Allianz key figures for the first quarter of 2012

Based on preliminary figures, Allianz Group achieved total revenues of over 30 billion euros in the first quarter of 2012, compared to 29.9 billion euros in the first quarter of the previous year.

Operating profit exceeded 2.3 billion euros, approximately 40 percent above last year's level of 1.7 billion euros. Net income in the first quarter of 2012 topped 1.4 billion euros, up nearly 60 percent from 915 million euros over the same period in 2011, which was burdened especially by high claims from natural catastrophes.

Allianz maintains a strong capital position: it increased both shareholders' equity and its conglomerate solvency ratio from year-end levels.

Michael Diekmann, CEO of Allianz SE: "As planned, all three business segments contributed to the good start into 2012, and we are on track to achieve our target for 2012."

As announced, Allianz will publish full details for the first quarter on May 15, 2012.

About Allianz

Together with its customers and sales partners, Allianz is one of the strongest financial communities. Around 78 million private and corporate customers rely on Allianz's knowledge, global reach, capital strength and solidity to help them make the most of financial opportunities and to avoid and safeguard themselves against risks.

In 2011, around 142,000 employees in some 70 countries achieved total revenue of 103.6 billion euros and an operating profit of 7.9 billion euros. Benefits for our customers reached 86.5 billion euros.

This business success with insurance, asset management and assistance services is based increasingly on customer demand for crisis-proof financial solutions for an ageing society and the challenges of climate change. Transparency and integrity are key components of sustainable corporate governance at Allianz SE.
