Why Some People Are Never At Ease Among Strangers

P EOPLE of culture can be recognized at once. They are calm, well-point of have a certain dignity about them, a certain calm assurance which makes people respect them. It is because they know exactly what to do and say on every occasion that they are able to mingle with the most highly cultivated people and yet be entirely at ease.

But there are some people who are never at ease among strangers. Because they do not know the right thing to do at the right time, they are awkward, self-conscious. They are afraid to accept invitations because they do not know what to wear, how to acknowledge introductions, how to make people like them. They are timid in the presence of celebrated people because people like them. they do not know when to rise and when to remain seated, when to speak and when to remain silent, when to offer one's chair and when not to. They are always uncomfortable and embarrassed when they are in the company of cultured men and women.

It is only by knowing definitely, without the slighted doubt, what to do, say, write and wear on all occasions, under all conditions, that one is able to be dignified, charming and well-poised at all times.

How Etiquette Gives Charm and Poise

Etiquette means good manners. It means knowing what to do at the right time, what to say at the right time. It consists of certain important little laws of good conduct that have been adopted by the best circles in Europe and America and which serve as a barrier to keep the uncultured and ill-bred out of the circles where they would be un-comfortable and embarrassed comfortable and embarrassed.

People with good manners, therefore, are peo-ple whose poise and dignity impress you immediately with a certain awe, a certain respect. Etiquette makes them graceful, consident. It enables them to mingle with the most cultured people and be perfectly at ease. It takes away their colfer-It takes away their self-con-sciousness, their timidity. By knowing what is expected of them, what is the correct thing to do and say they become caim, dignified and well-poised-and they are welcomed and admired in the highest circles of business and society.

Here's the Way People Judge Us

Let us pretend that we are in the drawing room and the hostess is serving tea. Numerous little questions of conduct confront us. If we know what to do we are happy, at ease. But if we do not know the correct and cultured thing to do we are ill at case. We know we are betraying ourselves. We know that those who are with us can tell immediately, simply by watching us and talking to us, if we are not cultured.

For instance, ono must know how to eat cake correctly. Should it be taken up in the fingers or eaten with a fork? Should the napkin be entirely unfolded or should the center crease be allowed to remain? May lump sugar be taken up with the fingers?

There are other problems, too-many of them. Should the man rise when he accepts a cup of tea from the hostess? thank her? Who served first? Wha Who should What should the guest do with the cup when he or she has finished the tea? Is it Is it good form to accept a second cup? What is the secret of creating conversation and making people find you pleasant and agreeable? It is so easy to commit embarrassing blunders, so easy to do what is wrong. But etiquette tells us just what is expected of us and guards us from all humiliation and discomfort.

Etiquette in Public

Here are some questions which will help you find out just how much you know about the eti-quette that must be observed among strangers. See how many of them you can answer: When a man and woman enter the thestre forether who walks the theatre together, who walks first down the aisle? When the usher points out the seats, does the man enter first or the woman? May a man leave a woman alone during intermission?

There is nothing that so quickly reveals one's true station and breeding than awkward, poor manners at the table. Should the knife be held in the left hand or the right? Should olives be eaten with the fingers or with a fork? How is lettuce eaten? What is how to do at all times, under all conditions, the cultured, correct thing?

How is lettuce eaten: the correct and cultured way to the correct and cultured way to the cob? Are the finger tips of both hands placed into the finger-bowl at once, or just one at a time?

When a man walks in the street with two women does he walk between them or next to the curb? Who enters the street car first, the man or the woman? When does a man tip his hat? On what occasions is it considered bad form for him to pay a woman's fare? May a man on any oc-casion hold a woman's arm when they are walking together?

Some people learn all about etiquette and correct conduct by associating with cultured people and learning what to do and say at the expense of many embar-rassing blunders. But most people are now learning quickly and easily through the famous Book of Etiquette—a splendid, care-fully compiled, authentic guide towards correct manners on all occasions.

The Book of Etiquette

The Book of Etiquette makes it possible for you to do, say, write and wear what is absolutely correct and in accord with the best form on every occasion

-whether you are to be brides-maid at a wedding or usher at a friend's private theatre party. It covers every-day etiquette in all its phases. There are chapters on the etiquette its phases. There are chapters on the etiquette of engagements, weddings, dances, parties and all social entertainments. There are interesting chapters on correspondence, invitations, calls and foreign countries have been added, and there are many helpful hints to the man or woman who travels.

With the Book of Etiquette to refer to there can be no mistakes, no embarrassment. One knows exactly what is correct and what is incorrect. And by knowing so definitely that one is perfect in the art of etiquette, a confident poise is developed which enables one to appear in the most elaborate drawing room, among the most brilliant and

SCORES DIE IN THEATER CRASH

Roof of Knickerbocker. Washington, Overweighted With Snow, Collapses

HUNDREDS ARE BURIED BENEATH THE DEBRIS

More Than Hundred Bodies Recovered-Investigations Are Planned

Washington, D. C., Jan. 30.-The national capital is stunned and a pall hangs over the city as a result of one of the greatest catastrophes in its history, and, doubtless, in the history of the motion picture industry. At nine o'clock Saturday night the roof of the Knickerbocker Theater, one of a chain of motion picture houses operated by Harry M. Crandali and associates, collapsed under the weight of two feet of snow, burying hundreds of persons, scores of whom were killed and other scores injured.

Up to last midnight 107 dead had been taken from the ruins and the injured numbered close to 150. Several musicians, members of the thea-ter orchestra, are among the dead.

The coilapse of the roof was caused by the gathering of tons of snow upon it, following an almost unprecedented, snowfail for Washington. The list of dead and injured includes men and women prominent in Washington life and thruout the country. In many

BANDITS ATTEMPT TO ROB SHUBERT COLLECTOR

But Quick Wit of Benjamin Mallon, Manager of Jolson Theater, Foils Robbers

New York, Jan. 27.—Three armed handits attempted to relieve Anthony Schaeffer, col-lector for the Shubert theatrical interests, of a hundle containing $15,000 in front of the Al Jolson Theater at Fifty-ninth street and Seventh avenue last night. Schaeffer, however, dodged hack into the lobby of the theater as soon as one of the handits jammed a revolver against his stomach, and the ring-ing of alarm gongs caused the handits to run. They escaped down Seventh avenue after a thrilling chase, in which Schaeffer was joined by Benjamin Mallon, manager of the theater. Schaeffer makes nightly rounds of the Shu-bert theaters and collects the day's receipts and then deposits the money in one of the all-night hank branches located hn Times Square. He drove up to the Jolson Theater shortly after nine in a delivery car in which he makes his rounds. He was alout $20,-000 which he hed collected from the other the other and had a package containing about $20,-

Altho he noticed what later developed to be the handits' car standing at the cuth, he did net pay much attention to it. Schaeffer entered the theater and saw Mal-lon, who handed him a bundle wrapped in newspaper which contained $15,000. The col-lector had left the other money outside in the car as he had always done. Mallon went with him to the lobby when Schaeffer started to leave and opened the door for him. No sooner had the collector stepped upon the side-walk than a revolver was pressed against his walk than a revolver was pressed against his stomach and he was ordered to unhand the bundle

Before joining the Shubert staff Mallon had been a police sergeant for a number of years. Trained to think quickly in such an emergency, Trained to think quickly in such an emergency, he showed the door open wider, should to Schaeffer to run, and at the same time made a motion as if he were going to draw a re-volver. The movement disconcerted the rob-ber, whose gun wahled, and before he could fire Schaeffer had drawn hack in the lohby. As another man leaped to assist the bandit Mallon sismued ' door in their faces and here of the the bar office

Mallon slammed ' door in their faces and leaped into the box-office. The former policeman reached behind the grill and set off the alarm gongs. He then grabhed an antomatic revolver, ran to the street and ronted the handlits, jumped aboard a taxi and gave chase. Mallon could not shoot hecause of the crowd, and the bandlits' car after swinging into Broadway was lost car after sw in the traffic.

CURRENT ATTRACTIONS AT CHICAGO THEATERS

Chicago, Jan. 30.—After a four weeks' ex-son of Sothern-Marlowe Shakesperean revivals at the Shubert-Northern, which must have heen quite satisfactory to the two distinguished nrtists, Robert B. Mantell opened at the Olym-pic last week also with Shakesperean plays. With Mr. Mantell is his wife, Genevieve Ham-per. The only uon-Shakesperean number was Bulwer Lytton's "Richelleu," which was the opening play. "The Merchant of Venice," "As You Like It," "Julius Caesar," "Hamlet" and "Macbeth" were given.

"As You Liko It," "Julius Caesar," "Hamlet" and "Macbeth" were given. In "As You Like It" Mr. Mansfield appeared in a part in which he has not heretofore been seen in Chicago, that of the melancholy Jacques. Mr. Mantell is said to he the first star of magnitude on the American stage to play Jacques in this country. Sir Harry Lauder opened at the Shubert-Northern last week with a wide repertoire of songs, each a distinct characterization, for which the comedian makes a complete change of costame.

"Agreeing" With the Manager

Not an actor in ten believes in Equity Shop, according to reiterated managerial atatements.

according to reiterated managerial atatements. The managers don't deny that the vote in favor of it was a decision under 30 to 1, but they say that all actors they meet speak against it. If that be so it is because the actor in-dividually does not wish to take issue with his manager on what is evidently a sore point, and therein he is often wise. He prefers to agree for the sake of harmony, but if the vote were taken over again he would register "yes" as be-fore.

Equity's New Affiliation

Equity's new Amination The affiliation agreement betwen the Eng-lish Actors' Association and ourselves embraces a definite understanding that a member of one association entering into the jurisdiction of the other automatically becomes its member and altho excused from an initiation fee must from that moment start paying dues. This is only fair, since foreign members frequently put the Actors' Equity Association to considerable trouble and expense. Recently we collected $1,000 for an English other instances. The stand at first taken by members of the English "Pins and Needles" Company, which opened at the Shubert Theater, New York, in refusing to take up their affiliation, was most ungrateful—to use no stronger word. They were apparently willing to be false to their own association and cared not a snap for the Unclear. own association and carea not a simp for the Equity. Their attitude was prompted, we be-lieve, by the thought that it would be pleasing to the managers. A noble impulse which, if it had motivated our members, would have left us all in a pre-strike condition.

And we could mention other instances.

THE UNION CONCESSION COMPANY,

SLUMP IN BUSINESS

Hits Baltimore Theaters - Fan Ford's To Close to Legitimate Shows

Shows Baitimore, Jan. 28.—The announced closing of the famons Ford Theater about the middle of February and the sudden shift in the bur-lerque houses is the direct result of a the-streal shump that has bit this city. The slamp is laid to several reasons, the most potent as regards the legitimate houses, be-ing the fact that Baltimoreans have been dia-gusted at paying out $2.50 for the best seats to witness tryouts of hoped-for future New York successes. The past winter Baltimore has vied with At-isatic City in being the "dog" for new pro-ductions, and especially has Ford's been the evone of first productions. The regular theater pitces have been charged and the productions, it is claimed, have been given with scant re-bearsals, tiresome waits, due to unfamiliarity with the scener, and by casis unfamiliar with with the scenery, and by casis unfamiliar with their lines, so that the performances have been far from satisfactory. Finally Baltimore re-belled. The Lycenm, a theater out of the theatrical district, has done a very poor b in-reas, and only for the record-breaking three weeks' runs of "The Bat" would in all proba-bility have been closed ere this. The burlesque situation is little better. Chear randeville and pictures have had a good run this winter, and the movies have been well patronised. To sum up the situation, it well patronized. well patronized. To snm up the situation, it seems as the the better class of theatergoers are the ones responsible for the condition the better house

SHUBERT VAUDE IN 20TH WEEK

Business Gradually Improving and Lee Shubert Announces He and His Associates Are in Field To Stav

New York, Jan. 30 .- Shubert vaudeville is here to stay, according to Lee Shubert, head of the far-reaching theatrical organization which bears his name. At the beginning of this, the twentieth week of Shubert vaudeville, the man who dared invade the one amusement field that had been considered, by certain interests, "Private Property-No Trespassing," and the one man who, because of his theater holdings, was in a position to make the Keith interests feel "opposition," announces that he and his associates in the new enterprise are well enough satisfied to continue and to expand.

From what has been learned at the Shubert offices and from the extended statement by Mr. Shubert himself it might be well to ural and expected slump hurt the Palstate tersely what have been declared to be important Shubert vaude- ace more than It did the Winter Garville facts, namely:

1-Business is gradually im-proving in nearly all of the houses on the Shubert vaude-ville circuit.

-The booking exchange, h, because of its hurried which, because of its hurried organization, was not equipped to function to the extent of fulfilling the requirements of the mushroom circuit, is steadily in-creasing its facilities.

3—As the touring vaudeville units find a response from the public, houses are being opened and will be opened for regularly booked Shubert vaudeville.

4-Shubert vaudeville is an established fixture in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Washing-ton, Pittsburg, Baltimore, Cleve-land, Detroit, Chicago, Dayton, Brooklyn, Newark and Atlantic City.

-The list of headliners, many of whom have found popularity on the Keith and allied circuits, steadily is being increased.

-Lee Shubert does not consider his vaudeville policy "op-position." "It's just a straight-away business matter with us," he says, "and we contemplate the situation with satisfaction."

When the Shuberts announced almost a year ago that they were contemplating the vaudeville field thero were those who smiled wisely and said: "It can't be done." "The Keith interests with E. F. Albee at the head are too strong," many others said. When it was pointed out that the Shuberts, with their many theater holdings, could embark on almost any amusement sea the wiseacres re-marked: "It takes more than a pilot to sail a ship. Where will the Shumarked: "It takes more th to sail a ship. Where will berts get their attractions?"

Shuberts Fire First Gun

When the Forty-fourth Street Theater was opened with a Shubert vaudeville bill the wiseacres were answered, but they refused to be convinced. These wiseacres were not those close to Mr. Albee however. He was too old in the vaudeville game to say "It can't be done." His policy evidently was one of sawing wood and strengthening his defenses against the invaders.

While the Shuberts have stated repeatedly that their vaudeville policy should not be considered as opposi-tion, the Keith interests were quick to frown upon it as competition well worth paying considerable attention to. With the opening of vaudeville in the Winter Garden within a hop and skip of the Palace somebody in the Keith offices sat up and took a whole iot of notice. The Shuberts may not have considered the Forty-fourth Street and the Winter Garden opposition, but it was plain to be seen that booking exchange to function.

perhaps more important than anything else as far as the Keith interests were concerned, they kept right on booking and fighting for headline acts that in the past had pulled many a dollar thru the Keith, Proctor, Orpheum and other box-office wickets.

Opposition? Not a blt of it. The Keith people couldn't consider the Winter Garden, which evidently was losing money, or the Forty-fourth Street, which certainly wasn't a gold mine, opposition when the Palace was when the parage was selling out. But little by little the Winter Garden business was picking up and the Keith offices were running up and the Keith offices were running out of headline acts and were resort-ing to repeats. Mr. and Mrs. John Public are pecullar people. Having spent a dollar or two to see one at-traction, they are likely to find other uses for the other dollars. The natden. Rohins. The Subberta, having found profit in booking their touring vaudeville companies into their Parsons' Theater in Hartford, decided to make the two-a-day a fixture in the Connecticut capital city and made a deal for regular bookings with Charles Finberg, manager of Splegel's Grand Theater.

Hetty King's Third Week

When the management of the Royal Alex-ander Theater in Toronto, Can., learned that Hetty King, the English male impersonator, will complete her vauderlile contract with the Suberts very son, they got the New York booking office on the long distance telephone and finally persuaded Arthur Klein to switch Hetty King into Toronto for this week. On December 12, last, Hetty King and the travelwent into the Royal Alexander, Toronto, for a week and hecause of the popular demand was held over for another week, playing the entire time to capacity business, according to reports.

The Shubert booking office was satisfied that was about the limit for a city the size of Toronto and when the long distance request came for a return engagement it was argued

The Royal Alexander management insisted, however, and so Miss King's booking was changed. This necessitated several shifts. For a time the Palace broke all its records for business and the re-port spread that the Shuberts were playing vaudeville at a loss of something like $35,000 a week.

The wiseacres were beginning to smile again and when Oid Lady Ru-mor ran up and down Broadway with a story that Al Jolson was to be moved into the Winter Garden with "Bombo" to help pay the taxes and the rent and a few coal bills the "gen-

There's another flop-proof bill at the Palace this week, not one unit, with the exception of those prize boobles, the orchestra and the Topics of the Day, falling below the 70 per cent mark. In the main it is a program of familiar faces. Ella Retford, the English music hall favorite, who scored such a marked success at her initial appearance at this house last spring, is back again; Johnny Burke is playing a return engagement—he ran away with Monday afternoon show, while little Sylvia Clark, always a prime favorite at this house—and at any other for that matter—brings a touch of piquant charm to a bill that also includes such diverting personages as William Rock, the Gibraitar of vaudeville, and De Lyle Alda, fresh from the Ziegfeld "Follies." Carl Randall, billed for the Monday afternoon show, falled to appear. As a result the bill ran one act short, forcing the Rock turn to close the show. 1—Orchestra. 2—Corradini's Animals offered a rather interesting as well as entertain-

1—Orchestra. 2—Corradini's Animals offered a rather interesting as well as entertain-ing routine in starting the vaudeville portion of the bill. 3—Jed Dooley is a comedian of no mean ability. It took some of his audience, however, a long time to realize it, but before he left the stage he had the crowd eating out of his hand. In addition to his fun-making pro-clivities Dooley also shakes a mean hoof and swings a rope in real rowdy fashion. He is assisted by a neat bit of femininity. 4—Harriet and Marie McConnell have a "class" in "Thrills and Frills." It is a Hassard Short production, staged as only Short can stage a production. One of the sisterly twain is possessed of a contraito voice of exceptional warmth and beauty and the other a coloratura soprano of an ingratiting tonal qual-lity, which registered a marked impression. Their repertoire is well chosen and perfectly balanced. One number in particular, a song by George Fuller Golden, brought the house down. 5—John Cumberland, with Mabel Cameron and Carroll C. Lucas, have a crackerjack little comedy skit in Arthur Ekerslie and Gordon Bostock's "The Fall of Eve." The authors have unearthed an excellent situation about which have woven a dialog texture which is just crammed full of laughs. The actors handle their lines in a most capable manner and ran up a good sized hand for themselves. The act is superbly mounted and cleverly staged. A actors handle their lines in a most capable manner and ran up a good sized hand for themselves. The act is superbly mounted and cleverly staged. A first-rate unlt for any first-rate bill. 6—That klassy little klown, Sylvia Clark, has certainly reached the very height of artistic buffoonery. We could sit all day and listen to this kid. She's there forty different ways and going strong. The greatest little comic in vaudeville.

She's there forty different ways and going strong. The greatest little comic in vandeville. 7—De Lyle Alda, late prima donna of the Ziegfeld "Follies," in "Sadie"— "One of Those Girls"—has a very clever and thoroly diverting satire, in which the eeason's stage successes are put on the griddle and fried to a crisp. Ar-thur Swanstrom is the author and Carey Morgan has contributed some tune-ful, if sometimes reminiscent, melodies. Miss Alda is assisted by Edward Tirney, James Donnelly, Geo. Dobbs, Dorothy Buckley and Caroline Locke, all of whom contribute in no small measure to the success of the turn. 3—Topics of the Day. 9—Ella Retford returns with much the same act as when seen here last spring. This week's engagement brings to a close Miss Retford's American tour and she returns to England next week. She still displays vim and plquant charm as when last seen at this house and was every bit as much of a hit. We repeat what we said of Miss Retford when last we reviewed her—Ameri-can vandeville can well stand more acts of this caliber. 10—Johnny Burke owned the show from the moment his name appeared on the call cards until he made his final bow. A great performer, this chap. 11—William Rock returns with a new act, sumptuously mounted and en-tertaining from start to finish. He is assisted by Nancy Welford and Helyen Eby.—EDWARD HAFFEL.

Edna Leedom and John Gardner galloped on of her uumber about "My Kingdom for a age in a manner that gave signs of big-time Man." Miss Morris is a wonderful enter-miliarity, but their operations drowned all tainer and does not have to employ questionstage in a manner that gave signa of big-time familiarity, but their operations drowned all such thoughts. As their routine is rough and tumble and of low comedy caliber it is only to be suggested that an entirely different act be attempted if smooth sailing is sought on the two-aday stream. Robert Redmond introduced and assisted Mr. Kean. FEBRUARY 4, 1922

The bill opened on time to a good-sized house. Music predominates and there is a generous sprinkling of novelty. Pathe News, Accorpt Fables and Literary Digest topics held the attention while the crowd was getting seated, Frederick Easter and Beatrice Squire displayed some graceful dascing to open, the girl es-pecially being dainty and charming and the boy better than the average of male dancing part-ners. Setting and costuming and progress of the act cleverly worked out. Twelve minutes, two bows.

Trausfield Sisters, in "Musical Moments," sag, played saxos, mandolina and closed with some xylophone work ordinary in itself, but bringing out the cute baby doll mannerisma of one of the sisters and drawing three bows. Thirteen minutes.

Forecott and Hope Eden, is a mind-reading act, done along accepted lines for the most part. She writes the serial number of a dollar bit on a small blackboard and gives the usual advice about husiness, love and health. Free-cott is suare and quiet. Nineteen minutes, two home bows.

tows. Thos. F. Swift and Mary Kelley. "Gam Drops," in an old act that in always new. Swift is a glib comedian who can do everything in the entertaining line, and Mins Kelley in de-veloping enough voice to sing some serious things pleasingty. Sha has the vague thing called per-sonality in bounteous measure, plays a simple part with finesse, and is remarkable for what the does not do. Twenty-one minutes, three bows; flowers.

Bows: nowers. Roth Budd, assisted by Leo Hinton at the plano, dropped lato the proceedings via the the plano lamp, sang "Hello, Prosperity," then did a Gypsy song, with mandolin, and after a plano interiude - launched lato her surprise ring act, which had the crowd gasping. Four hows after a fast sixteen minutes.

