OF KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA

FALL 1968

“And God said, Let there be light: and there was light.” (Genesis 1:3)

Light from that first dawn continues to bless God's universe. The light of sun and moon and stars, electric light illuminating the lives of millions, or the light of the single candle you hold—all dispel darkness.

In time, the darkness of ignorance is dispelled by the light of knowledge. One such significant moment of enlightenment which occurred a hundred years ago opened wide the doors of institutions of higher learning formerly closed to women. Seeking to improve their new opportunities for education, some of those early college girls established the first women's Greek letter societies. The meetings they held were exercises in improvement. They prepared and read literary papers; they tried out musical and artistic talents; they debated and practiced oratory. The first reproof on record administered by members to a fellow member was reserved for the girl whose literary paper was judged not up to standards.

Today when Kappas light candles in Kappa ceremonies, they do so to symbolize the light they have promised to cherish throughout their lives. The lighted candles memorialize lives of women in all the Kappa chapters, since 1870, and the promises they make to uphold truth and goodness, faith and honor and reverence for God and His creations.

“The power of our light is great, for better or worse. It is greater when we band together as in a sisterhood than when we stand alone.”

COVER: The traditional Memorial Service was held Sunday evening during Convention week in beautiful Trinity Episcopal Church. The candlelight ritual was conducted by director of philanthropies, Martha Galleher Cox, who acted as ritualist. Names of 540 Kappas deceased during the past biennium were read. Special mention was made of three former council members who have died: Georgia Hayden Lloyd-Jones, H-Wisconsin, National Director of Provinces, 1924-26; National President, 1926-30; Marion Ackley Chenoweth, B Δ-Michigan, National Vice-President, 1922-24; and George Challoner Tracy, H-Wisconsin, Grand Treasurer, 1904-06, Grand Secretary, 1906-08.

LOUISE LITTLE BARBECK
Gamma Phi-Southern Methodist University
Thirtieth President of Kappa Kappa Gamma

A welcome to the new President

Louise Little Barbeck of Dallas, Texas was elected the thirtieth president of Kappa Kappa Gamma by the 1968 Fraternity Convention at the Sheraton-Columbus Motor Hotel, Columbus, Ohio. We commend the convention's excellent choice . . . welcome "Lou" as a dynamic Kappa asset already known to many from her years of fraternity service . . . and seek to briefly introduce her to all of you who will be sharing her enthusiasm and vision of and for Kappa these next two years.

Southern Methodist University in Dallas was Lou's alma mater where she received her B.A. degree and was a member of Gamma Phi Chapter. She's been serving the Dallas alumnae ever since. Treasurer in 1947 and president of the Alumnae Association in 1948, she was president of the house board in 1949-50 when SMU found itself in Life magazine and other publications because of a fraternity first: 11 chapter houses were built at one time at the university, the Kappa house among them.

The year 1955 found Lou as Theta Province Director of Chapters. In 1956 she was appointed Chairman of Chapter Programs. She was elected to the Fraternity Council as Director of Chapters in 1958 and again in 1960; Director of Membership in 1962; Vice-President in 1964 and again in 1966; and now President. She is also an alternate to the National Panhellenic Conference and has represented Kappa at the National Association of Women Deans and Councilors meetings.

Lou has served her community and country in many other capacities, among them as staff assistant with the Red Cross in Dallas and Washington, D.C. during World War II. On a voluntary basis she assisted the Dallas Alumnae Association staff of the Cerebral Palsy Clinic for a number of years. Currently, Lou is on leave of absence as a staff assistant at Children's Medical Center in Dallas. She is a member of Lakewood Country Club, Tanglewood Hills and a book review club.

Four grandchildren are Lou's number one hobby. She is currently enlarging her home in anticipation of visiting time at grandmother's. Her two daughters, Kappa graduates of the University of Texas, are Ann Barbeck Woods of Shawnee Mission, Kansas and Sally Barbeck Cecil of Paris, Texas. The Pennywise Investment Club has been a stimulating "education" as well as hobby, too, Lou says.

So once again Kappa is blessed with outstanding leadership from one who truly gives of herself in every facet of a busy life. We're grateful Louise Little Barbeck has consented to serve her fraternity in this its highest office and are looking forward to reaching with her toward those high goals and aspirations she has for Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Kappas arrive at Convention

Happy faces arrive at Port Columbus.

The city of Kappa's Fraternity Headquarters was the site of the Forty-Seventh Biennial Convention held in the Sheraton-Columbus Motor Hotel June 13-19.

Located in the heart of America, Columbus, Ohio was selected for the 1968 Convention because of its easy accessibility and central location. The change from the traditional resort site to a large city was evident in the modern motel located in the center of downtown Columbus and within walking distance of the State House, capitol of Ohio.

Of great interest to Kappa delegates and visitors was the tour of Kappa Kappa Gamma Headquarters at 530 East Town Street. The historic Victorian home has been completely restored since the fire in 1965 and many of the historical gifts and antique furniture lend a Victorian atmosphere to the lovely home. In contrast are the modern offices and equipment which carry on the internal workings of the Fraternity. Members of the Columbus Alumnae Association served as hostesses for tours through Headquarters.

Columbus was also the convention site of the Fifteenth National Convention in 1900.

Room assignments and registration take up most of the first day's activities.

A warm greeting for the alumnae delegates and visitors.

Looking skyward in front of the modern Sheraton-Columbus Motor Hotel are Jane Emig Ford, B N-Ohio State (right), who was in charge of photography at Convention, and her assistant, Jane R. Douglass, B N-Ohio State, a member of Fraternity Headquarters staff.

Meditation-

“You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. Neither do men light a candle and put it under a bushel, but put it on a candlestick and it gives light unto all that are in the house. Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in Heaven.” Matthew 5:13-16.

When you arrive at the border of a strange country you are met by customs men who ask: What have you to declare? You open your trunks and your suitcases and there amid the everyday clothes and personal trivia you come upon special things worthy of your attention and that of the customs men.

In early summer young people are going out from universities and schools. They are entering strange countries. They have treasures and useful things to declare.

The knowledge they have stored away will help them bring this new world into focus. The thoughts, feelings and emotions which they have accumulated will control their behavior. How they put together knowledge, thoughts and actions will decide their standards of living and their happiness.

At this significant point in time, the future is not a book that can be read at leisure, but a journey which forces itself upon you day after day. It is a journey on which every skill, every wise thought, every rule of behavior and every ounce of stored-up power will be put to use.

It is characteristic of intelligent people that they live largely in the future, mapping out the route to be taken, working toward realization and their aim; all this is part of the joy of living.

The great thing is to advance so that you feel at the end of your career you have in some measure fulfilled the potentialities that you now believe yourself to possess.

To every man there openeth a way and ways and a way. And the high soul climbs the high way, and the low soul gropes the low, and in between on the misty paths the rest drift to and fro. But to every man there openeth, a high way and a low, and every man decideth the way his soul shall go.

The state of the Fraternity

*Excerpts from the biennial report of the Fraternity President
Frances Fatout Alexander*

The biennial report of the Fraternity President includes a compilation of reports of the Council officers and Fraternity chairmen. Highlights of these reports are excerpted for KEY readers.

"The Fraternity Vice-President is responsible for the fraternity appreciation program in the active chapters. . . . This year's format was changed and the approach was to the chapter council to evaluate its chapter in the special areas of national affiliation, standards, pledge training, ritual and membership. The response was good and the information gathered will prove helpful to officers and chairmen as they plan for future programs.

"An exciting new program of this biennium was the establishment of the Associate Council Seminar, under the direct supervision of the Directors of Chapters and Alumnae. The 24 province officers who play such a vital and important part in communicating with actives and alumnae on the local level, were brought into Columbus last June (1967) for an intensive training session with the Council and chairmen. The results were immediately apparent in the work of the Associate Council this year. . . .

"Over 90 percent of all Kappa chapters were found to be in top or good condition on their campuses. One area carefully scrutinized was scholarship. . . . Our chapters still rank among the top three with 17 in first place, 16 in second and 12 chapters in third on their respective campuses. Kappa is concerned that the individual achieve her greatest potential. In a day when woman-power is essential, the goal should be to assist each member to realize fully her educational opportunities. . . . Structured scholarship programs are the suggestion for the formation of good scholarship habits. . . . Good scholarship does not generally happen by accident; it must be aided and encouraged and stimulated. . . .

"For over eight years now, Kappa has attempted by way of its Fraternity Cultural Program to help its chapters create an intellectual awareness beyond the classroom. . . . Hopefully, the Cultural Chairman may be able to inspire some of these who still lag, although she reports the growth and development of this program is fantastic during this biennium.

Fraternity officers are always interested in what we call "Upgrading the pledge program," through new ideas and new techniques. Since no one program can meet the needs of all

President Alexander as she greeted guests at the Council Reception the opening evening. The Fraternity is delighted to hear that Mrs. Alexander has agreed to accept the chairmanship of the Fraternity Research and Advisory committee. The Key, on behalf of the Fraternity, extends thanks to her for the fine leadership she has given to Kappa Kappa Gamma as Fraternity President the past four years.

chapters the Chairman recommends greater flexibility and an evaluation of the program in an effort to offer that needed flexibility.

"Kappa is a life-time organization for women. One is never more aware of this until she reads the reports of the work being carried on by the 359 alumnæ groups of this Fraternity. . . . At most, one may enjoy four years of active life, but one's entire adult lifetime is spent as an alumnæ member.

"The Director of Alumnæ feels that the time and interest given by our members in the service of others, provides the basis for the immense pride felt by all Kappas. . . . It is not by accident that Kappa Kappa Gamma has many more alumnæ groups than any other like organization. That spark of loyalty and challenge, struck during active days has blazed into a flame that warms and gives added meaning to alumnæ years. . . .

"The Director of Philanthropies reports that philanthropic expenditures for this biennium have totaled $106,921.13. This includes 80 undergraduate scholarships, 108 emergency grants, 27 fellowships, four foreign study fellowships, nine foreign student scholarships, 30 rehabilitation scholarships, and 13 graduate counselor scholarships for a total of 271. . . . The Rose McGill Fund has assisted 19 ill or needy members. . . . Scholarship grants are provided almost entirely by gifts.

