishes with lively student cohorts that are interfaith, broadly ecumenical, culturally diverse, and global. The model includes intensives, online courses, and faculty mentoring.
- Ecumenical partnerships: We now have four denominational Communities of Learning: Wesleyan/Methodist, Episcopal/Anglican, United Church of Christ, and Unitarian Universalist.

- Partnership with Hebrew College: Together we are able to enrich interreligious learning through joint courses and public events, and also co-sponsor The Journal of Interreligious Studies and the State of Formation for emerging leaders.
- Chaplaincy education: BUSTH and the Chaplaincy Innovation Lab received a grant to support the joint project Innovations in Chaplaincy Education, which will seek to redesign courses on chaplaincy in higher education and centralize education for chaplaincy curricula, including competencies needed for chaplains or other professionals in spiritual care.

Taking Action Globally and Locally

- Campus action: Work continues to improve accessibility, sustainability, and responsible investing. BUSTH is the first certified Green School in BU and is active in the Green Seminary Initiative.
- Internships in global service and peacemaking: Students participate in apprenticeship ministries across the world.

Commitment to Justice

- Faculty, staff, and students are active in #BlackLivesMatter efforts to seek racial equality and in collaborative services to support people suffering the consequences of immigration practices or disability inequities.
- In Town Hall meetings, the community has deep conversations on issues that divide, seeking to develop capacities for relating across difference and to create a community based on the dignity of all.

BUSTH celebrates transformational leaders of The United Methodist Church. Your legacy and witness and your partnership give us hope and courage for the future.

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Jan Love, Mary Lee Hardin Willard Dean and Professor of Christianity and World Politics

Since our founding in 1914, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has educated more than 10,000 students, shaping thoughtful, principled, and courageous leaders dedicated to transforming the world in the name of Jesus Christ. We continued our work even through this most difficult year, with the coronavirus continuing its march around the world, a reckoning for racial injustice rolling across our nation, and a toxic, divisive political atmosphere challenging our civic life. Perhaps there has been no better year than this to underscore the importance of faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries throughout the world—the type of leaders we form at Candler.

Though our mission remains unchanged, the pandemic has necessitated many changes in how we undertake that mission: We have shifted classes online, redesigned syllabi to support optimal online learning, developed new ways to worship and experience community together in the virtual sphere, and discerned which new habits and modalities have promise for enriching our work even after the pandemic ends. Through these efforts, we and our students have gained deep experience in being flexible, adaptable, and creative as we respond to the demands of ever-changing contexts—experience that not only serves us well now, but will continue to serve us and our ministries far into the future.

Candler is one of 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church, yet true to the Methodist tradition of ecumenical openness, we enthusiastically welcome students from 44 denominations, with 46 percent of MDiv students coming from the Wesleyan tradition. Our student body reflects the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful, with an enrollment of 483 from 12 countries and 37 states, 44 percent persons of color (U.S.), and a median age of 27 among MDivs. This diversity is a rich blessing and this year we created a new staff position of assistant director of student life for diversity, equity, and inclusion to foster understanding and ensure we are responsive to the needs of our diverse student body.

We offer six single degrees (MDiv, MTS, MRL MRPL, ThM, DMin) and 10 dual degrees. Our Doctor of Ministry degree is 90 percent online, so students can remain in their places of ministry while completing their degrees. Our new chaplaincy concentration is now among our most popular and our Teaching Parish program enables students to serve as student pastors in local churches throughout the southeast, learning firsthand about shepherding a congregation—this year, there were 36 participants.

Alleviating student debt through generous financial aid remains among our top priorities. In 2019-2020, we awarded nearly $6.6 million in financial aid, with 100 percent of MDiv and 98 percent of all students receiving support. All MDiv students who are certified candidates for ordained ministry in the UMC receive full-tuition scholarships, and all MDiv, MTS, and Master of Religious Leadership students who are enrolled part-time or more receive a scholarship covering at least 50 percent of tuition for the length of their program.

The demands of the pandemic did not diminish Candler's robust schedule of events. Candler's Black Church Studies program celebrated its 30th anniversary with a yearlong slate of online lectures and panel discussions, now available at vimeo.com/candler. We also launched The Candler Foundry to make theological education accessible to all through short and semester-length courses taught by Candler faculty, videos, and discussion guides to spark conversation in groups or one-on-one, and Facebook Live panel discussions connecting theology with current issues in the world. View the latest offerings at candlerfoundry.emory.edu.

Candler's ability to fulfill our mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries throughout the world depends upon your prayers, partnership, and support. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of our denomination. We invite you to visit us online at candler.emory.edu.

DUKE UNIVERSITY DIVINITY SCHOOL

L. Gregory Jones, Dean

Edgardo Colón-Emeric, the Irene and William McCutchen associate professor of Reconciliation and Theology, associate dean for Academic Affairs, and director of the Center for Reconciliation will become dean of Duke Divinity School (DDS) July 1, 2021. Dean L. Gregory Jones will leave DDS to become president of Belmont University.

DDS announced a new hybrid version of its Master of Divinity (M.Div.) program that will give students the opportunity to earn the M.Div. degree without relocating to Durham, North Carolina. The hybrid learning curriculum combines remote coursework with week-long residential intensives, where students connect in person. The first cohort will begin coursework in fall 2021.

DDS welcomed the largest incoming class in school history with 257 new students from 35 different states and seven countries, including China, Italy, Japan, Kenya, Nigeria, South Korea and the United States. Our Master of Arts in Christian Practice (28 students) and Doctor of Ministry (52 students) programs received record enrollments. The Master of Theology (13 students), Master of Theological Studies (34 students), and Doctor of Theology (six students) had strong enrollment. Our new Certificate in Theology and Health Care will enroll six students, all of whom are TMC Fellows. Across all degree programs, 31 percent of the incoming class identified as a race/ethnicity other than white. Black students made up 21 percent of all students; Asian students, 5 percent; and American Indian students, 2 percent. Forty five percent of students in the incoming class were female, and 55 percent were male. The M.Div. degree program gained 113 new students. Students from minority groups comprised more than 25 percent of incoming M.Div. students, with Black students making up 19 percent. Female students made up 46 percent of incoming M.Div. students, while males were 54 percent. There were 30 denominations represented in the M.Div. entering class, with 30 percent affiliated with The United Methodist Church. Nondenominational students made up 16 percent of the new M.Div. students; Baptists, 16 percent; and Anglican-Episcopalian, 9 percent.

2020 also witnessed an expansion of DDS's partnerships, including the Kern Family Foundation partnership with the Office of Wesleyan Engagement to provide accelerated pathways for undergraduate students to pursue the Master of Divinity degree at Duke. DDS welcomed its first cohort of students at Martin Methodist College taking classes at Duke. The Americas Initiative, a fellowship of organizations, scholars, and practitioners convened by the Center for Reconciliation, is working on peacebuilding among Latin American and Latinx communities, particularly those of indigenous and African descent. The five-year Black Pastoral Leadership Collaboration, begun in the fall of 2019 and jointly funded by DDS and the Provost's Office, is working to harness the research and experiential wisdom of Black pastoral leaders nationally through a leadership school and practical theology archiving project.

DDS sought to reckon in deeper and broader ways with systemic racism and injustice, particularly in light of the overlapping pandemics of COVID-19, economic crisis, and mental health challenges, and the school sought opportunities to strengthen its partnership and racial justice work across Duke University. A Story Listening and Gathering project solicited past or present students, faculty, and staff to share stories of how race and racial discrimination affects daily life at DDS with a goal of understanding the experiences of the community and to inform the school's broader anti-racism efforts. A new Race and the Professions Fellowship, in partnership with the Kenan Institute for Ethics, and the Churches Promoting Recovery Project, in partnership with the Theology, Medicine, and Culture Initiative, provided new opportunities for students to deepen their vocational formation and reimagine community transformation beyond campus.

DDS hired eight new faculty members in 2020. Peter Casarella is a professor of Theology. Sarah Barton is an assistant professor of Occupational Therapy and Theological Ethics. Quinton Dixie is an associate research professor of Church History and Black Church Studies. Zebulon Highben is associate professor of the Practice of Church Music. Alma Tinoco Ruiz is a lecturer in Homiletics and Evangelism and director of the Hispanic House of Studies. Janet Martin Soskice is the William K. Warren Distinguished Research Professor of Catholic Theology. Norbert Wilson is professor of Food, Economics, and Community. Wylin D. Wilson is an assistant professor of Theological Ethics.

GARRETT-EVANGELICAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Rev. Dr. Javier A. Viera, President

For 168 years Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary has been in service to the Church and the Methodist connection through the formation of Christian leaders in ordained and lay ministries. A result of the union of three historic institutions—Garrett Biblical Institute, Evangelical Theological Seminary, and the Chicago Training School—Garrett-Evangelical is located in the center and at the heart of the campus of Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois.

One of the official 13 seminaries of The United Methodist Church, Garrett-Evangelical is perennially listed as one of the Seminaries that Change the World and boasts one of the finest theological faculties in the world. With a global student body that also represents every region of the United States, Garrett-Evangelical is proud of its diverse and vibrant community of learning and its enduring commitment to training skilled, bold, and articulate leaders who share the transforming love of Jesus Christ. Rooted in our Wesleyan, Methodist, and Evangelical United Brethren origins, today's Garrett-Evangelical is also international and ecumenical in spirit and is committed to equipping students to proclaim the good news of the Gospel, to foster deep spirituality in the lives of the communities and persons they serve, to lead with cultural competence and commitment to racial equity and justice, and as agents of transformative change for the wellbeing of all persons and creation.

Garrett-Evangelical continues to offer a broad array of degree programs that equip students for leadership in congregations, healthcare settings, community organizing and public theology, counseling, and scholarship and teaching in the classic theological disciplines and practices. Fifty seven percent of Garrett-Evangelical students pursue congregational leadership following graduation and our pastoral care and counseling programs also increasingly attract a large portion of our student body.

This year Garrett-Evangelical also welcomed a new president. The Rev. Javier A. Viera, an elder in the New York Annual Conference, assumed the presidency on January 1, 2021 after having served 6½ years as dean of Drew University Theological School. Dr. Viera will also serve as professor of Education and Leadership. He succeeds Dr. Lallene Rector who, served as president for seven years and after a year-long sabbatical, will return to her position on the seminary's faculty as a professor of Psychology and Religion.

Garrett-Evangelical continues to extend its service to the church through its centers and institutes which are focused on equipping leaders with the resources necessary to thrive in ministry and public leadership, and on influencing the moral, theological, and ethical conversations in the public square. This year we launched the Institute for Ecological Regeneration which seeks to help churches and local communities address the global climate crisis with theological and ethical integrity and creativity. It joins the Styberg Preaching Institute, the Center for the Black Church Experience, the Stead Center for Ethics and Values, the Ruben P. Job Institute for Spiritual Formation, the Hispanic-Latinx Center, and the Asian/Asian-American Ministry Center as vital hubs of spiritual innovation and theological renewal for the good of the Church and the world.

MARTIN METHODIST COLLEGE

Rev. Dr. Mark LaBranche, President

Martin Female College was established in 1870 with a significant gift from the estate of Thomas Martin. His gift was made to fulfill the vision of his then deceased daughter, Victoria, to make education accessible to women in southern Middle Tennessee. Thomas was a successful businessman who served as Pulaski mayor and superintendent of Sunday school at the then Pulaski Methodist Episcopal Church South.

Over the past 151 years Martin Methodist College has expanded to provide an opportunity for higher education for all people in an area that would be a higher education desert without it. This mission has been sustained through the years by the prayers, talents, and treasure of the people called Methodists.

Thousands and thousands of students have discovered and developed their gifts, and those individuals have brought untold benefit to their communities and humankind. What a tremendous legacy!

Now, we have been given the opportunity to advance the mission exponentially by joining the University of Tennessee system as the University of Tennessee Southern. The people of this region will have a more affordable and expansive opportunity to reach their full potential for service in the world. Undergraduate preparation will continue for men and women who are planning to attend seminary and enter church vocations.

The Martin Methodist College Foundation has been established to hold the endowment that has been built in large part by the gifts of individuals and congregations of The United Methodist Church. The income from the endowment will continue to serve the purposes that were designated by the donors for the benefit of the mission, including scholarships for United Methodist students and the support of the Turner Center for Thriving Rural Communities.

In addition, a portion of the endowment currently held by the United Methodist Higher Education Foundation for Martin Methodist will now be designated to support the Wesley student ministry at the University of Tennessee Southern.

Several resolutions have been recently passed and unanimously supported by Martin Methodist College trustees to memorialize the tremendous contributions of United Methodists throughout our history. They include:

Warren-Wilson Hall – Honoring the more than 100-year engagement of these families at Martin including the Rev. Fenton Warren and his son, and current MMC Board Chair, Richard Warren.

The Thomas and Victoria Martin School of Arts and Humanities – Honoring our founders.

The Grace G. Grissom School of Education – Honoring Grace Grissom, benefactor, long-term trustee, and former board chair. Grissom was a member of Brentwood UMC where she served as Administrative Board chairperson, lay delegate to the Tennessee Annual Conference, and delegate to the 1976 World Methodist Conference held in Dublin, Ireland.

Jacquelyn D. Guthrie Student Life Center – Recognizing and honoring Jacquelyn D. Guthrie’s extraordinary contributions to the institution. Guthrie is a member of Springfield FUMC. In addition to supporting Martin Methodist College, she has established an endowed scholarship at Africa University to help further the education of the young people of Africa.

We thank God for what has been and praise God for all that will be. The mission continues!

MEMPHIS THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Michael K. Turner, Director of Methodist House of Studies

For nearly four decades, Memphis Theological Seminary has been a leading institution in the Mid-South for producing graduates who are commissioned as elders or deacons in The United Methodist Church. United Methodist students continue to be the largest denomination represented at our school and a significant number of our full-time faculty are from a Pan-Methodist tradition. We are also on the list of approved seminaries of the University Senate of The United Methodist Church. In addition, our accreditation was recently reaffirmed by SACSCOC for 10 years and we remain accredited by ATS through 2025.

Enrollment remains steady and we continue to develop innovative strategies and solutions to keep theological education within reach for all women and men seeking to live out their call to ministry. This has traditionally included offering a night track, as well as hybrid-online courses, in which students complete 49 percent of the coursework online and 51 percent on campus.

The ongoing pandemic has caused some dramatic changes to campus operations and class delivery models in the 2020-21 academic year, as all MTS classes were moved online and MTS staff began working from home. The University Senate of the UMC, as well as our accrediting bodies SACS and ATS, approved MTS to offer fully online courses. MTS was also the recipient of CARES Act funding that allowed us to purchase laptops and hotspots for student use, as well as offer direct payments to our students to offset the costs incurred by the transition to online learning.

We expect to offer some on-campus courses in the fall of 2021 with proper precautions such as social distancing, masking, and regular sanitation. Though, we will continue to supplant on-campus courses with additional online contact hours and we will offer some completely synchronous and asynchronous online classes at least through the duration of the pandemic.

Important Happenings at the Seminary

Rev. Dr. Jody Hill assumed the Office of the President in January 2020. We also welcomed two new full-time faculty members in the 2020-21 academic year: Dr. Tricia Vesely, visiting assistant professor in Hebrew Bible and Christian Ethics; and Dr. Christy Woodbury-Moore, assistant professor Spiritual Formation and director of Supervised Ministry.

In addition to our Master of Divinity degree, MTS introduced two new Master of Arts in Christian Ministry concentrations in Chaplaincy Studies and Methodist Ministry this past academic year. Those concentrations are ideal for UMC students pursuing ordination as a deacon or through the Advanced Course of Study. We are also recruiting students for new Doctor of Ministry cohorts in Womanist Preaching, Preaching as Leadership, Forming and Growing Churches, and Faith and Health to begin in summer 2021.

MTS is also offering a series of free virtual classes to local churches and lay people called Sunday Morning Seminary. The program was designed to provide a series of free educational tools and experiences for lay people and local congregations. As part of Sunday Morning Seminary, several of our Methodist faculty have offered classes. For example, Dr. Michael Turner offered a month-long online class on Slavery, Religion, and the Civil War.

Wesleyan Studies at the Seminary

Memphis Theological Seminary is pleased to report that theological education for United Methodist students continues to remain vibrant and forward-looking. Dr. Michael Turner teaches the required classes in UMC history, doctrine, and polity each academic year. This academic year, MTS was also able to offer those ordination requirement classes to students enrolled at the Center for Youth Ministry Training at Austin Presbyterian Seminary.

Students also have the opportunity to earn a Certificate in Wesleyan Studies by completing at least five classes in Wesleyan/Methodist Studies. We are offering a new elective on Accountability and Addiction: Wesley and Twelve Step Recovery this summer.

The seminary completed the endowment of the Hamilton and Varnell Chair in Wesleyan Studies in November 2019. This endowment was made possible by generous lead gifts from Mrs. Barbara Hamilton and the late Dr. Ralph Hamilton, as well as the late Mrs. Jeanne Varnell and the late Mr. Henry Varnell. The endowment ensures the future of Wesleyan Theological formation at MTS. The Hamilton and Varnell Chair in Wesleyan Studies is held by Dr. Michael Turner, associate professor of the History of Christianity and the director of the Methodist House of Studies.

The endowment also continues to support the Methodist House of Studies at MTS. The MHOS serves as a community within a community for students from Methodist backgrounds. Recent student gatherings have focused on topics that include the upcoming General Conference, rural ministry, women in ministry, bivocational ministry, and hospital chaplaincy. We also host Board of Ordained Ministry preparatory events for our students. Beginning late this spring, the MHOS website will also begin hosting a blog featuring reflections from students, alumni, and others in ministry about the future of the Methodist tradition.

The MHOS also provides continuing education events for clergy and lay people. Just prior to the pandemic shut-down, the MHOS partnered with the Turner Center for Church Leadership at St. Luke's UMC to offer a one-day workshop titled "Christian Conversation in a Polarized Culture: Human Sexuality and the Future of The United Methodist Church." The goal of this workshop was to prepare United Methodist pastors and lay people for difficult conversations around human sexuality in anticipation of the 2022 General Conference. Over 150 people from 23 local congregations attended.

We are grateful for the support of the Tennessee Annual Conference and for the many fine students who have attended MTS from Tennessee over the years. We appreciate the confidence that the conference places in MTS for preparation of United Methodist women and men for Christian ministry, and we welcome your ongoing involvement and prayers for the seminary. For ongoing information about the Methodist House of Studies and Memphis Theological Seminary, we invite you to visit us at www.MethodistHouse.org and check The Good News from MTS for regular updates.

METHODIST THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL IN OHIO

Danny Russell, Director of Communications

Thank you for this opportunity to bring you news from MTSO.

MTSO Preserves Learning and Community Despite COVID-19

Confronted by the challenges of a pandemic, MTSO's students, faculty, and staff joined together to preserve a learning environment and a sense of community. In March 2020, the school announced that spring semester and summer classes all would move online. A virtual commencement was held for the class of 2020, featuring submitted video of individual graduates as well as faculty members in full regalia. Addressing the graduates, President Jay Rundell said, "The pandemic has prepared you in ways that you might not realize. There will be surprises in the future. You now know how to adapt."

Fall 2020 classes began in a HyFlex format, blending online learning and optional campus-based classes. As the virus became more widespread in mid-October, the school pivoted to all-online learning, extending the online-only format through the 2021 spring semester. During all COVID-related adaptations, MTSO's tradition of Tuesday chapel services continued — in person and distanced when possible, online when necessary. In addition, the dining hall staff offered free Thanksgiving dinners for pickup to students and employees, and continued to provide to-go lunches on a regular basis. Student organizations and study groups have continued to meet virtually. Most recently, plans were made to hold the 2021 commencement virtually.

Full-tuition Scholarships Extended to Those Pursuing United Methodist Candidacy

MTSO and the school's generous donors pledged to extend a full-tuition pledge to all prospective students who are pursuing United Methodist elder or deacon candidacy. The MTSO admissions staff is happy to answer questions at 800-333-6876 or admissions@mtso.edu.

$1 Million Lilly Endowment Grant Will Promote Thriving in Ministry

In December 2020, MTSO received a grant of $995,731 to help establish Spaces for Thriving: Cultivating Authentic Pastors for Small Membership Churches and Communities of Color. The project is part of Lilly Endowment Inc.'s

Thriving in Ministry, an initiative that supports a variety of religious organizations across the nation as they create or strengthen programs that help pastors build relationships with experienced clergy who can serve as mentors and guide them through key leadership challenges in congregational ministry. The central goals of MTSO's project are to improve pastoral thriving through attention to well-being, authenticity in vocation, and connections to fellow pastors.

PERKINS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY — SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

Craig C. Hill, Dean and Professor of New Testament

Perkins celebrates our vital connections with the Tennessee Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church.

- Two students affiliated with the Tennessee Annual Conference are enrolled at Perkins: two Master of Divinity (M.Div.) students.
- The hybrid Houston-Galveston Extension Program, in its third year of providing a combination of online and residential classes leading to the M.Div. and M.A.M. degrees, totaled 103 students during the 2020-21 academic year or slightly more than half of the 200 students enrolled in these degrees.
- Providing spiritual care to those who are sick or hospitalized demands a variety of specialized skills, especially given today's multicultural environment. To prepare students who feel called in this area, Perkins School of Theology—in partnership with Houston Methodist Hospital—now offers Master of Divinity students (enrolled in both Houston and Dallas) the opportunity to concentrate in Healthcare Chaplaincy.
- Beginning June 2021, Perkins School of Theology will add a Doctor of Ministry (D. Min.) program in Houston, in addition to the existing D. Min. program in Dallas. The doctoral level program integrates scholarly research with the practice of ministry. Courses will be taught at Houston Methodist Hospital. With two international airports, Houston also offers the advantage of easy access by air from many cities in the U.S. Perkins's three-year D. Min. curriculum includes two years of coursework, with students traveling to Houston for two weeks of courses in person in June and January. The remainder of the program, which includes a directed study and the writing of a dissertation, can be completed remotely.

Enrollment Update

Enrollment at Perkins for the 2020-21 academic year totaled 347 students, including 28 enrolled in the Ph.D. program. Our enrollment size puts Perkins among the largest schools (52nd out of 277 schools) within the Association of Theological Schools. Fall 2020 statistics reflect the following: 65 percent of the entire student population are United Methodist (82 percent of M.Div. students) with another 23 denominations /traditions represented. Twenty-seven percent are ethnic minority students with an additional six percent comprising international students. The hybrid Houston-Galveston Extension Program, in its third year of providing a combination of online and residential classes leading to the M.Div. and M.A.M. degrees, totaled 103 students during the 2020-21 academic year or slightly more than half of the 200 students enrolled in these degrees.

2020-21 Highlights

- Fall 2020 and spring 2021 semesters included both 100 percent online classes along with courses offered in a HyFlex modality (in-person and online students together within the same classroom experience). Many of the usual rhythms of life at Perkins also moved into virtual spaces, including most meetings and our regular chapel services.

- Perkins School of Theology and Cox School of Business announced the creation of cooperative, sequenced degree programs between the two Southern Methodist University graduate schools. The programs, designed for students interested in either a career in ministry with a strong business focus, or for students interested in a business career with a strong theological focus, include two sequences: the Master of Divinity (M.Div.) and the Master of Business Administration (M.B.A.) or the Master of Arts in Ministry (M.A.M.) and the M.B.A.
- SMU has received a grant of nearly $1 million from the Lilly Endowment's nationwide Thriving Congregations Initiative to support Perkins' Testimony as Community Engagement program. The program will work to increase the practice of testimony as community engagement both inside and outside the church. The Rev. Dr. Priscilla Pope-Levison and Bart Patton of Perkins will serve as co-principal investigators on the project.
- A new Memoranda of Understanding (MOUs) with Central Methodist University in Missouri was signed as part of the ongoing initiative to deepen relationships between Perkins and undergraduate colleges, universities, and international seminaries. Centenary College in Shreveport, Louisiana, is among the MOU schools.
- Perkins School of Theology announced the 2021 recipients of the Woodrow B. Seals Laity Award: Kirk Franklin, a Grammy-award winning gospel artist and member of Oak Cliff Bible Fellowship; Nancy Seay, a philanthropist and elder of Highland Park Presbyterian Church; and Lisa Tichenor, an active community leader and lay member of Highland Park United Methodist Church. Along with Mary White, the 2020 Seals Award recipient, the three will be honored during the online worship service for Perkins Summit for Faith and Learning on March 19, 2021.
- The Rev. Donald W. Underwood and the Rev. Dr. Sidney G. Hall, III, were announced as recipients of the 2020 Perkins Distinguished Alumnus/a Award. The award recognizes Perkins graduates who have demonstrated effectiveness and integrity in service to the church, continuing support for the goals of Perkins and Southern Methodist University, outstanding service to the community, and exemplary character.
- Retirements: Bishop Whitfield (M. Div. '69) officially retired on August 31 as Perkins's Bishop in Residence and director of the Center for Religious Leadership. Retirements official on May 31, 2021, include Dr. William Abraham (Albert Cook Outler Professor of Wesley Studies), Dr. Isabel Docampo (co-director of the Intern Program and director, Center for the Study of Latino/a Christianity and Religions), Duane Harbin (assistant dean for Technology, Planning & Compliance), and Dr. Evelyn Parker (Susanna Wesley Centennial Professor of Practical Theology).

The highlights listed above are reflective of the vibrant engagement of Perkins faculty, staff, and students during the 2020-21 academic year.

Perkins School of Theology is committed to those called to serve so that they might be empowered to lead. We thank our many colleagues, friends, and alumni/ae in the Tennessee Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church for your generous support, including referrals of prospective students, as we continue our vital mission of preparing women and men for faithful leadership in Christian ministry.

SAINT PAUL SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Neil Blair, President

Saint Paul School of Theology, a seminary of The United Methodist Church, is committed to the formation of people for innovative, creative ministry. We are one institution, online and on-campus, in Kansas and Oklahoma. This past year, we have all faced new challenges amid these unsettled times. Saint Paul School of Theology began the 2020-2021 academic year offering students an online option for all courses. With many students choosing to attend class solely online, our student council created a monthly Chat & Chew where students, faculty, and staff come together to eat lunch and talk about life, seminary, and ministry. In addition, Rev. Rod Newman, our Oklahoma campus chapel coordinator, crafts a weekly community prayer to provide encouragement and faithfulness as the school seeks to provide spiritual formation in new ways.

Kansas Campus Chapel Coordinator Dr. Casey Sigmon took worship to new technological levels by introducing our weekly online worship service via Zoom, bringing our separate campus chapel services together for one service where all are invited to create a sacred atmosphere from wherever they are. Along with our featured alumni worship preachers, the community was blessed this fall by the presence of Musician in Residence Hannah Rand, from The Many, who led the music each week for worship. In spring 2020, Odell Talley, director of music for Swope Parkway United and organist for Zion Travelers Missionary Baptist, served as Musician in Residence. For those who cannot join us live, chapel recordings are available on the Saint Paul YouTube channel.

This year, we have faced several challenges that turned into opportunities for new recruiting spaces and partnerships to enhance students' seminary experience. With the change from in-person to virtual events, Rev. Shannon Hancock, director of Admissions and Communications, has expanded her reach to prospective students by participating as a virtual exhibitor at online conferences. Hancock engages with prospective students via apps such as Whova and HopIn to highlight Saint Paul's unique course delivery system and formative community.

In February, Saint Paul held the 2021 Slater-Willson Lecture online featuring Rev. Dr. Miguel A. De La Torre. His lecture, "Why Do They Come?" explored the political, economic, and social causes of our current immigration crisis. Before the lecture, De La Torre participated in a student-led forum, entering a conversation centering around the practical aspects of ministry and immigration.

Later in April, Saint Paul Evangelical Society, led by Dr. Hal Knight, hosted a lecture given by Dr. Sammy G. Alfaro, associate professor of Theology at Grand Canyon University and pastor of Iglesia Nuevo Dia (New Day Church), on the "Pastoral Strategies for Ministering Among Latinx Immigrant Communities." And for the first time, on May 22, Saint Paul held a virtual commencement celebration with videos, cap and gown photos, online congratulatory messages from friends and family, and a commencement address by Rev. Chebon Kernell. The class of 2021 had 22 graduates, including 16 Master of Divinity and one Doctor of Ministry graduates. Due to the pandemic, for safety concerns, Saint Paul has postponed our 60th anniversary celebration. However, we have rescheduled the event for Friday, October 22 and look forward to coming together as a community for a safe, in-person gathering.

For the 2020-2021 fiscal year, Saint Paul Course of Study (COS) School educated 255 individual students, 40 of which were new students, with a total registration of 520 classes and offering a total of 51 courses. Due to Covid-19, the school quickly pivoted its course offerings and delivered lessons in both asynchronous and synchronous online formats. In winter 2019, Saint Paul began a hybrid (online and on-campus) schedule for six courses. Although for 2021, this went fully online, plans to increase the number of hybrid course offerings are in development.

As we have happily reported in past years, Saint Paul is financially sound and operates with a balanced budget. The changes made these last years have established a solid financial foundation for years of sustainability. We continue to be grateful for donations from the community that provide technology, scholarships, and emergency assistance to students. Our significant investments in technology have recently allowed our staff, faculty, and students to transition to a fully hybrid educational delivery model providing a safe learning environment during the pandemic. Our faculty was uniquely adept at managing technology in the classroom before the pandemic, making the transition to all online courses a smooth process.

