Dear Student,

Here are six questions that will help us know you better. Please answer them truthfully and completely. The answers to these questions will not influence your selection as a Dakshana Scholar.

Introduce your family to us. Start with your father, mother and then your brother/s and sister/s. Tell us what they do, what they like or dislike etc. Also tell us what your immediate uncles (mama and chacha) do for a living.

We are a family of 6, my father is a govt employee and he really like to watch T.V. My mother is a homemaker and she likes to tend garden and dislikes travelling. My eldest sister is a student and she is pursuing her Ph.D from U.N.A., currently My second elder sister is also a student and she is in her 1st year of Masters in Sociology and lastly my elder brother is also a student and loves doing social work of all kinds. He is a very kind person. My immediate uncles are one of them is unemployed and other one is in civil defence.

Why should you be awarded the Dakshana Scholarship? If you are not selected to be a Dakshana Scholar, what will you do?

I think I should be awarded the Dakshana Scholarship cause I think I am worthy enough of it and if I am not selected then I'll consider it as my fate and the work hard for the JDSI exam.

What is your ambition in life?

My ambition in life is to become a kind of person that is faithful to the society as a whole as well as to the people around myself. In whatever field I pursue I want to make sure that I make the best use of all the assets I get through that designation for the welfare of everyone including myself.

How would you like to contribute to the society and the world when you become successful?

I would like to contribute to the society and the world by doing anything under my power to help those who are not able to help themselves and have a helping hand in the development of our country and towards mankind.

Describe an incident in your life that has motivated/inspired you to do better.

There is no particular story but in life I have seen many people regret that they didn't try their best. That's what motivates me the most in my life to do a bit better and to try a little harder. Even, after that if I don't succeed there would be no space for the guilt that I didn't try. A real life example of this thing I have encountered is when after 12th, my eldest sister gave the NEET exam but she ~~is~~ was not able to clear it but she was not sad or disappointed about it cause she tried her best and there was literally no space left for guilt and that's why she went on in her life easily and is now pursuing her studies in forestry happily.

Tell us about your interests and hobbies.

My main interest in life is mathematics, I really love solving eq<sup>s</sup> and I am not the best or can solve all but I like to try. My other hobbies are reading books and writing, whatever I get to write either its daily journal or about something I really love to write.
