

No Objections On Zoning Ordinance At Public Hearing

Enactment Almost Certain At June 7 Meeting, Council Studying Building Code

Not a single objection to re-enactment of the city's zoning ordinance was made at the hearing held Monday night. It appears almost certain the proposed ordinance will be adopted without change at the next council session, Monday night, June 7.

Glen Coon, local manager of the Consumers Power Co., suggested two changes to clarify the rights of utility firms or municipal power plants in the installation of electric poles, wires and other apparatus.

Alderman Gerald L. Parsons, chairman of the zoning committee, explained that the suggestions made by Coon can be included in amendments which will be made to the ordinance later.

"Right now," Parsons said, "we are more interested in getting the ordinance into effect. The city has been without zoning protection long enough."

The new zoning ordinance differs only slightly from the ordinance which lawyers claimed was defective a year ago. The defect, the lawyers explained, was in the failure of the council back in 1947 to publicly announce hearings. Failure to give notice was a fatal error, lawyers held. With that opinion, the council merely abandoned the enforcement of the old ordinance.

A major change approved several weeks ago and incorporated in the ordinance exhibited at the hearing Monday night is switching the triangle bounded by Sycamore, State and Park streets into B residential. The old ordinance had all the block in B except the former Fowler Blacksmith shop on the point between State and Sycamore.

Don VanderVeen, Sr., had demanded that the house next to it be made commercial along with the shop. He owned the house and the shop. When the change was not made VanderVeen hired a lawyer and the error in the old ordinance was found. A year ago the shop was destroyed by fire. The house was moved off. Now the entire block is zoned as B residential.

Last year VanderVeen said he planned to erect a building for a retail store.

Parsons explained Monday night that the provisions of the zoning ordinance are elastic and can be changed when necessity arises.

Study Building Code
Enactment of a building code as a companion measure to the zoning ordinance is now being studied by the council.

On Monday night the aldermen were informed of the recent enactment of a building code for Meridian township. The Meridian ordinance appears on Page 4 and 5 of Part 3 in this edition of the Ingham County News. Many of the provisions of the Meridian ordinance can be incorporated into a building code for Mason, several members of the council indicated.

Thieves at Work In Rural Areas

Sheriff's officers so far have been unable to solve a series of thefts which occurred Saturday. Thieves at the Frank Miller farm on Waverly road near Barnes road made off with a 16-gauge and a .410 Remington shotgun, a 22 rifle, two fishing rods, two reels and other sporting goods as well as a vacuum sweeper. The Millers were away Saturday and entrance was gained through a rear door. A key was used to turn the lock.

A radio was stolen Saturday from the Francis Cooper farm home on Plains road east of US-127, and a radio was stolen from the home of Mrs. Anna LeSeney on Curcote road in Autlettus.

Prospects Bright For Fruit Crop

Unless some unforeseen disaster happens, the prospects for good fruit crops in Ingham are the best in several years.

A GOODLY INHERITANCE

Benefactor Given Farm
Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Martin Head of Ingham Township received a 40-acre farm, personal property and some cash for the help given their neighbor, Fritz Martin.

Twenty years ago Fritz Martin and his brother-in-law, Ernest Schultz, came from Germany. They bought the 40 acres in Ingham township, north of Dansville and lived there in bachelors' quarters. They did their own cooking and housework. They worked their farm. They helped their neighbors until ago began to take its toll.

Three years ago they had to give up farming. They let their fields out. The two men had lived well but frugally. They had the farm free and clear, held jointly, with the property to go to the survivor.

On April 5, Schultz died at the Mason General hospital. He was a widower. His wife had died in childbirth and the child had also died. His property went to Martin. Martin lived there in the house alone. Neighbors frequently would stop in to see what he needed. On Tuesday, May 4, he suggested to

Hensons Back In Cleaning Business

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Henson are back at the old stand at Henson's Dry Cleaners on West Ash in Mason. They sold the establishment to Robert Moon of Dearborn two years ago in June. On Thursday last week Henson's retired. He was a widower. His wife had died in childbirth and the child had also died. His property went to Martin.

"I just grew tired of resting," Henson replied when he was asked why he was returning to business. "We had a hard time for two years. We traveled, we did a lot of things we wanted to do. Then we discovered the thing we wanted most to do was to be back in business, serving the public, doing something. That's why we're back."

Henson said he had already placed orders for considerable new equipment and some of it is already on the way here. Mr. and Mrs. Moon have returned to Dearborn, where he will be associated with his father in the dry cleaning business.

Bleachers Arrive For Athletic Field

New portable bleachers for athletic field have arrived this week. Foundations will be provided and the new seats will be ready for use next fall. The seating capacity will be 2,250.

Bleachers which have been used at the field, now owned by the county fair board. They seated 1,250 uncomfortably.

Members of the school board held a special meeting Wednesday night and visited the field on an inspection trip. The south part of the field, now owned by the county fair board, is being developed for a baseball diamond and a practice football field. New seeding was done on the football gridiron to fill in the bare spots. The gridiron was seeded a year ago.

Following the inspection trip to the field, members of the board of education returned to the school to study the 1948-49 school budget.

Priest, Rabbi and Pastor Address Mason Gathering

Roman Catholic, Jew and Protestant faiths were represented at the Mason gathering Tuesday night in the Knights of Pythias hall. The occasion was the inter-faith meeting sponsored by the Mason Kiwanis club. Members of the Lions club and the Junior Chamber of Commerce were among the guests.

During the meeting, Father Keating of St. Joseph's, Rabbi Freedman and Rev. Kearney Kirky of Lansing were the speakers. Rev. Kirky pointed out that although there is a difference in faiths, all religious groups have the same work to do in improving living conditions, in supporting the government, in lowering economic and social barriers and in working for world peace. He declared that while there are some 250 Protestant sects almost 90 per cent of the members of these sects have a common meeting ground in the state and federal Council of Churches.

Father Keating said that man has an obligation to God along with his obligation to the state. He pointed out that religion motivates man's conscience. "Without religion," Father Keating said, "men lose their respect for their fellow men, for their parents and for themselves. Many cases of juvenile delinquency lack any sense of responsibility. They don't know their obligations to their children, to their church or to their God."

Stockbridge Man Killed in Crash At Intersection

Two Others Escape With Minor Injuries in Crash At Barnes and US-127
George E. Walker, 51, Stockbridge builder, was almost instantly killed in a collision at the intersection at Laxtons corners Friday night shortly after 8:00. Laxtons corners is four miles south of Mason on US-127, the intersection of the trunkline with Barnes road.

Walker was driving west on Barnes and his car collided with a car driven by Frank Spicuzza of Lansing. Spicuzza was headed north on US-127.

Archie F. Cochran of Dansville was riding with Walker. The two men were going to Albion. Cochran was bruised and shaken but did not go to a hospital. Spicuzza was taken to the Mason General hospital for treatment of cuts and bruises. He was then taken to his home in Lansing. Both cars were wrecked.

Spicuzza told officers he did not see Walker's car until it was in the center of the intersection, in the path of the northbound car. He told officers he believed Walker stopped before entering the intersection. Spicuzza, a driver for Interstate Trucking Co., was alone in his car.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Artz saw the accident and they were unable to tell whether or not Walker stopped before driving onto the trunkline.

Had Planned Trip
Walker had planned a trip to Kentucky over the week end. He expected to leave Saturday for Lexington to visit a sister and bring back a nephew.

Born in Dansville November 21, 1897, Walker spent his early years around Dansville and Stockbridge. He was the son of Frank and Mary Jane Walker. For a number of years he was in the real estate business in the west. For several years he had followed the carpenter's trade. He recently sold his farm. He was never married. Survivors are three sisters, Mrs. Edith Baxter of Lexington, Kentucky, Miss Ruth Walker of Milwaukee, and Miss Jessie Walker of Detroit.

Funeral services were at the Milroy funeral home in Stockbridge Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Burial will be in the Williamson cemetery. Rev. Bert Edde, rector of the Episcopal church at Laxtons Corners, officiated.

Soldiers Return From Japan Duty

Bill Parsons and Robert Ware arrived in Mason Tuesday morning from California. Parsons and Ware had been stationed in Japan for nearly two years, and they returned home together. Parsons is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Parsons of Lansing. Ware is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ware of Lansing. Parsons and Ware are both graduates of the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York.

Parsons, Ware, Hart, Osterberg and Shoemaker graduated from Mason high school in 1946 and entered the service soon after graduation.

Woman Missing Only In Dream

An hallucination of a driver who had carried too long at a tavern search for a woman who was missing. The driver, a woman, was found by the sheriff's officers and two Mason firemen. She was found in a field near the tavern. She had been missing for several days. She was found to be in good health and was returned to her home.

Next Week Short For News Staff

Next week will be shortened a day for the Ingham County News. Monday is a legal holiday when all public offices and stores will be closed. There will be no mail deliveries.

Have You Met?

Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Smith of East Maple street, Mason? Mr. Smith is a former compositor of the Ingham County News who changed his career as a printer four years ago to enter the Olivet Nazarene college, Kankakee, Illinois. He was graduated last week and the family has returned to Mason to make their home.

Spring Floods Dredge Channel Through Fertile Field

HOW GRAND CANYONS START is shown by this new ravine on the Leon Dexter farm in Williamston township. Four years ago this was a level field, one of the most fertile fields in all outdoors. Now down through the middle of this 24 acres of wheat is the deep ravine. A gash 600 feet long, between 8 and 10 feet deep and from 12 to 15 feet across has been carved out of the field and carried into Coon creek and on down to the Red Cedar, the Grand and into Lake Michigan.

Surface water, just the runoff, has cut this canyon in the field of Leon Dexter on Sherwood road in Williamston township.

Rolled up wire fencing, tree-tops, limbs, strawstacks and cribbing has failed to stop this spectacular carrying away of a big field.

Remedies recommended by the technicians of the Ingham county soil conservation district are now being applied.

Before the summer ends a long stretch of 12-inch tile will carry water underground to Coon creek, which is just this side of the line of trees in the picture. The big tile will be filled by hauling the spoil banks left from the last dredging of the creek. A graded waterway will cover the surface of what is now the gully so the water will walk off instead of run off the land. Then on the Dexter farm contour fitting and planting practices will be followed to prevent a recurrence of the same thing.

The Dexter farm has been in the same family 55 years. There are 100 acres in the one piece with 50 across Sherwood road to the north. Two sons, Donald and Ronald, work the Dexter farm along with 370 acres of other land. During the war the three farmed 1,000 acres. They are big operators, good farmers.

There is a fall of 28 feet from Sherwood road to Coon creek, and that brought on the trouble. Water comes from the north, across Sherwood road onto the Dexter farm. It settles in a pond behind the barn and seeps away through a line of tile unless there is too much surface water. There has been too much surface water, especially these last two springs. Both years the water has overflowed the pond and coursed back toward Coon creek, tearing big chunks of land away to carry along to the creek.

Probably the gully would never have been carved had not Dexter broken his back by falling from the rear of a truck. He was hauling tile four years ago to head off further damage by water when the accident happened. He has only recently been able to resume farm work. For four years he has been almost helpless against the torrents which have carried away his land. Now with the help of his sons and the soil conservation service he intends to fight back.

Case Is Spectacular
Actually, the erosion loss on the Dexter farm is not much worse than on other farms, Overholt pointed out; it is just more spectacular.

"No one should minimize the loss to the Dexter farm," Overholt declared. "It will cost several thousand dollars to repair the damage. Yet on every slope in Ingham county where good conservation practices are not used sheet erosion has carried away the valuable top soil. If the top soil is carried away the cut might just as well be 12 feet as two inches. No greater damage is done."

"On the Dexter farm, though, the land carried away has filled up the creek, the Red Cedar river and a portion of the Grand. All drainage in the area has been slowed because of the 2,400 cubic yards gashed out of the one field."

Holt Asks Count To Establish Status as City

Petition Filed Requesting Supervisors to Place Incorporation on Ballot

Holt, now just a settled part of Delhi township, will be a city and a good sized one if the proceedings now under way, go through. A request was filed Tuesday with County Clerk C. Ross Hilliard for a census enumeration. A petition was also filed asking the board of supervisors to call an election for the people of the Holt area to decide whether they will remain unincorporated or become a city.

For several years there has been a demand on the part of Holt residents for a changed status. Those in favor of the proposal declared the thickly settled community has outgrown its township garments, that streets and sewers and water service are beyond the scope of township services. Those who opposed incorporation have mentioned the low tax rate resulting from the county road commission building and maintaining streets.

Limits set for the new city meander on the east and west. On the north they reach the Midway store sector. On the south they reach Gunn crossing, the intersection of US-127 and Hogback road. On the west the limits jog back and forth to take in most of the thickly settled areas. At one place the west limits reach a half mile beyond Aurelius road and at other places they are within a quarter of a mile of Eifer road. The same situation prevails on the east. In some places the east limits are at the Michigan Central right of way. Further south the limits follow Fine Tree road.

State Must Act
Under the law, the county clerk upon receipt of a request for a census enumeration, forwards it to the secretary of state within five days, and the secretary of state confers with the township supervisor, John B. Fay, on the naming of enumerators. The enumerators chosen start their count, reporting to the secretary of state, and he, in turn, to the board of supervisors.

Upon receipt of a petition asking for an election on incorporation as a city, the board of supervisors checks the population count and if the board eyes the proposal with favor, sets an election date.

If the voters in the area approve incorporation a divorce has to be arranged with the township. The town hall is in Holt. The township also has an interest in the fire equipment. A settlement between township and now city has to be reached.

Under the fifth class city act, Holt will be entitled to two supervisors.

Convictions Upheld By Supreme Court

County Clerk C. Ross Hilliard received remittances from the state supreme court Tuesday upholding the convictions and sentences of Dr. Mikel Sherman and former Senator Carl Delano. They were convicted of conspiracy in the naturopath case.

Dr. Sherman, a broken, aged man, is serving his sentence of 3 to 5 years in Jackson. Delano has been stricken with paralysis, it is reported, and may never enter prison.

The supreme court heard the appeal last October. The decision was handed down May 21.

$225 Is Needed To Cover Plans For Recreation

The recreation fund is still short $225 if the summer play program is going to be operated as planned. That was the report made by F. H. Tinkler, recreation council chairman, Wednesday.

"There are two courses open," Tinkler pointed out, "we can trim down our program under what we consider are the basic needs, or we can go out and ring doorbells to get $225. But what would be even better would be for people who have not yet contributed to drop their money into containers now in some Mason stores or send the money to a member of the committee. Just a few $50 and $10.00 bills will turn the trick."