Saint Paul School of Theology is blessed to be your partner in ministry and help those seeking more to answer the call. We are a seminary that offers online and on-campus classes with a flexible schedule to help our students manage pastoral leadership demands in the 21st century. We are grateful for your support of our students and our seminary. May we continue to live into the call of Jesus Christ to be faithful witnesses for healing in these unsettled times and for generations to come. President Neil Blair, Saint Paul trustees, faculty, staff, alumni, and students thank you for your prayers and support.

UNITED THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Dr. Kent Millard, President

“I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?” — Isaiah 43:19

It appears God is doing some new things at United Theological Seminary, even in the midst of health, racial, and political crises.

God is doing a new thing at United financially. United continues to make progress toward its goal of becoming debt-free by the seminary’s 150th anniversary on October 11, 2021. Thanks to the faithfulness and generosity of alumni/ae and donors, less than $1 million remains of the original $4 million mortgage debt. After the mortgage is paid in full, the seminary plans to convert those mortgage payments into money for student scholarships.

God is doing a new thing in enrollment. Over the last five years, United’s Doctor of Ministry program has grown by 48 percent, from 170 students in the 2016-17 academic year to 251 in 2020-21. In fall 2021, Dr. Elvin Sadler, General Secretary of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, will become the associate dean for Doctoral Studies, upon the retirement of Dr. Harold Hudson who has been a vital leader at the seminary for 17 years.

God is doing a new thing with partners in church renewal. In the 2020-21 academic year, United has partnered with Fresh Expressions US and the Mosaix Global Network to introduce two new Houses of Study. These houses oversee specialized tracks in the Doctor of Ministry and Master of Divinity programs. Rev. Dr. Michael Beck is director of the Fresh Expressions House of Studies and Dr. Harry Li is director of the Mosaix House of Studies.

In collaboration with the Northwest Texas Conference of The United Methodist Church, United also introduced Rooted/Enraizados, a certificate program for coaches and mentors of Hispanic/Latino church planters. In 2020-21, the program served students from more than five annual conferences.

God is doing a new thing with the establishment of the Bishop Bruce Ough Innovation Center. Beginning in 2021, the Innovation Center honors the ministry of Bishop Bruce Ough by providing a hub of learning for church leaders seeking the framework, support, and courage to introduce the Gospel of Jesus Christ in new and creative ways. Rev. Sue Nilson Kibbey joins United as the inaugural director of the Innovation Center.

United’s prayer is that United Methodists will perceive the new things that God is doing in our communities, congregations, and ministries as we strive to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

VANDERBILT DIVINITY SCHOOL

Emilie M. Townes, Dean and Distinguished Professor of Womanist Ethics and Society

Founded under the auspices of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South as the Biblical Department of Vanderbilt University in 1875, the divinity school has been a part of Vanderbilt University since its inception. Since 1915, we have been one of the few university-based, interdenominational schools for the preparation of ministers and the oldest one in the South. Our founders adopted a commonplace label for theological institutions of their era, “school of the prophets,” as they sought to lift up the importance of education for clergy. Today, we accept this legacy as we live in a world of a large tent Christianity, religious pluralism, an ever-expanding understanding of the nature of the diversities in our midst, marvelous and challenging cultural differences, and more.

The Cal Turner Chancellor’s Chair in Wesleyan Studies and Distinguished Professor of Theology, Joerg Rieger, published 10 articles in national and international ventures and gave 18 national and international presentations in 2020 (via Zoom, due to COVID-19). He edited and co-edited two books: Faith, Class, and Labor: Intersectional Approaches in a Global Context, with Jin-Young Choi (Eugene, Oregon: Pickwick Publishers, 2020), and Theologies on the Move: Religion, Migration, and Pilgrimage in the World of Neoliberal Capital. (Lanham, Maryland: Lexington Books/Fortress Academic, 2020).

Since 2019, Rieger is also the director of the Wendland-Cook Program in Religion and Justice, established by a gift of $1.25M by Barbara Wendland, a United Methodist layperson and the director of the Joe and Louise Cook Foundation (www.religionandjustice.org). During 2020, The Wendland-Cook Program grew substantially through webinars and online education, adding several thousand supporters, as well as a postdoctoral fellow and 10 student fellows (four Ph.D. and six masters-level students). This project provides good synergy with his work as the Cal Turner Chancellor’s Chair, linked to the Wesleyan legacy of engaged theology. Rieger appreciates the opportunities of educating United Methodist students at a non-denominational and ecumenical school, where students are compelled to revisit and deepen their understanding of their denominational traditions in a broader theological setting. VDS offers all of the courses that are required by the 2016 Book of Discipline for those who are planning to be ordained in The United Methodist Church. A second Turner chair is in process.

The Methodist Student Association (MSA) has continued to gather monthly, inviting United Methodist-affiliated faculty and staff, and the broader Vanderbilt divinity community to join the conversations as they have led conversations about current issues impacting The United Methodist Church, as well as hosting social, vocational, and spiritual gatherings that are tending to the needs of Methodist-affiliated students during this socially distanced time. Bishop Joe Pennel serves as the faculty liaison to the MSA and Sophia Agtarap, a deaconess, the advisor. Students continue to express a desire to learn more about and connect with our denominational agencies, global Methodism, and explore diverse expressions of calls to ministry for those seeking ordination as well as lay ministry.

In addition to degree-seeking options through our Master of Divinity (M.Div.), Master of Theological Studies (M.T.S.), and Master of Theology (Th.M.) program, there are numerous ways for members of the annual conferences to study and deepen their ministerial practice in relationship to the school:

- Taking courses as a non-degree student: VDS is pleased to provide 50 percent scholarship support to members of the Tennessee Annual Conference who seek to take courses leading to ordination.
- Auditing a course: Members of the Middle Tennessee community may audit classes at the divinity school for $300 per course.
- Attend some of the many public lectures, symposia, and events held each year at VDS.

In the spring of 2020, VDS relaunched the Doctor of Ministry degree with a new concentration in Integrative Chaplaincy. This three-year, 36-credit professional program is undertaken alongside a student’s work as a chaplain in a professional ministry setting (e.g., healthcare, military, prisons, organizational chaplaincy), with the aim of better equipping students to address whole-person healthcare needs—both as individual spiritual care providers and as collaborative professionals partnering with other care providers. In the fall of 2021, this program will expand to a larger incoming class. More information is available at <https://divinity.vanderbilt.edu/dmin.php>.

VDS offers 10 concentrations, each of which includes a praxis-oriented course or experience. Concentrations aim to prepare students to be service oriented for religious leadership that is contextually focused, socially engaged, spiritually formed, and culturally literate. In other words, as a crucial component to the curriculum, concentrations contribute to students' development of a disposition toward religious leadership that is transformative.

VDS is proud to offer more than $3.5M annually in tuition scholarship support, providing significant funding for almost 100 percent of our student body. Several scholarships, including the West End UMC Scholarship, cover full tuition for United Methodist students. To learn more about scholarships, visit <https://divinity.vanderbilt.edu/admissions/>.

To learn more about any of these options, email divinity-admissions@vanderbilt.edu or call (615) 343-3963.

WESLEY THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Rev. Dr. David McAllister-Wilson, President

For the world, 2020 was a year like no other. In the midst of a global pandemic, plus resurgent racism, mass unemployment, and politically challenging times in the U.S., Wesley remained committed to fostering wisdom and courage, preparing graduates to lead innovative ministries while remaining grounded in our biblical and theological traditions for the sake of God's inbreaking kingdom. The mode of educational delivery changed overnight, as we became an all-online seminary on March 15, 2020, and have remained so to keep students, faculty, staff, and all members of the Wesley community safe from COVID-19 exposure on campus. This is simply Wesley modeling what we teach our students: to be committed to our God-given mission while being innovative and responsive in the delivery of ministry. Here are some of the ways we are accomplishing that with our many partners in this mission, as we seek to faithfully minister to the world in the future.

Research Projects Support Congregational Community Engagement and Envision Future Ministry

Wesley is pleased to announce new opportunities for UMC congregations to explore, clarify, and pursue thriving in their communities. Through the Source Collaborative, Wesley will work with three cohorts of regional congregations in a two-year process of prayer, community engagement, congregational visioning, and coaching, with the goal of following Jesus in mission and ministry. Interested congregations can contact innovation@wesleyseminary.edu for more information. This work, funded by a $1 million Lilly Endowment, Inc, grant, raises Wesley's role as a leading research and development seminary for the whole church and complements Wesley's other Lilly Endowment-funded projects focused on congregational vitality.

The Religious Workforce Project is an expansive study of the current and future nature of religious work, particularly in local congregations, so as to understand what opportunities and constraints may exist in the future and to adapt resources and training accordingly. Through the Wesley Innovation Hub, the seminary has worked with 18 congregations in the greater Washington area to experiment with ministries with young adults outside the church. Together, these projects forge insight into future ministry and local church development, influencing the way students are trained in master's, doctoral, and course of study education, but also informing workshops, podcasts, articles, and training for church leaders working in their communities across the country.

We invite you to discover the latest research and conversations generated by the Wesley community through our new web portal, #EngageInTheseTimes, at www.wesleyseminary.edu/#engage.

Using Research and Partnerships to Reach and Equip the Next Generation of Ministers

Research shows that the primary way people learn about and begin to consider seminary options is through their pastor or an alumnus. Whether you feel called or you know someone who does, Wesley is ready to work with you as we make theological education more accessible and relevant to the realities of ministry today—for laity and clergy, for those seeking a degree, certification, or continuing education, and for ministry from within or beyond the church.

Wesley offers an 81-hour Master of Divinity, a 36-hour Master of Arts, and a 60-hour Master of Theological Studies, any of which can be focused around specializations in public theology, urban ministry, arts and theology, missional church, children and youth ministry and advocacy, or African American church leadership.

For full-time students, we offer a modern and affordable residential community in the nation's capital. Our Community Engagement Fellows program prepares students to engage in entrepreneurial, community-based ministry. Generous stipends are available for each Fellow while they complete their MDiv degree. Our 3+3 Fast Track BA/MDiv program with Shenandoah University allows students to complete both degrees in six years, entering ministry more quickly and with less debt.

For people with work, ministry, and family commitments, Wesley's Master of Divinity degree can now be completed via online, weekend, short-term intensive, and weeknight courses in five years. Check out upcoming flexible course offerings for summer and fall 2021 at www.wesleyseminary.edu/admissions/try-a-class-3.

Wesley works with each student to make seminary affordable. Thanks to the consistent support of graduates, congregations, and friends, Wesley provides more than $2 million annually in scholarships. In addition to our regular merit awards, ranging from 25 percent to 100 percent tuition with stipends, Wesley has released special additional scholarships: full-tuition scholarships for people recommended by Wesley alumni, campus ministers, or Christian camping or service ministries who feel called to leadership in the church as it is becoming; Next Call in Ministry scholarships for students who have worked in a non-ministry setting for at least 10 years; and Generación Latinx Scholarships for emerging Latinx/Hispanic leaders for ministries both within and beyond the church.

Take Your Ministry to the Next Level

In addition to full master's degrees, Wesley offers graduate certificates for those preparing for specialized ministry! The new Certificate for Children and Youth Ministry and Advocacy (CYMA) is designed for people who work with and advocate for children and young people, whether in churches, schools, or non-profit organizations. The non-residential certificate can be completed in 12 to 15 months through online coursework and up to two residential sessions. For more information, visit www.wesleyseminary.edu/admissions/cyma-3. The Certificate in Faith and Public Life explores the foundations of public theology, religious freedom, and civil discourse through graduate courses. For more information, visit www.wesleyseminary.edu/ice/programs/public-theology/public-life/.

Wesley is a leader in Doctor of Ministry programs in specialized tracks that can include international study. Wesley is pleased to announce three new Doctor of Ministry tracks for 2022: Ministry in a Digital Age, a timely new track exploring the new opportunities and challenges of online ministry; Justice, Compassion, and Witness in a Turbulent World, hosted in Cambridge, England; and a program focused on Latinx ministry. As well, new 2022 cohorts for our popular DMin areas of focus will be offered for military chaplains and CPE chaplains, our international mission-focused Global Church Leadership program, and Wesley's premiere DMin program in innovative church administration Church Leadership Excellence. Find out more or apply at www.wesleyseminary.edu/doctorofministry/.

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the “Church”), of which the Tennessee Conference (the “Conference”) is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church (“Clergypersons”);

WHEREAS, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation;

WHEREAS, pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as an appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for Clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation;

Therefore, be it resolved by the 2021 Tennessee Annual Conference that:

THAT an amount equal to 100% of the pension, severance, or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the “Discipline”), which includes all such payments from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits (now also known as “Wespath Benefits and Investments”, or “Wespath”), to each active, retired, terminated, or disabled Clergyperson who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson; and THAT the pension, severance, or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance designation applies will be any pension, severance, or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from Wespath and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a Wespath plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergyperson to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such an active, a retired, a terminated, or a disabled Clergyperson’s pension, severance, or disability plan benefit as part of his or her gross compensation. NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergyperson’s gross income in any year for federal (and, in most cases, state) income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2), and regulations thereunder, to the least of: (a) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergyperson’s employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (b) the amount actually expended by the Clergyperson to rent or provide a home in such year; or (c) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year. Each clergyperson or former clergyperson is urged to consult with his or her own tax advisor to determine what deferred compensation is eligible to be claimed as a housing allowance exclusion.

ADOPTION BY TENNESSEE CONFERENCE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH OF MAY 5 NATIONAL DAY OF AWARENESS FOR MISSING AND MURDERED NATIVE WOMEN AND GIRLS (MMIWG)

Whereas, the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church ¶ 161 recognizes: A) Culture and Identity; B) The Family; G) Human Sexuality; H) Family Violence and Abuse; I) Sexual Abuse-which includes human trafficking; J) Sexual Harassment; P) Sexual Assault

Whereas, the U.S. Senate passed a resolution declaring the National Day of Awareness because May 5 was the birthday of Hanna Harris, a 21-year-old member of the Northern Cheyenne tribe who went missing on July 4, 2013
Whereas, Each year since 2017, May 5 is recognized as the National Day of Awareness for Missing and Murdered Native Women and Girls
Whereas, the disheartening statistics announced from the U.S. Justice Department shows the murder rate of Native females is more than ten times the national average on some reservations. Many times these disappearances or murders are connected to crimes of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, and sex trafficking.

Whereas, the United States recognizes that Native American women and children are put to great harm and that Native American women and girls murdered, missing or consumed by human trafficking continues to rise
Whereas, a symbol of remembrance of MMWIG is wearing red.

Therefore, be it resolved by the 2021 Tennessee Annual Conference that:

- 1) we as United Methodists of the Tennessee Conference and people of God recognize May 5th annually as a National Day of Awareness for Missing and Murdered Native Women and Girls and hold in our hearts and spirits those who have been lost, never found or recovered
- 2) we as United Methodists and people of God pray for and lift up those wounded by these horrendous actions against those made in the image of God that they may be healed
- 3) the Committee on Native American Ministries known as CONAM of the Tennessee Annual Conference will be recognized as a grassroots advocacy resource for the local church; providing resources available to congregations and entities of the annual conference with a goal of furthering cultural sensitivity and understanding. This will include ongoing updates on joint actions at the local, tribal, state and national levels
- 4) Therefore, be it further resolved that we symbolically lift up remembrance by wearing red on May 5
- 5) we as peoples of the Tennessee Annual Conference will continue to pray to end injustices perpetuated on our sisters in Christ

The parties agree that the current location of the Turner Center, and the location currently utilized as the residence of the college president, are both suitable present and/or future locations for the Turner Center. Should another location be chosen, Martin Methodist College shall seek approval of the Tennessee Annual Conference Board of Trustees, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld; and 4. Martin Methodist College's agreement to establish and maintain a Wesley foundation on or near the campus of the college, the location of same to be determined in consultation with the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry of the Tennessee Annual Conference.

EXHIBIT 1: Tennessee Annual Conference 2019

Resolution Approving Formation of a New Conference

Whereas: The Nashville Episcopal Area is comprised of the Memphis and Tennessee Conferences, and

Whereas: In 2014, the Memphis and Tennessee Annual Conference delegates adopted the same mission statement:
The mission of the Memphis and Tennessee Conference is to discover, equip, connect and send lay and clergy leaders who shape congregations that offer Jesus Christ to a hurting world one neighborhood at a time, and

Whereas: We are committed to our mission more than to our geographic boundaries, and

Whereas: Over the past five years, the following areas of ministry have been aligned between the two conferences:

- Appointive Cabinets meeting/working together as one
- Office of Leadership Formation and Development (formerly Office of Ministerial Concerns)
- provides shared services for both conference (ex: administration, licensing school, Orientation to Ministry, Healthy Boundaries training)
- Clergy Spiritual Life Retreat combined to serve both conferences
- Area wide Hispanic Ministries team
- Area wide New Church Development team
- Annual Conference Sessions have worshiped and learned around the same themes and speakers, and

Whereas: After successful alignment efforts demonstrated increased focus, efficiency and fruitfulness, an advisory team was identified to further pursue what benefits and challenges would be presented by formation of a new conference to include all geographic areas of the current Memphis and Tennessee Conferences, and

Whereas: In 2018, the Tennessee Annual Conference and Memphis Annual Conference sessions voted to endorse the intent to move forward with a plan to form a new conference, with the expectation that each Conference will vote to approve a plan for a new conference in 2019, send a motion to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference in 2020, and to meet as a fully unified Annual Conference in 2021, and

Whereas: Both Conferences directed the advisory team to continue development of a plan to form a new Conference, with particular attention to challenges related to a unified method of funding the budget and a single health benefits plan, and

Whereas: The advisory team, as directed by both Conferences, has continued its work on two identified items, those being the methodology used to pay for the Conference budget, including health and pension costs, and the utilization of one employee health benefit plan for both Conferences, and has presented a recommendation related to those matters, appended to this resolution as Exhibit A, (funding plan) and Exhibit B (guiding principle plan for benefits), and

Whereas: The advisory team has developed strategic goals and initiatives for the new Conference that are outlined in Exhibit C.

Now, therefore, be it resolved, that the Tennessee Annual Conference affirms sending a motion to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, for action at its 2020 session, requesting that the Tennessee and Memphis Conferences be joined to form a new Conference, and to meet as a fully unified Annual Conference in 2021;

Be it further resolved, that the Tennessee Annual Conference endorses the funding plan outlined in Exhibit A, subject to approval by the newly formed Conference as a unified body at its 2021 Annual Conference session;

Be it further resolved, that the Tennessee Annual Conference endorses the guiding principle plan for benefits outlined in Exhibit B, subject to approval by the newly formed Conference as a unified body at its 2021 Annual Conference session;

Be it further resolved, that the Tennessee Annual Conference endorses the goals and objectives outlined in Exhibit C, subject to approval by the newly formed Conference as a unified body at its 2021 Annual Conference session.

Be it further resolved, that those appointments to Conference agencies, committees and other bodies that would ordinarily expire at 2020 Annual Conference shall continue through the end of calendar year 2020, so that their expiration will coincide with the effective date of creation of the new Conference.

Exhibit A – Resolution Approving Formation of New Conference Connectional Commitment

Proposed Funding Plan for New Conference

1. We will ask each local church to remit to the New Conference 10% of their income as reported on line 62 (that line is now 52t) on their annual statistical report to the conference.
2. We will not ask local churches to self-determine their share to remit, rather we will calculate the amount for each church and inform them of their “fair share” six (or so) months ahead of the calendar year.
3. The amount will be calculated on a two year “lagging” method. I.E., the 2021 amount will be based on the 2019 conference statistical reports.
4. This method assumes that Clergy Health and Pension Costs will be direct billed to the local churches and participants, as appropriate, and the only portion of those benefit costs that ends up being included in this funding methodology, is for plan participants that are not appointed to a local church. I.E. District Superintendents, Conference staff, etc.
5. We will no longer use the terms “apportionments” or “tithe” and are suggesting the use of the term “connectional commitment”. We believe that term is more representative of what this is.
6. In addition, there will be a “transition adjustment” beginning at 1% for the first year and declining by ¼ % each year. (See page 2) The purpose of this transition adjustment, is to cover the cost of churches that are unable to contribute their full 10% Connectional Commitment and allow the new conference to work with them to achieve their full Connectional Commitment and or to further reduce conference costs.
7. Our commitment is to reduce this “transitional adjustment” to 0% by the fifth year after the formation of the New Conference and ask for no more than 10% of revenue at that point. (See page 2)
8. We will work with our District Superintendents, Bishop and others to understand the financial costs to the conference for a local church and appointed clergy. While recognizing the importance of our financial support for missional faith communities, we will work with local churches to complete the full payment of their 10% Connectional Commitment and 100% of the cost of Health and Pension benefits for their appointed clergy.

9. We will remain committed to challenging the ways that the conferences fund ministry, holding groups that request budgets accountable to the conference missional objectives and practices of good stewardship.
10. We propose that the New Conference will have one comprehensive budget that is developed with input from appropriate ministry teams and groups, vetted by CFA, and approved by the annual conference. So, there would be no additional budgets for districts and other groups.
11. We propose that local churches would pay their 10% share with no need to designate to any specific portion of the conference approved budget.
12. We believe that this will leave more dollars “in the hands” of local congregations, for them to decide how to spend those dollars most effectively for ministry, while at the same time honoring the stated mission of the Annual Conference and recognizing the power of our connectional system.

Exhibit B – Resolution Approving Formation of New Conference - New Conference Medical Benefit Plan Design Guiding Principles

1. The new Conference will provide medical benefits for our full-time appointed clergy and lay employees of the conference, district, and area.
2. The new Conference will not provide medical benefits for less than full time clergy. However, any participant who meets the definition of “full time” for purposes of the Affordable Care Act rules, will be offered the opportunity to participate in the new Conference’s health plan.
3. The new Conference will provide Affordable Health Benefits to eligible participants, including clergy under appointment to local churches and conference staff (lay and clergy). Any local church that meets the 50 FTE threshold is an “Applicable Large Employer” and will be responsible for providing health benefits to their staff as required by the ACA, except for their appointed clergy who may be participants in the new Conference’s plan.
4. The new Conference will cost share family coverage.
5. The cost of medical benefits will not be an issue in the appointment process because of the use of a blended rate plan.
6. Participation in the plan is mandatory for eligible lay and clergy.
7. The new Conference will provide an Employee Assistance Plan that includes counseling and mental health support.
8. The new Conference will have a wellness program to encourage healthy living.
9. The new Conference will offer tax advantaged medical reimbursement accounts.
10. Our clergy will participate in the cost of their benefit package.
11. The new Conference will provide access to a plan for Dental and Vision coverage.

12. The new Conference will offer a competitive and comprehensive benefit plan.
13. The new Conference benefit package will include a prescription drug plan.
14. The new Conference needs to continue to find ways to reduce the cost of our participant pool.
15. The new Conference benefit package must be affordable for the new Conference and participants.
16. The new Conference will direct bill the cost of the benefit package for each participant. For local church-based participants, the bill will be sent to and paid by the local church, with a TBD cost share split between the church and clergy.
17. The new Conference plan must consider Methodist Health Systems (Memphis) to be “In Network”.

- Whereas: The 2020 Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference session has been delayed due to the COVID-19 pandemic, and therefore, action on formation of the new conference has likewise been delayed, and
- Whereas: In 2019, the Tennessee Annual Conference and Memphis Annual Conference sessions endorsed a set of goals and objectives for the newly formed conference, as well as a funding plan and guiding principle plan for benefits, and
- Whereas: In accordance with the actions taken at the 2019 annual conference sessions of the Memphis and Tennessee conferences, a resolution has been submitted to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference in which it will be asked to take the following action at its next session: that the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference approve realigning the boundaries of the Memphis and Tennessee conferences to form one new conference known as the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church, with boundaries coextensive with the current Tennessee and Memphis conferences, and authorizing such new conference to conduct an organizational meeting consisting of the voting membership (lay and clergy) of the Tennessee and Memphis conferences prior to commencement of the new conference, and to begin operations as a fully unified conference thereafter, all in accordance with a Plan of Union to be adopted by both conferences during their 2021 annual conference sessions; and
- Whereas: Despite the delay resulting from the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference postponement, the two conferences wish to continue to align their operations as much as possible to fulfill their jointly-held mission;

Now, therefore, be it resolved, in accordance with the actions taken at the 2019 annual conference sessions of the Memphis and Tennessee conferences, that the Connectional Table of the future Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference, as well as the committees on Finance and Administration of the Tennessee and Memphis Conferences, the trustees of both conferences, the newly-appointed Joint Distributing Committee, and other appropriate stakeholders continue working to develop the Plan of Union for the newly formed conference, to be considered by each annual conference at their 2021 annual conference sessions, with the goal that such Plan of Union shall govern the creation and structure of the new conference.

Be it further resolved, in accordance with the actions taken at the 2019 annual conference sessions of the Memphis and Tennessee conferences, that the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference be asked to take appropriate action at its next session in accordance with the resolution that has been submitted for its consideration, as described above.

Be it further resolved, that the Memphis Annual Conference takes the following actions in order to align the operations of the two conferences from the date of closure of annual conference 2020 until the conferences operate as one under the Plan of Union that will be presented at the 2021 annual conferences:

1. Approval of the new conference ministry structure, which is attached as an appendix to this resolution;
2. Selection of the teams required by the new conference ministry structure, as outlined in the report of the Nominations Committee;
3. Adoption of individual conference budgets, including some joint budgeting for the conferences, which shall be accomplished by separate vote;
4. Ratification of any other contracts necessary for organization and operation of the new conference;
5. Authorizing the execution of any necessary legal documents to finalize and complete the union of the two conferences;

Be it further resolved, that upon union of the two conferences after approval by the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, the name of the corporation currently known as Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc., be changed to Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc.; and

Be it further resolved, that the Memphis Annual Conference approves the merger of the corporate entity called “Memphis Conference of The United Methodist Church” into the corporate entity currently known as the “Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc.”, but to be renamed Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc., such merger to take place after approval by the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, and all other necessary prerequisites according to law.

Be it further resolved, that the Memphis Conference Board of Trustees shall be directed and empowered to take all necessary and appropriate steps to effectuate property transfers related to the creation of the new conference.

EXHIBIT 7 – Equitable Compensation Report

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION George L. Jensen/Tennessee and Dell King/Memphis, Chairs

The purpose of the Equitable Compensation Commission (ECC) is to support full-time clergy serving as pastors in the charges of the annual conference by: (a) recommending conference standards for pastoral support; (b) administering funds to be used in base compensation supplementation, and (c) providing counsel and advisory material on pastoral support to district superintendents and committees on pastor-parish relations; and (d) submitting an arrearage policy to be adopted by the annual conference. This purpose is consistent with the provision of ¶ 625 of The Book of Discipline (2016).

We recommend the following to the conference for action:

I. MINIMUM COMPENSATION LEVELS:

The commission recommends the following minimum compensation levels for 2022. Compensation does not include housing, which is the obligation of the charge, ¶252.4e however a charge without a parsonage is expected to pay a minimum of 25 percent of the minimum compensation amount for housing. Also note that this does not include the local church’s fund for reimbursement to pastors for expenses incurred in the fulfillment of their professional responsibilities (“accountable reimbursement”). That reimbursement is in addition to the pastor’s salary ¶ 627.

Full Conference, Provisional and Commissioned Members:	$43,701

II. QUALIFICATION PROCESS FOR EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

To qualify for an Equitable Compensation Grant, a charge must submit an application to the Commission on Equitable Compensation through their district superintendent. The application will explain in detail why conference funds should be used for this charge, and what efforts have been made to raise the funds needed to pay the pastor’s salary. Additionally, the application must explain the goals for the charge and pastor, and how it is engaging in its mission field. The fol-

Following information must be included with the application:

1. Equitable Compensation Commission Questionnaire
2. Current Clergy Compensation Package approved by charge conference
3. Church Audit or Financial Statement (income statement and balance sheet)
4. Current Year Church Budget
5. Current Year Church Statistical Report (Table 1,2,3)
6. Direct Deposit Form (all payments will be direct deposited into church's account)

The application must be signed by the SPRC or council chair, and district superintendent, and recommended by the cabinet to the Equitable Compensation Commission. If a grant application is approved by the commission, Administrative Services will be instructed to forward the funds monthly to the church's bank using ACH (direct deposit).

At the date of this submission, the appointments for 2021-22 have not been finalized. Therefore, the Commission on Equitable Compensation will meet with the bishop and cabinet from time to time as needed to determine the amount that will be awarded to various charges from this budgeted amount based on justified need and availability of funds.

III. ARREARAGE POLICY

According to The Book of Discipline (2016), ¶¶624.1 and 625.2d, the Commission on Equitable Compensation is to submit "an arrearage policy to be adopted by the annual conference". This policy is to address the situation where a church is slow or unable to pay the agreed upon compensation of its pastor.