Bill Bailey and Lynu Cowan, assisted by Bitli Bailey and Lynu Cowan, assisted by Estelle Davis, pulled a nifty mensic abop and modiste act, a happy variation from the ac-cepted song writer's act. Saxophones, banjo, piano and three good songs, "Alabema," "Lit-tic Minnehaha" and "Pals," put them across for one of the big hits of the afternoon. Twenty-three mineter for hows. three minutes, five bows, three minntes, five bows. Florence Reed, presented by Edgar Setwyn, and aided by Lionel Gleniater as Louis XIV, and Reginald Goode as the romantic lower. A cap-tain of the guard was programmed, but did not appear. A serious bit of period drama and played with an abundance of atmosphere. A welcome addition to the brief list of serious playleta in vandeville, and better acted than most of the best. Nineteen minutes; five cur-rains tains.

Val and Ernie Stanton, purveyors of burleque English wit, with a sprinkling of song, nkeleio and imitations, held the fans for twenty min-utes with a hundred langhs. Three bows.

Kara, European eccentric juggier, has a num-ber of mechanical surprises and does the more difficult feats with ease. Nine minutes.-LOUIS O. RUNNER.

SHUBERTS' WINTER GARDEN

(Reviewed Monday Matinee, January 30)

A fairly good-sized Monday matiace crowd delayed the final curtain at the Winter Garden this afternoon for two good reasons—Nora Bayes and Ray Miller. It needed more than a poorly handled show to discourage any audience that obviously was attracted to Shubert vandeville by these two drawing cards. Judging by the atti-tude of the patrons, it is difficult to say which earned the greater amount of applause. True, Miss Bayes and her players accepted more curtain calls, but, perhsps, ahe had time to gather tain caise, but, pernsps, are not time to gather a wider following. This is not said to disparage her entertaiument or its value. Rather is it intended as a compliment to Ray Miller and his aggregation, and a perediction-probably mada before—that the more they play the more they will have to play.

While on the subject of Ray Miller and his while on the above of hay antier and his orchestra, let us not forget his featured ukelele strummer. Cliff Edwards, all blacked up 'n' everything. This outfit first had to take several bows and an encore, and, when the curtain dropped for intermission, it was with evident regret that the audience accepted the "no, no" sign. Bay Miller's program was varied and popular with that certain and dominant dauce popular with that certain and dominant dauce rhythm that has been responsible for the wide sale of dance records. For this Mr. Miller is responsible, as be "conducts" with drumsticks instead of baton. True, there are those who will say it's cabaret atoff, but it is well dressed and gets over hig. Nora Bayes might have done better with dif-ferent material, but it is doubtful if abe would have hed to respond to more demands from the sudience. Of course ahe may have had her "fang" with her, but there isn't room enough in the Winter Garden for her admirers. The sudience made it evident from the beginning of her set that they were thera to see and hear Nora Bayes, so perhaps it is out of order to criticise the stuff her act is made of. Really, the most picewing parts of her offering ware presented by George Rasely in a cycle criticise the stuff her act is made of. Really, the most pleasing parts of her offering ware presented by George Easely in a cycle of songs and the "Samson and Deillah" en-core as offered by Miss Bayes and Mr. Rasely. If her associates "think that they're in love with Nora Bayes," as they sing ever and anon, with the down best on the ever, they would be less threesome by letting it go at that-the that being the thinking-to one who has seen Nora Bayes many, many times, and who hopes to see her many, many times more, if ahe seen Nora Bayes many, many times, and who hopes to see her many, many times more, if she will only please serve a larger portion of the songe that made her. The act featured the capital "I" to the detriment of the person it presented. But the audience called and called, so what's one person's opinion? Unleas, per-haps, the audiesce was calling for a whole lot of the former Nora Bayes. Here other singing assistant was Allan Edwards. Dudley Wilkin-son, at the plano, offered excellent accompani-ment.

ment. The hill opened with Alfred Naces and Com-pany in an ice skating act that seemed to chill the house, Armstrong and James fol-lowed in blackface.

George Libbey and Ida May Sparrow found the audience in not vary good humor and had difficulty in getting thru traffic. It doesn't take this team iong to thaw any ice and they won the real encore of the afternoon. Fol-lowers of Shubert vandeville know how good they are in ariginal and imitative dances, and them who dealt onesh to find out for them. They are in arginal and imitative dances, and these who don't onght to find out for them-seives. As an encore they offered a sutgestion of Leon Errol and Marijan Miler in "Saliy." and put in a strong plug for Mr. Zeigfeid'a New Amsterdam predection in J. J. Shubert's Winter Garden. Sweet thought. Carl McCullough caught the crowed in a bet-for temper and in mine of crowed dignals er temper and, in spite of crossed signala rith Andy Byrnes' Pit Hand, got over. His elephone feature in fust as funny, if uot more ter "He Akey Hyrnes' Fit Hand, got over. His telephone feature is just as funny, if not more so, than aver, but he might do well to rehearse "April Showern," which he samg for a curtain call. While it is the province of the orchestra to "follow" the singer, Mr. McCullough might have done better to "follow" Mr. Byrnes' Cobernion of the singer, to "follow" the singer, Mr. McCullough might have done better to "follow" Mr. Byrnca' conception of the piece. Aitho Fred Alien annownced himself as a per-son chased by old man Hard Luck, Regai and Moore, who opened after the news pictures fol-howing intermission, won the plush bath tub from Dector Gloom. With excellent acrohatics, despite impossible presentation, Regal and Moore the data from Dector Gloom. With excellent acrohatics, despite impossible presentation, Regal and Moore found their gymnasile trappings snarled in a curtain and had to quit with an apology which should have been offered by someone else. And, having gor rid of the analitike and uninteresting opening, it seemed a shame these boys could not have had a decent chance. How-ever, the week was young and the bill was too long anyway. Which remarks take us to Fred Allen. Why this fellow was spotted after Nora Bayes and her company is hard to nuder-stand. It may be good show husiness, but most unfair to "the beloved son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen." However, he refused to die, aud staked his showmsuship against that of the house and got away with it. Too long, tho, was his act for that time of day. Joe Bogenny and his "Lumatic Bakers" closed the bill.-JED FISKE.

Their patter and delivery is not exactly new, but went well with this afternoon's audience. They close with a bit of eccentric dancing. Eleven minutes, in anys; two bows. Loew's State, New York (Reviewed Monday Matinee, January 30)

The show was given a good start this after-noon by Cined and Monte Haber, a man and woman, who dance very well, tho why they give their fances as imitations is ese of raudeville'a mysteries. They even gum this up by an-nonncing them in deggerel verse to music. When they dance they are excellent and they made a big hit for their spat a big hit for their spot.

Mahoney and Abhurn, a psir of jugglers, com-mit somewhat the same fault. They are cork-ing jugglers and hold down the accord spot well, but persisted in cracking gass while tossing the cinbs. Neither of them can talk and the gass were a choice lot of chestants. Monologists don't juggle; why should jugglers talk? Answer that if you can. Bily Swede Hall and Company made the house laugh in the No. 3 position. Hall is doing a Swede alevator givil in his neual comedy man-ner and his assistants are capable. The boy in particular is a spicold dancer. The fault of the act thean the faileh. It is weak, and Hall should dig around for a new one. Herman Berrens followed. The girl who is contemplating the acceptance of a contract to go to Panama or any Latin-American country to work as a cafe enter-tainer might do well to read this story as told by a vandeville performer who recently was brought back from Colon under the protection of the Σ . And before telling her story it might he well to establish the fact that while there are those who will con-tend that the tale is colored so that conditions may be presented in their worst light those eame conditions are just had enough to hare caused Dr. Torey, U. This warning was made by Dr. Torey when the cabaret propriotor refused to release the girls' luggage, after arrangements had been made for their return passage. The threat was sufficient to get the girls away with their belongings. Here's the girl's story:

VAUDEVILLE NOTES

The Billboard

Waiter Baker is staging the dances for the new revue which is to be presented at the Strand Roof, New York.

The Funny Men from Caseyland will present a ten-act bill February 16 at the Knights of Columbus Hall, New Orleans.

Henrietta Byron, wife of Barney Fagan, is reported as in a serious condition following a recent operation for cancer.

Al West, of the team of West and Morris, who has been ill for some time, is in Chicago. Mrs. West is said to be ill in Cleveland.

A. Stanley is doing well with his single singing and dancing act. Last season he ap-peared in an act known as Anita and Stanley.

Frank Lane, the talkative trickster, has framed a new act with Jack Kenney, planist and violinist. They have been handed a ten weeks' contract for the Loew Circuit.

The Doily Sisters will return to this country shortly to open at the Palace Theater, New York, for a ten weeks' tonr of the Keith Cir-cuit at a reported weekly salary of $2,500.

Manager Vanni, of Poli'a Paiace Theater, Hartford, Conn., put on a big festival bill the last half of the week of January 15, with fourteen acts. Loney Hascall "did the honors."

Word has been received from Fred J. Twyman, who for the past year has been managing the Arcade Theater, Spearman, Tex., that he and his wife (Hazel Bee Hurd) will be on the road

Eleanor Brent, who has been a favorite with the Orphenin Stock Company, of Germantown, Pa., has accepted for early production a new skotch by James Madison. She was in New York a few days ago selecting her cast.

Gene Deimont, lightweight pugilist, with the Jimmy Hussey Century Revue playing Shubert vanderille, left the act the night of January 21 and journeyed to Tuisa. Ok., to fight Jack Jawler. He was with Hussey's act sixteen

ONE of the significant after-phases of the World War in Germany has ful state of affairs! been the enormous increase in the manufacture and sale of pornographic pictures and books, for home and foreign consumption, and the presentation of degraded exhibitions on the stage and in the all-night cabarets. For over two years a woman named Celly, who is the wife of a former lieutenant, has been giving unmolested a series of "artistic" bailets in which the chief article of covering worn by the dancers was their sense of rhythm. About half a million people saw her in that time. She was an "artistic" sensation, beloved and pat'onized by those whose ideas of beauty are not trammeled by conventions of morals. One of the delectable creations of the lady finally brought the grab of the law on her neck and she was dragged It was a "symbolic" dance into court. in which Celly, dressed in the garb of a nun, did a hysterical dance before a crucifix, and as her fervor increased she tore off piece by piece her cloth-ing until she ended the number in a frenzy of total nakedness. Dulled as public taste had become this was con-sidered a bit too "artistic" even for Berlin, and a roar of outraged de-cency came from Christians generally against the sacrilegious exhibition. A fortnight or so ago the court which heard the case held the lady guilty of violating "the sense of decency of every normal person" and fined her 37,000 marks, which at the present rate of exchange is about one dollar and thirteen cents. The press dis-patch which brings the story says that if the verdict is not upset by the higher court it will have "a far-reaching effect on the clothing of cabaret dancers."

The old-fashioned judges who rendered the decision held that the public exhibition of nudity "was not necessarily immoral in the legal sense prosarily immoral in the legal sense pro-vided that it was of such a highly artistic nature that the artistic over-shadowed the sexual, but that the specific case of the Celly ballet constituted "completely unmotivated nakedness," since it possessed no high rtistic merit and was perfomed before champagne-drinking cabaret audi-ences, "seeking and gaining its effect purely thru scanty clothing."

No wonder war and starvation and sudden death lit on such a people. Thank heaven nothing like that in America! We are a moral people!

We would not tolerate such a thing. Don't make me laugh, please! New York Times (which is just about as sensational as an invitation to a dinner of the Academy of Arts and Sciences) filled two of its columns in a recent Sunday edition with a dis-closure of "night life" between the hours of 12 midnight and 6 a.m. in chaste Manhattan. I quote a few ex-cerpts which show what the observers Mind you it is Grand-mes" who is speaking, dis overed. "Times" mother not L

In the exhibition dancing at these re-sorts the taking off of garments and the wriggling details of the dance outdo anything of the sort seen in New York, according to the observers, all of whom are oldtimers-familiar with Broadway's theatrical and restaurant life for years. Rumor has it that there are places where even less clothing is worn by th dancers than in the resorts visited by dancers than in the resorts visited by the writer on this account. But this re-port will confine itself to first-hand ob-servations made from a table immedi-ately facing the dancing floor. The cos-tume of the dancer consisted of a brassiere of a garland held together on one layer of chiffon, a lein cloth from which hung a sliken fringe, and a rosy stain on the soles and toes of the feet.

Generally speaking, it is no crowd of chorus girls or Broadway revelers. Two women are recognized as members of the so-called exclusive society set. There are young girls in parties of six and eight, who bear all the marks of the unchaperonal society fanner. Most of unchaperoned society flapper. Most of them are young and good looking. At 3 o'clock green light begins to play over the room. It is the signal that the ex-bibition dancers are ready • • four hula-hula girls. They wear, each, the "costume" most people would call no clothing worth the name. They are very young. The dance which they perform consists of writhings. Finally the exhibition ends. The floor is soon filled with the closely dancing couples. The onlocker can now observe that the wriggly exhibition dancing has exerted an influence npon the place's clientele. o'clock green light begins to play over an influence upon the place's clientele. There is an increase in the number of couples whose bodies quiver rhythmically to the music. Many of them seem to be imitative.

The costumes are more extreme than anything shown in the midnight roof performances, altho a private perform-ance of "Follies" used to be given to a privately invited audience, where the costumes equaled the present display. But this was not a licenced performance But this was not a licensed performance to which tickets could be purchased.

This resort stays open until 6 a.m. and is more or less crowded until that hour. It is noticeable that the later ar-rivals are even more fashionable in their appearance. One is told that they are arriving after the close of some formal society function.

IS it possible that such things can n? And in New York, tool Yes, everyone cannot go to these es. The "Times" investigators go on? but places. found that table reservations had to be made (by the visiting firemen), that there was a couvert charge of one or two dollars for each person, and that you had to be out looking for sensation in order to run into the conditions uncovered. It is not a matter of walking up to a ticket window and ditions uncovered. You have to know where to go and how to get in when you get there, which facts mitigate the evil somewhat goes on in a place for which there is no restriction in the matter of buying tickets unless it is the size of your pocketbook and about which to my knowledge there has not been a single word in the newspapers, altho they all carry advertisements for the show? There is no such place! Is that so? T.iston!!!

ON Friday night, January 13, 1922, went to tthe "Midnight Frolic," T which the program says is presented by F. Ziegfeld, Jr., atop the New Am-sterdam Theater. Because I dread to go to anything labeled entertainment after midnight, unless I have my 'gang," I took with me one of the after best-known sporting editors in New He and I had been cub reporters together, so there are no illusions between us. He is that rare and beautiful gift of God to man, a friend about whose sensibilities you need not worry. Being a "leg-man" on a morning newspaper does leave a speck or two of sophistication of one's baptismal innocence. As we started for the theater (we had earlier been to the Provincetown Playhouse because I had determined to finish my friend's edu-cation that night no matter how brutal the course) we encountered another newspaper man, that is if a finance editor can be called a newspaperman.

"Where are you guys beatin' it to now?" questioned the high finance ex-pert, with that delicacy of expression which always characterizes conversanow?' tion in the loftlest circles of the money world.

"To the 'Midnight Frolic' with my little friend," explained my guest. The wizard on affairs on 'Change gave me e hard look, and my companion a pitying one. "You're crazy," he exclaimed. "Good-by," and wrung us heartily by the hand.

So we mounted to the "Frolle" and watched the dancers. The waiter gave us a harder look than the financial reporter when we waved aside the menu card. The face of the card con-tains an illustration which I can not describe here, because I do not want to shock the composing room want to snock the composing term lambs into a walkout. However, I may say that it is one of those "quaint" conceits which are fatuously purchased by Americans visiting Paris for the first time for their "Frenchi-As a matter of fact it is hardly an ideal card to hand a modest young lady and ask her to help herseif. After a stage hand had struck twelve blows like a call to church on a bell pipe the performance began, if the dreary routine of ineptitudes could be called a performance, Mr. Leon Errol, assisted by many young girls, appeared and feli all over the floor in a bright, new and merry idea cailed "The Dancing Lesson." But suppose I were to tell you that Years and years passed. Then came something, which I call much worse, intermission and more dancing by the gentleman with the napkined fist and other frolickers. It was too sad! By this time my guest was showing immediate signs of falling into a deep and peaceful sleep. Then to open the remaining half of the show Mr. F. Ziegfeld, Jr., presented "A Festival in Judea," a tableau of living figures arranged by Ben Ali Haggin.

IN the first scene of the tableau there were two girls standing, profile on, to the audience. Each girl had one breast completely bare. The curone breast completely bare. The cur-tains parted again. This time the cen-ter figure of the group was a girl ab-solutely naked from the waist up and wearing a breechclout of crystal beads. I could not believe my eyes. I had never before seen anything quite so raw, as the weirdest expose 1 had hitherto encountered involved breast-plates. The girl's trunk in "A Festival in Judea" was as bare as the baid in Judea" was as pare as the paid heads around the ringside. My guest, who, having reported basebali games and spring training trips, is fairly blase, looked at me. "That is the limit for me," he confessed. "How do they get away with it? Where are the get away with it? cops?"

THE next day I could not make myself believe that what I had seen was actually there. After all New York is not yet Berlin, nor Vienna, nor Paris, and we do not really go in for that sort of stuff. I might have been mis-Besides the police would not taken. permit such a thing to go on. And yet unless I was quite deluded I had seen something. So to make sure I asked another member of The Billboard staff to see the show and verify or destroy my impression of the "Frolic." He went a week later and took his wife for a witness. Also being a bug on optics he took along a very fine pair of binoculars. He reported to me in of binoculars. He reported to me in greater detail but substantiated exactly what I have here written.

NOW then the question arises once more in my mind: "How does Ziegfeld get away with it?"

"A Festival in Judea" were to be If shown in exactly the same way at the Columbia Theater, at the other end of Longacre Square from the Amrdam Roof, the rubber tires would be burned off the police patrol wagons racing to the stage door to arrest the perpetrators. Columns would appear in the newspapers describing the oc-currence and the reason for it. A A great howl would go up about the ut-ter rottenness of burlesque. The manager who staged the tableau would have been thrown off the burlesque wheel by the scruff of the neck. Per

How does Mr. Ziegfeld escape? Why have not the vigilant officers of the law exercised the same open-eyedness where the Ben All Haggin "arrange-ment" is concerned that they would have displayed if a "cooch dancer" had wiggled at a fourth-rate turkey store show down on Fourteenth street? Is it Art because Mr. F. Ziegfeld, Jr., presents it, Mr. Ben All Haggin arranges it, and the audience has to pay to see it? Where does the proprietor of a "national institution" get his protection? For what? Why? Why do the newspapers which carry the advertisements for the Ziegfeld "Mid-night Frolic" continue to act as pimps for a show which they would not dare lest they be barred from the mails describe in the self-same ads? How is it that in the "Times" expose of is it that in the "Times" expose of night life in New York there was no mention made of "A Festival in Judea" in Mr. Ziegfeld's "Midnight Froite"? Were the observers blind? Is the Amsterdam Roof hallowed ground? The exhibitions described in the Sunday revelations are not half so bad as what four people, that I know easy at a show for which tickets so bad as what four people, that I know, saw at a show for which tickets are sold publicly and the entertain-ment given to a mixed audience, none of whom, in case that is extended as

"Drifting" is a chow mien drama, with everything Chinese in it but the with everything Chinese in it but the failures, one, The Mat Dog, not only washboard, the boiler, the starch bowl dying but touching the highwater and the ironing board. The story is mark of offensiveness. In each play full of plots, counter-plots, riff-raff of her work has been the compensating the Chinese coast, yellow Bolsheviks, feature. One sapient newspaper critic "bamboos" in knee pants and no pants, says: "She knows nothing of the tech-fur rugs, long fingernails, uprisings nique of acting." As a matter of pure missionaries, orphans, distorted missionaries, outcast white women, the men, outcast white women, mafus (I think a mafu is a Chinese vaudevilie agent), Cassie Cook, of the Yellow Seas, and Bad Lands McKinney. two people about whom in parthe ticular this muddy, turgid yarn swirls. There is enough material in the plot for a dozen rip-snorting melodramas and too much for one good one. The mistake which has been made by John Colton and Daisy H. Andrews is John Colton and Datsy H. Andrews 15 that they made a motion picture scenario before they made a play. The result is a "meller" as wild as "Bull-dog Drummond." But, unlike that bit of entertainment, "Drifting" is played as if it was a real play and to be taken seriously. Alice Brady, who was starred in it originally with Robert Warwick, collapsed after the first performance and had to go to the hospital to be operated upon. I don't wonder. Cassie Cook goes thru enough to put her in the morgue from the night she runs away from home as a girl until she winds up as the "Queen of Sheba" in a cabaret joint on the Bubbling Well Road in Shanghai. But all her painted past is dull and gray from the time she meets Bad Lands McKinney, who has been thrown out of the U.S. Army after being accused of dealing from the bottom of the deck and has taken to the "black smoke." But Bad Lands is a true 100 per cent American at heart for all he has taken to the pipe, and he is willing to sacrifice his life rather than see Red Russia combine with Yellow China to turn civilization orange. So he puts on his U. S. A. Captain's bars, and, after "the papers," meets bars, papers," Cassie, whom he thinks is a Sunday school teacher, and what they do be-tween them!!!!! When Miss Brady got sick an attempt was made to get Florence Reed to play Cassie, but it could not be done. So Helen Menken was engaged. It is her performance and Mr. Warwick's which give the show even passing interest. Miss Menken has served in two of the season's failures, one, "The Mad Dog," not only dying but touching the highwater mark of offensiveness. In each play

JOSEPH M. GAITES Presents a New American Musical Play, Entitled "UP IN THE CLOUDS Book by WILL B. JOHNSTONE (Author of "Take It From Me") Music by Tom Johnstone Staged by Lawrence Marston Dance Numbers Staged by Allan K. Foster, Max Scheck and Vaughn Godfrey Entire Production Staged Under the Personal Direction of Joseph M. Gaites

This is Musical Comedy in the Raw, meaning by "raw," unfinished, uncouth, rough and common. But it is also patriotic—very, very, very patriotic. patriotic. There is a red-white-and-blue coloration over the whole thing which should arouse the indignation and protest to the P. M. A. of Mister George M. Cohan. Things have come to a pretty pass if, at this period of life, Mister Cohan is to have the Star-Spangled Banner wrenched from his grasp by Joseph M. Gaites and wrapped around a play. "Up in the Clouds" sounds like a left-handed smack at Bolshevism. The title of the show is the best description of the arguments advanced. There is a lot of slob talk about Capital and Labor joining hands, etc., etc., but that does not interfere with the insertion of a steady stream of Western vaudevilie tabloid stuff. The humor, most of it furnished by a fresh-appearing young comic. named Skeet Gallagher and an eccentric comedienne, Gertrude O'Connor, is of the brand much beloved by cigar store conversationalists, smoking. car funsters and the sidewalk laugh-makers whose deadliest weapon is the rolled-up newspaper. However, it is not soiled, and, while quite crude, will doubtless prove entertaining to the show-hungry "sticks." Grace Moore opens up a voice of sweetness and clarity, and has a naturally ingenuous manner which makes up for her lack of stage repose. She has possibilities, however. Max Weily and Melissa Ten Eyck do several effective dances, and a trio of acrobats, Melino, Weis and Alex-ander, furnished a brief moment of novelty. In comparison with several musical shows which have a higher scale of admission, "Up in the Clouds" is not bad. But that does not mean it is good. It is fair, and that is all.--PATTERSON JAMES.

