UNIVERSITY WELCOME

The University of Wisconsin Oshkosh is proud of the accomplishments celebrated in today's commencement ceremony. We recognize and applaud the determination of the graduates to complete their studies. We also recognize and appreciate the help families and friends have given to make this graduation possible.

The completion of a program of study is significant. It commemorates the end of one important activity while signaling unlimited opportunities for the future. It is in this spirit of hope and optimism that today we congratulate those who have now completed their studies at the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh.

Our newest graduates represent a rich tradition of hands-on collaborative learning, academic excellence and personal growth that extends back to the date the University was founded in 1871. It is this tradition that links our newest alumni with prior graduates, who are actively enriching the civic, business, charitable and political sectors of our global community.

As a regional center for the celebration and promotion of knowledge, culture and innovation, our University is an integral part of our broader community. With the fresh effort and focus of today's graduates who join us in this broader role, we envision even more opportunities that will connect our University with the region we so proudly serve.

It is my honor as the 11th chancellor of the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh to extend this special recognition on behalf of the faculty, staff, students and alumni of the University.

Sincerely,

Andrew J. Leavitt, Ph.D.
Chancellor

University of Wisconsin Oshkosh

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN OSHKOSH

The University of Wisconsin Oshkosh was founded as the state's third normal school in 1871. President George S. Albee headed a faculty of five normal school teachers, the model school director and three teachers. Forty-three students attended the first day of classes. The Oshkosh State Normal School became the state's foremost teacher-training institution. A fire in 1916 destroyed the school's main building, which was replaced with Dempsey Hall in 1918.

In later years, as the focus and curriculum expanded, the institution underwent several name changes. A graduate school was added in 1963. In its centennial year of 1971, President Roger Earl Guiles guided UW Oshkosh's merger into the Wisconsin system.

Today, UW Oshkosh prepares students for fulfilling lives and challenging careers with 60 undergraduate majors, 15 master's degree programs and, as of fall 2010, the University's first doctoral degree: the Doctorate of Nursing Practice. Chancellor Andrew J. Leavitt, who was appointed in November 2014, leads this vibrant educational institution — the third-largest university in Wisconsin with an on- and off-campus enrollment of more than 14,500.

The picturesque and environmentally conscious campus covers 171 acres and is home to four colleges — Business, Education and Human Services, Letters and Science, and Nursing. UW Oshkosh's focus on teaching is evident in its distinction of having won nine UW System Regents Teaching Awards of Excellence.

UW Oshkosh also is committed to becoming a nationally recognized model for the “engaged university.” Our striving to meet this goal is illustrated in the Points of Pride described on the following pages.

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN SYSTEM

The University of Wisconsin System is governed by the Board of Regents, an 18-member board appointed by the governor. The board, in turn, appoints the system president, the chancellors of the 13 universities, the chancellor of Extension and UW Colleges, and the deans of the 13 colleges. The current system president is Ray Cross.

The board is currently comprised of John R. Behling, Mark J. Bradley, José M. Delgado, Tony Evers, Regent President Michael J. Falbo, Margaret Farrow, Eve M. Hall, Nicolas A. Harsy, Tim Higgins, Edmund Manydeeds, Regent Vice President Regina Millner, Janice Mueller, Drew Petersen, Charles Pruitt, Anicka S. Purath, José F. Vásquez, David G. Walsh and Gerald Whitburn.

UW OSHKOSH POINTS OF PRIDE

At UW Oshkosh, students, faculty and staff come together to form a distinctive institution that prides itself on engaging people and ideas for common good. Our University Highlights are some of the many achievements that set us apart. We are especially proud of the accomplishments of our faculty and students:

Student Points of Pride

- The UW Oshkosh Model United Nations team extended its winning streak to 31 years by winning two more Outstanding Delegation Awards at the world's largest Model UN at UN headquarters in New York in 2015.
- Celebrating 15 years, the Student Managed Endowment Fund (SMEF) program, which started as a $25,000 fund, has grown to more than $500,000.
- Undergraduate student performance on the NCLEX RN licensure exam continues above the national pass rate (89 percent) at 94 percent or above.
- Our newly-created program to support student/faculty collaborative research, the Oshkosh Student Scholarly and Creative Activities Program (OSSCAP), launched in 2014 to improve our students' access to a wide range of collaborative, hands-on scholarly and creative activities.
- The Cooperative Academic Partnership Program (CAPP), an accredited concurrent enrollment program, provided opportunities for more than 2,300 students from 50 high schools in the region to take college-level courses.
- UW Oshkosh won the 2014 Women's Indoor Track and Field championship, for a total of 46 national athletic championships.