Discoveries, 1968

A condensation of the Keynote address by Dr. Noah Langdale, President, Georgia State College

From the outset I want to typify what I consider the reason that it is necessary for someone to sound the note of the columbine idea of the American dream, Discoveries. . . . Either we are going to live in the Western World under the Jewish-Christian Code and continue to make discoveries or else we are going to retreat back into and abandon the thought that man has to make any discoveries. . . .

On the one hand is the American dream and what it stands for, including the formation of a woman's fraternity in 1870. On the other hand is the withdrawal, sneeringly and sarcastically, into one's own concept of self-sufficiency. . . .

Man must take time to make discoveries and give birth to our world dream of the American concept, of going out and doing and being. . . . What I am saying is that our country's greatness lies in the fact that we discovered that man could worship God freely. We discovered that he had rights, privileges and immunities, the ability to do his work and have its rewards. And finally the discovery that he could trust the common man with the right to vote and make decisions. . . .

We have made discoveries in the laboratories of human affairs and studies of sociology and philosophy. For seven thousand years mankind has had each generation growing up with the young imitating their parents. . . . Do you realize that for the first time in seven thousand years our discoveries tell us the young no longer imitate their parents. They imitate their peers; they imitate each other. This is what is behind much of what you have seen and heard. This is the breakdown where it is said, when the students come before me, "I cannot talk to my father and mother." . . .

Man today wants to destroy 2000 years of Jewish-Christian progress and 6000 years of development, freeing the soul and freeing the choice, giving him rights and privileges and immunity, the right to have this selection which makes you what you are today. . . . When Mr. Robert Ruark wrote of Africa today and the changing times, he entitled it "Something of Value," because, and I paraphrase the opening content where he says, "If a man comes and breaks the goods and changes the life of another, he should leave something of value in their place." I think the greatest aspect of your service as an organization in modern world thinking is to give something of value, to give the best grade ever made, to give us the finest scholarships ever developed, to provide for us the newest motivational patterns of involving the human education of our time. . . .

If any chapter house or segment of this mother-body wishes to destroy the due process of conserving the best of the past or making the best of the future from what we have now, you will have destroyed the chance to make the great discovery which I will make for you, that you cannot throw away your protocol, your procedure and the balance of the wisdom which makes your rules of conduct. . . .

I ask you to be your brother's brother and to know the dream of our country. To practice the due process of your great mother-body and I ask you to understand that if you follow a false God, to some extent imitating each other, then your experience is limited and your wisdom is less. . . .

You have a group of people ranging from 16 to almost 90. You will belong to this organization all your life. You cannot possibly ever forgive yourself for dishonoring it. . . .

You are going to protect the American dream with your right, privileges, power by due process. You are going to cooperate, considering your mother organization and your chapter regulations. Either you are going to live in a pristinely pure sense more-or-less or you are going to drop out and turn off. Or you are going to succeed magnificently or you are going to fail miserably. That is the greatest discovery you can make. . . .

Those who were founders in 1870 and whose names you sit here and honor, expect you to make your choice and you are going to make discoveries. You are going to have to discover how and why these matters of human involvement in such form were originated and where they are still important. . . .

I close with the words of the great commoner, Mr. Abraham Lincoln. Mr. Lincoln said this statement to the Congress of the United States, "You shall either nobly save or you will meanly lose the last best hope of earth." You in this room shall either nobly save or you will meanly lose the last best hope of earth which is the American dream. . . .

A report of the reference study committee was made to the convention by Harriet L. French, chairman. She explained that the committee was appointed by the Fraternity Council in the spring of 1968, to study the reference system and to make recommendations to the 1970 convention.

The committee, in addition to the chairman, consists of representatives from three active chapters, and three alumnae with different backgrounds in the various phases of membership selection.

The committee met prior to convention and during the week conferred with actives, alumnae, and officers upon request. An open meeting of the committee was held to afford all in attendance to ask questions and to make recommendations.

Experts discuss narcotics

The problem of narcotics on today's college campuses was discussed by a panel of professionals and experts in their fields. Heading the panel was Dr. John Bonner, executive dean for student relations at Ohio State University.

The subject was examined from three points of view: the pharmacologist, the psychiatrist and the college administrator.

Dr. Tye

Dr. Arthur Tye, professor of pharmacy at Ohio State, opened the panel with the pharmacologist's point of view. He said:

"Drugs have become a major problem since World War II. With the growing sophistication among people, a great deal more is known about drugs.

"With this increasing sophistication, there has been abuse of drugs. People are interested; they want to know what drugs will do. The greatest increase in the mis-use of drugs has been with barbiturates and amphetamines.

"The barbiturates are central nervous system depressants. The modern physician could not do without them, but improperly used, they can lead to a great deal of damage.

"Amphetamine is a very useful drug if you want to stimulate the central nervous system. On the other hand, you can imagine the possibility for abuses are very great. Among college students for years there have been certain abuses of amphetamines.

"Many children get their start on drugs by inhalation or sniffing of glue, model airplane cement, gasoline, lighter fluid, nail polish or similar products. Inhalation of these agents initially achieves a pleasant excitation which is followed by drowsiness, dizziness and a noticeable slurring of the speech. While the local signs of irritation are obvious, organic damage to the central nervous system, liver, kidney and bone marrow is hidden and serious damage or sickness can arise.

"There are many individuals who begin their drug dependence with marijuana. Most of the users are thrill-seekers, intrigued by the idea of doing something illegal. Under the influence of marijuana, time, distance and sound are magnified and the person undergoes intoxicating dreams. Our primary concern is not an abuse of marijuana per se, but it is the experience marijuana leads to, to the more serious form of drug use.

"Certainly, the current fad of experimentation with psychedelic and hallucinogenic drugs has blossomed into a very serious problem. LSD is the most potent of the hallucinogens. The effects of a given dose are influenced by previous experiences, immediate environment and expectations of the subject. Of all the senses, vision is most affected. There is a profound feeling of insight and revelation. The principal problem seems to arise from a bizarre "bad" trip which often results in permanent disorganization.

"I do feel as a pharmacologist, that drugs are substances which cannot change the human being. All they do is change the fundamental processes. They may modify them, speed them up, slow them down, distort them. There are many things in this world which will increase our insight and broaden our experience, but not drugs, because drugs do not really broaden, they merely distort."

Dr. Butcher

The psychiatric view of narcotics was next reviewed by Dr. Wendell A. Butcher, a consulting psychiatrist for Ohio Wesleyan. His comments follow.

"In my experience and in the experience of fellow psychiatrists throughout the country, it has been that the people who become abusers of drugs are people who have a personality defect which they express by a desire in some way to change their environment, to distort their environment in a way by which they can feel more comfortable."

"The major problem with the amphetamine products is the psychological dependence which a person acquires as a result of the stimulation the drug has given. If the drug is removed, we are very likely to run into a prolonged depression which may go on for several months and they do require quite frequently, hospitalization and definitive mechanisms that we use to treat any depression.

Flag Bearers, left, Janice Johnson, Δ B-Duke, visitor, and Mary Louise Lehman, Γ P-Allegheny, graduate counselor, lead the convention precessional.

"LSD, as you know, has been a popular drug to avoid reality, to get hallucinations. We are finding, however, that the after-effect of LSD seems to be very disturbing. There is the phenomenon known as the flashback to users, which is a recurrence of the hallucinogenic experiences without the drugs. To the best of our knowledge, this can happen any time up to a year, a year and a half after the person has stopped using LSD.

"I want to talk about the extent of the use of marijuana in the United States today. It has been estimated that 60 per cent of the college students of today have tried marijuana. Of those who tried it, relatively few become heavy users. There are three very strong reasons to avoid using marijuana: The lowered production of the individual who becomes a heavy user; the possibility of this being the beginning of a series of steps which lead perhaps to the use of one of the so-called hard narcotics, morphine, heroin, etc; and the significant point that people who have used marijuana have a reduced sexual drive."

Dean Forsythe

Dean Margaret Forsythe, dean of women at Ohio Wesleyan, gave the college administrator's view on the drug problem. She commented:

"First, what are the reasons that make drugs so attractive? One is the age-old interest in the forbidden. A second is rebellion. A third, is that people, who by their own admission do try marijuana (perhaps LSD,) will be likeable. You find them very personable. You will consequently deny everyone who says to you this is a bad route to take.

"A fourth reason is they provide an escape even from one's self or perhaps an improvement, in the user's mind, in one's self. A fifth reason, the experimental interest in anything which is new. I think one thing, too, is the fact that we are in a pill-taking society. We have a limited degree of tolerance for any discomfort.

The biggest thing is the need for education, the need for early education of people who can't handle themselves or life. This means perhaps a closer working together between us and pledge supervisors. We also need something which helps us identify the root of the problem. We need to know what the dimensions are and what campus opportunities need to be expanded. People should have a chance to sit around after dinner discussing and illustrating these things.

"You should be at a place where ideas are conscious, rational and where you explore critically. We can't stipulate where this challenge is going to lie, but we hope we can expand the various possibilities for it, which are apart from the drug user. I would submit that for the college student who is critically thinking and looking at her environment, there are things we can do which do not involve us in continuing the pill-taking society."

Dr. Bonner

In closing the panel discussion, Dr. Bonner made the following remarks:

"I think we have to bear in mind when we are talking about these young people of active chapters, and I am talking to the alumnæ now, that it is the finest college generation

Iota Presents Rituals

Several old rituals were presented to President Alexander by Joy Fauver of Iota chapter, DePauw. The rituals had been found in their archives and will be placed in Fraternity Headquarters.

On accepting the rituals, Mrs. Alexander said, "These are old, old hand-painted initiation rituals. They are very, very priceless and precious to us and they should, of course, be in our Fraternity Headquarters with our other memorabilia."

Iota delegate Joy Fauver and President Alexander.

"The New Morality"

A digest of the Convention talk by Jenkin Lloyd Jones, editor and publisher, Tulsa Tribune

"The New Morality" was discussed by Jenkin Lloyd Jones, editor and publisher of the Tulsa Tribune. Mr. Jones was introduced by President Alexander as a Kappa son, a Kappa husband, a Kappa brother, a Kappa brother-in-law and a Kappa father-in-law. Parts of his speech follow.