Music Under the Direction of Max Benedix The Shuberts have done an excellent thing in reviving "The Choco-late Soldier." In the midst of many revivals it is the only thing I have seen which deserves to be revived. The music is as tuneful as ever, the production is made with care and effectiveness, and the principal roles are in hands that are suited to the job. Unlike "The Merry Widow." with its polyglot cast, "The Chocolate Soldier" has two familiar and welcome faces, Miss Kosta's and Mi Frian's. I like Miss K. because she has a clear, sweet voice. She rever ekylarks off the key, she acts like a human being, and she does not out on prima donna airs. She is also pretty, which is not altogether a Q-awback, and she has a slim graceful-ness which is nice to look at I atomire Mr. Brian for his indomitable determination to live down "Danlio" in "The Merry Widow." He is getting on famously in that praiseworthy effort, and as the chocolate soldier he is not too sweet to Le wholesome. In fact he is rollicking and pleasant. His high tones, like my own, show signs of wear and tear, but we get along very well on our personality when our B flat frays at the edge. Virginia O'Brien was altogether delightful. If Miss O'Brien es-capes cultivating pretty-pretty mannerisms, which have ruined (his-trionically speaking) many promising young singers and actresses, she should get on famously. Detmar Poppen, in charge of the whiskers sec-tion of the Bulgarian military police, roared mightily and popped his eves right manfully. I liked the show a lot, not only for itself, but be-cause it took the curse off so many that I have seen in the past—and must see in the future. Alack a day!—PATTERSON JAMES.

of acting, how effects are raised in an audience, and by pushing what particular button in the player's control can HENRY MILLER'S THEATER, NEW interest, laughter, tears and all the rest of the sensations and emotions be stirred into being. Anyway, whether Miss Menken knows all the rules cr not, she has something in her that more than outweighs the glacial and statistically accurate leading ladies of the drama. She has Spirit and Blood in her. "I did not like at all her char-acterization of Cassie Cook as the tomboy who went picking flowers with the That particular stage of Cassic boys. seemed to me to savor of a girl not quite all there in the head. Miss Menken's laugh and simper seemed not girlish, but foolish. Instead of licking her, as he threatened to do, Deacon Cook should have turned Miss Menken's youthful Cassie over to some outdoor school for defectives. But when Miss Menken's "Cassic" outgrew her adenoids and her silly laugh and she developed into the Queen of Sheba of the Bubbling Well Road there was nothing uncertain about her. She was as hard as her clavicle was pliable, and Miss Menken demonstrated that Cassie could shake a febrile, provocative teddy-bare. From then on her characterization was vibrant with undisciplined life, and in the last act, when Cassie sacrifices herself rather than let the noble soldier who has steered her clear of all the fur-bearing Chinks from the Thibet Himalayas to the seacoast know who she is, Miss Menken makes an exhibition of openwork, raw nature that is real bone and meat and tissue. I like to see people acting on the stage as if they had the same strain of original sin in 'em as the rest of us. Miss Menken, after a fe more efforts, may succeed in attracting the attention of the managers. Meanwhile the decorative ladies will get the good jobs. I hope, however, that while she is waiting she will avoid Scylla. Theater Guild and Charybdis Provincetown. They finish anyone. Mr. Warwick was manly, simple and con-Warwick was many, simple and con-vincing. He did not pose nor posture, and his work was an agreeable sur-prise to me. The rest of the cast is like the show. If "Drifting" were pulied apart and put together properly it would not be a bad melodrama at all. Even now it has Miss Menken, Mr. Warwick and the Jhanzi Khan (Manchu for Jacob Z. Cohen), who wears the flashiest red underthings as

"THE NATIONAL ANTHEM"

A Play in Four Acts By J. Hartley Manners

(Produced Under the Personal Direction of the Author)

Management of A. E. Erlanger and George C. Tyler

THE CHARACTERS Paul Porcasi

Whether Hartley Manners has written a first-class play or not, he has succeeded in discovering a specific for jazz. In so doing he has effected more for th peace, prosperity and eardrums of the human race than all the Einsteins, Pasteurs and Metchnikoffs in the scientific hall of fame. "The National An-them" proves beyond the possibility of contradiction that the only way to kill the jazz bug is to give it fifteen grains of bichloride of mercury, followed by a chaser of a quart or two of milk. Milk kills the mercury and the mercury cures the jazz bacillus, and there you are, Q. E. D. It may be that the process can be reversed and that a couple of quarts of milk, followed by a foaming beaker of bichloride of mercury, will have the same chemical reaction as if the routine of the treatment followed is as laid down by Dr. Manners. It has already been scientifically demonstrated by the song publishers that it is im-possible to "shimmy" on tea. There is no serious reason why the prescription, written by the author of Laurette Tay-lor's new play, should not produce the most salutary results if administered the jazz victim in time. to The only difficulty involved in the treatment is the temperamental proclivities of the common or garden variety of Ameri-(Continued on page 29)

SOME ONE-ACT PLAYS

Ten One-Act Plays, by Alice Gerstenberg, is rather an unusual book, inas-much as ali the plays contained in it have been produced. This is not very often the case with a collection of one-act pleces, but one can readily see the reason for it in Alice Gerstenberg's case. She apparently writes with the thea-ter and players in mind, for her dialog fits the mouth and her situations move. One would think that these primary qualities of dramatic writing would be well known, but it is amazing to see the way they are ignored by some authors. In such a compact form as the one-act play they are doubly important. In a full-length piece there is a chance to ramble a bit if the writer feels that way about it, but if he wants to write an actable "one-acter" he must chart a straight course and stay right on it. Economy in words and straightforward construction mark the work of the sufficessful writer of one-act plays, and these qualities are conspicuously evident in Miss Gerstenberg's work. these qualities are conspicuously evident in Miss Gerstenberg's work. While one would not go so far as to say that dialog should be starved to the point of emaciation, as done by Miss Gerstenberg in a delicious satire on the principles of Futuristic art, as applied to the stage, called The Illuminati in Drama Libre, yet this absurd little piece sets forth in exaggerated form what the writer of stage dialog should seek for. The titles of the plays in this volume, besides the one named, are He Said and She Said, Overtones, The Un-seen, The Buffer, Attuned, The Pot Boiler, Hearts, Beyond and Fourteen. One of them, Overtones, was played in vaudeville some years ago, and I believe one or two more in the book would also do well in that field.

or two more in the book would also do well in that field. It is somewhat unusual to find one-act plays that impress one as being suited to vaudeville, particularly among those which reach production on the "ittle theaters." Most of these do not come to the point quickly enough to suit the variety audience or deal with subjects that do not interest them. In a volume of Four One-Act Plays, by Lewis Beach, can be found a one-act play that not only was successful when produced by the Washington Square Play-ers, but when subsequently done in vaudeville was just as great a success. This play is The Clod, a stark little tragedy, laid in a Southern farmhouse during the Civil War. It is a splendid example of the good work being done by some of our dramatists in the field of the one-act play. It is logical, the characteri-zation is good, and it moves inexorably to its tragic end. The three other plays in this volume are: A Guest for Dinner, Love Among zation is good, and it moves inexorably to its tragic end. The three other plays in this volume are: A Guest for Dinner, Love Among the Lions and Brothers. With the exception of Love Among the Lions, they have been produced. They all bear the marks of the same good craftsmanship that are evident in The Clod, the none of them quite comes up to its level, in my opinion. It is not often that such fine work as that is produced. Mr. Beach may go on for a long time before he gets a theme into which he can throw himself so ardently as he did in that. At least, that is the way one feels he worked when he wrote it, for if any plece of dramatic writing bears the ear-marks of writing at white-hot intensity. The Clod does. Still, you never can tell, for Gilbert's lyrics carry every mark of spontaneity, yet were polished and repolished by him before they suited his taste. At any rate, Mr. Beach's book is worth having for this one play alone, even leaving out of consideration the pleasure that will be afforded in reading the other three. Here we have two books of one-act plays containing fourteen places of

While we see many tunic effects, the peasant blouse and its adaptations, occupy the atten-tion of the blouse makers. The tailored blouse, too, is receiving much attention, judging from the many phases in which it is shown.

SHOES Novelty is the keynote in shoes. One sees guite a few pairs of the new Russian boots, in black patent leather and in wuck, traversing the avenue and attracting much attention, while guiceds are the order on Broadway. The new Bassian boots probably will not be worn very much generally because of their prohibitive price, thirty dollars a pair being quoted by a reliable shop. Pumps, too, and sport shoes fot-low the idea of novelty.

Inaugurates Season of Stock at L ceum, New Britain, Conn.—Gritic Lauds Performance

PAYTON STOCK COMPANY

New Britain, Conn., Jan. 25.—The Joseph Parton Stock Company opened an indefinite en-gagement at the Lyceum Theater, Monday evening, in "The Storm." Stags and scenic effects were given in detail and, in fact, a very good performance was rendered on the opening night. New Britain has been without stock or legitimate attractions for the

New Britain has been without stock or legitimate attractions for the past three years. All theaters have been playing vaudeville and pictures with the exception of the Lyceum, which has been the home of tabloid produc-tions until stock was inaugurated.

Huribut Griswold, dramatic critic for The New Britain Daily Heraid, reviewed the per-formance on the opening night, and says, in part, as follows:

formance on the opening night, and says, in part, as follows: "Perhaps it is the acting of the company or perhaps it is the wonderful acenic effects which produce the forest fire scene and the out-of doors scenes that go to make the show one of the best seen in New Britain in recent years. The forest fire is one of the most realistic scenes ever effected on a local stage. "Jack Roseleigh, the leading man, was thoro-ly convincing in his combination of boyishness, tempered with the paimitive strength character-istic of men whose lives have been passed under the infinence of nothing other than the natural. Mr. Roseleigh had more or less of a difficult role in the part of Burr Winton, a man of the ontdoors. His abrupt changes from the expresrole in the part of Burr Winton, a man of the outdoors. His abrupt changes from the expres-alon of natural awkwardness to a sincerity which banishes all thoughts of self-conscious-ness were spiendidly done. "The acting of Rose Ludwig appenied to her audience and she displayed a delicacy of touch in the dramatic moments which were the big scenes of the play and revealed the plot of the story as written by Langdon McCormick. "Mins Ludwig obtained the full sympathy of her audience from her first appearance npoo tha stage until the final whispers of the inst scene.

"The acting of W. Mayne Lynton as David Stewart, who up to the climax displayed ait the refined characteristics of a modern villsin, mada his portrayal of the Englishman very real. Perhaps the only fault to find with the performance on the part of Mr. Lynton was his inclination to taik a bit fast in the open-ing of the play; and possibly Mr. Roseleigh might have made the final scene a bit more compelling when, fearing blindness, he dis-covers that he not ony can see, but that the girl loves him. Mr. Lynton was natural, strong in his acknowledged physical weskness and happily gennine at the end when he recognized the aplendid squareness of his rital of the country he had called "godiess" but which to the mind of Burr, who loved the forest, the mountains, the freshness of all about him, was the place where his Creator dwelt." The acting of W. Mayne Lynton as David

F. GAZZOLO MASTERS TASK

Chicago, Jan. 20.—Putting on a musical com-edy with a dramatic stock company sounds all right, but it meens a maa's size job, according to Trask A. P. Gamolo of the Victoria Theater, where an excellest company is playing "Linger Longer Letty" this week. When planning to make the hig change Mr. Gazzolo discovered some encouraging factors. First, one of his actresses, Olive Mann, sings like a regular prima doana. Eugene McDonald was a tenor with the Duebar Opera Company. Other players who were all ready to sing were Lois Wilson, Rose pean and Milton Kibbee. The role first played by Charlotte Greenwood is taken by Cecile El-lott, The ten chorus girls are taken from various Chicago conservatories.

JOURNALISTIC PALS MEET

Pawtucket, R. I., Jan. 25.—There was an in-teresting reunion between two former newspa-per associates and iongtime friends when Edgar A. Guest, the fireside poet, who has been re-galing various New Eugland communities with hia quaint and wholesome rhymes about home life, appeared in Pawtneket nuder the anspices of the T. M. C. A. Here he found his old journalistic pai, C. Nick Stark, who is a mem-ber of the Carle-Davia Players at the Star Theater. Stark was a police reporter on The Detroit Free Frees when "Eddle," as he is af-fectionately known to his intimates, began his Detroit Free Press when "Zddle," as he is af-fectionately known to his intimates, began his newspaper career on that paper as an office boy. The footlights inred Stark from the more or less fascinating profession of journalism, and in his periodical stage appearances in Detroit "Ed-dle" and the "gang" were always on hand to give him a riotous reception, and the Gnest Column next morning would contain verses about the occasion. One season Stark was with the lamented traredian, Lonis James. In Sheri-dan Knowles' tempestuons drama he was leader of the Roman mob, and before reaching Detroit he engaged several newspaper frieuds, hy letter, to appear as Roman citizens, at a salary of four bits aplece. Chicago, Jan. 25 .- Joseph Egan, agent ahead Chicago, Jan. 25.-Joseph Egan, agent ahead of the Earl Young Stock Company, which closed in Wansan, Wis. Monday night, arrived in Chicago yesterday and gave The Billboard ad-ditional details of the troubles of the com-pany following the disastrous fire that wiped out the effects of the organization in Daly's Theater, Wisconsin Rapids, on the night of January 18. Theater, W January 13.

Mr. Egsn said the iosses of the company would be around $10,000. The next day after the fire the Elks of the city staged a hnge benefit at which the performers of the Yonng Company played, and $004 was realized for the actors. The following week the company was enabled to play Wansan thrn the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Winninger, who have their warehonse in that city. Mrs. Winninger promptly furnished the Yonng Company with actors, and costnmes. The Wsusau Elks also gave the company s benefit. telegraphic offers of assistance had been re-ceived from Beach & Jones, John Winninger and the Eskell Gifford Players. The company went on the commonwealth plan in Wausau and contemplated playing on the same plan the next week in La Crosse. Mr. Egan said he billed La Crosse thoroly, adver-tised the show in the newspapers and made all of the necessary contracts. He said that just before playing La Crosse, however, two of the performera, who were essential to the show, concluded to suddenty quit. He said that it was not deemed practicable to attempt to show with the cast thus curtailed, and the organization closed. Out of the forty-two pleces of haggage in the Daly Theater at the time of the fire hut

It is physically possible to make all the vowel sounds in the words on the chart (not the con-sonants) with the tip of the tongue resting lightly against the lower teeth, but such a test is not essential. While all the front vowels are made with the tip in this position, some of the high-back vowels require that the tongue leave the teeth.

The ridge abould rise up at the front of the tongue like a local blister or swelling, or like a cat'a back, and its action should be easy as winking at the sun. This exercise can be done success-fully only when the muscles respond to the mental suggestion. To force the tongue to position by muscular strength is fatal. Or that the men had struck because a member in good standing in the Bottle Fillers, Helpers, Washers and Brothers-in-Law Loca 325 had been fired because he got more than a half teaspoonful of cream in a container. Of course, these quart chances have to be taken only in Manhattan, where the supply of milk is in inverse ratio to the amount of sink-made liquor distributed in the smart dancing places after 12 midnight. In Paris, where Mr. Manners has established his sanatorium for debilitated jazz hounds, the milkmen are, like the licker," more dependable than here

It looks from the inside as if Mr. Manners has written a drama around the Olive Thomas case, but I don't think he is that kind of a playwright. In any event, he has gone to no pains to coat the pill he has manufactured. That will not be the reason it may not prove altogether a success. The public loves its medicine bitter if is is given in packages well wrapped, picturesque and attractive. Any patent remedy maker will tell you that it is the wrapper which sells the bottle, not what the contents may be. "The National An-them" has a crisp, interesting first act, and it creates an atmosphere of sus-pense. Instead of keeping the pace up Mr. Manners wanders into long stretches of conversation which would destroy the dramatic value of anything. When Marian Hale marries the drunken, vicious young son of a rich father who has made his money over a forge, with the idea of reforming him, she stakes out her grave in the cemetery. Instead of making him over he turns into a drunken creature of the night in Paris and way stations from se blood the jazz germ has eaten all the red and white corpuscies. Her cure is effected only after she has swallowed a bichloride tablet by mistake. He gets killed running for the doctor. I hope 'twas not the milk wagon ran over him. Of course, Marian gets better after a good deal of suspense (which is well managed) and two or three gowns which would kill any woman. From the beginning of the play to its end there beats the constant tom-toming of a jungle dance band which has all the effects of the drum in "The Emperor Jones." It is a good thing there are no windows in Hank Miller's Theater. The unending jazz in the play is enough to drive any normal eatergoer headfirst thru sash and glass The psychology of the play is ound and accurate, even to the sneering laugh of the clarinet which com-" the open window at the very fall of the curtain after the tragedy of two hves has taken place. Thruout the play there are many such bits, but they not compensate for the long sections of inactivity. There is also a poverty of stage business which gives an unworkmanlike finish. To cover up an anticipated entrance one of the women sits and plays a little French song, for no other reason than to kill time Another bad spot is the packing business in the beginning of the last act, where the same character puts everything in sight into the open traveling bags eling bags-books, plctures, everything but the baby grand piano. Someone but the baby grand plano. Someone arriving unexpectedly prevented that, I am sure. But with all its deficiencies, and they are not few, Mr. Manners' play displays straight thinking and good reasoning. reasoning. LEASING OF GULLIVER THEATERS NOT ADVISABLE, IN OPINION OF V. A. F.

Consequent upon Charles Gulliver's published offer to lease eight halls to the Variety Artistes' Federation, Mr. Gulliver has received many offers to take over one, two or more houses. One curbstone agent wanted a hall, but Mr. Gulliver refused to deal with him unless he deposited $25,000 in advance. Other agents want to handle one or two halls, while a cinema combine offered to take the eight halls for all time.

Variety Artistes' Federation officials have been investigating figures per-taining to the halls, but, truth to tell, it is feared that internecine jealousles among the unemployable artistes will be an insuperable bar to the situation. Assuming that 600 weeks were available for acts during the eight weeks and that each act had a minimum of two weeks, the pleasing of these 300 acts would have the effect of estranging 2,000 acts. Disgruntled performers would cease membership and chaos would arise. It may be that of two questions, one of leasing the halls for the sake of the unemployed and the other of conserving funds, the Varlety Artistes' Federation will choose the latter, as the halls offered by Mr. Guiliver are bad speculations anyway. The Varlety Artistes' Federation sugrested that Mr. Guiliver should take the

The Varlety Artistes' Federation suggested that Mr. Gulliver should take the risk with the federation on a fifty-fifty sharing of door receipts, with the proviso that Mr. Gulliver relax all barring chauses as regards his attractions, so that the federation could avail itself of these, but Mr. Gulliver declined the plan, altho offering a modified form of sharing receipts. The matter, however, is still under consideration of an exclusive limited consulting council, called in by Albert Voyce to assist him and Monte Bayly in arriving at the correct data. It is more than probable that the registrar general of friendly societies will prohibit the Varlety Artistes' Federation from using one cent of its general funds toward financing the scheme. Charles Gulliver, having found that his cornering of the stellar and pre-sumably rising stellar attractions, all roped in on his vellum contracts in 1918, has been the reason of his circuit flopping by reason of his having to play some of these acts three times in seven weeks at the same theater, has been wor-right to do, but artistes bound by these contracts now find the snap, inasmuch as an act contracted to Mr. Gulliver at $225 has been sublet to rival managers by Mr. Gulliver, whereas in the open market the act could have gotten $500. In some cases Mr. Gulliver is subletting acts at a profit rental.

but ignorant of her husband's death. There is an instant's pause. "I'll bet he does," barks old Carlton with a meaning grin. I forgive Mr. Manners anything he did or said in the play for just that line. It is an evidence of mascullnlty which almost all of our plays lack completely.

The cast is an uncommonly good one. Miss Taylor, with some of "Peg" cling-ing to her reading to give it charm, does the devastated, drunken, half-mad characterization very well. A clear and lifelike portrait of a common-sense young actress was given by Lillian Kemble Cooper, and an incisive, crackling one by her sister, Greta. One thing can be said of all the Kemble Cooper girls. They act, talk and behave like human beings. Their work never shows signs of stage "refine-ment" nor anemia. Thanks for that. Ralph Morgan gives a fine, sustained performance as the rowdy young Carlton, never overacting and playing with an uniform consistency which I have not noticed before in his work. Dodson Mitchell makes a real man, and Richie Ling is pleasant, urbane and unob-trusive. A particularly good bit is the French doctor of Paul Porcasi. Robert Hudson, as a loose-lipped and vociferous young bounder, fairly dripped offensiveness.

