

jCALL FOR ARTISTS

Theme: “Empowering Women and Girls”

Sponsored by American Association of University Women

AAUW is soliciting original works of art for an art show and contest to be held at Central United Methodist Church, 3700 Pacific Avenue, Stockton, on Saturday, March 10, 2018.

Artist/Artwork Eligibility: Artists are required to be currently enrolled part or full time students at San Joaquin Delta College or University of the Pacific. Artwork should present a visual expression of and reaction to issues of female empowerment, including but not limited to activism, education, pay equity, violence against women, sexual harassment, gender stereotyping, intersectionality, non traditional roles and women’s leadership. Local, national and world perspectives, both historical and current, are all accepted.

Artist Statements and Bios Please provide a half-page artist statement and bio with the delivery of your artwork. Also submit statement/bio by February 26th via email to: AAUW Stockton Branch President Ronda Sanders, ronsan3628@sbcglobal.net. Statement should be in word doc/editable format and include: artist’s name and title of each work, and speak directly to the content of their artwork being submitted for the call for entries.

Artwork Delivery – February 26: Deliver artwork, statement/bio, and Call for Entry Form to:

Delta College: Horton Art Gallery, Shima 144, 8:00am–12:30pm and 1:30–3:00pm
Contact: Jan Marlese, jmarlese@deltacollege.edu, 209-954-5507

Pick Up Artwork: February 27

Delta College: Horton Art Gallery, Shima 144: 8:00-11:00am and by appointment
Artists will be informed of the selected works when they pick up their artwork.

Artwork Presentation Requirements: Flat artwork on paper and photographs must be matted and ready to hang (see school representative for further information). Framed artwork or on canvas must be wired for hanging. Artwork dimensions may not exceed 4ft. in any direction. Film and video works are not accepted. Maximum of 5 works submitted per artist.

Cash Awards: 1st Place $200 / 2nd Place $150 / 3rd Place $100

Works for the art show and the awards will be selected by representatives from AAUW, SJDC and UOP, and will be based on originality, creativity, technical skill and relevance to the theme.