"One of the big arguments in favor of the new morality is that it will end hypocrisy. Obviously, it would be ridiculous to be hypocritical if no one cared how you behaved, but as long as there are rules and such things as acceptable codes of behavior, some people are going to violate them and pretend that they didn't. . . .

"Gradually we have been knocking the hard edges off the stone tablets that held the Ten Commandments. Among too many of our people the word is out to despise the 'squares.' There is admiration for the angle-player, the corner-cutter and the fast dealer. . . .

"I am disturbed at the new nihilism. I am disturbed at the number of preachers who have spent the last few years peddling the doctrine that it is a high and noble thing to violate any law with which one disagrees. . . .

"I am intrigued at the avowed campaign by the so-called 'Students for Democratic Society' to take physical control of American colleges and universities. Theoretically, this is in the interest of total freedom, although oddly, the SDS led the mobs which shouted down Dean Rusk and General Hershey. This seems a rather selective form of freedom. . . .

"The human sexual dilemma is a very old and very great one. . . . The older civilizations have experimented in all directions many times, so the man who talks about a 'new morality' has been cutting his history classes. . . .

"The so-called 'new morality' won't work. At least it won't work with human-kind in its present state of evolution, and evolution moves slowly. It won't work because it isn't new. There is nothing in it that hasn't repeatedly failed within recorded history. It has produced chaos and confusion and social disorganization and heartbreak. It is the most alluring fraud of the moment only because a distressing number of intelligent and even educated people don't seem to understand what has gone before.

"I presume we could try it for a while and eventually recover until some stronger, more Puritanical civilization took us over which is usually the history of civilization, but the hang-over of Puritanism, which a binge of licentiousness eventually produces, is itself a cruel sickness.

"The true aim of civilization is not to swing between extremes of behavior but to seek that level of law performance and pleasure in which safety is assured, in which prosperity is promoted, talents flourish freely and the children know who papa is.

"At the entrance to the primrose path of the 'new morality' there is a sign. It reads: 'To Nowheresville.' I doubt if we'd even enjoy the trip."

"Today, there are 18,072 dues-paying members who are represented by 359 alumnæ associations and clubs in the United States, Canada, England and Mexico.

"The biennium 1966-68 was again a period of record accomplishment. Total alumnæ membership shows an increase over two years ago, giving a new record of paid alumnæ members.

"During the biennium seven new alumnæ clubs St. Joseph-Benton Harbor, Michigan; Jefferson City, Missouri; Flagstaff, Arizona; Huntington County, Indiana, Indian River, Florida, Broward County, Florida; and Mexico City, Mexico Northern Orange County, California and Princeton, New Jersey changed to associations. Eight clubs and two associations found it necessary to disband, resulting in an overall decrease of three groups. There are now 176 associations and 183 clubs.

McNaboe Awards

Winners of the Almira Johnson McNaboe Awards were announced by Dorothy Sherman Stokes, former Province Director of Alumnæ in Kappa Province and present assistant to the Director of Membership. These awards went to the alumnæ associations and clubs which had excelled in organization and service during the past biennium.

CLUBS:

Piedmont, North Carolina, winner, awarded for outstanding effort, enthusiasm and interest and for a very ambitious and successful ways and means project.

Gainesville, Florida, runner-up, awarded for expansion of goals and activities, dynamic, efficient leadership and great enthusiasm for Kappa.

Decatur, Illinois, honorable mention, awarded for their great strides forward in appreciation of Fraternity.

Lehigh Valley, Pennsylvania, honorable mention, awarded for over-all excellence and the fostering of Panhellenic spirit.

Midland, Texas, honorable mention, awarded for efforts and achievements in fostering Kappa standards and Fraternity public relations.

thropy program amounted to over $52,000.00 this year, an increase of nearly $20,000.00 over last year. Substantial gains were reported from every province.

"For the third consecutive year, Beta Province, with 26 alumnae groups, has achieved 100 per cent participation in contributing to Kappa scholarships and assistance programs.

"The total funds contributed locally for philanthropic programs are slightly over $100,000.00. Add to this the 85,000 hours of personal service given as labors of love for our fellow man, and it is easy to see and point with pride at the difference our activities as Kappas make to those less fortunate than we.

"Active chapters received gifts totaling over $42,000.00 during the biennium. Sums are donated as scholarship loans; leadership awards are presented; snacks and meals for rush parties, exam days and fraternity celebrations are happily supplied.

"We can't overlook that great ingredient that the active chapters give us—you give us alumnae. You give us our strength. You give us our hope for the future and you give us our leaders.

"I did a tally last month when the new alumnae officer list arrived and found a beautiful pattern of chapter representation reflected among our alumnae presidents. Five particular chapters are the Kappa "birth-place" of 60 alumnae presidents serving this year. They are: Beta Xi, University of Texas,

Kappas of Achievement

Four outstanding Kappas were honored at Convention with the Alumnae Achievement Award bringing the total to 86 who have achieved recognition in their chosen professions or business careers since 1945. Three were present to receive their awards, Jane P. Cahill, $\Gamma \Psi$ -Maryland; Susan W. Rockwood, B P Δ -Cincinnati; and Elinor Kiess Rose, K-Hillsdale. Unable to be present at the convention was the fourth winner, Marguerite Wykoff Zapoleon, B P Δ -Cincinnati.

The awards were presented by Kathryn Wolf Luce, $\Gamma \Omega$ -Denison, chairman of the Foreign Study-Foreign Student Scholarships committee. She spoke of the winners, "Not only are they outstanding in their chosen careers, but they also bring honor to our fraternity."

JANE PENNINGTON CAHILL, $\Gamma \Psi$ -Maryland, is an administrative assistant to the Chairman of the Board of the IBM Corporation in Armonk, New York. Miss Cahill has had extensive experience in the IBM Federal Systems Division in Washington, D.C., Endicott, New York, Bermuda, Bethesda, and Rockville, Maryland. In 1961 she was a site manager for IBM in Bermuda and then became recruitment manager, Washington Systems Center in Bethesda until 1964. The next two years she was manager of personnel plans, employment and placement in Rockville, then became manager of personnel at the space systems center in Bethesda for nine months. From September, 1966, to September, 1967, she was a White House Fellow, assigned to Secretary Robert C. Weaver, Department of Housing and Urban Development. During that time she became administrative assistant to the Secretary. Miss Cahill is a member of the Board of Directors for the Washington, D.C. Mental Health Association; and the American Association of University Women. In college she was president of her chapter and later served as an alumnae adviser. She was a speech and drama major and received a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1954. She has done graduate work at Catholic University, Dunbarton College and Georgetown University.

SUSAN WILLIAMS ROCKWOOD, B P Δ -Cincinnati, is associate professor of microbiology and director of the medical technology program at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio. Born in Cincinnati, Ohio, Dr. Rockwood graduated from the University of Cincinnati with an M.A. and Ph.D. in microbiology. She received her B.A. from Denison where she was affiliated with $\Gamma \Omega$. Before going to Miami U. in 1962 she held various positions as a laboratory technologist, clinical laboratory supervisor, research bacteriologist, instructor in bacteriology and nursing, and holder of a fellowship in surgical bacteriology at Cincinnati General Hospital. A member of the Registry of Medical Technologists, and of the Society for American Microbiologists, Dr. Rockwood is also listed in American Men of Science and in the 1968 "Leaders in Science" of Who's Who in Education. She has been honored by Miami University as the faculty member most actively involved in student life, and has twice been named by Panhellenic and IFC as the outstanding adviser on the campus as chapter council adviser for $\Delta \Lambda$. For the year 1965-66 she was named the University Woman of the Year by the Association of Women Students. Dr. Rockwood is author and co-author of a number of articles published in scientific journals. In addition to all of this, she is Fraternity chairman of Undergraduate and Emergency Scholarships.

ELINOR KIESS ROSE, K-Hillsdale, is a syndicated writer of light verse. Her quatrains appear in many newspapers and her verse and prose have appeared in Reader's Digest, Good Housekeeping, Saturday Evening Post, McCall's, Christian Herald, The Writer, Writer's Digest, Wall Street Journal and the Detroit News Sunday Magazine. She is the author of three books: Rhyme and Reason, Sugar and Spice, and Relax, Chum. She picks up most of her ideas in the chit-chat clubs, church, school events, and the supermarket. She identifies herself with the daily incidents and frustrations of life and comes up smiling. After graduation from high school in Montpelier, Ohio, Mrs. Rose graduated cum laude from Hillsdale College. She did graduate work at Michigan State University and Ohio State University. For 10 years she has been a judge of the Scholastic Writing Awards in Detroit and for the past five years has been a member of the staff of the Oakland Writer's Conference. Her memberships include $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$, Board of Women Commissioners of Hillsdale College, and International Platform Speakers. She has received the Hillsdale College Achievement Award and the "Writer of the Year" award given by the Detroit Women Writers. She is listed in Who's Who in the Midwest, Who's Who of American Women, and the Dictionary of International Biography, London. Her husband, Dana Rose, is assistant vice president of Michigan Bell Telephone Co. They have three sons, Stuart, Douglas, and Bruce.

MARGUERITE WYKOFF ZAPOLEON, B PA-Cincinnati, is an economic consultant and author of articles and books on occupations and employment. A past editor of Vocational Guidance Quarterly, Mrs. Zapoleon has had more than 20 years of experience in various branches of government. She spent six years as Chief of the Employment Opportunities Branch of the Women's Bureau and four years as special assistant for the Occupational Outlook Service of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, Department of Labor. She has been a lecturer, and workshop leader, and was on the faculty of the Adult Counselor Program in Washington teaching counseling techniques for adults seeking employment or retraining. A former special assistant to the director, Women's Bureau, Department of Labor, she has had access to facts pertaining to women and the role they play in the total labor force in the U.S. Much of this has been compiled in her books: The College Girl Looks Ahead to her Career Opportunities; Occupational Planning for Women; and Girls and Their Futures. She has also contributed to a number of publications and journals with her writing on the numerous aspects of vocational work. Born in Cincinnati, she graduated from the University of Cincinnati and did graduate work at the New York School of Social Work, the London School of Economics and at American University. She and her husband now reside in Florida.

