FOREWORD

Another year of school life has come and gone. We, the Class of '25, place before you the first volume of "The Zenith" which is the successor, by popular vote, to "The Annual". The name Zenith was the one chosen from many which were suggested by the high school. We have endeavored, by faithful and hard work to make this book bigger and better. We believe this book pictures true C. F. H. S. life and we wish readers to feel and relive our high school life of '24 and '25 indicative always of C. F. H. S. spirit. May it, in later years, bring back fond memories of this most eventful year.

To educate the heart, one must be willing to go out of himself and to come into loving contact with others. —James Clarke in the pupil. Mr. Stoneburner has directed the educational policies of C. F. H. S. in a manner to mark distinct progress in our school.

GEORGE W. BEHNER

A. B., Western Reserve

"There are two times in a man's life when he should not speculate, when he can't afford it, and when he can."

"George" holds a place in the hearts of everyone in school. A sunny smile and a pleasing personality are his chief assets.

The ZENITH

FRANCIS M. CODY
Science and History
 B. S., Wooster College

"Reputation is in itself only a farthing candle, a wavering and uncertain flame, easily blown out; but it is the light by which the world looks for and finds merit."

Coach is sometimes referred to as the "Little Giant". He is an athlete, a teacher, and a friend. Three remarkable qualities in one.

GRACE E. JENKINS
Commercial
 Oberlin Business College

"If a good face is a letter of recommendation, a good heart is a letter of credit."

She is so jolly and helpful that the Commercial students, as well as all who know her, find her good company.

FLORENCE J. GIFFORD
History, English
 A. B., Western Reserve

"Ready in heart and ready in hand."

Miss Gifford, always a booster, has a double interest in C. F. H. S. Only a few years ago she was a student here; now she is an esteemed member of the faculty.

MRS. MARGUERITE P. CULP

Efficient in her Basketball coaching, industrious and interested in all her work, sincere in friendships—as such a combination, Miss Young is well worth knowing.

ZELMA M. BOWMAN

"It is not the spurt at the start, but the continued unrelenting, unhesitating advance that wins the day."

Energetic, unceasing in her labors, she holds a place in our hearts.

ALICE M. KANAVAL

"Education, the training which makes men happiest in themselves also makes them most serviceable to others."

Miss Kanavel just radiates this happy spirit of service.

JAMES C. SMALLEY

"Put away all sarcasm from your speech. Never complain. Do not prophesy evil. Have a good word for everyone or else keep silent."

Mr. Smalley is quiet and reserved but takes part in school activities and always lends a helping hand.

Instruction ends in the school room, but education ends only with life. A child is given to the universe to be educated.

In Memory of

HERBERT ISAAC

HARRY HOFFMAN

The Seniors

Twelve years? Why, that's impossible!
'Tis merely but a day
Since mothers dressed us carefully
And sent us forth to play.
Why, we are old and grown up now;
We graduate this June!
We thought the time would never come—
But now it comes too soon.
We hate to leave you now, old school,
Your walls hold memories dear;
Each room, each hall, each step recalls
Some classroom prank, or fear.
Come! You're a privileged character,
We'll let you watch the game.
Now, hold your hat for we approach the Hi School "Hall of Fame."
"Hey, Stoneman, what's the rush?" says Doc,
As he strides swiftly after.
"Milan, where to now?" and "Hush
Girls, stop that silly laughter!"
"My French! My French! 'Tis unprepared
And class is in ten minutes."
"Huh!" comes from somewhere in the rear
"I think you'd best begin it."
"I've lost my Civics book," says Ann,
"I'm sure that Hisn has it."
"Now, Howard, give her back her book
And please don't try to pass it."
"Miss Weidmann, do make Robert quit,
He has my shoe, I swear."
"Here catch it, Rose," the youth retorts,
As it sails thru the air.
Ah, youth, how irresistible!
How lacking worldly lore!
How full of life, of happiness
Your cup is brimming o'er.
How joyous through the day's dull gloom
Or through night's inky black!
What charm is it that you possess
That older people lack?
Soon from the narrow sphere of school,
From friends and family dear,
You'll venture forth to try your luck
And—please God—without fear.

The ZENITH

Thrice the study bell hath rung.
Thrice and one the lunch bell tolled.
Each one cries, "'Tis time, 'tis time."

Round about the caldron go;
In the poisoned textbooks throw.
Test, that under sweet neglect
Added hardness did beget.
Add to this the grade it got.
Boil these first i' the charmed pot.

Double, double toil and trouble;
Fire burn and caldron bubble.

Over now your school life rake.
In the caldron boil and bake,
Thirty minutes after school,—
How they did enforce that rule!
No one in until eight-thirty,—
Did they think we'd get things dirty?

