As the Army strives to modernize, a major focus of our efforts is increasing quality of life for our Soldiers and their Families. It's important that we set our Soldiers up for success, both in the field and at home.

Army Emergency Relief plays an important role in taking care of our Soldiers and their Families by providing vital financial assistance that help our Soldiers remain focused on their missions.

From the Chief of Staff of The Army

Our greatest strength is our People – our Soldiers, our Families, our Civilians, and our Soldiers for Life. We must take care of them, and Army Emergency Relief (AER) remains a key ally in helping us do that.

AER provides financial assistance when unexpected challenges occur, providing a hand-up to those in need. Working together with partners like AER, we will provide our People with the quality of life they deserve and resources to make it through even the toughest times.

People First – Winning Matters – Army Strong

James C. McConville

General, U.S. Army
Chief of Staff of the Army

From the Sergeant Major of The Army

Since becoming your Sergeant Major of the Army in 2019, my focus has been on strengthening our Army, starting at the squad level. Army Emergency Relief is a tool every Soldier, in every squad, should have in their rucksack. AER is the only nonprofit organization that provides financial assistance directly to Soldiers through their chain of command.

Every squad should stand with AER to ensure no Soldier faces financial hardship alone.

Michael A. Grinston
Sergeant Major of the Army

From the Chairman Of AER

Army Emergency Relief has always been an important tool for Commanders. In my nearly 40 years of service, I repeatedly witnessed the impact Army Leaders had on their Soldiers' lives by sending them to their AER Office for financial assistance. Knowing the value of this great organization made it an easy decision to join the Army Emergency Relief team as Chairman of the Board in 2020.

Army Emergency Relief continued our incredible legacy of caring in 2019 by providing more than $70 million in assistance to 40,000 Soldiers and their Families. AER programs give our Soldiers a hand-up when dealing with financial hardships, allowing them to remain focused on their missions at home station and around the globe.

Though I've only just begun my time as a part of AER's leadership, I look forward to what we can accomplish with your help. Thank you for standing with us and joining our Legacy of Caring.

John F. Campbell
General, U.S. Army, Retired

From the Director Of AER

As the Army modernizes to meet the needs of today's volatile world, Army Emergency Relief continues to enhance and expand programs to support the 21st century force. In 2019, we initiated several new categories of assistance focused on providing even better support to our military Families, including child care assistance, Spouse relicensing, and passport and immigration fees for foreign-born Spouses. We also continue to focus on single Soldiers, with our most important category of assistance being emergency leave support, where a minimum 50% of all costs a Soldier incurs when traveling home to be with their loved ones is in the form of a grant.

Our programs are made possible by donations from Soldiers, the American public, and patriotic corporations. In 2019, over half of all donations came from Soldiers, both active and retired. AER truly is 'Soldiers Helping Soldiers.' I ask you to join our men and women in uniform and support AER with your personal donation; every little bit helps!

Thank you for providing America's Soldiers a 'hand-up' when they need it most.

Director, Army Emergency Relief

“Our family was in the first year of rebuilding our savings and I didn’t know how we would come up with $4,000 ($2,000 per helmet), but I knew I couldn’t leave my children’s heads deformed... I don’t know what we would have done without AER for this necessary treatment, but our family would have been in a very unwell place financially.”

TRISTIAN KEMP MEMORIAL

Tristian M. Kemp served his country in the Air Force for 6 years before becoming a military contractor. He was tragically killed in October 2017. Tristian's father served in the Army for over 20 years and knew that AER was a place he could turn to when faced with financial emergency. In gratitude, and in the hopes of helping other service members in their time of need, the Kemp family worked with AER to set up a memorial fund in Tristian's honor. Their efforts raised nearly $2,000!

The Greenbrier Resort in West Virginia hosted the PGA TOUR event A Military Tribute at The Greenbrier, and raised more than $50,000 for Army Emergency Relief.

The U.S. Army supported the event with Soldier entertainment at the Gala dinner, a swearing-in ceremony on the 18th green, and displays of Military equipment throughout the grounds. The Golden Knights delivered the Springhouse Trophy to the Champion via parachute jump.

When you support AER you're giving directly to
