

New Snake Species Found in Arunachal Pradesh

Why in News

Recently, a new species of non-venomous burrowing snake, named Trachischium apteii has been found in the forested area of the Talley Valley Wildlife Sanctuary near the town of Ziro in Arunachal Pradesh.

• It belongs to a group of fossorial (adapted to digging) snakes that live mostly underground, and surface mainly during or after a heavy monsoon shower.

Source: TH

PDF Refernece URL: https://www.drishtiias.com/printpdf/new-snake-species-found-in-arunachal-pradesh