

Leadership That Lifts Us All

Recognizing Outstanding
Philanthropy 2017 - 2018

TOCQUEVILLE
SENATOR JOHN HEINZ
LEADERS IN PHILANTHROPY

United Way of Southwestern Pennsylvania

Thank you to our 2017 sponsors:

Premier

Gold

Dan Onorato

David Schlosser

Dear Friends,

As philanthropic leaders who, through their generous gifts of time and treasure, demonstrate their commitment to tackling our community's most pressing problems, we should be proud of the impact we make on the lives of people who need our help. Through our gifts – Tocqueville Society members contributed nearly $10 million to the United Way 2017 Campaign – the most vulnerable members of our community are getting much-needed support:

- local children like Alijah (page 18) are matched with caring mentors who are helping them plan to continue their education after high school;
- seniors like Jean (page 4) are receiving support that helps them remain in the homes they love;
- people with disabilities like Kenny (page 9) are getting the opportunity to find meaningful work; and
- women like Sarah (page 43) are able to overcome challenges in order to gain greater financial stability.

On behalf of our community, thank you for your support. Your gift helps United Way put solutions into action, making a difference and encouraging hope for a better tomorrow for everyone.

With warmest regards

“I am so grateful for the visits.”

Jean is happily baking cookies for an upcoming visit with the Aizenstein and Baumann family, volunteers she has been visiting with since United Way’s Open Your Heart to a Senior (OYHS) initiative connected them two years ago with her and her late husband, Meyer.

When Jean first learned about OYHS, she was caring for Meyer, her husband of over 60 years, and the two found it difficult to leave their home. A friend advised Jean to contact AgeWell Pittsburgh to inquire about services to help seniors who are homebound. AgeWell is a United Way partner agency of the Open Your Heart to a Senior program.

Initially, Meyer received visits from volunteer Howard Aizenstein and his teenage son, Simon. “The time they spent with him was so precious,” said Jean. “It was just the ticket Meyer needed. It was special time just for him. I’ll always be grateful for what they gave him.”

About a year into their OYHS relationship, Meyer passed away. A couple weeks after, Howard called Jean to ask if his family could continue visiting. “I was so touched. Howard’s wife, Barbara, and daughter, Evie, started to come, too,” Jean said. The Aizenstein and Baumann family has been visiting Jean for over a year now, and they’ve formed a bond that keeps Jean going.

YOU MAKE A DIFFERENCE. THANK YOU.

“This job is stretching me to be a better person, it’s the hardest best thing I ever did.”

United Way’s 21 and Able Program helps students like Kenny, who can have difficulty getting and keeping a job after high school. In partnership with Giant Eagle, and the University of Pittsburgh, the United Way-funded Career Transitions Project recruits high school students with disabilities for part-time jobs and provides on-site job coaching to help them transition from school to the workplace.

Kenny works at a nearby Giant Eagle. The Project has taught him important skills: how to get along with managers and co-workers, how to take direction, and how to cope with everyday work stress. “I try to do a good job and be the bright spot in someone’s day,” he says. It’s been a winning strategy. Kenny’s infectious good nature has endeared him to store regulars.

“There are people out there to help you if you just reach out and ask.”

Melissa, 33, knows what it's like to survive on nothing. As a child, she remembers eating at homeless shelters and moving around a lot to different schools. So, when she suddenly lost her job in June 2017, she did everything she could to keep from losing her apartment.

Melissa called United Way's PA 2-1-1 Southwest and was referred to the YWCA's Women's Empowerment Initiative, funded by United Way's United for Women initiative. She walked into their office and asked for an appointment.

Within a couple days, Melissa got the necessary paperwork together to apply for assistance. She was approved for $500 in assistance that helped her complete her rent payment and stay afloat until she started receiving unemployment.

“If you have people to help you out and give you support and encouragement, you can focus more on your future.”

Alijah first joined the mentoring program at Brookline Elementary in 6th grade, because he was interested and wanted to try something new. He was matched with James Doyle, a Pittsburgh Public Schools employee who could offer valuable insight into high school and beyond.

“It was great to meet a new person, and we connected like family,” Alijah says. “James is a resource for me for college and the future.” Alijah has plans to take college engineering, math, computer and science classes in order to gain the skills needed to reach his goals. “James says to always do your work, pay attention, go to school so that you can meet your goals and have a good future,” he says.