Some comments from the achievement award winners follow:

Miss Cahill: "I think when I reflect on Kappa, three thoughts come to my mind. One is excellence and one is commitment and one is responsibility. Today with the very serious problems politically and economically and socially that are affecting our country, it is more and more important that these three words be very much a part of both our active chapters and alumnae chapters, so that Kappa will continue to have relevancy in our society. Particularly the young women in this audience under 25 have a key part to play in all of this; so I urge each of you to see that you get from Kappa and take from Kappa and give to Kappa things that it has stood for: excellence and responsibility and commitment."

Dr. Rockwood: "I can only underline what Jane Cahill has said before me and that is commitment, responsibility, backbone, determination, bulldogedness, if you will. No barrier should stand in your way. Kappa has meant to me these things. To achieve in any field, any area, you have to work for someone beside yourself and something other than yourself. We feel that these works that we are doing individually, all of us here in this room and on this platform, are the things that we want to do. As long as we can achieve success or goals or our dreams, then indeed we have been rewarded by our fraternity experience and we wish to bring whatever honor we can to you because you have given it to us."

Mrs. Rose: "I am going to take just a minute allowed me to give you one sample of the five thousand plus verses that have been published. When I was in college, one of the girls in my sorority was a perfectly gorgeous looking creature and I used to think, 'Oh, if I could just look like Marj, I would mow them down.' Well, I saw Marj several years ago and, while I'm sure we have been falling apart at the same rate, I discovered one very interesting thing which I tried to put in verse called 'Memo to an Average Girl': 'You see a girl that's prettier, don't envy her, pity her. When years go by, as years will do, she has more looks to lose than you.'"

Alumnae Loyalty Award

The highest award the Fraternity can give to an alumna is the Loyalty Award and this year the seventh Kappa to be honored was Rheva Ott Shryock, B A-Pennsylvania. Chosen biennially by the Council, this award is based upon loyalty, devotion and service to the Fraternity. It is given by Helen Cornish Hutchinson, B Θ-Oklahoma, former Director of Alumnae, in honor of past Fraternity President, Helena Flinn Ege.

Mrs. Shryock is a former Fraternity president and has been Kappa's parliamentarian since 1952. She received her B.S. from Pennsylvania, M.A. from Ohio State University and took further graduate study at Syracuse, University of Minnesota and University of Vienna. She was a former bacteriologist but later became a professional parliamentarian. In 1947, King Haakon of Norway awarded her the Liberation Medal for her work with the Kappa Layette program. Her service to Kappa has been in various capacities but constant through the years.

Happy smiles and much applause for Mrs. Shryock.

"Counseling Today's Undergraduate"

*Advisers hear Jane E. McCormick
Dean of Women, University of Tennessee*

"Counseling Today's Undergraduate" was the theme of an adviser's seminar led by Jane E. McCormick, Δ A-Penn State, dean of women at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville. Miss McCormick was introduced by Elizabeth Monahan Volk, PΔ-Ohio Wesleyan, assistant to the director of chapters. In analyzing today's undergraduate, Miss McCormick said;

"There is one big pressure that we see and this is simply the pressure for admission. Many of the problems that arise during the early months of college are simply a result of the release of the pressure of admission to the university.

"Then unfortunately, some of our students are not finding the academic challenge that they expected. Thus, they turn to other areas for challenge and excitement. This is where we sometimes become involved. Our students have other pressures: for performance in the classroom; to continue in a particular curriculum; to receive a degree; to be admitted to graduate school. These are all types of pressures that our students are undergoing and I call these the tangible kinds of pressures because most of them involve the individual decision of a student and a professor. But they are pressures and we must recognize them. There are others, the most subtle kind. The simple pressure of independence. . . .

"Entering a university leads to many very complex decisions for any woman. The college woman must make determinations not only in terms of the academic curriculum she will follow, but what career she might want to pursue; make decisions about marriage; and what will come when, and which is more important at what particular time in her life. . . .

Elizabeth Volk introduces Dean Jane E. McCormick, speaker at advisers seminar.

"A sorority can contribute a great deal to the process of helping the college woman reach some of these mature adult decisions. . . . Our students, as we know, are no longer students on the campus, they are students of the community and the world . . . They have new pressures, but they also have the new freedoms . . . The new freedoms available to them in terms of literature and access to drugs, alcohol, birth control information, premarital sex information, all of this has been presented to the student . . .

"With the new freedoms, it behooves us to provide a program and give more accurate, legitimate information to our students on these questions . . . It is no longer a question of 'should I or shouldn't I drink, smoke, take drugs, be in-olved in premarital intercourse,' but it is rather 'what is meaningful and good as I see it based on what I have been taught and what I believe.' This is the question I think students are asking. 'How does it affect me as a person?' . . .

"Regardless of the many questions in this area and the type of community that we are, a university and a sorority must have ground rules. Now I grant you that some rules may appear to be outdated and outmoded and need reexamination, but there are some that we cannot change and that cannot be rationalized away . . .

We can set goals and we can remind students of their heritage, but the individual member must be encouraged by example and understanding.

New Field Secretaries appointed

JAN W. SINGLETON graduated last spring from the University of Mississippi with a B.A. in education. She was president for her chapter, Delta Rho, as well as scholarship chairman, public relations chairman, pledge class secretary and model initiate.

Engaging in numerous house committee activities, Jan worked on the homecoming decorations, nominating, pledge, house, personnel, finance, activities, and campaign planning for campus elections committees.

Her campus activities also kept her busy as assistant features editor of Ole Miss, the school annual, vice-president of YWCA, co-chairman and secretary of the Committee of 100, Freshman Council president, and Associated Student Body committees including welcoming, freshman orientation, homecoming, and elections commission.

Jan's honors include Mortar Board, Honor Roll for four semesters Cwens (sophomore honorary) and she is listed in Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

Among her favorite hobbies are water skiing and swimming as well as just keeping busy.

LORETTA M. McCARTHY received a degree in business administration last spring from the University of Arizona, while majoring in marketing-advertising. As well as being president of her chapter, Gamma Zeta, she served as activities chairman, assistant pledge trainer, pledge class president, and was chosen the outstanding pledge.

Her school activities included secretary-treasurer of the Student Union Activities Board, chairman of the Student Union displays committee and movies committee, and she received two University Service Medallions. Loretta is a member of the Speakers' Board, Spurs, T A X (advertising) and the Little Sisters of Minerva.

The past two summers Loretta has spent working in Yellowstone National Park and as a summer intern in the office of Senator Carl Hayden of Arizona in Washington. Politics is one of her favorite hobbies as are art and swimming.

Loretta has three Kappa sisters and one brother. She eventually plans to study for a master's degree in business administration.

JANE H. EDWARDS graduated with honors in English education last spring from the University of Maryland. Transferring to Maryland her junior year, Jane was elected house president of Gamma Psi chapter. She was initiated into Delta Eta chapter at the University of Utah and served there as activities chairman. Other chapter activities include membership on the rush, homecoming, scholarship, pledge, and social committees.

At the University of Utah she was vice-president of Spurs, AWS publicity chairman and society editor of the school newspaper. At Maryland she was a member of Diamond sorority honorary, and K Δ Π (education).

Jane's hobbies are varied, but she likes anything outdoors such as camping and hiking in the Utah mountains. For the past two summers her favorite activity has been running rivers and she has taken four river trips down the Yampa, Green and Colorado Rivers.

For the past two summers she has been working with underprivileged children in a day camp and says she finds the work exciting and rewarding. Other pastimes include dabbling in oil painting, making stuffed animals and leather moccasins, cartooning and writing poetry. But her very greatest interest is people.

A flaming finale to a grand convention.

New officers and chairmen

Fraternity Vice-President

PHYLLIS BRINTON PRYOR, B M-Colorado, is the newest member of the Council elected as Vice-President at convention. She moves to that position from the office of Eta Province Director of Chapters which she has held since 1965. From 1961-65 she was Eta Province Director of Alumnae. Born in Cripple Creek, Colorado, Phyllis was raised in Denver and attended the University of Colorado where she earned a B.A. majoring in English literature.

While a member of Beta Mu she was elected chapter president and also was president of the College Panhellenic. She has continued her Kappa interest in alumnae work as vice-president and president of the Denver Alumnae Association, Chapter Council adviser and chairman of the Advisory Board for Beta Mu, and Denver City Panhellenic alternate and delegate.

Phyllis is immediate past president and now second vice-president of the Board of Denver Children's Home. She is handicap chairman of Cherry Hills Country Club lady golfers. As treasurer and president of the Auxiliary Services Unit of the University of Colorado Medical Center, she has spent 1800 hours as a hospital volunteer. Other past community activities include Colorado Hospital Association Council on Auxiliaries, President of Board of Denver Symphony Debs, Denver Cotillion Board, Junior League of Denver and recently a sustaining representative. She has been chairman of the Arthritis Craft Shop and Board and a board member of the Rocky Mountain Chapter of Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation.

Her husband, Wib, is a partner in a law firm in Denver and they have three children. Susan attended the University of Colorado where she was a member of Beta Mu chapter. She graduated in 1963, attended law school at Northwestern and was married last April to John Tindall Wilson, a Chicago attorney. Mike graduated from Dartmouth in 1967 and is a sophomore at Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia. Peter, 13 years old, is in the eighth grade.

When time permits Phyllis enjoys spending leisure hours with golf, gardening, books, music and the theatre.

Eta Province Director of Chapters

CHERRY MOSLANDER RIDGES, Δ H-Utah, is the new Eta Province Director of Chapters replacing Phyllis Pryor. A 1952 graduate of the University of Utah with a B.S. in education, Cherry was assistant rush and rush chairman for Delta Eta chapter.

After graduation she taught school two years and then became a registered representative (account executive) for Schwabacher & Co., a member of the New York Stock Exchange. She was married in 1957 to Stephen W. Ridges, vice president and co-owner of Ridges Engraving and Color Scanning Center. They have one daughter, Susan, nine.

