Falling Like Rain -- Tiany Schuster & Show Mance Wins Calgary Stampede, Sets Earnings Record

By Tanya Randall

WPRA World Standings leader Tiany Schuster held back tears as she walked across a rain-slicked, hail-covered stage at the Calgary Stampede to accept her $100,000 Championship. Her thoughts on the biggest win of her career aboard a horse she almost lost to an antibiotic reaction a month ago.

"I don't care that it's raining or hailing," she told the Calgary crowd. "That horse is such a phenomenal horse. I can't even begin to explain it. He just showed today—to the world—what a special horse he is."

They started out their Stampede with a less than desirable finish on their first run in the mud.

"The joke in my camp was—'It could have been worse,' a friend of mine said. 'You could have fallen off in the cold mud.' I said, 'Well, if I had fallen off, it might have been a little bit better, because then I wouldn't have known how bad my run really was,'" she laughed.

In Show Mance's defense, it was his first excursion in slop of that nature. They weren't allowed in the arena to practice, so it was a cold turkey experience for many.

"I don't even know if he's been in the pasture in the mud!" she quipped. "He's never run in the mud. I don't know if he's crossed a puddle. Maybe he's gone around them! That was his first experience in the mud. Loping around, it didn't bother him, but running full speed...? He had mud up by his eye and ear and I had it on top of my hat! It was everywhere! I wouldn't say he didn't like it, but he needed a few times to get a feel for it."

With a couple of runs under his belt by the time the skies cleared and the ground dried, Show Mance dominated. After winning on the third round in their pool, Tiany and Show Mance broke the 17-second barrier with a 16.99 to surpass Tammy Fischer and Easy Dash Oak's arena record on their fourth trip around the Calgary Herald barrels.

"It was just a smooth run," she said. "If it wasn't the best run that I've ever had on him, it was one of the top two. He just did everything he was supposed to do and the ground and conditions were great. I showed up and he showed up. It was just good run. Nothing went wrong."

Shuster left pool competition with $11,750, and split the Finals victory with Stevi Hillman and Cautro Fame to advance to the Showdown. Running last on the ground, she posted a victorious 17.032, despite a slip at the first, to edge Nellie Miller and her pocket-rocket Rafter W Minnie Reba.

"I think it made him madder," she told the Calgary Herald. "He just shot across there, and he just spun around that second barrel with such determination ...

"I kept my composure and said, 'Just keep it together girl, and he turned that third barrel. I really thought I was fighting for third place or second place because Nellie made such a phenomenal run.'"

The victory was worth $117,500, however only half of the $100,000 counts toward the WPRCA World Standings, but the $61,750 that counted was enough to shatter the WPRCA Regular Season Earnings Record set last year by Mary Burger and Sadiefamouslastwords at $190,977. They currently lead the world by more than $107,000 with $224,683.

Immediately following her record-breaking win, Schuster immediately pulled up stakes and made the 14-hour drive to Cheyenne, Wyo., where she ran Show Mance in slack that Monday afternoon. Although the ground didn't work in their favor, they'll be making their second run next Tuesday.

An exhausted Schuster turned out of the Snake River Stampede in Nampa, Idaho, and drove to Spanish Fork, Utah, Tuesday, to have her horses reset and rest up for a few days. She runs at the Days of '47 in Salt Lake City on Thursday and has Spanish Fork Fiesta slack on Friday. Without Nampa, her Saturday is free, and she has slack at the Ogden Pioneer Days on Sunday. Hopefully she'll be back in the short round for the Days of '47 on Monday.

While the Schuster and Show Mance fit together like peas in a pod, the irony of their story is that Schuster set out to buy the horse after hearing his winning time at Diamonds T Arena in Denton, Texas. She didn't even see him run.

"I was actually bent over getting another horse ready," she chuckled. "I said, 'Hey that's a really nice run. Is that a gelding and is he for sale?' She said, 'Yes, he is.' I told her not to go anywhere. I made my run and then went and tracked her down."

Bred by James Baldwin, Show Mance is by First Smart Money out of the run-cow cross mare Blue Baby Cash, by Hold On To The Cash. Christine Lollis of Kingston, Okla., had trained the now 7-year-old gelding.

"He's a very peculiar horse and she was concerned about getting him to the right home," she said. "I'm very thankful to Christine for the opportunity to own him."

Not one to change a horse to fit her style, Schuster was cool with letting Show Mance, whom Lollis affectionately called "Dorky," be himself.

"You just work with what you have and try to let their talents shine," said Schuster. "I don't try to change anything. He's got his own little quirks. His heads up in the air and his tails in the air—we joke we don't know which is higher—but we don't try to change it. I don't try to change anything to fit me; I just try to be myself, the best I can, to try to get along with the horse and stay out of their way. He's an easy horse to stay out of his way because he's such an honest horse."

"This horse is such a confidence booster. It's just so nice to have a horse that you can rely on. It's like having a good man in your life—between JYSK Im Famous and Show Mance and even Edwin (Cameron, her boyfriend)—they might do some things that you don't like, but darn when you need them, they're always there and you can always rely on them. You can count on them. Those things you don't like...you're just grateful to have that good man in your life and you don't want to lose them."

Masters of the Mud -- Sabra O'Quinn & Alive With Chaos Win Pikes Peak Or Bust Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Multiple Southeastern Circuit Champion Sabra O'Quinn and Alive With Chaos picked their way through the mud at the Pikes Peak Or Bust Rodeo in Colorado Springs for a $16,000 championship.

"He's just a blessing," said the Ocala, Florida, barrel racer. "He was meant to be there."

Earlier this year, O'Quinn picked up the 12-year-old, Joleen Hales-bred gelding from her longtime friend Heather Fleckinger.