1. In the event the local church treasurer becomes aware that the church will be unable to provide to the pastor full payment of a regularly scheduled payroll or housing allowance installment, the church treasurer shall immediately notify both verbally (within 24 hours) and in writing (within three days) the pastor, the lay leader, and the chairs of S/PPRC, finance, trustees, and the administrative/church council of the impending arrearage. Upon receipt of such notice, the chair of S/PPRC and/or the pastor shall immediately (within three days) notify the district superintendent of the impending arrearage. If the pastor does not receive an agreed upon payment and does not receive written notice from the local church treasurer required above, the pastor may initiate this process by notifying the district superintendent within 30 days of the missed payment. It is the pastor's responsibility to keep copies of all such written notifications and to provide additional written confirmation (see #8 below) to the district superintendent when an arrearage has taken place. Failure to document salary or benefit arrearages may result in a loss of compensation and/or forfeiture of benefits

2. Upon receipt of notice of a pending arrearage, the chair of S/PPRC shall immediately (within three days) call a meeting of the pastor, lay leader, and chairs of finance, trustees, the administrative/church council, and the district superintendent to discuss the financial situation and seek remedies to prevent an arrearage from occurring. Such remedies might include:

- Drawing from invested funds, including short-term borrowing from board-designated funds

- An emergency appeal for special giving from the congregation
- Emergency grants or loans from the district or conference

According to The Book of Discipline ¶624.1, such remedies cannot include a reduction in the pastor's compensation until the beginning of the next conference year.

3. If, after consultation among the lay leader and chairs of S/PPRC, finance, trustees, the administrative/church council, and district superintendent, it becomes apparent that the church may be facing a long-term financial crisis, the chair of S/PPRC shall notify in writing the pastor and district superintendent that an Equitable Compensation Subsidy Grant may be necessary to maintain compensation for the remainder of the conference year, or a change in pastoral compensation or appointment may be necessary at the beginning of the following conference year.

4. If the local church becomes delinquent in the pastor's compensation (i.e., more than 30 days delinquent), then the district superintendent shall notify the Commission on Equitable Compensation, which on its own initiative may do any or all the following, but not limited to:

- Sending a representative from CEC to meet with the local church and pastor to seek resolution of the issue
- Developing with the local church a payment plan so that the pastor receives full payment of compensation by the end of the conference year. The district superintendent shall be invited to participate in this process.

5. If the local church is already receiving a subsidy grant from the Commission on Equitable Compensation, the commission may also:

- Examine the original subsidy grant application to determine if the amount requested to meet minimum compensation was reduced
- Require an outside audit of all church funds in compliance with GCFA Guidelines (www.gcfa.org)
- Notify the district superintendent of its findings and recommendations in writing

6. ¶ 2543.1 of The Book of Discipline (2016) makes clear that no real property on which a church building or parsonage is located shall be mortgaged to pay for the current or budgeted expenses of a local church (including arrearages), nor shall the principal proceeds of a sale of any such property be so used. This provision shall apply alike to unincorporated and incorporated local churches.

7. In extreme and unresolved circumstances, the local church and/or pastor may petition a session of the annual conference, following proper procedures, for assistance in payment of the arrearage not to exceed the minimum conference compensation standards. However, it is the responsibility of the local church to provide a minimum compensation for its appointed clergy (¶624).

8. It is the responsibility of the pastor to provide evidence of an arrearage by providing documentation such as: treasurer's reports, charge conference reports of adopted salary and compensation, check stubs, W-2 forms, and a Certification of Payment form signed by the pastor, S/PPRC chair, trustee chair, treasurer, and administrative/church council chair. If such persons are not making themselves available to sign, the information will be provided with the signature of the pastor and the district superintendent.

9. The statute of limitations for filing a claim for funds from the annual conference (i.e., notification to the district superintendent of the arrearage) for any salary arrearage is one year from the date of the initial arrearage. Once an appointment ends the pastor no longer has claim on the local church for compensation funds (§342.4).

i. Church Conference Vote. At least two-thirds (2/3) of the professing members present at a church conference of Local Church voted to disaffiliate from The United Methodist Church for, among other reasons, “reasons of conscience regarding a change in the requirements and provisions of the Book of Discipline related to the practice of homosexuality or the ordination or marriage of self-avowed practicing homosexuals as resolved and adopted by the 2019 General Conference, or the actions or inactions of its annual conference related to these issues which follow.” The Local Church has provided documentation, to the satisfaction of Annual Conference, which evidences the result of the disaffiliation vote taken at the church conference on or about April 18, 2020. Such documentation was certified by an authorized officer of Local Church and is attached hereto as “Exhibit A” to this Disaffiliation Agreement.

ii. Annual Conference Vote. This Disaffiliation Agreement must be “ratified by a simple majority of the members . . . present and voting” at a duly-called session of Annual Conference, as required by Judicial Council Decision 1379 and ¶ 2529.1b(3).

Should either of the above not occur, this Disaffiliation Agreement shall immediately become null and void.

2. Applicability of ¶ 2501. Local Church acknowledges and agrees that pursuant to ¶ 2501 of the Discipline, Local Church holds all property, real and personal, tangible and intangible, in trust for the benefit of The United Methodist Church.

Local Church and any of its affiliates which have been included in the group tax exemption ruling will be removed as of the Disaffiliation Date.

5. Organizational Transition. Local Church shall take all steps necessary to close and/or dissolve any legal entities and to settle, liquidate, or transfer all assets and obligations of such entities, or to establish any new legal entities, or to modify its current organizing documents, as needed to effectuate its disaffiliation from The United Methodist Church to the satisfaction of Annual Conference. Local Church shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Annual Conference and its officers, directors, agents, and employees from any liability or costs (including reasonable attorney fees) resulting from any claim, action, or cause of action for damages to persons or property resulting from Local Church's failure to take all necessary steps as required by this Section 5.

6. Property. On the Disaffiliation Date, Local Church will have full ownership of the property and assets listed in "Exhibit B". The parties shall execute a separate disclaimer of interest agreement relative to the R.V. The parties shall ensure all necessary transfers or other transactions relating to the above properties are completed prior to the Disaffiliation Date. Any costs resulting from such transfers or other transactions shall be borne by Local Church. The parties further represent they have no pending lawsuit, charge, complaint, or other action against each other. Notwithstanding the foregoing releases and covenants not to sue, the parties may take action to enforce this Disaffiliation Agreement in any court where jurisdiction and venue are proper.

8. Time Limit. Should Local Church fail to satisfy all of its obligations set forth herein by December 31, 2023, this Disaffiliation Agreement shall be null and void.

10. Non-Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is held illegal or unenforceable in a judicial proceeding, the parties shall have the opportunity of trying to reach agreement regarding the modification to such provision necessary to make it legal and enforceable and if such agreement is not reached, then if such provision is an essential element of this Disaffiliation Agreement, then the entire Disaffiliation Agreement shall be deemed to be null and void.

11. Governing Law and Venue. This Disaffiliation Agreement is executed and delivered in, and shall be governed exclusively by the laws of the State of Tennessee, without giving effect to any conflict of law rule or principal that might require the application of the laws of another jurisdiction. The prevailing party in any such litigation shall also be entitled to its reasonable attorneys' fees and associated costs.

This Disaffiliation Agreement and its Exhibits constitute the entire agreement of whatsoever kind or nature existing between or among the parties with respect to the disaffiliation. Both parties acknowledge and agree that other than the Disclaimer of Interest Agreement entered by the parties regarding the Son's Trust, that they have no agreement of any kind, oral or written, outside the terms of this written Disaffiliation Agreement concerning the subject matter of this Disaffiliation Agreement and that any other agreements are superseded, terminated and replaced by the terms of this Disaffiliation Agreement. SECRETARY CERTIFICATION OF THE DISAFFILIATION VOTE

OF THE
MEMBERS OF THE SALEM UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

I, Myranel Bryant, as the undersigned Secretary of the Salem United Methodist Church ("Church") certify that I was the duly appointed Secretary of the Church when the vote of the Church members was taken to disaffiliate from United Methodist Church.

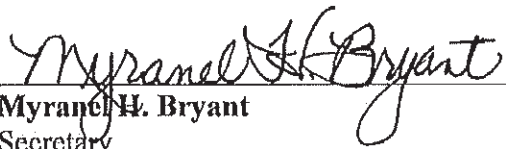

I can certify that the following events transpired as described:

1. The Church Council and members of Salem United Methodist Church met on Sunday, March 15, 2020, for a presentation by the Separation Team concerning options for remaining or disaffiliating with the United Methodist denomination. Following the presentation and discussion, Mr. Alfred Byard made a motion to conduct an official vote of the membership on whether or not to disaffiliate. The motion passed. The date for this vote was set for Saturday, April 18.

2. On April 1, 2020, all the Church members were mailed a letter explaining the options that had been presented at the March 15, 2020 meeting and informing them that those present had approved an official Church-wide vote on whether or not to disaffiliate. Included in this mailing were instructions on when, where, and how the vote would be conducted. Numerous reminders through the bulletin, emails, texts, and public announcements were made following the letter.

3. On Saturday, April 18, 2020, the Church members participated in a "drive-up" voting process. Because of the pandemic, members remained in their vehicles, drove up on one side entrance of the church, and were met by members of the separation team in masks and gloves. Once the team received a completed information card from the member and checked the roll to confirm their membership, the member was handed a ballot on which they either marked, "Yes," to disaffiliate, or "No," to not disaffiliate. After marking their ballot, they drove around to the opposite side of the church building and placed their ballot in a closed box held by a separation team member.

4. As recommended by our Parish Nurse, the ballots were not touched for three days, but were locked in the church's safe. On Tuesday, April 21, separation team members, David Adams, Susan Austin, Alfred Byard, Myranel Bryant, Kathleen Hayes, and Jerry Wright, met to count the votes. There were 128 ballots cast. Two voted "No;" one voted "Undecided;" one left their ballot blank, three non-professing members voted "Yes," but were not counted, and 121 voted "Yes," to disaffiliate.

Minutes of the Church/Charge Conference held May 10, 2021:

Conference was called for the purpose of the Cainsville and Lascassas churches to determine, by way of membership voting, whether to continue to be a part of the United Methodist Denomination, or to become stand-alone churches.

District Superintendent Chip Hunter began with the Scripture from Ezekiel 37:1-14, The Valley of Dry Bones, spoke briefly on the scripture, followed with prayer.

Chip Hunter: Called the meeting to order.

He began with explanation that, qualifications for this meeting, consisted of emails and letters previously sent to the membership of both churches 10 days prior, with paperwork for verification.

He continued, with explanation of the ballot, reading of the entire disaffiliation agreement, explaining each section as read.

Explained, 2/3 vote would be necessary for disaffiliation, members must be present for votes to count.

Disaffiliation date would be in the middle of June, after annual conference.

Under Paragraph 2553, the local church would have the right to retain their property, but changes to deeds, other necessary paperwork would be paid by the local church.

Charges paid to Conference are unfunded retirement/pension liability, and 2 years apportionments.

Cainsville: $31,727.00 and $5,338.00 X 2 = $10,676.00 for a total of $42,403.00

Lascassas: $29,994.00 and $5038.00 X 2 = $10,076.00 for a total of $40,020.00

Local churches would be required to change name and sign with cross and flame.

Local churches required to change tax exempt status to obtain 501©3 status, each to bear set-up cost.

Time limit for this particular action ending 12/31/23.

Opened session for questions:

Payments must be made before disaffiliation can be complete, but nothing can be done until after annual conference meets June 9-10, 2021.

Chip read and explained ballot before passing them out.

Jim Newman read sealed ballots, 2 form each church, although they could not be counted, it is important to know their hearts: Lascassas – 2 for no Cainsville – 2 for yes.

Ballots were counted: Cainsville: 18 yes, 0 no Lascassas: 12 yes, 0 no

Disaffiliation date was set for June 18, 2021.

Jim Newman closed with prayer.

Minutes of the Church/Charge Conference held May 10, 2021:

Conference was called for the purpose of the Cainsville and Lascassas churches to determine, by way of membership voting, whether to continue to be a part of the United Methodist Denomination, or to become stand-alone churches.

District Superintendent Chip Hunter began with the Scripture from Ezekiel 37:1-14, The Valley of Dry Bones, spoke briefly on the scripture, followed with prayer.

Chip Hunter: Called the meeting to order.

He began with explanation that, qualifications for this meeting, consisted of emails and letters previously sent to the membership of both churches 10 days prior, with paperwork for verification.

He continued, with explanation of the ballot, reading of the entire disaffiliation agreement, explaining each section as read.

Explained, 2/3 vote would be necessary for disaffiliation, members must be present for votes to count.

Disaffiliation date would be in the middle of June, after annual conference.

Under Paragraph 2553, the local church would have the right to retain their property, but changes to deeds, other necessary paperwork would be paid by the local church.

Charges paid to Conference are unfunded retirement/pension liability, and 2 years apportionments.

Cainsville: $31,727.00 and $5,338.00 X 2 = $10,676.00 for a total of $42,403.00

Lascassas: $29,994.00 and $5038.00 X 2 = $10,076.00 for a total of $40,020.00

Local churches would be required to change name and sign with cross and flame.

Local churches required to change tax exempt status to obtain 501©3 status, each to bear set-up cost.

Parties would agree not to sue one another after disaffiliation.

Time limit for this particular action ending 12/31/23.

Opened session for questions:

Payments must be made before disaffiliation can be complete, but nothing can be done until after annual conference meets June 9-10, 2021.

Chip read and explained ballot before passing them out.

Jim Newman read sealed ballots, 2 form each church, although they could not be counted, it is important to know their hearts: Lascassas – 2 for no Cainsville – 2 for yes.

Ballots were counted: Cainsville: 18 yes, 0 no Lascassas: 12 yes, 0 no

Disaffiliation date was set for June 18, 2021.

Jim Newman closed with prayer.

MEMOIRS

We celebrate the lives of individuals who are saints!

Some of them, with us, are a part of the whole body of living Christian believers, and others who have finished their lives here on earth are a part of the church triumphant! Some have touched us compassionately so we could experience the love of the Lord while others have reminded us to be faithful and avoid drifting into life away from God.

They have all shaken our being—all have been faithful examples of lives of wholeness, working for justice.

O God of both the living and the dead...

... who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Lord, you have examined me.

You know me.

You know when I sit down and when I stand up.

Even from far away, you comprehend my plans.

You study my traveling and resting.

You are thoroughly familiar with all my ways.

There isn't a word on my tongue, Lord, that you don't already know completely.

You surround me—front and back.

You put your hand on me.

That kind of knowledge is too much for me;

it's so high above me that I can't fathom it.

Where could I go to get away from your spirit?

Where could I go to escape your presence?

If I went up to heaven, you would be there.

If I went down to the grave, you would be there too!

If I could fly on the wings of dawn, stopping to rest only on the far side of the ocean—

even there your hand would guide me;

even there your strong hand would hold me tight!

If I said, "The darkness will definitely hide me;

the light will become night around me," even then the darkness isn't too dark for you!

Nighttime would shine bright as day, because darkness is the same as light to you!

Caroline Danielle (Dani) Chadwick Beasley

November 27, 1939 – September 20, 2020

Caroline Danielle (Dani) Chadwick Beasley age 80, died September 20, 2020, following prolonged illness and 20 days of hospice. She is preceded in death by: loving husband of 58 years, Dr. Rev. James “Jim” Hiram Beasley, Jr. (5/29/1938–03/28/2020); father, Claude Simpson Estelle Chadwick; and mother, Mary Evelyn Jenkins Chadwick. Her beloved sister, Betty Ann Chadwick Russell, died October 1, 2020, only 11 days after Dani passed. She is survived by daughter, Laura Elizabeth Beasley Lockett Yaros (Michael); son, James “Trey” Hiram Beasley, III, (Jean); granddaughter, Sarah Ellen Lockett Ford (Cody); grandsons, Clay Chadwick Lockett and James “Quade” Hiram Beasley IV; and numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Hi! This is Laura Beth Beasley (Lockett Yaros), Dani’s daughter. Writing this obituary is difficult. There is no way to do my mother justice from memory alone. Aunt Betty Ann, upon whom I was relying for information, died 11 days after Mom did, leaving me in a conundrum. I finally searched Mom’s prolific letters to me and our family for inspiration.

I think this one about coming home is apropos to the transition she has made into the next life. When I expressed sadness nearing the end of a life-changing course of study in China, Mom related to me her own feelings of a magical summer she had spent working at Yellowstone Park.

About coming home—when I was at Yellowstone, I wished that all of us would be stopped at that time and place like flies in amber, for I had never had so much fun. I dreaded homecoming. I imagine there is some ambivalence in your feelings: the good thing is that everything has worked so well—It is hard to give up something good. The thing to remember, is this. Ahem.

Many good things also lie in your future. If we had all entered a time warp at Yellowstone, separate from everything else, I would have never had, nor known, you and Trey. Life in its joy and grief, depth and height, love and loathing, challenge and retreat, mutuality and distance, intimacy and separation, times of low status and high, of closeness to God and turning away from Him and back again even closer—these things you have barely begun. The biggest, hardest transitions are behind you.

As usual, Mom was right. Now, the absolute biggest hardest transition from this life to the next is behind her.

Dani Chadwick was born in Nashville, Tennessee, November 27, 1939, shortly after Hitler invaded Poland. Her parents, who met while students at Vanderbilt University, chose to stay in Nashville to raise their children. Her mother was from West Tennessee, the quintessential Southern belle and teacher; her father, raised in Carthage Texas, a biology professor/geneticist at Vanderbilt. Her sister, Betty Ann, was her mentor and crime boss. They would both dissolve in laughter telling the story of making contraband fudge while being paid by their parents to babysit each other. Dani’s earliest memories were of World War II. She remembered rationing, planting a Victory Garden, and chasing the boy next door with a freshly severed chicken’s head. When her naval officer father sailed on cargo ships to Europe, she would lie in bed, hand outstretched to make a lighthouse to guide him home safely.

With this vivid imagination and rescuer’s heart, she later pictured herself as Roy Rogers, carrying a pair of six-shooter cap guns holstered at the waist, ready to save anyone in need. She was a born animal whisperer, which enabled her to train her cat to use (and flush!) a toilet and hone her skills on horseback in her father’s home town of Carthage, Texas. Despite once getting thrown from a horse startled by a rattlesnake, she learned to ride not only bareback, but standing. Being raised with the privilege of highly educated parents in Music City, she was given unique opportunities to shine as a student, actress, singer, pianist, girl scout, model, journalist, and public speaker—eventually following in her parents’ footsteps to become a teacher. On a serious note, she and her mother delivered food and visited her ailing African American housekeeper, at which time Dani noticed the tremendous disparity between her own life and Millie’s. This would be very important to her once she was an adult able to directly support and promote all people.

Dani’s first play was directed by Sarah Cannon, aka Minnie Pearl, of Grand Ole Opry fame, at West End Methodist Church. By age 10 she was rated excellent in the Tennessee state piano festival, acted at the Nashville Children’s Theater in “Hans Brinker and the Silver Skates,” and was featured on country music and actor Tex Ritter’s television show singing “Home on the Range” from the Belle Meade Theatre. According to an article in the Tennessean, she “created a sensation” leading an AAUW (American Association of University Women) square dance with her father. She attended Fortnightly Club in 7th and 8th grades, which honed her manners, character, and ballroom dance skills a la Nashville society. The family transferred membership from West End Methodist to Calvary Methodist in Green Hills when she was in junior high and she became an active member of MYF (Methodist Youth Fellowship). She would later get married at Calvary UMC and serve there with her future husband, Jim Beasley, starting in 1982.

At Hillsboro High school in Nashville, Dani was a champion in debate and public speaking. She took first place in the Davidson County Forensic League with her Original Oratory and won the DAR Award on Americanism for her writing. She was co-editor and chief of the Hillsboro newspaper, Hilltopics, corresponding secretary of the Middle Tennessee High School Press Association, secretary-treasurer of Quill and Scroll, and guest columnist of the Tennessean. She was also an officer of Les Bon Temps club, president of the Nashville chapter of CAR, DAR State Conference Page, French Prix D’Honneur medalist, Latin medalist, counselor at Girl Scout camp Sequoyah in Bristol, Virginia, model with Castner Knott Teen Board, and Auburn Fair Queen. She graduated Suma Cum Laude at age 17.

Dani went from Hillsboro to Vanderbilt, where she continued in journalism as features editor of the Vanderbilt Hustler, modeled with Cain Sloan’s College Board, was a member of AOπ, Sigma Chi Sweetheart, and Pi Kappa Alpha Dream girl. In the midst of being the “it” girl, she was found to have a bone tumor in her leg. The tumor was treated with radiation and bone grafts and she continued school at Vanderbilt on crutches. It was during this time that she met our Dad, Jim Beasley, at the Vanderbilt Christian Student Union. Despite her transcendent beauty, she had found that guys would not even make eye contact with her while she was on crutches. She had been praying to meet a nice boy, and he was the only one to directly approach her. A healed Dani spent the next summer at Yellowstone Park working, came back to Nashville, graduated Phi Beta Kappa, and married Jim Beasley June 20, 1962, at Dani’s home church, Calvary United Methodist.

Jim and Dani were assigned Edmondson Heights United Methodist Church in South Nashville as their first church together. From there, they moved to Baxter, where Dani taught high school, coached a winning debate team, and served as pianist and choir director. Her students from Baxter still love and admire her over 50 years later. I, Laura Beth, was born in 1966. We moved to Cookeville shortly thereafter, where Jim was the youth minister at First United Methodist Church. My brother Trey was born in 1969 and we moved to Clarksville, Tennessee, in 1970 where our parents served at Hilldale UMC.

In Clarksville, Dani tutored underprivileged children in our home. She established and ran a summer tutoring program for hundreds of Clarksville children from the Hilldale UMC building with a staff of amazingly talented volunteers, all women. Mom led Girl Scouts and children’s choir, advocated for people of color, and organized a network to enroll hundreds of unrecognized domestic workers in Social Security. She taught me (and later, Trey), how to cook, sew, and run a household, which I did, at 8 years old. After multiple surgeries and misdiagnoses in 1972-1973, Dani was found to have an advanced rare bone cancer caused by the radiation treatment she received in college. We did not have enough money for her to get definitive treatment, so the church conference raised $5,000 to send her to the Mayo Clinic, where the last-resort effort of a leg amputation saved her life. Despite living with disfigurement and disability, she not only raised Trey and me, she showed that she could do more than a “normal” person with two legs. She positively affected many lives with her faith, support, example, and tenacity, teaching Trey and me to reach out to the disenfranchised, the new, those searching for a place in the world. Jesus used her as an emissary to show his love.

In 1976, we moved to Hermitage UMC, where Dani became the original soccer mom with a home business. She typed papers for college students, taught and coached drama and public speaking, and traded lessons for lessons for us with other moms. She hosted monthly ice cream socials for new church members and directed plays such as “Silent Night-The Story of Hans Gruber,” in which Trey played the title character. I was especially proud when she wrote controversial letters to the editors in Nashville newspapers, such as one during the Iran hostage crisis in which she encouraged Jews, Christians, and Muslims to come together. She fed and housed multiple international students and ministers, including Abel Hendricks, president of the South African Methodist Church.

We moved again to Calvary UMC (where Jim and Dani were married!), in 1982. Dani directed children’s choir and plays (not giving up on shy children such as Brandon Baxter), and showed herself to be “cool” among my peers. I remember John Gaskill saying that he could really talk with her about issues serious to him, and she listened. I guess that is something reserved for children not one’s own (haha). Mom fostered relationships across communities, typed over 9,000 pages to pay for me to go to the Duke Study in China program, taught community college, and had the dubious honor of one of her students selling his report papers on the internet for money.

Dani and Jim moved to Crossville in 1991 where they served Crossville First UMC. She established and managed a program that matched senior citizens and kids in elementary schools across Cumberland county to be reading buddies. Every time a child read with a senior buddy, they received a book. Mom bought hundreds of books from Scholastic to give to children in the tutoring program. For each book a child read, they received a ticket, which could be used to purchase an item from the treasure chest—stickers, pencils, candy—and more. For instance, near Mother’s Day, Mom had jewelry donated for kids to buy for their mothers with the tickets. The most poignant recollection I have from that gig was demonstrated by a kid named Jacob Kilby. Mom brought in fresh peaches as an option for purchase with tickets. Instead of choosing candy, etc. Jacob chose a peach. He ate it right there and said “I really like apples.” His first peach was won with reading skills!

During Jim and Dani’s time at Crossville FUMC, grandchildren Sarah, Clay, and Quade were born. Dani took Spanish classes to be able to converse with Sarah when her kindergarten curriculum included Spanish, and there was a Spanish day at Camp Nana as well as tea with the “Queen,” golf lessons, fishing, and swimming. She cared for Clay while I was in graduate school and taught him, at the tender age of two, to make butternut cake, sitting on her kitchen floor. She bragged about Quade as our little Viking, taking delight in his intelligence as well as his close physical appearance to his Dad.

Dani talked about death, and dead people, a lot in her last few years; not in a morbid, but in a matter-of-fact way. She habitually read obituaries and once said of a parishioner, “He died of something fatal,” which caused the rest of us to laugh so hard we nearly fell over. When she entered rehab after hospitalization in 2017, a physical therapist asked what her goal was, and she said, “To die and be with Jesus.” She was always genuine, unique—and entertaining in her perspective. We all have a Nana story. One of my favorites is from Thanksgiving 2005.

Our family usually went around the table with each person answering the question, “What are you thankful for?” That year “The Nana” asked a different question of us all, “Who is your favorite dictator?” After a stunned silence, we all tried to come up with something. I don’t even remember what I said then, but my favorite dictator is now Katherine the Great.

I have just come across a letter from our mother to the family, written July 31, 1994. Vermont: “Urged by Jim, I took a glider ride. The glider was towed behind a plane over a low mountain and up to a high one, then let go. The Vermont countryside was like a board game, neat and perfect. If ever reincarnated, I would like to be an osprey—tough life, but the sensation is incredible.”

Now that she is released from a body that can no longer walk, I sometimes envision Mom flying high among the clouds or riding up to Dad on a horse. Most of all, I see her running, with boundless joy into his arms. She and Daddy gave their lives to God, and now she has obtained that goal—to die and be with Jesus. Amen.

Edward Johnson Britt

December 21, 1950 – December 1, 2020

The Rev. Dr. Edward Johnson Britt was the firstborn child of Charles and Blanche Britt. Born in Pennsylvania while the Britts were on furlough from their missionary work, he spent his first five years in Liberia, West Africa, before returning home to Alabama. There, he and his two sisters, Mary Claire and Martha, grew up in the Alabama-West Florida Conference where their father, the Rev. Charles R. Britt, served multiple churches as a United Methodist minister and later as a professor at Auburn University.

After high school, Ed attended Auburn University for two years before entering Scarritt College in Nashville. He received his BA and MA from Scarritt and then attended Vanderbilt Divinity School, where he earned his Master of Divinity and became an ordained elder in the Tennessee Conference. He later attended Columbia Theological Seminary in Decatur, Georgia, where he received his Doctorate of Ministry.

Scarritt College brought Ed more than two degrees. A meaningful location, as his parents had met on the steps of Wightman Chapel and he had been baptized in the chapel as an infant, Ed met his wife, Gail Bradley, while at Scarritt, and they were married in the same chapel. The two were married for 47 years and raised two daughters, Dr. Virginia (Ginny) Britt and Rachel Claire Britt Hagewood. In 2003, Ed welcomed son-in-law Mark Hagewood into the family. Ed's life was filled with friends, family, and loved ones, but none brought him more joy than his two grandsons, Luke (9) and Ben (4). He most looked forward to retirement because it meant spending more time with them, and once retired in 2015 he did just that.

He served many wonderful churches in the Tennessee Conference as well as in the conference office as the director of Communications and as director of the pensions program. His ministry was guided and shaped by many mentors, first and foremost by the role model of his father, Charles, who passed to Ed his favorite saying: "Don't just be good, be good for something!"

Once in Tennessee, Rev. Bob Lewis became a loving mentor when Ed served as Bob's intern. Bob preached a sermon titled "Rhinstone Cowboy." The two planned for Ed to introduce the sermon by playing Glen Campbell's song of the same name. In Bob's words, "As we waited for the prelude to begin, a man asked Ed if he was going to play the guitar. Ed replied, 'Yes, and sing as well.' The gentleman said, 'If you do, I will walk out of the service.' Well, when Ed played and sung, the man walked out. The rest of the congregation loved it. Ed was more than an intern. He was like an associate pastor. He was with us for two years until he graduated and became associate pastor at Franklin First. We have been friends since."

He was supported by many friends and colleagues in ministry. His daughters affectionately recall his friendship with "the Jims"—Jim Norton and Jim Clark—colleagues in the Tennessee Conference who shared ministry and support with one another as they served in the Middle Tennessee area. He always looked forward to reconnecting with friends at annual conference, even more so once retired, as it truly became the relaxed and joyful reunion he so desired. He formed a close friendship with Rick Isbell while at Scarritt, and the two stayed close for 49 years, no matter the distance, traveling to play golf together and keeping alive their Auburn/UT rivalry.

A major part of Ed's ministry and life-long love was singing, playing his guitar, and writing music. While his service as a pastor is certainly known throughout the conference, he is best known for his musical collaborations with Joe Bowers in the duo "Bowers and Britt." The pair traveled in the 1970s and 1980s to conferences, retreats, and churches across the country, recording three albums along the way. Though the two remained close and continued to perform together on occasion, Ed went on to write and perform music on his own, recording one album and multiple other tracks, and finally publishing a book of his music weeks before his death. In every song he wrote or performed was an undercurrent of the strong faith his life imbued.