Cherry has been active in alumnae work in Salt Lake City where she was president and vice-president of the alumnae association there. She served as social adviser to Delta Eta two years, membership adviser for seven years, active member of Panhellenic evaluation and advisory committee, alumnae delegate to 1957 province convention, 1961 adviser delegate to province convention and adviser delegate to the 1964 general convention in Sun Valley.

Among her community activities she is a member of the Junior League of Salt Lake and board member for three years, board member of Holladay Children's Center for the Emotionally Disturbed Pre-School Child, and the Utah Council of Girl Scouts. She has been a Brownie leader for the past two years.

Sewing is a favorite hobby and avocation for Cherry as she teaches sewing to teens and adults. She does decorative painting and stitching and loves to work on remodeling their older home. She has torn out walls and owns her own sabre saw. When she finds time, she enjoys her favorite sport, skiing in "the greatest snow on earth . . . Alta, Utah."

Alpha Province Director of Chapters

VIRGINIA POAD ZECHMAN, Ψ -Cornell, better known as Jinny, is the new Alpha Province Director of Chapters. After attending convention this June, she and her family moved from Skaneateles, New York, to the Boston area. Her husband, Russel, is a salesman for Commercial Carpet

Corporation, and they have two children, Linda, 13 and Andy, 10. The other member of their family is "Elle" (pronounced Ellie) who is a "very, very shaggy black toy poodle."

Jinny attended Cornell two years and left school to be married. For seven years she has been membership adviser to Beta Tau chapter at Syracuse. She has been the leader for a "lively" group of Cadette Girl Scouts and has served four years on the executive board of the Skaneateles Elementary School Mothers' Club in the positions of recording secretary, book fair chairman, director and immediate past president.

She has worked with A.F.S. in Skaneateles and in her spare time has had as many as 14 guitar students. For the past two summers she has played banjo with a Dixieland Band, an all-male group from Syracuse, well-known in the Central New York area and Jinny says "very good when I don't play!"

Beta Province Director of Chapters

DONNA SYMMONDS CLEMSON, Δ A-Penn State, became the new Beta Province Director of Chapters last April. She is the busy mother of five children and her husband, Frank, is an employment service supervisor for the Pennsylvania Bureau of Employment Security, State College office. They live in Bellefonte, Pennsylvania.

Donna was graduated from Penn State in 1955 with a B.A. in journalism. She served Delta Alpha chapter as music chairman, corresponding secretary, marshal and was elected the outstanding senior. In her alumnae work she has been president of the State College Alumnae Association two terms, chapter council and public relations adviser for Delta Alpha, and has attended two Fraternity conventions.

Currently Donna is adviser to The Daily Collegian and the executive secretary of Collegian, Inc., publisher of The Daily Collegian, the Penn State student newspaper. From 1957 to 1967 she was general news and features reporter for the Centre Daily Times at State College-Bellefonte, and before that she worked on the Huntington Daily News and Meadville Tribune.

Donna has received numerous awards for her writing ability including a first and third in the Pennsylvania Associated Press Managing Editors Association contest for enterprising news writing; two firsts and a second in the Keystone Press Award contest for news feature series and government news series; several awards from the Pennsylvania Women's Press Association for news and photo features and editorials. She is listed in the 1967 edition of Outstanding Young Women of America.

The Clemson family (seated) Kirk, Angelique, Drew, (standing) Leslee, Chris, Donna and Frank.

Chapter Publications Chairman

DIANE PRETTYMAN DEWALL, Θ -Missouri, takes over the job of Chapter Publications Chairman and will continue as Alumnae Editor of THE KEY, a position she has held for the past five years. Some ten years ago, Diane was the Active Chapter Editor of THE KEY.

Her husband, Richard, is a thoracic surgeon and chief of surgery at Cox Coronary Heart Institute in Dayton, Ohio, where they make their home. They have three daughters, Beth 13, Amy, 9, and Melissa, 7. They also have two cats and Blue Tick, a hunting dog who "hates noise".

Among her activities, Diane is a Girl Scout leader, secretary of the P.T.A. and assistant publicity chairman of the Dayton Junior League.

She says that scouting has proved to be a "fun" job and it is amazing how expert one can become on a buddy burner. And tenting (or camping) with 24 fourth and fifth graders is an experience "no one should miss." She also likes to garden in the summer and knit sweaters ("that usually don't fit") in the winter.

Associate Editor of The Key

ANN MEUSER RITTER, Θ -Missouri, has been named associate editor of THE KEY. She was graduated from the University of Missouri with a B.J. in 1965 and served Theta chapter as first vice-president, scholarship committee member and pledge class president. Ann is a member of KTA (journalism), $\Sigma\Pi\Sigma$ (Sophomore women), KEA (freshman women), $\Theta\Sigma\Phi$ (journalism) and $\Gamma\Delta X$ (advertising). She served as vice-president of the Journalism Students Association and as president of $\Theta\Sigma\Phi$. She was secretary of the Columbia Alumnae Club and is presently assistant scholarship adviser for Theta Chapter.

She and her husband, Jim, make their home in Columbia, Missouri, where he is associate principal of Hickman High School. For the past two and a half years Ann has been an assistant in the Penney-Missouri Awards office at the University of Missouri School of Journalism. She has now retired from active business life to become the mother of Julie Ann Ritter, born September 20.

Other activities include recording secretary of P.E.O. chapter G K, and director for a young women's auxiliary in her church.

Ann was a member of The Hoot staff at the convention this past summer. Her first assignment for THE KEY is the section on convention coverage appearing in this issue. In her spare time she enjoys sewing and decorating.

Chairman Reference Study Committee

HARRIET L. FRENCH, $B\Upsilon$ -West Virginia, received her B.A. and LL.B. from the University of West Virginia. Active on campus and in her chapter, she was elected to Mortar Board. Today Harriet is a professor of Law at the University of Miami and also works in the Law Library there. She also finds time to engage in the private practice of law and has authored a book on Research in Florida Law, 1956 and Research in Florida Law (second edition) 1965.

Harriet was selected for membership in the Order of the Coif, and formerly was a member of the Board of Governors of the University of West Virginia. She claims membership in numerous organizations which include the American Bar Association, the Daughters of the American Revolution, the United Daughters of the Confederacy, and formerly served on the Bluefield and Miami boards of the YWCA.

Harriet was a member of Kappa Council as Director of Chapter Organization. She resigned to serve her country as a WAVE during World War II. Today Harriet's chief hobby is her ocean front cottage at Melbourne Beach, Florida. The past summer included a trip to Trinidad and Grenada and a move to her new apartment in Miami, Florida.

THE CENTENNIAL RESOLUTION

(as revised by the General Convention June 17, 1968)

WHEREAS, on October 13, 1970 Kappa Kappa Gamma will celebrate one hundred years of continuous contribution to the educational and cultural development of women and

WHEREAS, it is appropriate that we celebrate this occasion in a manner that recognizes the achievements of outstanding women, to the end that young college women may be inspired by their examples to realize their own potentials, to develop their talents, to take advantage of the opportunities open to them to qualify themselves to assume the responsibilities and to meet the demands of modern society which require the participation of qualified women and,

WHEREAS, Kappa Kappa Gamma has throughout the years maintained a program of recognizing outstanding alumnae for achievements in various fields of endeavor, now, therefore be it

RESOLVED, that a centennial program be developed which will center in activity on the local campuses and that outstanding alumnae of Kappa Kappa Gamma who have already achieved recognition for performance in their fields be included in a public function on each campus in tribute to their individual achievements and as inspiration to current students; that during the year 1970-71 a special scholarship recipient, to be known as the Kappa Kappa Gamma Centennial Scholar, shall be selected on each campus on which there is a chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma and shall be announced in June, 1970 and shall be recognized at the Founders' Day celebration on our campuses; that these scholarships be granted with particular consideration of women students in the broadest field of rehabilitation, including vocational training, the sciences and the arts; that in addition to the program of local activities, an appropriate recognition of the Fraternity's founding be given to Monmouth College; that the study committee of former presidents be continued as advisory to an action centennial committee. This action committee shall be appointed by the council to develop and execute plans for the celebration of the occasion and to work with local chapters and alumnae groups in planning and carrying out the arrangements for each campus.

Centennial project on target

Chairman and assistants advise convention of aims and projects for the coming biennium preparatory for 1970.

“Would not our founders be amazed and delighted to know their fraternity—that something special which they founded—had endured and prospered for a century?
... to realize that their early interest in good scholarship and educational pursuit would lead to a program of scholarship aid which has surpassed the million dollar mark in grants and aid to worthy young women—both members and non-members
... to know that the ideals which they deemed worthy in 1870 on which to base their fraternity would still be principals of worth within the lives of members nearly 100 years later.

“Therefore, how logical it is that the keys to Kappa’s Second Century—the theme of our Centennial, be stated as follows:

The opportunity for higher education for women.
The encouragement of academic excellence and cultural appreciation.
The training for sound leadership.
The development, of high moral standards, and
The promotion of Kappa philanthropies and community services.

“How logical, also, that our program of Centennial Scholarships should be an extension of a scholarship program already recognized as outstanding in educational circles.

“Fitting as well, is the decision to relate these 1970-71 scholarships to the field of Rehabilitation—an already proven and successful Fraternity project.

“By creating our Centennial Fund within our well-established educational endowment fund we are truly planning ahead—not only for the purpose of providing substantial Centennial Grants, but by strengthening our funds for future educational assistance to women.”

"Do remember that it is going to take the efforts of all of us to reach $500,000; so when you are thinking about what your contribution can be, do not think of it as whether it's a large gift or a small one—it is the small ones that are going to really put us over the top—but think, if you will, that this is a gift of faith; faith in the future of Kappa Kappa Gamma. Truly, it is a gift of love and appreciation for all these years that we have enjoyed being a Kappa, so do help us make this 1970 a really glorious celebration."

our nation has yet produced. I think also this college generation has been more maligned than any other college generation in our history and I think unjustly so if we look at the topic of discussion this morning."

"Certainly, drugs are an alarming problem. Certainly promiscuity is an alarming problem, but I think we have to look at them in the context that the figures are not as enormous as they would have you believe. . . .