DRAIN SURVEY MADE

Completion of the survey of the Beach drain in section 21 of Vevoy township has been announced by Gerald L. Graham, county drain commissioner. The lower terminus is in the Barnard drain. The Beach drain will be closed, the first section of ten-inch sewer tile with the upper two sections of 10-inch and 8-inch drain tile.

Kindergarteners Will Number 70

There is another bumper crop of kindergarteners for next fall at Mason. Superintendent James H. Vander Von said that 69 were enrolled last Thursday and there will probably be an increase of five more by fall. This year there are 75 enrolled.

At the meeting of mothers of next fall's kindergarteners, the superintendent asked that parents hold back children in the youngest bracket even though the law permits their attendance.

Health standards and regulations were discussed by a representative of the county health department. Mrs. Geraldine Johnson, kindergarten teacher, told mothers about the aid they can give their children in preparing them for kindergarten. Room mothers from the MPA served refreshments.

Injured On Fall From Moving Car

Eric Collar, aged two years and nine months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burylton Collar of Plains road, escaped serious injury or possible death when he fell from the rear door of the family car near Holt, Tuesday last week.

The car was being driven by his mother at an estimated speed of 30 miles an hour. Eric was sitting beside his grandmother, Mrs. Everett Collar, who was holding the collar baby on her lap. The boy's mother questioned the grandmother whether the door was locked and she assured her it was.

Eric tested the lock himself, with the result that the door flew open. He was thrown to the pavement in the line of traffic. Mrs. Collar stopped quickly and rushed to her son. Two cars which were following were able to stop before running over the child. Finding no medical aid in Holt, Eric was rushed to Sparrow hospital where it was found that he suffered only bruises of the face, head, arms and knees.

Mason Thinclads Defeat Comets

By Norm Parisian
Mason high school's track team buried Grand Lodge 75 1/2 to 33 1/2 in a dual meet under the lights at Grand Lodge Friday night.
Red Johnson was the big pointer with 4 1/2. He took a first in the high jump, a first in the pole vault, a third in the broad jump and ran a leg on Mason's winning relay team.

Mason placed fourth in the Capital Circuit track meet held at Michigan State college Tuesday. Charlotte was first with Eaton Rapids second, Howell third, and with Everett in fifth place behind Mason and Grand Lodge finishing sixth.

Doug Stringer of Howell was the star of the meet, taking first in both hurdle events and the broad jump for a total of 15 points. Red Johnson was close behind with 12 points. He tied for first in the high jump, was second in the pole vault and second in the broad jump.

Ed Parker of Mason flashed into second place in the half-mile, out of a field of 15.
In the preliminaries for the state meet to be held at Michigan State next two Mason men qualified. Barney Curtis and Don Jennings, both in the 4:40. Both Curtis and Jennings placed second in their heats at Ann Arbor Saturday.

Hospitals

Mrs. Ethel Minnis entered the Mason general hospital on Monday, May 19 for treatment.

Malvin Clark, son of Mr. Isabelle Clark, was admitted to the Mason general hospital for treatment on May 24, when he was injured in a fall from a truck.

Claude Murray, Mrs. Grace Whipple and Mrs. Mabel Ennis were among the patients discharged from the hospital the past week.

Summer Outmodes Sheep's Clothing

During recent years, the men's clothing industry has been developing new materials that are gradually freeing men from the long-accepted wool-in-summer idea. Removing a vest during the summer isn't the way to cool off these days, according to a spokesman from Joy O. Davis & Co. It's done now with rich, summer clothing, if not with sheer materials, loose-woven ones are used, designed especially for air cooling men's clothing.

Cotton and rayon suitings, for example, have long been popular in the south, where the fabric was regarded as a summer essential. These materials are just beginning to become popular in the north, where summer humidity is a heavy contender for discomfort honors. Rayon suitings, loosely woven to allow free passage of air, yet wrinkle-resistant, have been further developed in recent years to satisfy even the most persistent diehards.

When wool and worsted is used, the yarns are much thinner and more colorful than the winter monotones and tweeds. Shirts and sport shirts are getting lighter and lighter with the advent of completely washable featherweight rayon fabrics.

The clothing industry has been working year around, Davis added, to provide retailers with attractive cool garments for men. They've felt that men have been mice long enough about breaking away from the accepted rules about what will be worn in the summertime. In line with the new policy, both national and local advertising of men's apparel is featuring more of the new, cool fabrics this year.

Presbyterians Fete Departees

The Women's association of the Mason Presbyterian church will meet in the church parlors Thursday evening, May 27, at eight o'clock. Following the business session, there is to be a planned discussion on "Women—the Architects of Tomorrow's World."

The official board of the association will meet in the church office at 7:15 preceding the general meeting, and a committee from Circle 4 will have charge of the social hour.

At the meetings last week two divisions of the association honored members who expect to leave Mason soon. Division 1 presented a gift to Mrs. William J. Boegly and Mrs. John Lamont was the recipient of a gift from members of Circle 4. Mrs. Boegly plans to leave soon to make her home in New York, and Mrs. Lamont will soon leave Mason for Lapeer. Mrs. W. L. Cheney of Eaton Rapids was present for the meeting of Circle 4.

Bulgarian Pianist Presents Musical
Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith of West Columbia road opened their home Sunday afternoon for a musical. Mrs. Smith is a patroness of the Sigma Alpha Iota musical society of Albion college. She was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Richard Anderson of Ann Arbor, a Sigma Alpha Iota member.

Mrs. Smith introduced Madam Donche DeKova, an eminent Bulgarian concert pianist, who has recently come to this country from France. Madam DeKova has appeared as a concert pianist with numerous leading symphony orchestras in Europe. She has just completed three years study with Alfred Cortot at the Paris conservatory. Prior to going to France she was a pupil of Paul DeKon, son of the great Rubenstein, at Vienna.

She presented a varied program out of her extensive repertoire. With great feeling she interpreted the moods of the artist-composers to her audience. Included on the program were the Bach-Taussig "Toccatto in D Minor," Chopin's "Fantasy, Opus 16," Brahms' "F Minor Sonata," "Gavotte in E Minor" by Bach and excerpts from "The Emperor Concerto" by Beethoven. She also played a selection from the Bulgarian composer, Viadgeroff Pippkoff, and closed with a group of waltzes from Strauss.

Following the musical, the guests were served tea from a table decorated with sorority colors. An arrangement of red tulips, white lilies and spiraea in a crystal bowl were centered on a white Italian lace cloth. The centerpiece was flanked on either side by red tapers in crystal holders. Mrs. L. U. Rowland of Albion, a patroness, poured. Tea, coffee, small canapés, small decorated cakes, tea cookies, nuts and mints were served.

Guests included members of the musical society, Dr. L. U. Rowland, director of Albion conservatory of music, and Mrs. Rowland; Prof. David Strickler, head of the

VISIT IN CHICAGO

Mr. and Mrs. Gull Every spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown at their farm near Chicago.

HONOR RETIRING EMPLOYEES

Fifty members of Local 443 of Wyeth Incorporated and their families met at the Wyeth Co. P. hall Friday night to honor two members of the union, who will retire June 1. The honored men were P. L. Bradman and Daniel Patrick. Following the supper, which was served by the Rebekahs, J. D. Hammar of the conservation department showed movies on conservation work.

Short of Print

A shipment of newspaper expected this week, did not arrive. Twenty-four pages had been scheduled. It became necessary to reduce the run to 22. Some news items and advertising had to be held over until next week.

Farm Bureau

WHEATFIELD COMMUNITY The Wheatfield Community Farm Bureau met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence T. Smith on Tuesday evening, May 18. Fourteen members answered roll call to the question: "Are you afraid of lightning and have you ever had any experience with it?" Chairman George Vandenberg followed roll call with an article on lightning and its origin. The discussion topic for the evening was "Do You Want Controlled or Uncontrolled Production?" led by Berton Johnson, discussion leader. The group voted against the proposition. The group concluded their meeting by voting a contribution to the cancer fund and by a song program, directed by Pearl Beach and a recreation period.

NORTHWEST BUNKER HILL Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ward were hosts Thursday evening, May 21 to the Northwest Bunker Hill Farm Bureau group. The discussion topic, led by Clifford Ward, was "Do We Want Controlled Production?" The 25 members present voted negatively to the question. The June meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lumber.

DEXTER TRAIL Dexter Trail Farm Bureau members will meet Friday evening, May 28 at the home of Howard Fay and Miss Maxine Fay. The topic for discussion is "Do We Want Controlled Production?" Co-hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Howard Coy and Mrs. Floyd Launstein.

WILSON COMMUNITY Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gillett will entertain members of the Wilson Community Farm Bureau on Thursday, May 27. The program will start at 8:30.

Extension Club

The third annual family night of the Housel Extension Club was held Saturday evening, May 22, at the G. A. R. hall in Leslie. A pollock dinner was served at 8:30 p. m., under the direction of Helen Hart, to 45 members and guests. A short program was presented by Dorothy Jackson and Elizabeth Wood. Bingo was played during the evening.

The principal reason for using meat as a food, aside from its taste, is that it furnishes proteins; it also furnishes some fat and vitamins.

Auction Calendar

Saturday, May 29, Mrs. Orpha Goble, 2 1/2 miles west of Leslie on Bellevue road to Ridley road. 1/2 mile north.

Saturday, May 29, Mrs. Nellie Hawley, 211 North Clinton street in the village of Stockbridge.

Wednesday, June 2, Raymond Burley and Jay Barber, 9 miles southwest of Fowerville on Iosco road, the Jay Barber farm.

Legal Notice

BIDS WANTED Sealed bids will be accepted until 8 p. m., June 7, 1948, for mechanical digging of 97 1/2 feet of trench for water mains in the city of Mason. Laying and covering mains will be done by the city. The privilege is reserved by the city council to reject any and all bids. Address bids to City Clerk, Mason, 843 Barnes Street, Mason, chairman of the committee. By order of City Council. 21w2

Mason Walloped By Charlotte

By Norm Parisian

Mason went to Charlotte last Thursday looking for its fifth victory and instead met with its defeat. Charlotte won the game with some heavy hitting. Lackluster play by the Bulldogs made it easy for Charlotte. Mason was charged with five errors.

The Orioles treated three Mason pitchers like long lost cousins by smacking out 12 hits, good for 13 runs, while Mason was collecting seven hits. Three of them coming from the big bat of Wayne Gahbert, off Bob Brown. Bob and his brother, Dan Brown, proved Mason's downfall, getting three and two hits respectively.

This and that. Mr. and Mrs. D. Lee Ware attended a meeting of the Michigan Pharmaceutical association held in Flint last Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The Linking service station and the A. Rice Chevrolet agency have both had exterior paint jobs this past week. Mrs. William Dabb of Schmidt's was in Detroit on business Tuesday. Mrs. Daisy Smith of the Paristyle Shoppe also left Tuesday for Chicago on a buying trip. Frank Allen of Detroit is staying with Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Henson and working in the Modern Cleaners plant. As soon as school is out, his family will join him in Mason. Mrs. Ursula Hines is another new employee in the Henson organization. Mr. and Mrs. Ford Asellina are spending the holiday week end with their son and family in Chicago. Mrs. Clarence Jacobs is working at the Dart National bank during the vacation period of Miss Indu DuBois. Miss DuBois, however, is working at the bank for a few days during her vacation in order to assist John Dart. Dart, who recently suffered a back injury, returned Wednesday after a few days spent at home.

Shop Talk

Opens Resale Shop

Mrs. Mort Raymond is organizing a new kind of business on June 1, when she announces the opening of the Dorothy Helen Resale shop at her home on Center street. Clothing of all kinds will be accepted on consignment. Mrs. Raymond said, and sold on a commission basis. Store hours are planned for 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Former Demonstration

Friday, June 11, is the date set for an ironer demonstration at the West Ash street store of the Dart & Cady hardwares, according to Jim Dart. A factory-trained representative from the Iron-Rite organization will give demonstrations on the use of automatic ironers at a morning and afternoon session.

Buy Agency

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. G. McCowan have purchased the Mason E. Reynolds insurance agency, serving buyers of fire and wind policies from the American Insurance company. Mr. and Mrs. McCowan handle fire, wind and other policies from several insurance companies and have purchased the Reynolds agency in order to increase their service. Memorial Poppies on Sale Saturday

It has been estimated that this year more than 25,000,000 Americans will wear the American Legion Auxiliary's memorial poppy on Poppy Day, May 29. Sales of the red flower in Mason are in charge of Browne-Cavender Auxiliary, with Mrs. L. L. Kelly as general chairman of the campaign, assisted by a number of volunteer workers.

The poppies, crepe paper replicas of the wild poppies that grew on the European battlefields of two wars, have for over a quarter of a century symbolized the heroism of those who gave their lives in these struggles.

Meridian Township Is Holding Meeting On Zoning Rules

A public meeting has been called Friday night, May 28, at eight o'clock on a new zoning ordinance for Meridian township. The hearing will be held at the Haslett school. All residents of the township are asked to attend the meeting.

The township board met Monday night to give its final approval to a building code for the township. The new ordinance appears on Pages 4 and 5, Part 3, of this edition of the Ingham County News.

Comedy Is Holiday Feature

The genius gets a bright idea at 11 a. m. Lucille Ball and Franchot Tone in a sequence from "Her Husband's Affairs," coming to the Fox Sunday and Monday.

"The Woman on the Beach" will be shown at the Fox on Saturday. Joan Bennett, Robert Ryan and Charles Bickford are co-starred.

Peggy Butler, married to a noted artist who has become blind, attracts J. Scott Burgett, in command of the Coast Guard station. Although he is in love with Eva Geddes who runs a boat yard, his infatuation for Peggy is so strong he is helplessly unaware that she has inspired murderous hate in him for Ted, her husband.

"Double Feature" Philip Reed and Hillary Brooke are co-starred as Steve Wilson and Lorelei Kilbourne in "I Cover Big Town," coming to the Fox on Saturday.

"I Cover Big Town" carries on Steve Wilson's exciting crusade against lawlessness in Big Town. Lorelei talks Steve into assigning her the police beat, and things immediately begin to pop.

The big story is all hers when she and Steve stumble onto a trunk murder.

The police have a pretty convincing case against a man and his wife, but Lorelei believes them innocent and follows up her hunch. Through her efforts, the real murderer is captured, an escaped convict is killed while trying to elude the police, the Illustrated Press scoops it rival, and the gutless couple are freed.

Holiday Program Franchot Tone and Lucille Ball are the stars of "Her Husband's Affairs," the Sunday and Monday feature at the Fox.