Double, double toil and trouble;
Fire burn and caldron bubble.

Add quotations, home-work, study,
Spelling, quizzes, blushes ruddy
When we're tolt to visit Stoney;
Each report card, notebook, pony,
Desk donations, pencils found,
Hall permits in volumes bound,
Old gum wrappers, and bright saying
Which some secret is betraying;
Everything that makes life drab.
Make the gruel thick and slab.
Add to these the tasks that galled one,
For the ingredients of our caldron,
For a charm of powerful trouble
Now, oh school-broth, boil and bubble.

Double, double toil and trouble;
Fire burn and caldron bubble.

This is why we feel temptation
At mere mention of vacation.

The Juniors

Did you ever stop to figure out a "Who's Who in C. F. H. S.?" If you have you were undoubtedly surprised at the great number of Juniors on your list and no doubt came to the conclusion that the class of '26 is one of the most versatile in the history of old Chagrin.

In athletics we boast of six letter men in football, five in boys' basketball and three in girls', and a host of track stars including the squad which has won the interclass meet for the past two years and the entire high school mile relay team which performed so creditably this spring. We claim the basketball captain for the last two years and the captains-elect in both football and basketball for the ensuing seasons besides the managers of every athletic team in the high school.

Two of the school's champion debaters were Juniors and we have supplied more than our quota in Hi-Y, Friendship, Glee and Orchestra.

We all feel a certain amount of pride in our lecture course this year and believe that by presenting the Walter Logan quartet, Charley Paddock, "The Ghost Between", a two-act comedy drama, and the operetta, "The Crimson Eyebrows" to our patrons we have raised the standard of high school lecture courses in this community. This was the highest priced lecture course that has ever been presented in Chagrin Falls and we believe that you who heard it will agree that it was also of the highest quality.

And now we ask you, with all this momentum worked up already in our train of school activities as Juniors, what can stop us in our Senior year?

A Freshman's Dream

The phonograph began to play the famous bugle call "I can't get 'em up," and the clock registered 10:30, so I knew that it was time to get up.

Even though school was sixteen miles away and I was to be there in a half hour, I was in no hurry for I knew that I would not be late. Suppose I would be late, the teachers and principal would greet me with open arms saying, "Better late than never." Nevertheless I kicked my kid brother, and after mutually exchanging a couple pairs of flying shoes, we dressed ourselves. Did I say "dressed ourselves?" I was wrong. The automatic Tog Dapper dressed us. We had breakfast, but I refuse to tell of what the breakfast consisted, lest I arouse your envy.

We boarded an elevator which took us to the roof where we mounted a seventy-five cylinder aeroplane.

Usually I'd drop a nickel into the Homework Accomplisher and all my studies would be calculated and finished. Today, however, the captain called a fire drill.

All the passengers reached to the ceiling for the parachutes, fastened them about themselves and were ejected one by one.

The company landed on Sky-scrappers and chimney tops within a radius of ten miles. My brother and I steered our parachutes schoolward and landed on the school building. We then descended by means of the moving stairway which took us directly to our seats.

Our teacher invited us to the Stopunder where we had a game of indoor golf. She was probably peeved because I beat her, so she resolved to get revenge by asking me to recite on "The right way to study." I failed miserably and she sent me to the dormitory to take a nap.

When I awoke, I was in my home room at Chagrin High School and the bell for passing to my first class was ringing. O disillusionment!

Football 1924

The 1924 football season proved to be an unusually successful one. It resulted in Chagrin lugging home the bacon (The County Championship) over the heads of such schools as Berea, South Euclid, Dover, and lesser schools such as Mayfield, Parma, Solon and Strongsville. Berea, our old enemy, was put out of the running by a score of 26 to 12, and South Euclid forfeited their game by failure to appear. They probably realized that they would meet the same sad fate as other schools before them.

In addition to the conference games, three other games were played, Chagrin getting the one and only defeat at the hands of the Cleveland Heights' eleven. This was the first game of the season, and the defeat only served as a spur to our team to greater efforts. Coach Cody certainly had a way of coaching, which brought results. He made the team snap into the traces and give every ounce of energy possessed.

The teams of both Maple Heights and Chagrin Falls finished with a score of 1000 so it remained to the County Athletic Board to decide on whom to confer the title. Those were days of great anxiety and suspense to the students of Chagrin and we suppose that they felt the same way over at Maple Heights. But finally, Mr. Stoneburner announced in Assembly that the judges had decided in our favor and we had without doubt won the championship and the trophy.

This being the first time that a Chagrin team has won the championship in Football it is quite an important item in the school history.