Doris Seward scholarships chairman

"It really is a part of our obligation and our privilege in Kappa Kappa Gamma to foster, nurture, and promote the purpose of the Fraternity." . . . This is Kappa's birthday and I think it would be nice for all Kappas, all those that are living of our 82,000, to give Kappa a birthday present. How much do you spend for a birthday present? I don't know. It depends on how much you love somebody—or how much money you have got. If each one of us gave a dollar or two for each year we have been a Kappa, it would add up."

"The important thing I would like for you all to hear is that I realize you Kappas are a cut above the other girls on your college campuses, so it isn't fair to say just look around and talk to your people, but talk to other people at your universities. You and they are more of the average than the students who are using drugs or participating in illicit sex. You girls are a fine college generation and as long as I have any voice left I intend to defend you because I think you are the greatest generation that nature has produced."

The Centennial Stamp

More than a year ago the Council of Kappa Kappa Gamma and the Grand Council of Kappa Alpha Theta thought of a joint project to honor their Centennial year, 1870. These first two Greek letter organizations for women have always been identified with higher education for women.

Last June, during the convention weeks of both groups, the Honorable Frances Payne Bolton, senior woman member of the Congress of the United States, from the twenty-second district, Ohio, entered Resolution Number 1305, before the Congress, on behalf of the joint Commemorative Stamp honoring the Higher Education for Women. This is the first step with final decisions, as to which of hundreds of commemorative stamps are allowed, made by a special committee.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 12, 1968

Mrs. BOLTON. Mr. Speaker, today I am introducing a joint resolution to provide a special stamp commemorating 100 years of higher education for women.

Until the Civil War, higher education for women in the United States was a rarity. Although the first women's college was chartered in 1839 in Georgia and two State universities, Iowa and Utah, admitted women from the date of their founding in 1850, in general higher education for women was regarded as unnecessary.

Then came the Civil War drain on manpower. Women were needed to take over men's jobs, notably teaching. Public demand opened all State universities and many denominational colleges to women students. Seeking further freedom of intellectual and cultural development, the new women college students began to form their own campus clubs and societies.

In January, 1870, four women students at DePauw University—then called Indiana Asbury College—Greencastle, Ind., founded the first chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta. In October, 1870, six women students at Monmouth College, Monmouth, Ill., founded the first chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma. Both groups were chartered in their Greek letter names. Both included in their purposes opportunity for higher education for women, encouragement of academic excellence, and development of high moral standards.

As the two organizations grew in numbers of chapters and alumnae members, philanthropy, community service, and leadership training were added to the purposes. Through the years, thousands of members have made outstanding contributions in education, the professions, and arts, and in business and industry. Even greater numbers of alumnae of the two groups have given voluntary community service and leadership in hundreds of communities around the world.

Recognition of academic excellence continues over the years. The first two women ever elected to Phi Beta Kappa were members of Kappa Alpha Theta. Kappa Kappa Gamma to date has had a total of 1,758 Phi Beta Kappas. In recent times—1963-67—Kappa Alpha Theta has a total of 8,033 members elected to the top scholastic honor societies, including Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Delta Phi, and Alpha Lambda. Both organizations have long records of members elected to Mortar Board, the national campus honor society established in 1918 to recognize campus service as well as academic achievement. Kappa Kappa Gamma has 1,114 members of Mortar Board, and during the period 1963-67 Kappa Alpha Theta had 469 Mortar Board members. Since 1963 Kappa Alpha Theta has had 18 Woodrow Wilson Scholarship winners and eight Fulbright awards. Undergraduate and graduate members of both groups have received scholarships and fellowships from a number of sources.

For more than 50 years, both Kappa Kappa Gamma and Kappa Alpha Theta have provided scholarships, fellowships, and aid to education for women. Funds established by the officers in the early 1900's have grown through additional allocations and contributions, all from members. Kappa Kappa Gamma has provided more than a million dollars in aid to education, including nonfraternity women and foreign women students among beneficiaries. Kappa Kappa Gamma Foreign Fellowships, named in honor of Dean Virginia C. Gildersleeve, a Kappa who was the only woman member of the first U.S. delegation to the United Nations in San Francisco, provided for the first two Japanese women teachers to come to the United States to study after World War II. Kappa Alpha Theta's foreign fellowship program provided for study in the United States for a woman judge of a juvenile court in Holland; a Chilean girl who became a staff member of ILO; an Indian woman who later become a deputy minister of welfare in Delhi State; and a children's dentist from Bolivia who returned home to pioneer in dental clinics. Dr. Chung-Hi Oh, the acknowledged ranking authority on rehabilitation in Korea came to the United States to study under Dr. Howard A. Rusk on a Kappa Kappa Gamma fellowship. Dr. Oh has also participated in world conferences on rehabilitation in Europe and Asia. She was one of 87 women from 25 countries who have held Kappa Kappa Gamma foreign fellowships. The centennial scholarships and fellowships will provide higher education for additional numbers of qualified women, to be selected in consultation with academic authorities.

In 1946 Kappa Alpha Theta adopted the Institute of Logopedics, in Wichita, Kans., the world's largest training center for communicatively handicapped children and adults, as a permanent national philanthropy. Since that date, members of Kappa Alpha Theta have given $405,184 to the institute. The Institute of Logopedics is a nonprofit, nonsectarian philanthropy, with a three-part program of training the speech-handicapped, educating logopedists, and research. Kappa Alpha Theta is the institute's largest single contributor. Kappa Alpha Theta also has contributed more than $100,000 to the foster parent plan, and for this aid to orphan children overseas became the first organization to receive the Brotherhood of Children Award.

In 1917 Kappa Kappa Gamma began aid to French orphan and refugee children, under the direction of Dorothy Canfield Fisher, a Kappa working overseas who later became a noted author. This project was maintained through the postwar 1920's. During World War II, Kappa sponsored a similar children's project in a workers' residence area near Paris. Kappa alumnae associations also provided 5,000 layettes for Norwegian war babies. Today Kappa alumnae groups have a total of 319 service projects serving the physically handicapped, mentally retarded, emotionally disturbed, socially deprived, and the aged. A number of alumnae associations also give special scholarships in rehabilitation, this in addition to their share in the overall program of scholarships and fellowships.

In 1970, Kappa Alpha Theta and Kappa Kappa Gamma, the two pioneer Greek letter women's college organizations, will commemorate their 100th anniversaries.

Participating in the two centennials will be 150,000 members, including alumnae groups in 275 cities in the United States and Canada, and collegiate chapters at 90 colleges and universities in the United States and 4 universities in Canada.

In keeping with 100 years of work for higher education for women, both Kappa Kappa Gamma and Kappa Alpha Theta will mark their centennials by giving Centennial Scholarships and Fellowships to qualified women. Funds contributed by members for this purpose already total a quarter of a million dollars.

Kappa Alpha Theta and Kappa Kappa Gamma are asking for the opportunity to sponsor a commemorative stamp in 1970, celebrating the theme of higher education for women. Because of close connection with education, the two organizations are very much aware of the urgent need of more education for young people of the future, and of the responsibility of adults both to help provide more facilities for education and to urge youth to make the best use of educational opportunities.

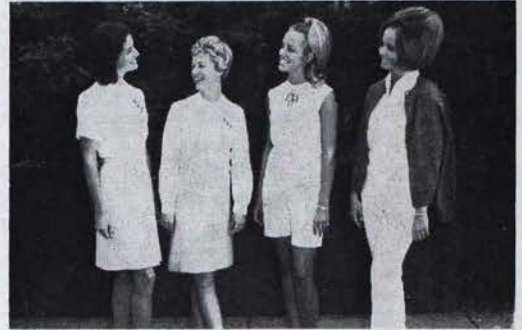

If the commemorative stamp is granted, members of Kappa Alpha Theta and Kappa Kappa Gamma will give vigorous leadership in promoting the stamp, and the goal of higher education it would represent. The stamp would be publicized in every State, and in the cities where alumnae groups are located, and on the 90 college and university campuses where there are collegiate chapters. First day cancellations could take place appropriately in post offices in four cities: Columbus, Ohio; Greencastle, Ind.; Evanston, Ill.; and Monmouth, Ill. Working through all channels, the membership would expect to make cancellations and sale of stamps satisfactory and profitable.

Officers of Kappa Alpha Theta and Kappa Kappa Gamma would join in a special memorable event in Washington, to announce the stamp and to honor leaders in government, education, and cultural life.

It is my hope that prompt action will be taken on this proposal.

Two chapters give 100%

Two chapters commended in the Centennial Chairman's report to the convention were Epsilon Delta at Arizona State and Gamma Zeta at the University of Arizona. Both chapters, in the spring of 1968, sent packets to the Chairman containing a pledge card and a gift for the Fund from every member of their respective groups. To date these are the only two chapters to make a concerted effort toward 100% solicitation of their members for personal Centennial gifts.

A letter accompanying the gifts from Andi Arthur, Gamma Zeta's Fraternity Appreciation Chairman, said, "Gamma Zeta is happy to send you these gifts for the Centennial Fund. We were excited to have a 100% effort from Gamma Zeta to join with Epsilon Delta in a 100% effort from Arizona's active Kappas. Of course this is not the last that you'll be hearing from Arizona. We're working hard on our blouse sales, and I'm sure that most of the girls will be including the Kappa Centennial Fund in their budgets for next year!

"It's so thrilling to be a part of the excitement of a Centennial, and to be so proud of the work that Kappa has done for the past ninety-eight years. Although our gift may be small, we hope that it will help, and it is, indeed, given with love."

CHAPTER GROUP GIFTS

January 1, 1968—June 30, 1968

More and more of the active chapters are participating with chapter group gifts for the Centennial Fund. Whereas in 1966-67, six chapters made gifts to the Fund, in 1967-68, 13 have given contributions totaling $1191.16. The Fraternity is grateful to these chapters for their enthusiastic and interested support. (Four chapters, whose gifts were received between July 1, 1967 and December 30, 1967 were listed on page 31 of the Summer issue of THE KEY.) The following listing represents gifts received the second half of the past fiscal year.

I picked up a little book recently, a great little book, Dag Hammerskold's Markings. I want to read a few short paragraphs from that book.

