Notice of online Academic Symposium and Call for Papers “Children in Distress”

October 19-20, 2022, at the Faculty of Law of the University of Białystok, Poland

The International Academy for the Study of the Jurisprudence of the Family (IASJF) is pleased to announce that it will hold its fourteenth international Symposium on “Children in Distress” on Wednesday and Thursday, October 19-20, 2022. The 2022 Symposium will be held online and hosted by the Faculty of Law of the University of Białystok, Poland. The Symposium will address the issues related to the topic from a juridical point of view; interdisciplinary presentations are also welcome.

The IASJF is an independent, interdisciplinary scholarly society that seeks to promote thoughtful consideration and discussion of the foundations of the family, including marriage, parenting, extended and other family relations (please visit our website at <http://www.iasjf.org/>). The IASJF has previously hosted academic symposia in USA, Argentina, Israel, Spain, Malta, Qatar, Poland, Peru, the Philippines, and Slovenia among others. The IASJF sponsors the International Journal of the Jurisprudence of the Family (IJJF), published by HeinOnline.

The Faculty of Law of the University of Białystok is one of the highest ranked law faculties in Poland. Two journals published by the Faculty, Białostockie Studia Prawnicze and Miscellanea Historico-Iuridica (this one edited by Prof. Piotr Fiedorczyk), are placed among the best law journals in Poland.

Persons wishing to present a scholarly paper at the symposium should submit a short abstract of the paper they propose (no more than 200 words) including a working title, name, institutional affiliation, and full contact information of the author(s), and a brief description of the proposed paper. Proposals should be sent to Professor Stefano Troiano (iasjf2022symposium@gmail.com) by September 12, 2022. Acceptances will be on a rolling-acceptance basis.
