BOARD OF GOVERNORS

Dear East-West Center Alumni and Associates:

On behalf of the East-West Center Board of Governors, I welcome you to Bali as you participate in the EWC/EWCA conference "Building an Asia Pacific Community: Unity and Diversity."

For some of you, it has been a long time since you were at the Center, and I am proud to share with you many new and exciting changes happening at the Center. The East-West Center community is working very well together and I want to partner with my fellow alumni colleagues and friends to help build the Center's long term stability.

The Center continues to promote our mission to contribute to a peaceful, prosperous, and just Asia Pacific community by serving as a vigorous hub for cooperative research, education, and dialogue on critical issues of common concern to the Asia Pacific region and the United States. We are especially pleased to report that the student program is alive and well. The number of students at the Center is now over 450, with 155 new students arriving this August from 36 countries. This is the largest number of students since the early 1970s.

The conference committee has planned events that will provide an opportunity to meet old and new friends, reminisce about your time at the Center, update yourself on our activities, and exchange views with some of the talent currently at the Center. You will be able to participate in the panels and plenary sessions to learn more about the issues facing our region today.

We are deeply grateful to the Indonesian Conference Committee for the organization, coordination, and implementation of this special event, and extend our best wishes for a successful gathering. We look forward to personally seeing you during the conference!

Aloha and Mahalo,

Puongpun Sananikone
Chair
East-West Center Board of Governors

Welcome

ASSOCIATES OFFICE

Dear East-West Center Alumni and Associates,

Welcome to Bali! The conference committee has planned events that will invoke memories, provide us with new opportunities to build bridges across Asia Pacific cultures and to enjoy the uniqueness of this world-renown island and its culture. They have also provided us with a timely theme, "Building an Asia Pacific Community: Unity in Diversity". Unity in Diversity is Indonesia's motto and appropriately relates to the entire region. We celebrate differences while identifying common bonds and challenges. Prominent alumni, members of the EWC's research staff and Board, current students, and guests will share their expertise on these subjects.

You will have an opportunity to enter into a dialogue with our EWC's Board of Governors, President, and Directors about current Center policy and future possibilities. Also, the EWCA welcomes your input into its plans to further the mission of the Center. We look forward to your suggestions as we plan for our Golden Jubilee 50th Anniversary Conference and other 50th year celebration events. It will be held in Hawaii over the Fourth of July weekend in 2010. Mark your calendars now.

Know that the Center is healthy, progressing toward its goals and looks forward to the support of the alumni.

Aloha,

Kok Kian Poh
Chair, East-West Center Association

EWCA Bali Chapter

November, 2008

Welcome from all Indonesian Alumni (EWCA Jakarta, EWCA Bali, EWCA Aceh)

Respected East West Center President and staff,
Delegates, chapter leaders and other respected guests.

Oom Swasti Astu,

Please allow me to welcome you all to Indonesia especially to the island of Bali. May your short visit to our land widen your understanding of the people and culture of this country and also hope you take advantage of your stay with us to enjoy the natural beauty of this island.

I have looked forward to this important event since our last East West Center Conference held in Hanoi two years ago. Now, the meeting is located in Bali Indonesia; a location which constantly reminds us how past and future can coexist so closely, and how various religions, cultures, races and ethnic groups can also work well together to achieve a sense of spiritual peace and harmony. The situation will be relevant to the theme of the conference, "Building an Asia Pacific Community: Unity in Diversity"

The conference will take place from the 13th to the 15th November. Prior to the meeting, there will be a chapter leaders meeting, organized from November 11-12.

We gather here for a professional networking conference bringing together East West Center researchers, alumni, students, friends and other interested professionals. The meeting will discuss various topics that are relevant to the East West Center goals and missions and of interest to the participants.

I convey my thanks to the organizing committee for choosing Bali to host this conference.

Have a Great conference!

Om Shanti, Shanti, Shanti, Om.

2008 Alumni Awards

OUTSTANDING VOLUNTEER AWARDS

This award recognizes what is best in a volunteer including service to something beyond oneself, a willingness to contribute time and effort without pay, and a donation of time and effort beyond one's normal responsibilities. The awardees lead by example and by demonstrating the qualities that bring out the best in others.

U Maung Maung (Burma)

U Maung Maung has led the Burma Chapter for several years under difficult circumstances. He organizes regular chapter meetings, updates alumni contact information, and meets with newly selected participants. The Burma Chapter has donated items to the silent auction held at the EWC Foundation's annual dinner.

Joseph L. Overton (United States)

As one of the participants in the first Asian Studies Development Program (ASDP) residential summer institute in 1991, Joe has contributed to the advancement of ASDP until today. Working as a volunteer, he achieved his vision of creating the ASDP Association of Regional Centers, formed to assist in the delivery of programs and activities in the advancement of bringing awareness and understanding to tertiary educational levels in the U.S. Several Fulbright-Hays Group Projects Abroad grants were secured by Joe to lead college faculty members on field study in Malaysia, Singapore and Brunei.

Claire Koch Langham Richmond (San Diego)

Claire has been an active leader and loyal member of the Southern California Chapter for many years and has attended most EWCA conferences. She was the President of the Chapter for nearly a decade. She is always full of ideas, spends the time to implement them, and is an optimist, putting the most positive spin on whatever challenges are encountered.