"Do not look back and do not dream of the future. It will neither give you back the past nor satisfy your daydreams. Your duty, your reward—your destiny—are here and now."

"Never for the sake of peace and quiet deny your own experience or convictions."

"You have not done enough, you have never done enough, so long as it is still possible that you have something of value to contribute."

I believe he is right on all three counts. But tonight I am looking back. We who have lived a long time may, perhaps, be allowed our bit of pride in the glorious past of our beloved Fraternity.

We can be proud of our chapters and their record of scholarship and activities. We can be proud of individual Kappas who have carved out distinguished careers in letters, in the arts, in the sciences and in professional life.

I look back and remember the Kappa friends of my college days who are still my friends. When I graduated from Northwestern, we Kappas made a pact, that we would keep in touch with each other, certainly at least once a year with letters and pictures.

And as surely as Christmas rolls around, I have had letters from 15 or 20 Kappa friends of long ago, first with pictures of their husbands, and of their first homes, then their babies and children as they grew up, then grandchildren and now great grandchildren—for in 60 years a lot can happen.

Someone has said (was it Emerson?) "As you go through life, always remember to keep your friendships in good repair, cultivating and cherishing old friends as you would a loved garden, but never forgetting to make new friends too, or you'll one day wake up to find yourself alone."

This year of 1968 is a big year for me in many ways. The Kappa Tour of the Orient was a great group and a great trip.

It was a real thrill to make new Kappa friends and experience once again the fellowship and fun.

Tonight, to be attending yet another Convention, my 11th, is another thrill. It will be another

The meaning of Kappa

The thoughts of former Grand President Sarah Harris Rowe, as expressed at the President's Dinner the opening night of Convention wonderful Kappa memory. The year 1968 has given me these two great experiences—I shall have been a Kappa 60 years, and I shall reach a real milestone—my 80th birthday.

But enough of the past, we are turning our sights ahead to the Centennial of Kappa in 1970, and our next 100 years.

Terrible things have been happening in our beloved Country, as well as in the rest of the world. Our first reaction is terrifying, unreasoning fear, fear for our Country, fear for our children and grandchildren. And then the Bible comes to my rescue, especially a very favorite verse, II Timothy, Chapter 1, Verse 7: "God has not given us the spirit of fear but of power and of love and of a sound mind."

There's no discounting the power of fear. It can reduce a strong man to a weakling, if not controlled. But the power mentioned in the Bible is the power of faith, faith in God and our fellow man, love of God and our fellow man. And if we have these, we shall keep a sound mind. And with a sound mind, we can tackle anything.

We hear a lot about our being a "sick society." We have sick people in our society, a lot of them. I'm afraid. I'm not minimizing the problems or the dangers, but that doesn't mean we are all sick. I've known a lot of fine young people in my long life. We look into the faces of a fine group of young people here representing their chapters. I believe that the youth of today is smarter, more mature, more courageous, more able to meet the challenges of today, however, great, than any young people I've ever known. I am not afraid of the future, the next 100 years of Kappa, or the future of the greatest Nation in the world. I believe in you. I have faith in you—youth of America.

I'll close as I started with Dag Hammarskold. "Never for the sake of peace and quiet deny your own experience or convictions."

"You have not done enough, you have never done enough, so long as it is still possible that you have something of value to contribute." And "God does not die on the day when we cease to believe in a personal deity, but we die on the day when our lives cease to be illuminated by the steady radiance, renewed daily, of a wonder, the source of which, is beyond all reason."

Actives—It's a Centennial idea

ACTIVE CHAPTERS sending gifts to the Centennial Fund from their group have provided interesting news of how their gifts were made possible.

Genie Griffith, Centennial Chairman for E Z-Florida State wrote, "The majority of the money ($187.35) was made from a doughnut sale in which the whole chapter participated. We really enjoyed selling the doughnuts, but that word is taboo around here now! Fifty dollars was donated by five Kappas who earned ten dollars each last summer from tutoring at FSU. The pledges had a shoe shine for the actives and charged a nickel for each pair of shoes. It is with pleasure that we send this check."

Barbara Davis, Spirit Chairman for Γ M-Oregon State wrote "We are contributing the money ($44.00) we saved by having a "Sacrifice Dinner" in addition to the fines paid by the girls for paying their house bills late."

Mary Ellen Hintze, Δ H-Utah, who is the Centennial Chairman for that chapter wrote, "The money is a result of a contest we conducted among the four different pledge classes during Fall Quarters. Each Monday evening four boxes were passed around and each girl was asked to donate a dime to her own pledge class box. At the end of the quarter the pledge class which had collected the most money per capita was given a special treat. We hope to continue this successful program."

And, although, she did not write as to how the gift was achieved, Joan Marie Alano, Centennial Fund Chairman for Ψ-Cornell wrote, "Our gift is small, since many of the girls have already contributed individually, but it is given in deep appreciation for the warmth, friendship and wonderful opportunities which Kappa has sent to us."

Alumnæ—It's a Centennial idea

An interesting means of promoting Centennial Fund gifts from individuals is being used by the El Dorado, Arkansas Alumnæ Club. They are suggesting that each Kappa alumna in their area give a dollar for each year she has been a Kappa. Chairman for the Fund in El Dorado, Annie Laurie Spencer Dickinson, Γ N-Arkansas writes: "This is working well and each of us has pledged this amount. There is a sentimental feeling when it is put on a personal basis of 'one measly dollar for each year we have shared the love and friendship of our sisterhood in Kappa Kappa Gamma Fraternity.' Those of us who have been members for many years need to get the money in soon for each year we wait costs us another dollar! This has brought interest and enthusiasm to the Centennial Fund drive and to the celebration. The dollars mean more than 100 cents when given. I am glad this idea came to me in the middle of the night when I could not sleep because I had agreed to take the chairmanship of the Fund drive for our club.

"We are trying to collect the money at intervals to make the idea have a deep meaning. The faithful are always the first to get their money in. We do it in meeting before everyone so that the idea will become more personal."

The charm lady

In charge of selling the attractive Centennial Charms is Kathryn Bourne Pearse, Γ Δ-Purdue. Kay is currently a Bridal Consultant selling every service that is connected with a wedding in Hartford, Connecticut. She is on the Connecticut Opera Association Board, the Hartford Red Cross Board, the Women's committee of the Wadsworth Athenaeum (formerly served as president of the committee). She has been a Hartford Hospital volunteer, president of the Avon, Connecticut Library, chairman of the Hartford Plaza 7-Festival of Arts at Constitution Plaza. For Kappa, Kay was Alumnae Association president in Hartford, Beta Province President and Fraternity Director of Membership. She is now a member of the Finance committee and chairman of Foreign Study Scholarships; all this in addition to her newest Kappa project.

A Centennial project

"Kappa-Thon" bridge gatherings have been a successful money-raising project for Boise Alumnae. Members gave parties in their homes; each hostess determining the date and type of party, luncheon or dessert. The cost was $1.25 per person with a minimum of two tables. All parties were held in one week. Result for the Centennial Fund was $360. Members who did not give a party donated $10.00. Two guests and two members at one of the parties are: Mrs. Simons, guest; Peggy Varian Brown, B K-Idaho, president Boise Association; Peggy Mayberry Jones, Δ A-Penn State; Mrs. Henderson, guest.

is the former Sidney Littlefield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Littlefield of York Harbor. Mommo Gallery was in dire straits and all but ready to collapse and be abandoned. It serves all types of artisans—painters, weavers, metal workers, potters, textile workers and encompasses nearly every form of culture. Through tedious and quite thankless effort Mrs. Kasfir pulled the Gallery together and put it back into operation. Unfortunately Uganda ministry officials do not give top priority to cultural pursuits and Mommo Gallery is trying to exist on a shoe string. Some friends in the U.S. and Americans in Uganda have donated to the Gallery but additional funds are needed.

"If you would like to help an earnest young Director achieve some measure of financial stability and encourage the artists whom she serves to continue their struggle for recognition please send contributions—large or small—to: Mommo Gallery, c/o Mrs. Robert R. Littlefield, Box 24, York Harbor, Maine 13911."

Barbara Terence Walsdorf Touhey, B M-Colo-rado, affiliated B Ξ-Texas, is married to Dr. John E. Touhey, a captain in the USAF stationed at Torrejon Air Base, Madrid, Spain until October 1969. Her address is Box 4125, 401st Tac Hospital, APO New York, N.Y. 09283. She says she has "run into lots of Kappas both in the Service and as civilians studying and working in Madrid."

Nancy Biery Henderson, E Θ-Little Rock, is stationed with her Navy husband at Ramey Air Force Base, Puerto Rico. Her address is c/o Lt. Harold Henderson Jr., 197-B Wing Road, APO 845, New York, New York 09845. She is teaching school on the base and has been serving as a volunteer in the Speech Clinic there. She is a "member of a singing group of officers' wives called The Skylarks, which sings for civic and public affairs" and serves as their soloist. She is also soloist with a church choir. Her husband is also working toward his masters at the Inter-American University while in the service.

Faith Smitter Sheikh, Π^Δ-California (Berkeley), is co-director since 1964 of Sheikh and Smitter Associates, mainly exporter of Pakistani handi-crafts. She previously was a personnel officer with the U. S. Agency for International Development in Lahore, Pakistan, New Delhi, India, and Tehran, Iran. Her address is P.O. Box 3944, Karachi 4, Pakistan. She writes THE KEY "As a hobby I teach riding to the children of the American School on our polo ponies. Both my husband and I play polo three times a week throughout the year.

Debbie Lynn Peterson, P^Δ-Ohio Wesleyan, is now in Japan with the American Red Cross for two years. She is anxious to get in touch with Kappas or friends of Kappas who are in the Far East and may be reached c/o American Red Cross, 249th U. S. Army General Hospital, North Camp Drake, Asaka, Tokyo, Japan or APO 96267, San Francisco, California. Her work as a recreation therapist includes planning diversional activities for military personnel, training groups of volunteer Red Cross workers and escorting professional entertainers through the hospital wards as part of the recuperative program. She is beginning to "make new friends and absorb some of the culture of 'the Kimono Mind' as Bernard Rudofsky would say."