The two stars play a husband and wife team. Franchot is a high-pressure ad executive who gets his brightest ideas at five o'clock in the morning; while Lucille plays the perfect housewife who manages to save her genius spouse when his terrific ideas backfire. "Slippy McGee," starring Don Barry is the companion feature.

New Garson Film "Desire Me," the M-G-M drama being shown on the Fox screen Tuesday and Wednesday stars Greer Garson in a new role.

Miss Garson portrays the role of Marise, a French girl in a small fishing village, who mourns the soldier husband Paul, who has been announced as being dead. When she is abruptly confronted by a stranger, Jean Renaud, who is determined to fill the void left by Paul and who fascinates Marise by his knowledge of her married life, the drama of the plot first makes itself apparent.

WHITING Mrs. M. V. Butler Mr. and Mrs. Martie Grettenberger and family were guests Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence T. Smith and family.

Mrs. M. V. Butler spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Carrie Riggs.

Mrs. and Mrs. Lawrence Bolter and Sammie Loring spent Monday at the Lawton Clickner home. Mr. and Mrs. Don Wygant called at the M. V. Butler home Saturday.

DERBY NEIGHBORHOOD Mrs. G. W. Springman Mrs. Lyle Frinkle entertained the women of the community at a shower in honor of Mrs. William Meyer. Mrs. Irene Runciman directed several contests and quizzes after which the guest of honor opened her gifts, which were piled on a small table and decorated with blue and white bows and streamers. The hostess, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Edmore of New York, served dainty refreshments.

Mrs. Meyer received many gifts from her friends. James Edmore and W. Dalysatt have been painting the Derby school.

Many from this community attended baccalaureate exercises at Stockbridge Sunday evening. Rev. James of the Baptist church delivered the sermon.

Several friends surprised Stanley Hartman on his 19th birthday anniversary Saturday evening. The evening was spent in visiting and playing cards. Mrs. Hartman provided refreshments.

The Derby school pupils enjoyed a wicker roast Friday to mark the closing of the school year. Lois Feldpaugh and Timothy Cavender are the eighth grade graduates.

Bliss Submitted on Building Program At the special board meeting Thursday evening to accept bids on the proposed building project the following bids were submitted: building without plumbing and heating, Granger Bros., $24,071; William, Corr, $23,600; and W. H. Bentley and Sons, $23,130. The only bid submitted for plumbing, heating and electrical equipment was made by Dart and Cady for $8,825.

No definite action was taken on the bids submitted, pending a revision of some details in plans. At the present time there is insufficient money in the building and site fund to finance this building according to submitted bids. It is expected that it will be necessary to ask for a special levy to supplement this building fund for a couple of years.

California Fruit Pack
California canneries processed 60,890 784 cases of fruits and vegetables during 1947, according to a report of the Canners League of California. This was about 13,789,000 cases under the all-time record of 83,178,770 cases in 1946, but was the second largest total in the history of the state. The fruit pack totaled 33,162,724 cases compared with 31,704,991 in 1946. A seven million case drop in apricots and a 2,275,000 case reduction in cling peaches accounted for most of the decline from the 1946 pack.

Social Events and Personals

Reception Was Gala Event

Weeks of planning and hard work culminated Friday night when the juniors feted the seniors at the annual reception. "Summer Time in Dixieland" was the theme chosen by the juniors.

The evening began with a dinner at the Legion Memorial hall served by the members of the freshmen class. Included on the menu was pineapple juice, Virginia baked ham, potato balls, sweet potato pudding, green peas, garden stuffs, corn sticks and other hot breads, ropy cake and coffee. The dinner was prepared by mothers of junior class members.

The tables were decorated with miniature wagons filled with cotton balls, cotton ball cutouts and miniature old-fashioned southern style lamps which served as place-cards. Mixed bouquets were also placed throughout the hall.

Phillip Boyne was master of ceremonies. Bob Lyons, president of the junior class, gave the welcome with Harold Ware, president of the senior class, responding. Thih Coby sang "I'm Falling in Love With Someone" and "Summer-time". Mrs. Coralie Matheny gave the toast to the teachers after which Don Redman rendered a piano selection. Lewis Sowers, representing the school board, addressed the group. Beverly Orr provided plantation melodies during the dinner hour.

At nine o'clock the juniors, seniors, faculty members, board of education members and invited guests gathered in the high school gymnasium, which had been transformed into a southern plantation, to dance to the music of Joe Cappel and his orchestra. Jerry Ray was featured as vocalist.

The bandstand was made to resemble a southern mansion. Three white trellises, which extended from the floor to the balcony were covered with various colored lilies. A pool was in the southern garden on the west side of the gym and a mural of a cotton field formed the background. Two slave huts were on the north end of the gym. On one of the porches there was a painting of a Negro sitting on a barrel eating watermelon, while on the other porch there was a portrait of a Negro performing a dance.

Lilies covered the trellises at each entrance and apple blossoms were entwined on the circular staircase.

During intermission, Clair Otis tap-danced and there was group singing of southern songs. Punch was served to the guests at this time.

Spectators viewed the dancers from the balcony during the evening.

Dexter Trail Horses and Riders Win Top Honors at Grand Rapids Show

Dexter Trail riders returned from Grand Rapids Saturday with many honors. At the annual show held by the Grand Rapids Western Horse club, Mason riders walked off with ribbons and cash against a field of 66 of the best horses in central Michigan.

Clay and Dawn Hulet took first place and the blue ribbon in the matched western pairs class, riding their palomino horses, Pedro and Dusty.

In women's and men's bending combined, the Bravender family looked out for the Mason club with Bill Bravender placing second and Mary Bravender third, with young Billy Bravender placing first in children's bending. Billy also placed fifth in the children's pleasure class.

In the women's pleasure class Mary Bravender placed third riding Freddie, her Appaloosa mare, and Dawn Hulet, fourth, riding Pedro.

In men's western pleasure horse class, Clay Hulet placed third with Dusty.

In speed and action for men, Bill Bravender rode his black stallion, Prince, to third position.

In the quarterhorse halter class,

Dusty, palomino stallion, owned by Clay Hulet, placed third.

The annual show held by the Grand Rapids club is considered one of the top horse shows in Michigan, from the standpoint of drawing top quality horses as contestants. The Hulet and Bravender horses were the only Dexter Trail entrants.

League Baseball Opener Sunday

Mason Merchants will meet Brighton Sunday afternoon in the opener of the reorganized Tri-County league. The game will start at two o'clock at the county park in Mason.

Mike Simone is manager of the Mason team. He saw his team turn back Webberville 8-5 Sunday and expects improvement in drills this week. He has asked all players to report at the park by 1:30 Sunday afternoon.

There are 16 teams in the Tri-County league, split into two divisions. With the exceptions of Mason and Stockbridge, all the teams in the northern division lie along Grand River road. The Grand River teams are Brighton, Novi, Fowlerville, Okemos and East Lansing.

The game last Sunday with Webberville was played on a new field, a good one. The diamond is smooth and the field is equipped with dugout and bleachers.

Sunday's game was tight until the last inning, when just about everything went. Dick Corbin won on the mound for Mason and went all the way. He gave up seven hits. Jeffery hurled for Webberville until he was relieved by Andrews in the ninth, the big inning when six Mason runs and four Webberville runs were scored.

The game was scoreless until the fourth when Mason tallied a run. Another was scored in the fifth and then six crossed the plate in the ninth. Webberville tallied a score in the fifth and then rallied for four in the ninth. Don McDowell with three singles led the Mason attack. The Betcher boys also aided the Mason cause, each banging out a double and a single.

The Mason cast was charged with five errors while Webberville had three.

Big Car Auto Races Planned at Hastings

Big car auto races will be held at Hastings on Sunday, June 6. Time trials will begin at 12 noon and the first race will be held at 2:30. There are several out-state entries. Among those who will be seen on the track are Slim Rutherford of Whiting, Indiana, and Harry King of Tampa, Florida. King won the last race which was held at Hastings on April 25. Dick VanEmmerick of Pontiac will also be in the races.

The races are sponsored by the All-Star Racing association. A baby cannot cry properly until it is at least five weeks old, when the tear ducts start to act.

6-Team Loop Set For Junior Legion

Major Ralph Strope is rounding up players for Mason's Junior Legion baseball team.

The Mason team has been entered in a six-team league. Other teams are East Lansing, Holt, Fowlerville, Stockbridge and the V. F. W. team from Eaton Rapids.

Right now, according to Major Strope, East Lansing looks like the team to beat. The Trojans have Ewing, Kropshot and Foster back.

Mason is depending on Merritt Snyder, Denny Stolz, Ronnie Stolz, Jack Davis, Junior Hayhoe, Sam Williams, Joe Johnson, Herbert Jennings, Phil Parisian, Dan Garver, Harry Freeman, Phil Boyne and Keith Douglas. Any boy who wants to play baseball will be welcomed by the team, Major Strope declared. Sixteen can be carried on the first team roster.

Good Weather Lures Golfers

Warmer weather and clearing skies have resulted in heavy play at the Mason Golf course.

The course is in excellent shape. The greens came through the winter and the wet spring well. The fairways have been filled in with grass well dotted with dandelions.

Cards are already being turned in for the two handicap tournaments which will be started early in June. One tournament is for members only and the other is open.

More golfers are playing on memberships this year. The membership is $20 per person or $40 per family.

DuBois Students Entertain Parents

The pupils of the DuBois school and their teachers, Miss Pauline Hendee, Miss Alice Rowe and Miss Silver entertained the parents at a radio program at the Wheatfield Gleamer hall Thursday, May 20.

The children presented the program with the parents being called on to help. After the program, the teachers were presented gifts. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake, jello, coffee and cocoa were served. The annual school picnic will be held at Rayner park on Thursday, May 27.

Miss Hendee will return as teacher next year.

Crash Injuries Are Fatal to Senator

State Senator George Girschbach died in a Flint hospital Monday. He was injured in an automobile crash near Flint Sunday.

Girschbach and a companion, Carl Widenhofer, Chippewa county welfare director, were returning to Saull Ste. Marie after attending an American Legion function in Flint.

Senator Girschbach was serving his second term in the state senate. He was born in Minnesota and after service in World War I, he returned to the University of Minnesota to teach. He served on the extension staff of Michigan State college from 1924 to 1930. He established the Redway Creamery.

Two years ago Senator Girschbach started in the race for the Republican nomination for governor but later changed his mind and was elected to the state senate. He played a prominent part in the recent special session.

By Joan Rusch

Exams will be taken Tuesday and Wednesday, June 1 and 2.

The junior and senior reception was held Friday night. There was a dinner at 6:30 at the Legion Memorial building and the dance was at nine at the school. The gym was decorated to resemble a southern plantation. Joe Cappio and his orchestra were featured as music with Jerry Ray as vocalist. Pictures were taken by the H. A. Powell studios of Kalamazoo and Detroit.

There was an assembly Tuesday. The student council for 1947 and 1948 met on the stage and held an open meeting. Bob Lyons, recently elected mayor for 1948 and 1949, was sworn in as mayor by the retiring mayor, Charles Johnson and alderman at large, Harold Ware. The new council then held its first meeting with Bob Lyons in charge. There will be no school Monday due to Memorial Day.

Eastern Auto Trip For Three Seniors

The Church of the Nazarene provided a trip last week for Margaret Baker and Evelyn Brooks, Mason high school seniors, and Marilyn Benham, a junior. Accompanied by Rev. and Mrs. Murray Morford, the girls went to Niagara Falls, and then on to New York City, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington and the battlefield at Gettysburg before returning to Mason.

Services Held for Former Resident

Funeral services were held at the Ball funeral home Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock for Mrs. Carrie E. Young, 76, who died at her home at 913 Washington street, Grand Haven, Monday following an illness of 11 days. The Rev. Hamilton Grant Mason, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Grand Haven, of which Mrs. Young was a member, officiated. Burial was in Maple Grove cemetery.

Mrs. Young is survived by the husband, Harvey M. Young, and four daughters, Mrs. Charles F. Seeley of Mason; Mrs. Merton Hurley, Albion; Mrs. Raymond Sess, Lansing; and Miss Lou Young, Grand Haven, also nine grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren and two brothers, Will Snook of Ashland, Oregon and Casper Snook of Lansing.

She was born in Linden, Michigan, June 29, 1871, the daughter of Captain John Snook and Mary Snook. The family later moved to Mason where the daughter attended the Mason school, graduating with the class of 1889. On February 11, 1891, she was married to Mr. Seeley at Mason and they continued their residence here until 1914 when they moved to Lansing. Fifteen years later they went to Charlotte to make their home, where they remained until last October when they went to Grand Haven.

To Have Guest Pastor

Rev. Edward J. Long, Jr., who graduated last week from the Union Theological seminary, New York City, will be the guest pastor at the Leslie Congregational church Sunday morning. He is the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Whitney and with his wife, Dorothy, is spending a short vacation here.

Plan Memorial Day Rites

Memorial Day will be observed in Leslie Monday morning with a parade and exercise at Woodlawn cemetery. The parade, led by the Leslie high school band and followed by the Leslie Post and the Boy Scouts, will form at the high school at 10:15 and march to the cemetery, where short addresses will be given by the chaplains of the local service organizations. Junior Vicary for the American Legion and Kenneth Evans of the VFW.

Baccalaureate Is Sunday

Rev. Carl Arnold Westphal, with Mrs. Westphal, gave an interesting program of object lessons at the usual musical numbers at the service held at the Leslie Methodist church Sunday evening. Next Sunday evening the service will be at the high school auditorium with Rev. Arlo Vandlen, pastor of the Methodist church, will preach the baccalaureate sermon.

Station Is Burglarized

State police are investigating the break-in Friday night at the gas station of Wilfred Wardowski on East Mill street. Thieves escaped with approximately $40 and a quantity of candy. The burglary was discovered by Robert Morgan of Rives Junction, an employee. He said entrance was through a window.

Injured in Accident

An automobile driven by LeRoy Hemmick, 40, of Onondaga, left the highway near the Lane cemetery on the Bellevue road, and hit a tree head-on Saturday morning. Hemmick, with his six year old son, who was seated with him, was taken to Mercy hospital in Jackson where the lad was found to have a broken arm and the father received injuries about the back and hip. The car, which was west-bound, was badly damaged.

The Leslie board of education held a special meeting Monday evening at which they placed orders for two new Chevrolet school buses which will replace two of the older buses at the beginning of the coming school year.

The pupils and patrons of the Weeks school held the school picnic at Russell park Tuesday afternoon.