Mr. Manners has committed an unrdonable sin in mentioning the word "God" without making it the occasion for a laugh or an oath. He should know that all our best dramatists, praised by the Critics of the Round Table, have decreed that all reference to the Almighty is the hall-mark of provincialism, old fashion and reaction Any allusion to spiritual things is rank philistinism to the Tiny Tots of the Typewriter. When Marian Hale staggers back literaliy to life and looks at the wreckage, she says brokenly to her father: "We have come a long way from God!" Now that sort of thing will do at all! No wonder the play renot porters hammered Mr. Manners' play. Such a bromidiom is altogether too mainstreetish to merit attention from However, I, for one, can quite Our Set agree with Mr. Manners and his Marian. The first thing to do is to change the seat of consciousness by transferring it from the back to the tip. I used transferring it from the hack to the tip. I used to go to bed suggesting to myself that my tongue, without roots, lay like a wafer in the mouth, and that its only attachment was a little point of contact with the teeth. If this thought can be cultivated so that the tongue learns to relax, especially at the back, a somewhat con-mon difficulty may be overcome. It is physically possible to make all the vowel sounds in the words on the chart (not the con-sonants) with the tip of the tongue resting lightly against the lower teeth, but such a test is not essential. While all the front vowels are made with the tip in this position, some of the high-back vowels require that the tongue leave the teeth.

What the chart really represents is the post tion of the "tongue ridge." We call "e" close vowel because the tongue ridge come close to the gums hack of the upper teeth an nearly closes the gap where the breath focu in the formation of this sound.

The tongue abouid never be pushed into posi-The tongue should never be pushed into posi-tion. Neither the back tongue nor the rim of the tongue is wanted in this operation. The ridge should rise np at the front of the tongue like a local bliater or swelling, or like a cat'a back, and its action should be easy as winking buck, and its action should be easy as which at the sur. A Linguist

A Negro porter in a barber shop made a speech one night at his colored men's club. It was quite an effort, creating a sensation among his brothers on account of the number of hig words it contained.

His employer heard of it, and the next day began twitting him when he saw him absorbed in a dictionary. "What are you doing, Sam?" he asked.

My "Rationsi Typewriting" instruction book begins its instruction with a description of "Position," "Touch," "Finger-ing." It says: "The position of the machine is of the utmost importance. The operating body, and especially the hands and arma, must have a comparatively close and accessible relation to the key board. The little fingers rest on the "guide keys," and, from this "guide" posi-tion, all other keys are reached. If we wish to apply the analogy, the tongue is the hand or the operating body. The teeth and roof of the mouth are the machine or keys that receive the touch.

can milkman. It would hardly be wise to swallow a double portion of "merc" in New York and then to find out that just twenty minutes before Local 1492 of the Milk Waterers' Union had been locked out of the pumping stations by the milk barons. Or that the men had struck because a member in good standing in the Bottle Fillers, Helpers, Washers and Brothers-in-Law Local 325 had been fired because he got more than a half teaspoonful of cream in a quart container. Of course, these chances have to be taken only in Manhattan, where the supply of milk is in inverse ratio to the amount of sinkmade liquor distributed in the smart dancing places after 12 midnight. In Paris, where Mr. Manners has established his sanatorium for debilitated jazz hounds, the milkmen are, like the licker," more dependable than here.

It looks from the inside as if Mr. Manners has written a drama around the Olive Thomas case, but I don't think he is that kind of a playwright. In any event, he has gone to no pains to coat the pill he has manufactured. That will not be the reason it may not prove altogether a success. The public loves its medicine bitter if is is given in packages well wrapped, pictureque and attractive. Any patent remedy maker will tell you that it is the wrapper which sells the bottle, not what the contents may be. "The National Anthem" has a crisp, interesting first act, and it creates an atmosphere of sus-pense. Instead of keeping the pace up Mr. Manners wanders into long stretches of conversation which would destroy the dramatic value of anything. When Marian Hale marries the drunkwith the idea of reforming him, she stakes out her grave in the cemetery. Instead of making him over he turns a drunken creature of into the night in Paris and way stations from whose blood the jazz germ has eaten all the red and white corpuscies. Of course, Marian gets better after a good deal of suspense (which is well managed) and two or three gowns which would kill any woman. From the beginning of the play to its end there beats the constant tom-toming of a jungle dance band which has all the effects of the drum in "The Emperor Jones." It is a good thing there are no windows in Hank Miller's Theater. The unending jazz in the play is enough to drive any normal theatergoer headfirst thru sash and The psychology of the play is glass sound and accurate, even to the sneering laugh of the clarinet which come thrii the open window at the very fall of the curtain after the tragedy of two lives has taken place. Thruout the play there are many such bits, but they not compensate for the long sections of inactivity. There is also a poverty of stage business which gives an unworkmanlike finish. To cover up an anticipated entrance one of the women sits and plays a little French song, for no other reason than to kill time. Another bad spot is the packing business in the beginning of the last act, where the same character puts everything in sight into the open traveling bags eling bags-books, pictures, everything but the baby grand piano. Someone arriving unexpectedly prevented that, I am sure. But with all its deficiencies, and they are not few, Mr. Manners' play displays straight thinking and good reasoning. He never dodges the issue. Old Man Carlton hates his son because he is a good-for-nothing bum. When he is dead, and he sheds no crocodile tears over the fortunate loss. "I wonder if Arthur hears that awful music where he is," moans Marian as the jazz music leaks into the room in last act where she is recovering, CABLES FROM LONDON TOWN Billbeard Office, 18 Charing Cross Road, W. LEASING OF GULLIVER THEATERS NOT ADVISABLE, IN OPINION OF V. A. F.

Consequent upon Charles Gulliver's published offer to lease eight halls to the Variety Artistes' Federation, Mr. Gulliver has received many offers to take over one, two or more houses. One curbstone agent wanted a hall, but Mr. Gulliver refused to deal with him unless he deposited $25,000 in advance. Other agents want to handle one or two halls, while a cinema combine offered to take over the eight halls for all time.

over the eight halls for all time. Variety Artistes' Federation officials have been investigating figures per-taining to the halls, but, truth to tell, it is feared that internecine jealousies among the unemployable artistes will be an insuperable bar to the situation. Assuming that 600 weeks were available for acts during the eight weeks and that each act had a minimum of two weeks, the pleasing of these 300 acts would have the effect of estranging 2,000 acts. Disgruntled performers would cease membership and chaos would arise. It may be that of two questions, one of leasing the halls for the sake of the unemployed and the other of conserving funds, the Variety Artistes' Federation will choose the latter, as the halls offered by Mr. Guilliver are bad speculations anyway. The Variety Artistes' Federation sugrested that Mr. Guilliver should take the

The Variety Artistes' Federation suggested that Mr. Gulliver should take the risk with the federation on a fifty-fifty sharing of door receipts, with the proviso that Mr. Gulliver relax all barring chauses as regards his attractions, so that the federation could avail itself of these, but Mr. Gulliver declined the plan, altho offering a modified form of sharing receipts. The matter, however, is still under consideration of an exclusive limited consulting council, called in by Albert Voyce to assist him and Monte Bayly in arriving at the correct data. It is more than probable that the registrar general of friendly societies will prohibit the Variety Artistes' Federation from using one cent of its general funds toward financing the scheme. GULLIVER PROFITS BY SUBLETTING STARS

GULLIVER PROFITS BY SUBLETTING STARS Charles Gulliver, having found that his cornering of the stellar and pre-sumably rising stellar attractions, all roped in on his velium contracts in 1918, has been the reason of his circuit flopping by reasons of his having to play some of these acts three times in seven weeks at the same theater, has been wor-ried about unloading them onto other managements. This he has an undoubted right to do, but artistes bound by these contracts now find the snap, inasmuch as an act contracted to Mr. Gulliver at $225 has been subbet to rival managers by Mr. Gulliver, whereas in the open market the act could have gotten $500. In some cases Mr. Gulliver is subletting acts at a profit rental.

One One thing can be said of all the Kemble Cooper girls. They act, talk and behave like human beings. Their work never shows signs of stage "refine-ment" nor anemia. Thanks for that. Ralph Morgan gives a fine, sustained performance as the rowdy young Carlton, never overacting and playing with an uniform consistency which I have not noticed before in his work. Dodson Mitchell makes a real man, and Richie Ling is pleasant, urbane and unob-trusive. A particularly good bit is the French doctor of Paul Porcasi. Robert Hudson, as a loose-lipped and vociferous young bounder, fairly dripped offensiveness.

Mr. Manners has committed an unardonable sin in mentioning the word "God" without making it the occasion for a laugh or an oath. He should know that all our best dramatists, praised by the Critics of the Round Round Table, have decreed that all reference to the Almighty is the hall-mark of provincialism, old fashion and reaction Any allusion to spiritual things is rank philistinism to the Tiny Tots of the Typewriter. When Marian Hale stag-gers back literally to life and looks at the wreckage, she says brokenly to her father: "We have come a long way from God!" Now that sort of thing will not do at all! No wonder the play reporters hammered Mr. Manners' play. Such a bromidiom is altogether too mainstreetish to merit attention irom Our Set. However, I, for one, can quite agree with Mr. Manners and his Marian. We have come a long, way from God, the things of the theater farther than any. Another important announcement made by Mr. Insuil was that Mary Garden, director general, will have noth-ing to do with the signing of contracts and that ber direction will be confined to the artistle presentation of opera. Mr. Insuil has able that opera can be given in Chicago with a deficit under $200,000. He supplemented this by the statement that in the future "no brainstorms will be per-mitted." Mr. Insuli said that artists will not be allowed to give way to their feelings and ap-set things. He further said that artists will perhaps be read with dismay by some. BRILLIANT OPENING

Of New York Season Scored by Chi-cago Opera Company

For the opening performance of its New York sesson the evening of Jannary 23 the Chi-cago Opera Company drew an andience which filled every seat in the Manhattan Opera House and there were standees many rows deep not only in the top baicony but thruout the entire home. The opera was "Samson and Delilah." with Lucien Muratore and Marguerite d'Alvares in the name parts. General Director Mary Gar-den gave New Yorkers a most meaineworthy moin the name parts. General Director Mary Gar-den gave New Yorkers a most presideworthy pro-duction of the famous opera, both scenically and musically. Lacien Muratore as "Sameon" was at his best in the opening act. Marguerite d'Aivarer, altho at times wandering from the pitch, interpreted the role of "Dellish" credita-bly. The chorns work was most excellent, and Glorgio Polaceo was obliged to share in the applicute for his spiendid reading of the entire score.

PROKOFIEFF

Plays Own Concerto

New York, Jan. 26.—The most interesting feature of the program presented this after-noon by the New York Symphony Society was the playing by Prokofieff of his own Concerto No. 3. This, is an nitra-modern composition bristling with difficulties which the soloist seemed to hava ittle difficulty in compassing. It bears iittle resemblance to the accepted form of the concerto, in that the woonsta form is dispensed with for a freer type of composi-tion and the absence of any cadenza. The sud-istic accepted the work in a jorial manner and applauded Mr. Prokofieff somewhat more than perfunctorily. The program was opened by a suite from

RALPH LYFORD.

Cincinnati Composer, Honored by Chi- One Thousand Music Teachers to Na-cago Organization tional Conference

Ralph Lyford, composer-conductor, of Cincinsti, and who directed the summer season of grand opera in that city last assays, has been honored by the organization known as the "Opera in Our Language Foundation," of Chi-cago, in that it has selected his new opera, "Cestie Agrazant," as one of two operas decase, in that it has selected his new opera, "Castie Agrazant," as one of two operas de-erving special recommendation to producers of prand opera as worthy of their consideration. This organization, of which Mrs. Archibald Preer is the chairman, has as its purpose the encouragement of native American composers of grand opers and the production of American works exclusively. Mr. Lyford's composition, which was but recently completed, is a grand opers in two acts, the score of which has been approved by such eminent musicians as Vincent d'indy. Eugene Ysaye and Edgar Stillman Kelicy, and it is understood the Opera in Our Language Foundation Society will undertake to have the score published and endeavor to have the Chicago or Metropolitan organization pro-duce it next seasor. Mr. Lyford will soon make a visit to New York City for the purpose of signing up singers for the 1922 season of opera in Cincinnat.

BARTON A NEW FACTOR IN BURLESQUE BATTLE

New York, Jan. 27.—Some two years ago Charlie Bsrton was the chief factor in promoting an opposition circuit to the established Columbia and American circuits to be known as the National Circuit. At that time it was con-ceded that several Western burlesque magnates were not satisfied with conditions and felt that they could benefit themselves by the formation and concention of conches circuit as converted they could benefit themselves by the formation and operation of another circuit, as several of the theaters controlled by them were the gate-way to the West. Their activities along those lines were nipped in the bud by the ever-re-sourceful Sam A. "THE GIRL FROM GREENWICH VIL-"THE GREE FROM GREENWICH VIL-LAGE" Company played to a large and ap-preciative audience at the Family Theater, Rôme, N. Y., January 20. The show was a combination of slaging, dancing and comedy, with a thread of plot running thru it. There were twenty-three musical and dance numbers on the program. A well-drilled, lively chorus on the program. A well-drilled, hively chorus enhanced the entertaining qualities of the pro-duction. A number of specialties were offered, including wooden-shoe dancing by the Johnson Brothers, sailor's hornpipe by the Bower Sis-ters, and saxophone and xylophone selections by the Three Musical Cates.

JANUARY 22 marked the beginning of the twelfth week at the Lyceum Theater, Mem-phis, Tenn., for Pete Pate and his "Syncopated Steppers." The company is for the most part excellent and the performances offered rank excellent and the performances offered rank with the best. Mr. Pate, who has had much experience in staging tab, shows, has drawn up-on that experience in the arrangement of his present show, which contains many novel and excellent features. The Memphis critics refer to Mr. Pate as the "Peregrinating Pele, Permanentity Pleasing." Justiy so, for of the twenty-one bills that he has produced during the company's stay in Memphis not one has displeased, bat each week grew better. The roster of principals contains a number of well-known names, while the chorus girls are at-tractive and from a singing standpoint above the average. the average.

The company sup-ports him spiendidly, Mildred Vaughn did a fease observes his a Wer Leftware and Wary Off ports nim spiendidy, Midred Vaughn did a fine character bit as Mrs. Jeffrey, and Mary Ott handled a neglected wife role nicely. Ott is a big favorite in Giens Falls and his annual visit is always a source of pleasure to the city's theatergoers. THE CRITICS of Burlington, N. popularity out Oklahoma way is undisputed. Reducing the personnel from eighteen to tweire people has been an intelligent move. according Reducing the personnel from eighteen to twelve people has been an Intelligent more, according to Manager Ed Harrington, "We played two weeks in Enid to very good business and have been requested to play a return date, which we have accepted. There are not very many tabloid ahows in this section at the present time; most of them are headed for Texas. After reducing the personnel we find we have a better chance for profit. A large ahow can not exist in these times unless it confines its activities to the larger cities. One can not afford to carry eighteen people for an occasional date in a large larger cities. One can not afford to carry eighteen people for an occasional date in a large city and then have to piay the smaller ones with the same size company. It can't be done. Managers contemplating bringing a large show this way had better stop and do a little think-ing first. Business is not what it was during the war, which many seem to think, and a manager has to do some hnatling and close fighting to get by. So far this show has gotten by much better than many others. During our engagement at Columbus, Ok., the week of Jannary 15. Jessie Hart, chorister, and Emmett engagement at Columbus, Ok., the week of January 15, Jessie Hart, chorister, and Emmett Curtis, of Oklahoma City, were married on the stage after a night performance. Following the ceremony a grand ball was given by the local people, with whom we made friends. In honor of the newlyweds, and a very enjoyable time was had by all. The bride will remain on the show for a while, accompanied by her husband." THE WEEK OF JANUARY 29 started the fifth comecnitive year of Henry Rougemore's fifth consecutive year of Henry Roquemore's Musical Comedy Company. The show has not during the past four years, according to the owner, and several of the original company are still with it. The company has toured the entire Sonthern country, much of the time in Olahoma, Texas, Arkansas, Kansas, the time in Olahoma, Texas, Arkansas, Kansas, Missouri and Lonisiana, and at present is finishing the Hyatt Circuit. All bills presented have been written by Lawrence Bringham, who is also the juvenile man, with music by Ted Gardner and Henry Requemore. Elegant scenic monntings, elaborate costuming and all spe-cial printing are used, it is said. The roster is Henry Requemore Lawrence Beinsham Tod ls; Henry Roquemore, Lawrence Bringham, Ted Gardner, La Vera Reno, Billings Booth, musical director; "Three Harmony Girls," Fern Em-mett, Violet Cuiver, Dorothy Harris, Brandeux and Smith, dance artists; the feature act of Fred Faunt Le Roy, known as "The Boy With a Dozen Talents," and Lula Kelly, Babe Mil-ler, Goldie Johnson, May Francis, Peggy Howell, May Lawton, Dollie Parsons and VI a Dozen Talents," and Lula Kelly, Babe Mil-ler, Goldle Johnson, May Francis, Peggy Howell, May Lawton, Dollie Parsons and Vi Cally, choristers. Mr. Roquemore is a strong believer in presenting shows in a clean man-ner, and will not under any circumstances stand for the slightest bit of smnt or vulgarity, he says. "I think the tabloid game is and should be run on the same principles as the full even-ing shows," he writes, "and that is by giving strict itention. strict attention to proper costaming, scenic mountings, etc. My motto is: 'Give the audi-ence all it pays for and a little bit more.'" GET HINT: CHANGE SONG

GET HINT: CHANGE SONG New York, Jan. 27.-In "Good Morning, Dearle," playing at the Globe Theater, Oecar Shaw is assisted in a number by the Darting Twins. It is uccessary that the permit for these children to appear on the stage be periodically renewed every two weeks by the Children's Society. Up until a week ago these permits arrived with clocklike regularity at the theater. Then they ceased coming and inquiry was made as to the reason. The management could get no information as to the reason and flually a thought dawned that perhaps the lyrics of "Easy Pickings," a song song in the show by William Keat, Harland Dixon and Jack Scaunell, might have opretalence of strong-arm men and others of that lik in this city. So the song was changed and the permit arrived as usual. No one around the Globe says that any inference can be drive from this, but all are agreed that it is a strange coincidence, to say the least.

VISIONS FROM VIN

I recently had the pleasure of witnessing a performance given by Morton's "Kentucky Belles" and the offering was a most creditable one. Charley Morton handled the principal comedy and was supported by a cast of prin-cipals above the tabloid average. The action was invely and the dialog clean, while the chorus was well trained. There was only one fould was lively and the dialog clean, while the chorua was well trained. There was only one fault to be found, and that fault is common with 05 per cent of the tabs. Each number brought the chorua on from one side of the atage and they exist on the opposite. Why don't some of those number producers introduce noveltlea? It helps a whole lot in ctiminating the mo-notony of the staid style. The many friends of Manager DuBarry of

VAUDEVILLE AT BOSTON

Billboard Reporter Investigates Condi-tions After Receiving Letter From an Act

By EDWARD A. COADY (Boston Representative of The Billboard.)

Boston, Mass., Jan. 13, 1922. Editor The Billboard, Cincinnati, Ohio. Dear Sim-I would like very much to give a little bit of advice to acts planning on coming to Hoston in search of theatrical work of any kind.

kind. First of all Boston has had and is now hav-ing the worst theatrical business ever known. Hundreds of acts, like myself, hear that there is plenty of work around Boston and come in every day, only to be much downhearted after making the round of the crowded theatrical agencies. Any real bookings are made from the New York agencies. There are very few one-nighters and the Sunday shows are filled mostly by the acts playing Boston and surrounding cities. The agents themselves are the ngatera and the Sunday shows are filled mostly by the acts playing Boston and surrounding cities. The agents themselves say they wish there was some way of stopping acts coming to Bos-ton, as it is impossible to book them, as con-ditions are very bad. But each week indis many acts booked in Boston, from the Keith house down, "that have nothing to follow," and with the big bunch of acts coming in look-ing for work it is no wonder hundreds of acts are broke and cannot get any kind of work. One act told me that a certain agent had given him twelve weeks' work and, after ar-riving in Boston, I found that this agent in the last two years had had one week and a half lasted only one week. It is true that this agent once did have many weeks' work, but three days are all be has now. I do not wish to sign my name, as I would not want any of my friends to know my rest condition, but down in my heart I feel that if any one had told me the real conditions around Boston I would net be broke today. I am not an oldtimer, altho I have played nearly every circuit in the U. S. except Keith ant Orpheum. (Signed) ONE WHO IS SORRY HE CAME TO BOSTON. The above letter carries much truth, but to 'one who is every here and truth, but to 'one who is every here.

tional Booking Offices. To fight competition and maintain his claim of supplying "new faces" he need to bring acts in by the hun-dred, in many cases not as good as the madred, in many cases not as good as the ma-terial laying off here, but built his business on the strength of "new faces" with much the same idea as some picture exchanges used to guarantee first run on pictures. But acts that played five consecutive weeks locally were not "new faces" any more than the local turns-worthy and needful of work-acts that had not played one week. When the United was built by the merging of the offices of Fraser, Mardo and Davis, with Mr. Fraser as would buy acts thru Phil Hunt of New York, importing them here and playing them to the misfortune of acts that came into the terri-tory to book direct. It seemed that any act that booked direct was unlit to use and this that booked direct was unit to use and this office method was strengthened by the claim that head. they weren't engaging acts being used by other the of agencies. Things ran along in that fashion the m with the sending of Billy Grady to the New looks York office to select acts to send to Boston, wonde even in the days when acts were jumping to Hindr Boston direct as a booking center. They found these themseives out of luck, as the United held obvion the belief that an act had to come from New ences York to be of any value. Then came the A cstrike. Sending acts from New York naturally here do meant higher salarles, with a cutting down formet meant higher salaries, with a cutting down of shows at theaters. From a booking string of ninety theaters In 1913 to the present string of ninety theaters in 1913 to the present string of twenty or more, the method of importing acts with high salaries cansed the discontin-nance of vaudeville in houses which should (and would) be asing vaudeville had proper attention been given to the booking service. These high salaries were paid to New York importations regardless of the fact that good (and in many cases better) material was lay-ing off here at Boston, anxious to be booked direct at a more reasonable cost. Managers were told that there was a shortage of acts. The real reason was, as it is now, that the <text><text><text><text> the same or go out of business. The acts that try out and prove acceptable—what have they had to go np against? They have been up against an andience that considered them in the light of annateurs. The few who make a favorable impression are rewarded with "time" as follows: A couple of one-nighters the light of animturs. The rew who make a favorable impression are rewarded with "time" as follows: A couple of one-nighters that do not net the act over $10, some Sun-day bookings and possibly a week or a week and a half in the cut houses. The few theaters which have tried to handle vaudeville as a trial proposition at small appropriation have been discouraged. Instead of taking the apbeen discouraged. Instead of taking the ap-propriation and spending it on actual salaries we have heard and know of several of the following cases: The manager is told to pay the office the salary and then the office pre-vails npon new acts to go to the theater and vails npon new acts to go to the theater and show gratis. Sometimes the full program is obtained free, with the booking office getting the salaries. In cases where there are not enough acts to fall for the "try-out thing" the office pays the magnificent salary of $5 a head. Soldom if ever does the program cost the office half of what the manager pays. So the manager gets a show that the andience looks upon as an amateur night. Still he wonders what is the matter with vanderille. Hundreds of vandeville acts have been thru these conditions, bat it is very seldom, for obviona reasons, that they give their experi-ences any publicity. these conditions, but it is very serious, for obviona reasons, that they give their experi-ences any publicity. A canvass by the writer of the booking office-here discloses the following: Jack Jacobs, the the here discloses the following: Jack Jacobs, the former representative of the National Vaude-ville Circuit, is about to handle road shows. Lew Walters is offering one-nighters and two-nighters and Sundays. Quicley has about a week and a half. Pop White had two-nighters and one-nighters, also small Sundays. Bert Spears has clubs and is now in a campaign to line up a lot of the darkened theaters with a business policy that looka like it will help the manacers as well as the artists. We have business policy that looka like it will neip the managers as well as the artists. We have talked with many of the managers here about the vanderille situation and find that those especially in the suburbs would like to use two or three acts along with their pictures. They say the mixed program is coming and it only remains for some live booker to frame only remains for some live booker to frame up some small-time acts for their needs with prices that will satisfy everybody. prices that will satisfy everybody. No? Well, here is a case that proves it and brings us back to The Black Swan records and Harry H. Pace.