Campus Points of Pride

- Six individual faculty members and three departments have received the Regents Teaching Excellence Awards.
- At more than 14,500 students, the University's enrollment is holding strong at record levels over its more than 140-year history.
- College of Letters and Science faculty, staff and students serve as a cultural anchor to the region by contributing to the quality of life through theater productions, musical performances and art exhibits.
- UW Oshkosh is recognized as a national model for developing and highlighting exemplary campuswide liberal education programs.
- UW Oshkosh ranked 21st nationally — and first in Wisconsin — on the Sierra Club's Coolest Schools list for its sustainable practices.
- The UW Oshkosh Foundation partnered with the University to build the first dry fermentation anaerobic biodigester plant in Wisconsin, serving as a model community program for food and yard waste and assisting UW Oshkosh in meeting a state off-the-grid energy goal for campus.
- UW Oshkosh became the nation's first Fair Trade University in 2008. The University also was one of the first to analyze its carbon footprint.
- The total UW Oshkosh economic contribution to the state is more than $500 million. The campus is responsible for directly and indirectly creating more than 9,000 jobs, generating more than $37.5 million in tax revenue and giving more than $4 million in time and money to local charities.
- UW Oshkosh has achieved more than 50 years of offering graduate studies, can boast of more than 13,000 graduate school alumni, and continues to be a leader in graduate education by offering more than 30 master's, post-master's and certificate programs as well as one doctoral program.

UW OSHKOSH HIGHLIGHTS

The scope of the accomplishments at the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh is astonishing, and is a tribute to the oneness, vigor and dedication of students, faculty, academic and University staff members. These highlights present a few examples of the University's success.

Academic Highlights

The 2013-14 academic year brought with it new programs, community classroom collaborations and hands-on learning.

- The collaborative Engineering Technology Program launched, allowing students to major in Mechanical, Electrical or Environmental Engineering Technology. Students gain experience through hands-on instruction on the UW Oshkosh campus, at the UW Oshkosh biodigester and at placements throughout Northeast Wisconsin.
- The first cohort in the Executive Path MBA program graduated at the December 2014 commencement ceremony.
- A Bachelor of Applied Studies with an emphasis in public safety launched, allowing students with an associate degree from an approved technical college to earn a bachelor's degree completely online.
- The University Studies Program (USP), offered its first Quest III courses. Students in Quest III courses are introduced to civic action, community partners and real-world challenges.
- Through the support of Allendorf, Germany's Viessmann Group, the University's first endowed chair, Viessmann Endowed Chair in Sustainable Technology, was named.
- The radio-TV-film program celebrated 50 years during Homecoming 2014.
- A new, 100 percent online master's program entitled Transnational Human Services Leadership launched in fall 2014.

Economic Development Highlights

UW Oshkosh is helping make the case that the University of Wisconsin System is actually in communities throughout the state the University FOR Wisconsin. And it takes partnership and collaboration to accomplish that mission.

- Neenah-based Alta Resources pledged funding support to UW Oshkosh in spring 2014, launching the UW Oshkosh Alta Resources Center for Entrepreneurship and Innovation (CEI) in the College of Business.
- 10 University of Wisconsin Oshkosh student entrepreneurs each gave a 90-second business elevator pitch on Tuesday, Nov. 18 to a panel of business leaders—including Culver’s titan and UW Oshkosh alumnus Craig Culver ’73—for a grand prize of $1,000 in the 4th Annual Pitch Contest co-hosted by the Alta Resources CEI and the UW Oshkosh Collegiate Entrepreneurs’ Organization (CEO).
- The UW Oshkosh Alta Resources CEI received the 2014 “Emerging Center Award” from the Global Consortium of Entrepreneurship Centers (GCEC).
- The UW Oshkosh Business Success Center’s AeroInnovate won first place for Leadership and Collaboration at the national University Economic Development Association (UEDA) summit in Santa Fe, N.M. in September.
- Launched in 2014, the Renewable Energy Institute (REI) was founded on a global vision of advancing excellence in renewable energy technology and sustainability by providing access to renewable energy educators, researchers, events and facilities at UW Oshkosh.