We can truthfully say that we owe the championship to a large extent, to Coach Cody for his faithful work with the team. The team played each game with all they had to give and were helped to their victories by the rooters along the sidelines.

Bruce, the brainy quarter-back, played three years of good football for Chagrin, his last year being exceptionally good. His fine leadership was an asset to the team. His forward passing showed skill. He did all of the punting. His long runs were a feature, these being due, in a large measure, to his ability to reverse field and pivot. This was Bruce's last year in High School football. We will surely miss him, not alone in football but in other school activities and athletics.

In Fat we had another accurate passer and defensive man. He was very fast in getting under and receiving punts. The team made a wise choice by electing him captain for next year. They certainly chose "a big man" for the job. We wish Fat the best of luck and expect him to lead the team to another championship.

Louis was a dandy man for blocking punts and spoiling opposing teams offense. He had the misfortune to be out of several games because of sickness, but he earned his seal nevertheless. Louie is the ideal type for tackle and was rated the best all around line-man.

Heitchy made things hum at the Chardon game. It was rumored that he wanted revenge on the Chardon Coach, Dan Dick, and thought the best way to get it was by beating his team. He was a better offensive than defensive man, and he filled in at the backfield occasionally. Heitchy was the utility man of the team.

Johnny was at a disadvantage, being the lightest man on the team, but his success goes to prove that brains are more important than brawn. Johnny was exceptionally good at strategic plays and next to Bruce Schwarze was the best broken field runner. Regardless of his light weight, he had marked ability to smash the line. His work at Berea was especially noticeable and his work throughout the season was consistent as to goals from touch-downs.

Braund had no previous experience in football, but he soon found his place on the team. He did very well on interference and in offense. He worked well in coordination with Louie Zeman.

Payer never said much, but he did things. Deeds, rather than words count for the most in football. He could break through the opponents' line like a whirlwind, and was fast at getting around interference. He was dubbed, "The Shoestring Tackler", because of his low tackles. Frank will graduate this year, and we shall miss him.

Wilbur was the big find of the season. He played guard or tackle equally well, was a ferocious tackler, and the best regular line man we had. He was a stonewall on defense, and his spirit and cooperation was of the finest brand. This was Wilbur's first year of football, and is also his last at C. F. H. S. The team is losing a great deal.

"Goody" has played good football since he started and has the distinction of being the star forward passer, as he rarely ever missed a pass. He was good at smashing the off and inside tackles and his high knee action was a feature. His work was especially noticeable at the Cleveland Heights' game.

"Bus" was the best man we had at boxing his tackle, and was a sure tackler. He succeeded in covering the elusive Seedhouse, at the Rocky River game. Seedhouse was the high point scorer of greater Cleveland, and hadn't been effectively covered for two years until he met "Bus." The Nelisse twins will be a big asset next year.

Carl had the spirit and determination that counts. He was the best defensive man on the left side, and was good at boxing tackle. He played with an injured side most of the season.

Louie specialized in forward passing. He usually alternated with Schwarze in making the deceptive forward pass attacks. His defensive forward passing was exceptionally good. He will help form the nucleus about which the 1925 team will be built.

Bob has fine spirit and the determination to keep going. He was dependable on either halfback or end position. Bob was the most speedy member of the team and his work at the Dover game was very commendable.

It took Doc a long time to get started but once started he performed his duties very capably. He was helped a great deal by his assistants, Menges and Church, doing good work throughout the season.

We can truthfully say that Cody was the best football coach Chagrín has ever had. He knew just what the team should do, and how to make them do it. Chagrín's triumph in football is largely due to his faithful and efficient work.

As a team is made by its subs we must say a word for the fellows who had time and spirit to get out and work, with no immediate reward in view. We feel confident that these subs, Milner, Siebert, Stern and Honeywell will help form the regular squad next year. Bob Zoul also belongs with these fellows but being a senior, his High School football career is over.

BASKETBALL "A" TEAM

The 1924 basketball season cannot be called a very successful one. Most of the fellows on the team played on the championship football team, but did not do as well on the basketball court as they did on the football field. Teamwork was badly lacking in the team, and although doing well some nights in practice, they fell down entirely in most of the games. Only three victories were won by the C. F. H. S. Quintet, these being the Faculty game, the game with Parma, and Parma again at the Berea tournament. Chagrin was put out of the running at the tournament by South Euclid, with a score of 17 to 6. This game concluded the season.

The ZENITH

ELWOOD NELISSE

Captain and Captain Elect

Bus started the season playing center, but was changed to the guard position where he did much better. He was a dependable leader, and probably owes his reelection to this trait.