Pace was born in Covington, Ga., a small town Pace was born in Covington, t.a., a small town about twenty miles from Atlanta. But the fact that he was born in a small town did not worry Pace. When he quit studying he went to At-ianta and got a job in a bank and worked him-self up to a teller's position. Latter he became secretary and treasurer of the Standard Life In-pressed Company at a pacific salary of $2,500

Like thonsands of others in this country Pace Like thomsands of others in this country Pace contracted the song writing bug and mailed a raft of lyrics to New York music publishers. And he got them back. The publishers couldn't see his songs, and no one would give him a chance or a little shove. Had Pace been made of ordinary stuff he would have become dis-couraged and quit cold, and then wasted time airing his opinion of New York music pub-lishers. This is supposed to he the regular procedure.

But Pace did not curl np and die. He thought ad pisnned, siways with the idea that he would win out in the end.

Then, from nowhere in particular, a stranger entered Pace's life. To be more eract, the entered Pace's life. To be more eract, the eranger, whose name was W. C. Handy, en-tered the bank to open a new savings account. Mr. Handy was there to deposit the large sum of $1.25. While Pace was attending to matters the two men began to chat, and anddealy dis-covered that each was interested in anong writ. covered that each was interested in song writ-ing. As for having song manuscripts fired back by New York music puolishers Pace had nothing on Handy. A comparison of their experiences proved this.

so the most natural thing for Pace and Handy do was to team up as coming hit writers-which they did. They then bombarded New York publishers with songs. Face had written the lyrics and Handy the melodics. The songs came back without as much as one word of encame back without as much as one word of en-couragement. It finally dawned upon Pace and Handy that they were up against a stone wall. And, when this fact sank into their brains, they decided to publish their own songs. Some nerve after having had all their brain children re-jected by the wise mogule of Tin Pan Alley. Refere long Beace and Handy mublished "Mom

Before long Pace and Handy published "Memphis Blues," which they sold ister to the mans-ger of a music store; "Besie Street Blucs," "Yellow Dog Blues" and "St. Louis Blucs." When they first offered the songs to the trade the trade laughed at them, but they kept pingthe trade laughed at them, but they kept plog-ging along and gradually crented a demand for their numbers. Finally, after "blues" had caught the public's fancy, and business war-ranted the step, Handy went to New York City and opened an office, leaving Pace to look after the business in Memphis. In the meantime Pace was still holding his position as secretary and treasurer of the Stand-ard Life Lawarance Co. but he was avoing to go and were recorded by all leading phonograph, roli and player plano concerns. After they became established in New York and joined the Music Publishers' Protective As-sociation, Pace and Handy took another plange by leasing an entire building on West 46th street. Shortly after moving into the new building Pace became acquainted with a certain more multic. The follow hed two aver some building Pace became acquainted with a certain song writer. The fellow had two new songs, and he sold that if Pace would advance him some money on the songs he was quite sure he could have them recorded by a young colored girl he was going to hreak into the phonograph game. This girl, Mamle Smith, was a find of the song writer. Pace advanced some money, with the understanding that he. Pace, was to get the publishing rights of the songs in case Miss Smith recorded them.

During the ensning few years Pace and Handy did unusually well. They published "A Good Man Is Hard To Find" and other hits, and their original "blues" numbers became popular, and ware recorded by all ladding phonegraph and were recorded by all leading phonograph.

"And I kept on advancing money," said Pace, "untii I was about five hundred to the bad. And yet I did not see any prospects of their being recorded by Miss Smith. According to my song-writing friend, the Okeh was supposed to give Miss Smith the chance to record the num-bers. So I finally went to see Fred Hager of the Okeh. He thought it was a great joke. "There's nothing to ft." Hager toid Pace. "No one would huy records of colored singers." "I tried to convince Hager," Pace remarked. "as I had often tried to convince the recording managers of the hig companies, that a good record, property handled, will sell and make money, regardless of the color of the singer, the reputation of the author or publisher, or the amount of exploiting a song receives. But Hager could not see it that way, and said it would only be a waste of time to try it." Before leaving the Okeh offices Pace asked Hager to let Miss Smith make a test, even tho he never did anything with the record, and Hager, who is a congenial sort of a chap, prom-ised to think it over. The song writer, who had also been camping on Hager's trail trying to get Miss Smith a chance at the Okeh, hiew into Pace's office a few days later, looking for a little more advance on the songs. Pace refnsed, but offered a certain sum, provided the song writer would give him the songs and a bill of saie for them. The test was made and the records turned out to be good enough to be offered to the regular trade, but it was up to Pace to furnish the advertising matter, which he did. Miss Smith's records wold well from the start, and after the Okeh realized their selling qualities it made a desi with Miss Smith for her exclusive services. connter. "To look at that mob," remarked the store manager, "yon'd think we were doing a rush-lng basiness in popular music. But we are not. The music department is becoming some-what of a joke."

"How is that?" queried an "extra" not listed in the cast.

"The public refnses to bny music at the present prices. People come and iook-and present prices. People come and iook-and listen when we have a demonstrator so we have tonight-but nine out of every ten turn away without leaving any money at the counter." "But I thought publishers had cut out demonstrating," the innocent said. "The members of the Publishers' Association bave, b bave, but the independenta have not, and we haven't either. And from what I have seen in this store the big follows will do a wise thing to resume demonstrations. Tonight from seven to ten is our best session for the week, and to ten is our best session for the week, and we'll be lucky to sell two bundred copies. And we have nothing but 'bit' songs on the connter. Take that song that the demonstrator is waving now. That is supposed to be one of the newest hits. I'll bet he docsn't sell a Taken that song that the demonstrator is waving now. That is supposed to be one of the newest hits. I'll bet he doesn't sell a copy of it. In former times, a song with the photo of the star that is on that title page would sell from five to fifteen copies. Why, I've scen demonstrators from small firms come into a store with songs just off the press and sell two bundred copies of each song on a Saturday night." While the manager talked the demonstrator continued to wave the song in question and re-peat the chorus, while the girl at the plano played it. The title page carried the pleture of one of Breadway's popular stars, ang yet the demonstrator did not sell a copy. "Do you think that if the price of music were cut the business would increase, would tecome anything like normal?"

become anything like normal?" "I'm quite sure of it," the manager said. "People have money. We know it, because they are spending it in our other departments, where they are getting something like former value for their cash. But they can't see into paying one hundred and fity per cent increase for something that is not any better in quality for something that is not any better in quality than it was when it retailed for ten cents. I know because scores have told me so."

"Could you suggest anything that the pub-lishers should do?" the manager was asked. "Publishers would not listen to any aug-gestions I might make. They think they know what the public will pay, so if they lose for-tunes that is their affair. I'm simply telling you what I have observed and heard here."

Two bundred copies is mighty poor business for a store that has thousands of enstomers every Saturday evening. In dollars and cents it represents about $12.50 as the publishers' share.

No matter what circuit you are working for a "play or pay" contract is the only kind to receive.

Steady work at a fair ssiary, bour "piay-or-pay" contract, is the proper thing for both the artist and the manager.

By a fair salary we mean one you are worth ar merits-whatever that may be

If the heads of the various vandeville cir-cuits would see that their employees engaged acts of merit at such saisries, gave them consecutive work with piay-or-pay contracts, de-ducting only the iswful commission, they would tearn the following:

learn the following: They would get better acts, more uniform vandeville bills, their houses would do a het-ter business, and ahout the only "holier" would be from the "incompetents" who have been get-ting the big coin and delivering nothing-except a "cut" to those responsible for "putting them in " in.

Of course there would be murmurs from those who had been benefiting from the "sugar 2ut up," hut they would then disappear with the "incompetents."

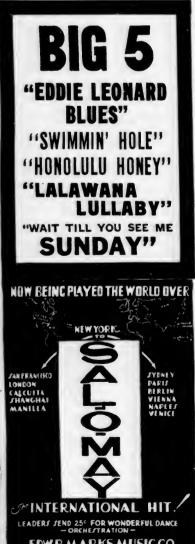

Some vaudeville successes: Will J. Ward and Girls, Ames and Winthrop, Jack Hediey Trio, Jack Joyce, Powers and Waiiace, George MacFariane, E. F. Hawiey and Company, Billy Giason, Venita Gould, Bradiey and Ardine, Harry J. Conley, Arthur Whitelaw and Wil-liam Ebs.

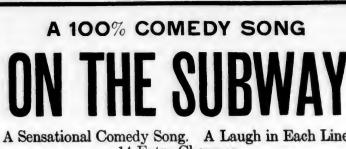

Why do some acts insist upon "coming back" and "crabbing" themselves, as well as the act that follows them, after they have completed their offering and finished well?

Why not put a "milking" act to close the hill?

After E. F. Albee stepped in and called the agents booking with his circuit for an explana-tion as to why they wrote letters to their acts, asking them to take ads in a certain trade paper, the paper itself came forward and "excused" the agents, saying that it was a matter of "husiness," and was practiced by the repre-sentatives of other circuits as well as the Keith kind rearing up, and the "State-Lake policy" is announced as the thing.

Some acts do three and some four. Usually the ones doing four get the jeast money.

That's that. The question is: "Will the fu-ture bring forth the fact that all acta will do the same number of shows on those "policy" bills, and will the acta remain of high-class caliber? Let's hope so.

Many managers of beautiful theaters (some not so heautiful) with large seating capacity have heen trying to copy the "State-Lake pol-ley" in advertising, etc., but hy giving only five or six acts of a vasity inferior quality, each act doing "pienty" of shows. The result is they are not "kidding" anyone but themselves.

Had the Chicsgo State-Lake started in to try and get by on the "beautiful big theater" advertising alone, it would not have paid for itacif the first year.

Martin Beck msy not be a good golf player, but as a "policy" doper he's there—if the Chi-cago State-Lake policy is his own original one.

Good, clean hills made up of diversion that will entertain the patrons is what will help the vaudeville box-offices.

That kind of a bill is easier for the press gent to taik on-and make the readers of adagent to taik on-and make the readers of vance notices of tha bill pay some attentio ciaims advanced. the

Will Messra. Shubert please inform us why they will insist upon giving us many "produc-tion acts that feature scenery, costumes, etc.? Many of these turns appeared in some of their "shows."

Everyone in vaudeville is for "opposition," in "two-a-day" vaudeville, with the possible ex-ception of the Keith Circuit. But for "oppo-sition vaudeville." Not miniature "musical shows."

Piease, Messrs. Shubert, concentrate your vaudeville efforts toward securing vaudeville ma-terial, not "production acts." The Keith peo-ple did a iot of that work, and it petered out. They are quitting it now.

Look around and you will find plenty of good material "laying off." Give them a chance,

The idea of vaudeville acts playing three shows a day as a minimum, with pro rata pay for each additional ferformance, is something like the stage bands, operators and musiciana getting a certain amount for their "overtime." They are allowed it, and PAID it. Vaudeville artists are not supposed to even TALK about such things. Why? Because the BIG NAME ACTS usually don't have to do over three—YET. The smaller Large seating capacity, beautiful theater, al orchestra, "hig-time" acts and eight of the pro rats they now get. The majority of acta in "vandeville" only did two-a-day. A few in the two-a-day houses did a "aupper show." Those who did three, four, five, six, seveni:1:1: were not supposed to be in "vandeville"--they were only working "shooting gaiteries," "dumps." "cans" and "picture houses."

Today, how many of the "vandevilie" houses play only two-a-day? How many acts are there in the business that only play two-a-day houses exclusively, and that don't play "split weeks"?

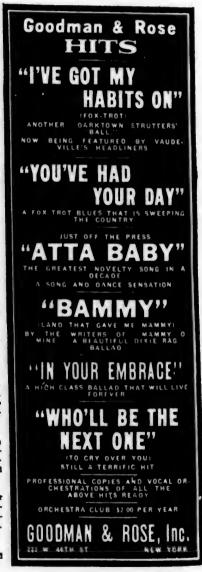

How do you now distinguish the "shooting galierles," "cans" and "dumps" from "vaude ville" theaters, unless it is by the newness of the building itself?

Yeh, things have changed, and keep changing. so there is hope and a great POSSiBILITY that vaudeville artists may receive pro rate of their salary for all over three-a-day in the NEAR FUTURE.

FUTURE. Because the majority of the acta will figure out that they do three-a-day as a minimum and that they are the ones who will be skird to do the "extras." When it does come the mansgers will wish they had agreed to it long ago. Bet E. F. Aihee is the first vanderille "cap-tain" to introduce it. What do you know about that? He's pulled some pretty wise stunts be-fore. You can never tell.

J. J. Murdock is the man the majority of audeville artists never see. But they see sm-ie proof every day that he is "on deck."

Much of the enjoyment derived from hearing an orchestra is gained thru seeing the individual players. When they are entirely out of aight we feel a very decided disappoint-ment. The music also is muffled to some ex-tent. The pits are too low in many theaters and too high in others. The heads of the players ahould be visible to the audience. Editor The Billooard: The following, from The Tampa (Fla.) Tribune, expresses the sentiments of myself and thousanda of othera who go to shows. Kindly reprint it: "Prohibition, such as it is, has been with na two years and it is time to tell vandeville actors and sketch writers to tell vandeville actors and sketch whiters and authors of plays that it has ceased to be funny, and that we and all hands are ill and heartily tired of jests about probletion. On day two years ago a remark about the prerailing dryn values of the set of the set of the one camer joke may have been good for a laugh, but atum about homebrew, private stock and the breaking of prohibition law nowadays is utter rot. No one wishes to hear 1^s; no one langhs rot. No one wishes to hear it; no one langus at it. From this time on any reference to prohibition, any jeer of the law, any alleged jest about it, should be hissed londly. This need not indicate that every one is in favor of prohibition, but it will show that 'old stuff' is not desired." (Signed) W. C. YOUNGS.

ditor The Billboard: I have long been a reader of The Billb and often noted the painstaking manner in which various news departments are handled. Recently I have been taking an added interest in the Melody Mart section, conducted by E. M. Wickes, and am so attached to it that I would not want to miss reading a single number. I have a suggestion which I believe will help interest in the Melody Mart section. It is that interest in the Melody Mart section. It is that more trade news be published, such as what songs are going tirn, what writers produced them, the publishers, and also a short review as to why some succeed and others fall, etc., so as to make the department educational as so as to make the department educational as well as entertaining. The humorous stories about song writers are the best I have ever read, and I have been reading for many years. If more space were used on strictly trade mat-ters, I believe that your publication would number more song writers among its readers. (Signed) BOB EARLE.

New York City, Jan. 24, 1922. Editor The Billboard:

Editor The Billboard: In The Billboard, under "Brass Tacks," by "Yand E. Ville," recently appeared: "How can a vandeville writer tarn out real material for yon nuless he has seen yon work, and is familiar with the style of material that will familiar with the style of material that will solt you? Think this over. Don't fall for those acts submitted to you by mail or over the phone. It's all April fool." Why doean't "Yande E. Ville" go deeper into the subject? His statement gives me the impression that he has the mistaken same as many artists have, that no anthor can write an exclusive act unless the price runs into three figures. Why doesn't he say a few words regarding the highway prices some anthors are charging for material? We cannot blame the artist for thinking that no author can write a really exclusive act at a reasonable price. They have been educated along these lines by high-priced anthors. But do they know when they psy nureasonable prices to anthors that the anthors' high rent, advertis-ing and other overhead expenses form a part of that high cost? Those kind of anthors must charge a high price to make a profit. same as many artists have, that no anthor can charge a high price to make a profit. To get back to "Vande E. Ville," it is not necessary for an anthor to ace an artist work in order to write an act that will fit him. The artiat can be a perfect atranger to the anthor. artist can be a perfect atranger to the anthor, and still the anthor can write a sketch or act that will fit bim in every way. When ordering an act by mall, if he gives full de-tails regarding the kind of act he wants, and if he gives full detsils about bimself and his line of work, the suffor is in a position to write him an act that will fit him. This has been proven time and time again. If "Vand E. Ville" wanta to do the artist some real good, why doesn't he say a few words regarding the highway prices that some authors charge for their material? Why deen't he say a few words shout the subtle propaganda of these for their material? Why doesn't he say a few words shout the subtle propaganda of these authors who have educated the artist into the belief that no author can write original ma-terial unless he chargea a price that "knocks you for n row of milk cans"? If an author has real ability it is no harder for him to write original material than it is to write below original material than it is to write. (Signed) J. C. BRADLEY.

New Orleans, Jan. 21, 1922. . bleh Who are Billboard:

Editor The Billboard: make the way why are good performers working for bad Everyone managers and bad performers working for bad bit fanits. managers? Because the hammer is used. Once iy upon the upon a time active performers would put each of one an other wise to responsible managers and put able in the managers wise to responsible performers. Do pleasure the they do that now? Oh, no. If a manager become like should ask a performer where he can get a good performer they will not tell him. the manager says, "How about so and so, ho is he?" Then comes the hammer: "F heaven's sake don't get that fellow here." ef If how For At the same time the party in question is just what the manager wants, but there is so much confounded jealousy that performers are nfraid to recommend each other. If the performer and manager would recommend each other there would be better performances and suc-cess for the performers. Jealousy in the theatrical profession is a very sad thing. If a performer gets a langh or a hand he has enemies on the show. The featured performer on the abow will kick if other performers get a hand or a langh, instead of encouraging a ha them.

Last season I was with a dramatic tent ehow. One night in the concert I had a good one handed to me. When we were rehearsing the concert the featured comedian said: "Clayehow the concert the featured comedian said: "Clay-ton, yon can go as far as you like. I am not jealons." The part he gave me on the con-cert was second comedy. I am a general busi-ness actor. Being versatile I saw an opening to get a good laugh. The laugh came as 1 played for. Now, would you believe it, thia featured funny man got so darned jealous that he stepped ont of his character on the stage and said: "Who is doing the comedy, yon or I?" Friends, we must not be jealous of each other's work. When we see onr fellow per-formers get a laugh or a hand, be honest and asy: "Pretty good, Tom, or Maggie." We must encourage each other for what we de-aerve. We must realize that we are not the only one who is clever. We all must be clever and tell managers as well an each other who and tell managers as well as each other who is clever, if they are clever. If yon cannot is clever, if they are clever. Negro of the Sonth. And what a wealth of tender sentiment was stirred in the hearts of the anditors when the sole female member of the six-people act introduced the quaint and withered forms of four characters typ-ical of the Snnuy Sonth in days befo' de wa'. An eccentric dancer was there with a world of class, too, and he made equally as big a hit with his jazzy saxophone. Except for the absence of the endmen and the dig-nified interlocutor the act was typical of a minstrel olio, and there was merit aplenty in the offering. the offering.

Franklin Fox, "Foxey, Singer Band Can't Beat," and Sam Steffen, blackface comedian, have formed a partnership to produce home talent minstrel shows around Minneepolis. The fun-loving people of Vermillion, Minn, en-joyed a pleasant surprise when they attended a performance given by Fox and Steffen's com-pany recently. In a few most appropriate re-marks the Rev. Kalsen introduced the com-pany, headed by "Sam" Steffen. The ollo was very pleasing. The Hawilian act of strings (Measrs. Bill Langenfeld, Art Striebble and Al Steffen) took several well-deserved encores. Mian Wollerming, the reader, responded to many recalls. Her voice is very pleasing and under perfect control. Her flag recitation was well received. Steffen, as Bonea, was really funny and "bronght down the house." He has a aplendid ronthe of fanny sayings, sings well, dancea better and was easily a whole show himself. Second to Stefen came Vince Rother, as Tambo, who was an able foil to "Bones." Members of the profession will be glad to know that in The Bostonian, the new hotel to be built in Boston, his comforts and conve-niences will be particularly looked after. There will be at least 100 rooms for the commercial traveler, all with outside light, good ventila-tion and each with bathroom containing the most modern fixtures.

