

MR. JACQUES DE CHATEAUVIEUX

Jacques de Chateauvieux, aged 62, graduated from the Institut Supérieur de Gestion (ISG) de Paris in 1972 and earned an MBA from Columbia University, New York in 1974.

He began his career as a financial controller for l'Union des Transports Aériens (U.T.A) in Paris. He then joined Boston Consulting Group in Paris where, for three years, he worked as a consultant in business strategy and executive management.

In 1979, he was appointed Chief Executive Officer of the Réunion Island-based company BOURBON with the objective of restructuring the sugar industry of La Reunion.

During the years that followed, Jacques de Chateauvieux transformed the company into a conglomerate listed on the Paris Stock Exchange, successfully positioning it as an international player in the retail and marine services industries. As from 2001, he started to lead the group's gradual concentration from its historic business activities to focus on offshore marine services to the oil and gas industry. After 32 years at the head of BOURBON, Jacques de Chateauvieux is currently Chairman of the Board of Directors. Jacques de Chateauvieux is also President and Managing Director of Jaccar Holdings, which is a reference shareholder of BOURBON, and has developed since 2004 a diversified business portfolio targeting growth and value creation.