The burning of a straw stack on the farm of Kendall Wheeler, 2538 W. Kinnerville road, late Saturday afternoon, was the occasion of a call from the Leslie fire department which stood by to prevent the spreading of the fire to the farm buildings.

Mrs. Joseph Anderson of Philadelphia, who is representing the American Baptist reorganization society, will speak to the officers and teachers of the Leslie Baptist Sunday school, Friday evening, June 4.

The service flag at the Leslie Baptist church is to be de-commissioned with appropriate ceremonies at the morning service the coming Sunday.

After A Long Vacation Away From Business

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Henson

Are Once Again Serving You

As all of our customers know who worked with us during the many years we were in business in Mason, our organization is based on two unalterable principles:

Service and Quality

This in no way is changed in our present ownership. You know that perfection has always been our goal; it still is, and we assure all of you that the dry cleaning quality you expect of us will be yours.

Continual Improvement

We have always strived to improve our service continually, and in keeping with this plan, we shall be installing within a short time a new

HAT CLEANING MACHINE

Outstanding Modern Storage

Our storage rooms are the most modern available, one of most up-to-the-minute in the state. It's time now for fur and wool storage, and we assure you careful, scientific treatment for these fabrics and garments.

All these services plus our personal attention to the small details important to our business are yours. And because it has been a long while since we have the opportunity to talk with many of you, we'll hope you'll take the first opportunity to stop in and say hello.

Notice

In order to facilitate our reorganization, we must ask that regular cleaning (not storage) that has been unclaimed for over a year, must be called for at once or it will be sold to make room for incoming clothes.

Eight Fox Are Taken from Vevay Den

On Saturday a week ago a female fox and her seven pups were killed and taken from their den on the Mudge farm on Ives road in Vevay. The farm is now owned by Robert Sturman.

A neighbor, E. H. Bryde, and his family helped dig out the fox family. After the fox were passed by running a hose from the automobile exhaust into the den, it took 4 1/2 hours of digging to reach the living quarters. Carcasses of a lamb, squirrels and pheasants were found in the den along with the wings of many kinds of birds and many bones.

The eight foxes brought $10 in state bounty.

The Sturmans bought the former Dr. Mudge farm of 200 acres from E. D. Franklin last fall, coming to Ingham from Arenac county near Standish. There are two Sturman children, David, 8, and Marian, 5. The children attend the Hubbard school. After living at their new farm only a short time last fall, the family left for a stay of three months in Florida, returning on Easter Sunday to settle down in the community.

Robert H. Sturman was in partnership with his twin brother,

Reuben J., operating a 450-acre dairy farm on the shore of Singinaw Bay. Reuben Sturman bought the Paul Kilburn farm, 4 miles west of Lealle. He and his wife have three children. The family is still in Florida and will remain there until the close of school. Then after a trip in the west they will take up their residence at the farm about July 15.

FOUR TOWN CORNERS

Mrs. Ed Mullen

Several from the neighborhood were in Danville Sunday to attend the funeral of Claude West.

Miss Gene Parks of Lansing spent the week end with her parents.

The children of the Dennis school and their teacher, Mrs. Ruby Curtis, had their picnic at Potter park in Lansing, Friday.

The Community aid meeting has been changed from the Felton home to the Reinhold home and on Thursday, June 3 at supper.

Mrs. Pearl Beach spent Thursday in Detroit with the extension group of Ingham county.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mullen spent Friday in Lansing.

Book Talk

From Ingham County Library

Hours open to the public at Hall Memorial Library, Mason: Every day except Sundays and holidays, 2-5 p. m. Monday, Wednesday and Saturday, 7-9 p. m. During school year, Tuesday 12-11. STORY BOOK HOUR every Saturday, 1:30.

MALABAR FARM is Louis Bronfield's new book about Pleasant Valley. It is written in simple, clear and will appeal to the same readers. The book is somewhat lengthier, however, and has more detail about specific farming methods and experiments, some of which have been continued as profitable, and some of which were abandoned because impractical, particularly after the war when commodities were somewhat easier to obtain. Much of the material included is in response to questions received by the author after PLEASANT VALLEY.

DETROIT MURDERS is one of a publishers series which may be of interest to some who do not usually read murder stories or the usual Who-dun-its. Each of the series is concerned with actual murders which are associated with the city, and of course these are for Detroit. The first story is dated back in 1815 when the city was very new, and is concerned with the killing of a Kickapoo Indian. The last is of much more recent date, the Lydia Thompson case.

For those who like historical novels, JUDITH OF FRANCE will be welcome, particularly if you don't like to delve too deeply into historical detail. This is the story of a French princess who has married to English King Aethelwulf when he was an old man and she a girl of fifteen. Judith is the awful Vikings, and customs of the two countries play a primary part in the interest of the story.

HOW TO MAKE PAPER FLOWERS AND PARTY DECORATIONS is a new book which should find much use. Directions are plentiful and clear and illustrations numerous.

HISTORIC MODELS OF EARLY AMERICA is another book which should interest those who like to make things. In it are scaled drawings and directions for making old carriages, covered wagons, a Viking ship, and much of the equipment for early American homes.

Ithaca Dentist Masonic Grand Master

Dr. Hazen P. Cole, Ithaca dentist, was elected and installed as the 98th grand master of the 150,000 Masons in Michigan, Wednesday, May 26, in the Masonic Temple, Detroit. He will preside over the 105th annual communication of the Grand Lodge which will be held in Detroit, May 21, 1901, the son of Joseph H. Cole, who was also a native born Mason and a member of Ashlar Lodge No. 91. (The elder Cole was raised to the sublime degree of a Master Mason, June 2, 1887.)

Elementary and high school education was received in the Detroit public schools, graduating from Northwestern high school in 1917. He served in the Navy during World War I.

Following the war he entered the dental school of the University of Michigan, graduating as a doctor of dental surgery in 1924.

At the close of his scholastic training the fledgling dentist elected to seek professional fame in the rural areas of Michigan. Bad Axe and other small Michigan towns have known Dr. Cole professionally. He finally decided to settle permanently in Ithaca, county seat of Grand Traverse, and now has a thriving practice in this area.

He recently served as president of the ninth district dental society. Since going to Ithaca he has been a constant worker for the betterment of the city and county, became active in the work of the Ithaca Chamber of Commerce and served as its president. He has also been active in a Boy Scout work, and for a period of years served as scoutmaster.

He petitioned Ithaca Lodge No. 123, on December 7, 1936, was regularly raised to the sublime degree of a Master Mason on March 18, 1937. He immediately became active in the ritualistic work of the lodge, and in 1941 served as worshipful master. At the 98th annual communication of the Grand Lodge in Saginaw in May, 1942, he was elected grand marshal. Regularly climbing rung after rung of the ladder which leads to the purple robe of a fraternal, he was unanimously elected grand master at Detroit in May, 1948, just 11 years after entering the door of his mother lodge.

On Saturday, November 4, 1944, he was exalted to the sublime degree of a royal arch Mason in the hall of Ithaca Chapter No. 70, R. A. M. A special team which included several officers of both grand lodge and grand chapter conferred the ritualistic work. He was greeted in George Hill Council No. 85, R. & S. M., of Alma, March 30, 1945, and was knighted by Ithaca Commandery No. 40, K. T., of Alma, November 15, 1945. The Scottish Rite degrees, fourth to thirty-second, were conferred by the Co-ordinate Scottish Rite Bodies of the Valley of Bay City in May, 1945, and he was created a noble of the mystic shrine in Elk Kharufah Temple at Saginaw, September 24, 1945.

Just a year after completing his higher education Abbie Burlingham of Springfield, Mass., became the bride of Michigan's future grand master. One daughter, Betty E. was born to the union in 1928. Today she is a girl of 20, and a junior on the campus of her father's alma mater. The family holds membership in the local Presbyterian church at Ithaca.

Secretary Makes Report Of Methodist Meeting

Rev. Henry Liddicoat, pastor of the Mason Methodist church and secretary of the Albion-Lansing district of the Methodist church, reported a recent district meeting held in the Albion church.

Dr. Spencer Bacon Owens presided, Dr. King Beach of Jackson read a paper on the ministry. He deplored the actions of some rural ministers who dedicate themselves to rural fields and then forever after lament their sorry situation. He suggested that the city pastor with a small charge was in worse luck than a rural pastor. Dr. Beach covered different phases of ministerial work, pointing out that the writing of sermons in one year is equal to the task of writing two books of creative work. He declared that preachers are given wonderful opportunities in funeral sermons to express the heart of the gospel to many un-Christian people.

"In shepherding his flock," Dr. Beach said, "a minister learns they are not all sheep, but that some are goats, and some are afflicted with hoof and mouth disease."

Among men granted licenses by the district to preach was Royal Satterlee of Grand Ledge, son of Rev. and Mrs. Claud Satterlee. Rev. Satterlee was pastor at Mar-son before going to Grand Ledge two years ago.

Dr. Stanley Coors gave a report on the general conference. He declared that the thrust of Communism is being felt in world affairs, even at the general conference. On the liquor question, Dr. Coors reported, the Methodist church continues with no indulgence for either minister or laymen.

Russell King, an unofficial delegate, also gave a report of the general conference.

Dr. Frances Knight reported for the Children's Village. Dorr Garnett for the Blue Cross, and Keith Avery for adult work.

Funeral services were held at the Webberville Methodist church Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock for Mrs. Sarah Irene Hall, who died May 22 following an illness of several weeks. Rev. Floyd Fisher, pastor of the church officiated, and interment was in the Webberville cemetery.

She was born April 23, 1862, in Tosco, Livingston county, the youngest of six children born to William and Sally Ray. On November 17, 1885, she was united in marriage to Lyman Hall, who preceded her in death in November 1935.

In 1925 she moved to Webberville, where she resided with her niece, Miss Mary Caskey. Besides the niece at whose home she died, she is survived by three other nieces, Mrs. Carrie Lock of Lansing, Mrs. Lulu Kimball of St. Charles and Mrs. Emma Marx of Manchester; and a nephew, Edward Rowell of Edmore.

Funeral services were held at the Webberville Methodist church Tuesday evening, May 22, at the Methodist parsonage. They were attended by Fred Huguenot and Miss Martha Ann Wilcox.

To Play Mason The baseball game between Webberville and Pinckney Sunday was won by Webberville 4 to 2. The team will play Mason Sunday at 2:30.

Cartoon titled 'Just Between Us' by Julie Forsyth. Shows a woman talking to a mirror.

My mother used to say, "Stand straight," more times than I can remember. That's so often a mother's chant when she has a tall boy or girl.

With girls maturing earlier than boys, there are many who slump when they walk so as not to appear taller than boys they know. But slumping actually calls attention to your height! In addition, it emphasizes a lack of poise.

The slogan of a famous beauty salon is "Walk with your head among the stars." That rule means good health as well as good looks. For walking well keeps organs in their correct places.

I enjoy seeing models swing along New York streets. Some are beautiful, others very ordinary looking. But all have a graceful, upright posture. They walk as if a string were attached to the center of their chests and they were being pulled forward in a straight line.

Gym teachers tell you, "Chest up, shoulders back." Do it now and see what a top-of-the-world feeling it gives you. "Tummy in" may be all you need. Or, "shoulders back, chin in." Don't scorn these simple rules. Look at the adults about you that have.

One of the prettiest girls I know carries her head high, but "walks with her knees." Now when a stage director wants a portrayal of old age that's one thing he stresses. So tighten up those knees and keep them close together when walking.

Tall boys, you usually stand better than tall girls. But watch your posture too, and concentrate on, "Head back, neck straight!"

Don't forget, all of you, that talking about your height—jestingly or slightly—emphasizes it in people's minds. And that's true about any defect you think you have.

MEMO FOR YOU MIRROR: Walk with your head among the stars.

IN FAIRNESS TO MARTIN LAVAN

Two weeks ago reference was made on this page to Martin J. Lavan of Brighton. It was set forth that in 1940 Lavan and Hyman Levinson were convicted in the Ingham circuit court and sentenced to 1 1/2 to 5 years in prison.

A lot of things have happened in county, state and world affairs since 1940 and the fact that the supreme court in 1942 had set aside the verdict of the Ingham court was forgotten.

The supreme court decision was written by Justice North and concurred in by Chief Justice Chandler and Justices Boyles, Starr, Butzel, Bushnell and Sharpe. Justice Wiest did not sit on the case.

The item which appeared in this paper May 13 was used to identify and tie up to this community the man who has gained such statewide fame as a crusader against parking meters.

ADDITIONAL PARKING AVAILABLE

With school out within another few days, there will be a block and a half more parking space available. That is the west side of Jefferson and the north side of Oak streets at the school.

What about the promise of business men and their employees to park their own cars off the street, or out of the business section? Is that promise being lived up to?

The answer appears to be, "Pretty good." There have been and still are a few offenders, Chamber of Commerce directors learned at their meeting last Friday.

Directors were told that such agreements in other towns have been lived up to about 30 days and then the same old picture of business men and their employees using parking space which should be saved for customers has returned.

Charlotte, St. Johns and other farmer towns are still debating the installation of parking meters, and the imposition of one-hour parking. There does not now appear to be any good reason for either of those things to happen in Mason.

NO NEWS VALUE—EVERYONE'S HONEST

The annual report of the examination of the books and records of Ingham county was received last Thursday morning; in time for press, had there been anything sensational in it.

That's why, we must confess, the story of the completed audit was held over until this week. Oh, yes, we told ourselves, "This report is so voluminous it demands long study. We should look it over unhurriedly."

Actually, the fact that there is no great news value in reports that public officials are honest is a wonderful thing. Were it otherwise our form of government would not last out the year.

The same thing holds true with news treatment given the misdeeds of preachers. When a preacher leaves the straight and narrow the headlines scream the fact because it is rare, it is odd, it is strange; it is not the usual, the normal behavior.

Did you ever read Lincoln's tribute to the Methodists? He said, "The Methodist church sends more soldiers to the field, more nurses to the hospital and more prayers to Heaven than any."

THE COUNTY MILK ORDINANCE

What's this about a county milk ordinance? That's what farmers and consumers are asking.

The public health committee of the board of supervisors is considering the adoption of such an ordinance. In fact, the ordinance will be adopted unless there are objections brought forth at the next meeting of the supervisors on June 28.

Adoption of the ordinance may be a good thing but there should be no hurry to have it adopted before all the questions are answered. Here are some of those questions which people are asking:

Is the inspection under the proposed county ordinance about the same as prevails now under Detroit inspection? Will dairymen have to go to additional expense in altering their barns or rebuilding milk houses? Will distributors have to bear added costs under the ordinance? Will consumers have to pay more for dairy products, and if they do, will the extra safeguards be worth the extra price?