His death brought his relationship with Wightman Chapel at Scarritt College full circle as a small number of friends and family gathered to celebrate and memorialize him there on December 5. As the location of his parents' meeting, his baptism, and his marriage to Gail, it was a fitting location to celebrate the life that had touched so many. At the service, the words of one of his songs were shared:

“A Few Things I’ve Learned,” words and music by Ed Britt
Won’t you let me down slowly, boys, that hole looks so lonely and cold.
Cover me over with warm red clay soil, and make sure my kinfolks are told.
I’ve lived a good long life; I’ve loved and been loved in turn.
But now that I’ve come to the end of my road, here are a few things I’ve learned.

(Chorus)

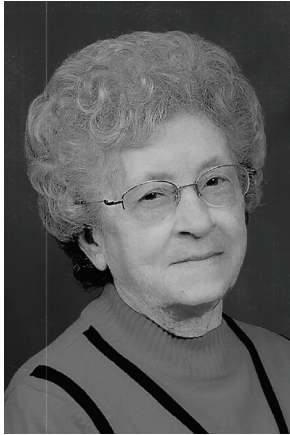

It’s better to give than receive, it’s better to build bridges than walls, it’s better that you have loved and lost, than to never have loved at all.
You’ll learn more from your failure than you will from all your success.
Faith, Hope, and Love are the greatest gifts that you will ever possess.
If you come to visit my grave and sit for a while here with me, don’t shed a tear for all that’s been lost, just be glad for all you can see.
Yesterday’s dead and gone, and tomorrow may never be seen, all that you have is right here and now, so strive for the best you can be.

Ed was preceded in death by his parents Blanche Lucille Beck Britt and the Rev. Charles Robert Britt, and his sister Martha Helen Mitchell. He is survived by his wife of 47 years, Gail B. Britt; daughters Dr. Virginia “Ginny” Britt and Rachel Britt Hagewood (Mark); grandchildren Lucas and Benjamin Hagewood; sister Mary Claire Cowen (Jeff); nephew Britt Cowen; nieces Sarah Mitchell Helmkamp (Matt) and Rebecca Mitchell Burchfield (Ben); and many extended family and friends.

Hilda Scurlock Buchanan

October 16, 1923 – October 23, 2020

Hilda Louise Scurlock was born on October 16, 1923, in Hurricane Mills, Tennessee. She grew up in and around Humphreys County, Tennessee, spending much time with her older sister, Nettie Mae. After leaving school, she worked in a local factory where she met Herman Davis Buchanan. They fell in love and were married on October 10, 1942.

Hilda and Herman's initial lives together did not include the church. This changed in the early 1950's as first Hilda, then Herman, opened themselves to Christ at a small, rural Methodist church. Herman was called to preach and began this process. Hilda supported him and assisted as he completed the correspondence training. He was appointed to his first charge outside of Clifton in 1954. Thus, began their itinerant life.

Hilda lived her ministry by keeping the home/parsonage. Sometimes, this included working in a factory to make ends meet while at other times focusing more intently on supporting Herman's ministry and maintaining the household. Herman's appointments included as many as six congregations, and she insisted on riding the circuit with him. She was regular in attendance at worship but usually did not participate in other congregational groups.

This changed in 1974 when Herman was appointed to be the manager of Methodist Assembly Grounds at Beersheba Springs. For the next four years, she oversaw the dining, preparation, and office activities at Beersheba. She really seemed to be in her element. When they left Beersheba, she returned to her ministry of support until Herman's sudden death in 1983.

Immediately after Herman's death, Hilda returned to Humphreys County to live in her parents' home that she and Herman had purchased. She remained in Humphreys County and attended Methodist Mission until she left to live with her oldest child, Eddie. On October 23, 2020, one week after her 97th birthday, she had a stroke and died at Fort Sanders Regional Medical Center in Knoxville, Tennessee.

Hilda's faith and personality developed in the rural areas of Middle Tennessee, on the dirt roads and in the rural and small-town churches where she and Herman lived their lives and developed their faith. Anyone close to her would tell you that she was decisive, loyal, and tenacious, whether in relationships with others or God.

James (Duane) Cowan

June 5, 1937 – August 11, 2020

Rev. James “Duane” Cowan was born June 5, 1937, on the family farm in the community of Dot in Logan County, Kentucky. He was the oldest of three children for J. L. and Lois Cowan.

Duane joined the Army in 1956. Following basic training and radio school, he was shipped to Korea where he served his two years in the Army. After discharge in 1958, he returned to the family farm and joined the National Guard, where he served for the next five years.

In 1965, Duane went to work at Odom Sausage Company in Madison, Tennessee. He left Odom’s in 1969 for a job in Springfield, Tennessee, at Carmet Division of Allegheny Ludlum, a machine shop.

It was at Carmet he met the love of his life, Gale, who worked there as the assistant office manager. On an icy-snowy day in February, 1971, he called in to say he could not make it in to work. He always said when Gale answered the phone, he knew she was someone he would like to date. It took Duane three months to get up the nerve to ask Gale for a date. They were married on November 24, 1971, and Duane moved to Springfield. After a couple of months, they decided it was in the best interest for everyone that one of them should change jobs (Duane’s uncle was the general manager and their boss).

Duane went to work at Sears and Roebuck as their outside sales person, selling carpet, fencing, etc. Three years later, a friend approached him and inquired if he would be interested in selling automobiles. Having always had an interest in automobiles, he jumped at the chance to sell them. He spent the next 15 years selling automobiles.

Duane professed his faith in Christ and was baptized at the age of 10 in the Pentecostal faith. Later, he joined the Nazarene Church and served in many aspects of the church which included working with the youth. When he and Gale married, she was a member of the Baptist Church where they were married. After trying each denomination, they chose Woodland Street United Methodist Church, where Gale had started her faith journey and had a lot of family there. They immediately joined the choir, worked with the youth, and any other area of the church where they could work for the Lord.

Over the years, Duane felt the Lord calling him into the ministry but like many, gave reasons why he could not answer that call. After he attended lay speaking school, God’s call became so strong he surrendered. In late 1988 he started preparing for the ministry.

In 1990, Duane was appointed to the Greenwood-Pleasant Grove Charge in Lawrence County, which also included Mt. Lebanon United Methodist Church, where he spent the next seven years. Duane entered college at Martin Methodist in the fall of 1990. In 1995, he graduated from Martin Methodist and the Emory Course of Study School.

Duane was appointed to Charlotte-Fagan United Methodist Church in Dickson County, where he served the next five years. His next appointment was Mt. Carmel United Methodist Church in the Clarksville District, where he served until 2005, at which time he retired.

After retirement, he started the complete restoration of a 1973 VW Beetle and a 1972 VW. After completing these cars, he started restoration of a 1985 Dodge Ram pickup truck. While doing these restorations, he worked as the PR person for Chick-fil-A at Rivergate Mall. In 2008, he came out of retirement and was appointed to Woodland Street United Methodist Church in Springfield where he served until 2012.

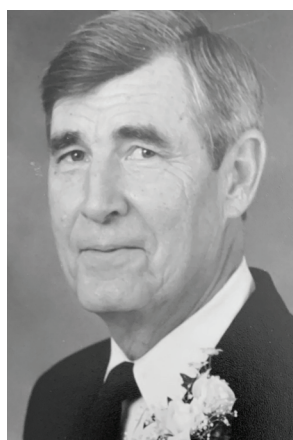

The year 2013 started a seven-year journey through many serious illnesses. Duane was like the Energizer Bunny; he would always bounce back. On August 11, 2020, he entered his eternal home and into the presence of his Lord.

Duane was always a kind, loving person, a hard worker, a very humble individual, always trying to be positive in every situation. He was preceded in death by his parents, his brother Clark, and his daughter Linda. He is survived by his wife Gale, sister Bea, and daughter Marsha.

Dorothy (Dot) Pack Fielder

April 22, 1942 – March 23, 2021

On March 23, 2021, Dot Fielder, retired United Methodist pastor, counselor, dog lover, talented cross-stitcher, avid reader, dear friend to many, and beloved mom, grandmom, and mother-in-law, passed away in the arms of her daughter at Summit Hospital in Hermitage, Tennessee. Her death was the end of a year-long decline in physical, mental, and emotional health due to isolation during the COVID pandemic, a victim of coronavirus in spite of never contracting the disease.

Born in Cleveland, Tennessee, on April 22, 1942, Dot spent her school years in Oak Ridge and remained a proud Oak Ridger at heart throughout her 79 years. She was the only child of Marcus Pack, an electrical substation operator at the Oak Ridge K-25 uranium plant of the Manhattan Project, and Elizabeth Armstrong Pack, a gifted piano performer and teacher.

Dot graduated Oak Ridge High School and attended Emory and Henry College before marrying Nick Fielder in 1963 and moving to the Pacific Northwest, the first of her 22 moves throughout her life. On Vashon Island off the Seattle mainland in the late 60s, she discovered her true calling as a Jeep-driving hippie earth mother, baking bread, weaving beautiful fabrics, and blissfully raising daughter Karin and Alaskan Malamute Shami. Over the next decade of working as administrative assistant by day and dissertation typist by night, Dot supported Nick during his archaeology studies in Knoxville and Moscow, Idaho, and she was always at her happiest hanging out with the archeology community everywhere they lived. She went on to earn her bachelor degree in American Studies from UT Knoxville and then worked as executive assistant to senior partners at Touche Ross, the precursor to public accounting giant Deloitte.

At age 50, Dot changed careers from the corporate sector to ministry for The United Methodist Church, graduating with her Master of Divinity degree from Vanderbilt University Divinity School in 1994 and interning at West End UMC. She pastored at several churches in the Tennessee Conference, including Crossville First UMC, Cookeville First UMC, and Tulip Street UMC in East Nashville, before retiring in 2004 after a bout with breast cancer. Her favorite ministry was with small groups, and at each church, she established groups for Stephen Ministry, Emmaus Walks, grief support, divorce recovery, and other programs to support parishioners. Her final church home was Grace UMC in Mt. Juliet.

After retirement, she spent her days producing intricate cross-stitching pieces as a member of the Embroiders Guild of America, spending time with the two canine loves of her life, Toby and Ellie, writing, keeping up with Facebook friends, posting liberal memes, affirming diversity and LGBTQ rights, challenging stereotypes, advocating for reconciling congregations in The United Methodist Church, volunteering, and celebrating her family including grandchildren Kathryn Nicole Weaver (Chris Denmark) and Xan Weaver (Lydia Hentrich), daughter Karin Fielder Weaver and daughter-in-law Brandy Weaver, and her forever family/ex-husband/best friends/co-grandparents Nick Fielder and Betty Bunch, as well as a host of cousins and friends across the country. She will be deeply missed as an empathetic, compassionate, creative, humble, encouraging, funny, intelligent woman who was much loved by all who knew her.

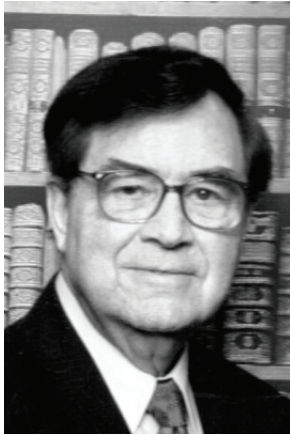

A family graveside memorial service was held in Madisonville, Tennessee, on Easter Sunday April 4, 2021; followed by an informal Nashville memorial around her birthday on April 22.

In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to Hands On Nashville (www.hon.org/donate), Old Friends Senior Dog Sanctuary (www.ofsds.org), or FiftyForward (www.fiftyforward.org/donate).

Mildred Ann Grammer

May 10, 1931 – September 8, 2020

Mildred Ann (Millie) Grammer, age 89 of Madison, Tennessee, passed away September 8, 2020.

When she and her husband Del first married, Millie dropped out of college to work for the Federal Reserve Bank, since they could not afford for them both to attend college. She went on to conduct “man on the street” reporting for a marketing research company, gathering consumer response for new products.

Her dream job though was working for Odom’s Tennessee Pride Sausage Company. She was promoted to credit manager in 1973 and retired 25 years later. During her years with Odom’s, Millie attended evening classes to complete her bachelor’s degree in business from Tennessee State University at age 53, while helping the company grow from six employees to 70, with distributors throughout the US and overseas.

Instrumental in establishing the Food and Food Services group in Nashville, she represented Odom’s in the NACM-Cincinnati Meat Packers of America and the NACM-Southeast Unit Food and Allied Lines Group. As a member of the executive committee, she spearheaded the improvement of the association’s bylaws and served on the Salary and Benefits Committee for four years. Millie also served as state treasurer for the Tennessee Jaycettes and has been a member of the Madison Circle King's Daughters since 1993. She and Del also served as the food chairpersons for Madison Hillbilly Days.

Shortly after her retirement from Odom's, her former daughter-in-law Zan Martin asked her to step in and assist in unraveling an accounting problem for her advertising agency, Martin & Company. She was named general manager in 1996 and retired from that position 18 years later. Never one to sit still for long, she was hired by King's Daughter's Development Center as development coordinator 10 years ago and remained employed until her death.

All who knew her were awed and inspired by Millie's love for her Lord and Savior. A lifelong member of The United Methodist Church, she taught Sunday school, sang in the choir, and served on councils and committees at every church she attended while her husband Del pastored various Middle Tennessee churches. She first attended City Road Chapel as a baby, and since has been a member periodically her entire life where she participated as a Sunday school teacher, member of the choir, and served as trustee. Most recently she chaired the finance committee.

Volunteerism could have been Millie's middle name. She was a delegate for Soroptimists International where she served as president several years traveling throughout the United States, Canada, Turkey, and Japan, and then as governor for the Southern Region encompassing Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, and Florida. She was named to the U.S. Committee for Employment of the Handicapped, responsible for investigating and informing over 40,000 clubs how ill-equipped our country is to handle the handicapped. In her spare time, she loved working in what only can be described as her show-worthy home garden.

As a lifelong member of the Madison community, Millie has volunteered in just about every philanthropic activity where there was a need. On August 29, 2020, a representative from the Tennessee State Legislature presented her with a resolution at her home, recognizing and honoring Millie for the servant she has been, not only to the community, but the entire state of Tennessee.

Jerry Martin Hilton

September 4, 1933 – July 25, 2020

Jerry Martin Hilton was born at home in Bentonia, Mississippi, September 4, 1933, to Otto and Frances Hilton. He transitioned July 25, 2020, in Nashville, Tennessee. He is survived by his wife of 66 years, Dottie Hampton Hilton; sons Robert and Richard; daughter Jerri Lynn; grandsons Robert Otto and Russell Keith; and great-grandson Otto Love. He was preceded in passing by his parents Otto and Frances, his grandson Ethan, and his son Martin.

Jerry graduated from Millsaps College in Jackson, Mississippi, and St. Luke's School of Theology, The University of the South, Sewanee, Tennessee. He began his ministry in The United Methodist Church while still a student at Millsaps College. After graduation, he served churches in the Mississippi charges of Fannin and Lorman, respectively, before transferring to the Tennessee Conference in 1959.

In Tennessee, he served Forest Mill in Manchester 1959-1960; Morton Memorial United Methodist Church in Monteagle 1960-1965; the Antioch Charge which included Antioch, Salem, Martha's Chapel and Chapel Hill in Cunningham 1965-1968; West Nashville 1968-1974; Andrew Price Memorial in Donelson as an associate 1974-1975; and Tulip Street in Nashville 1975-1978. He also had special appointments at Nancy Webb Kelly and Kern United Methodist Church, respectively. In 1978 he was appointed as executive director of United Methodist Urban Ministries in Nashville and remained in that position until his retirement in 2000.

Jerry ministered to countless congregations in the Mississippi and Tennessee United Methodist conferences for nearly 60 years, but realized the true nature of his calling when he was involved in or pioneered the formation of social programs that began to address the needs of society's most vulnerable. Jerry, along with other like-minded ministers, helped found United Methodist Urban Ministries (UMUM). In service to UMUM and its many social initiatives, he was heavily involved at Community Care Fellowship (CCF) whose mission is to provide care for the poor and homeless with dignity and respect. In his own words about his service to CCF he said, "Whatever needed to be done, I tried to do it." But for all us who knew him, we know there's so much more there, and everywhere, than he would ever take credit for.

After his official retirement Jerry spent the majority of his days tending to his family's needs and enjoying the time that retirement afforded him to spend with them.

His family is struck by the simple, yet profound, quotes from a sermon recently discovered in a news article from over 50 years ago and how those same words are just as relevant today. "Giving ourselves in relationships is the only work that endures." He continues, "Where is the hope? As long as there is one of us alive who recoils, protests and rejects the evils and folly of war, hope is alive... And just as long as two people of different races or classes will stop, listen and talk to each other... and look upon each other as persons... hope is alive and with us."

Anyone who was ever touched by or was part of his witness, his ministry and legacy will live on within us.

Shirley Ann Lockhart Ingram

April 11, 1936 – January 6, 2021

Shirley Ann Lockhart Ingram was born April 11, 1936, to very loving parents, Frances (Snooks) and Houston (Bud) Lockhart. She was blessed with loving grandparents, Edgar and Emma Woodside and John and Zona Lockhart, and she spent much time with them.

Shirley had one sister, Charlotte Barnard. The two were very close and spent a lot of time together. Shirley helped Charlotte raise her children, Robin (Kristie) Driver and Wendy Humphreys, as well as her grandchildren and great-grandchildren, Derek Driver, Ethan Absher, Eli Humphreys, Ashton Campbell, and Kiana, Taylan, Robert, and Kiera Driver.

Shirley used her education fruitfully, by serving God, family, and her community in multiple capacities. Shirley was a dedicated student, receiving the Citizenship Award at her high school graduation, attending Middle Tennessee State University and doing graduate work at Scarritt College for Christian Workers in Nashville. She worked as the director of education at Mt. Pleasant First United Methodist Church, Lebanon First United Methodist Church, and Donelson Heights United Methodist Church in Nashville. It was during this time, while a counselor at church groups, that she met Rev. Clifford Ingram, a dashing young preacher; the rest is history.

They began dating and were married on November 11, 1982. She continued serving God as she started doing children's messages, conducting Bible schools, and other church activities. While she never had children of her own, she spent her life teaching and loving God's children. She even published four children's books. She was Cliff's assistant and jointly they went on to serve the Gainesboro church for seven years. Eventually, they retired to his farm in Cumberland County where they enjoyed life until selling the farm and transplanting to Pleasant Hill. In one of their last journeys together, they moved to Shirley's family's farmhouse in Smithville where Cliff lovingly filled in as a preacher at several churches.

Later in life, Shirley moved from the family farmhouse to her parents' home across the field and enjoyed living next door to her sister on Sparta Highway. While living there, Cliff passed away and Shirley continued her church work at her home church in Smithville and other nearby churches.

It was during this time that Shirley was able to spend more time with her sister, and her family, as life progressed into her upper years. Charlotte, in the end, was Shirley's most favorite person to be with. As most siblings can be, they were different in many ways, except for the love of God and family. These sisters had an unbreakable bond and spent every day together up until Shirley became too ill to be home any longer. To this day, Charlotte tells Shirley stories to cope with losing her best friend, including bragging about how smart Shirley was and how important education was to her.

Cliff and Shirley set up a scholarship fund to help students from his churches and as a result, they proudly helped many students to achieve a college education. Cliff and Shirley were a very loving and compatible couple who had a strong compassion to help people across the Tennessee Conference.

Shirley Ann Lockhart Ingram is missed every day by her family. Charlotte laid her best friend to rest knowing she will see her again, one day.

Shirley Ann Majors Jones

April 23, 1947 – October 19, 2020

On April 23, 1947, Shirley Ann Majors was born in Nashville, Tennessee, to James Majors and Susie Powell Majors. She was the first of four children born to this union. She accepted Christ at an early age at Cedar Grove Baptist Church in Bordeaux. After accepting her call to ministry, she united with Dixon Memorial United Methodist Church in Nashville.

She was a graduate of Pearl High School, class of 1965. She received her undergraduate degree from Tennessee State University, majoring in history; received the Master of Arts degree from Scarritt College; and received the Master of Divinity from Vanderbilt Divinity School.

Throughout her life she always had an interest in working with children—especially younger children. She worked at several different schools in the Metropolitan Nashville Public School system prior to her call to ministry.

She married her devoted husband, Eddie, on October 12, 1974. To this union was born their son, Brian Wesley Jones.

Rev. Jones was licensed as a local pastor in The United Methodist Church in 1985; ordained a deacon in 1987; and was ordained an elder in full connection in 1991.

When I think of Rev. Shirley Majors Jones, John 13:34-35 always come to mind. The scripture says “A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples if you love one another.”

Rev. Jones was the epitome of love to me and my siblings. First, she showed us what the love of God looks like. She met us where we were—broken, bruised, confused, messed up—and she said God loves you. She taught us how to read and understand the Bible for ourselves. She taught us how to start a personal relationship with God. She showed us what it meant to love your family. Rev. Jones loved her family so much!!! They were her core and she was grateful to have them all in her life.

When our parents were not in the picture, she was there. Rev. Shirley Majors Jones accepted and believed in me and my siblings when others cut us off and made us feel less than. She always told me the best thing in life you can do for yourself, Toi, is to succeed. Do not blame others for your failures; accept them, learn from it, keep moving forward, and never look back. She saw something in us that we could not see. She saw our potential in Christ and in the world and she pushed us to obtain our goals.

She showed us what forgiveness looks like. You see, she knew our family history yet she showed us as young adults how to love those who hurt us. She practiced what she preached. She loved those who she knew did not have her best interest at heart. She knew who did not accept her as pastor, yet she loved. She treated them just like she treated everyone else.

Her life was a witness to us on how to love others. I know firsthand how far my pastor would go for her Church. She would visit the jail to check on her members and even their family. She would go to the nursing homes and take Communion to the sick. She would pay bills, buy diapers, pay school fees, etc., from her own personal account to make sure you had what you needed to go on and pursue your dreams. She was your counselor when you needed to talk about life. She was a mentor when you needed guidance. She was a leader who believed in and fought for her people. She stood with you through the good times, the bad times, and even the uncertain times.

She stayed on my siblings and me about raising our children. Children were a soft, special spot for her. I have seen her change babies, care for babies, and especially protect babies. She believed the children are the future and she worked hard to make sure babies and children were safe and had all the necessities they needed.

Rev. Shirley Majors Jones was a true woman of God. I know God is pleased with her work. She has planted so many seeds in the world and look at how God has allowed them to grow. As you look around this room today, you can see the manifestation of how she touched so many lives. I thank God for blessing us with Rev. Shirley Majors Jones.

Shirley was preceded in death by her father, James A. Majors, Sr. She is survived by her husband, Eddie Jones; son, Brian; mother, Susie Powell Majors; siblings: James Andrew Majors, Jr., Carolyn Woodson, Deborah Eileen Majors; cousins, nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends, along with Nancy Webb Kelly United Methodist Church previous and current members whose lives she touched in a mighty way, as pastor /mentor.

James Steven Kelley

September 17, 1962 – March 3, 2020

James Steven Kelley was born to Sue Ola Rhea and Buford James Kelley on September 17, 1962, in Crossville, Tennessee. Steve and his older sibling, Paula, would grow up moving often as their father, Buford, was in the military and then became a United Methodist pastor in the Tennessee Annual Conference.

Steve graduated from Putnam County High School in 1980 and would go on to receive a bachelor's degree in Psychology from Middle Tennessee State University. Few people knew that Steve tested in the top two percent of the state at the time of his college admissions testing in high school.

Steve followed in his father's footsteps and accepted the call into ministry with The United Methodist Church, taking a student appointment as an undergraduate and later as an associate member. He attended the Course of Study at Emory University in Atlanta, Georgia, to further his educational commitments to the UMC. Steve faithfully served several churches in Middle Tennessee before he retired in 2013 and returned home to Crossville.

Steve had many hobbies that included sports cards, comic books, and antique toys, but his favorite hobby was wrestling. He knew more about wrestling than most people have forgotten, and he was widely known and well-respected in the wrestling world as Brother Steve. He once told me that he felt the Lord had opened this door for him because he was able to love and serve a group of folks who were often underserved.

Steve loved the Church. He loved being a pastor, and he loved his family and many friends immensely. He loved his daughters, Mattie and Samantha. He always made time for folks and never forgot what it meant to be a neighbor.

I miss talking to him almost daily. I miss his corny jokes and having someone I could talk to about baseball, spiritual matters, or just life in general. I miss hearing him say, "Hey, Charlie Chips!" And I miss my friend, Kelleyman.

Steve left this world and joined the saints triumphant on March 22, 2020, at Cookeville (Tennessee) Regional Hospital. He was preceded in death by his parents and his grandparents, Roy Hugh "Tobe" and Nellie Christine Bradley Rhea, and one uncle, Fay Rhea. He is survived by his sister and her life partner, Paula Wyatt and Mike Collins (Bell Buckle); two daughters, Mattie Kelley and Samantha Jackson (Tyler); two granddaughters, Clarissa and Hope; nephew, Keith Wyatt; and niece, Paulette Jones (Oak Ridge); aunt, Brenda Rhea (Crossville); two uncles, Stan (Ann) Rhea (Big Lick) and James (Alene) Rhea (Marietta, Georgia); and many cousins and friends.

Louis Wayne Kelley

February 9, 1940 – April 5, 2021

Louis Wayne Kelley (known as Wayne) passed away April 5, 2021, at Maury Regional Hospital in Columbia, Tennessee, the same place he was born on February 9, 1940, the only child of Donald and Inez Kelley.

He graduated from Lewis County High School and attended Austin Peay State College (now APSU). After answering a call to ministry, he was licensed to preach in 1961 and completed the Course of Study at Emory University. Wayne became an associate member of the Tennessee Annual Conference during the 1972 annual conference.

During his ministry Wayne served the following appointments in the Tennessee Conference of The United Methodist Church: 1961 Mt. Zion-Palestine, 1962 Clifton-Neptune, 1963 Lutts Circuit, 1965 Fullers Chapel-Fall River, 1966 Little Lot Charge, 1968 Loretto, 1971 Collinwood, 1972 Lynnville-Taylor's Chapel, 1978 Ethridge-Henryville, 1984 Enterprise Circuit, 1986 Gordonsville-Temperance Hall-Lancaster, 1988 Trinity (Hardin Co.), 1991 Cumberland City Charge, and 1992 Santa Fe.

In 1993, due to health issues Wayne went on Incapacity Leave, retiring in 2002. His last years were spent at Lewis County Manor in Hohenwald, Tennessee.

Wayne enjoyed eating out and socializing with his fellow pastors and was known for his love of ice cream sundaes. He loved the Methodist Church and never understood why it was necessary to change the name of our church to United Methodist as we were always UNITED in our love of Jesus Christ. You always knew where Wayne stood on any issue!

His burial was in Swiss Mausoleum in Hohenwald.

Fredia Ernestine Hill McClellan

November 11, 1938 – January 18, 2021

Fredia was the sixth of 10 children born to Alvin C. and Lillian M. Hill. She attended Nashville public schools, graduating from East Nashville High School in 1956. After graduating, she began working at National Life and Accident Insurance Company. She continued her work there for many years.

Fredia was a lifelong United Methodist. Throughout her young life she was an active member of the Meridian Street Methodist Church congregation, where she participated in various ministries of the church. In 1966, a young ministerial intern from Vanderbilt Divinity School by the name of Joseph Edward McClellan, Jr., was appointed to this congregation to serve in youth ministries. A friendship between Ed and Fredia quickly began. This friendship soon grew into a deep, loving relationship, so on June 7, 1969, Fredia and Ed were married at this church, which meant so much to both of them. Then, after 50 years of marriage, it was a great celebration when family and friends from all across the Tennessee Conference came together at Pennington United Methodist Church in 2019 to honor this amazing couple on their golden wedding anniversary.

While it can be debated whether or not preachers' wives are born, it can be said that Fredia filled that critical role with distinction. She supported the ministry of her husband, affectionately known as Brother Ed, in every way possible. This was especially true in the area of children's ministry as a devoted teacher, and in the kitchen helping out with all the church dinners for which Methodist churches are so well known. She was Ed's biggest supporter, confidante, defender, and friend. Whatever she could do to assist in the success of his ministry, she did with great joy. Together they served Jordonnia, East Hickman Charge (East Kedron, Wrigley, Bon Aqua), Clarkrange, Cross Plains, Blackman Charge (Bethel, Blackman), Pleasant View, Fairfield Glade, and Pennington United Methodist churches.

In addition to supporting the education of children through Sunday school, she also served as a teacher's assistant in the public school system of every community in which they served. She was known as one who kept order in the classroom, but one who loved the children unconditionally.

While Fredia did not have children of her own, her nieces and nephews became her children. It was always a great joy when they got to spend time with Aunt Fredia and Uncle Ed. They knew that they would never hear the word "no" for any reason. More than that, there was a magic drawer filled with all kinds of toys and prizes. The rule was that each child could choose a prize each day they were there. While most children cry when they have to leave home, that was not the case here. Her beloved nieces and nephews cried when they had to leave Aunt Fredia's house to come home. Her love for them and their love for her were boundless.