BRUCE SCHWARZE

Forward

Bruce was the leading scorer of the 1924 team. He generally scored points in every game he played. He had the "pivot", to greater perfection than any other member of the team. This knack of pivoting was a big asset to the team.

BERNARD McCABE

Guard

Bernie had the one quality that makes a good guard. "He could stick his man."

The ZENITH

DURWOOD NELISSE

Forward and Center

Goody had good team work. This was a factor which was badly lacking in the team as a whole. He and Bruce worked together with good results. Changing his position to that of center gave good results, as he played the center position much better.

CHARLES REES

Guard

Fat had lots of drive and a decided ability to retrieve balls off the backboard. Fat's weight was irresistible.

ROBERT HOPKINS

Forward and Guard

Bob played a better game at forward than at guard. He was very good at working down other teams offense, and making openings for the other fellows.

GEORGE SEIBERT

Forward

George rose from the second to the first team and played fine basketball. His accurate shots were a big asset.

ALLEN TENNY

Manager

The manager has a tough job to handle, and is kept pretty busy. This was Pete's first year in this position, but he surely earned his seal.

FRANCIS CODY

Coach

Coach's work during the basketball season was equal to his good work in football. It is unfortunate that the team did not respond so efficiently as in football, for we should have had better results.

C. F. H. S. "B" TEAM

The second team had a slightly more successful season than that of the first team, winning four out of ten games. The team was weakened considerably by the removal of George Seibert to the first team. The victories were over Solon, Auburn, Parma and Shore High. The game with Brooklyn Heights at the Berea Tournament concluded the season; this game ended in defeat for the 2nds.

Girls' Basketball Team

About a month after school opened this year, Miss Young called together all girls interested in basketball. Sixty-five girls appeared eager to start practice. After several months of training Miss Bowman, Miss Young, Mr. Stoneburner and Mr. Cody selected a team consisting of six girls, with two alternates, as guard and forward, to represent C. F. H. S. in girls' athletics. The team worked hard getting ready for their first game which was with Spencerian Business College. The score was very encouraging to the team and the girls worked all the harder for their second game. Altogether the girls consider theirs a successful season, this being only their second year in B. B. and being compelled to often compete with schools having twice the number of girls. They are hoping for more victories next year.

BEREA MEET

Although the team was rather green and in poor training, we scored a few points at the Berea Meet. Heitch placed second in the shot put, Sutton second in the pole vault, Bus took second in the half mile. Bruce was third in the broad jump. Carl Schwarze took second in the javelin and other fellows scored points. Glenn Lippert took first in class B.

LAKEWOOD MEET

The team from Chagrin, coached by Glennard Elder, took second place at the Lakewood Meet. Points were scored by Heitch in the discus and E. Nellise in the half mile run.

INTERCLASS

A new thing was started at Chagrin last year; the interclass meet. Each grade of High School is allowed to enter a team to compete. Each member of the winning team receives a class numeral. Last year the Sophomores received first place, Juniors second. It is intended that this meet be held each year.

C. A. C. MEET

The mile relay team, coached by Francis Cody, took first place in the mile relay race at the Public Auditorium, Cleveland. The team was composed of Bob Hopkins, Durwood Nellisse, Elwood Nellisse, and Robert Stern.

Baseball

The 1924 Baseball season was decidedly not a successful one, the team carrying away the small end of the score in each game. Only three games were played on the home diamond, these being: Solon, Euclid Village, and Faculty games. Sutton and Dippo were the twirlers for Chagrin and Rees occupied the position behind the bat.

Boys' Glee Club

Altho working under many difficulties and with only one short rehearsal a week, Mrs. Fouts has trained this group of twenty-three voices into a well blending ensemble which has sung as usual in the Operetta, May Concert, and Commencement.

This June, however, we lose twelve members including all five Operetta principals, which means hard work ahead of us in the coming year. A. T. '26.

Girls' Glee Club

This year the Girls' Glee Club is composed of thirty-two members; thirteen Seniors, ten Juniors, and nine Sophomores.

The girls participated in about the same number of events as they did last year. They went to Warrensville and sang carols for the patients there. The Girls' and Boys' Glee presented "The Crimson Eyebrows" which everyone thought was better than last year's operetta. They furnished part of the program for Graduation.

The girls decided that for their Glee sweaters they would have a white sweater with an orange lyre on a black background, and their initials in orange and black on their pocket.

They attribute all their success to Mrs. Fouts for her unfailing helpfulness, her untiring patience, and her perseverance. A. M. C. '26.

Orchestra

One of the most experienced and well balanced orchestras that Chagrin High has ever had, went through the 1924-25 season in very successful style.