The proposed ordinance may be needed. It may call only for practices which have now become standard. But proper enforcement always depends upon cooperation, and cooperation calls for a complete understanding of all provisions of an ordinance. Sponsors of the proposed dairy ordinance should present all the facts and give plenty of opportunity for the asking and answering of all questions.

Feudin' and Fightin' at Capital Discord Plagues State

The pattern for the governmental arguments which the state of Michigan will wear in the 1948-1950 season has been fashioned by the recent legislative sessions which came to a long awaited close late last week. There is nothing to indicate that Kim Sigler will not again be Michigan's governor. The seeds of hate which he sowed so generously previous to his assuming command in 1947 have sprouted and grown lustily.

Down by the Sycamore

Last Friday afternoon following the plucking of some beams and notes by telephone from Brighton, Martin J. Lavan gave me his slant on the parking meter situation. Lavan has been and still is fighting the installation of parking meters in Brighton. He even went beyond theory and delved into fact, digging up the meter posts in front of his law office.

It is Lavan's contention that the public has a right to use the streets and highways for any legitimate purpose, and if driving on them is legitimate, so is parking. He wanted me to read, along with the supreme court decision on the Lavan and Levinson case. (See lead editorial on this page) an opinion written by Raymond W. Starr as attorney general in 1938.

As attorney general Starr held that while the rights of cities and villages to exert reasonable control over streets is well established, those rights are based on police power. Cities and villages have the right to regulate traffic but cannot use that police power for the raising of revenue, according to Starr. That opinion is bolstered by supreme court decisions in some states. That opinion appears on page 521 of the volume entitled "Reports of the Attorney General, 1938-39," if anyone wants to read it, and have something to ponder over as they tearfully drop their coins into parking meters.

Actually, as Lavan said, parking meters do not regulate parking. A man can sit in his car all day if he wants to and do it legally just by dropping a nickel in the slot every hour. Who's A. D. Farmer? Where does he live? What does he do? A number of telephone calls have been turned back because there is no number listed for A. D. Farmer.

A. D. Farmer means "A Dirt Farmer" and that's just what the writer of the A. D. Farmer articles is. He has some of the best dirt in Ingham county, and quite a lot of it. A. D. Farmer is a pseudonym, which means pen name, and that fits the case, because one of the articles was written by the author while waiting for things to happen in the lambing pen, and he intends to write one from the hog pen. Most of the articles are written on rainy days when there is no work which can be done outside.

The Presbyterian concert Sunday night was excellent. I knew I liked it but I didn't know why until Nate Fry from Lansing told me how good it was. I hope I can always remember that poignant refrain of "Sweet Hour of Prayer" played by the violin trio made up of Mrs. Frank Evans, Mrs. Russell Robbins and Mrs. Richard Somers, with Mrs. Dora Diehl of Dansville at the piano. The Presbyterians had Methodist help in that one. Mrs. Robbins and Mrs. Diehl were incited to become Methodists at an early age.

Did you ever read Lincoln's tribute to the Methodists? He said, "The Methodist church sends more soldiers to the field, more nurses to the hospital and more prayers to Heaven than any."

If it wasn't for the fact that Joan Rusch is a part-time toiler here at the Ingham County News I would come right out, and report word for word a conversation I overheard. Several girls were discussing the junior-senior reception of last Friday night. They agreed that no one at the party was any prettier than Joan Rusch and Ann Gilchrist. The girls also mentioned that Central Michigan college students used good judgment in picking Elyhills Murreed of Belleville as one of the campus queens. She was the guest of Bill Thorburn at the big ball.

The bill first proposed sweeping changes in Michigan's present administrative framework. It would have virtually abolished the administrative board, a board headed by the governor and composed of all the elected state officials. This is the agency created by Governor Alex J. Groesbeck and which with modifications has continued for a quarter of a century under nine governors to give the people of this state a pretty good type of government.

Except for a few minor officials, there have been no scandals and no exposures of graft. Michigan has progressed. Among the states it is regarded as one of the most progressive. It is solvent and free of debt except for the bonus paid World War I veterans. Educationally, culturally and socially, in labor-management affairs; in public health and welfare; in recreation and tourist travel; and in all other essential matters, Michigan has set an excellent record of achievement.

But now it is claimed this plan is old-fashioned, obsolete and inefficient. The governor, some say, should have more power and more patronage. So the administrative bill was devised. It was christened a reform measure because it proposed a merger of several existing divisions. The budget office, the accounting system, the purchasing department, all matters having to do with buildings, both institutional and governmental, the operation of the motor car pool—all these and others were to be put under a single head and that individual responsible only to the governor.

Of course, all that is silly. No one individual can handle all the technical matters that come up under budgeting, accounting, purchasing, construction and the other operations included. Merger would mean only that the same heads now operating under the administrative board would be moved over to operate under a super-head which in turn would be staffed and equipped. Instead of effecting savings in money and manpower, it would only add to it.

The state of Ohio gained some publicity a few years ago by merging the banking, the insurance, the corporations and securities, and other fiduciary agencies under a single head. Michigan sent a delegation down to ascertain how it was done and what good resulted. Not a single name had been dropped from the payrolls. All that had been accomplished was to move all the agencies together in one set of offices—and then the head with a hoof. Quite a gash was cut but he is recovering rapidly.

Blackney Again Congress Candidate

Rep. William W. Blackney, sixth district congressman, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination as sixth district congressman.

In announcing his candidacy, Blackney said, "It has been my most earnest desire during the time that I have served as your congressman to devote my best time and effort to the welfare of my district, state and nation. During the troublesome times that our country has been passing through, both in war and in peace, I have always striven to the best of my ability, to use calm, sane and sober judgment on governmental problems. This I shall continue to do."

"During the time that I have been your congressman, I have served on several congressional committees, among which were: Postoffice and post roads, public buildings and grounds, and naval affairs. The naval affairs committee was merged into the armed services committee having jurisdiction over all of our armed services and their auxiliaries—army, navy, air corps, marine corps, coast guard, geodetic survey and public health service. I am now chairman of one of its sub-committees.

"The experience that I have already gained in congress on these important committees should render my service more effective."

"During the war, I voted for every bill that, in my judgment, was conducive to the war effort."

William W. Blackney

and that would perfect our armed services. Now that the war is over, the problems of our veterans are increasingly important, and I have voted for every constructive bill that would aid the veterans in their rehabilitation and in their assumption of their responsibilities in civilian life.

"I became impressed with the fact that it was manifestly unfair to the enlisted man to require him to wait five years to receive his pay for terminal leave, while officers were entitled to receive their terminal leave in cash. For that reason, I filed the Blackney terminal leave bill, HR 4017, which became Public Law 254, 80th Congress. This law now enables several million veterans who held an estimated 9,000,000 terminal leave bonds, worth approximately $1,750,000,000, to cash the same should they desire. In cashing these bonds, the veteran received in cash the face value of the bond, plus accrued interest, which the banks of our country redeemed without any cost to the veteran. Incidentally, the redemption of these bonds will save the taxpayers of our country in excess of $60,000,000 in interest annually.

"It is increasingly important that every American citizen realize the importance of keeping our nation solvent. This we must do in order to preserve American institutions and the American way of life, and also for the beneficial effect which our solvency will bring to the liberty loving nations of the earth."

"It is my most earnest desire that a just and lasting peace may be established among the nations of the world through the United Nations Organization, already established, and now in a period of adjustment. We hope and pray that through the efficient administration of the United Nations Organization, future wars will be avoided."

"Should I be renominated and re-elected, I pledge to you, my constituents, my continued earnest devotion to my country, to my state and to my district."

THE UNPARDONABLE SIN

The Great Transgression That God Cannot Forgive

A Lecture On The Sure Word of Prophecy

Sunday, May 30, 7:30 P.M.

at the LEGION MEMORIAL BUILDING

Mason, Michigan

By The Bible Voice
Evangelist A. A. Douglas

A. A. Douglas

The Bible speaks of a sin that will not be forgiven in this world, nor in the world to come. It is called "the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost." Have you committed this fearful sin? Are you acquainted with the nature of this great transgression? Can we know just what it is? Will you kindly read Matthew 12: 31, 32? Study it carefully between now and next Sunday night and then come to the meeting, prepared to study with us from the word of God. The Bible clearly describes the nature of this "unpardonable" sin, and how to avoid its terrible penalty.

This is the TWELFTH IN A SERIES OF BIBLE

COME AND BRING AT LEAST ONE FRIEND WITH YOU

Meridian Township Building Code

AN ORDINANCE to provide for the regulation of the minimum construction requirements of dwellings, buildings and structures in the unincorporated portions of Meridian township, Ingham county, Michigan; to provide for the administration of this ordinance and to provide penalties for the violation thereof.

THE TOWNSHIP BOARD OF MERIDIAN Township, COUNTY OF INGHAM, STATE OF MICHIGAN, ordains:

ARTICLE I GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec. 100. TITLE

This ordinance shall be known as the "Township Building Code of Meridian Township, County of Ingham, State of Michigan."

Sec. 101. SCOPE AND PURPOSE

The requirements of this Code shall be held to be the minimum requirements in the interest of public health, safety and sanitation for the construction of all new buildings, dwellings and structures and the repair, enlargement or alteration of existing buildings, dwellings and structures.

Sec. 102. APPROVAL OF ALTERNATE TYPES OF CONSTRUCTION AND MATERIALS

The building inspector may approve the use of types of construction such as prefabricated houses or materials that vary from the specific requirements of this Code if, (1) such alternate types of construction or materials comply with the recommended standards as listed in the appendix, or, (2) reports of agencies or laboratories generally accepted as competent by engineering authorities indicate that alternate materials or construction equal or exceed the applicable Code requirements.

Sec. 103. PLANS AND SPECIFICATIONS PREPARED BY ARCHITECT

The building inspector shall not issue a permit based on any plans or specifications which do not bear the seal of a registered architect, except in case of public works and commercial and industrial buildings costing less than Ten Thousand Dollars, or residential buildings costing less than Fifteen Thousand Dollars, (Act 240-1937 as amended—See Sec. 22).

Sec. 104. FARM ACCESSORY BUILDINGS EXEMPTED

Farm barns, sheds, pens and other farm auxiliary or accessory buildings are exempted from the requirements of this ordinance.

ARTICLE 2 DEFINITIONS

Sec. 200. DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of this Code, the terms listed below shall have the meanings given in this Article.

Approved

Approval by the building inspector under the provision of this Code or by other authority designed by law to give approval to the matter in question.

Area

The maximum horizontal area of the building at finished grade exclusive of unroofed porches, terraces, steps and area-ways.

Basement

That portion of a building, between floor and ceiling, which is less than 50 per cent underground. When 50 per cent or more of the space is a basement used for a habitable room it shall be counted as a story.

Building inspector

The person charged with administration and enforcement of this Code.

Ceiling height

The vertical distance between the floor and ceiling. Where a finished ceiling is not provided the underside of joists shall determine the upper point of measurement.

Cellar

That portion of a building, between floor and ceiling, which is more than 50 per cent underground.

Concrete

1. Reinforced. Concrete cast in place without metal reinforcement or reinforced only for shrinkage or temperature changes.

2. Reinforced

Concrete in which steel rods or mesh are embedded to increase strength.

Dwelling

A building designed or occupied as the living quarters for not more than two families or households and usually equipped with cooking, bathing, heating and toilet facilities.

Erection

Includes any construction, reconstruction, enlargement, movement or physical operation on either the dwelling or on the land required for the dwelling. Excavation, fill, drainage and the like shall be considered a part of erection.

Floor area of a room

The number of square feet of floor space within the walls of a room.

Grade, finished

The line formed at the junction of a building and the area immediately surrounding the building to which the ground is to be or has been cut or filled.

Habitable room

A room occupied by or designed for occupancy by one or more persons for living, sleeping, eating or cooking including kitchen serving a dwelling unit but not including bathrooms, water-closet, compartment, laundry, serving and storage pantries, corridors, cellars, attics, recreation rooms, and spaces that are not used frequently or during extended periods.

Incombustible

Material that will not and by itself ignite when its temperature and that of the surrounding air is 1,200° Fahrenheit (649° Centigrade).

Lintel

A horizontal structural member supporting a doorway above an opening in a wall or partition.

Load, dead

The weight of walls, floors, roofs, partitions and other permanent portions of the structure.

Lot

A portion or parcel of land considered as a unit devoted to a certain use or occupied by a building or a group of buildings that are united by a common interest or use, and the customary accessories and open space belonging to the same.

Lot line

A line dividing one lot from another or from a street or other public place.

Masonry

Stone, brick, structural clay tile, concrete masonry units, gypsum block or block, structural glass block or other similar building units or material or a combination of same bonded together with mortar. Masonry also includes plain concrete.

Partition, bearing

A partition which supports any vertical load in addition to its own weight.

Partition, nonbearing

A partition which supports no load other than its own weight.

Pier

An isolated column of masonry, a bearing wall not bonded to the side into associated masonry and whose length does not exceed four times its thickness.

Wall, veneered

A wall having a facing which is not attached and bonded to the backing so as to form an integral part of the wall for purposes of load bearing and stability.

Yard

A space open to the sky and unoccupied or unobstructed except by encroachment or structures specifically permitted by this Code on the same lot with a dwelling. All yard measurements shall be the minimum distances between the front, rear, or side yard line, as the case may be, and the nearest point of the dwelling including enclosed or covered porches. Every part of every yard shall be accessible from every other part of the same yard.

1. Yard, front

A yard across the full width of the lot extending from the front line of the dwelling to the front line of the lot.

2. Yard, side

A yard extending from the front yard or front lot line to the rear yard or rear lot line, and from the side line of the dwelling to the side lot line nearest that side of the dwelling; or of any accessory building attached thereto.

3. Yard, rear

A yard across the full width of the lot extending from the rear line of the dwelling to the rear line of the lot.

4. Yard, rear

A yard across the full width of the lot extending from the rear line of the dwelling to the rear line of the lot.

5. Yard, rear

A yard across the full width of the lot extending from the rear line of the dwelling to the rear line of the lot.

6. Yard, rear

A yard across the full width of the lot extending from the rear line of the dwelling to the rear line of the lot.

7. Yard, rear

A yard across the full width of the lot extending from the rear line of the dwelling to the rear line of the lot.

8. Yard, rear

A yard across the full width of the lot extending from the rear line of the dwelling to the rear line of the lot.