The Wallace Hotel, at Irvine, Ky., which has just been completed and is modern in every respect, had its formal opening Monday night, January 16, and many out-of-town guests were January 16, and many out-of-town guests were present. The estimated cost of construction is $70,000, and it is named for its owner, John Wallace. The Harris Theater has opened up in the building. No one will dispute the fact that honest criticiam is always justifiable, it matters not what is criticized, be it the actor or hotel. But there is no justification for a hotel runner visiting shows and, in an effort to "cop" trade for the botel that employs him, knock com-petitive hotels with faise attacements as to their conveniences, comforts, rates and trest-ment. Our attention has been called to several hotel runners who do this, and we how serve notice on them that if they continue their obnoxions work to the detriment of showfolks and hotels alike, we will madertake to protect our readers and advertisers hy securing state-ments that will stand in open cont and bring the offenders to justice. For the first time in several weeks we were relieved of the sight of discolored hare-legged choristers, and why they should be permitted to come on in hare legs is beyond our under-standing, unless it is an evident desire to cater to the degenerate accondists who find in the quivering fiesh of feminine lower limbs a mental intoxicant for their perverted morals.-NELSE.

John Mack, a typical West-erner, announced the coming of a nephew, and Fhil Peters, as a shepherd-piald attired Dutch comic tourist, introduced himself as the guardian who lost and found the nephew in a trunk, and when Comic Tom Howard stepped out of the trunk there was a howl of laughter at his comical appearance in his original facial make-up with duck nose and skin-tight attire over bis extraordinarily slim form. The dialog that followed was along new, novel and unique lines, and let it be said here that the intelligence of the Casinoites didn't miss a line of the patter, for they caught on to Tom's dry, droll humor and lauphed at his every utterance. COMMENT

COMMENT The scenery, lighting, gowns and costumes far above the average on the circuit. The company, principals and chorus alike exceptionaliy at-tractive in personalities, and far more talented in their respective roles than those nsually found in buriesque. We have seen other shows to the church church the core is the shows found in buriesque. We have seen other shows on the Columbia Circuit that equal this show in some particular points as to scenery, lighting, gowning and costuming, likewise in the acting, but taken as a whole we have not found the co-operative combination of personality and talent supplemented by the new, novel and unique bnriesque presented by Tom Howard and his associate artists—for artists they are, and a credit to Harry Hastings and buriesque in general.-NELSE.

THE Public Defender movement is now beginning to take root in Michigan, and much credit for this is due Miss Theresa Doland, a' torney, of Detroit. Speaking to t_ Progressive Circle League at its regu-lar meeting last week, Miss Doland "drove her arguments home," and is to be congratulated by the theatrical profession on the manner in which she did

An able lawyer, skilled in criminal law, could, in the capacity of public defender; give this man an equal chance to prove his innocence. Another speaker was Judge Ira w. Javne, who also expressed approval of the public defender in courts, but suggested that the office be appointive by the courts and thoroly tested before it was made mandatory by the State.

It is proposed by the league to sponsor a bill to be presented at the next meeting of the Legislature providing for the election of a public defender.

"SIMPLICITY AND SINCERITY"

The Corner-Stones of All Advertising Copy

A forceful and instructive speech was delivered the other night in Cincinnati, one which could apply to show business just as well as to the outside business world. The speaker was Charles H. Mackintosh, president of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, and who is in charge of the Advertising and Sales Department of the La Salle Ex-tension University, Chicago. His subject was advertising and salesman-ship. More than 400 representative Cincinnati business men and adver-tisers were in attendance. "Newspaper advertising or any branch of advertising" said Mr.

"Newspaper advertising or any branch of advertising," said Mr. Mackintosh, "is a written invitation for prospective customers to enter stores issued by the business men of the various communities, warning his audience that, unless sales clerks can be educated to the point where selling becomes a science and a conscientious duty, advertising can not be blamed if sales are not completed. Asserting that the peaks and declines of business cover an extended era that invariably rises and falls over a period of approximately thirty years, Mr. Mackintosh warned persons who believe the return to normal and pre-war conditions will be reached within the next several years; that only a gradual resumption of prosperous conditions will lead to lasting benefit, and that such a course is the only logical one. In advocating the extensive use of advertising Mr. Mackintosh in-sisted that "simplicity and sincerity" are the corner-stones of all ad-vertising copy, and by building a demand upon such a foundation mer-chants can bring customers to stores where goodwill and clever sales-manship will do the rest.

During the life of the present business men the market has been a rising one, and for the first time in the last decade American manufacturers and producers face the task of

"Therefore, in order to create a quick turnover of commodities and to stimulate the buying public, advertising must be made as attractive as possible in order that the public will experience a desire to buy, and, the prospective customer having entered the sales department, a clerk trained in salesmanship must clinch the sale. "Advertising doesn't seil merchandise," Mr. Mackintosh said, "but it does create the thought that brings customers into the stores. Every-thing is wasted that precedes the clerk unless the clerk knows his busi-ness and is anxious to add the finishing touch to the sales record. "No matter in what small volume the merchant carries on his busi-ness, and no matter how limited his advertising space, he should give sufficient thought to advertising copy when arranging it. "Success in all business is assured by two words, which frequently are reduced to one word—'Good-will' and 'Service,'" the speaker said.

"Eing up the curtaini Let the play go en. Altho one actor, weary at his heart, Gares now no longer to take up his part In life's perplexing scene. The golden dawn Is none the dimmer, tho one ray be gone, And so the tale will lose none of its art To charm the ear or cause the tear to start With one poor player from the stage withdrawn. The farce is ended; lay the mask aside That has beguiled the midnight's passing jest; From all the minicry, the made ap pride. The fond delusion, he now longs for rest; Joy, years ago, hy gleaming footlights diede Bnt this sad truth the world has never guessed."

It can only be a matter of a short while when reputable newspapers will refuse to accept dead head tickets from theaters. This has been the curse of naprejudiced criticism since time immemorial. In 90 papers ont of a hundred shows are "notified" in proportion to the tick-ets sent to the editorial rooms of the local journals. The public is lied to regardless of the real or unreal merit of the performance. Heaven apeed the day when a theatrical criti-cism can be accepted as truthfall, fair and thoroly unhiased. By the way, it might be as well not to send the office boy or the new lady stenographer to play the "critic," altho ha or she might do far better than some of the al-leged judgers of dramatic art. The Cincinnati Time-Star is one of the few newspapers and governed by the counting room.

In the death of Sir John Hare at the age of 7 the English stage lost one of its most con-picuous actors. I first saw Hare at the Prince 7 Wales Theater in London in 1869 in Tom kobertson's "School." Marie Willon was then Ro Robertson's "School." Marie Wilton was then in her prime. Among the other players in this cast were Charles Coghian. H. J. But REAL actors are not wanted nowadays. A tailor's dummy, supported by a hieached blond of di-verce court prominence, can fill the bill equally as well to the satisfaction of the box-office.

It is rumored that Florens Ziegfeld, Jr., will quit the theater and induige in the athletic pastime of promoting baseball, football and (presumably) prize fights. BE PROUD OF MUSIC

There are perhaps hundreds of people who have received musical instruments for Christmas glfts, and, not being familiar with the depths of music, are somewhat re-inctaut to discuss the subject. Maybe they show slight traces of shame, seeming to feel that there is something effeminate about music, something which makes it an unfit sub-ject for conversation between serious persons. Never was a greater mistake made than this attitude. Music is one of the greatest of arts, one of the true reforements of civilization. It constitutes not only a great art fit for the endeavor of any person, but affords a topic of conversation second to none. Such a strain on the better phonographs and player-pianos has introduced the work of the master musicians, played as they should be played, into thousands upon thousands of homes.

Music, besides being a great art, is a great science as well. Its rhythms are as ateady as the tide, being based upon mathematical laws which should charm any one who be afraid to discuss music. Rather, he should be proud to be heard talking about music. -WASHINGTON (D. C.) STAR.

FEBRUARY

By ELMER J. WALTERS

February is a month when one should speed up-do quick thinking while the new year is yet young. The month itself is short, and birthdays of two celebrated Ameri-cans, coming as they do during February, make the months decidedly short in industrial cans, coming as they do during February, make the months decidedly short in industrial linea. Showfolk, however, profit by these birthdays, for they are privileged to ask holiday prices and give extra matinees, and the names of both men are sufficiently loved by American people for the latter to willingly contribute individually toward making these days memorable and successful each year. St. Valentine's Day, originally held among Bomans on February 15, in honor of the great god, Pan, and later, during the third century, changed to February 14, after the Bishop of Bome died a mattyr, brings further pleasures during the month. The two hirthdays referred to provide new thoughts for people of today. The final words of George Washington, "I die hard, but am not afraid to go," show the courageous heart of a brave soldier. He proved during his career that firmness, perseverance and calm courage are needed to develop a successful commander. As he brought the war of his time to a successful termination, so may men of this agenera:: tion, by perseverance and courage, bring about success to themselves-by having the ability and desire to everlastingly stick to it. By thinking success one becomes prodent, The prospector who stakes off his claim is not very apt to strike "pay dird" unless he digs with determined effort. The first pan he washes may or may not yield especial the prospector has patience and energy enough to dig deep. A friend of mine recently was siven a prominent appointment to an office with which he long had desired affiliation. When approached by his friends afterwards in compli-mentary spirit they said to him: "Old man, how did you get that appointment? Tow're certainly lucky."

certainly lucky." In referring later to his success this man said to me: "My friends call it net when as a matter of fact I have been working secretly to obtain my goal for more than a year. I refuse to consider luck as having had anything to do with my appointment." One has only to read the life of Abraham Lincoln, whose birthday we willingly cele-brate, to prove the possibilities to rise from obscurity under handicaps. Indeed February is a month in which to put forward one's best effort, either in planning constructive thought or in actual work. The wood chopper in the logging camp does not fell his tree without some prepara-tion, and his task is not finished until he has rolled up his sleeves, applied the saw and resolved to work industriously until the towering pine selected tumbles over in obedience

WHOSE OPERA IS IT, ANYHOW?

Quite apart from any consideration of the troubles Mary Garden has been having with her principal tenor and with her principal conductor over in Chicago-and we con-fratulate Mary on her nerve-it seems to be very good doctrine that opera produced in America ought to be run by Americans as far as possible. For, regardless of who may have written it, it is after all our opera. It im't Italy's opera or France's opera or Germany's opera. We who live in this country are the people who listen to it, and the money that supports it is contributed chiefly by Americans. So those who come from over seas to play or appear or to conduct, and most of all to draw salieles they could not anywhere nearly command in the old world, ought to be willing to show a decent respect and consideration for the people who enable them to make handsome livinge. If they are not, the sconer they are put in their places the better. And allow the in-cidental remark here that about ninety per cent of what these difficult importations form over seas call temperament and art, and use as an excuse for their nonsense, is nothing more than childishness, bad temper and stilly conceit. After from the right of those who pay to say what they will have, it also is better for an American to be an impressric; other things being anywhere nearly equal, an American generally is free from the strictly nationalistic view which leads the average titalian impressric to favor inordinately the operas and singers of his land, and the common run of French and German impressrics to do likewise. Perhape it will be un-fortunately different when we have developed composers of our own, but meanwhile the American is hroadly catholic in his tastes, and in control of reperiodre and personnel is the ideal person to evolve a well-pounded company giving a well-balanced assortment of works_DETROIT FREE PRESS.

BETTER STANDARDS FOR FAIRS

State and county fairs should be educative rather than entertaining, stimulative of articultural industry rather than recreative in the amusement sense. Not in those rather stilled words, but with that idea in mind, the Alinnewita State Arricultural Society and the Federation of County Fairs has adopted a shibbleth for 3022 and after. In mplication is that in the past there have been too many freaks and not enough attention to the serious things pertaining to the farming business, too much ranke and not enough attention to the serious things pertaining to the farming business, too much reacted been of the end too few exhibits, too much ranke dasks and not enough attention to the serious things pertaining to the farming business, too much reacemblance to a circus and too little flavor of the improving school. The counsel is that more stress be placed hereafter on that which instructs, awakens from orchard, garden, forest, grain field, dairy, ariary or livestock barn. This is good doctrine, and there is reason to think it could be practiced in Minnesota without endangering the financial success of State and county fairs. There is more invite the endangering the financial success of the and the dividual that is the kinds of entertainment that have come to be part and parcel of arring than there used to entertainment that have come to be part and parcel of a musement and recreational the science, cultural side of these exhibits of and for the farm. There has not to say that fairs should be entirely devoid of amusement and recreational the solution, cultural side of these exhibits of and for the fairs. There has not to the sprinciple that "all work and no play makes Jack at add liboy," it can be sold thas the mind which becomes jaded in studying exhibits, at merry-goround for the part is not only entitlet to, but should have something to divert it plays and lectures is not only entitlet to, but should have something to divert it plays and lectures is not only entitied to, but should have something to divert it plays

"A NOVEL PROPOSITION"

The present condition of things theatrical and the apparent dearth of successful plays, which has caused the revival of many old suc-cesses, has brought forth a remarkable proposal to Miss Julia Marlowe and E. H. Sothern that they should manage a theater in New York City where they should reproduce all of the great successes of their two careers, including what they have acted as individual stars and co-stars. The provision made is that they should change the bill every three weeks for a season of thirty-six weeks and that their proprietorship of the theater should continue until their entire repertory shall have been ex-hausted. The prices shall be reasonable and the order of the plays shall follow that of their original production. Mr. Sothern and Miss Marlowe have produced separately and together fifty-three successful plays. Twenty-three of these successes belong to the masterpieces of dramatic literature. Thirteen are Shakespeare's plays. No doubt a few of Mr. Sothern's early plays will seem somewhat archaic after more than thirty years. Miss Marlowe's excursions into drama apart from the classics have been more recent. The list of plays is indeed noteworthy, for each one represents the undoubted success of one or even more seasons. It will be seen that this plan would cover 159 weeks, or four seasons and fifteen weeks at the rate of thirty-six weeks each season. Mr. Sothern and Miss Marlowe have the matter under consideration.—INDIAN-APOLIS NEWS. The present condition of things theatrical and the apparent dearth APOLIS NEWS.

A DRAMATIST "IN EXILE"

There is a certain pathos in the interview in which that veteran British dramatist, Henry Arthur Jones, tries to explain why he can not set plays produced in London now, in which he describes his situation as "my exile." Mr. Jones naturally puts the blame on the conditions in the theater. He points out that one manager declined to produce a Jones play "be-cause there is nothing in it for my wife," and he berates the present actresses of London, declaring that they lack the knowledge of acting possessed by Ellen Terry and Mrs. Kendal. But the change is far deeper than Mr. Jones sees, or, at least, states. It is not only the actors who have changed, but the public. The Jones style of play has "gone out" hopelessly, while the Galsworthy style and the Maugham style have come in, with the Russian style perhaps just peeping over the horizon. Mrs. Kendal's thoro technique would be as lost today as Jones' plays are. Jones' most successful play, "The Silver King," was produced in the early eighties. It was a rattling good melodrama, and it was played wherever English is spoken and probably in many translations. There-after he did some fine comedies, less popular, and many more pre-tentious melodramas, altho some of them had a social reform siant that and Pinero, who also held it, is practically as dead as Jones. It is always sad when an artist outlives his public, but with Mr. Jones there can at east be none of the poverty which so often makes such cases pitiable. His royalties were large and they continued for more than twenty years. He should be able to rejoice that he is in out of the wet and that he was such a big man while his vogue lasted.—BROOKLYN EAGLE.

The Billboard Trade Directory

The Bindoard Trade Directory becomes an indispenable guide to thousands of show people who want to find the dealer's address of show world merchandise. The Trade Directory solves the problem of a quick reference guide for buyers. The Directory con-tains a comprehensive list of deal-ers and is easier of reference.

The headings describe the staple articles used or sold in the Show World. You can have your name and address under any head-ing you desire.

Johnnie Marinella recently spent a couple of weeks in his home town, Hndson, N. Y., visiting friends and old acquaintances. Johnnie says the old town looked natural after being away twenty-six years. He is now in New York arranging his vaudeville tour. He will again he with the Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus this coming season.

D. W. (Dewey) Rogers, biliposter on various circus advertising cars and at commercial and theater hiliposting plants in several cities, has heen in Savannah, Ga., since bis misfortnne in the loss of his right leg April 13, 1921, which was amputed to save his life from cancer. He has now fully recovered, has an artificial limb and recently began work as assistant electrician at the Savannah Theater.

Capt. Jack Denver, director general of Capt. Jack Denver's Greater Shows, informs that his show has met with much success during the past ten years. The show is in the Far East and has toured the following countries: Java, China, Japan, Philippines, India, Ceylon, Arahia, Africa and France. The organization is now on a tour of Burma and working its way toward America to play here during the fall season of 1922,

Says Joe Thayer: "There has been much talk the past few years about who originated the Jewish clown. Most of them claim to have done it fifteen to twenty years ago, but oldtime circus foks will remember George Drew with the John B. Doris Shows in 1882. Maybe he did not originate it, but that summer he was doing a Jewish clown ail thru the show and, dreesed as a Jew, riding a mule in the parade."

Alhert Powell, of the Powell Troupe, wire walkers, while playing the Lyric (Pantages) Theater, Clacianati, made a number of calls at The Billboard offices. Powell says that he has six more weeks of Pan. bookings, following which he and the troupe will take a rest. The Powells will play fairs this summer and again tour the Pantages houses next fail. THE CORRAL By ROWDY WADDY

If you attend a contest, live up to each and very rule.

If a contestant is not satisfied with the rules be used at a contest-don't go.

A few things a boy needs to be a success in Wild West: Ability, proper equipment—as to addie, chaps, hoots, spars, rope and CLEAN shirts, muffers, a good hat, etc., and the actions of a GENTLEMAN.

On the address side of a "party" pictorial postcard from San Antonio, Tex., appeared the following: "Yakima Canutt, Oklahoma Curley, Layd Saundres, Red Sublette and Roy Quick are working here for Neal Hart, making five-reel Westerns.

From St. Louis-Joe Fint and Joe Williams are taking life easy here, and both these boys are to be with the Ringling Baraum Circus the coming season. Filth haiis from Buford, Mont., and bia "buddie" comes from Tennessee.

Unless your wife has the ability to warrant her winning in competition, better not take her to a contest—because they may not have the ex-tra money to spend as a sairy for her nppear-ance just to entertain and boost her. Same applies to lady contestants whose hus-bands sometimes do not possess the ability to entert coilect.

Mrs. Ted Custer, of Texas Kid's Frontier Shows, writes that the Wild West Show with that carnival played to big bus ness at Somer-rylie, Tex., and that Joe Koker took "day money" all thru the engagement. Bud Ross and Jim Glistrapp are among the riders. and J. Althouse still has bis horses with the show. "Baldy" McGee is again able to ride, after bis accident of a few months ago.

Report from New York City has it that Cy Compton, Lillian Compton, Hank Durnell, Mad-eline Durnell, Johnny Rufus and Charlle Nellson, bronk rider, were to open at the Playhouse Thea-ter, Passalc, N. J., with their "Passing of the Wert" act. Cy is to again have charge of the Wild West conlingent with the Ringfing Bros-Barnum & Balley Shows Combined the coming scesoo.

"Bobe" Dairoy, the veteran Wild West and circus clown and advertiser, has been spending the past several weeks in Cincinnati, pulling street publicity for various events. "Bube" seemed greatly pleased one day recently, while nt The Biliboard offices, on receipt of a letter from his old friend, the well-known old show-man, Kit Carson (Col. W. F. Fleming), from McCook, Neb, Dairoy informed us that Colonel Fleming is to make a trip to Denver in the near future, and that he has not heard from any one of the "old banch" for some time. Rube is now doing atreet work for the Empress Thea-ter.

Whoopee! Did you see that big one-third page ad of Leonard Stroud's on the "Fairs and Expositions" page of The Billboard, issue of January 21? That's the proper caper, Leonard; let the fair folks know the stunts-horse-jumping over the automobile, Roman standing races, buildogging, bronk riding, etc.-your "Congress of Cowboya and Cowgirls" can give them as free acts in front of the grandstands. Boy, bose cotts sure show action and actual photo-graphs don't lie. More power to you, and may your fair season be of the solidly-booked and very successful caliber. The merchant who ad-ertises his wares gets results, and you sure beeerve them.

Why doesn't California, Texas, Arizons, New Wexico, Colorado, Wyoming, Utah, Newada, Akilahoma, Montana, Oregon, Washington, South Dakota and all the other stock States find out who is the best bronk buster, steer roper, buil-dogger, etc., in their respective States (we mean those boys who can bonestiv claim a particular state as his iegal residence) and then acknowl-edge openly to the world that he is the man the in that State. Then pick the best man from each State and let them go for the bonos and money, as the hest in the United States? Then it would mean something. The it now is one State claims to produce the best man at their context, when as a matter of fast a context, in many cases.

to attend a contest, in many cases. Doe Sheeka writes from Wichita Falla, Ter.: "Aitho I am not a member of the Wild West branch of amusements I never fail to read the 'Corral' columns, and find them very interesting. I was with Waiter Neison's Wild West in Kan-sas, several years ago, and recently received a letter from Waiter, stating that he is putting ont two shows the coming aeason, both to be wagon outfits. I believe Neison to be one of the magon outfits. I believe Neison to be one of the wides, he is a good rider himself, and his entire family are above the average. Tom Burnett is to bold a Roundup and Stock Show here some time in the near future, and work has altheide Park for the occasion. I am wintering here in Wichita Falls, hut expect to be back on the road as soon as apring arrives." The Montana Belie Show is still playing them the road as soon as apring arrives." The Montana Belle Show is still plowing thru the mud of Louisiana. The show has now been in this State for eight weeks. Business has been nothing big, altho attendance has been better than fair. There has been a great deal of rain lately and the roads are in very bad condition in many places. Manager C. G. Bai-lentine, however, retains bis well-known smile, rain or shine. Montana Belle has been slightly under the weather the past several days, but gamely remains on the job. Extreme sorrow was the lot of the show's badmaster, Elmer Winger (better known as "Haidy Sow-era") passed away at Hutton, La. The remains were well cared for by the management and were well cared for by the management and were sent to Lassing, Mich, for buria. The show will remain in Lonialana until March, then head North. The latest to John were Cotton Ellis and Jack Celiman, with two concessiona. This outfit new has fourteen wagons, seven

Buck Connors will admit it, if he will teil the truth, in his letter he did tell some of the truth, but Sober Sam finished the chaspter for him. Anybody that's ever been around the movie camps, 'ranches' and 'villas' that are the head-quarters for those who follow 'Westerns' know al about it. As Buck and Sober Sam both re-marked, 'it's bad when these birds kid them-sout even,' it's a cinch they ain't kidding anybody out here, and if they did kid them back East for awhie the kidding is about over. Ask Sober Sam to write a letter giving the names of any real Western boys that he may know out here whom be thinks are the proper types for real weSTERNS.