Carolyn "Lyn" Conway Corwin, Δ Γ-Michigan State, who worked in Fraternity Headquarters in the late fifties, writes: "My husband, Glenn, and I moved to beautiful, sunny Puerto Rico in July, 1967. As manager of Industrial Products for Koehring Overseas Corporation, Glenn has traveled extensively in the Far East and Latin America. After eight years of teaching, I have 'retired' to the pleasures of our home, the beach, and my duties as vice-president of the 200 member San Juan Newcomers Club. With two of my new Kappa friends in Puerto Rico, Susan Dykes, Δ Z-Colorado College, and Nancy Epker, B Δ-Michigan, I hope to organize a Kappa group soon." Lyn's address is Calle Uno 63, Villamar, Isla Verde, San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Mary Bardone, Δ Z-Colorado College, led an Experiment in International Living group to France during the past summer. The 1964 graduate began her foreign travels by spending her junior year abroad on a Sweet Briar College scholarship. After graduation she worked two years in Katiola, West Africa, on a Peace Corps assignment. In 1966 she was appointed assistant dean of women and coordinator of the Morgan State College, University of Pennsylvania Cooperative Project.

Claire Lee Courtney, E Z-Florida State, is studying social welfare in Florence until January, 1969. She may be addressed at Villa Fabricotti, via V. Emanuele II, 64, 50134 Firenze, Italia.

Mary Anderson Alexander, Γ I-Washington U., writes from Rua Barao de Jaguaribe 326, ZC-37 Ipanema, Rio de Janeiro, Gb., Brazil: "I am living abroad for an indefinite length of time. My husband, a sanitary engineer, is acting as a consultant to the water company of the state of Guanabara here, and our five children attend Escola Americana, a school with an American educational curriculum but an international attendance of children from many different nations. Since my degree was in public health nursing, I work as a part-time volunteer in a clinic in one of the large favelas (slum areas) here. We realize more all the time the value to our children's philosophies and development of living abroad; we strongly recommend it to any American family. I have not met nor heard of any other Kappas in this area; I would appreciate hearing if you know of any.

"THE KEY publication brings me even more joy here than at home. Thank you so much for your contribution to it."

Gretchen Sternberg, ΕΔ-Arizona State, is starting her second year aboard the S. S. Ryndam, studying art on the World Campus Afloat Around the World program. She writes: "By the time I return in the Spring, I will have traveled more than 36 countries including Ireland, Denmark, Spain, Israel, Africa, India, Thailand, Greece, Germany, France, Austria, Japan, South America and many others.

"I have learned about the peoples in countries like South Africa and their fight with apartheid. I have visited with the Nobel prize winner Alan Patou in Durban. I visited with Madame Gandhi in India. Last Christmas I spent Christmas eve 30 miles off the coast of Vietnam with the lights of our 7th fleet on the horizon. Needless to say we all realized the true meaning of Christmas. We also entertained the wounded American Army men in the Bangkok hospital.

"All in all a very rewarding experience with people and I became a lot more appreciative of America."

Carolyn Sue Bernard Vassos, Γ K-William and Mary, writes: "My husband, who is an education specialist with the Federal government, accepted an overseas position with the Department of Army last October. We are living on a small Army post, Babenhausen Kaserne which is located about 30 minutes southwest of Frankfurt am Main, Germany. We are thoroughly enjoying the experience of living in Germany and meeting the people. Our two children, Howie, aged 6, and Lisa, age 2, are learning German more quickly than we are. However, by the time our three year tour is over, I hope to be able to converse in German." Carolyn may be reached by writing Army Education Center, Babenhausen Kaserne, APO 09162, New York, New York.

Betty Donnell Henley, Θ-Missouri, sends news of her sister, Margaret Donnell, also Θ-Missouri, who has just completed a three year stint at Fort Leonard Wood as Red Cross field director for the hospital there. She is currently serving as hospital field director for the Red Cross at the U. S. Army 7th Field Hospital at Camp Oji in Tokyo. Her address is c/o American Red Cross, U.S.A. 7th Field Hospital, APO, San Francisco 96344. Betty says, "Because of the nature of Margaret's work, she has traveled extensively and has frequently run into old Kappa friends and also made new ones. Her career has been most interesting, productive, fulfilling and rewarding—and certainly of great benefit to others."

Theta Province Director of Alumnae Jane Curry tells of visiting with four Kappas, members of the newest foreign-soil alumnae club," Patricia Vencill Williams, Γ B-New Mexico, Yvonne Cunningham Eccles, Γ H-Washington State, Nancy Schlegel Meinig, Ψ-Cornell, and Sally Ketring Merritt, Δ Z-Colorado College. This is the group who sent the following greeting to Kappa convention. "We would like to be of any service to Kappas either visiting or moving to Mexico City. This summer we hope to contact all Kappa actives who are attending summer school here and have a get-together with them. We would like to have you pass the word along to your chapters and alumnae groups that if any Kappa comes to Mexico City, if she will let us know she is coming or is here, we will be happy to do what we can to make her stay more pleasant." Pat is Mrs. Robert Williams and her telephone number is 34-74-93. Her address is in the Directory section. Daughter, Mary, was recently initiated into Δ B-Duke.

The Centennial film

the narrator. Betty Ann Bowser, P^A-Ohio Wesleyan, who does news shows for Station WAVY-TV, Norfolk, Virginia, arrived on the set at Headquarters to don one of the Fraternity historic dresses and take part with Columbus Kappas in costume in the "early times" scene.

As an example of alumnae rehabilitation projects everywhere, you will see members of Columbus Alumnae Association at work at their project. You will hear the story of a recent rehabilitation scholarship girl, Barbara Wallace Homlar, B N-Ohio State, one of the many helped by Kappa funds, who is now a therapist working with the retarded.

Documentary film specialist Herman W. Kitchen, president Unit Number One Film Productions, Inc., New York City, directed and filmed for Kappa. Mr. Kitchen, with a list of many credits to his name, has done medical and science programs for BBC Television, and documentaries for National Educational Television and Radio Center, for the U.S. Navy, and for TV networks. Mr. Kitchen's office will also distribute the film. Music chairman Bonnie Daynes Adams, B M-Colorado, selected and arranged music by Kappa composers for the Convention Choir. Jane Price Butler, Γ Ω-Denison, directed the Choir, accompanied and also played the special solo recordings.

Public relations chairman Ann Scott Morningstar, B N-Ohio State, was executive producer, and also provided the working script. Diane Miller Selby, B N-Ohio State, former president, Columbus Alumnae Association, Patricia McNeill Henshaw, B T-West Virginia, of Akron, and Lee Tracy Ridgley, B N-Ohio State, Headquarters Staff, gave special assistance. Katharine Bailey Hoyt, B N-Ohio State, of Milton, Massachusetts is responsible for the art work.

Tokyo here we come

Kappas and friends arrive at Tokyo, Japan on the first stop on the Kappa Tour to the Orient last spring.

At convention with Dr. Locke are actives Tandy Sweeney, Lila Griffin, Martha McDowell, and alumna Caroline Carlisle Phelan.

For Miriam with love

In appreciation of their favorite Kappa, Gamma Pi actives at the University of Alabama solicited funds from their alumnae in the state to provide a fellowship in the name of Miriam Locke, Γ II-Alabama, fraternity chairman of fellowships. The response was so great that not only the fellowship was given but an extra amount which was ear-marked for the Centennial funds.

Notes and quotes on recent gifts...

"Dear Miss Harter:

"Enclosed is my check for the Centennial Fund. I am not pledging any special amount but hopefully I will probably send another check later on. I have been a Kappa for 62 years having been initiated October 13, 1906. All through the years, I've been proud to be a Kappa.

"A few years ago, Mabel Tulin and I started the small Kappa group here which is now the North Orange County Alumnae Association. The group made me an honorary member which I consider a great honor.

"When I went to Arizona as a bride I made many friends through Kappa. In Jerome, Arizona (now the jumping off place!) which was then, in 1918, a thriving mining town of 7,000 people, I met a Kappa who had taught there several years and who knew everyone. She gave a large party in my honor. Otherwise life in Jerome would have been dull indeed.

"And now, at 82 my younger Kappa friends are watching over me and it makes me feel all warm inside."

Loyally,

NELLIE GIVENS WOOD

Notes and quotes on recent gifts...

"Convention was wonderful and I thank you for the opportunity to attend! It was fun to be in Columbus to see Headquarters which I'd not seen since the fire—and it is beautiful. The work and planning which you all did is evident and we appreciate it. German Village was delightful, but, of course, convention is really friends and inspiration. Please accept this additional contribution to the Centennial Fund and forward to Anne (Harter). I'm so glad to be a Kappa!"

"Most challenging and exciting of the new programs begun during the past biennium is the Centennial. . . . This committee has undertaken the tremendous task of planning and coordinating the Fraternity's fund raising drive to commemorate Kappa's forthcoming centennial and to provide scholarships on every campus where we maintain a chapter.

Kappa's Delegate to National Panhellenic Conference reports continued interest in the establishment of chapters of women's fraternities resulting in 116 new chapters and 30 colonies of NPC groups on college campuses during the 1965-67 period. For the same period 312 new alumnae groups of NPC fraternities were organized. There presently almost 400 City Panhellenic organizations. And, the Chairman of Extension received 87 requests for Kappa chapters during the biennium. During 1966-68 two new chapters have been installed, E K at the University of South Carolina and E A at the University of Tennessee.

"The Director of Membership reports that the years 1966-68 have brought more new members into the fraternity than any other two-year period in our history. A total of 5,086 young women have been pledged.

The Ballad of Rose McGill

(as presented at the 1968 General Convention)

Way up in the North where the winters are cold
There's a love story of our fraternity told
Of a young maid bereft, so ill and alone
Until Kappa sisters her troubles made known.

From all of the Chapters: north, south, east and west
Came word "We will help—we will all do our best
To help as we can" came from all o'er the land;
For no sister shall suffer when we understand.

Now Rose McGill on this earth is no more
Her illness and our help are both Kappa lore.
But real is the spirit that still makes it known
With the need of each sister, our work has so grown.