9. Yard, rear

A yard across the full width of the lot extending from the rear line of the dwelling to the rear line of the lot.

10. Yard, rear

A yard across the full width of the lot extending from the rear line of the dwelling to the rear line of the lot.

11. Yard, rear

A yard across the full width of the lot extending from the rear line of the dwelling to the rear line of the lot.

12. Yard, rear

A yard across the full width of the lot extending from the rear line of the dwelling to the rear line of the lot.

13. Yard, rear

A yard across the full width of the lot extending from the rear line of the dwelling to the rear line of the lot.

14. Yard, rear

A yard across the full width of the lot extending from the rear line of the dwelling to the rear line of the lot.

15. Yard, rear

A yard across the full width of the lot extending from the rear line of the dwelling to the rear line of the lot.

24. Yard, rear

A yard across the full width of the lot extending from the rear line of the dwelling to the rear line of the lot.

25. Yard, rear

A yard across the full width of the lot extending from the rear line of the dwelling to the rear line of the lot.

All studs shall be securely fastened to plates top and bottom, and diagonally braced at outside corners of walls. Walls shall have corner posts either built-up or solid of not less than three 2 by 4's. Top plates shall be not less than doubled 2 by 4's which shall lap at all corners and at all intersecting partitions. All such lags shall be securely spiked. All windows and door openings shall have studs doubled on jambs. The outer studs shall be cut to receive the header over the opening and shall extend in one piece from header to bearing.

2. PURRUP SPACE. For all masonry walls that are furred or studded off, the space created by the furring or studding shall be properly firestopped once in each story. Space around chimneys shall be firestopped with incombustible material.

307.3 Partitions. Where such partitions rest directly over each other and the studs run down between the floor joists and rest on the top plate of the partition below, the spaces between the studding shall be properly firestopped.

307.4 Stairs. The space between stair carriages shall be fire stopped by a header beam at top and bottom. Where stairs run in one room or where a closet is located beneath the stairs, the stair carriage shall have an intermediate firestop so located as to cut off communication between portions of the stairs in different rooms or between the closet and the stairs in different rooms or between the closet and the room in which it is placed. Such stops shall be made of plank or other suitable material.

307.5 Pipes or ducts. Where any pipe or duct passes through a floor, the space between the pipe or duct and the floor construction shall be firestopped. Where the installation of pipes, ducts or conduits in walls, floors or partitions requires the removal of any fire stopping, the spaces around the pipe, duct or conduit at such points where such firestopping was removed, shall be tightly filled with asbestos, mineral wool or other incombustible material.

307.6 Inspection. No firestopping shall be concealed from view until opportunity has been given to the building inspector to inspect the same.

308. CHIMNEYS, FLUES, AND SMOKE PIPES

308.1 General. Chimneys shall be constructed in accordance with good practice provided that the specific requirements of this Code shall be observed.

308.2 Construction of chimneys. Chimneys shall be constructed of brick, stone or of reinforced concrete. When constructed of laid-up masonry units, such units shall not be less than 4 inches wide laid with full head and bed joints of Type A or Type B mortar (See Section 301.1 of this Code). No chimney shall be constructed of hollow masonry units unless such units shall first have been proven to the satisfaction of the building inspector to be the equal of or superior to solid masonry units. Flue linings shall be required under conditions indicated under other part of this section. Variations from specific requirements noted herein shall be subject to the approval and labeling requirements of the building inspector.

2. SEPARATION FROM OTHER CONSTRUCTION. No combustible beams, joists or metal studs shall be placed within 2 inches of the outside face of chimneys or of masonry enclosing a flue, provided that this distance may be reduced to 1/2 inch when the members are faced to their full depth with asbestos insulating board or other approved insulating material not less than 3/8 inch thick. No combustible studs, lathing, furring or plugging shall be placed against the chimney or in the joints thereof. Such combustible construction shall either be set away from the chimney or the plastering shall be directly on the masonry or on metal lath and furring or on other incombustible lathing and furring material. Combustible furring strips placed around chimneys shall be insulated from the masonry by asbestos paper at least 1/2 inch thick and metal wall plugs or other approved incombustible holding devices attached to the wall surface shall be used for nailing.

3. FOUNDATIONS. Masonry or reinforced concrete chimneys shall not rest upon or be carried by wood floors, beams or brackets, nor hung or supported by metal struts from wood construction, but shall be built upon concrete or masonry foundations or reinforced concrete slabs properly proportioned to carry the load without danger of settlement or cracking. The footing shall rest on solid earth and shall be carried below the frost level.

4. BONDING. Masonry or reinforced concrete walls of buildings when the chimney walls are securely bonded into the walls of the building and when the flue is lined with flue lining the same as an independent chimney.

5. CORBELING OF CHIMNEYS. Corbelled chimneys shall not be supported by hollow walls, cavity walls or walls of hollow units. Solid walls supporting corbelled chimneys shall not be less than 12 inches thick and corbeling shall not project more than 1 inch per course and not more than 6 inches in any case. The total offset, overhang or corbel of an independent chimney shall not exceed 3/4 of the width of the chimney in the direction of the offset.

6. HEIGHTS. Chimneys shall be built at least 3 feet above flat roofs provided that the tops of chimneys shall not be below the tops of adjacent parapet walls. In the case of sloping roofs, chimneys shall be not less than 2 feet above the ridge of the roof that the chimney penetrates and not less than 2 feet above the highest ridge within 10 feet of the chimney. Unless provided with a stone, terra-cotta, concrete, cast iron or other approved cap or top, the chimney lining shall project not less than 2 inches. No chimney top shall be concrete the required flue area.

7. CONCRETE CHIMNEYS. Concrete for chimneys cast in place shall flow readily, be well-rodged and shall be reinforced both vertically and horizontally.

8. FLASHING. Connections between chimneys and roofs shall be made with cap and base flashing of sheet metal or other approved material, arranged to allow for any lateral or vertical movement between the chimney and roof.

9. CHANGE OF INTERIOR DIMENSIONS. No change in the interior dimensions of chimney shall be made within a distance of 8 inches above or below the rafter or roof joists.

place opening along the chimney breast and shall be at least twenty inches wide measured from the outer face of the masonry. The combined thickness of hearth and supporting construction shall not be less than 6 inches at any point, provided that where designed and used for approved gas appliances only, the construction shall be such as shall fully meet good standard practice.

FIRE PREVENTION. Clearance from combustible construction shall be placed within 4 inches of the enclosing walls of a fireplace. Combustible or unprotected beams supporting trimmer arches at fireplace shall be not less than 2 inches from the chimney face. No combustible mantel or other wood-work shall be placed within 8 inches of either side nor within 8 inches of the top of a fireplace opening. All spaces back of combustible mantels shall be filled with incombustible material.

Water Heaters. Water heaters shall be connected to smoke or outlet pipes as hereinafter provided for gas appliances, provided that such connection may be waived by the building inspector if the water heater is of a type which cannot produce an explosive mixture or atmospheric condition in the room or space where it is located.

Additional requirements. Except as may be otherwise provided by this Article, the standards set forth in the Building Code, 1943 edition, recommended by the National Board of Fire Underwriters of New York (copy on file in the office of the building inspector) shall be used by the building inspector as a guide for acceptable construction and installation of the following items:

- Mounting and Clearances of Heating Furnaces, Boilers and Cooking Appliances.
Floor Furnaces
Steam and Hot Water Pipes
Warm Air Heating and Air Conditioning Systems in Dwellings.

ELECTRICAL WIRING AND OUTLETS. The installation of all electrical work including equipment shall in every case be done in a safe and workmanlike manner. The regulations of the National Electrical Code, 1947 edition, shall be considered as good standard practice by the building inspector. Installations shall comply with the requirements of the electric utility company serving the area. Such code and regulations as it applies to any dwelling shall be the latest edition of that code effective at the time of beginning of construction of such dwelling.

COMBUSTIBLE MATERIALS AND STORAGE SPACES. No dwelling or any part thereof nor of the lot upon which it is situated shall be used as a place of storage, keeping or handling of any article dangerous or detrimental to life or property, nor of any combustible article, except under such conditions as may be prescribed by the building inspector under authority of a written permit issued to the occupant of the dwelling.

PRIVATE GARAGES. No garage not of fireproof construction shall approach closer to any portion of the dwelling or enclosed projection thereof than 6 feet except as provided below.

Attached or adjacent garages. Storage garages having not more than 500 square feet of floor area may be attached to or erected within 6 feet of a dwelling.

Garages located under dwellings. Storage garages having not more than 400 square feet of floor area may be located under a single dwelling, provided that the interior face of all walls of masonry construction and the ceiling of such garage, where the roof is not of fireproof construction, shall be protected with not less than 3/4 inch of gypsum or portland cement plaster on metal lath or 1/2 inch gypsum plaster on 3/8 inch perforated gypsum lath.

Garages located under dwellings. Storage garages having not more than 400 square feet of floor area may be located under a single dwelling, provided that the interior face of all walls of masonry construction and the ceiling of such garage not of masonry construction shall be protected with not less than 3/4 inch of gypsum or portland cement plaster on metal lath or 1/2 inch gypsum plaster on 3/8 inch perforated gypsum lath.

Garages located under dwellings. Storage garages having not more than 400 square feet of floor area may be located under a single dwelling, provided that the interior face of all walls of masonry construction and the ceiling of such garage not of masonry construction shall be protected with not less than 3/4 inch of gypsum or portland cement plaster on metal lath or 1/2 inch gypsum plaster on 3/8 inch perforated gypsum lath.

Garages located under dwellings. Storage garages having not more than 400 square feet of floor area may be located under a single dwelling, provided that the interior face of all walls of masonry construction and the ceiling of such garage not of masonry construction shall be protected with not less than 3/4 inch of gypsum or portland cement plaster on metal lath or 1/2 inch gypsum plaster on 3/8 inch perforated gypsum lath.

Garages located under dwellings. Storage garages having not more than 400 square feet of floor area may be located under a single dwelling, provided that the interior face of all walls of masonry construction and the ceiling of such garage not of masonry construction shall be protected with not less than 3/4 inch of gypsum or portland cement plaster on metal lath or 1/2 inch gypsum plaster on 3/8 inch perforated gypsum lath.

Garages located under dwellings. Storage garages having not more than 400 square feet of floor area may be located under a single dwelling, provided that the interior face of all walls of masonry construction and the ceiling of such garage not of masonry construction shall be protected with not less than 3/4 inch of gypsum or portland cement plaster on metal lath or 1/2 inch gypsum plaster on 3/8 inch perforated gypsum lath.

Garages located under dwellings. Storage garages having not more than 400 square feet of floor area may be located under a single dwelling, provided that the interior face of all walls of masonry construction and the ceiling of such garage not of masonry construction shall be protected with not less than 3/4 inch of gypsum or portland cement plaster on metal lath or 1/2 inch gypsum plaster on 3/8 inch perforated gypsum lath.

WINDERS. Where winders are used the width of the tread at a point one foot from the center of rail or newel shall be not less than 8 inches, and at a point 2 feet from the center of the rail or newel the width of the tread shall be not more than 12 inches.

Width. All stairways (except basement and grade landings) shall be not less than 3 feet in width in the clear. A handrail shall be provided on the open portion of stairs which are not adjoining a wall or partition.

Basement stairs. Basement stairs may be of the ship ladder type with a rise of eight inches per tread and an minimum distance of 8 1/2 inches from face to face of riser.

Public Health, Sanitation and General Welfare. Sec. 400. LIGHT AND VENTILATION. Sec. 400.1. Yards. Every building hereafter erected shall have yard requirements as follows:

Light and ventilation of habitable rooms. 1. The total glass area of required windows in any habitable room shall be not less than one percent of the floor area of the room.

Light and ventilation of habitable rooms. 2. The total area of the ventilating portion of required windows in any habitable room shall be not less than 4 percent of the floor area.

Light and ventilation of habitable rooms. 3. Light and ventilation of bathrooms and water closets compartments shall be provided with natural light and/or ventilation by one of the following means:

Light and ventilation of habitable rooms. 4. A window which has a glass area of not less than 10 percent of the floor area and is located in an exterior wall facing a street, alley, yard or facing an air shaft open to the sky, having a minimum width of 3 feet. Such windows shall have a ventilating area equal to 50 percent of the glass area.

Light and ventilation of habitable rooms. 5. Skylights, the construction of which shall provide light and ventilation from the exterior in item 1 above.

Light and ventilation of habitable rooms. 6. Ventilation ducts, provided such ducts have 2 square inches of area for each square foot of floor area with a minimum total area of 48 square inches and no dimension larger than 6 inches and no duct shall be located in or next to the ceiling of the ventilated space. A separate duct from each space or room shall run to and above the roof and shall be provided with a down pipe, provided however, where an exhaust fan is used the duct opening may be located in an outer wall.

Light and ventilation of habitable rooms. 7. Light and ventilation of laundry and recreation rooms. Laundry and recreation rooms located above the basement shall be provided with a glass area in exterior walls having a glass area of not less than 10 percent of the floor area and having a ventilating area not less than 4 percent of the floor area.

Light and ventilation of habitable rooms. 8. Ventilation of basements and cellars. Basements, cellars and storage rooms shall be lighted and ventilated by windows in exterior walls having both a glass and ventilating area of not less than 2 1/2 percent of the floor area.

Light and ventilation of habitable rooms. 9. Ceiling heights. The minimum ceiling height in any room exclusive of a room used only for storage purposes shall be 7 feet 6 inches except under sloping roofs, where the minimum shall be 7 feet, 6 inches for not less than 50 percent of the floor area.

Light and ventilation of habitable rooms. 10. Plumbing. 401.1 General. The installation of all interior plumbing work shall conform with Article I to IX inclusive of the Michigan Plumbing Code of Michigan. In areas where the State Plumbing Code is in effect, evidence showing approval by the state plumbing inspector shall be required after final plumbing tests have been made.

Light and ventilation of habitable rooms. 11. Plumbing fixtures. 401.2 Plumbing fixtures. 1. Within each living unit there shall be provided the following plumbing fixtures: a. A kitchen sink properly located to facilitate food preparation and dishwashing. b. A water closet located either in the bathroom or in a separate toilet compartment. c. A bathtub or shower located in a bathroom or other equally ventilated space.

Light and ventilation of habitable rooms. 12. Water supply. 402.1 Safe water supply required. Every living unit shall have available supply of safe water obtained from (1) a public or municipal water supply if available; (2) a drilled, driven or dug well.

