Product withdrawal

Microwave ceramic filters and duplexers of the B698* and B699* series

In order to streamline our product spectrum, the following EPCOS microwave ceramic filters and duplexers are being withdrawn effective October 31, 2012. EPCOS will cease manufacturing these products by the same date. The substitute types will be available in a new design and produced in the TDK plant in Dalian, China. Please take note of the new ordering codes. The substitute types can only be ordered using the TDK system.