At the Walter L. Main Winter Quarters

At the Walter L. Main Winter Quarters Have de Grace, Md., Jan. 27.—With the re-turn of the hunch from the indoor circus at l'hiladeinhis, work was resumed in earnest this week. To date 26 wasons have been turned out of the blacksmith and paint shops and are ready for the road. This includes sev-eral baggage wagons. Nine more parade wagons remain to go thru the hands of the decorators and then attention will be thrule to the ad-vance cars and the train. A recent visitor at the quarters was T. W., Ballenger, general agent of the Sparks circus, who spent several hours with the bunch and looked over the show's new animais and the winter circus and have a chat with the 'Gov."

CLEANER FAIRS

Favored by Nebraska Fair Managers-Association's Annual Meeting Is Well Attended

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 21.—The thirteenth annuat meeting of the Nebraska Association of Fair Managers was held here Monday with members of the organization present from all parts of the state. Among the many topics discussed was the raising of the standard of attractions playing the county fairs of Nebraska, and the following resolution was passed: Mesolued, That the best interests of the fairs of Nebraska demand clean shows, clean games and clean amusements. We insist npon the prempt closing of all shows at county fairs that do not measure up to an acceptable moral standard. We are opposed to games of chance not in accordance with the statutes of Nebraska and demand the prompt closing of crooked and questionable games of skill, believing that the practice of allowing same on any fair grounds to be a damage to all the county fairs of Neb-raska. There was an excellent speaking program at practice of allowing same on any fair grounds to be a damage to all the county fairs of Ne-brasks. There was an excellent speaking program at the two-day session, the speakers taking up sub-jects of live interest to the fair men. Itali-insurance, indemnity insurance against acci-dents, co-operation between boys' and girls' clubs and the fairs, horse and auto racing, and concessions were among the topics discussed. One of the speakers was 0. R. McCorkie, screttary of the Boone County Fair, Albion, Neb., said to be the largest fair in the State, with the exception of the State fair. Mr. McCorkie said that the Boone County Fair had more harness races and mado better time than did the State fair inst fail, and he advised the other counties to "piap mi" the attraction beforehome to be provided by the fair in 1921 was beforehome to the state fair. In 1921 was before the attract of $10,250 for free attrac-tions. The attendance at the fair in 1921 was bound to deal with the borse owners and the county association intended to cut down the county made a profit of $1,200. E. J. Mitchell, of Thayer County, said that the county association intended to cut down the appropriation for races from $3,000 to $2,000, with is the same amount as is appropriated a siniar policy. On Theoday atternoon the $2 delegates from

COUNTY TAKES OVER PLANT

Manistique, Mich., Jan. 25.—The Schoolcraft County Fair grounds and buildings here have been formally transferred from the fair asso-ciation to the county and the fair will be conducted in the future under the direct man-sgement of the county hourd of supervisors. As a result many changes will be made in the amusement program, it is said. Just what these changes will be has not been announced. The fair will be held for three days instead of four; the racing program will be shortened considerably and the purse cut down to $1,200.

FAIR TO BE PERMANENT

Little Rock, Ark., Jan. 24.—Decision of atockholders to make the Arkansas State Fair a perpetual institution and to increase it in aize has been reached by stockholders. The dates for the 1922 fair have been set at Octo-her 4 to 14, inclusive. Plans laid by the fair association at its Jannary meeting include the naming of a State-wide committee comprising about 200 of the State's foremost citizens to make the yearly exposition a State fair in reality as well as in name.

CHANGE IN RACING POLICY

CHANGE IN RACING POLICY Bargor, Me, Jan. 24.—A new racing policy was adopted at the convention of Maine Asso-polation of Agricultural Fairs, held In this city and the entrance fee to all horses finishing the free-for-all with a $2,000 purse. The fairs at Presque Isle. Houlton, Lewiston and hairs at Gorban and Waterille will try it in the free-for-all with a $2,000 purse. PLATTSBURG FAIR Plattaburg, N. Y., Jan. 24.-E. F. Botsford again heads the Clinton County Agricultural Society, and at the annual meeting held re-cently he made a number of recommendations for the hettering of the fairs in 1922. Mr. Botsford recommends that the fair be changed from a stock corporation to a nembership cor-poration and that the admission price he reduced to 50 cents. The question of rehulding the grandstand, which was destroyed by fire, will be put to the clitzens of Platteburg. Mr. Botsford recommends that a steel and cement stand be built. Daring the past year close to $2,500 was spent in repairs to the various buildings. The treasurer's report showa that for the 1921 fair the total receipts were $31,503.21 and the dis-bursements $31,350.33. The balance, together with money already in the association's treas-ury and the amount to be received from the State, will give the fair about $5,000 to start the 1921 season.

THREE-STATE CIRCUIT MEETS

Evansville, Ind., Jan. 24.—A meeting of the Three-State Circuit was held here Jannary 20 for the purpose of setting dates for the 1922 fairs. Dates agreed upon are as follows: Henderson, July 25-29; Petersburg, Ind., Au-rust 1-5; Uniontown, August 8-12; New Har-mony, Ind., 15-19; Rockport, Ind., August 22-26; Booneville, Ind., August 29-Septemper 2; Frinceton, Ind., September 4-9; Albion, III., September 12-16; Mt. Asheville, N. C., Jan. 22.—Plans, amblitions and details of a proposed new anuscment park at Kenilworth were outlined to prominent busi-ness men of the city at a recent meeting by those in charge of the work. A committee of business men—J. V. Martin, W. H. Westall and D. H. Ramsey—was appointed to con-sider the various phases of the proposition and report back its merits as a business plan. H. E. Canno and George Houston, two of the promoters, outlined the plans for the park.

promoters, outlined the plans for the park. It is asserted that the expenditures for the park would be around $70,000 and $50,000 would be the cost of the land, with $30,000 to be paid in stock in the amusement park. The capital stock proposed by the promoters is $160,000. It is estimated that the swim-ming pool will cost $15,000, the children's play ground $2,000 and other costs in proportion. Various plans were outlined and an estimate was made on what the yearly returns would be. I V. Marthn a member of the park com-

was made on what the yearly feurns would be. J. V. Martin, a member of the park com-mission, spoke in favor of the recreation and amnsement park and asserted that it was one of the big needs for the development of Ashe-ville. The speaker asserted that municipal parks were a necessity and also privately own-ed amusement parks. He asserted that if the present plan materializes the city will have more opportunities for park development.

more opportunities for park development. Earlier in the month it was announced by the promoters that work of constructing the park would commence about February I and that everything would be ready to put in operation by March 31. Sisteen acres of land will be utilized and among the announced features of the park are a swimming peol 100 by 200 feet, boat slide and shoot-the-chutes, dance hall, motion picture theater, children's phayground, etc. D. J. Dryer is to be the architect.

WALLACE TUTTLE

During the war there was one Community Song Leader who was siways in great demand and who was a real song leader. That man was Wallace Tuttle. During the days when the Lincoin Chau-tauqua was at its height our friend Tuttle was one of the real outstanding features of their ac-tivity. Mr. Tuttle then went into evangelistic timsing, and for the past few years has been buy in this work. We understand that he has about made up his mind to drop all artistic efforts and devote his time to a new commercial venture, and hefore the robins put in an appearance he will probably he out selling a new machine for de-huttating fact

If we could single handed and atome sell 30. 00 copies of a booklet about lironte, how many cupies could single handed and atome sell 30. 00 copies of a booklet about lironte, how many cupies could single handed and atome sell 30. 00 copies of a booklet about lironte, how many cupies could single handed and atome sell 30. 00 copies of a booklet about lironte, how many cupies could the lyceum and chautaupin people dispose of if they had as much knowleike of the treus fire books and the second the second that would it mean to the attendance of the firews fit. before he pitched his tent into a city, the constry and in the city where he will ex-bit! What would it mean to the lecturer, the com-

What would it mean to the fecturer, the com-claimed themselves to he, to have the circus in town exhibiting these live scals and distribut-ing from one to five thousand of these booklets setting forth the great lessons showing the dir-results where the absence of co-operation and care for other has meant death and destruction? What would it mean to the inquiring mind to have the facts about the scal's disappearance in August and his resupearance in the following spring sot before the public with the bold chal-lenge that there is not a man or woman on earth who can solve this mysteries of the Arctic regions as they were told by Dr. Kaln in his story that challenged their imagination in the days of their youth. ne said: "Force rules the world still, Has ruled it, shall rule it. Meekness is weakness, Strength is triumphaat, Over the whole earth. Still is it Thors-day!"

Still is it Thors-day!" The commercial side of fur seal trading is a wonderfol storr, and is even a modern one, for it really began to be seriously developed about the year 1850. At that time the price of seal skins ranged from $3 to $5, and the average take was from 2,000 to 3,000 skins per season. But it ran up to nearly 30,000 in 1855, which shows how rapidly the seal skin industry was developed. The value of the catch that year (to Americans) was $289,233.

(to Americans) was $289,233. The United States Government gave a fur company the right to kill 100,000 scale a year for twenty years. There is reason to believe there were nearer a million killed each season than the number agreed upon. This was cut down to 60,000, thea to 15,000, and now the government conducts the sealing industry and has done so since 1903. The price of seal skin, the best, is about $75. Yes, the government has socialized the seal industry, but not the seal life. The Southern Hemisphere has much the same story to teil that we learn from the history of fur sealing in the Bering Sca district, except that it is a much older industry and goes back into the seventeenth century for for its befin ming.

LYCEUM AND CHAUTAUQUA NOTES

Did you notice that big, full-page in The Chi-cago Trihune, January 24. devoted to The Bill-board and its activity? Ten thousand letters a week are bandled by our musi department, and this is only of the many services that we render the people on the road. Yes, it was an ad, and the same ad appeared in The New York Times. Get in with the people who are doing hig things.

The Foremen of Montezuma, Ia., had a chau-tauqua deficit of $250 on last year's program which they are trying to wipe out by presenting a number of local concerts during the winter. This ought to be a warning. But will it?

Anne Varner Baker, of Boston, is a very husy little iady this winter with her ventriloquian, cartoon work, clay modeling, reading and several other speciatites. She is kept on the jump in Roston and New England, and several times she has heen called to New York City. She is booked by the Community Chautanquas in the summer.

Edwin Brush is just closing up about 100 dates for the Universities of Wisconsin and Minnesota. The University of Minnesota reports that 90 per cent of the towns he played this year re-quested a return engagement next season and that several of the towns have backed up their request by recontracting for his return.

What has become of those camouflage pre-tenses that the managerial upiliters went to the expense of printing and mailing to committee-men? Like the Abolition of Poverty this bunch of junk wouldn't stand the light of reason, so it is quietly heing forgotten in inner circles. Of course there is a very general rusb in the stock rooms to get the printed bunk scattered among committeemen, so that it will do its work long before the hooking sesson closes. Committees should study this geme and notice how easy these pretenders think it is to slip something over on them.

Bob Morningstar, the grand old man, who has for years headed the agency force in selling fyceum attractions, is certainly setting a hot within $25 of $10,000 the first week he was out. For years this has been Boh's ambition to have one week in which he soid $10,000 worth of this as a straction of the source of the source of stent. The report is that Boh is sorry that he did not huy a $25 course from himself, so as to reach the $10,000 mark. To understand why Bob is such a good agent you will have to under-stand how engrossed he is in his business while he is st it. For instance, he was eating in a restuarant in Tuisa when a 'hi-jacker', lifted his brand new overcost and left an old one in its place. Then a week later came around and stole the old one. Sumebody relieved him of his memorandum book and his fountain pen, and did ait this without attracting his attention. We are certainly glad to see that the old reliable agents are still able to meet all comers and get away with it.

Edwin P. Brown, superintendent of Wayland Academy, Beaver Dam, Wis., runs a hig lecture course this season. It consists of the following attractions: Elizabeth Pooler Rice, Reader, October 4; Cilifton Mailory Players, October 12; Laurant and Company, Magicians, November 7; Zedeler Sym-phonic Qnintet, December 7; Lincoln McConneil, Jannary 20; Brooks Fletcher, Jannary 27, and Leiter Light Opera Company, March 11.

We have so far given a summary of reports on 529 attractions which have been classified in Classes A. B. C. which totaled 17,635 reports. The McDonald-Crowder Duo headed the list of all attractions reported with 99.89 per cent on 49 towns reported.

A few weeks ago we dissected the inadequa distribution circular that is used for D. L Fitzpatrick. The reports on 17 towns show a average of 99.11 per cent, which shows that made good in spite of a hand(cap that he had carry in the way of poor printing.

Carry in the way of poor printing. Chicage Grand Opera row shows the evil effects of parting up a big guarantee fund then turning a hunch of temperamentalists loose to scatter it as tho it were as easy to get as it is to breathe fresh air on the lake front. Muratore says he will not work for a woman, even tho bis decision will cost him $112,000. The opera has singers standing around doing nothing or singing once or twice a season, but drawing hig salaries. The waste is awful and bnreau men might see to it that their own incompetent and wastefni iyceum and chautauqua methods are overhauled before the gong sounds.

C. A. Geisman, pastor of the Lutheran Church at Pekin, Ili., has joined the lyceum jecture forces, delivering a lecture on "Socialism and its Effect Upon American Institutions."

Edward Amherst Ott is said to have been heard hy more than 200,000 people each season. He delivered an address hefore the joint meet-ing of the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs at Peoria at their noon inncheon, and lectured at the high-school auditorium on the regular lyceum course.

The Redpath Bureau has a hig lyceum course at Knoxville, Tenn., booked in the High-School Auditorium. The course is heing hacked by the musical organization of the city with a number of husiness men as guarantors.

Vernon Harrison says, after a return to Co-iumhus from an extended trip over the West, that husiness is good in all lyceum circuita and that the outlook for summer is excellent. He sent out his agents February 1.

The Edmund O'Connell Home Talent Eureau, of Jersey City, is busy training a cast for "Charley's Aunt." which will be produced at the Bergen Theater. Mr. O'Connell recently produced "The County Chairman" and "Brown -in Town," both of which were reported to have been great successes.

The Westernport (Md.) High School, Senior Class, is putting on a home talent play for the purpose of raising money with which to put over the coming graduation exercises and take care of the incidentals that usually cost the individuals quite a little.

The Southern Home Talent Producers, with Joell Cunard manager, have the following roster of professional connedians who direct their local plays: Cari (Histy) Williams, Charles (Jake) Clark, Ben (Happy) Adams and Joell (Rastus) Cunard. They are putting on dramatic plays, farce comedies and ministrels. They take two weeks to put on a play. Delighted, 100; Well Pleased, 90; Fair 90; Barely Cat By 70; Hunstief of the second

O. J. Ellinger, chairman of the Elks' Enter-talament Committee at Mendota, III., is planning for a dirst-class road show for the opening night of their new opera louse, which they hope to have set for February 23 or 27. They will probably put over a big home talent play later.

In the interest of our readers, the thousands of organizations all over this country that put on home talent plays, we are glad to present ist of fome Talent Producers, which we do each month. If you do not find the products firms listed there are just two reasons why they are not there. One is that we have be no unsile to locate the absorbers. You can help who are not listed. The second reason and the one most likely to be the real one is that there is more on paper than can be located in any other way, and that the one trying to book dates is either doing a gum-shoe business or is fourflushing. If a company is not repre-sented in our list, committees will be wise to heast the to do business with them until they tak time to investigate. If you do find them of k, you will confer a favor on all who con-tract for Home Talent Productions if you will contact for Home Talent Productions if you will ead the latts to Fred High, 33 S. THE 1922 I. L. C. A. CONVENTION

The 1922 i. L. C. A. CONVENTION How shall we manage the program of the next I. L. C. A. convention? Place is to be Chicago. Time, September. Many of the older members desire a short session, and the 1921 convention voite for four days. So that seems fixed. The Executive Com-mittee should go abead with that plan. Most members desire more time for social events, and for visiting. That has also been decided by the 1921 convention by a vote recommending that the Executive Committee ar-range no program for the afternoons. The ar the way seems clear. But what toid that a tabloid program is desirehle and pos-gible. We are also toid by some who have experience in making programs that no established A NATIONAL PLAN FOR artists will come to the convention for a 15-perfence in making programs that no established artists will come to the convention for a 15-minute appearance. A veteran member insists with equal assurance that artists of reputation the common good. Shall we try it? Let us be more concrete. Your Executive Com-mittee has no plan as yet, but here is a tenta-tive program which we submit for the considera-tion of the 1. L. C. A. We may not think well the problems thrn. But such comment as mem-bers care to make will be welcomed. We are trying to serve you. For three days proceeding the 1. L. C. A. an-

the prosteme thrn. But such comment as members care to make will be welcomed. We are trying to serve you.
 For three days preceding the I, L. C. A. annual convention let us hold in the same hall a letturers' conference, at which we will consider the hig problems on which the Washington Conference. In general these are the conomic and political problems of the world, which must inside the the problems of the world, which must be understood and then agreed npon before there can come that mutual good-will which can make war impossible. These problems will be stated as clearly as possible and discussed by reconfized authorities from France. Japan, China, England, America and other contrifes.
 On the morning of the fourth day the Annual I. L. C. A. Convention would be bailed each of the four morning. Besides the usanl order of business there would be papers on those subjects that are for the welfare of the association.
 On the evening of the fourth day the there be association. To this social event that re would be papers' conference, and all members of the lavited all who are in attendance upon the lecturer's conference, and all members of the four flore of unsites and of the Managers' Association. To this social event there would be lavited all who are in attendance upon the lecturer's conference, and all members of the 1. L. C. A. and of the Managers' Association. To the social Committee, with special attention paid to new members—the classes of 1920. 1921 and 1922.
 Two of the four evenings would be given to tabled program.

The second part to new members—the classes of 1920, 1922, 1920, 1922, Two of the four evenings would be given to tabloid programs—two hours of music, entertainment and lectures. Is this practicable? Nome members say that arclets will not appear unless they are permitted to give a bench that that were that when the articla people give a bench that every theater in town co-operates. Sothern and Marlowe, for example, give one act from a Shakespearean play, and do not think of refusing, nor do they think themselves abused because they are not permitted to give the entire play. Francis Wilson gives an act from "Immine," and does it gladly. Vandeville artists give a single sone, ter minutes from an acrobatic act, and vie with each other for the pleasure and bonor of appearing for only a few minutes. Some prepare short sketches especially for the occasion. Will we not find our lectners of reputation prepare short sketches especially for the occa-sion. Will we not find our lectnrers of reputation ready to give fifteen minutes from a lecture, or prepare a lecture, or perhaps a lecturette espe-cially for the evening? Musicians and enter-talmers will surely be willing to give fifteen min-utes from their program. Surely we may de-pend upon the good sense and logalty, and the wish to co-operate, among our membership. The Original Night, which has proven so successful, may well be oue of the three night programs. There will be Joy Night, of course, in charge of Raiph Bingham, for that is deservedly popular every year.

of risipn Bingham, for that is deservedly popular every year. What do you say? Just suggest improve-ments. But if you can't suggest improvements please criticize anyway. So far as it is possible we should like a general plan that will meet the approval of the majority of members. PAUL M. PEARSON, T. A. BURKE, GEORGE C. AYDELOTT, Executive Committee.

Hariey Tyler returned to Los Angeles last week to stay for the rest of the year. He comes back highly elated at the success of the new staff of officera of the Heart of America Show-man's Club.

Mabel Normand is planning a visit to Sunny pain as soon as her production in hand is nabed. It has iong been a desire of hers to pend a few months in the aforesaid country.

Mrs. Tom Rankine is a visitor in Los An-geles for ten days and enjoying it much. She has many friends and was more taan surplied to showdolks, as in the important elites of the East. Mrs. John Sheeeley, Miss Kaleer, Mrs. Al Latto and Mrs. Sky Clark were some of the ladies that were in her group around beadquarters.

C. N. Fairly will be part of the Greater Sheesby Shows the coming season and is building strong pit show for the troupe. If will have, s he states, the strongest 10-in-1 on the road.

George Fitzmanrice, director of the film, "Forerer," now in its final week in Grauman's Risito Theater, will travel shority to Egypt to make scenes for his next big proudction.

J. C. Stoldt was a visitor in Los Angeles last week, having toured to the coast in the interest of Einer Jones. He departed to spend a few days in San Diego when he will return befere he starts his final trip East. He will again be connected with the Einer Jones enterprises this sesson.

Verson Reever has been engaged as local con-tracting agent with the Al G. Barnes Circus. He will start spon his duties at ence, as the circus is booked for a March 7 opening.

"Bill" Rice left last week for Brandon, Msn., and Seattle, Wash., in the Interest of the Beesley Shows.

No sconer had Max Linder recovered from his temporary blindness, suffered from studio lights, than he was stricken with a heavy cold, which, for a time, threatened to develop into penmonia. He is now on the road to recov-

Louis Corbellie came to Los Angeles for a visit of a month and will be here again next year. He stated that nothing looked the same to him since his last visit ten years ago; the city has tripled in size. He returns to the Peiack Shows again this season.

Mike Golden was standing with several show-men in the jobhy of the Stowell Hotel the other day, when someone threw a barning cigaret in the compider. Presently Mike smelled some-thing burning and wheeled around and feeling over his pockets and clothes, exclaimed: "What is that burning?" Denny findlinan says: "It's your bank roll, Mike," and Mike saw the point.

Bettensive motion picture production all over Swithern California appears scheduled for 1922, with the building of a new studio in San Diego and the reopening of the old Balboa studios at long Beach. A syndicute of San Diego bank-ers, financiers and husiness men have raised $50,000 as a starter for a fund to erect studios in Balboa Park, San Diego, while with the real ettate boom in Long Beach certain big interests there are trving to have the Balboa studios, formerly owned by the Korkheimer Brothers, once more hum with cinematic activity.