Private sewer system. 403.2 Private sewer system. When a private sewerage disposal system is required the type, size and construction of all septic tanks, the disposal fields or seepage pits shall be in accordance with recommendations of the Michigan Department of Health, Engineering Bulletin No. 2, and Michigan Sanitary College Extension Bulletin No. 118, second revision as outlined in their joint bulletin of June 1941 entitled "Septic Tank Sewage Disposal Systems for Michigan".

Discharge of sewer systems. 403.3 Discharge of sewer systems. 1. The house sewer or septic tank outlet shall not discharge into an open ditch, drain or stream nor into a closed drain which eventually empties into an open ditch, drain or stream unless the flow of such stream is sufficient at all times to carry the effluent without endangering the public health or creating nuisance conditions. Nothing in this section shall allow the discharging of sewage into an established county drain where such wastes are capable of producing in said drain detrimental deposits, objectionable odors, nuisance, injury to drainage conduits or structures or cause such pollution of the water reservoir as to injure livestock, destroy fish life or be injurious to the public health.

Discharge of sewer systems. 2. No storm water from roofs or catch basins designed to carry surface water from public or private property shall be discharged into a sewer system designed to carry sanitary sewage only, unless specific approval is given by the township board.

DAMP PROOFING. If in the opinion of the building inspector water conditions necessitate damp-proofing basements, the exterior walls below finished grade shall be protected by means of membrane waterproofing or other satisfactory method.

RAT AND VERMIN PROOFING. 405.1 Barrier Walls. Beneath the exterior walls of every dwelling or enclosed part thereof which is not supported on a continuous masonry wall, there shall be a tight masonry or concrete wall at least 3-4 inches thick of brick, concrete or concrete blocks; or 2 inches thick if of reinforced concrete plates securely fastened together. Every such wall shall extend from a point at least 3 feet below the finished grade up to a point at least 6 inches above the finished grade, except in the case of dwellings having a concrete floor which is contiguous with the rat wall in which case such rat wall need not extend 2 feet below the finished grade.

Openings screened. 405.2 Openings screened. Any openings placed in exterior walls of dwellings beneath the first floor level shall be screened with a noncorrodible 16 mesh wire cloth and a substantial grille. All such materials shall have openings not more than 1/4 inch in size.

BASMENT ROOMS. In dwellings hereafter erected no habitable room shall be located in a basement, unless such room have 1/2 of its height from floor to ceiling above the ground elevation (finished surface) in the proximity of the windows of the room. All habitable rooms in basements shall have sufficient light and ventilation as required for rooms of similar use above grade and shall be sufficiently well drained to remain dry.

Building Permits. Before proceeding with the erection, alteration, repair, enlargement, or removal of any building regulated by this Ordinance, a permit shall first be obtained by the owner or his agent from the building inspector. The application shall be made in writing and upon printed forms furnished by the building inspector. To determine satisfactory compliance with requirements the application shall be accompanied by 2 complete sets of plans and specifications conforming to the requirements of Section 501 of this Code.

Building Permits. 401.2 Plumbing fixtures. 1. Within each living unit there shall be provided the following plumbing fixtures: a. A kitchen sink properly located to facilitate food preparation and dishwashing. b. A water closet located either in the bathroom or in a separate toilet compartment. c. A bathtub or shower located in a bathroom or other equally ventilated space.

Building Permits. 402.1 Safe water supply required. Every living unit shall have available supply of safe water obtained from (1) a public or municipal water supply if available; (2) a drilled, driven or dug well.

Building Permits. 402.2 Private water supply. When a private water supply is required, the type, location and construction of the well shall be in accordance with recommendations of the Michigan Department of Health as outlined in Engineering Bulletin No. 14, 1947 edition entitled "Ground Water Supplies for Homes and Small Institutions".

Building Permits. 403. SEWER DISPOSAL. 403.1 Public sewer system. Connection shall be made to a public sewer system where available. The sewer extending from the dwelling to the sewer in the street, riser or basement shall be at least 4 inches in diameter and have a fall of at least 1/4 inch per foot. Such sewer shall be constructed of impervious materials and have tight joints. The installation of the house sewer and its connection to the public sewer shall not be covered until inspected and approved by the building inspector.

Building Permits. 403.2 Private sewer system. When a private sewerage disposal system is required the type, size and construction of all septic tanks, the disposal fields or seepage pits shall be in accordance with recommendations of the Michigan Department of Health, Engineering Bulletin No. 2, and Michigan Sanitary College Extension Bulletin No. 118, second revision as outlined in their joint bulletin of June 1941 entitled "Septic Tank Sewage Disposal Systems for Michigan".

Building Permits. 403.3 Discharge of sewer systems. 1. The house sewer or septic tank outlet shall not discharge into an open ditch, drain or stream nor into a closed drain which eventually empties into an open ditch, drain or stream unless the flow of such stream is sufficient at all times to carry the effluent without endangering the public health or creating nuisance conditions.

Building Permits. 403.4 Discharge of sewer systems. 2. No storm water from roofs or catch basins designed to carry surface water from public or private property shall be discharged into a sewer system designed to carry sanitary sewage only, unless specific approval is given by the township board.

Building Permits. 404. DAMP PROOFING. If in the opinion of the building inspector water conditions necessitate damp-proofing basements, the exterior walls below finished grade shall be protected by means of membrane waterproofing or other satisfactory method.

Building Permits. 405. RAT AND VERMIN PROOFING. 405.1 Barrier Walls. Beneath the exterior walls of every dwelling or enclosed part thereof which is not supported on a continuous masonry wall, there shall be a tight masonry or concrete wall at least 3-4 inches thick of brick, concrete or concrete blocks; or 2 inches thick if of reinforced concrete plates securely fastened together.

Permits for structures upon which work is not started within six months of date of issue and permits for structures, work upon which has been abandoned for six months, shall lapse and cease to be in effect.

503.6 Certificate of compliance. No building hereafter constructed or altered into a dwelling shall be occupied in whole or in part for human habitation until the issuance of a certificate by the building inspector affirming that such dwelling conforms in all respects to the requirements of this Code.

503.7 Certificate of temporary occupancy. If a building which has been constructed as or altered into a dwelling is to be occupied in whole or in part for human habitation prior to official notice of complete compliance with the provisions of this Code, such occupancy will be unlawful until the owner has obtained a certificate of temporary occupancy from the building inspector stating that such dwelling is in suitable condition for human habitation and substantially conforms in all respects to the requirements of this Code.

504. PENALTY FOR VIOLATION OF CODE. Any person who shall violate any provision of this Code shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof punished by a fine not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) and not more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) or imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed 10 days or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

505. BOARD OF APPEALS. In order that the provisions of this ordinance may be reasonably applied and substantial justice done in instances where practical difficulties are apparent or unnecessary hardship would result from carrying out the strict letter of this Code, an appeal may be made within ten days from any decision of the building inspector to the Board of Appeals.

506. CONSTITUTIONALITY. If any provisions of this Code or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Code which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or application, and to the extent that the provisions of this Code are declared to be unconstitutional, the provisions of this Code shall remain in effect.

507. EFFECTIVE DATE. This ordinance shall become effective on Saturday, June 26, 1948. The foregoing ordinance was passed by the township board of Meridian township on the 24th day of May, A. D. 1948, as follows:

Mr. C. O. Wilkins voted aye
Mr. C. B. Robinson voted aye
Mr. J. F. Whitmyer voted aye
Mr. Maynard A. Eberly voted aye
Mr. Norman Weaver voted aye
Signed: C. B. Robinson, Township Clerk.

508. Qualifications of building inspector. To be eligible for appointment as building inspector such person shall be generally well informed on the principles and practices of good building construction, and on good practice in fire prevention, and on the proper installation of plumbing, heating and electric wiring in buildings. He shall be in good health and physically capable of making the necessary examinations and inspections of residential buildings in the course of construction.

509. Notifications. As work progresses under a building permit the holder thereof shall be notified at the following stages of construction: 1. Upon completion of the footings and before erection of the foundation walls.

509. Notifications. 2. Upon completion of the rough frame of the structure including the application of roof shingles and side wall sheathing and the installation of rough plumbing and chimneys, and before lath is applied.

509. Notifications. 3. Upon total completion of the work authorized by the building permit and before occupancy.

509. Notifications. 4. Each inspection shall be made within 5 days following receipt of notification. At the first inspection the building inspector shall determine whether the building has been located in accordance with the site maps and whether the building has been located in accordance with the site maps and whether the yard areas will comply with Code requirements and with any Zoning Ordinance of the Township.

509. Notifications. 5. If the construction meets the requirements of this Code at the stage of any inspection, the building inspector shall issue his written approval thereof and the permit holder shall thereupon be authorized to proceed in accordance with the building permit.

509. Notifications. 6. Should the building inspector determine that the construction is not proceeding in accordance with the provisions of this Code or in violation of any other applicable ordinance, regulation or law, he shall so notify the permit holder and further construction shall be stayed until corrected by the building inspector upon notice and request for re-inspection duly made.

509. Notifications. 7. Should the permit holder fail to comply with the requirements at any stage of construction the building inspector is hereby empowered to cancel the building permit issued and shall cause notice of such cancellation to be securely posted upon said construction. Posting of such notice shall be considered sufficient notification to the permit holder of cancellation thereof. No further work shall be undertaken or permitted upon such construction until a valid building permit shall thereafter have been issued.

509. Notifications. 8. In Madagascar grows a native palm that has frequently proved a life-saver to strikers traveling the rain and store up pure drinking water. Its seeds are edible and its leaves may be used to thatch a hut. This palm tree is food, drink and shelter in one to the traveler in the wilderness.

Large Scale Test For New Vaccine

Dr. I. Forest Huddleston's new brucellosis vaccine developed at Michigan State college is soon to be tested on dairy herds in several states.

The large scale test will be on a 65-head dairy herd at Charleston, West Virginia, under the direction of state veterinarians of West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia.

R. J. Funkhouser, industrialist and West Virginia farm owner, is making available all the facilities of a 160 acre farm. His contribution may exceed $50,000 when the cost of purchase of 65 brucellosis-free heifers, labor and feed expense is added. The test will require a year or more to further determine the value of Brucella M vaccine.

Dr. T. S. Green, state veterinarian of West Virginia, heads the committee which will select a veterinarian to be stationed at the farm and conduct all tests.

Dr. Huddleston was contacted by the committee which obtained a permit from the U. S. Bureau of Animal Industries for shipment of the vaccine outside of Michigan. He will probably visit the test farm when called upon by the group.

Michigan dairymen have been able to obtain the vaccine through their veterinarians since last fall. More than 20,000 inoculations have been produced by the Michigan State college laboratory.

State veterinarians in Ohio, Tennessee and Virginia have also obtained permission to conduct some special tests with the new vaccine on specific herds within their states, Dr. Huddleston said.

Control of Sheep Ticks Important

It's hard work but it surely pays big dividends. That's the way Graydon Blank, Michigan State college animal husbandry specialist describes dipping sheep to control ticks. Not many flocks were dipped during the war years and this caused an increase in the sheep tick population.

Spring and early summer are good times to kill ticks. Dipping the entire flock with arsenical dip is preferred. Portable dipping vats are operated in a number of counties by private individuals or by FFA chapters and other organizations. Flock owners should consult their county agricultural agent regarding the location of dipping outfits.

The yearly wool production on some flocks has been increased as much as two to three pounds per head after the ticks were controlled. Additional benefits are derived from the increased weight of the lamb crop and from the general improvement in the thriftiness of the ewe flock.

Banner Year Ahead For 4-H Club Work

M. H. Avery, county club agent, reported Tuesday that 40 4-H club enrollments have been completed with the probability that at least 12 more clubs will be organized. Avery prophesied that 1948 will be a banner year for club work.

Enrollments received during the week were:

Maple Grove, a garden club with six members, led by George C. Fulton.

Stockbridge, a garden club led by Joseph Higgins and Dick Ashmore, with Royal Ashmore, president; Ellsworth Cranall, vice-president; and Joe Higgins, secretary.

Okemos, a dairy club, led by Merlyn Swab.

Enrollments at the present time show the following enrolled projects: Dairy, 159; beef, 12; sheep, 30; pigs, 15; horses, 39; poultry, 21; corn, 32; potatoes, 24; vegetable garden, 154; flower garden, 87; foods, 152; canning, 59; with a few miscellaneous projects which bring the total projects enrolled to almost 800 at the present time. There has been a considerable increase over enrollments of past years in the horse, vegetable garden and flower garden projects.

Waldenwoods Camp

Six 4-H members from Ingham county will attend the Waldenwoods camp near Hartland June 4 and 6. Four members have already been selected. They are Phil Hayhoe, Southeast Alajedon; Strong Bateman, of the Wizard; Nellie Sherwood of the Wilson; and Elizabeth Carr of White Oak.

The program will be built around "Cooperation and Citizenship." There will be lectures and discussions along with tours and recreation. Saturday evening will be "Party Night" by Ingham and Isabella counties. Sunday morning the group will have church services at the Hartland Music Hall with the delegates putting on the church services, which will be sponsored by the Barry county delegates. Thirteen counties will participate in the camp.

The first enrollment for 4-H club camp, which will be held June 20-26 at Algonquin lake, Barry county, has come in. Those interested in attending camp and who do not have registration cards should see local leaders or write to the extension office. Members may attend camp for three or six days. A program built around swimming, archery, conservation, photography and camp fire is scheduled.

4-H Service Club Barn Dance

The 4-H Service club is sponsoring a barn dance, Tuesday evening, June 8, at the Frank Jason farm. Nick and Ed Cornhuskers will furnish the music. All Service club members will be asked to assist in getting the huge barn ready for this affair and assisting with events at the dance.

Demonstration Meeting

A 4-H demonstration meeting will be held at the court house,

The Parable of the Good Gardener

One gardener tried to raise vegetables in poor soil without much humus or fertilizer, and got plants that fizzled.

Another gardener let weeds put his crops in the shade, where they were stunted.

Still another gardener let the bugs move into his garden and raise huge, hungry families which quickly made all the nice vegetables disappeared.

However, and fortunately, another gardener managed better, and raised splendid crops for his own family to eat fresh and throughout the following winter, canned

and

gardener was much admired by his family, his neighbors, and his government, which is faced with problems of shipping large quantities of food abroad, fighting inflation, insuring food supplies for any emergency.

Public Invited to See Milk Station

How a great city's milk supply is handled in the most sanitary and efficient manner by the use of modern equipment will be shown to the public on June 5 and 6, when the members of the Michigan Milk Producers' Association in the Detroit area hold open house in their new receiving station at Ortonville in Oakland county. While the station was not built as a show place, it does set a new standard for such buildings in Michigan and accomplishes the utmost in effective sanitation.