These and many other examples of our accomplishments are detailed in the full Annual Report found online at uwosh.edu/strategicplan.

Note: Every attempt is made to ensure the accuracy of this program. However, due to printing deadlines, it is possible that the list of degree candidates as presented above may not be entirely accurate. This program does not constitute certification that those whose names appear have completed the University's degree requirements.

CHANCELLOR'S AWARDS FOR EXCELLENCE

This award recognizes senior students who exemplify high academic and leadership qualities and a deep commitment to serving others. The criteria for this award include academic performance, University-related service and community involvement.

Sara Arafah graduates with majors in biology and chemistry. While at UW Oshkosh, Arafah served as a student research assistant in both the biology and chemistry departments. She has also been involved outside the classroom as a volunteer for Student Legal Services, member of the Rotary Club and completed a Fair Trade internship. Last year, Arafah received the award for excellence as a tutor at the Center for Academic Resources. She would one day like to become a dentist or university professor.

Gideon Bernthal graduates with a major in political science. After serving two tours in Iraq, he came to UW Oshkosh, which put him one step closer to earning a Ph.D in international law. Many of Bernthal's professors praise him for his dedication and work ethic. He is actively involved with his church, coordinating visits to members in home care or nursing homes. During his time at UW Oshkosh, Bernthal also participated in a study abroad trip to Germany and France. Additionally, Bernthal researched United States Counterinsurgency Strategy.

Alissa Becker graduates with a major in English education. Her career goal is to empower young adults to reach their goals and aspirations. Becker graduates from UW Oshkosh with almost four years of service to the Admissions Office as a tour guide. It was her experience at Best Version Media that made her realize how important it is to be a lifelong learner. In addition, Becker has been involved in Titan Catholics, Alpha Sigma National Honor Society, Student Wisconsin Education Association and the Wisconsin Counsel for English Teachers.

Derek Brown graduates with majors in political science and criminal justice. It was the Chess Club that pushed Brown to think outside the box and grow as a leader. He served as an undergraduate research assistant, presenting two projects to the Midwestern Criminal Justice Association. He enjoys helping others by tutoring at the Center for Academic Resources and volunteering at the Boys and Girls Club. Brown consistently made the dean's list at UW Oshkosh and was inducted into Pi Sigma Alpha in 2014. Brown plans to attend law school after graduation.

Michelle Leona Cecil graduates with a major in communication. Cecil says the world is too silent, so she is determined her voice has to be powerful. On campus, she managed the United Students in Residence Halls organization, assisted in UW Oshkosh preview days, and was a member of the World AIDs Day committee. Cecil's advocacy is not limited to campus; she has participated in advocacy days to educate others on bleeding disorders in the Wisconsin State Capitol and in Washington D.C. In 2014, Cecil traveled to Australia to serve as a United States delegate at the World Federation of Hemophilia's World Congress.

Angela Dusenberry graduates with a major in international economics. Dusenberry was the founder and president of the UW Oshkosh Red Cross Club. Under her leadership, UW Oshkosh students have completed more than 450 service hours to the American Red Cross. In addition to Dusenberry's work with the Red Cross, she participated in University Speaker Series, Titan Volunteers and the International Business Club. While attending UW Oshkosh, Dusenberry said she has grown into a leader, collaborator, analyzer, risk-taker, traveler and so much more.

Dustin Hackbarth graduates with a major in political science. After serving eight years in the U.S. Army, Hackbarth became the Oshkosh Student Association's Director of Veteran Affairs and Battalion Cadet Commander for the Fox Valley ROTC battalion. His service driven values run deep as he also interned for U.S. Senator Ron Johnson, volunteered with the Special Olympics, coaches little league football and is an active member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Hackbarth said he tries to give back as much as UW Oshkosh has given to him.

Thomas Kenote graduates with a major in environment studies. Kenote participated in the McNair Scholars program where he studied the experience of fellow members of the Menominee Nation with higher education and presented his research at Harvard University. Kenote's professors said his ability to blend critical inquiry paired with a gentle demeanor and constant goodwill has significantly enriched the classroom. Outside the classroom, Kenote has been actively involved in the Inter-Tribal Student Organization, playing a key role in the Inter-Tribal Powwow, Winona LaDuke presentation and the Native American Hip Hop concert.

