The Second Level Complaint Process

Second Level Complaint Review

A committee of 3 or more [CHC-MCO Name] people, including at least one person who does not work for [CHC-MCO], will meet to make a decision about your Second Level Complaint. This is called the “Complaint review.” The [CHC-MCO Name] staff on the committee were not involved in and do not work for someone who was involved in the issue you filed your Complaint about.

At any time during the Complaint review process, you can have someone you know represent you or act for you. This person is “your representative.” If you decide to have someone represent you or act for you, tell [CHC-MCO Name], in writing, the name of that person and how we can reach him or her.

[CHC-MCO Name] will tell you the location, date, and time of the Complaint review at least 15 days before the day of the Complaint review.

You and your representative may appear at the Complaint review in person or by phone. [OR if video conference is available: You and your representative may appear at the Complaint review in person, by phone, or by videoconference.] You may also bring a family member, friend, lawyer, or other person to help you during the Complaint review. If you decide that you do want to attend, that will not affect the decision of the committee.

[CHC-MCO Name] will mail you a letter within [date that is no more than 45 days from receipt of the Second Level Complaint] days from the date [CHC-MCO Name] got your Second Level Complaint to tell you the decision on your Complaint.

Information About Your Complaint

You or your representative may ask [CHC-MCO Name] to see any information about the issue you filed your Complaint about, at no cost to you.

You may also send information that you have about your Complaint to [CHC-MCO Name].