The new station replaces two obsolete, outmoded stations at Ortonville and Atlas, which were acquired during the depression years in order to provide a market for members' milk. The old stations

Friday evening, June 18. Representatives from all clubs or an adult leader or parent will be asked to attend the meeting to receive information on developing demonstrations in their respective clubs.

Band to Practice

The 4-H club band will hold their next meeting Wednesday evening, June 9, at the court house. At the meeting, the band may be organized into a standard 4-H club and set up the band program as a regular project.

Vantown Club Meets

The fourth meeting of the Vantown 4-H club was held last week by the president on May 17 at the home of Gordon Monroe. The secretary gave the roll call and added the enrollment up to 44. The next meeting will be Monday night, June 7 at the home of Leo Mead. The president appointed Lois Bartlett, Beverly Utter and Nancy Bloom on the food committee. They decided on potluck.

OKEMOS AND VICINITY

Mrs. A. B. Whiting

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Worthington were surprised last week when their youngest brother, Claud Worthington and Mrs. Worthington arrived from Hollywood, California. The brothers were separated about 40 years ago after the death of their mother, when they were small boys. Claude went to California to live with an aunt. They are the sons of James Worthington, who lives near Haslett.

Rev. Harold Jayne, Mrs. Mary Bidwell and Mrs. Neva Whiting attended the funeral of Kathy Miller, at Cassopolis last Friday. She died of a strep infection of the throat on Wednesday. She was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Miller, former Okemos residents. Baccalaureate services will be held in the school gymnasium Sunday evening.

Miss Alice Curtis of Dansville spent a few days last week with her aunt, Mrs. Charles Piper and family.

Bible school will open at the Baptist church June 7, for two weeks, from 9 o'clock to 11:30.

A daughter, Mary Ann, was born May 18, at St. Lawrence hospital to Mr. and Mrs. John P. O'Brien.

were located on property belonging to utility companies on the old Detroit United Railway right-of-way. The old stations were deemed beyond repair by association directors who felt it advisable to erect one modern station on association owned property to serve the entire area. The use of automatic machinery and the installation of three 5,000 gallon refrigerated holding tanks gives this one plant a capacity of handling 200,000 pounds of milk a day, working only one shift.

The 10,000 dairy farmers who own the plant cooperatively, feel they are providing consumers in the Detroit area with the highest degree of protection for their vital and highly perishable milk supply. They extend an invitation to the public to join them in inspecting the plant during open house when visitors will be received between 9 a. m. and 5 p. m. on each day. The station is located on state trunk line M-15 at the northerly edge of Ortonville, nine miles north of the junction of M-15 and US-10, the Dixie Highway.

HERRICK DISTRICT

Mrs. Lee Gerhardtstein

Mrs. Loyal Shepherd and Darwin and Elma Jean were Thursday evening callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eldred House.

Helen Gerhardtstein is spending some time at the home of her brother, Robert Gerhardtstein and family in Dearborn.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Daily and Tommie were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Archie House.

Ivan House was united in marriage to Miss Dorothy Moore of Inkster at the M. E. church of Dearborn-Saturday, May 22. He was attended by Leonard Gerhardtstein and Miss Deloris Ward. The bridegroom is employed in Dearborn.

Audrey Gerhardtstein of Howell spent the week end with her parents.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Eldred House and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Felton are confined to their home with the measles.

Sunday guests at the Lee Gerhardtstein home were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Gerhardtstein and Mrs. Marian Hayes and daughter of Dearborn and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gerhardtstein and Karen Sue of Webberville.

Mr. and Mrs. Stacy Hile, Mr. and Mrs. Lartin Strobel and Mrs. Charles Strobel and Irene were Sunday guests of Mrs. Grace Strobel and family.

Veretta Strobel, a senior at Webberville high school was a member of the group which made the trip to Niagara Falls. They made the first part of the trip to Detroit on May 21 by bus. They then went by boat on the S. S. Greater Detroit to Buffalo, N. Y., from where they completed the trip by train.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stafford motored to Summer last Sunday.

Lists Gardening Chores for June

For home gardeners, the month of June means a little planting, a little pruning, a little watering, a little dusting and spraying and lots of weeding. Jack Rose, Michigan State college gardening specialist says that all added together, it makes one of the busiest and most important months of the whole gardening year.

June 1 to 10: Time still remains to plant part of the spring garden and start to plant some of the fall garden. If tomatoes, peppers, eggplant, and tender flower annuals have not been set out, do so now.

Make a second seeding of corn and beans. Sow lima beans, pumpkin, squash, melons and cucumbers, plant late potatoes. Sow seed of cabbage, broccoli, cauliflower and brussel sprouts for fall crops.

Dahlias may be set out any time during June. Continue making gladiolus plantings at ten-day intervals up to the last of June.

June 10 to 20: Start dusting sweet corn with rotenone or three percent DDT to control corn borer. Make five applications at five-day intervals. Keep Squash plants dusted with rotenone to control vine borer. Spray tomato blossoms with hormone spray for early fruit set.

Watch beans for Mexican bean beetle. Spray or dust with rotenone, covering top and underside of leaves for control. Dust or spray potatoes with mixture of DDT and copper dusts or Bordeaux mixture.

Pinch back chrysanthemums to get bushy growth and abundance of bloom. Stake delphinium, hollyhocks and other tall perennials, June 20 to 30; stop cutting asparagus. Apply ten pounds of 10-0-4 or other nitrogen fertilizer per 100 foot row. Watch for and remove suckers on lilacs, roses and any other grafted trees or shrubs. Water plants during dry spells. Be particularly careful to water newly set evergreens. Water lawn thoroughly, soaking soil to depth of three or four inches. Don't just sprinkle.

As a concluding note, the horticulturist urges gardeners to battle weeds. June is the month to whip the weed problem. Weeds rob garden plants of food and moisture. Hoe them out, pull them out by hand, get rid of the weeds. This is a good time to use one of the 2-4-D sprays to destroy lawn weeds too. Be careful not to get 2-4-D on garden plants though.

THIS REVOLUTIONARY HARVESTER PERFORMS THROUGHOUT THE YEAR

As a Row Crop Harvester, this versatile machine cuts and shreds 10 to 14 tons of ensilage per hour... ready for the blower. Harvests sorghum, corn from 12 inches to 14 feet high, and all row crops. Used as a Pick-Up Forage Harvester, the Skyline handles all forage crops... it will pick up and shred field-cured hay or green-grass ensilage from the windrow. Harvests 6 to 10 tons of windrowed alfalfa per hour.

As a Forage Harvester, the Skyline cuts and shreds all kinds of green forage crops for ensilage. One man with a tractor, Skyline Harvester and trailer handles the field work. Ideal way to shred alfalfa for dehydration.

By removing the above attachments and adding a collector and wagon spout, you have a Portable Grinder that will grind grain and roughage, all winter long... and without tying up your tractor.

Williamston Plans Memorial Services

The Memorial Day committee met at the American Legion Saturday evening and prepared the program for the city's annual observance of Memorial Day. The services will be held Monday, May 31, at 10 a. m. beginning with a parade lead by the band. The parade marshal will be Herbert Hart, Officer of the day will be Claude Salsbury.

The parade will begin at ten o'clock. Each organization is to be in its place at 9:45. The parade will move from the school to the city hall where the Woman's Relief corps will pay tribute to the Grand Army of the Republic and veterans of all wars. The services at the honor roll memorial will be under the auspices of the Blue Star Mothers. The Scouts will also place a wreath on the honor roll.

Church Circle Meets
The Naomi circle of the W. S. C. S. of the Methodist church met with Mrs. Dorothy Blossy with 22 members.

Entertains Baptist Women
Mrs. Mae Homes entertained the Baptist Women's union Wednesday. Elaine Brett, president, Mrs. Edith Ingals and Mrs. Martha Moore conducted the devotionals. A letter was read from Edna Hill, who is serving in Iquitos, Peru. Various games were played after which a lunch was served.

College Senior Honored
Miss Ruth M. Holm, a senior at Michigan State college, was initiated into Phi Kappa Phi, national scholastic honorary society recently. This selection into the Phi Kappa Phi is based on scholarship achievements during the college career and one of the highest honors the student may attain.

Members of the Youth Fellowship of the Methodist church entertained their mothers and guests last Sunday. Games and singing were played, after which Raymond Oesterle presented a program. Devotionals were led by David Gorsline. Following the program a lunch of ice cream, cookies and coffee were served in the dining room. The group now have their Fellowship room practically completed.

Some "NEW" cars are like this and some "NEW" cars are like this but only the KAISER and FRAZER are like this plenty of headroom! plenty of seatroom!
TRUE FUNCTIONAL DESIGN
True Functional Design is beauty with a purpose. For example, the STREAM-THRU fenders of the Kaiser or the Frazer are a style feature others have attempted to copy. But the real reason for the design has been overlooked. The true function is to provide more usable space without increasing over-all width. Only the Kaiser and the Frazer have more usable space. MORE SEAT WIDTH! MORE HEAD ROOM! MORE LUGGAGE SPACE! The Kaiser and the Frazer aren't the same old girls in a new dress—they're new from the road up! The Barnyard Philosopher Picks the Next President

January 1, 1948, we will have a new president, and leader of the world-- at least he will be looked to by the people of the world for leadership whether he leads or not. Who and what kind of a man will he be? If he serves for eight, twelve, sixteen or twenty years, the U. S. A. will have gone a long way toward her destiny. Americans have been entertained so long by the greatest "crooner" statesman the world ever produced that it will be a great shock and change not to hear the twirling of the r's in a true Harvard accent and the debonair showmanship of a P. T. Barnum. Barnum said, "There is a fool born every minute" and "The American people love to be fooled". That debonair, jaunty figure of the fedora will be greatly missed.

Hurry, the piano playing veteran and necktie inheritor will be on parade just the same as on the fourth of July marching with the band at the veterans convention. The good poker player, the good back slapper, the ever popular boy around the Independence, Mission, courthouse, until Jim Pendergast noticed the dapper young man and put him in the United States Senate. He has wibbled and wobbled so hard from one side of the road to the other, straddling, trying so hard to find the middle that most people have about made up their minds that he's a nice World War vet, and a dapper piano playing, poker player who just can't drive at all on either side of the middle of the road.

And Harold Stassen seems to be a clean Horatio Alger boy from the farm, who took the capital of Minnesota by storm with many reforms and who in his youthful ambitions and aspirations was so anxious to become president of the United States that he secured a high-up position in the U. S. Navy. The prestige of being an officer is of value for a candidate. Like a boy with a motorcycle, he has chased all over the world and this country saying, "Won't you vote for me?" He is wholesome, clean, liberal, but rather fleeting in his desperation to jump in front of the public breeze to be swept into office. A little too much vacillation, not quite deep and devoted to clean, cut principles-- win or lose, this is what I think, what I stand for. He has large capacity for growth.

Little mustache, the choir boy from Owosso and New York City. In spite of his mustache, in spite of his meticulous, debonair appearance, he is the man of the hour. It certainly was no disgrace to be beaten by Wilkie in 1940, and it was no disgrace to win in the whole United States in war time of 1944, except the deep south and the six largest cities in the country. If the deep South and the six largest cities were left out, Dewey won in 1944. He has not chased from one end of the country to the other, he was not sounded off at every opportunity--he has been sawing wood very, very hard at the second most efficient government of the state of New York history has known. Tom Dewey has learned much since 1940, and much since the campaign of 1944. The old Master Crooner rather led him off the trail in 1944. He lost his seat. Tom has that unusual, almost uncanny, ability to induce $50,000 men to accept public responsibility and trust at $10,000--then have the good sense to back them up and get jobs done fast.

Dewey appointees work--work like hell to make democracy work and function. Dewey is the perfect age, old enough to know what it is all about, young enough to be agreeable to work with and for, and young enough to have unbounded energy. The presidency is a great grueling job, if the occupant fulfills all or part of his responsibilities. Age and physique are more essential than they should be. Realistically they are indispensable.

So the slate from the barnyard is Dewey and Warren--the East and the West. If you owned the U. S. A. and wanted a couple good hired men, aren't they the two you would hire?

In Oregon, Tom told Harold that there are many more important things to do than monkey with outwearing communism.

Oh yes! What about the Knight of Michigan who rode forth on a white charger with sword drawn, and decapitated some drunken punks who secured their whiskey from hotel bathrooms--while the millionaire law evaders ride merrily on? He's got plenty of weeds to hoe in Michigan government gardens besides ranting about communism and calling in minor civil service employees of state institutions and departments and decapitating the little fellow. Why not a few headlines about a few important constructive things accomplished and not quite so much breeze?

Apologies for forgetting Henry Wallace--visionary, dreamy Henry--who never had a sound, sensible thought for today in his life--who is always dreaming Utopian pipe dreams about an idealistic world sometime tomorrow. You'll be surprised how large his vote will be--out of 60 million votes, Henry will get 10% or 6 million, Harry, 37% or 22 million, Tom, 53% or 32 million votes.

Then the world should be able to figure out what the U. S. A. wants, stands for, is going to do, and we should go ahead under a true full head of steam for at least 12 years of constructively laying bricks in the progress and evolution of civilization. A steady working, alert atmosphere should prevail.

By the way, did you ever stop to think that the readers of the weekly newspapers of the world are probably the best informed and the most stable and the most discriminating voters in the world? That takes in the weeklies north of the Ohio and east of the Missouri rivers, the breadbasket of the world. If the above is true, then these voters have more responsibility than any voter in the world. If you want to be realistic isn't it the truth?

A. D. FARMER

to give your car better service

Gas economy is a "must!" HERE'S HOW TO GET IT:

Drive at moderate speeds—fast driving consumes much extra gas. Shift into high as soon as possible—don't idle your engine unnecessarily—avoid fast starts, sudden traffic light stops. Have your Standard Oil Dealer check your car for "gas wasters." His training helps you save gas. Standard Oil Company.

Cadillac

POPULARITY

In the short time that has elapsed since the 1948 Cadillacs were presented to America, the number of orders placed with Cadillac dealers has broken every existing record. And, every day, the car's popularity continues to grow.

There could be, of course, but one basic reason for this unprecedented swing to Cadillac: the extraordinary beauty and individuality of the new Cadillac models. For only a relatively few people have had an opportunity to drive these wonderful cars—and, thus, to learn that their performance is just as advanced as their exterior design.

Today, you can see Cadillac leadership as never before—and it is obvious that new thousands are resolving to end all compromise and make their next car the "Standard of the World." See these great motor cars in our showrooms.
