

Visual Aid for Identification of Triatomine Bug

Adult triatomine bugs are typically 0.75 - 1.25 inch in length

Rhodnius prolixus adult with eggs, commonly found in Central America and northern South America

Triatoma protracta adult, commonly found in California and Arizona

Triatoma gerstaeckeri adult, commonly found in Texas

Triatoma dimidiata adult, commonly found in Central America and northern South America

Triatoma sanguisuga adult, commonly found in the southeastern United States and Texas