The fine discriminating leadership of Mrs. Fouts and the untiring work of its members have given the orchestra more tonal quality and expression and more balance in the choirs than has been present in any Chagrin Falls high school orchestra of the past four or five years.

The orchestra has performed on the following occasions: Northeastern Ohio Teachers' Meeting at Winton Hotel, Cleveland, Russell Farmers' Institute, Chapel Exercises, Operetta, May Concert, Senior Play, County Debates.

"The Crimson Eyebrows"

"The Crimson Eyebrows," the operetta given by the Glee Clubs under Mrs. Fouts' direction this year was more colorful in costumes and scenery than any former production. The eight principal roles were taken by seven Seniors and one Junior.

The setting of the operetta is China, "The Crimson Eyebrows" being a political party led by "Fanchong" which part was very commendably played by Bernard McCabe.

"Wang Mang", the usurper emperor of China, attempts to marry "Ting Ling" the rightful ruler, to "Neptune", an "old fossil from the sea" who would afterwards kill her so that "Wang" would have a clear title to the throne. Milan Wakefield was "Wang Mang" and Dorothy Trippeer took the part of "Ting Ling", and with voices of exceptionally fine quality and excellent dramatic ability they proved to be the stars of the play. Harry Stoneman took the character of "Neptune", and was a very pleasant surprise with his splendid acting. "Wang Mang", "Neptune" and "Star Eye", the court astrologer played by Howard Braund, furnished one of the high spots of the operetta with their song "The Three Gay Conspirators."

"Fanchong" plans to raid the castle and put a stop to the latter's conspiracy, but is taken by "Wang's" soldiers while making love to "Ting Ling" in the castle garden. However, "Hing Lee", one of "Wang's" men but in reality one of "Fanchong's" spies gives "The Crimson Eyebrows" admittance to the place. They release "Fanchong", take possession of "Wang" and his household, and put "Ting Ling" and "Fanchong" together on China's throne.

Otto Schwintosky was "Hing Lee" and the part of his sweetheart "Ah Me" was taken by Bertine Browne. Jean Davidson was "Old Buddha" who is frantically in love with "Wang" but whom the latter constantly spurns.

Mrs. Fouts again deserves most of the credit for the success of the operetta but credit is also due Mrs. Culp for her fine work on the dialogue and Gertrude Hutchinson for the costumes; Harley Fenton for the dances; John Szitar for scenery and lighting; Lawrence Payne for lighting, and the orchestra for its accompaniments.

Persuasion is the chief end of rhetoric. The art of the lawyer, the art of the editor, the art of the conversationalist may be called in one word the art of persuasion. This persuasion or faith is one of the faculties of the soul.

Debate

The Debate Club was organized in the early part of the school year. Officers were elected, Robert Zoul receiving the honor of the presidency. Mary Ziegler was elected secretary and treasurer.

The subject for debate, which was chosen by the Cuyahoga Debate League was, "The Child Labor Amendment As Proposed by Congress Should Be Ratified."

The Club lost no time in holding the final tryouts for the team. The results of the tryouts were as follows:

Affirmative

Mary B. Ziegler 4
Ruth E. Lippert 3-4
Bruce H. Schwarze 4
Samuel Rosner 4 (Alternate)
Harry V. Stoneman (Manager)

Negative

Mabel G. Dickerson 4
Robert H. Zoul 3-4
Jean Davidson 3-4
Lawrence A. Payne 4 (Alternate)
Howard C. Ober (Manager)

NEGATIVE DEBATE TEAM

Jean Davidson, Robert Zoul, Lawrence Payne, Mabel Dickerson.

The teams started off at full speed. Arguments were formed, material gathered, and speeches prepared with the aid of Miss Weidmann. Preliminary debates were held at scheduled periods until the time of the first county debate.

Debating was new to most of the team, but the results were extraordinary. The first County Debate, which eliminated all but one school from each debating group left Chagrin in lead for second round of debate in which Chagrin again won. Chagrin teams met their final adversary, Brooklyn Heights, the third week and brought home the Cuyahoga County Championship. The long existing hoodoo is finally conquered. Chagrin now holds first place. The school was awarded two cups, one, a permanent trophy, the other permanent only by being won three successive years. The speakers were awarded gold medals and the alternates, bronze medals.

The team has left a commendable record behind which will serve as a good start for the future debate teams of C. F. H. S. It may be added that the Debate Club financed itself with money to spare for the first time in the history of this organization.