Col. William Ramsden worked all last week raising funds for John Ruhi in his effort to purchase a cork leg to take the place of Rhul's amputated limb, John is now able to get around should he acquire this log and Col. Ramsden says that with the help of his brother showmen he will accomplish this shortly.

Tom Moss writes: "Bill, I am taking another plunge. Everything will be on wagons this year. Am huliding twelve new ones. Every-body tells you what they are doing in winter quarters, but it's true, Bill, we are working all the force, and everyone on the go."

CARNIVAL CARAVANS

Governing conditions would lead one to pre-dict the shows opening earmer in Dixle this year than has been customary.

Most shows on their northward journeys will probably touch only the high spots-do some railroading.

In the Northern States the winter has so far een comparatively mild, and the "call of the ad" may be heard as early as the latter part I March-maybe.

A rumor says that many oldtime Bedouins are working on various railroads this winter, hold-ing down positions which range nil the way from telegraph operator to baggage agent.

Stnart B. Dunbar, manager of the San Fran-cisco office of The Billboard, is now an Elk, having joined Berkeley Lodge, No. 1002.

Tom Hynes, of the James A. Benson Shews, making his home on the Henson show train at uffaio, N. Y., and says that he is having the me of his life.

Lester Strong, formerly with Joe Krenzer's cookhouse with the T. A. Wolfe Shows, is back in his home in Canton, O., where he is patiently waiting for the call of the griddle and coffee urn.

Harvey Perry, of the Brown & Dyer Shows, rrites that Jack LeBess, we motordrome rider ith the same caravan, was s recent guest at he Perry home in Cleveland, and stated that he rill "be with the bunch" in 1922. wiil

There are far less than usual caravans operat-ing in the South this winter. Governing conditions would icad one to pre-diverning conditions would icad one to pre-portums in 1898.

M. W. McQuigg to pilot the Siegrist & Sii-bon Shows the coming season was the announce-ment. The nnasuming mnner, the conserva-tive, easy-going "hustle" of this well-known general agent mark him as a result-getting trail blazer, and his engagement will doubtless be a notable asset to the Siegrist & Silbon organi-gation.

W. C. (Bill) Fleming was reported as seen on Broadway last week. 'Tis said ''Mrs. Flem-ing's big boy Bill'' is sill stepping along in the interests of T. A. Wolfe's Superior Shows, and, judging from his cheery countenance, one cond easily imagine that the Wolfe Shows are witting pretty from a standpoint of advance booking.

Lou Bartei, the heavyweight wrestler, last season with the Zeidman & Pollie Shows (with which he says he was treated like "home-folks"), was taking in the sights of Cieveland last week. Lou says s match batween himself and Londos, in Chicago, the week previous, drew heavy attendance. He has not yet made ar-rangements for the coming sesson, but expects to in the near future.

At a recent meeting of the Ladies' Anxiliary of the Showmen'a League of America, in Chi-cago, the merry party found itself just one member say for a thirty-table toornament in "Bunko." Just then Beverly White dropped in. Several ladies tried to induce him to take the vacant chair, but he insisted that he did not understand that brand of "bunko." After "Whitey" Cowans and Danny Kline have been around Salisbury, N. C., and on railroad trains thru the Carolinas. These boys sppear to be prosperous and acem to be making the most of the Carolina sunshine.

B. G. Wilhur, who managed the 5-in-1 on the Mathew J. Riley Shows last sesson, says he is building a brand new outfit and that it will be one of the beat on the road this year. Wilbur is wintering in Rochester, N. Y.

Late-Day Expressions--"You say you've been in the show business four yenrs?" "Yes." "What shows have you been on?" "Several of them." "Well, 111 be d--, and you don't even know how to the a double half-hitch."

Bert Warren writes from Kansas City say-ing that life is getting tiresome in the big town and he in beginning to yearn for the tops and iots. Bert will return to T. A. Wolfe's Su-perior Shows again this seeson, having charge of the "Giant Sespianes."

J. E. Conjey writes that he is now in advance of the Marine & Firestone Company, crystal gazing, magic and scientific demonstrations, at present playing theaters in Indiana. J. E. states that the success of a three nights' book-ing in Seymour, ind., drew a full week's en-gagement.

Omer Watkins, who went to the Pacific Coast with the Kapian Shows, says if Frisco is in "Sunny California" he will choose and take Co-lumbus, Miss., for the balance of the winter and then back to the midways with his refresh-ment stand and his reliable meal ticket, the Rawfins and Webb have booked their cook-house with the Mighty Doris and Ferari Shows. Jerry (itawiins) says his policy is to so cuter to the showfolks as to have their trade. He figures that a full honse with clean equipment and good service always attracts the public and assures good business.

Bugene Devine, glass blower and "Punch and ao Jady" man, formerly with various circuses and caraivals and late a manufacturer of vent. Spures and glass specialties, says he has do sit much pleading he sat in-and walked off with the first prize.

Wm. (Wild Bill, also Young) Dyer, wrestler, last season with the Fields Greater Shows and Yeal Bros.' Shows, is this winter holding down Beardstown, Ill., where he has been appointed matchmaker and promoter of local athletic events. Dyer wonders if "Hiker" Rufus has yet reached Washington, D. C. (Enfus hasn't "reported" the past several weeks, William.)

A. L. (Alkabol) Hall has placed his conces-sion success of last season, which he has cap-tioned "Righto," on the market and reports numerous sales since his advertising has ap-peared in The Billboard. There will probably not be a caravan midway througt the Middle West on which Mr. Hali's "find" will be found absent.

Among the well-known onidoor showmen seen at the recent American Legion Circus at Buffalo, N. Y., were Sam McCracken, T. A. Wolfe, Frank P. Spellman, Billy DeMott, John Robin-son, Gene R. Milton and Will H. Bluedorn, of T. A. Wolfe's Superior Shows. Mr. Wolfe and Mr. Robinson for quite a spell were hidden away in a corner, where they appeared to be engaged in an important conversation.

A few lines from Adam Teska state that his mechanical attraction, the miniature farm, which was one of the features with Snapp Bros. Shows last year, is being wintered, as well as overhanied and repainted, at Stattgart, Ok., after playing a successful engagement at the recent Stuttgart Rice Carnival. A. T. adds that in all probability his exhibition will again be with Snapp Bros.

Among the folks at Oklahoma City, as re-cently reported, were George B. (Blackie) La-Rue and wife (the latter with art needles in a store and Blackie in accond-hand anto business). Raiph Thomas, with cider at the New Market; Ed Cooper, who closed his Christmas store, and, with the Missas, ieft for Little Rock; Blue-Bluey, "Fat" Thomas, Daredevil Thomp-aon, "Whitle" Johnson and J. Harold Doebber opines—since "first impres-shows are often of major importance".-that ait csrnival managers should have their railroad equipment is the best condition possible and especially to have the cars neatly painted, as it makes a decided impression with the citizens when the train pulls in town on Sundays. "The owner with the shabby train," writes Doebber, "not only injuries the presize of his own or-ganization, but hurts the carnival business in general."

seneral." Mike Troy wants us to make it plain that he is to pilot North's Exposition Shows the com-ing sesson. Some time ago the "show repre-sentative" of the Biotner Bros." Exposition Shows probably figured that Mike would sgain be mder the Biotner banner and stated eo in bis "show letter." In the January 21 issue the writcup from the North organization etated that Troy had been engaged by it as general agent and in the same issue it. A Biotner, of the Biotner Shows, schnowledged the error above mentioned, in a special article.

A very mysterions looking contrivance, a sort of a cross between a blackhand bomb and a football, was delivered to the Savannah Hotel, Savannah, Gs., last week, bearing the inscrip-tion, "A Nnt, to a Nut, From a Nnt, Room 623 Savannsh Hotel, Savanna, Ga." Frank S. Reed, secretary of Rubin & Cherry Shows, Inc., said: "Well, Boom 823 is mine-it must be for me." Sender will please take note that the "Frank S. Reed Peas," immortalized on the Rubin & Cherry Christmas dinner menn, did not mean Pea NUTS!

C. V. Green, the concessioner, postcards from Bay Harbor, Fla.: "Five weeks in this conty and doing good husiness. Go from here to Camp Keeth, Fis., and if any of the showfolks would want to find as they would almost have to take an airpinne, then go thirty miles over a log-ging railroad and cross Bear Creek, near Alli-gator River. So, yon see, there are still some epots in this oid State where Fred Panl did not play. The natives ride the 'jinney' ont of gasoline, as most of 'em never saw one be-fore."

A number of road folks are hibernating this winter in Bay City. Mich., among them being Allie Sisco. of monkey speedway fame, and last season with Zeidman & Pollie Shows; William Fuisher and son Robert, who, with their con-cessions and tracks, played independent last year (the only casuality being when Bob got his nose cont while raising the windshield): Harry Coleman, sheet writer; Frank (Peannta) Beers and James (Punchboard) Boyle. the oincoirds to show up. Col. Jack King, always ready to throw his hat in the ring for charity's sake, gave a thrilling equestrian and Wild West performance in front of the packed grand stand Saturday. do some real business. For the "Lore of Mike" what is a gold-carved show front? Everybody has seen what was termed "carved.wood" (figures, scrolis, etc.) and this either painted with "gold" bronse or (sometimes) the prominent figures are really gold-leafed. But "carved-gold"—does it mean the fronts are solid gold and that the Images, et cetera, are actually carved (with much waste) in such a precious metal? In all, wby all the "four-finsh?" A little "gold-leaf" is an on from four to fifteen big wagon fronts is simply to isuch. And "gold-carved!" Oh, boy, hring the smelling ssits!

hring the smelling saits? Of course The Biliboard could hardly request signed affidavits (before notary publics) to sc-signed affidavits (before notary publics) to sc-stent on the conscientious and mas-to-man principles of the contributors, which trust is si-dom misplaced. But, when someone telis about the progress being 'made' in winter quarters and what "has been accomplished" there, other than a furnished room, could not be found with a search warrant-there being none--it's beyond the bounds of all reason and conception at to nalimited gail. NATIONAL BAZAAR CO. CLOSES

March The National Bazaar Co. closed a auccessful season recently and moved to winter quarters in Salisburg, N. C., where the company has be-gun putting things in shape for an early open-ing in March. K. F. Smith and R. A. Josselyn have severed their connection with the hazaar company. Mr. Smith is getting his twenty-car carnival in readiness for an early opening and Mr. Jos-selyn is out ahead looking after his interests. The National Bazaar proved such a success that R. L. Rusher decided to reorganize on a larger and more extensive scale than ever. A head 'eighty' with three 40-foot middles. Mr. Rusher has signed a number of new and novely attractions. George E. Robby, a member of the Film Players' Club, has made a departure from his regular schedule of appearing in films in order to make a short tour in vandeville with his own company.

It is now definitely settled that Harold Lloyd will, continue to distribute bia pictures thru Pathe. Mr. Lloyd will make six features a year, each picture fourteen reels in length, something on the style of his last production, "A Sailor-Made Man."

Maude George, who scored a tremendous suc-cess in "Fooliab Wives," possesses screen tech-nique right down to her dainty finger tips. There are very few film players who could acthe marvels that Miss George does the screen.

Here's a good one. We have to pass it along, because in these cold winter days we need something to cheer the cockles of the heart. We have just been told that Ben Turpin, he because who has a cinch on cock-eyes in the films, has derided to protect himself against the other fellow who might come into the business and roh him of his glory. He has insured his eyes, obtaining a $10,600 policy, for the purpose of making sure that his eyes will remain crossed for another year.

Andreas Dippel, who has for many years been sociated with Metropolitan and Chicago Opera associated with Metropolitan and Chicago Opera companies, la discussing a plan to present opera in motion picture theaters. It is said that Mr. Dippel claims a guarantee from leading picture theaters which will use these operas once or twice a month. He expects to cover the entire country hy dividing his ontput into five circuita. As a few of the once famous operas, such as "Carmen," "La Tosca," etc., have been reduced to a couple of reels, supplied with the original score of the opera, it seems quite feasible that Mr. Dippel's plan will meet with the approbation of the motion picture public, the motion picture public.

Scarle Dawley is mak-ing, with Mias Dorothy Allen in the title role, is back on the job after a hrief sojourn in the hospitsi to have his tondis removed. However, Lang probably got a lot of funny ideas for the future "Affairs of Annie." Miss Allen played all the eccentric momedy mside with the Fox Film Company, and is a clever comedian, who knows how to capitalize her own physicel peculiarities, she being built something on the linea of Alice Hagemau, the eloogated comedienne of "The Demi-Virgin." Arriving in New York, she utilizes a letter of introduction to a prominent theatrical maguate, who is attracted by her yonth and beauty, giv-ing her an opportunity to appear as a dancer in his theater. But this establishing a premise is a trific over-strained, for three (or in it four) episodes are devoted to musical comedy and caharet scenes where the dancing hy the agile star is relied upon to hold attention. As a solution to the problems of the tired business man "The Ruling Passion" would prove quite instructive. Doris Kenyon contributed the best work of her career and appeared more charming than ever. Ida Darling as the wife was her own smilling, gracious self. Edward J. Burna as Bill Merrick has a pleasing and natural man-ner, but he should avoid growing too fleshy, which is a derlineut to juvenile roies. J. W. Johnson carried the unpleasant part of Peterson in a commendation manner. The direction, lighting and camera work were on a par with the excellence of the story.

A totally different picture for Fauline Frederick. She does full justice to the vigorous character of a ranch woman and proves her ability to portray a typically dominsting Westerner.

THE CRITICAL X-RAY

We are constrained to say that the title is a misnomer, for at no time are we convinced of the other side of the woman's character. Captioned as "Two Kinda of Women," Misa Captioned as "Two Kinda of Women," Misa Frederick impersonates only one feminine role. Perhaps the author intended to ahow glimpsea of her dual nature by interpolating the soft-ness of a real womanly heart. But it is evi-dent to the beholder that Judith Sanford ia simply a straight, out-and-out sensible woman. It is not necessary for her to be a rough and. It is not necessary for her to be a rough-andready type in order to control a band of roughneck cattle rustlers. That she does subdu them, stamps the fact in our minds that woman's dominance over roogh undiscipline males is not to be sneezed at.

The picture contains a number of villains, society men and hardened brutes who con-spire to rob Judith of the big ranch inherited from her father. She is in possession of a two-third interest in the entire business, but the remaining share of one-third, is held by Delicek Meantice a matiful society doome Pollock Hampton, a wasteful society drone. "For Goodness Sake," now at Atlantic City, is headed for Boston.

"Ten Nights in a Barroom," the Arrow pro-duction, is going far hetter than any of the exhibitora here expected. The film was booked into the fibbe two weeks see and at once made an instantaneous hit. It looks now as if "Ten Nights" is going to make more money than any of the feature pictures yet shown at the Globe. Two ahows are given daily at 50 cents top.

Due to "The Wandering Jew" hitting the rocks here, the Hollis St. Theater remained dark until January 30, when "The Dream Maker" went in.

Fred Stone, who is at the Colonial Theater in "Tip Top," is also at the Modern Theater in the film, "The Duke of Chinney Butte." Mr. Stone on Thesday and Thursday after-moons makes a personal appearance at the pic-ture house.

Last Saturday afternoon "Little Lord Fannt-heroy" was presented at the Children's Theater. The occasion was a memorable one in the an-mais of the theater, as it marked the third anniversary of its foundation. The theater, which was the first of its kind established in America, is conducted in connection with the Emersou College of Oratory, and the details, including costumes, cast, scenery, are all taken care of by the students. The plan is carried on without profit for the sake of the educational yalue of the work, and within the past three years has grown with astonishing speed. A new play is produced each week.

Bert Spears, for a number of years connected with the iocal Keith booking office, has now started the new Bert A. Spears' Amusement Attractions, Inc., with offices at 190 Tremont street. Matthew C. Sprowl in president, Goldie Pemberton Spears, cierk, and Bert A. Spears, treasurer and general manager.

Don't let an agent or booker tell you that at Booton there is considerable one and two mighters to be had. Boston is full of acts laying off and the bookers have little or moth-ing to offer. Even the club work here is "all shot to piecca" just at present.

Fisher's Theater, on O'Farrell street, are coming home. On Sunday erening, February 5, they will open at the Century Theater in "Give and Tate," a brand new vehicle by Anron Hoffman, said to be funnier than "The High Cost of Loving," in which they last starred here. The two comedians are bringing with them a company which is declared to be the best that ever has supported them. It includes many notables of the musical stage, gathered from all par's of the United States. As outstanding feature of the production will be the scenic effects, which are to be more elaborate than anything before attempted by Kolb and Bill, and the cost of which will ein the majority of productions of this charter. The return of Kolb and Dill is being hailed ith delight by local press critics and the ablic in general, and the engagement piomises be an extremely lucrative one.

Thomas Chatterion, who has appcared here o many occasions at the Alcazar Theater, as been engaged as leading man by Kolb and lil, and will be tendered n hearty welcome then the new show opens at the Century. It, Chatterion is a talented performer and as made a host of friends in San Francisco.

David Warfield, for whom Marcas Loew has named his big new Market street theater, now nearing completion, is scheduled to appear at the Columbia Theater next month in "The Re-turn of Peter Grinm." Other famed stars us appear at the Columbia in the near future are Ethel Barrymore and Chauncey Olcott.

see Luer Darrymore and Chauncey Olcott. Success has marked the launching of Fanchon & Marco's "Little Club." which opened two weeka ago at Tait's Cafe, 165 OFFarrell street. The two "frolles," one at 9:30 and the other at midnight, are proving exceedingly popular with San Francisco amusement lovers, seem-ingly having revived the old San Francisco spirit of the night life. Lester Sterena, talented young composer and leader of the "Little Club" Orchestra, is irunishing dance music that is hard to equal anywhere on the Facilic Coast.

Billy R. Cranshaw, former vaudeville per-former, who worked out of St. Louis for a number of years, was a Billboard visitor during the past week. Mr. Cranshaw is now in the United States Navy, awaiting his discharge, and is planning to return to vaudeville again.

the Friedman, general agent of the Kaplan Shows, now in winter quarters at Vallejo, near here, was a Billboard visitor the week just nast. Mr. Friedman says that work is progressing rapidly at the winter quarters and the shows soon will be in shape to start. There will be several new attractions.

Victor D. Levitt, moving spirit of the Levitt, Brown & Huggins Shows, apent the past week in Southern California, whence he motored following his arrival here after an Eastern trip over the holidays. While the nature of Mr. Levitt's visit to the Southland has not been made known, it is understood that he made the trip in connection with arranging for bookings for his show for the early part of the 10:22 season. The shows are now in winter quarters here and are being put in apick and span ahape for the coming season's opening.

MADAME MARANTETTE

"About the greatest show woman the circus world has ever known," are the words uttered by Robert Stickney, Sr., himsolf famous in his day in the tended world, when he learned of the death of Madame Maraatette, 73 years old, who passed away at her home on the Evergreen Stock Farm, near Meadon, Mich., Friday, January 27. Death was due

There are a start of manufacture distributes of years out, who passed away at her bolic on the Evergreen Stock Farm, near Meadon, Mich., Friday, January 27. Death was due to pneumonia. Madame Marantette made her circus debut in 1878, and for forty-forr years, until she reached the age of 70, coaducted herself in such a manner thist she more than merited the words of praise of her friead and fellow-trouper, Robert Stickney. Her maiden name was Emma Peck. At the age of forty-six she hereme the wife of Daniel Hunt Harris, who had been her professional manager since her fourth year under the big top. Madame Marantette tonred the world twice, and, while in London, adopted a young girl of the sinms, Florence Harris Mardo, who readily took to circus life and soon rivaled her foster-mother as an equestrienne. To match her snow-white hair Madame Marantette used a white costume, horse, poodle and harness, and the sirklag picture she made will be losg remembered by circus lovers the world over who have been fortunate enough to witness her lecautiful act. At her bedside when the end came was her foster-daughter, late of the Ringliag-Barnum Circus, and her husband, a clown with the Ringling Show. In her will Madame directed that Chief Geronimo, her white horse, and the poodle, "Tiny," be killed, and that the poodle be hurled in her ensket.

The famous musician died of la grippe at his home in Leipsic, January 23, after but a very hief illness. His first appearance as leader of an orchestra was at the Leipsic Opera in 1975, where he was so successful that he was permitted to conduct a light opera, and later is the same year conducted performances of "Tanhanser" and "Die Walkure." The next year, when only 24 years old, he was appointed leader of the orchestra in Leipsic, and then began his battle against the conservatives, who were opposed to what was then hown as "modern music," the "moderns" being Liszt, Tschaikowsky and Wagner, and started a new epoch of modern music. It was due to Major Higdison, benefactor of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, that Niklach came to America, and, when in 1889 he was made conductor of the Roston Orchestra, he continued his success and also his work in promoting a love for modern music. He reusined for years at the head of the or-came conductor of the opera at Hudspest, and later becsme director of the Berlin, Ham-burg and Hanover Philhermonie concerts. For a number of years Niklach toured the European capitals with the Berlin Orchestra and you the highest success, and in 1912 he returned to America as the conductor of the London Symphony Orchestra, which he do ducted for some time prior to the was, and plans were under way at the time of his death for him to make a concert tour of 1955, and entered the Vienna Con-servatory as a boy. He was graduated in 1874, st the age of 19, having won the first Prize for composition, and that same year he received an appointment as violinist in the Vienna Royal Orchestra, in which position he remsined four years.

who elect to make their permanent address in care of The Billboard may, of course, choose any of our branch offices, i. e., New York, Chicago, St. Louis or San Francisco, but are advised, if they are en route, to consider the home office carefully.

Cincinnati is but Thirty-one Miles from the Geographical Center of Popula-tion of the United States and Canada, and it follows naturally that less delay will ensue in the handling and forwarding of your mail.

We want our service to continue to be, as it always has been, the very best and prompt-est, and, therefore, we recommend "Permanent Address, Care of The Billboard, Cin-cinnati."

It is unnecessary in writing for mail to use a self-addressed and stamped envelope-a Postal Card will do. Give your route far enough ahead to permit your mail to reach you. Write names of towns, dates and signature plainly.
