REINHEITSGE-WHAT??

Reinheitsgebot! As difficult to say (pronounced Rine-Hites-guh-boat) as it is to spell, the Reinheitsgebot is the German Purity Law of 1516 requiring beer to be made from only four ingredients: water, malted barley, hops and yeast. It is considered one of the very first food purity laws.

REINHEITSGE-THEN

As pioneers in craft beer, Gordon Biersch first started brewing a wide range of well-balanced, traditional German lagers and ales back in 1988 when we opened our first location in California. The Reinheitsgebot was our gospel. We proudly adhered to this code of quality over the next 25 years, using only the finest Weyermann Malt from Bamberg, authentic Bavarian Hersbrucker hops, yeast from Weihenstephan and pure, filtered water.

REINHEITSGE-NOW

We have evolved along with the dynamically diverse craft brewing industry and have challenged your local GB Brewer to exercise their incredibly creative minds to produce the vast array of beer styles from Europe and America. We are not throwing the baby out with the spent grain however, and you will always find our traditional German brews. But now you can also expect to indulge in the occasional spicy Belgian Saison, or a hopped-up American IPA with signature citrus and pine characters contributed by hops from the Yakima Valley in Washington. Our beer lists are unique to each location, meaning not only is your beer brewed just a few feet away, but you also can't get many of these beers at any other Gordon Biersch. This is as pure and local as it gets. THIS IS GB LIFE.

PERFECT PAIRINGS. HONEST AND TRUE.

LIGHT & REFRESHING:
EXAMPLES INCLUDE: AMERICAN BLONDE ALE, ENGLISH SUMMER ALE, GOLDEN EXPORT, KÖLSCH

Our Golden Export is the perfect example of this style...a clean, crisp, refreshing lager with subtle bready malt characters balanced by noble hops.

FOOD PAIRINGS: Light & Refreshing beers are cleansing and complementary. Try with seafood, salads, lighter fare, flatbreads and pizzas.

MALTY: EXAMPLES INCLUDE: MÄRZEN, BLONDE BOCK, MAIBOCK, BELGIAN DUBBEL, IRISH RED

Beers that highlight the sweet, caramel, toffee and nutty characters of malted barley. Märzen is auburn-hued with a smooth caramel malt finish and is our Malty flagship, as well as our best-selling beer of all time.

FOOD PAIRINGS: Malty beers are also the perfect companion to almost all foods in that they offer great balance, support many flavor profiles and will cool spicy heat. Great with pizzas as well as roasted, grilled and smoked foods, meats and poultry, burgers and spice.

FRUITY & SPICY: EXAMPLES INCLUDE: HEFEWEIZEN, BELGIAN WIT, BELGIAN SAISON, BELGIAN STRONG BLONDE, BELGIAN PALE

Unique flavors from fermentation are the hallmark of this category. Fruits such as apples, bananas, cherries and oranges can be combined with spices of pepper, cloves and coriander.

FOOD PAIRINGS: This beer style is a great choice to complement and balance flavors that are similar to those in the beers. Pair with poultry, lighter meats, salads, fruit-driven sauces or chutneys and more robust seafood dishes.

HOPPY: EXAMPLES INCLUDE: CZECH PILSNER, ENGLISH PALE ALE, AMERICAN PALE ALE, INDIA PALE ALE (IPA)

Beers that emphasize the contribution of the hop flower. They are higher in bitterness with accentuated spicy, fruity, herbal, floral or piney aromas. Czech Pilsner is our classic example.

FOOD PAIRINGS: Hoppy beers tend to emphasize certain flavors in foods very well and can also be the balancing act in certain dishes. Spicy foods, roasted pork and poultry are classic pairings.

DARK: EXAMPLES INCLUDE: SCHWARZBIER, DUNKEL BOCK, BROWN ALE, PORTER, STOUT

Beers that derive their dark color and flavors of chocolate and coffee from the use of roasted malts.

FOOD PAIRINGS: Dark beers are wonderfully complementary to food flavors. Try with grilled meats, steaks, smoked foods, shellfish and mussels. Like coffee, Dark beers go well with desserts, complementing chocolate and other sweet flavors.

- Haddock Fillets •
The story behind our Haddock fillets; caught in the North Atlantic cold waters deeper than their sister the cod.
Fresh line caught and will be the white flakey fillet that all of New England enjoys.
Our fillets on average are smaller than the north Atlantic cods and we think with a sweeter and richer flavor.