Oratory

At the very start this year several of the students made up their minds that C. F. H. S. was going to enter the County Oratorical contest with the best orator Chagrin could put forth. Accordingly a preliminary contest was held in the High School with Miss Madge Kent, Mrs. Cameron, and Mr. Shumaker serving as judges. The following contestants entered:

Glenn Tuttle	Harry Stoneman
Bob Milner	Andrew Juras
Sam Rosner	Dorothy Teckus
John Honeywell	Katherine Hook
Sam Gunning

The results of this contest were as follows:

John Honeywell	First
Andrew Juras	Second
Sam Rosner	Third

The County Oratorical Contest was held March 27, at Brooklyn Heights, and John Honeywell represented the school with the oration, "Heroes of Obscurity". He was awarded first place, bringing home a permanent and a guardian cup and a gold medal. He was also given as a special reward from Mr. Shumaker a ten dollar gold piece. The High School as well as our prize winner appreciate Mr. Shumaker's interest in H. S. forensics.

John also represented us at the Northeastern Oratorical Contest at Kent, Ohio. Here he competed against other orators from Northern Ohio, but failed to win a place. As John is only a sophomore, with two more years ahead of him, we expect him to improve his ability as an orator and bring further honors to our school. The class of 1925 wishes Johnny the best of luck.

The best help is not to bear the troubles of others for them, but to inspire them with courage and energy to bear their burdens for themselves.

HI-Y CLUB

In 1922 there was brought into C. F. H. S. a new club about which little was known, except that it had been approved of by the Faculty and that it was composed of seven of the finest fellows in school.

Less than four years have passed. That same club that was so well and finely established has grown into a group of twenty-four fellows with Bruce Schwarze as president, all possessing the same ideal: to put God first, the other fellow second, and himself third.

The path of the club is clearly defined by such things as the "Come-Clean-Campaign", the Lenten Services, held in conjunction with Friendship Club, and many other Christian attempts at brotherhood.

The success of the club is due to the fine spirit of cooperation extended by the Friendship Club and Faculty and the unceasing efforts of Mr. Wood, our leader, who thru his unselfishness, and self-sacrifice has left a deep imprint on all C. F. H. S. Hi-Y fellows.

Friendship—our friendship—is like the beautiful shadows of evening,
Spreading and growing till life and its light pass away.

Michael Vitkovics

Friendship Club

"The purpose of the Chagrin Falls Friendship Club shall be; to promote a real spirit of friendship through sociability and service, to encourage by attitude and example only those things which are wholesome, to co-operate with other organizations, and to train ourselves for Christian citizenship."

This has been our policy to which we have tried to adhere since we first organized. In co-operation with other organizations, particularly the Hi-Y, our achievements have been such that we have attained things in high school which we have long been striving for. The climax of this we believe to be the Lenten Services conducted by the Inner Circle, a committee composed of three members from the Hi-Y and three from the Friendship Club. These services meant a great deal to high school students and we hope will continue to bear fruit.

Our program for the entire year has been based upon the upbuilding of the three equal sides of a girl's life, namely; mental, physical, and spiritual. In working out our programs we have also tried to put something across to all those who have attended our meetings, either by a discussion or through a very worthwhile speaker.

Many of our aims have been realized and others that have been worked for and not attained to their full height are left to the next year's club to carry on.

The success of our club this year is due in a very large measure to our loyal Y. W. Secretary, Miss Harlowe, and our faithful advisers, Miss Hanna and Miss Jencick.

Father and Son Banquet—December 12, 1924.

The Father and Son Banquet was held under the auspices of the Senior Class on Dec. 12. Coach Robert Flecher from Case was the speaker. The Boys' Band furnished the music for the evening. The number who attended was 178. The greatest share of the success of the Banquet was due to the Mothers of the Seniors who helped.

Debaters Midnight Spree—December 5, 1924.

It had been agreed that if both debating teams won the Debate contest from Rocky River on Dec. 5, there would be a party at Mabel Dickerson's home that very night.

As soon as the Chagrin team came from Rocky River and met the other team at Chagrin Falls, they went to Mabel's home. Laurence Payne gave some marvelous exhibitions of how near a human body can be made to resemble a pretzel. Bob Zoul and Sam Rosner entertained with some trick wrestling. After the eats a mock debate was given on the stirring international question proposed by Bob Zoul, "If it rains in Massachusetts, will the price of herring go up in Africa?"

It was settled to the satisfaction of everyone, though no one knows which side won. The last pickle gone and Jean and Ruth warmed, everyone sojourned to Home, Sweet Home.

Junior Sleigh Ride—January 7, 1925.

Miss Young and Mr. Cody chaperoned the Juniors on their sleigh ride on Jan. 7. They journeyed to Mabel Dickerson's. When they arrived some of the girls felt that their hair no longer had that natural (?) curl, so Mrs. Dickerson conducted a hair dressing establishment. Eats vanished very quickly under the strain of the enormous appetites of the "Sleighriders."