"She's a very good friend of mine," said O'Quinn. "I've known her forever. She normally just goes to the 4Ds. She and her son started to rope together so about the beginning of the year, she asked if I could sell Chaos for her. She wanted him to go to a good home. I said, 'Well, if I can win on him, I'm sure I can sell him.'"

Nearly every time she ran Chaos, O'Quinn got a check. Fleckinger was inundated with calls to buy the horse, but her biggest concern was that he have a good home. Luckily, O'Quinn and Fleckinger worked out a deal that allowed Chaos to belong to O'Quinn.

"She's about as particular as I am, or worse!" laughed O'Quinn. "I've watched this horse for years. He's done really well in Florida."

The gelding, by Perks Alive out of Miss First Down SMU, by First Down Kelly, who treats the world as his oyster has taken to the rodeo scene well, normally picking up the slack for O'Quinn superstar Bring It On Guys ("Nosey"). However, in Colorado Springs, all the glory went to Chaos.

"I ran him in the Qualifier," O'Quinn explained. They advanced to the performances, all contestants ran in a qualifying round on June 26, right before the start of the hectic Fourth of July run. "I was up in the beginning and it was super, super deep. He's extremely light footed and he doesn't really use the ground. He's pretty sure-footed for a Florida horse. I knew he'd handle the mud because he doesn't sink."

Surprisingly the 16.3 hand gelding handled his second rodeo performance in less than ideal conditions well.

"He's just figuring it out really well," she said. "People just don't understand that if you have a horse that does well at the 4Ds, at the rodeos you have a lot of obstacles and lot of stimulation when you get to those big rodeo performances."

The biggest stress for O'Quinn and Chaos was making three runs in one day. O'Quinn was out in the last set of eight during Saturday's matinee performance. Their 18.310 won their performance and advanced to the Finals, during the 7 p.m. performance that night. They advanced on their next run into the Shootout, which they won with an 18.413 to win $15,000.

"He'd never been run twice in the same day before much less three times. By the third run, bless his heart, I felt horrible!" said O'Quinn, who had originally planned to swap out Nosey and Chaos. "I just knew I couldn't run Nosey in the mud because that's not her deal, and he runs on top of the ground and could handle it, so I stuck with him. He was just an absolute trooper. I'm so proud of him."

"He's a good boy. He's been fun to have around, and Nosey is really happy about it."

O'Quinn also wanted to thank the Pikes Peak Or Bust Committee and the rodeo judges for doing everything possible to keep the conditions fair and safe despite mother nature.

"I have to give kudos to that committee and the judges," she said. "Before the Finals, all of us girls got together and they moved the whole pattern. It was the same dimensions, but they just moved it back 20 feet to get out of those big, mudhole ruts, so it was safer. They couldn't get a tractor in there so the holes around the barrels were getting really big. They were out there doing that an hour before the rodeo started, so kudos for them."

She also wanted to thank her sponsors Wrangler, Formula 707, Triple Crown Feeds, Formula 1 Noni and Sintal Livestock as well as

"You can't be gone if you don't have someone at home, taking care of stuff. I'm just extremely grateful to be able to do this."

O'Quinn, who qualified for a second run at the Cheyenne Frontier Days on Monday, thanks to a game effort by Chaos, has a busy schedule ahead. She plans on running Nosey (Frenchmans Guy x Full A Irish Whiskey x Paddys Irish Whiskey) at the Days of '47 in Salt Lake City, which O'Quinn has qualified for via her placement in last year's Southeastern Circuit standings, and will run at the Snake River Stampede in Nampa, Idaho, should O'Quinn elect to make the drive on Tuesday. Chaos will run at Ogden, Utah, while Nosey will run at Spanish Fork, Utah.

"It's just hard," she said. "I'm by myself and I've got four horses including that good futurity horse (Gary Langford's, Roarr). You just try to work everything in the best you can. I'm just trying to take it one week at a time. It's all great when you're looking at the book, thinking 'well, I can do this, this and this.' When you start to do it, you say, 'What was I thinking!' Over the Fourth, I think I turned out of more rodeos than I went to!"

O'Quinn, who is basing her operations out of the Lantis family's Seven Down Arena in Spearfish, S.D., plans on staying out through the larger futurities in September.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

As any grandparent can imagine, grandchildren get lots of perks at our house. But even so, I was surprised when Mike gave in and told them they could tame a couple of kittens for the indoor arena. As usual, they quickly grew into cats and the new wore off and we had a bill for neutering and shots.

Fast forward to a few weeks ago. One of the cats hitched a ride with Mike out to The Barn on church night. It is about 7 miles away and when the pickup stopped, the cat was gone. And as any grandparent would know, we DID NOT TELL THE GRANDCHILDREN! We pretended she was hunting. Well, lo and behold, here she was this morning! Very scruffy! Very hungry! I've never heard of a cat finding its way home but she did. She likes the good food, water and heat in the winter! And you know, I was really happy to see her.

Which takes me to the account of the prodigal son. Luke 15:11-24. He wanted to leave home with his inheritance. And the father allowed him to. But he was a mess and spent it all on riotous living

(I think that means he partied a lot). Next thing you know, he's hungry, homeless and eating what the pigs were eating. And then he had a revelation, "I think I'll go home". When he was a ways off, his father saw him and ran to meet him and the celebration was on! Our heavenly Father is like that with us.

We may have been close to the Lord and then we go off being a mess. But hard times come and we know exactly where our answer is. Some of us run back to the Lord and others are afraid He'll turn us away. He won't. He loves us. If you are out there with the pigs, come home. It's where your answer is. You'll be safe here.