For the past several years, Fredia served as the primary care giver for her beloved Ed, who still deals with the effects of spinocerebellar ataxia. Because of his condition, he is unable to do many of the ministries which he enjoyed and which blessed the lives of so many. Yet, at his new residence at NHC Sumner Place Gallatin, he still finds ways to share the love of Jesus with the residents and staff there as only Bro. Ed can do.

Unexpectedly in 2018 Fredia developed colon cancer. Despite aggressive surgeries and medication, nothing seemed to work. Then she contracted COVID-19, which was too much for her now frail body to overcome. On January 18, 2021, she went home to be with God and those whom she loved. A graveside service was held on January 20, 2021, at the Cross Plains United Methodist Church cemetery, with Rev. Hubert Cunningham officiating.

Fredia's was a life of service, giving, and love for others. When she reached the gates of heaven, she heard said, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

Elijah Earl McGee

December 25, 1948 – August 24, 2020

Elijah Earl McGee, 71, a clergy member of the Tennessee Annual Conference since 1982, died August 24, 2020.

An activist in the struggle for civil rights, Elijah was described as “progressive, outspoken, and occasionally stubborn.” He believed in equality and justice for all, and he refused to use the word “hate” while encouraging others to do the same.

Early Struggles

Indications of his compassion for justice and equality surfaced early. As a ninth grader he went against his mother’s wishes to join a civil rights demonstration on the steps of the Hattiesburg, Mississippi, courthouse.

He was the first to integrate the cafeteria of Methodist Hospital in his hometown of Hattiesburg, and as vice-president of the student body at Mississippi Valley College, he was expelled for marching for student equality. He then transferred to Tougaloo College, Jackson, Mississippi.

Being arrested and coming close to death on more than one occasion in the ‘60s and ‘70s helped strengthen his faith in God and led him to seminary instead of pursuing a law degree.

The Beginning

Elijah was a 1948 Christmas gift to the late John Charles and Olivia Clemons McGee. The youngest of five children, he was educated in Hattiesburg schools and graduated cum laude from Tougaloo College with a major in political science. He received a Master of Divinity degree from Rust College, Holly Springs, Mississippi. Elijah’s first appointment was as associate pastor of Zion-Mt. Carmel UMC in Wilmington, Delaware.

Church Member Becomes Bride

In 1974, Elijah was appointed to St Paul, Biloxi, and St. James, Ocean Springs. While attending graduate classes at Emory University, he needed papers typed. That’s when he asked Sheila Woods, one of his church members, to type manuscripts for him. Sheila evidently did an excellent job of typing. Elijah asked for more than typing. On May 10, 1980, Sheila Woods, typist and church member, became Sheila McGee, parsonage hostess, a position she held until his death.

Move to Nashville

An invitation to meet with the bishop and cabinet of the Tennessee Conference in 1982 led to his acceptance of an appointment to Gordon Memorial United Methodist Church. So, he and Sheila packed up, rented a U-Haul truck, and moved to Nashville. During his eight-year ministry at that predominantly Black congregation, Elijah initiated a progressive spiritual revival. He would often make unexpected visits to members and tell them there was no need to cut the music off or hide the alcohol. Attendance at Sunday services increased and membership grew to over 800.

In 1990, Elijah was appointed superintendent of the former Cumberland District, and after seven years, he was appointed associate director of the Tennessee Conference Council on Ministries and to Ebenezer United Methodist Church, Nolensville.

A Builder and Leader

During his 42 years of ministry, Elijah led the construction of a new edifice at St. Paul’s United Methodist Church, Biloxi; a new parsonage at Gordon Memorial, Nashville; and an educational wing at Ebenezer, Nolensville.

He was a delegate to many General and jurisdictional conferences, and he was twice named chair of successful efforts to elect members of the Tennessee Conference to the episcopacy.

He served as a counselor for Biloxi High School (1976-77), auxiliary chaplain at USAF Medical Center, Keesler (1976) and was the first Black to chair the Biloxi school board.

He chaired the Tennessee Commission on Religion and Race, Ethnic Minority Local Church Committee, Black Methodists for Church Renewal, and many other committees.

He served on several community boards in both Tennessee and Mississippi, including the Mayor's Task Force on Crime, the Election Commission, Urban Ministries, Interdenominational Ministerial Fellowship, Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, NAACP, Northwest Civitan Club, and the Masons.

Friend of Students

Elijah was chaplain for the Tennessee State University (TSU) basketball and football teams, and he traveled to many games in and out of town. These guys respected and loved him, and they opened up about personal issues with a man who served as a father figure away from home. Elijah would visit the guys weekly and show up for their practices.

The unofficial recruiter for TSU, he once put a young man up in a hotel until he could meet with a coach to decide if he wanted to go to the school. He would take athletes out to eat, purchase clothes, and give them money.

Elijah's attention was not confined to college athletes; one of the ways he evangelized young guys was by inviting them to play on the church's basketball team—member or not, it didn't matter. Another way was to invite them to the parsonage for Sunday dinners and holidays. It was not unusual for Elijah to bring home several guys after service each week. These guys were his family, and he was their family.

A Heart for the Local Church

Elijah's heart was with the local church. He loved talking on the phone and networking. Elijah would frequently call friends with news he read in "Newscope." Sheila served as associate editor of the weekly newsletter and would bring copies home prior to their publication. Elijah would read it before opening the mail or eating dinner.

Elijah loved God, the Church, and his home state of Mississippi. He never met a stranger.

"If I can help somebody, as I pass along—if I can cheer somebody with a word or song," he said. "If I can show somebody that he's travelling wrong, then my living will not be in vain."

Sue Ann Collins Miller

April 8, 1936 – February 16, 2021

Sue Ann Collins Miller was ideally suited to be a pastor's wife. Born in Oklahoma to Maude and Walter Collins, Sue was the oldest of three daughters. Quickly she became the role model and life-long support for her sisters. Fate had her by the hand when she chose her college because it was at Westmar College in Iowa where she met the man with whom she was to spend the rest of her life. Bill Miller invited her to a Valentine's party in 1956, and a love match was made. Sue was studying Christian education and business which melded well with Bill's pre-ministerial studies.

Upon graduation from college, Sue taught elementary school in Dayton, Ohio, while Bill attended United Theological Seminary and pastored Nashville E.U.B. (Ohio) and State Road E.U.B. (Ohio) churches. While serving churches in Ohio and Iowa, Sue and Bill had two daughters, Julie and Jennifer. In 1978, all four Millers moved to Nashville, Tennessee, when Bill accepted a position in the Stewardship section of the General Board of Discipleship. Sue decided to further her education and obtained a master's degree in Library Science from Vanderbilt University.

During Bill's time traveling extensively for the General Board, Sue handled the girls' school, church, and social activities while working as head librarian at Montgomery Bell Academy. Her support and understanding of ministry was a fundamental part of Sue and Bill's life together. They were truly a team, providing a loving home for their daughters filled with games, singing, and travel while serving together in Disciple Bible Studies, Community Care Fellowship, and Project Transformation. Through the years, Bill mentored many candidates for ministry, and Sue hosted them in their home with delicious meals and a quiet space to share concerns and joys. She was an integral part of their Sunday school classes and women's service groups in Nashville, State Road, Liberty, Belmont and Grace E.U.B. churches in Ohio, Faith E.U.B. church in Iowa, Calvary UMC, Brentwood UMC, West End UMC, and Christ UMC in Tennessee.

Sue's years at Montgomery Bell Academy brought not only many friendships among the faculty and staff, but prepared her for the advent of their final two grandchildren—both boys. Sue treasured every minute she shared with all six of their grandchildren, but after sisters and granddaughters, the boys opened a new world of activity and adventure.

Sue's earlier adventures began when she was welcomed into the large Miller family in 1959. She graciously joined in their annual Miller reunions and hosted Bill's 10 siblings and their families on numerous occasions throughout the years. During these recent years, Sue has been a stalwart companion as Bill has comforted and laid to rest several siblings and their spouses.

Sue's grandchildren describe Nana as sweet, devoted, loving, gracious, insightful, witty, stylish, observant, persevering, thoughtful, supportive, and kind. She was definitely all of those and so much more.

Thankfully, she left a part of herself with her husband, Bill; their daughters, Julie Leist (Tom) and Jennifer Hoffman (Jeff); their grandchildren, Catherine, Kristen, Caroline, Will, and Michael; her sister, Lynelle; nieces, Megan and Marissa; nephew, Chuck; and the Miller family. Her sister, Marilyn, and granddaughter, Holly, predeceased her.

God puts special people in our lives to enrich our time on earth. Sue Miller was one of God's exceptional angels who blessed everyone who knew her.

William Douglas O'Rear

May 13, 1943 – July 30, 2020

William Douglas O'Rear (Doug) was born in Jasper, Alabama, on May 13, 1943, to Oscar and Blanche Mullins O'Rear. He died of COVID-19 on July 30, 2020, at St. Thomas West Hospital. He was 77 years old.

The family is grateful for the kind and attentive care that Doug received as he battled this terrible virus. Though he initially downplayed the severity of the virus, he did take precautions when out of his home, and his wish from his hospital bed was that his hospitalization would serve as a testimony to how terrible a COVID-19 infection can be.

Doug is survived by his wife, Jane Crisp, his children, Chris (Lynda), Michael (Julie), Casey Rapp, and Robert A. Crisp (Audrey Love), his 11 grandchildren—Rachel, Jessie, Elizabeth, Michael, Jacob, Anna Grace, Mary Catherine, Katy Grace, Johnathan, Sydney, and Dru—and his three great-grandchildren—Mason, Michael, and Malory. Doug is also survived by his sisters, Beth Edge (Clabourn) and Reba

Little of Atlanta, Georgia, and his nieces and nephews, Lauren Yeager, Michael Yeager, Daniel Kumatz, Adam Kumatz, Trey Jones, and Brady Little.

Education was a priority for Doug, his children, and grandchildren. After completing two years at Walker Junior College in Jasper, Doug received his B.S. from Samford University in Birmingham, Alabama, and his M.A. from The University of Alabama. He completed extensive graduate work at The University of Alabama and the Cumberland School of Law at Samford University.

Doug's early career was spent in personnel administration with several organizations including the Alabama Power Company, The University of Alabama, and the former First American Bank in Nashville. He was also an assistant professor of Business at Belmont University. Since 1980, Doug has been involved in financial planning. He became a Certified Financial Planner and in 1983 he opened his own business, Doug O'Rear & Associates. In his role as financial planner, Doug was a frequent management and financial consultant with various for-profit and non-profit organizations. Doug's friends became his clients, and his clients were his friends. He cared for each person as he would for a family member and was notorious for his work with clients regardless of their net worth. He was more concerned about an individual's needs. Doug was known for his kindness and generosity, giving of his time and resources to multiple non-profit organizations. Doug's life and enjoyment were in his work, and he was working until the day he was hospitalized.

Doug was also a member of the Kiwanis Club and the Middle Tennessee Financial Planning Association, having served in leadership and officer roles with both.

Beyond Doug's work, or perhaps woven through it, he was known for his strong faith in Jesus. He sought to be a man of principle, generosity, hard work, and kindness. Doug served in various volunteer and leadership positions at First Baptist Church, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, and Woodmont and Harpeth Heights Baptist churches in Nashville, Tennessee. In the early 1990's Doug began attending Pegram (Tennessee) United Methodist Church. He became a lay speaker in The United Methodist Church and then a licensed local pastor. He completed licensed local pastor training at Martin Methodist College while serving as pastor of Craggie Hope United Methodist Church in Kingston Springs, Tennessee, and Eno and Oak Grove United Methodist Churches in Dickson, Tennessee.

Doug was a person of integrity, and the person that he was shown through everything he did. He was the same person in every setting in which he worked and served. He loved the simple things of life. He enjoyed taking a grandchild with him on his Saturday errands to Costco or some other location in his '72 Mercedes convertible, his old pickup truck, or his new Tesla.

Doug and Jane owned Chigger Ridge farm in Pegram, Tennessee, for years until they sold it to Cumberland Heights treatment center for their Arch Academy. When they owned Chigger Ridge, Doug and Jane enjoyed meeting all kinds of people from around the world in the bed-and-breakfast that they ran there. Doug and Jane also traveled extensively across the United States visiting all 50 states, and around the world including trips to Europe, China, Egypt, the Holy Land, South Africa, Australia, and New Zealand.

Doug and Jane also kept horses on the farm and enjoyed traveling across Tennessee to various horse shows with their grandchildren over the years. Doug enjoyed participating in the annual Fourth of July parade and activities in Pegram. He did not know a stranger and would often strike up conversations with any random person wherever he was. Doug would often carry $2 bills and used them to pay for items or to tip servers. He believed they were great conversation starters and regularly gave birthday and Christmas gifts of bundles of $2 bills.

Doug was notorious for his bad jokes, his quirky shirts and hats, his love of Alabama football, and some eccentric ways, but he was a caring, generous, Christian man with a kind heart and love of life and people.

Barbara Anderson Rowlett

September 5, 1943 – July 29, 2020

Barbara Rowlett was born on September 5, 1943, in Nashville, Tennessee, to Burch and Lorene Anderson. Barbara enjoyed her childhood with her younger sister and two older brothers. She excelled in school, was nominated homecoming attendant, and graduated with honors. She met her husband James in church at age three crawling under his pew to get candy from a kind man in the back pew. Later they became friends in her teenage years, started dating, and married at age 17. Together they raised two sons. She loved motherhood so much and she stayed home with them until they graduated from high school.

Barbara was a great mother, always making sure her boys were taken care of. She was a great wife, helping James with his business and ministry leading others to know Jesus as savior. She went to work at 45 years old in accounts payable at Perfect Equipment for 19 years and retired ready to enjoy more time in the Smoky Mountains, and went to London, England—a dream come true for her. She was a great cook, and didn't think so, everybody loved her food because she used a lot of sugar!

When Barbara's and James's health declined, they moved into an assisted living facility. The staff fell in love with them as they enjoyed their warm, loving nature with everyone. People would say that Barbara has the most beautiful smile. Love and kindness were Barbara's nature. She was a wonderful wife, mother, and friend. All who knew her were blessed!

Barbara is preceded in death by her husband, James Rowlett; son, John Rowlett; parents, Burch and Lorene Anderson; brothers, Burch Anderson and David Anderson; sister-in-law, JoAnn Anderson; and brother-in-law, Al Stapel.

Barbara is survived by her son, Jimmy (Dee) Rowlett; sister, Christine Stapel; sister-in-law, Carol Anderson; nephews, Craig (Karen) Anderson, Todd (Jill) Anderson, Joe (Stephanie) Anderson, and Scott Stapel; nieces, Beverly (Ian) Gourlay, Lori (Dale) Hughes, and Diane (Steve) Crosier.

A memorial service will be planned at a later date. In lieu of flowers, please make donations to Avalon Hospice or St. Jude Children's Hospital.

Rosemary Tarwater Starnes

January 24, 1930 – April 28, 2021

Rosemary Tarwater Starnes, born the fourth daughter of a farmer father and a schoolteacher mother in Sevierville, Tennessee, was incentivized by her parents to excel in school. Her sister, Doris, shared that she never had to work hard to achieve good grades, she easily absorbed everything in class, rarely had to study, and made terrific grades throughout her high school years.

She was an active member of the Pleasant View United Methodist Church youth group, an accomplished pianist and trumpet player, played piano at her church, and was often asked to play taps at local funerals. She was awarded a music scholarship to Martin Methodist College in Pulaski, Tennessee, where she met Bill Starnes, the love of her life. Bill pursued Rosemary relentlessly, as he considered her the most beautiful girl on campus. After their first year in college, he asked for her hand in marriage.

He did advise her that at age 14, after reading a book named “African Game Trails” written by Teddy Roosevelt that he had heard and accepted the call by God to become a missionary to Africa. She had to think long and hard about it, but eventually decided that life with Bill would be a grand adventure. They married on September 15, 1949, and after further studies at Scarritt College and Vanderbilt University, they headed overseas.

With more studies in Brussels to learn several languages, they made their way to Zaire where they served as missionaries for four years. Bill preached among numerous tribal villages and Rosemary taught health and hygiene to the local village women. As missionaries, Bill founded a college originally named the Congo Polytechnic Institute, now known as the University of the Congo. During their stay, the Congo crisis occurred and war broke out between the government and Communist rebels who were looting the country’s valuable minerals and copper. During this crisis, Bill was captured and almost killed by rebel troops. Through almost divine intervention, he was rescued and Rosemary, Bill, and their four children were smuggled out of the country returning home on the SS United States ocean liner in 1960.

Upon their return, Rosemary became a language teacher and Bill continued his support of the Board of Global Ministries and the University of the Congo for another six years until he was recruited by his alma mater, Martin Methodist College to become president with Rosemary serving as first lady. Rosemary was the wind beneath his wings during their 11 years on campus, and during that time he doubled the size of the campus and was instrumental in setting the stage for it to become a four-year institution. Prior to his retirement, the Student Union Building was named the Bill & Rosemary Starnes Student Union Building. In a few weeks, Zan Martin, also a Martin alumna who is now serving on the Board of Trustees, will participate in the unveiling and dedication of a painting she produced in their honor that will be permanently placed in the Student Union Building.

Throughout the years, aside from her deep and abiding faith in her savior Jesus Christ, her five children were Rosemary’s greatest pride and joy. When they were young, she entered them in many music and art studies to help them explore their natural gifts and talents, teaching them that there was nothing in life they could not achieve if they wanted it bad enough. And most importantly, she provided intense, unconditional love throughout their lives.

After their tenure at Martin Methodist College, Bill returned to the pulpit where he served The United Methodist Church in both Nashville and Tullahoma while Rosemary became active with the Daughters of American Republic, (DAR) and the garden club, and as she always had, continued to host extravagant dinner parties and gatherings at their home.

After Bill retired in June, 1996, she most loved working in her garden, enjoying time with family and friends out on Bill's beloved pontoon boat, and as many visits with her children and grandchildren as she could get.

At the age of 91, Rosemary died peacefully in her sleep on April 28, 2021.

Orien Price Taylor

November 19, 1932 – January 22, 2021

Price was born at home in Russellville, Kentucky, to Walter and Mary Taylor. He grew up in the Sunnyside section of Bowling Green, Kentucky. He attended Bethel Methodist Episcopal Church which his great grandfather, Rev. Silas Wheeler Shelton, founded in 1880.

After graduating valedictorian of his high school class of 1951, he went to Western Kentucky College (class of 1956) and served as a student local pastor as well. He received a bachelor's degree in Divinity from Louisville Presbyterian Seminary in 1959.

During those years, Leslie Ann arrived in 1958 coming home to a new parsonage. She was later followed by Steven Price and Christopher Thomas. Price served five appointments in Kentucky before moving to Michigan and then New Jersey for the PhD program at Drew Graduate School with a thesis titled "Developing Criteria, Based on Psychology and Theology for Evaluating Designs for Christian Education of Adults in Attitude Change." Only German kept him from that goal, so he graduated with a masters in Sacred Theology in 1969.

While in New Jersey, he served three churches and served on several conference committees. His wife, Jacquie Sojourner, has had repeated questions on where and how they met. She cannot narrow down a date but it was at the Northern New Jersey Conference and committee meetings. He took early retirement when contemplating possibly three children facing college—only Leslie completed that at Fairleigh Dickinson College.

However, Price was not done with education. He completed the Chartered Life Underwriter® courses as well as the Chartered Financial Consultant® designations while working at Mutual Benefit Life in Newark, New Jersey, and Mass Mutual in Nashville.

Nor was he done with United Methodist ministry. While many contemporaries ran from the idea of being a parsonage spouse, Price welcomed it and understood it. So, he shared in the 12 appointments Jacquie served while they were married; churches often said they got two of us for the “Price” of one. He was my mentor for elders orders in the Northern New Jersey Conference in a class of 14, 11 of whom were women and six of us married to clergy.

One of the benefits his children mentioned was being able to go away for six weeks in the summer, often camping in state and national parks because New Jersey clergy covered for each other ecumenically and families had quality time away from telephones in those days.

He had rougher years in the last four of his 88 years, yet was alert up to the last.

He enjoyed helping Archives and History at West End UMC with Jacquie and others and researched his great grandfather through the General Archives at Drew University in 2018.

Price liked to travel, read Astronomy Magazine, stay in touch with friends and family across the years, and enjoyed the last 11 years taking part at West End UMC and serving as chair of the Upper Room Class.

Visitation was held in Dickson at Taylor’s Funeral home on January 27 and the funeral and committal services were at West End United Methodist Church on January 29, 2021.

William (Bruce) Walters

August 5, 1940 – October 12, 2020

Bruce Walters was born on August 5, 1940, in Rainesville, Mississippi. His father had great plans for Bruce. He wanted Bruce to become a preacher! Bruce had other ideas, he did become a student of theology for a couple of years after he left college, but he soon decided it was not what he wanted at that time.

He had a varied assortment of careers—construction, chemical sales, tree planting in Abu Dhabi, and a non-destructive testing company in Dubai United Arab Emirates where I met him. We came to the United States and got married in December 1981.

Settling down to a steady job was hard for Bruce; he had been gone from this country for seven years and a lot had changed. He went from job to job and finished up owning his own chemical sales company. In 1988, our first daughter, Adrienne, was born. Bruce was gone every week and just came home on weekends. During the week, I took Adrienne to the Mother’s Day Out program at the Shelbyville United Methodist Church. One of the other mothers there invited me to go to church with her. When Bruce came home one weekend, I asked him if we could go. I can remember what he said. “If that’s what you want, we can go.” That Sunday we went to church together, and I am sure if we had been listening very carefully that Sunday morning, we would have heard God say, “Gotcha.” Bruce formed a lasting friendship with Rev. Randall Ganues, then the Minister of Shelbyville First United Methodist Church, and from that day there was no stopping Bruce. He confided in me that one of the reasons we had never gone to church was because all his life he had been running from the Lord.

In 1990, Bruce was appointed as a part-time preacher to five small churches in the Shelbyville area, and in 1992, he got his first full-time appointment. We left our home in Shelbyville, Tennessee, and moved into the parsonage at the United Methodist Church in Wartrace, Tennessee, and Bruce started courses at Emory University.

It was hard work for him. He still had a few obligations to his chemical company during the day, but he would visit and get to know current church members and seek out old church members in the evening; he would preach on Sunday, study into the early hours of the morning, and attend seminary on Friday and Saturday. Bruce had certainly found his calling. He was devoted to the church and determined he would be the best preacher ever. He worked so hard to build God's kingdom; he had so many plans and ideas. Everywhere he went he had busses, vans, and private cars going in every direction Sunday mornings picking up children. "Children are the future of the church," he would say. He started youth groups and after-school care for young children, Boy Scouts ... you name it, if it got young people inside the church, that's what he would do.

Bruce never met a stranger and never missed an opportunity to spread the Gospel. Everywhere he went, everyone soon knew Bruce. "You must be that Methodist preacher," they would say. He spent all his spare time in the fast-food places, small cafes, and meeting places talking to people about Jesus and inviting them to church. In 1995, Bruce finally became an ordained minister in The United Methodist Church. Bruce gave his all at every appointment he had; his visions and ideas made him many wonderful friends, and his fair share of "frenemies"!!! He used to get so frustrated with some church members because they could not see his visions for their church. "You have to get up off the stool or do nothing," was one of Bruce's favorite expressions.

In 2020, at 80 years of age, Bruce was appointed to his last three small churches. Even though he only got the chance to preach to them once before he died, I know he made a lasting impression on the people, not because he died, but because of his undeniable dedication to, and love of his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Johnny Jackson (JJ) Wheelbarger

February 15, 1937 – February 4, 2021

Dr. Johnny Jackson (JJ) Wheelbarger, 83, a resident of Portland, Tennessee, passed away peacefully in his sleep on Thursday, February 4, 2021. Dr. Wheelbarger was born on February 15, 1937, in Rockingham County, Virginia, and was a son of the late Charles and Roseie Minnick Wheelbarger. He grew up in the Ottobine community and received his early years of education from Mt. Clinton High School, Fulton School, and Clover Hill School. Dr. Wheelbarger served in the U.S. Air Force. It was during his time in the Air Force that he became a devout Christian and felt a calling to become a minister.

Johnny is survived by his sisters, Mary Whitmore and Eva Click, along with numerous nieces, nephews, and members of the Propst family. He is preceded in death by his siblings Bessie Wheelbarger, Reba Nicholas, Andrew Wheelbarger, Glen Wheelbarger, and Frank Wheelbarger.

Dr. Wheelbarger is also preceded in death by his late wife, the former Bonnie Propst of Mt. Solon, Virginia, who he married on November 28, 1957. Johnny and Bonnie enjoyed 49 wonderful years of marriage before her passing in 2006. After marriage, the couple moved to Oklahoma where Dr. Wheelbarger was stationed at Altus AFB. After his discharge from the Air Force, Johnny immersed himself in education, earning a total of five college degrees, including several masters degrees and one doctorate. His studies were focused in the fields of education and ministry. His alma maters include Southern Nazarene University in Oklahoma, Trevecca Nazarene College in Tennessee, University of Virginia, and George Peabody College for Teachers in Tennessee. He continued to embody a life-long learner mentality by becoming a college professor. Dr. Wheelbarger later served as a pastor and minister at several Nazarene and Methodist churches around the Springfield, Columbia, Auburn, and White House areas.

Dr. Wheelbarger and his wife purchased a home with acreage in Goodlettsville, Tennessee, but they still enjoyed returning to the Shenandoah Valley to visit family and friends. After the passing of his wife, his church community embraced him as family. During the last several years of his life, Johnny became a part of Nancy Robinson and Donnie Castner's family. He attended their family gatherings, ball games, and concerts and attended Mt. Carmel Baptist Church with them. He was very instrumental in helping a youth band get started, which later became known as The Spilt Milk Band. Due to his declining health the last four years of his life, Johnny resided at an assisted living facility, Richland Place, where he received loving care.

Johnny will always be remembered for his love of animals including his Tennessee Walking Horses, English Shepherd dogs, and cats that he treated as children. You could always find him cracking jokes, telling stories, or spreading God's Word.

In a final display of his passion for education, Dr. Wheelbarger requested that his body be donated to Vanderbilt University Medical School and Center for Scientific Research. A memorial service was held on February 22, 2021, at Pleasant Grove United Methodist Church, which was Dr. Wheelbarger's last assignment as pastor.

AWARDS & DELEGATES

The Harry Denman Evangelism Award is awarded jointly by the Tennessee Annual Conference and The Foundation for Evangelism. In memory of the lifelong ministry and witness of Dr. Harry Denman, the award honors individuals, selected by their annual conference, for their exceptional ministry of evangelism that invites people into a life-transforming relationship with Jesus Christ. For two months every year, the opportunity to nominate clergy, laity and youth for this award is offered to everyone throughout the conference. This year, several clergy were nominated. The 2021 Tennessee Annual Conference recipients of this award represent pastoral leadership within three relationships to our conference: retired elder, active elder, and local pastor.

REV. DELWYN FRYER – RETIRED ELDER

Reverend Delwyn Fryer has been a member of the United Methodist Church for 86 years. He has served in numerous churches and many lives, even after retirement. His commitment to ministry began as he served at five churches all while driving 52 miles as a full-time college student at Austin Peay. During his first full time appointment, St. Bethlehem was named outstanding church by the Tennessee Conference for the church's growth in membership, building and budget as well as the church's overall spirit and ministry. He would later serve in Ashland City for a church that was rated top 10 in the Tennessee Conference during his time. During his many years in ministry, he has moved many people with his commitment to reaching out and connecting to new members as well as comforting, encouraging and guiding all.

REV. TRAVIS GARNER – ACTIVE ELDER

Reverend Travis Garner serves at Brentwood UMC and its plant church, The Village. Not long after its plant, hundreds of people were gathering in a middle school gym to worship with The Village. It soon became one of the fastest growing churches in the Nashville area with over 600 members between their two services. The Village works to connect with members of the community that feel outcast, and many have been moved to come to the church thanks to Rev. Garner's passion for evangelism and love for sharing the gospel.

REV. RODNEY RITCHIE – LOCAL PASTOR

Reverend Rodney Ritchie serves at Bon Air UMC and has truly brought the church to the community. During his time serving at Bon Air, the church has begun several programs to help support the Sparta community, including initiatives to help buy school supplies, give away clothing for adults and children, hand out food boxes and offer scholarships to children at the local high school. Under Reverend Ritchie's service, the church even saw increased attendance online that has carried over to in-person attendance. Many have been moved by his commitment to serving the Sparta community through Bon Air UMC.

2020 TENNESSEE DELEGATION

The 2020 General and Southeastern Jurisdictional conferences were postponed to 2021 due to the COVID-19 pandemic. These delegates will serve at the rescheduled conferences in 2022.

STANDING RULES, PERSONNEL POLICIES, AND MEDIA CRISIS RESPONSE

A. STANDING RULES

Revised June 14, 2019

The Standing Rules of the Tennessee Annual Conference represent the means by which we organize and oversee our work of making disciples for the transformation of the world. It is the organizational plan of the Tennessee Annual Conference, setting forth the rules by which we govern ourselves, in compliance with ¶604 of the 2016 United Methodist Book of Discipline. As our Book of Discipline says about itself, our Standing Rules reflect the “... most current statement of how United Methodists [in the Tennessee Annual Conference] agree to live together and ‘maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.’”