Sarah Kofler graduates with a major in secondary English education. Kofler said her university involvement gave her a sense of belonging and led her to develop her personal and professional goals. She worked as an ambassador and peer mentor in the University Studies Program, and as an Odyssey captain and PreCollege resident Assistant. While at UW Oshkosh, Kofler was inducted into the Alpha Lambda Delta Honor Society, National Society of Leadership and Success and Golden Key International Honor Society. After graduation, Kofler hopes to become a University Studies Program Quest III alumni mentor and stay connected with her alma mater.

Andrea Larson graduates with a major in journalism. Driven to succeed, Larson became a member and leader in the Advertising Club, Public Relations Student Society of America (PRSSA), University Speaker Series, the University Studies Program and the athletics department. As chairperson of the University Speaker Series, she managed a committee of 24 members while aiding in marketing efforts of the committee. Larson's expertise in marketing aided the University Studies Program in telling the story of Quest III. During her time at UW Oshkosh, Larson interned at Littlest Tumor Foundation and GenArt in Los Angeles, California.

Rebecca Mussatti graduates with majors in elementary and special education. Mussatti has served the Department of Residence Life in multiple capacities including manager on duty, community adviser, and Experimental Aircraft Association AirVenture Lodging Program desk manager. Mussatti was a part of the Great Lakes Affiliate of College and University Residence Halls and Wisconsin Resident Assistant Conference. She also served as a Titan Pride Student Ambassador with the Admissions Office. In the future, Mussatti would like to work at a university helping students with disabilities.

Shariah Salahaladyn graduates with a major in criminal justice. Salahaladyn served UW Oshkosh in many capacities, such as Odyssey leader, the Rural PreCollege Program Night host, Titan Map mentor, president of Sisterhood and vice president of the Black Student Union. She has also been a strong academic leader, shown through her involvement in the National Society for Leadership and Success, the UW Oshkosh Honors Program and Gamma Alpha Omega. Interested in pursuing her doctoral degree, Salahaladyn became a McNair Scholar where she researched graduation and retention rates of African American males. Salahaladyn notes after leaving UW Oshkosh she will continue to her dedication to diversity and social activism.

Zachary Telfer graduates with a dual major in biology and microbiology. During his time at UW Oshkosh, Telfer has been intrigued by the healthcare field and hopes to one-day play a role in the betterment of global health. He has served as the president of the Pre-Medical Society, student leader for Applied Parasitology, and co-founded Ignite (Students Igniting Change Toward a Tobacco-free Future.) A study abroad experience took Telfer to Central America to volunteer in clinics alongside medical staff. Telfer plans to pursue a master's degree in public health.

Steven Thompson graduates with a major in political science. With aspirations of becoming an attorney, Thompson interned at the Winnebago County District Attorney's office, the Winnebago Legal Assistance Clinic and served as Student Legal Services director for the Oshkosh Student Association. He is also actively involved in Beta Theta Pi, the Oshkosh Student Association Student Senate, as well as Boy Scouts of America. Thompson has excelled academically, making the dean's list every semester at UW Oshkosh. He has been inducted into the Alpha Lambda Delta Honor Society, National Society for Leadership and Success, in addition to receiving the UWO Outstanding Greek Scholar Award in 2014.

Hallie Turnbull graduates with a major in political science. Fascinated to learn how the world works, Turnbull made it her goal to get involved in a variety of activities at UW Oshkosh including serving as a Residence Hall community adviser, writing consultant and as the Oshkosh Student Association's vice president pro tempore. In addition to Turnbull's academic success and campus involvement, she volunteered in the community at the B'nai Israel Congregation, Organizing for America and Habitat for Humanity. After graduation, Turnbull plans to volunteer in French Africa while studying for the LSAT before law school.

Bailie Whittaker graduates with a major in psychology. While at UW Oshkosh, Whittaker was passionately involved in the Department of Residence Life. She was also active in the Oshkosh Placement Exchange, Residence Hall Director search and screen and the Alternative Spring Break program to Honduras. Her professors describe her as eager to give credit where credit is due by supporting and recognizing the contributions of others, which makes her an invaluable member of any collaborative community. Upon graduation, Whittaker plans to pursue a master's degree in student affairs and higher education.