Sophomore Party—January 10, 1925.

The gala affair in the Sophomore calendar was the "Hard Time" party held Jan. 10. All the Sophs were to come in old clothes. There was a fine representation of the class and a good time was had by all.

Football Banquet—February 2, 1925.

The annual Football Banquet was held Feb. 2, at the Kiwanis Hall. The football fellows and their fathers were served a chicken dinner furnished by their mothers and sisters. After the speeches which were given by the team, coach, teachers and invited guests, Mr. L. F. Harris presented the team a megaphone decorated with the scores of the past victories.

Freshie Sleigh Ride—February 4, 1925.

On the evening of Feb. 4 two bob-sleds appeared at the Post Office about 7:30, where a crowd of Freshmen were waiting. The crowd drove to Max Cavanaugh's where they enjoyed music and games which furnished the indoor entertainment, and riding and skeeing out of doors. Later, delicious eats were served. Mr. Cody and Miss Jenkins chaperoned the crowd.

Senior and Junior Party—February 14, 1925.

The Seniors invited the Juniors to their Valentine party held Feb. 14. Valentines and many other entertainment features made the evening an enjoyable one. Henry Church's radio proved to be a howling (?) success. Miss Gifford, Miss Hanna, Miss Weidmann, and Mr. and Mrs. Behner attended.

Hi-Y and Friendship Reception—February 28, 1925.

After the concert given by the Oberlin Women's Glee Club, Feb. 28, a reception was held in the Assembly Hall for our Oberlin guests, by the Hi-Y Club, with the Friendship Girls assisting. The evening was spent in dancing.

Senior Kid Party—March 14, 1925.

Childhood days returning. That's what the Seniors, who attended the Kid party at Xenil Burton's home on March 14, thought, for all acted like it. "Doc" Wakefield and Harry Stoneman enjoyed rides on kiddy-cars while the girls found out that it really wasn't difficult to keep their dolls from crying. The radio program invited dancing, while others played cards. Miss Goll, Miss Hanna, and Miss Weidman came to see the Senior "Kids" enjoy themselves. The St. Patrick occasion was evident in the decoration and the delightful lunch served by Mr. and Mrs. Burton.

Sugar Hike—March 24, 1925.

March 24 proved in every way a wonderful sugar hiking day. The school, as usual, appreciated the half day off and assembled in fitting attire to do the occasion justice. Paul Pfouts did an especially good job at boiling, and sugar making was at its best. Cameras did their usual quota of service.

"A NEW ALUMNI ADDRESSES THOSE LEFT BEHIND"

Howdy do, Mr. Stoneburner, howdy do?
 We are here to give three cheers for you!
 You've been leader of our school
 For us you have formed each rule.
 Howdy do, Mr. Stoneburner, howdy do?

Howdy do, Miss Hanna, howdy do?
 'Tis with sad regrets we're parting now from you!
 You're the love of one and all,
 We so gladly heard your call.
 Howdy do, Miss Hanna, howdy do?

Howdy do, Miss Weidmann, howdy do?
 Can we ever sing the praise that is your due?
 All thru school you've been our friend.
 Sincere love to you we send.
 Howdy do, Miss Weidmann, howdy do?

Howdy do, Miss Goll, howdy do?
 Sad we are to say to you "Adieu".
 Your sweet presence with us here
 Us has caused to hold you dear.
 Howdy do, Miss Goll, howdy do?

Howdy do, Mr. Behner, howdy do?
 Those who did the science course pursue,
 They can tell to each and every one
 That we had a lot of fun.
 Howdy do, Mr. Behner, howdy do?

Howdy do, Mr. Cody, howdy do?
 Coaches like you are so few.
 If you caught us chewing gum,
 To your home room we must come.
 Howdy do, Mr. Cody, howdy do?

Howdy do, Miss Jenkins, howdy do?
 To us you have proved a friend so true.
 We've not known you very long,
 But to you we sing this song—
 Howdy do, Miss Jenkins, howdy do?

Howdy do, New Seniors, howdy do?
 Are you sorry that we're thru?
 You our places now must take,
 We hope records you will make.
 Howdy do, New Seniors, howdy do?

The Diary of Samuel Pepey

Mar. 23—Up betimes but friend spouse arrayed in a new gown which she informed me staggered the family exchequer to the tune of twenty pounds, utterly set the day at naught.