The Committee on Standing Rules presents these rules for renewal and adoption by each session of the Tennessee Annual Conference.

Section 1 – Authorization for the Committee on Standing Rules

- 1.1 The Committee on Standing Rules has the responsibility to:
 - a) Propose new policies and standing rules;
 - b) Propose needed amendments to existing policies and standing rules;
 - c) Provide guidance to the annual conference at any point where conference action may be at variance with a policy or standing rule.
- 1.2 The Standing Rules of the Annual Conference must be in compliance with the provisions of ¶604 of the current edition of The United Methodist Book of Discipline.

Section 2 – Annual Conference Session Procedures

- 2.1 The Conference shall follow the latest edition of Robert’s Rules of Order except where it is in conflict with the current Book of Discipline.
- 2.2 All motions and resolutions shall be supplied to the conference secretary in writing on a form provided for this purpose by the conference secretary.
- 2.3 Any entity planning to present a report at any annual conference session shall submit the report to the Office of Connectional Ministries at least 10 weeks prior to the opening day of annual conference for inclusion in pre-conference materials.
- 2.4 All resolutions not included in the pre-conference materials shall be submitted to the Committee on Resolutions at least 30 days prior to the first day of the annual conference session. The chair of the resolutions committee shall submit to the annual conference, in their original form, all resolutions so submitted. In addition, the committee may present to the annual conference for consideration a revised version of any such resolution.
- 2.5 The roll call of the Tennessee Annual Conference shall be taken from the registration.

- 2.6 The agenda of the conference shall be that as it is corrected and distributed on the first day of annual conference with the understanding that the bishop may adjust the agenda for the good of the order.
- 2.7 All speeches other than reports shall be limited to three minutes.
- 2.8 Voting cards shall be the means of identifying who is eligible to vote on all issues requiring a vote.
- 2.9 The annual conference session shall meet at a location accessible to persons with disabilities.
- 2.10 All annual conference reports to be included in the journal shall be e-mailed to the journal editor 10 weeks prior to the opening day of annual conference. Any corrections and/or additions received after this date shall, at the discretion of the journal editor, be included in the succeeding journal. Handwritten and typewritten reports shall not be accepted for publication in the journal. All reports should be typed, using Microsoft Word according to the specifications on the conference website. Photos must be submitted as separate JPG files and must include permissions from all persons pictured. Photos submitted will be used as space permits in the journal. Use Tennessee Conference Journal Style Sheet posted on the conference website for guidance on capitalization, punctuation, and so forth to ensure that the journal has a consistent look and flow. Files that contain tables should be submitted in Microsoft Excel format. No PDF or directly scanned images will be accepted.
- 2.11 Agenda items and reports not requiring action by the annual conference other than a vote to receive said item for publication in the journal, shall be placed on a consent agenda. In order for any item or report to be eligible for placement on the consent agenda, it must have been available online with the pre-conference materials. Any item may be removed from the consent agenda if ten members of the conference petition for removal.
- 2.12 Equalization and youth participation: Whenever it shall occur that the person serving as the director of Administrative Services, director of Connectional Ministries, or director of Ministerial Concerns is a lay person, then each person so serving shall be an at-large lay member of the annual conference. The conference secretary shall determine annually the number of laypersons needed to equalize lay and clergy members of the annual conference. The at-large members are to be allocated as nearly as possible on an equal basis to the districts. When the number of members to equalize cannot be distributed evenly between the districts, the members shall be allocated to the districts in alphabetical order of districts. The at-large members are to be elected by each district conference.

Each district conference shall elect two youth (ages 12-17) and two young adults (ages 18-30) as at-large members of the annual conference.

Section 3 -- Election of Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conference

- 3.1 Clergy and lay delegates to General and jurisdictional conferences shall be elected as provided in the Constitution of The United Methodist Church (paragraphs 34-36 of The Book of Discipline).
- 3.2 Ballots:
- a) Ballots will be provided by the office of the conference secretary
 - b) Fifty percent plus one valid ballots cast shall be necessary to elect
 - c) Ballots with more or less than the number to be elected shall be rejected as invalid
- 3.3 Candidacy of persons eligible to serve as delegates, whether clergy or lay to General and/or jurisdictional conference, may be established either by declaration or nomination:

- a) To declare candidacy for election to serve as a General or jurisdictional conference delegate, the eligible person must submit to the Office of Connectional Ministries, no later than 10 weeks prior to the opening day of annual conference, for inclusion in the pre-conference materials a statement concerning:
 1. His/her activities at the local church, district, and annual, jurisdictional, and general conference levels;
 2. An assessment of the principal needs of the general Church and how those needs should be met; and
 3. Any other information felt pertinent to introducing himself/herself to those members of the annual conference who may not be familiar with his/her views on issues confronting the Church.

- b) To nominate a person for candidacy to be elected to serve as a General or jurisdictional conference delegate and have the nomination included in the pre-conference materials, the nominator(s) must:
 1. Determine the eligibility of the person to be nominated.
 2. Secure from the person to be nominated and submit to the Office of Connectional Ministries the proposed nominee's written consent to accept the nomination.
 3. Submit to the Office of Connectional Ministries, no later than 10 weeks prior to the opening day of annual conference, for inclusion in the pre-conference materials, a statement concerning:
 - The activities of the nominee at the local church, district, and annual, jurisdictional, and general conference levels,
 - An assessment of the opinions of the nominee regarding the principal needs of the church and how those needs should be met, and
 - Any other information (such as age and ethnicity) felt to be pertinent to introducing the nominee to those members of the annual conference who may not be familiar with that nominee's views on issues confronting the church.

- c) Statements submitted in the establishing of candidacy, whether by declaration or nomination, shall be limited to 200 words, and shall be submitted via e-mail.

- d) Persons do not have to declare candidacy or be nominated for candidacy in order to be eligible for election to serve as a General or jurisdictional conference delegate.

- e) The initial ballot for election to General Conference will have a ballot number assigned only to those who, by declaration or nomination, have expressed their desire to be considered as a candidate. All subsequent ballots will assign numbers to write-in candidates during the election process.

3.4 Reserve delegates: After the jurisdictional conference delegates are elected, two lay and two clergy reserve delegates shall be elected. The delegation's budget will include funding for one lay and one clergy reserve delegate to attend General and jurisdictional conferences. In the event of a tie in the election for reserves, the delegation will be providing funding for two lay and two clergy reserves.

Section 4 – Suspension, Adoption, and Amendment of Standing Rules

- 4.1 Any standing rule, with the exception of SR 4.2, SR 4.3, and SR 4.4, may be suspended at any session of the annual conference by a two-thirds majority vote of those present and voting.

- 4.2 Any proposal for the adoption of a standing rule, or for the amendment of an existing standing rule, shall be submitted to the Committee on Standing Rules at least 30 days prior to the first day of the annual conference session. The Committee on Standing Rules will present their recommendations to the annual conference, and their recommendations may be adopted or amended from the floor by a two-thirds majority of those present and voting.

- 4.3 Any additions or amendments to the Standing Rules shall take effect at the conclusion of the annual conference session in which they are adopted.
- 4.4 Any proposal for an addition or change in the parsonage standards shall be presented to the annual conference through or by the cabinet and through the Committee on Policies and Standing Rules.

Section 5 – Procedural Policies

- 5.1 All boards, agencies, and other entities of the annual conference in the performance of their duties shall adhere to the appropriate provisions in the current Book of Discipline.
- 5.2 Conference master calendar: There shall be a master calendar of all conference and district dates which will be maintained by the Office of Connectional Ministries staff. All district and conference committees, councils, commissions, boards, task groups, and institutions amenable to the conference shall coordinate all dates with the Connectional Ministries office and establish dates upon the master calendar for all events that call for general participation of the people of our churches.

The master calendar shall be coordinated with the general Church calendar, such that, where possible, conflict with national meetings will not occur.

- 5.3 Any entity that claims a relationship to the Tennessee Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church must be endorsed and/or authorized by and accountable to an officially recognized board, commission, committee, or council of the Tennessee Annual Conference.

A progress review is intended to provide an annual means of appraising a staff person's performance on the job.

Employee Performance

The appropriate director/supervisor shall evaluate annually the job performance of each person under his/her supervision. Such evaluation shall be reviewed with the chairperson of the respective agency's executive committee and, if deemed appropriate, with their entire executive committee. This evaluation shall be based upon the employee's work as related to his/her job description and performance goals.

In the event that there are deficiencies in an employee's performance, the director shall schedule interim reviews with the employee to assess the needed improvement. The director will keep the chairperson of the executive committee apprised of such reviews.

An evaluation is a confidential matter that shall remain with those who have a need to know: the employee, the supervisor(s), and appropriate entity. A copy of the evaluation shall be placed in the employee's personnel file and the employee shall be given a copy. Both copies shall be marked Confidential.

FINANCIAL REMUNERATION

The appropriate entity, in consultation with the director, shall be responsible for setting the salary for newly hired persons and reviewing salaries of each employee annually.

Pay Period

Compensation shall be issued on the 15th and 30th of each month (except when those dates fall on a Saturday or Sunday; then, the remuneration will be made on the last work day immediately preceding the 15th or 30th). Payments are directly deposited into the checking and/or savings accounts that the employee designates.

Overtime for Non-exempt Employees

Actual time worked is the basis for computing overtime. For purposes of computing overtime, the work week begins on Monday and ends on Sunday.

1. All requests for overtime must be approved in advance by a director or equivalent. Employees and supervisors should attempt to provide as much advance notice as possible when required to work overtime.
2. All time worked up to and including 40 hours is computed at straight pay; all overtime worked in excess of 40 hours is computed at time-and-one-half pay. Overtime is paid for hours worked in excess of 40 hours during a regular work week. Holiday, vacation, and sick pay are not counted toward overtime.
3. All overtime is to be clearly reported on the attendance record (i.e. time card).

Travel Expense

All employees will receive reimbursement for conference-related travel in accordance with TAC rules, subject to IRS rules defining business expense and appropriate contemporaneous documentation. Travel between the place of employment and the place of residence shall not be reimbursed.

Work Schedule

Office hours for support staff persons normally are from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. Lunch period is one hour in length. The directors may allow a deviation from these hours or days when the director deems it appropriate.

Offices of the TAC will remain open Monday through Friday with the exception of the holiday schedule listed under holidays. Exceptions may be made by the director(s) at each location.

Directors, associate directors, and coordinators are often expected to work days and hours that do not fit the normal schedule of office hours. These persons are responsible for their areas of ministry and will demonstrate by their results that they are faithful to their ministries.

Adjustments to compensation

A wage assignment or a garnishment is a legal order requiring an individual's employer to withhold part of the employee's wages in order to pay a debt or obligation. Wage assignments which meet legal requirements will be honored when issued and withheld from employee's compensation.

All lay employees are covered by the Federal Old Age and Survivors Benefits Act to provide the protection offered by Social Security. Social Security tax is paid half by the lay employee and half by the employer. Clergy pay the total cost for Social Security coverage as self-employed persons for Social Security purposes. Clergy may also have part of their compensation designated as a housing allowance.

All conference employees who participate in the conference's health plan are eligible to participate in the conference's medical Flexible Spending Account (FSA, or cafeteria) program. Employees designate the amount to be withheld from their compensation, from which they can be reimbursed for covered medical-related spending.

Assisting Employees with Disabling Illnesses

Staff may be covered by the conference's disability coverage but should consider purchasing their own policies to provide additional short-term and long-term disability benefits.

Military

The TAC supports and complies with the Veteran's Reemployment Rights Act and applicable state laws.

Relocation Moving Expense

A newly employed/appointed director or associate director needing to locate housing within a reasonable commuting distance will receive a one-time reimbursement for cost of transportation, meals, and lodging, for the purpose of locating housing. The trip will be for no more than five days.

Moving expenses incurred with hiring of new staff who move more than 50 miles may be paid at the discretion of the executive director. The appropriate entity will pay the costs of moving. Moving expenses will be reported as income unless they qualify for tax-exempt treatment, and appropriate forms and documentation are provided to Administrative Services.

PERSONNEL FILES

The TAC maintains a personnel file for each staff person. The conference attempts to maintain those documents which are, have been or are intended to be used in determining a staff person's qualifications for employment, promotion, transfer, additional compensation, discharge, or other disciplinary action.

A staff person has the right to inspect certain portions of his/her personnel file. Personal information is not to be released to a third party without authorization by the appropriate director.

If an employee is unable to complete the workday due to injury on the job, he/she will receive compensation for the remainder of the workday.

Tennessee Conference Media Crisis Response Plan

A Media Crisis in the Tennessee Conference is:

An event or emergency associated in some way with the Church but beyond its control, which can be expected to become public. It presents potential for damage to individuals, or the image of the Church, and hinders the ability to be in ministry. In other words, a media crisis is anything that could cause the public to lose faith in Tennessee Conference leadership or in The United Methodist Church.

Media Crises Come in Several Packages

- Personnel crisis (clergy, church staff, or lay member's misconduct, death, illness, or injury)
- Threatened criminal or legal action
- Violent acts, demonstrations
- Corporate crisis (lawsuits against the conference, an agency or institution)
- Positive crisis (donations exceed what can be handled, etc.)

3. The bishop or alternate spokesperson and local church pastor* or agency director* must be thoroughly and regularly briefed before making any appearances or statements. The spokespersons may refer news media to others who can speak with authority on a particular subject.

*If the local church pastor or agency director is intimately involved in the crisis, s/he will not be a spokesperson.

4. The MCMT will determine whether the spokesperson should leave immediately for the location of the crisis (such as a church camp or church building). This may be necessary if reporters are already on site and there is no spokesperson present.
5. The bishop or alternate spokesperson must establish a schedule for regular briefing sessions of team members for the purpose of updates and discussion during the first few days of the crisis when media interest will be most intense.
6. The team is authorized to engage other professionals as needed. The bishop or his/her designate and the team should determine who receives information, updates and copies of all statements and releases.

D. SAFE SANCTUARY POLICY FOR CHILDREN, YOUTH, AND VULNERABLE PERSONS

Abuse and neglect of children, youth, and vulnerable persons are prohibited by the Tennessee Annual Conference, its churches and its agencies.

The Tennessee Conference seeks to create a safe environment for children, youth, and vulnerable persons in which opportunities for abuse are minimized by the provision of proper enlistment and supervision of those persons working with them. This document contains theological foundations, definitions of abuse, and policies related to prevention, response, and reporting.

Clergy and laity are encouraged to read this policy and make it an essential part of the operations of each local church. For procedures related to conference events and for resources related to local church policies and procedures visit tnumc.org and go to the Safe Spaces Ministry page.

I. SCOPE

The Tennessee Conference of the United Methodist Church affirms that all children, youth and vulnerable persons have the right to safety. Therefore, United Methodists of the Tennessee Conference are determined to provide an environment in which these persons are safe from neglect or abuse including sexual misconduct and harassment.

The scope of this policy and its provisions shall apply to all staff and volunteers, clergy or lay, who have direct or indirect contact with children, youth, and vulnerable persons in conference and/or district sponsored events. This policy should be implemented in conjunction with the Sexual Misconduct Policy for Church Professionals found at tnumc.org on the Safe Spaces Ministry page.

Safe Spaces Ministry consists of the Safe Sanctuary Team, the Boundaries and Sexual Ethics Team, and the Conference Response Team for the Tennessee Conference. The Safe Spaces Ministry serves to assist in development, review and implementation of policies and procedures necessary for keeping ministry safe. This ministry will facilitate the availability of training for members of the Tennessee Conference.

The Safe Spaces Ministry will be responsible for annual review of the policy and will propose to the annual conference suggested revisions to the policy as needed. Each conference and/or district ministry event involving children, youth, or vulnerable persons shall create procedures to implement this policy.

II. THEOLOGICAL FOUNDATION

Our Biblical Mandate:

“Then Jesus took a little child and put her among them; and taking her in his arms, he said to them, ‘Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.’” (Paraphrase of Mark 9:36- 37) Jesus also said, “If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones..., it would be better for you if a great millstone were fastened around your neck and you were drowned in the depth of the sea.” (Matthew 18:6)

Our Commitment in Baptism:

The Church, above all institutions, is called to welcome and nurture the child. Our goal is to maintain a safe, secure, loving place where all children may grow and where those who care for them may minister to their needs in responsible ways.

Our Mandate:

The 1996 General Conference approved a resolution that called upon local churches and annual conferences to institute policies and procedures to reduce the risk of child sexual abuse in our churches and church-related activities. We, in the Tennessee Conference, accept the nature of this call and seek to expand it to include all forms of abuse and neglect that could be possible in these settings or that could come to our attention regarding all children, youth, and/or vulnerable persons in our care.

Statement of Covenant:

As caring Christians, we are committed to protect and advocate for all children, youth, and vulnerable persons participating in the life of the church. The Church, at all levels of its organization, is entrusted with the responsibility of providing an emotionally and physically safe, spiritually grounded, healthy environment for all children, youth, adults, and vulnerable persons in which they are protected from abuse.

We uphold the idea that to report abuse is to be a witness to the world of the love and justice of God and fully recognize that reporting abuse is a form of ministering to the needs of those crying out for help. Simply, to report abuse can help to stop existing abuse and prevent further abuse.

Additionally, we care for victims of abuse and their families by offering resources that will contribute to healing. Further, we recognize the grace that God gives in upholding Christian community; we will look for grace-filled ways of dealing with both the victim and the accused.

Therefore, as a Christian community of faith and a United Methodist congregation, we pledge to conduct the ministry of the gospel in ways that assure the safety and spiritual growth of all of our children, youth and vulnerable persons, as well as all of the workers with children, youth and vulnerable persons. We will follow reasonable safety measures in the selection and recruitment of workers; we will implement prudent operational procedures in all programs and events; we will educate all of our workers with children, youth and vulnerable persons regarding the use of all appropriate policies and methods (including first aid and methods of discipline); we will have a clearly defined procedure for reporting a suspected incident of abuse that conforms to the requirements of state law; and we will be prepared to respond to media inquiries if an incident occurs.

III. ADOPTION OF POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Local churches within the conference will adopt and enforce their own Safe Sanctuary Policy For Children, Youth, and Vulnerable Persons. It is recommended that the congregational policy be equal to or exceed in strength of protection for all children, youth, and vulnerable persons the minimum standards here stated. The Tennessee Conference of UMC recommends the local church act as follows:

- A. Responsibility for Implementation. Implementing the Abuse Prevention Policy For Children, Youth, and Vulnerable Persons at a local church shall be the responsibility of the Pastor in Charge, the governing body, and a Safe Sanctuaries Committee (SSC) or its equivalent organized in compliance with the local church's governance process.

Safe Sanctuaries Committee or Equivalent. A Safe Sanctuaries Committee (this may be the age-level ministry committee or education committee) shall have the responsibility for developing local church safe sanctuaries policies and procedures; communicating with and educating the congregation concerning those policies and procedures; recruiting, screening, and training paid staff and volunteers; conducting site inspections and making recommendations; retaining records; and regularly reviewing conference policies and procedures, applicable state laws, and the insurance policy provisions and insurer requirements. It is recommended that this committee or its equivalent should have at least one representative each from Education, Age-level ministries, Trustees, and the Staff Parish Relations committees.

- B. Training. Such periodic training and education on the Safe Sanctuary Policy For Children, Youth, and Vulnerable Persons provided by the Tennessee Conference should be attended each quadrennium by the local church Pastor in Charge and SSC chairperson or other SSC designated member. Further, it is recommended that attendance at such conference-wide training include at a minimum, designees from the local church who will be personally coordinating and conducting safe sanctuaries training for employees and staff within the local church.
- C. Annual Review of Policy. The local church Safe Sanctuary Committee will conduct an annual review of the policy to facilitate implementation of best practices and compliance with current state and federal law. A report will be made to the Tennessee Conference as a part of their charge conference report.

IV. COMMON DEFINITIONS OF ABUSE

1. Child abuse (under age 18) is the harm or threatened harm to a child’s health or welfare by a person responsible for the child’s health or welfare or by a person in a position of trust, which harm occurs or is threatened through non-accidental physical or mental injury or sexual abuse.
2. Vulnerable persons abuse is the harm or threatened harm to a vulnerable person’s health or welfare by a person responsible for the vulnerable person’s health or welfare or by a person in a position of trust, which harm occurs or is threatened through non-accidental physical or mental injury or sexual abuse. A vulnerable person is any adult aged 18 or over who, by reason of mental or other disability, age, illness or other situation is permanently or for the time being unable to take care of him or herself, or to protect him or herself against significant harm or exploitation.
3. Physical abuse is any non-accidental act that inflicts bodily harm to a person, or failure to protect from physical harm where a duty exists to do so.
4. Neglect is failure to provide for physical survival needs (such as nutrition, medical, surgical, or any other care necessary for the well being of any child, youth, or vulnerable persons) to the extent that there is harm, or risk of harm, to health or safety.
5. Sexual abuse is any involvement of a child, youth or vulnerable person in intentional sexual acts or sexual conduct that produces sexual arousal or gratification for the perpetrator or sexual behaviors/situations in which there is a sexual component. Sexual abuse includes, without limitation, sexual contact or sharing of sexually explicit language, gestures, or images by a volunteer or staff person with, or directed to, a child, youth or vulnerable person.
6. Verbal abuse refers to spoken or unspoken violence or emotional cruelty against a child, youth, and/or a vulnerable person.

V. SCREENING PROCEDURES FOR VOLUNTEERS AND PAID STAFF

All persons, including conference staff who intend to work with children, youth, and/or vulnerable persons at conference-sponsored events, including overnight or longer events, must also be properly screened and attend an age-appropriate orientation/ training session on child protection and abuse and have current background check. Local church Safe Sanctuary policies are expected to meet the minimum requirements set out below for training and screening. A Safe Spaces Verification form will be completed and submitted to the appropriate leadership prior to participation.

The following procedures should be followed:

- A written job description outlining duties and expectations must be provided, and shall be signed and dated by each person falling within the scope of the policy.
- An application/personal information form shall be completed.

- A Sexual Offender Registry check in any state where the applicant has resided during the past seven (7) years shall be conducted.
- Consent to a criminal background check. A background check should be provided for anyone staying overnight or longer, i.e. weekend retreats, summer camps.
- A new background check should be performed every 3 years as the standard.
- If the applicant is found to have been involved in any activity in which the applicant abused or exploited children, youth, or vulnerable persons the applicant will not be approved. Any conviction of a crime against children, youth or adults from vulnerable populations and any conviction of rape, sexual or physical assault shall disqualify any applicant. A person who has been convicted as a sex offender will not be approved. Affirmative responses to questions relating to crimes involving possession or use of drugs or suspension of a drivers' license within the past five years will prompt a heightened review of an application.
- Personal interviews with summary documentation will be conducted by the Safe Sanctuary team or conference staff representative and kept in a confidential file maintained by the conference ministry for whom the applicant will serve.
- References will be checked with summary documentation in a confidential file and maintained by the conference ministry for whom the applicant will serve.

VI. RECIPROCALITY

The Safe Spaces Ministry Team may accept training provided by other United Methodist conferences or United Methodist churches in other conferences after a review of the policies and procedures implemented in the other conference or church. Screening will be accepted provided that there has been a copy of the National Screen that included a national criminal check conducted by the other conference or church submitted with the request.

VII. REPORTING OF INCIDENTS

Incidents may involve inappropriate behavior by staff/volunteers or other participants toward a participant and call for immediate on-site corrective action. Incidents may involve the abuse, neglect or exploitation of participants by staff/volunteers or other participants and mandate reporting through the Tennessee Child Abuse hotline (1-877-237-0004) or the Adult Protective Services hotline (1-888-277-8366). In case of an emergency, immediately call 9-1-1.

A call to the hotline is required to be made by staff/volunteers if there is reasonable cause to suspect that abuse of a participant has occurred. When the necessity of reporting occurs, the protection of children, youth, and vulnerable persons must be paramount. Cooperation with the Tennessee Department of Children's Services, the Tennessee Commission on Aging and Disability and law enforcement is required in all such incidents.

In case of allegations of abuse occurring in the church or ministries affiliated with the church or having the potential to impact the ministry of the church, the district superintendent and/or bishop shall be notified immediately. The Safe Spaces Ministry staff person will also be notified following notification of the appropriate state or local law enforcement authorities. Parents or legal guardians will generally be notified; however, in circumstances in which the parent or guardian is alleged or suspected to be the perpetrator or may have been complicit in the neglect or abuse, notice may be withheld in appropriate circumstances. When doubt exists, legal counsel should be consulted.

VIII. STATEMENT TO THE MEDIA

The Media Crisis Response Plan should be enacted to insure proper protocol is followed.

The bishop or alternate spokesperson shall provide conference and district ministry groups with guidelines for communications with media about the incident(s) which may have been reported.

IX. FUNDAMENTAL SAFE SPACES PROCEDURES FOR THE CONFERENCE AND DISTRICT

1. Appropriate Boundaries: All persons, staff and participants, will maintain boundaries appropriate to their specific roles, age, and relationship to another.
2. Two Adult Rule: At least two adults should be present during all conference events such that no one adult will be alone with any number of children, youth, or vulnerable persons. At least two of the adults present should be non-related and non-cohabitating. For small group activities where one adult supervises one group, two or more groups are to meet in sight and sound of each other. The ministry leader may also decide to combine groups to ensure the safety of all parties. Small group sizes will be determined by the size of the group, but should not exceed reasonable adult/participant ratios. (When both genders of students are represented, both genders of adults should also be represented.)
3. Five Year Older Rule: Persons supervising children and/or middle school youth (grades 6th-8th) will be at least 18 years old and will be at least 5 years older than the oldest child/youth participant.
4. Four Year Older Rule: Persons supervising high school youth (grades 9th-12th) will be at least 4 years older than the oldest youth participant.
5. Open Doors: Doors to meeting spaces without windows must remain open when children, youth, or vulnerable adults are utilizing the space. Doors with windows may remain closed provided that sight lines to all areas of the room are clear.
6. Medical Release/Registration Form: All persons attending conference events with children, youth, or vulnerable persons shall have a completed medical release form and completed parental permission form. The medical release form will be valid for a 1-year period beginning August 1 of the current year and expiring July 31 of the next year. It is expected that a new form will be submitted if a change in medical status, change in residence, or other life event occurs. All forms will be maintained by the local church ministry leadership and will be available upon request for verification during conference event check-in.
7. Local Ministry Leader Responsibility: It is expected that the children/youth coordinator/ director from the local church is responsible for the care and supervision of that local church's participants at the conference/district event.

POLICY REVISION DATE: May 2017

POLICY ADOPTION DATE: June 2017

E. SEXUAL MISCONDUCT POLICY FOR CHURCH PROFESSIONALS of the Tennessee Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church

Preamble

The Tennessee Annual Conference does not approve of and will not tolerate sexual misconduct. The conference is committed to the eradication of this conduct if it should occur and to the creation of an environment of hospitality for all persons, male or female, that is free of sexual overtones and implications, and encourages respect, equality, and kinship in Christ. This policy aims to provide an avenue to report sexual misconduct while assuring that any person doing so in good faith will be protected from retaliation.

All church professionals (see definition) have positions of great trust, power, and responsibility. This provides the opportunity for unique relationships of grace and caring. While church professionals can sometimes violate the trust given them within these relationships, sexual misconduct is one of the gravest violations of this trust. This policy seeks to address the abuse of power by church professionals who engage in sexual misconduct. While this policy is binding for appointed church professionals, it is our hope that it may serve as a guide for other church professionals such as local church laity staff and volunteers.

The intent of this policy is to provide guidance to both laity and clergy of the Tennessee Annual Conference and the local church regarding sexual misconduct and, thereby, protect the relationship between church professionals and parishioners, staff members, colleagues, and others. It is both the ethical and legal responsibility of the Tennessee Annual Conference to ensure that there are mechanisms for preventing sexual misconduct and addressing allegations of the same. This policy provides guidance regarding the definition of sexual misconduct, procedures for filing and addressing allegations of sexual misconduct, and training expectations and requirements designed to prevent sexual misconduct in the Tennessee Annual Conference. The primary focus of this policy shall be the search for truth to assure justice for the complainant and the accused. This policy is not intended to supplant or substitute for the formal complaint process and its attendant fair process protection in the current Book of Discipline, which must, where applicable, be followed in addition to this policy. Failure by church authorities to use or follow any of the procedures herein is not a chargeable offense, nor can it be used as grounds for an appeal of a formal grievance, complaint, review or trial as defined in current Book of Discipline. We are committed to procedural accuracy and pastoral care in the pursuit of justice for victims and survivors, real accountability for abusers, and healing for all parties.

Theological Foundation

We believe and affirm every person is created in the image of God. We further believe and affirm sexual misconduct within the ministerial relationship and in the Church is incompatible with biblical teachings and ethical standards. Sexual misconduct violates the sacred worth of persons who are created in the image of God. Such misconduct is particularly reprehensible in the context of the ministerial relationship that should represent the care of God. It should be understood that sexual misconduct is an abuse of power and authority. This misconduct alienates persons from the ministry of the Church. It tarnishes the Church's ministry and mission. Those guilty of sexual misconduct bring real harm to persons, congregations, and the Church as a whole.