Jesse Waldvogel graduates with majors in economics and finance. Waldvogel said he enjoys inspiring and teaching young students through Junior Achievement. Waldvogel volunteers at local schools teaching business and financial literacy skills to fourth through eighth graders. On campus, he was involved with the Student Managed Endowment Fund, the Economics Student Association, Pre-Law Society and tutored economics students through Project Success. After graduation, Waldvogel plans to pursue a career as a financial analyst at an investment firm.

RETIRING FACULTY AND ACADEMIC STAFF

For meritorious service to the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh, the following faculty and academic staff are being recognized as part of today's commencement ceremonies:

Linda M. Hammer, Lifelong Learning and Community Engagement, Academic Affairs, 4 years of service.

Julie A. Lemanski, Media Services, Information Technology, Administrative Services, 36 years of service.

Rosemary J. Smith, Nursing, College of Nursing, 38 years of service.

Robert L. McWilliams, Music, College of Letters and Science, 19 years of service.

CEREMONIAL TRADITIONS

Academic Procession

This commencement ceremony marks a special occasion for students completing degree programs offered by UW Oshkosh. The Chancellor grants diplomas by virtue of the powers vested in the office by the UW System's Board of Regents. In addition, academic degrees may only be granted upon the recommendation of the University's faculty.

The academic procession is a featured part of the commencement program — a symbolic declaration that all members of the academic community are bound by a common purpose and shared commitment to the ideals of higher education, including the search for meaning, truth and understanding.

Academic Attire

The colors and apparel worn in the processional are symbolic of the Middle Ages. Because universities developed from church schools, both faculty and students were regarded as part of the clergy and wore clerical clothing based on monastic dress.

The traditional hat developed from the skull cap worn in cold weather. In Europe, a bonnet with tassel is still worn, but in America it has been replaced by the mortarboard cap or tam with tassel.

The bachelor's gown, with its long, pointed sleeves, is worn closed. The master's gown has an oblong sleeve open at the wrist; the rear section is square cut. The doctor's gown often was furred, a decoration that survives today as the velvet on the front and sleeves. Graduate degree gowns may be worn open or closed.

The tassel colors seen in the processional correspond to the field of study: crimson, Bachelor of Liberal Studies and Bachelor of Applied Studies; drab (tan), Bachelor of Business Administration; light blue, Bachelor of Music Education, Bachelor of Science in Education and Bachelor of Science–Human Services; gold, Bachelor of Science; white, Bachelor of Arts; brown, Bachelor of Fine Arts; pink, Bachelor of Music; citron, Bachelor of Social Work; and apricot, Bachelor of Science in Nursing. Master's and Associate of Arts and Science degree candidates wear black tassels.

The Hoods

The academic hood originally was worn over the head in bad weather. Now, it is added to the apparel of those with master's and doctoral degrees.

The master's and doctor's hoods displays a gold and white chevron, denoting the University colors. The color of the velvet border represents the field of study in which the degree is awarded:

CEREMONIAL TRADITIONS

Honor Cords

Students wearing gold colored cords have earned the latin honors of cum laude, magna cum laude or summa cum laude.

Students wearing white colored cords have earned academic distinction within their college or unit.

Students wearing other cords, stoles or insignia wear them in recognition of scholarly achievement in a department or honor society or study abroad program or in the tradition of an international student's native country.

University Seal/ Chancellor's Medallion

The University Seal/Chancellor's Medallion symbolizes UW Oshkosh's history and aspirations. At the center of the medal is a fountain of knowledge, divided in three to reflect the school's commitment to realizing the creative power of individuals, the value of learning as a humanizing force and our aspiration to excellence. The word “learning” is centered at the bottom, serving as the foundation of the University’s mission. The stylized figure at the center forms the school’s initials. The outward sweeping W reflects the Wisconsin Idea — education reaching to the state’s boundaries. The date of the University’s founding appears at the bottom, representing the importance of those who came before us.

Linked to the seal/medallion are nine more silver pieces inscribed with the names of previous UW Oshkosh presidents and chancellors:

The Alumni Association

The UW Oshkosh Alumni Association presents UW Oshkosh license plate holders to all graduates to remind them of their accomplishments and to Share the Pride of their alma mater throughout all of their journeys to come.