“Sometimes people don’t know how to react, but when people got to know me they see it’s just me.”

Growing up, Luke was always encouraged by his parents to dream big and work hard. Living with a disability has been, at times, a challenge for Luke, but he’s never let anything get in the way of his goals.

“There are a few things that I have trouble with, but I’m not going to let that keep me down. I’m going to keep living my life,” Luke explained.

After completing college, he discovered United Way’s Career Transition Project, which helps people with disabilities find employment suited to their skills and goals.

“I contacted the program to learn about jobs,” Luke explained. “We went over interview questions, and it helped me out a lot.”

He applied for a payroll clerk position with Allegheny County, where Ray Weithorn, Allegheny County’s in-house United Way Career Transition Professional, helped him through the process. Luke was offered the full-time position. He gratefully accepted.

Luke is thriving in his job and is learning new skills along the way.

YOU MAKE A DIFFERENCE. THANK YOU.

Planned Giving

Whether you are managing a loved one's estate, or assets of your own, nothing is more satisfying than being able to leave a legacy on one's community that continues to impact people's lives. When you give to United Way through planned giving, you will be supporting meaningful work and can benefit from tax-free giving or tax reductions that provide a better financial return for your estate.

NAME UNITED WAY IN YOUR WILL

Designate an amount, an asset or percentage of assets

- Provides a lasting legacy
- Gives you the freedom to change your mind if your situation changes

NAME UNITED WAY IN YOUR RETIREMENT PLAN

Designate United Way as a full or partial beneficiary to your retirement account

- Avoid potential double taxation on retirement fund gifts to heirs (estate tax and income tax)
- Continue to draw money out of your retirement account while you are living
- Gives you the freedom to change your mind if your situation changes

CHOOSE A TAX-FREE ROLLOVER GIFT FROM AN IRA

- The rollover counts towards the donor's Required Minimum Distribution annually
- People over 65 can give up to $100,000 per year to charity tax free
- Withdrawals from an IRA account must begin by age 70.5

Both types of designations reduce the taxable estate.

GIFT OF CASH OR STOCK

- Provides an immediate tax break

GIVING STOCK VS. CASH

	Gift in STOCK	Gift in CASH
Size of your gift:	$200,000	$200,000
Income tax savings*	$79,200	$79,200
Capital gains tax savings	$30,000	None
Medicare surtax savings	$5,700	None
Gift "cost" after tax savings	$85,100	$120,800

*assumes a 39.6% tax bracket

NAME UNITED WAY IN YOUR INSURANCE POLICY

- When United Way is named as a beneficiary, you will receive a tax deduction for annual premiums
- You pay the policy premiums, but a life insurance policy allows you to make larger gifts
- United Way can be named on a new or existing policy

United Way Life is our own policy offered to donors. The chart below illustrates costs for various policy amounts for different ages (example only), actual premiums will vary.

UNITED WAY LIFE SAMPLE RATES FOR $250,000 POLICY

Age	Type	5-Year Annual Premium	After Tax Annual Cost of Gift to Donor
35	Survivorship	$5,000	$3,350
45	Survivorship	$7,200	$4,824
55	Survivorship	$10,600	$7,102
65	Survivorship	$16,500	$11,055

Policies are also available for other amounts. Rates are for illustration purposes only. Single life premiums would be higher.

Talk to your family members, financial advisor, attorney and/or accountant about adding United Way to your estate plan.

“Women helping women is how it’s supposed to be.”

After spending her early career as a high school teacher, Sarah moved to Pittsburgh with her husband. When she became pregnant, she decided to stay at home to raise their children. Twelve years into their marriage, the relationship ended. Sarah was now a single mother raising three children.

Sarah took a contract job as a recruiter with the expectation it would evolve into a full-time position. Sadly, Sarah was suddenly let go after the company lost several large contracts.

Finding herself alone, unemployed and caring for three children, she was scared and unsure of where to turn. Sarah’s friend, Caitlin, encouraged her to reach out to United Way’s PA 2-1-1 Southwest. ⁷³

Through United Way’s United for Women initiative, which helps women like Sarah who are experiencing an unexpected, temporary crisis, Sarah was able to catch up on her rent and utility bills. She found a job at Wesley Family Services, and with her newfound employment and help from the United for Women grant, she was able to get back on her feet.

YOU MAKE A DIFFERENCE. THANK YOU.