Forgiveness is a sacred teaching of the Church, but this teaching in no way protects a person guilty of sexual misconduct from the discipline of the Church. Representing the Church as a church professional is a privilege requiring the highest professional conduct. Forgiveness by God or by a person harmed by sexual misconduct does not automatically restore the privilege of serving as a church professional. It is not appropriate for church authorities to pressure persons harmed by sexual misconduct to forgive the offender as a way to restore to the offender the privilege of serving as a professional in the Church. Central to the task of church authorities is to protect the vulnerable and to eradicate sexual misconduct from the Church.

Definitions

A. Church Professionals

1. Appointed Church Professionals

Appointed church professionals shall include full, associate, and provisional ministerial members of the Tennessee Annual Conference, as well as ordained deacons (full and provisional) and elders, diaconal ministers and local pastors, in both the effective and retired relationships, supply pastors, and other persons serving the Tennessee Annual Conference or any local church under appointment of the bishop or under the supervision of a district superintendent, including persons keeping their membership in another annual conference or in another denomination and persons holding orders issued by these conferences while on honorable or administrative location. Additionally, this includes lay and clergy persons employed directly by conference agencies including but not limited to the Conference Council on Connectional Ministries.

2. Other Church Professionals

Other church professionals shall include anyone in a position of power, authority, or leadership employed by or serving as a volunteer in a ministry in the Tennessee Annual Conference.

B. Book of Discipline

The 2016 Book of Discipline refers to The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church 2016, which sets forth the laws, plans, polity, and processes by which The United Methodist Church governs itself. It contains insight and information about the distinct United Methodist understanding of the nature and mission of the Church, and about what is expected of its clergy and members as they seek to be faithful and effective disciples of Christ.

C. Book of Resolutions

The Book of Resolutions 2016 refers to the volume containing the text of all resolutions or pronouncements on issues approved by the General Conference and currently valid. The Book of Resolutions contains not only the resolutions and policy statements passed by the most recent General Conference, but also all such statements still considered to represent the position of The United Methodist Church. The text of any resolution is considered the official position of the denomination on that subject.

D. Sexual Misconduct

Misconduct of a sexual nature is a chargeable offense, for both laity and clergy. Chargeable offenses include: child abuse, sexual abuse, sexual misconduct [including pornography], sexual harassment, gender discrimination, crime, and immorality.

Sexual misconduct is abuse of power and authority, and is not only an act against one person, but an act against fellow ministry professionals; members in the local congregation; the Church at large; and God. (Book of Resolutions 2016, ¶2044).

- child or adult sexual abuse
- sexual abuse of youth or those without capacity to consent
- rape or sexual assault
- gross sexual imposition like prolonged gazing, fondling, grabbing, or stalking
- sexual harassment
- unwelcome touching and advances
- inappropriate and unwelcome contacts of a sexual nature either in person or via phone, digital media, or cyberspace
- sexualized verbal comments, gestures, or visuals
- use of sexualized materials including pornography

- sexualized behavior
- solicitation of sexual activity or other sex-related behavior by promise of rewards
- coercion of sexual activity by threat of punishment
- or misuse of pastoral or ministerial position using sexualized conduct to take advantage of the vulnerability of another (The Book of Discipline 2012, ¶161, Book of Resolutions 2016, ¶2081, ¶2082)

Each alleged occurrence of sexual misconduct requires its own unique and appropriate investigation (as described below) and response, depending on the facts and circumstances.

Sexual harassment is a form of sexual misconduct and is defined in The 2016 Book of Discipline, Social Principles ¶161(J) as, “any unwanted sexual comment, advance, or demand, either verbal or physical, that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating or coercive. Sexual harassment must be understood as an exploitation of a power relationship rather than an exclusively sexual issue. Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, the creation of a hostile or abusive working environment resulting from discrimination on the basis of gender.” To clarify further, it is unwanted sexual or gender-directed behavior within a pastoral, employment, ministerial (paid or unpaid), mentor, or colleague relationship that is so severe or pervasive that it alters the conditions of employment or volunteer work or unreasonably interferes with the complainant’s performance by creating a hostile environment that can include unwanted sexual jokes, repeated advances, touching, displays, or comments that insult, degrade, or sexually exploit women, men, elders, children, or youth. “It can create a hostile, offensive environment that can include unwanted inappropriate sexual jokes, repeated advances, touching, displays, or comments that insult, degrade, or sexually exploit women, men, elders, children, or youth” (Book of Resolutions 2016, ¶2045). Both sexual and gender harassment are exploitations of power and are discriminatory by law (GCFA Legal Manual, <http://www.gcfa.org/gcfa-legal-manual>).

Sexual abuse is a form of sexual misconduct and occurs when a church professional engages in sexual contact or sexualized behavior with a congregant, client, employee, student, staff member, coworker, or volunteer (Book of Resolutions 2016, ¶161(I)). It can include coerced or forced sexual contact (including those unable to give informed consent), sexual interaction or contact with children or youth, and sexual exhibitionism or display of sexual visuals or pornography.

Sexualized behavior is behavior that communicates sexual interest and/or content. Examples include, but are not limited to displaying sexually suggestive visual materials; use of pornography in church programs on or with church property, making sexual comments or innuendo about one’s own or another person’s body; touching another person’s body; touching another person’s body/hair/clothing; touching or rubbing oneself in the presence of another person; kissing; and sexual intercourse. Sexualized behavior can be a form of sexual misconduct when this behavior is unwanted by the recipient or witness, is a violation of society’s or the Church’s law, breaks the sacred trust in the ministerial role, or violates the vows taken at membership or ordination. The judicial council asserts that dating, romantic, or sexual relationships between clergy and their parishioners “are never appropriate because of imbalance of power” (Decision 1228, 2012). For the sake of maintaining healthy boundaries and preventing a betrayal of sacred trust, a clergyperson who has a genuine desire to date a parishioner must contact their district superintendent, and in consultation with the DS, determine a reasonable course of action for discontinuing the pastor/parishioner relationship before beginning a dating relationship.

Pornography is sexually explicit material that portrays violence, abuse, coercion, domination, humiliation, or degradation for the purpose of arousal. Any sexually explicit material that depicts children or adults is pornographic. “The United Methodist Church declares that the use of pornography in church programs, on church premises or with church property by persons in ministerial roles (lay and clergy) is a form of sexual misconduct, is a chargeable offense for laity and clergy in The United Methodist Church” (Book of Resolutions 2016, ¶2081, ¶2082).

E. Complainant

A complainant is a person who submits a written, signed, and dated statement alleging an incident of sexual or professional misconduct. A complainant may be a parent or responsible party for a minor or an adult incapable of self-reporting.

F. Respondent

A respondent is a church professional against whom a complaint has been made.

G. Complainant Advocate (Response Team Member)

H. Respondent Advocate (Response Team Member)

A trained respondent advocate is a response team member who actively supports a respondent who is accused of sexual misconduct/abuse through the denomination complaint process as discussed in The 2016 Book of Discipline in paragraphs ¶362, 363, and 2702.1. The role of advocate is one of care-giving, not investigation.

I. Conference Response Team Coordinator

The conference response team coordinator oversees the complaint process, serves as a resource for district superintendents, bishops, complainants, and respondents and maintains the integrity of the process including documentation of complaints for the office of the bishop. This may be the assistant to the bishop, an appointed conference response team member, or appropriate Tennessee Conference personnel. The role of conference response team coordinator is one of care-giving, not investigation.

Making a Report

Any concern a person has about sexual misconduct by a church professional should be promptly reported to any district superintendent or the bishop. The list of names of the current persons in these positions and their contact information may be found at www.tnmc.org or by calling the conference office at 615-329-1177. If for any reason such person finds it difficult to report his or her concerns to a district superintendent or the bishop, the person may contact a trained advocate or the conference response team coordinator, who is available to assist any complainant with the process in making a report to either a district superintendent or the bishop. A list of the members of the conference response team along with the conference response team coordinator's contact information can be found in each volume of the Journal of the Tennessee Annual Conference following each annual conference session or at www.tnmc.org/safe-spaces-ministry. (The 2016 Book of Discipline ¶363)

Mandatory Reporting

In no way should this policy be interpreted or applied in a manner that interferes with any licensed practitioner in fulfilling his/her mandatory reporting requirements.

All allegations of sexual misconduct with minors or vulnerable adults occurring in Tennessee will be reported to the appropriate governmental agencies, as required by mandatory reporting laws of Tennessee.

Policy Against Retaliation

No retaliation will be tolerated on account of a good faith report of sexual misconduct. Prohibited retaliation will be considered a separate and independent violation of this policy and appropriate action may be taken against that retaliator. Anyone who believes they have been retaliated against may also report such retaliation as detailed above in Making a Report. The person is encouraged to report retaliation immediately to a district superintendent or the bishop, or contact his or her trained advocate or the conference response team coordinator for assistance in reporting the concern to a district superintendent or the bishop.

Investigation

Upon receipt by a district superintendent or the bishop of a report, a prompt and thorough investigation into the allegations of sexual misconduct against any church professional will be conducted and appropriate corrective action, if called for based upon all of the facts, shall be taken and concluded within a reasonable period of time. The scope and details of each investigation will depend on the nature of the report and the related circumstances. In circumstances involving church professionals, by doctrinal law, the procedure may be governed by The 2016 Book of Discipline in ¶362 and ¶2701-2719. In each instance, the investigation will be handled with as much discretion as the circumstances permit to protect the privacy of the individuals involved. All persons having reported suspected sexual misconduct should refrain from contacting the person suspected of such conduct. Likewise, the persons suspected of such conduct shall refrain from contacting the complainant or alleged victim, unless otherwise directed by the bishop or district superintendent. All persons serving as witnesses in the investigation should refrain from contacting the complainant or the respondent, unless directed by a district superintendent or bishop to do so, in order to preserve the integrity and confidentiality of the investigation and confidentiality.

All persons having received a report of sexual misconduct, including anyone specifically engaged to serve as an advocate or investigate such reports, shall keep all reports confidential, except as required by The 2016 Book of Discipline, where applicable, or necessary to investigate and resolve such matters, and/or to respond to any related legal or administrative proceedings.

During the course of an investigation, a trained complainant advocate may be assigned to provide ongoing support to a complainant or alleged victim. Likewise, a trained respondent advocate may be assigned to provide ongoing support to the respondent. Both advocates are bound by the confidentiality provisions of this policy.

All allegations of sexual misconduct with minors or vulnerable adults occurring in Tennessee will be reported to the appropriate governmental agencies, as required by mandatory reporting laws of Tennessee.

Training

Appointed church professionals (see definition) serving in the Tennessee Annual Conference are required to attend official Tennessee Annual Conference trainings on 1) Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics and 2) Safe Sanctuaries each quadrennium. All transfers and candidates for ministry are required to complete these trainings prior to commissioning or appointment, whichever comes first. Compliance with these training requirements and a completed criminal background check are conditions of employment or ministerial appointment. A church professional failing to comply with these conditions of appointment may be cited an administrative charge by the bishop in accordance with The 2016 Book of Discipline ¶362.

It is strongly suggested that other church professionals (see definition) attend official Tennessee Annual Conference trainings on 1) Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics and 2) Safe Sanctuaries each quadrennium.

Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team

The 2010 report of the Sexual Ethics Task Force recommended to the annual conference that a Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team be formed to guide the portion of the Safe Spaces Ministry tasked with reviewing policies and implementing training opportunities in the best practices to create and maintain healthy boundaries for ministry. The Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team is a sub-team of the Safe Spaces Ministry Committee. This committee is made of the three teams: 1) Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics team; 2) Safe Sanctuary Team; 3) Conference Response Team. The Safe Spaces Ministry serves to insure that policies and procedures necessary for keeping ministry safe in order for sacred space to be created are developed, reviewed, appropriately presented and training provided for members of the Tennessee Annual Conference. The work of the committee is funded through apportionment giving as allocated through the Connectional Ministries budget on an annual basis. The Connectional Ministries, the Nashville Episcopal Area Office of Ministerial Concerns and the Tennessee Conference Board of Ordained Ministry work collaboratively to guide this vital ministry.

Availability of Policy

This policy shall be presented annually in the Journal of the Tennessee Annual Conference. Further, it shall be posted at www.tnumc.org continuously. It should be made available in at least one common area of every church in the Tennessee Annual Conference. It is strongly recommended that the Sexual Misconduct is Never Okay flyer be prominently displayed in one common area of every church in the Tennessee Annual Conference. This flyer is available for download at www.tnumc.org/safe-spaces-ministry. Questions about the policy should be directed to the staff liaison to the Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team through the Tennessee Annual Conference. This liaison will be identified on the conference website where the policy is located.

For small group activities where one adult supervises one group, two or more groups are to meet in sight and sound of each other. These two adults should be non-related and non-cohabitating. The ministry leader may also decide to combine groups to ensure the safety of all parties. Small group sizes will be determined by the size of the group, but should not exceed reasonable adult child/youth ratios.
- 2. Four & Five Year Older Rule: These persons are at least four years older than the oldest high school youth member of the church group. 8. Check-In Procedure: The Local Church Ministry Team should develop a consistent check-in procedure during the event to meet with the church group. These should be spread throughout the event and event day.
9. Lodging for Overnight Events: An adult will not share a room/hotel/tent with a child/youth unless the adult is a parent of that child/youth with whom they are sharing the room/hotel/tent.
10. Lodging for Overnight Events: There will be separate sleeping areas/rooms for males and females at all Next Gen sponsored events. When there are several rooms/cabins of youth, there will be at least two non-related adults of the same gender in the room/cabin.

AUDIT STATEMENT & STATISTICS

EXTENSION MINISTRY COMPENSATION

A. 2020 AUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENT

Independent Auditor's Report

Council on Finance and Administration
Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc.

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of the Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. and its subsidiaries (the Conference), which comprise the consolidated statements of financial position as of December 31, 2020 and 2019, the related consolidated statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements (collectively, the financial statements).

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. and its subsidiaries as of December 31, 2020 and 2019, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Note 1. Nature of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Organization

The Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. (the Conference) is a regional body of The United Methodist Church comprised of the lay members, clergy, and 600+ churches in 42 counties in middle Tennessee. The Conference is primarily responsible for all the ministries that are jointly provided by and for the United Methodists in its geographic area. The Conference administers Conference operating and program funds that are received from churches, boards and agencies, and individuals of the Conference, in accordance with the budget and other directives of the Annual Conference, the respective boards and agencies and donors.

Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying financial statements include the accounts under the accounting of the Conference Treasurer and the Caney Fork River District, Cumberland River District, Harpeth River District, Red River District, and Stones River District (the Districts) which are collectively, the Conference, after elimination of all material intercompany accounts and transactions.

Effective July 1, 2017, the Districts were incorporated into the Conference. Accumulated unrestricted reserves held previously by the districts prior to July 1, 2017 were renamed the Tennessee Cabinet Reserve Fund. These funds are assets of the Conference, controlled and previously reported by the Nashville Area Episcopal Office. During 2019, Council on Finance and Administration developed policies for control and administration of these funds that were subsequently approved by Annual Conference.

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (US GAAP).

Financial Statement Presentation

The Conference follows the recommendations contained in the Presentation of Financial Statements, Not-For-Profit Entities topic of the Financial Accounting Standard Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC). Under those provisions, net assets and revenues, gains, and losses are classified based on the absence or existence and nature of donor-imposed restrictions as follows:

Net assets without donor restrictions – Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations.

Net assets with donor restrictions – Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that can be fulfilled by actions of the Conference pursuant to those stipulations or that expire by the passage of time. Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may be maintained permanently by the Conference. Generally, the donors of such assets permit the Conference to use all or part of the income earned on the assets. Donor restricted contributions are reported as increases in net assets with donor restrictions. When a restriction expires, net assets are reclassified from net assets with donor restrictions to net assets without donor restrictions in the consolidated statements of activities.

Note 1. Nature of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with US GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Conference defines its cash, designated cash and cash equivalents to include cash on hand, demand deposits, and commercial paper and other investments with initial maturities of three months or less.

Investments

Investments in marketable securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are reported at their fair values in the statements of financial position. The Conference holds investments which are reported at Net Asset Value (NAV) per share or its equivalent as a practical expedient, to determine the fair value of investments in funds which (a) do not have a readily determinable fair value and (b) either have the attributes of an investment fund or prepare their financial statements consistent with the measurement principles of an investment fund.

Unrealized gains and losses are included in changes in net assets. Investment income and gains restricted by a donor are reported as increases in net assets without donor restrictions if the restrictions are met in the reporting period in which the income and gains are recognized. However, if a donor contributes an investment required to be held in perpetuity, gains and losses on the investment are subject to the same permanent restriction unless the donor explicitly states otherwise.

Fair Value Measurements

The fair value of financial assets and liabilities is measured according to the Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures topic of the FASB ASC. Fair value is required to be evaluated and adjusted according to the following valuation techniques:

Level 1 – Fair value is determined using quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities.

Level 2 – Fair value is determined using quoted market prices in active markets for similar assets and liabilities.

Level 3 – Fair value is determined using unobservable market prices in a market that is typically inactive.

Income Taxes

The Conference is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Receivables

Apportionments receivable represent apportionments received after year-end for the budget year ended December 31, 2020 and 2019. No allowance for doubtful collections has been recorded.

Note 1. Nature of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

Fixed Assets

Fixed assets are carried at cost if purchased and estimated fair market value if donated. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, excluding land, which are 5 to 30 years. Depreciation expense for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019 was $368,401 and $373,414, respectively.

Donated closed churches actively marketed for sale are not depreciated but accounted for according to the Property, Plant, and Equipment topic of the FASB ASC. The Conference owns land and buildings that are currently being held for sale. These assets are closed churches. As required by ¶2549 of The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, when a church closes the Conference may retain, sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the property in accordance with the direction of the annual conference.

PPP Loan

On January 30, 2020, the World Health Organization declared the COVID-19 outbreak a “Public Health Emergency of International Concern” and on March 11, 2020, declared it to be a pandemic. The Conference received a loan in accordance with the Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) section of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (the CARES Act). US GAAP provides organizations with two alternatives for reporting the loan and any future forgiveness: 1) proceeds can be treated as debt and future forgiveness recognized as income when the loan or any portion thereof is formally discharged; or 2) proceeds can be treated as a conditional contribution where they recognize a refundable advance and derecognize the liability, and recognize income, as the conditions for forgiveness are substantially met or explicitly waived. The Conference has elected to treat the PPP loan as a conditional contribution.

Donated Services

Contributed services are reflected in the financial statements at the estimated fair value of the services received only when those services either (a) create or enhance nonfinancial assets, or (b) require specialized skills that are provided by individuals possessing those skills and would typically need to be purchased if not provided by donation. Unpaid volunteers make contributions of time in various administrative and program functions. The Conference has not valued these donations.

Revenues and Support

Contributions are received and recorded as with or without donor restrictions depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions. Contributions received and unconditional promises to give are measured at their fair values and are reported as an increase in net assets without donor restrictions. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statements of activities as net assets released from restrictions. Donor-restricted contributions whose restrictions are met in the same reporting period are reported as unrestricted support.

The primary source of support are apportionments received from the local churches in the Conference. Apportionments expire at the end of each calendar year and, therefore, have been recorded as unrestricted support. Contributions and other revenues are primarily receipts by programs that have external sources of revenues such as registration fees, reimbursements, or receipts of the Districts.

Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred and are included in program expense.

Functional Expenses

The costs of providing program services and supporting services have been summarized on a functional basis in the statements of activities. Some costs have been charged using specific identification. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among program services and supporting services. Such allocations are determined by management on an equitable basis. The expenses that are allocated include the following:

	Method of allocation
Campus ministries	Time and effort
Depreciation	Square footage
Salaries and benefits	Time and effort

Note 6. Concentrations

The Conference has certain investments insured by the Securities Investor Protection Corporation, which covers a portion of investor losses, in some cases, attributable to bankruptcy or fraudulent practices of brokerage firms. Note 7. Related Party Transactions

The Conference is a related party to the United Methodist Foundation for the Memphis and Tennessee Conferences (the Foundation) and the United Methodist Development Fund of Tennessee/Kentucky, Inc. (the Development Fund). The Conference pays routine expenses of the Foundation and Development Fund including salaries, retirement, and insurance and is reimbursed by the Foundation and Development Fund. The total amount paid to the Conference by the Foundation and Development Fund for these routine expenses was $415,408 and $458,186 in 2020 and 2019, respectively.

The Conference has investments with both the Foundation and the Development Fund (see note 3 and 4).

The Foundation and Development Fund lease office space from the Conference for $1,500 per month. The lease renews annually. The Nashville Area Episcopal Office is the administrative office of the resident Bishop of the Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. and the Memphis Conference of the United Methodist Church. The Conference pays routine expenses of the Nashville Area Episcopal Office including salaries, retirement, and insurance and is reimbursed by the Nashville Area Episcopal Office. The total amount paid to the Conference by Nashville Area Episcopal Office for these routine expenses was $160,069 and $243,240 in 2020 and 2019, respectively.

Note 8. Retirement Plans

The Conference provides pension benefits for clergy serving churches in the Tennessee Conference under Episcopal appointment, and full-time permanent staff of the Conference through various retirement plans. All plans are multi-employer plans administered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of The United Methodist Church (Wespath). Wespath operates under the authority of the church's General Conference and implements the plans in accordance with the plan documents. Pension benefits for clergy are a combination of defined benefit and defined contribution plans. Pension benefits for Conference lay staff are all defined contribution plans. Total Conference contributions to all plans for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019 were $3,057,072 and $3,184,097, respectively. The various retirement plans are listed below.

Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP)

CRSP is a multi-employer 403(b) retirement plan that provides pension coverage to eligible clergy. CRSP is both a defined benefit plan, which provides benefits based on years of credited service, and a defined contribution plan, which provides a retirement account balance established and funded by the Conference.

Effective January 1, 2014, contributions to the defined benefit plan are actuarially determined and contributions to the defined contribution plan equal 2% of the clergy's compensation, plus a matching contribution of up to 1% of the clergy's compensation, for a maximum of 3%.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Note 8. Retirement Plans

Supplement One to CRSP (Pre-1982)

Pre-1982 is a multi-employer 403(b) defined benefit plan for Conference clergy entering service prior to January 1, 1982. General Conference 2000 required each annual conference to adopt a formal funding plan to retire the Conference Pre-1982 pension obligations. The Conference's Pre-1982 plan has been fully funded since the mid-1990s. The Conference approves a minimum distribution (past service rate) each year for participants in the Pre-1982 plan, based on a recommendation by the Conference Board of Pensions. The past service rate for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019 was $714 and $703 for pre-1982 service years, which is 1.04% and 1.05% of the Conference average compensation, respectively.

United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP)

The UMPIP is a multi-employer 403(b) defined contribution plan providing eligible clergy and employees of the Conference with retirement savings. Conference employees and clergy may contribute up to the dollar limits set by current Internal Revenue Service regulations under both pre-tax and after-tax elections. The Conference makes no contributions to this plan for full-time clergy, who participate in CRSP. Effective January 1, 2014, the Conference contributes 12% of part-time clergy's compensation into UMPIP. The Conference matches non-clergy contributions of 3% or more of compensation with a fixed 12% matching contribution. No matching contribution is provided for employee contributions less than 3% of compensation.

Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)

CPP is a multi-employer health and welfare plan that provides death and disability benefits as well as other supplemental benefits to eligible clergy and their beneficiaries. CPP is funded by the Conference at a rate of 3% of compensation.

Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)

MPP covers clergy who served from 1982 through 2006. It is a multi-employer defined contribution plan, but differs from a true defined contribution plan in that upon retirement, participants must annuitize 65% of their account balances, and the Conference is responsible for funding the annuities should the need arise. Upon annuitization, the monthly benefit becomes a defined benefit.

Some amounts designated for pension benefits have been transferred to the legal title of Wespath multi-employer plans and are not reported in these financial statements as net assets of the Conference. The December 31 value of these Wespath accounts was as follows:

Note 9. Health Care Plan

The Conference sponsors the Tennessee Conference, United Methodist Church, Inc. Health Benefit Plan (HBP). The HBP is open to all eligible plan participants including clergy, full-time Conference staff, designated students who are part-time local pastors, and their respective eligible dependents. The Conference director of administrative services is the plan administrator. The plan administrator uses a third-party administrator for processing claims and other duties but retains responsibility for benefits payable. The HBP is a self-funded plan paying covered benefits out of Conference assets. Plan participants help cover some costs of covered benefits through contributions, deductibles, and out-of-pocket expenses.

Conference payments to the HBP for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019 were $1,935,813 and $3,494,436, respectively.

Participation in the HBP can continue upon retirement under the Conference's formal retirement plan provided the participant makes required contributions to the plan. This coverage can continue until age 65 with stipulations. The Conference uses the fiscal year as the measurement date for its plan.

The Conference has not pre-funded its postretirement healthcare plan but operates instead on a pay-as-you-go basis. Unfunded Postretirement Healthcare Benefits have been recognized representing the underfunded status of the Conference HBP as of December 31 as follows:

Note 11. PPP Loan

On April 20, 2020, the Conference received a loan in the amount of $935,800 in accordance with the PPP section of the CARES Act. Under this loan program, the Conference may be eligible for forgiveness of some portion of the loan up to 100%, if and when qualifying conditions are met. Accounting for the loan and any future forgiveness could have an impact on future financial reporting. The unsecured note bears interest at the rate of 1.00% and matures on January 5, 2023. As long as the Conference submits its loan forgiveness application within 10 months of December 31, 2020, the Conference will not be required to make any payments on the loan until the forgiveness amount is remitted to the lender by the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA). If the loan is fully forgiven, the Conference will not be responsible for any payments.

The Conference has elected to treat the PPP loan as a conditional contribution and presented it separately in the financial statements.

TWK ORGANIZATIONAL CONFERENCE MINUTES

Saturday, December 4 @ 1 p.m.

LOVING

Bishop Bill McAlilly officially opened the conference at 1 p.m. with a word of welcome. Bishop McAlilly shared that the first Tennessee-Western Kentucky Annual Conference would be held at Brentwood UMC on June 15-17, 2022. Annual conference in 2023 will be held in the Memphis area.

Opening worship, led by a diverse group from both conferences under the direction of David Bone, included a reading of “A Story of Light and Darkness” by worship leaders Tyler Sprouse (Communications, TWK), Myriam Cortes (Iglesia Metodista Unida Ebenezer, Nashville), Jim Capps (Mt. Carmel UMC, Benton), and Grace E. Hyde (Ebenezer UMC, Nolensville) and featuring dancer Lasonia Scantin (Gordon Memorial UMC, Nashville). Choral responses were sung by a small choir accompanied by an organ and piano. The detailed worship bulletin with all participants noted is available on the TWKUMC.org website.

An offering was collected online for the Reelfoot Rural Ministries Toy Store and The Last-Minute Toy Store. Money collected will be divided equally between the two ministries.

The video of Bishop McAlilly’s sermon “What Shall We Now Do?” is available for viewing on his blog, along with a full transcript.

LEARNING

Covenant Focus with Connectional Table

Bishop McAlilly spoke to the process of learning in developing a working covenant alongside the New Conference Guide Team. A video was presented in which members of the Connectional Table shared the importance of forming a team covenant, how living in a shared covenant impacted them personally and professionally, and the process of developing a covenant within a team/committee. Members of the Connectional Table in the video were Toi King, Jefferson Furtado, Bethany Huffman, Rob Martin, and Melinda Britt.

New TWK Conference teams are encouraged to operate with a covenant. Tools and resources, including the video shown during the conference, are found on the TWK website for teams to use.

Covenant Sharing - Memphis Conference Lay Leader Janice McCallen, closed this portion of the conference by sharing her personal experiences with creating and applying a covenant while serving on a large team and invited all TWK ministry teams to establish covenants. She encouraged each team to use questions such as the following to help shape their covenant:

How do you describe a highly effective team?

What values are essential for your participation on this team?

Nominations Report

The Transitional Nominating Committee worked diligently to complete this report. Both conferences were served by capable leaders and I wish to express my deep appreciation to all those who worked on a conference committee, whether it be in the Memphis Conference or the Tennessee Conference. I thank God for you and for your commitment to Christ and the Church as evidenced through your ministry and service to your conference by serving on a conference committee.

This first TWK Nominations Report was created by a new process which gathered nominations across the entire Nashville Area. Many persons participated in the process by either nominating a potential candidate or by making a self-nomination. The nominations were collected and reviewed, gifts and graces were discussed, the inclusion of legacy members and completely new members on committees was prayerfully considered and discerned until the slate of nominations were created.

The response to the nomination process was so prolific that not all of those nominated were selected in this iteration of the nomination process. With such a bounty of capable leaders, the possibility of service still remains as situations evolve and may dictate a need to return to the pool of leaders for selections.

It is with great hope and expectation that I offer this report for your adoption.

Report of vote, Will you adopt the Nominations Report?

Closing Words of Bishop

Bishop McAlilly led his closing comments by saying “Friends, what gift you have been to us today as we’ve done this work. We’ve had a long pregnancy and a good birth. There have been thousands of hours expended on behalf of this journey.” Bishop McAlilly included in his closing comments appreciation for the work of Bishop Chamness that preceded his arrival to the Nashville Area Episcopal. He gave thanks for the defining work that developed the mission, vision, and value statements adopted by both legacy conferences. Out of this work, more and more cross-conference team and appointments emerged. Bishop McAlilly noted special thanks to Cindy Solomon for her work as the scribe for the Guide Team. Bishop McAlilly offered a closing prayer.

