Partners in Giving 2016 lists donors who made gifts to the Perelman School of Medicine in fiscal year 2016 (from July 1, 2015 through June 30, 2016). Every effort has been made to ensure accuracy. To report a discrepancy, please call 215.898.5164 or e-mail PennMedicine@alumni.med.upenn.edu.

Dear Penn Medicine Alumni and Friends,

It is my pleasure to thank you for your support of the Perelman School of Medicine. I am deeply gratified—but by no means surprised—by the outpouring of generosity from our community.

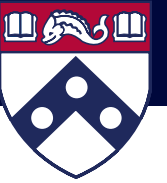

Penn Medicine's impact has never been greater. We're changing more lives than ever before with each question our researchers unravel. Our School remains at the forefront of medical education, offering an innovative curriculum and integrated approach to learning. As you know, many of our students earn a second post-graduate degree or specialty certificate alongside their medical degree—a considerable point of pride that distinguishes us from our peers. Their successes are in large part a reflection of your dedication.

Partners in Giving illustrates that robust support, and places a brilliant exclamation point on our shared commitment to Penn Medicine. Your generosity will fuel our progress in the years to come and continue to make us strong. Thank you again for your loyalty to our institution.

Sincerely,

J. LARRY JAMESON, M.D., PH.D.

*Executive Vice President of the University of Pennsylvania for the Health System
Dean, Perelman School of Medicine*

PLANNED GIVING DONORS

Estate gifts have helped shape the character of the University of Pennsylvania and its school of medicine since their founding. In his last will and testament, Benjamin Franklin wrote, “I wish to be useful, even after my death.” Since that time, thousands of individuals have followed Franklin’s example and included the Perelman School of Medicine in their estate plans, funding scholarships, professorships, facilities, and research—helping the School become one of the world’s preeminent institutions of medical education.

The following Perelman School of Medicine donors have demonstrated their passion and support by establishing gifts such as annuities, trusts, and bequests, or by using creative assets such as life insurance or retirement plan assets to realize their own Penn Medicine legacy. We gratefully accept their support of the school.
