Exterior Surrounds

The Westpac Envirodome Stage is an Amphitheatre designed for outdoor presentations.
The stage is actually an underground water storage tank to collect rain water run-off from the building.

In the garden to the northern side:

Archontophoenix
cunninghamiana
Bangalow Palm

Bambusa ventricosa "Buddha Belly"
Buddha's Belly Bamboo

Doryanthes palmerii
Gynea Lily

Dyopsis lutescens
Golden Cane Palm

Ficus benjamina
Weeping Fig

Liriope "Evergreen Giant"
Turf Lily

Michelia doltsopa
Evergreen Magnolia

Michelia figo
Port Wine Magnolia

Murraya paniculata
Orange Jessamine

Nandina domestica
Sacred Bamboo

Nandina domestica "Pygmaea"
Dwarf Sacred Bamboo

Ophiopogon japonica
Mondo Grass

Phoenix roebelinii
Dwarf Date Palm

The turfed Amphitheatre is dotted with the following for dappled shade:

Archontophoenix
cunninghamiana
Bangalow Palm

Eucalyptus grandis
Flooded Gum.

Pandorea pandorana "Snow Bells"
Wonga Wonga Vine covers the 3 sculptures - Fish, Emu and Wallaby.

The Frog Ponds are a recreated habitat to encourage frogs to colonize and hopefully breed.
Three ponds are incorporated into an environment of rocks, logs and stumps and the following plants:

Trees, Grasses and Rushes
Eucalyptus grandis
Flooded Gum

Chondropetalum tectorum

Villarsia reniformis

Running Marsh Flower

The Millennium Walk was originally laid to mark this significant calendar event. Sponsors and the general public were able to purchase a brick for engraving with a personal, memorial or conservation based message to be viewed well into the future.

The Path provides entry into the new Education component of the "Enviro Dome" including access to the Roof Top Garden for overnight sleepovers.

The Millennium Walk is bordered by:

Xanthorrhoea preissii
Grass Tree / Yacca

Lomandra longifolia
Spiny Mat Rush

Incorporated with the above plantings to wrap around the Animal Health Centre Corner are:

Callistemon viminalis "Harkness"
Gawler Hybrid Bottlebrush

Doryanthes palmerii
Gynea Lily

Minchin House

The gardens at the entry to Minchin House (Administration Building) and the adjoining Enviro Dome are designed to complement the formality and period of Minchin House as well as tying together the environmental elements of the Zoos new Enviro Dome utilizing an Australian Native Plant Palette.

The 4 formal geometric gardens at the entrance to Administration represent Fire, Water, Earth and Wind, with Brachychiton rupestris and Brachychiton discolor providing shade to the walking paths as well as framing the historical building.

Fire

Represented by the burnt trunk of the native grass tree, the blackened mulch, the red of the volcanic scoria and the plant flower colour selection from a hot white central ring to a bright gold outer.

Kunzea pomifera
Muntries, (White Flowers)

Xanthorrhoea preissii
Western Australian Grass Tree, (Burnt trunk)
Xerochrysum bracteatum
Golden Everlasting Daisy, (Deep Golden Flowers)

Water

Represented by the 3 tiered water feature, blue and white flowers or blue foliage and various sizes of creek and river pebbles.

Dianella 'Cassa Blue'
Cassa Blue, (Blue Foliage and Flowers)

Scaevola aemula "Mauve Clusters"
Fan Flower, (Mauve Flowers)

Scaevola albida "White Carpet"
Fan Flower, (White Flowers)

Earth

Represented by a large sandstone boulder and smaller forms of valley stone, as well as orange flowers and silver / grey foliage.

Lotus berthelotii
Parrot's Beak, (Orange Flowers, Silver / Grey Foliage)

Rhagodia spinescens
Salt Bush, (Grey Foliage)

Wind

Represented by a quadrant of flowering grasses with tall flower heads which sway in the breeze.
Pennisetum alopecuroides
"Burgundy" Burgundy Fountain Grass, (Dark Red Foliage)

Lomandra confertifolia
"Seascape"
Blue Mat Rush, (Blue / Green Foliage)

The Path along these 4 gardens is bordered by:

Lomandra longifolia 'Tanika'
Fine Leaf Mat Rush,

Dianella 'Cassa Blue'
Cassa Blue