Closing Litany

Among the poor, among the proud, among the persecuted, among the privileged,

ALL: (sung) Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel.

In the private home, in the public place, in the wedding feast, in the judgment hall,

ALL: (sung) Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel.

With a gentle touch, with an angry word, with a clear conscience, with burning love,

ALL: (sung) Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel.

That the kingdom might come, that the world might believe, that the powerful might stumble, that the hidden might be seen,

ALL: (sung) Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel.

Minutes submitted by Rev. Brian Marcoulier & Rev. Dean Emerson

JOINT REPORT OF THE LEGACY BOARDS OF TRUSTEES FOR THE TENNESSEE AND MEMPHIS ANNUAL CONFERENCES

In praise and thanksgiving, we gladly report that the boards of trustees of the two legacy conferences have worked together to accomplish the legal mechanism for the union of our two conferences. Under Tennessee state law, the boards of trustees serve as the corporate board of directors for the incorporated entities. In that capacity, they have accomplished the following work now submit to this body for affirmation.

Both boards of trustees affirmed a corporate agreement and plan of merger, which incorporates by reference the Plan of Union approved by both annual conferences at their June 2021 meetings. Both boards of trustees also approved Articles of Merger which will be filed with the secretary of state prior to the January 1, 2022 launch date for the new Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference.

The Memphis Board of Trustees further approved Articles of Termination and Articles of Dissolution for the Memphis Conference. The effective date of these documents will be January 1, 2022, after all of the following have occurred: (1) the organizational meeting of the two conferences, (2) the name change of the Tennessee Conference to the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference, (3) the approval of the corporate merger by the Tennessee Attorney General (which approval was received on October 29, 2021), and (4) all necessary steps to wrap up the business of the Memphis Conference of The United Methodist Church and transition to the new Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference.

The agreement and plan of merger, Articles of Merger, Articles of Termination and Articles of Dissolution were approved by the trustees pursuant to authority delegated by the legacy conferences in their adoption of the Plan of Union.

The Tennessee Conference Board of Trustees approved an amended and restated charter and bylaws for the new conference, which are to be effective on January 1, 2022. Because those documents effectuate the name change to Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church, they are appended herewith and the trustees request that they be affirmed by this body as part of the acceptance of the trustees' report.

Respectfully submitted,

Erv Walker, Chairperson
Memphis Conference Trustees

Paul Gardner, Chairperson
Tennessee Conference Trustees

The Standing Rules of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Annual Conference (also referred to herein as “TWK” or “the Conference”) represent the means by which we organize and oversee our work of making disciples for the transformation of the world. The standing rules are the organizational rules for sessions of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Annual Conference, setting forth the rules by which sessions of the conference operate, in compliance with ¶604 of the 2016 United Methodist Book of Discipline. As our Book of Discipline says about itself, our standing rules reflect the “...most current statement of how United Methodists [in the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Annual Conference] agree to live together and ‘maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.’”

The Committee on Standing Rules presents these rules for renewal and adoption by each session of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Annual Conference.

Requests between $10,000 and $25,000 must also be approved by the CFA executive committee. Requests above $25,000 must be approved by a poll of a majority of CFA members. CFA will defer any requests above $250,000 to the annual conference for its decision.

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT POLICY FOR CHURCH PROFESSIONALS OF THE TENNESSEE-WESTERN KENTUCKY CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Preamble

The Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church does not approve of and will not tolerate sexual misconduct. The episcopal area is committed to the eradication of this conduct if it should occur and to the creation of an environment of hospitality for all persons, male or female, that is free of sexual overtones and implications, and encourages respect, equality and kinship in Christ. This policy aims to provide an avenue to report sexual misconduct while assuring that any person doing so in good faith will be protected from retaliation.

All church professionals (see definition) have positions of great trust, power, and responsibility. This provides the opportunity for unique relationships of grace and caring. While church professionals can sometimes violate the trust given them within these relationships, sexual misconduct is one of the gravest violations of this trust. This policy seeks to address the abuse of power by church professionals who engage in sexual misconduct. While this policy is binding for appointed church professionals, it is our hope that it may serve as a guide for other church professionals such as local church laity staff and volunteers.

The intent of this policy is to provide guidance to both laity and clergy of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church and the local church regarding sexual misconduct and, thereby, protect the relationship between church professionals and parishioners, staff members, colleagues, and others. It is both the ethical and legal responsibility of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church to ensure that there are mechanisms for preventing sexual misconduct and addressing allegations of the same. This policy provides guidance regarding the definition of sexual misconduct, procedures for filing and addressing allegations of sexual misconduct, and training expectations and requirements designed to prevent sexual misconduct in the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church. The primary focus of this policy shall be the search for truth to assure justice for the complainant and the accused. This policy is not intended to supplant or substitute for the formal complaint process and its attendant fair process protection in the current Book of Discipline, which must, where applicable, be followed in addition to this policy. Failure by church authorities to use or follow any of the procedures herein is not a chargeable offense, nor can it be used as grounds for an appeal of a formal grievance, complaint, review or trial as defined in current Book of Discipline. We are committed to procedural accuracy and pastoral care in the pursuit of justice for victims and survivors, real accountability for abusers, and healing for all parties.

Theological Foundation

We believe and affirm every person is created in the image of God. We further believe and affirm sexual misconduct within the ministerial relationship and in the Church is incompatible with biblical teachings and ethical standards. Sexual misconduct violates the sacred worth of persons who are created in the image of God. Such misconduct is particularly reprehensible in the context of the ministerial relationship that should represent the care of God. It should be understood that sexual misconduct is an abuse of power and authority. This misconduct alienates persons from the ministry of the Church. It tarnishes the Church's ministry and mission. Those guilty of sexual misconduct bring real harm to persons, congregations and the Church as a whole.

Forgiveness is a sacred teaching of the Church, but this teaching in no way protects a person guilty of sexual misconduct from the discipline of the Church. Representing the Church as a church professional is a privilege requiring the highest professional conduct. Forgiveness by God or by a person harmed by sexual misconduct does not automatically restore the privilege of serving as a church professional. It is not appropriate for church authorities to pressure persons harmed by sexual misconduct to forgive the offender as a way to restore to the offender the privilege of serving as a professional in the Church. Central to the task of church authorities is to protect the vulnerable and to eradicate sexual misconduct from the Church.

DEFINITIONS

A. Church Professionals

1. Appointed Church Professionals

Appointed church professionals shall include full, associate and provisional ministerial members of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church, as well as ordained deacons (full and provisional) and elders, diaconal ministers and local pastors, in both the effective and retired relationships, supply pastors, and other persons serving the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church or any local church under appointment of the bishop or under the supervision of a district superintendent, including persons keeping their membership in another annual conference or in another denomination and persons holding orders issued by these conferences while on honorable or administrative location. Additionally, this includes lay and clergy persons employed directly by conference agencies including but not limited to the Conference Council on Connectional Ministries.

2. Other Church Professionals

Other church professionals shall include anyone in a position of power, authority, or leadership employed by or serving as a volunteer in a ministry in the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church.

B. Book of Discipline

The 2016 Book of Discipline refers to The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church 2016, which sets forth the laws, plans, polity and processes by which The United Methodist Church governs itself. The Book of Resolutions 2016 refers to the volume containing the text of all resolutions or pronouncements on issues approved by the General Conference and currently valid. The Book of Resolutions contains not only the resolutions and policy statements passed by the most recent General Conference, but also all such statements still considered to represent the position of The United Methodist Church. The text of any resolution is considered the official position of the denomination on that subject.

D. Sexual Misconduct

Misconduct of a sexual nature is a chargeable offense, for both laity and clergy. Chargeable offenses include: child abuse, sexual abuse, sexual misconduct (including pornography), sexual harassment, gender discrimination, crime, and immorality.

Sexual misconduct is abuse of power and authority, and is not only an act against one person, but an act against fellow ministry professionals; members in the local congregation; the Church at large; and God.

Sexual misconduct includes but is not limited to:

- child or adult sexual abuse

- sexual abuse of youth or those without capacity to consent

- solicitation of sexual activity or other sex-related behavior by promise of rewards
- coercion of sexual activity by threat of punishment
- or misuse of pastoral or ministerial position using sexualized conduct to take advantage of the vulnerability of another (The Book of Discipline 2012, ¶161, Book of Resolutions 2016, ¶2081, ¶2082).

Each alleged occurrence of sexual misconduct requires its own unique and appropriate investigation (as described below) and response, depending on the facts and circumstances.

Sexual harassment is a form of sexual misconduct and is defined in The 2016 Book of Discipline, Social Principles ¶161(J) as, “any unwanted sexual comment, advance, or demand, either verbal or physical, that is reasonably perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating or coercive. Sexual harassment must be understood as an exploitation of a power relationship rather than an exclusively sexual issue. Sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to, the creation of a hostile or abusive working environment resulting from discrimination on the basis of gender.” To clarify further, it is unwanted sexual or gender-directed behavior within a pastoral, employment, ministerial (paid or unpaid), mentor, or colleague relationship that is so severe or pervasive that it alters the conditions of employment or volunteer work or unreasonably interferes with the complainant’s performance by creating a hostile environment that can include unwanted sexual jokes, repeated advances, touching, displays, or comments that insult, degrade, or sexually exploit women, men, elders, children, or youth. “It can create a hostile, offensive environment that can include unwanted inappropriate sexual jokes, repeated advances, touching, displays, or comments that insult, degrade, or sexually exploit women, men, elders, children, or youth” (Book of Resolutions 2016, ¶2045). Both sexual and gender harassment are exploitations of power and are discriminatory by law (GCFA Legal Manual, <http://www.gcfa.org/gcfa-legal-manual>).

Sexual abuse is a form of sexual misconduct and occurs when a church professional engages in sexual contact or sexualized behavior with a congregant, client, employee, student, staff member, coworker, or volunteer (Book of Resolutions 2016, ¶161(I)). It can include coerced or forced sexual contact (including those unable to give informed consent), sexual interaction or contact with children or youth, and sexual exhibitionism or display of sexual visuals or pornography.

Sexualized behavior is behavior that communicates sexual interest and/or content. Examples include, but are not limited to displaying sexually suggestive visual materials; use of pornography in church programs on or with church property, making sexual comments or innuendo about one’s own or another person’s body; touching another person’s body; touching another person’s body/hair/clothing; touching or rubbing oneself in the presence of another person; kissing; and sexual intercourse. Sexualized behavior can be a form of sexual misconduct when this behavior is unwanted by the recipient or witness, is a violation of society’s or the Church’s law, breaks the sacred trust in the ministerial role, or violates the vows taken at membership or ordination. The judicial council asserts that dating, romantic or sexual relationships between clergy and their parishioners “are never appropriate because of imbalance of power” (Decision 1228, 2012). For the sake of maintaining healthy boundaries and preventing a betrayal of sacred trust, a clergyperson who has a genuine desire to date a parishioner must contact their district superintendent, and in consultation with the DS, determine a reasonable course of action for discontinuing the pastor/ parishioner relationship before beginning a dating relationship.

Pornography is sexually explicit material that portrays violence, abuse, coercion, domination, humiliation, or degradation for the purpose of arousal. Any sexually explicit material that depicts children or adults is pornographic. “The United Methodist Church declares that the use of pornography in church programs, on church premises or with church property by persons in ministerial roles (lay and clergy) is a form of sexual misconduct, is a chargeable offense for laity and clergy in The United Methodist Church” (Book of Resolutions 2016, ¶2081, ¶2082).

E. Complainant

A complainant is a person who submits a written, signed, and dated statement alleging an incident of sexual or professional misconduct. A complainant may be a parent or responsible party for a minor or an adult incapable of self-reporting.

F. Respondent

A respondent is a church professional against whom a complaint has been made.

G. Complainant Advocate (Response Team Member)

H. Respondent Advocate (Response Team Member)

A trained respondent advocate is a response team member who actively supports a respondent who is accused of sexual misconduct/abuse through the denomination complaint process as discussed in The 2016 Book of Discipline in paragraphs ¶362, 363, and 2702.1. The role of advocate is one of caregiving, not investigation.

I. Conference Response Team Coordinator

The conference response team coordinator oversees the complaint process, serves as a resource for district superintendents, bishops, complainants, and respondents and maintains the integrity of the process including documentation of complaints for the office of the bishop. This may be the assistant to the bishop, an appointed conference response team member, or appropriate Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference personnel. The role of conference response team coordinator is one of care-giving, not investigation.

Making a Report

Any concern a person has about sexual misconduct by a church professional should be promptly reported to any district superintendent or the bishop. The list of names of the current persons in these positions and their contact information may be found at www.twkumc.org or by calling the conference office at 615-329-1177. If for any reason such person finds it difficult to report his or her concerns to a district superintendent or the bishop, the person may contact a trained advocate or the conference response team coordinator, who is available to assist any complainant with the process in making a report to either a district superintendent or the bishop. A list of the members of the conference response team along with the conference response team coordinator’s contact information can be found in each volume of the Journal of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church following each annual conference session or at www.twkumc.org/safe-spaces-ministry. (The 2016 Book of Discipline ¶363)

Mandatory Reporting

In no way should this policy be interpreted or applied in a manner that interferes with any licensed practitioner in fulfilling his/her mandatory reporting requirements.

All allegations of sexual misconduct with minors or vulnerable adults occurring in the State of Tennessee will be reported to the appropriate governmental agencies, as required by mandatory reporting laws of the State of Tennessee.

Policy Against Retaliation

No retaliation will be tolerated on account of a good faith report of sexual misconduct. Prohibited retaliation will be considered a separate and independent violation of this policy, and appropriate action may be taken against that retaliator. Anyone who believes they have been retaliated against may also report such retaliation as detailed above in Making a Report. The person is encouraged to report retaliation immediately to a district superintendent or the bishop, or contact his or her trained advocate or the conference response team coordinator for assistance in reporting the concern to a district superintendent or the bishop.

Investigation

Upon receipt by a district superintendent or the bishop of a report, a prompt and thorough investigation into the allegations of sexual misconduct against any church professional will be conducted and appropriate corrective action, if called for based upon all of the facts, shall be taken and concluded within a reasonable period of time. The scope and details of each investigation will depend on the nature of the report and the related circumstances. In circumstances involving church professionals, by doctrinal law, the procedure may be governed by The 2016 Book of Discipline in ¶362 and ¶2701-2719. In each instance, the investigation will be handled with as much discretion as the circumstances permit to protect the privacy of the individuals involved. All persons having reported suspected sexual misconduct should refrain from contacting the person suspected of such conduct. Likewise, the persons suspected of such conduct shall refrain from contacting the complainant or alleged victim, unless otherwise directed by the bishop or district superintendent. All persons serving as witnesses in the investigation should refrain from contacting the complainant or the respondent, unless directed by a district superintendent or bishop to do so, in order to preserve the integrity and confidentiality of the investigation and confidentiality.

All persons having received a report of sexual misconduct, including anyone specifically engaged to serve as an advocate or investigate such reports, shall keep all reports confidential, except as required by The 2016 Book of Discipline, where applicable, or necessary to investigate and resolve such matters, and/or to respond to any related legal or administrative proceedings.

During the course of an investigation, a trained complainant advocate may be assigned to provide ongoing support to a complainant or alleged victim. Likewise, a trained respondent advocate may be assigned to provide ongoing support to the respondent. Both advocates are bound by the confidentiality provisions of this policy.

All allegations of sexual misconduct with minors or vulnerable adults occurring in the State of Tennessee will be reported to the appropriate governmental agencies, as required by mandatory reporting laws of the State of Tennessee.

Training

Appointed church professionals (see definition) serving in the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church are required to attend official Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church trainings on 1) Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics and 2) Safe Sanctuaries each quadrennium. All transfers and candidates for ministry are required to complete these trainings prior to commissioning or appointment, whichever comes first. Compliance with these training requirements and a completed criminal background check are conditions of employment or ministerial appointment. A church professional failing to comply with these conditions of appointment may be cited an administrative charge by the bishop in accordance with The 2016 Book of Discipline ¶362.

It is strongly suggested that other church professionals (see definition) attend official Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church trainings on 1) Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics and 2) Safe Sanctuaries each quadrennium.

Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team

The 2010 report of the Sexual Ethics Task Force recommended to the annual conference that a Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team be formed to guide the portion of the Safe Spaces Ministry tasked with reviewing policies and implementing training opportunities in the best practices to create and maintain healthy boundaries for ministry. The Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team is a sub-team of the Safes Spaces Ministry Committee. This committee is made of the three teams: 1) Healthy Boundaries/Sexual Ethics Team; 2) Safe Sanctuary Team; 3) Conference Response Team. The Safe Spaces Ministry serves to ensure that policies and procedures necessary for keeping ministry safe in order for sacred space to be created are developed, reviewed, appropriately presented and training provided for members of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church. The work of the committee is funded through apportionment giving as allocated through the Connectional Ministry's budget on an annual basis. The Connectional Ministry's Safe Spaces Team and the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry work collaboratively to guide this vital ministry.

Availability of Policy

This policy shall be presented annually in the journals of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church. Further, it shall be posted at www.twkumc.org continuously. It should be made available in at least one common area of every church in the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church. TENNESSEE-WESTERN KENTUCKY CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH SAFE SANCTUARY POLICY FOR CHILDREN, YOUTH, AND VULNERABLE PERSONS

Every congregation and agency in the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church (TWK UMC) is expected to uphold this policy as its minimum standards in the establishment of its local Safe Sanctuary Policy for Children, Youth, and Vulnerable Persons.

Abuse and neglect of children, youth, and vulnerable persons are prohibited by the TWK UMC, its churches and its agencies.

The TWK UMC seeks to create a safe environment for children, youth, and vulnerable persons in which opportunities for abuse are minimized by the provision of proper enlistment and supervision of those persons working with them. This document contains theological foundations, definitions of abuse and common terms, policies and procedures related to prevention, response, and reporting.

Clergy and laity are encouraged to read this policy and make it an essential part of the operations of your local church. For more information or to seek clarity visit twkumc.org and go to the Safe Spaces Ministry page.

1. Scope

The Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of The United Methodist Church affirms that all children, youth and vulnerable persons have the right to safety. Therefore, United Methodists of the TWK UMC are determined to provide an environment in which these persons are safe from neglect or abuse including sexual misconduct and harassment.

The scope of this policy and its provisions shall apply to all staff and volunteers, clergy or lay, who have direct or indirect contact with children, youth, and vulnerable persons in conference and/or district sponsored events. This policy should be implemented in conjunction with the Sexual Misconduct Policy for Church Professionals found at twkumc.org on the Safe Spaces Ministry page.

The Safe Spaces Ministry in consultation with the appropriate governing authority shall be responsible for reviewing and revising this policy. Each conference and/or district ministry event involving children, youth, or vulnerable persons shall adopt procedures to implement this policy.

2. Theological Foundation

Our Biblical Mandate

“Then he [Jesus] took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them, ‘Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.’” (Mark 9:36-37 NRSV) Jesus also said, “If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones..., it would be better for you if a great millstone were fastened around your neck and you were drowned in the depth of the sea.” (Matthew 18:6 NRSV)

Our Commitment in Baptism

The Church, above all institutions, is called to welcome and nurture the child. Our goal is to maintain a safe, secure, loving place where all children may grow and where those who care for them may administer to their needs in responsible ways.

Our Mandate

The 1996 General Conference approved a resolution that called upon local churches and annual conferences to institute policies and procedures to reduce the risk of child sexual abuse in our churches and church-related activities. We, in the TWK UMC, accept the nature of this call and seek to expand it to include all forms of abuse and neglect that could be possible in these settings or that could come to our attention regarding all children, youth, and/or vulnerable persons in our care.

Statement of Covenant

As caring Christians, we are also committed to protect and advocate for all children, youth, and vulnerable persons participating in the life of the Church. The Church, at all levels of its organization, is entrusted with the responsibility of providing an emotionally and physically safe, spiritually grounded, healthy environment for all children, youth, adults, and vulnerable persons in which they are protected from abuse.

We uphold the idea that to report abuse is to be a witness to the world of the love and justice of God and fully recognize that reporting abuse is a form of ministering to the needs of those crying out for help. Simply, to report abuse can help to stop existing abuse and prevent further abuse.

Additionally, we care for victims of abuse and their families by offering resources that will contribute to healing. Further, we recognize the grace that God gives in upholding Christian community; we will look for grace-filled ways of dealing with both the victim and the accused.

Therefore, as a Christian community of faith and a United Methodist entity, we pledge to conduct the ministry of the gospel in ways that assure the safety and spiritual growth of all of our children, youth and vulnerable persons, as well as all of the workers with children, youth, and vulnerable persons. We will follow reasonable safety measures in the selection and recruitment of workers; we will implement prudent operational procedures in all programs and events; we will educate all of our workers with children, youth, and vulnerable persons regarding the use of all appropriate policies and methods (including first aid and methods of discipline); we will have a clearly defined procedure for reporting a suspected incident of abuse that conforms to the requirements of state law; and we will be prepared to respond to media inquiries if an incident occurs.

It is recommended that each congregation's policy be consistent with the above-stated covenant with other United Methodist congregations (see Theological Foundation in section 2 above). Furthermore, TWK UMC expects all congregational policies to be equal to or exceed in strength of protection for all children, youth, and vulnerable persons the minimum standards here stated. The TWK of UMC recommends the local church act as follows:

- A. Responsibility for implementation. Implementing a Safe Sanctuary Policy for Children, Youth, and Vulnerable Persons at a local church shall be the responsibility of the pastor-in-charge, the governing body, and a Safe Sanctuaries Committee (SSC) or its equivalent organized in compliance with the local church's governance process.
- B. Safe Sanctuaries Committee or equivalent. A Safe Sanctuaries Committee or its equivalent shall have the responsibility for developing local church safe sanctuaries policy and procedures; communicating with and educating the congregation concerning those policies and procedures; recruiting, screening, and training paid staff and volunteers; conducting site inspections and making recommendations; retaining records; and regularly reviewing conference policies and procedures, applicable state laws, and the insurance policy provisions and insurer requirements. It is recommended that this committee or its equivalent should have at least one representative each from education, age-level ministries, trustees, and the staff parish relations committees.
- C. Training. Such periodic training and education on the Safe Sanctuary Policy for Children, Youth, and Vulnerable Persons provided by the TWK UMC should be attended each quadrennium by the local church pastor-in-charge and SSC chairperson or other SSC designated member. Further, it is recommended that attendance at such conference-wide training include at a minimum, designees from the local church who will be personally coordinating and conducting safe sanctuaries training for employees and staff within the local church.

5. SCREENING PROCEDURES FOR VOLUNTEERS AND PAID STAFF

While this section on screening applies directly to conference-sponsored events, it is recommended and encouraged as a minimum standard for local church and agencies safe sanctuary policy and procedures.

All persons, including conference staff who intend to work with children, youth, and/or vulnerable persons at conference-sponsored events, including overnight or longer events, must also be properly screened and attend an age-appropriate orientation/training session on child protection and abuse and have current background check. A Safe Spaces Verification Form will be completed and submitted to the event leadership prior to participation.

The following procedures should be followed:

- Written job description and/or expectations provided and must be signed and dated.
- An application/personal information form shall be completed.
- A sexual offender registry check in any state where the applicant has resided during the past seven years.
- Must consent to authorizing criminal background check. A background check should be provided for anyone staying overnight or longer, i.e., weekend retreats, summer camps.
- A new background check should be performed every three years as the standard.
- If the applicant is found to have been involved in any activity in which the applicant abused or exploited children, youth, or vulnerable persons the applicant will not be approved. Any conviction of a crime against children, youth or adults from vulnerable populations shall disqualify any applicant. A person who has been convicted as a sex offender will not be certified. Affirmative responses to the following questions relating to crimes will prompt a personal review of an application:
 - crimes against children,
 - rape, sexual or physical assault
 - possession or use of drugs, and
 - suspension of a driver's license within the last five years
- Personal interviews with summary documentation will be conducted by the Safe Sanctuary Team or conference staff representative and kept in a confidential file maintained by the conference ministry for whom the applicant will serve.
- References will be checked with summary documentation in a confidential file and maintained by the conference ministry for whom the applicant will serve.

6. Safe Spaces Procedures

While this section on procedures applies directly to conference-sponsored events, it is recommended and encouraged as a minimum standard for local church and agencies safe sanctuary policy and procedures.

- A. Appropriate boundaries: All persons, staff and participants, will maintain boundaries appropriate to their specific roles, age, and relationship to another.
- B. Two adult rule: During all conference events one adult will not be alone with any number of children, youth, or vulnerable persons. For small group activities where one adult supervises one group, two or more groups are to meet in sight and sound of each other. The ministry leader may also decide to combine groups to ensure the safety of all parties. Small group sizes will be determined by the size of the group but should not exceed reasonable adult/participant ratios. Risk will be reduced even more when the adults are unrelated.

- C. Five year older rule: Persons supervising children and/or youth will be at least five years older than the oldest child/youth participant. It is expected that all staff or volunteers for conference sponsored events be at least 21 years of age or older and have completed a background check, interview with the ministry leader for the conference, and participated in training on the Safe Sanctuary Policy for Children, Youth, and Vulnerable Persons.
- D. Adult/children ratio: The adult/children ratio will be dependent upon the age of the children groups present. Refer to the following protocol:
Children, ages 0-5 — One adult to four children or two adults to eight children
Children, grades 1-6 — One adult to six children or two adults to 12 children
Note: Day care/nursery programs must meet the respected codes of their state as the minimum ratio.
- E. Adult/youth ratio: The adult/youth ratio will be at least 2:16 at retreats/rallies/meetings with the understanding that one adult will not be alone with any number of youth. The ratio for offsite camps and mission trips will be 2:10. Some events may require smaller ratios. If so, stricter requirements will be communicated to all adults and churches prior to the event through registration confirmation packets as well as through emails and the conference youth website.
- F. Male/female adults: When a group from any local church consists of both genders, the accompanying adults shall also be of both genders. This also applies to small groups and mission worksite groups.
- G. Open doors: Doors to meeting spaces without windows must remain open when children, youth, or vulnerable adults are utilizing the space. Doors with windows may remain closed provided that sight lines to all areas of the room are clear.
- H. Medical release/registration form: All persons attending age-level ministry conference events shall have a completed medical release form and completed parental permission form. The medical release form will be valid for a one-year period beginning with the first event for which it is submitted. It is expected that a new form will be submitted if a change in medical status occurs. All forms will be maintained by the local church ministry leadership and will be available upon request for verification during conference event check-in.
- I. Local ministry leader responsibility: It is expected that the children/youth coordinator/director from the local church maintain a copy of each attendee's form at all times. These forms should be carried with the group traveling to and from events.
- J. Check-in procedure: The local church ministry team should develop a consistent check-in procedure during the event to meet with the church group. These should be spread throughout the event and event day.
- K. Check-out/event pickup: No child/youth will be released to anyone other than the parent whose signature has been provided without specific written direction by that parent and satisfactory identification of the person who will call for the child/youth.
- L. Lodging for overnight youth events: An adult and youth will not share a room/hotel/tent unless the adult is a parent of that youth with whom they are sharing the room/hotel/tent. No adult should share a bed with any youth.
- M. Lodging for overnight youth events at non-hotel sites: There will be separate sleeping areas/rooms for males and females at all conference-sponsored events. When there are several rooms/cabins of youth, there will be at least two adults of the same gender in the room/cabin.
- N. Parent/guardian housing exemption: An immediate family member or guardian of a young person who is chaperoning an overnight event is permitted to share a room and bed with his/her child no matter the gender as long as no other young people are sharing the room.
- O. Six-month rule: Any volunteer working with children must be a member or attend regularly in a local church, campus ministry, or approved extension ministry for at least six months. This shall be confirmed in writing by the pastor or ministry supervisor.

7. Training and Screening Reciprocity

The Safe Spaces Ministry Team may accept training provided by other United Methodist conferences or United Methodist churches in other conferences after a review of the policies and procedures implemented in the other conference or church. Screening will be accepted provided that there has been a copy of the national screen that included a national criminal check conducted by the other conference or church submitted with the request.

8. Reporting Of Incidents

This section on reporting applies directly to local church and to conference-sponsored events, it is a minimum standard for local church and agencies safe sanctuary policy and procedures.

Incidents may involve inappropriate behavior by staff/volunteers or other participants toward a participant and call for immediate on-site corrective action. Incidents may involve the abuse, neglect, or exploitation of participants by staff/volunteers or other participants and mandate reporting through the Tennessee Child Abuse Hotline (1-877-237-0004) or the Adult Protective Services hotline (1-888-277-8366). In Kentucky call the statewide abuse hotline, 1-877- KYSAFE1 or 1-877-597-2331. In case of an emergency, immediately call 911.

A call to the hotline is required to be made by staff/volunteers if there is reasonable cause to suspect that abuse of a participant has occurred. When the necessity of reporting occurs, the protection of children, youth, and vulnerable persons must be paramount. In Tennessee, cooperation with the Tennessee Department of Children's Services, the Tennessee Commission on Aging and Disability, and law enforcement is required in all such incidents. In Kentucky, cooperation with the Cabinet for Health & Family Services, Division of Protection & Permanency, and the Kentucky State Police or local law enforcement is required in all such incidents.