Mar. 24—Between the sheets till noon, thereby missing the midday wrestle with the tea and toast. So to the Stopover Coffee House for an afternoon of pleasure with my Lord Wakefield at a game of skittles. My Lord was enraged to the point of proposing a duel when advised of my intended visit to Milady Jean that night. Somewhat revived in spirits at winning a wager of 3 shillings he sent a boy to inform Milady that she would have the pleasure of his company that evening.

To home for my best bib and tucker and to tell friend spouse of duel with my Lord Milan; wife advises an Emergency Case so I betake myself to the Standard Apothecary where I am accosted by Sir Stoneman and made to drink a mug of Coco Cola. To bed with bad headache!

Mar. 25—Find epistle from Lord Doc retracting threat of duel stating that Milady Jean had interceded on my behalf. Immediately felt better. I hied myself to Ye Barbeque Tavern for the evening, where I meet with My Lords Nick and Dip, who have just returned from a sleuthing expedition and have some choice bits of scandal to divulge, that promise to bode no good to certain notorious characters about town.

Mar. 26—As I wended my weary way homeward yester eve was pleased to note My Lords Sir Pete, Sir Nick and Sir Dip offering three fair young damsels the hospitality of Ye Carriage to rest ye tired feet, thereby disproving the popular adage that chivalrie is dying out.

Mar. 27—In the blankets late to day as i' faith there is a hard day's work ahead of your friend Nibs. To an Opperetta the evening by a company touring the Colonies under the name of "The Crimson Ibrows", a goodly troupe with a unique sense of humor.

A Close Call

Bill was sleepy that night. He simply could not stay awake, so at 8:00 p. m. Bill went to bed.

He had been sleeping soundly for about two hours when his roommate opened the door and entered the room. He stood for a few minutes in silent deliberation before the mirror, then he walked over to the dresser and picked up a shiny object.

Bill sat with his eyes half open watching him slyly withdraw from the room with the shiny object. He heard him retrace his footsteps in the hall. By this time he was wide awake to what was happening. Bill, straining his ears, could hear him enter the washroom. He sat there for a moment in horror, thinking of what would soon be reality if he did not take a step to stop him. He tried to yell for help but a large lump in his throat prevented him from making more than a faint squeal. He tried to pull himself out of bed but he was paralyzed.

At last he found his voice. "Bob", he exclaimed, "are you sure you have your own toothbrush?"

The world-wide good will which Dodge Brothers' Motor Car has earned for itself during the past ten years is emphatically the most valuable asset that Dodge Brothers Inc. possess.

The public may rest assured that nothing will ever be done to jeopardize in the slightest degree this enviable and priceless reputation.

The policies and practice which have shaped the destinies of Dodge Brothers in the past, are in full force today, and will continue in full force so long as a motor car bearing Dodge Brothers name shall be manufactured.

The banker sat at his desk, his head buried in his hands. The atmosphere of solitude and dejection was enhanced by the subdued lights and the dull ticking of the clock. He raised his head from his hands, took his pencil and started figuring anew. With a groan he laid it down, slowly opened a drawer and took out his revolver. He fingered it lovingly, for it was the only means of escape. No longer did he delight in surprising his beautiful young wife with a costly gift; no longer did a child's merry laughter thrill the very depths of his being. Oh, life was cruel, and fate was ever ready to enmesh the careless in her hopeless net of mistakes.

He raised the revolver to his head, his mouth moved as he silently petitioned: "Dear God, watch over my wife and baby, and save them from the cross word puzzle."

PROF. CODY'S ANDY GUMP SPEECH

As I arrived in Chagrin Falls I felt as if it was my home. It is the most beautiful little city I have ever seen. I feel as if I know everybody in town; in fact I can trace some of my ancestors here. My grandfather, Andrew Gump, was the first to go over the Chagrin Falls in a barrel.

I am confident that everyone here will vote for me and if they do, I shall be elected; for as Chagrin goes, so goes the country.

FOUNDED 1848

Unusual Opportunities Offered at the Oberlin Business College

The great place which the Oberlin Business College has come to occupy is of interest to the members of our present senior class and especially to those intending to enter a business college. A business education is absolutely essential to those who wish to enter upon a business career while those who go to college and later to professional school are greatly handicapped without a knowledge of business affairs. It would pay every high school graduate to spend a year in a first class business college before entering college or professional school.

The Oberlin Business College stands at the head of business training schools. It is the only business college in Ohio in which graduation from high school or its equivalent is its entrance requirement. High school graduates can accomplish vastly more in a school offering advanced courses suited to their needs than in business schools many of whose students have had little or no high school training. It was the first business college to be placed upon the Accredited List of Ohio colleges by the State Department of Public Instruction. Graduates of its two year Teachers' Course receive state certificates. It is also a member of the National Association of Accredited Schools.