A. Seshan (Mumbai)

A. Seshan has been one of the most reliable, committed, and active members of the EWCA Executive Board since joining the Board in 2002. He served as Vice President for Chapter Development for several years and prepared the quarterly Global Report on Chapter activities. He is both a thinker and a doer.

OUTSTANDING CHAPTER AWARDS

This award recognizes chapters that have provided significant contributions to the goals and programs of the East-West Center Association. The chapter must have active and committed leadership, quality programs which expand the outreach of the Center into local communities, an active membership and proactive approach in organizing events and activities which benefit and interest the local alumni.

Bangkok, Thailand

The Bangkok Chapter has been active for many years tracing back to the major International Conference held in Bangkok in 1991 which attracted over 500 participants. It established a tradition of holding an annual Aloha Night which brings together hundreds of alumni and friends each year. Most recently, the Thai alumni organized a major fund raising effort in conjunction with the rebuilding of the Royal Sala Thai. Over $185,000 was raised for the Royal Sala Thai Scholarship Fund for Thai students. This scholarship campaign serves as a model for other chapters to follow.

Dhaka, Bangladesh

The Dhaka Chapter organizes regular meetings and celebrates the EWC's anniversary on May 14 each year. It has successfully publicized the Center, accepted responsibility to serve as the EWC Program Representative in Bangladesh, and organized community service projects for the poor to alleviate disaster situations from floods and cyclones.

EAST-WEST CENTER ASSOCIATION MAKANA AWARD

Awarded for life long dedication to the East-West Center's mission and service to our alumni.

Didin Sastrapradja

Didin has provided leadership and advice to our alumni association for over 30 years. Within Indonesia, he led the EWCA Indonesia Chapter for many years, was an essential organizer of our first international conference in Bali in 1988, and established a foundation to ensure financial stability for the Indonesia Chapter. Internationally, Didin led the EWCA Executive Board for many years. His influence on the alumni association has been substantial through his gentle and persuasive attitude which is respected by all. In fact, the EWCA Executive Board continues to follow the "Didin Principle" which stands for decision making by consensus instead of confrontation. Mahalo to Didin for his life long dedication to the Center's mission and service to our alumni.

DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI AWARDS

This award recognizes outstanding accomplishments, including significant contributions to the promotion of better relations and understanding among the peoples of Asia, the Pacific, and the United States; significant achievement in one's career and continuing support for the goals and objectives of the Center. The award was established and endowed by Dr. Dai Ho Chun, the former Director of the Center's Institute for Technical Interchange.

Riley K. Lee

Dr. Riley Lee is recognized internationally as an outstanding performing artist of the shakuhachi (a traditional Japanese flute). He is highly respected by Japanese musicians, music critics, scholars and audiences and is the most famous and influential of any shakuhachi performer of non-Japanese ancestry. Riley has made over fifty commercially released recordings and has performed all over the world. He received his PhD degree in ethnomusicology from the University of Sydney and was instrumental in creating a professional presence of traditional Japanese music in Australia. In 1980, he was given the rank of Dai Shihan (grand master). Taking leadership in the international shakuhachi world, he has been one of the principal motivators for a series of international gatherings of shakuhachi practitioners, re-framing the art as a Japanese genre with an international practice.

Kuldeep Mathur

Dr. Kuldeep Mathur served as Rector of Jawaharlal Nehru University, one of the premier universities in India, and Director of the Indian Institute of Public Administration. Dr. Mathur took the lead in expanding the frontiers of public administration to encompass broader issues of governance. He gave this an institutional form by persuading Jawaharlal Nehru University to establish a multi-disciplinary Centre for the Study of Law and Governance. As a widely respected senior member of the social science community in India, he has received prestigious awards from the University Grants Commission and the Indian Council of Social Science Research. He served as President of the EWCA Delhi Chapter for many years and helped in its revival.

Dennis C. Zvinakis (posthumous)

Dennis Zvinakis gave tirelessly throughout his career as a Agency for International Development (AID) Foreign Service Officer and development professional in Bangladesh, Indonesia, Sri Lanka and the Philippines. Toward the end of his career, he was the AID representative to the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) and Asia Environmental Partnership (AEP). After retirement, Dennis accepted his greatest challenge and achieved his most noteworthy career goals.

He established a USAID Mission in Vietnam in 2004 soon after the US and Vietnam began diplomatic relations. His efforts resulted in the development of an historical program in Vietnam with its emphasis on agricultural development, public health and environmental projects.

Leaving a Living Legacy

Private gifts help the East-West Center make our transformational educational programs accessible to all qualified students, regardless of their economic resources. Gifts of all sizes are always welcome, and often are matched many times over through other public and private sources.

East-West Center Association (EWCA) ^ Alumni Endowment Fund for Student Scholarships

East-West Center alumni have donated almost $500,000 to the Alumni Endowment Fund, established as a legacy to future generations of students to participate in our education program. Graduate degree students are selected based on academic excellence, financial need, leadership potential, and a strong commitment to community service and involvement with EWCA.

NAMED FUNDS:

You Can Contribute or Create Your Own Fund

For gifts of $25,000 or more, the EWC can set up separately managed funds. Gifts of $50,000 or more qualify as Permanent Named Endowments. No fees are charged so that all revenues can go directly to the beneficiaries. Here are some examples of these funds.

Sumi Makey Scholars Awards >

Sumi Makey, former EWC Dean of Student Affairs and Open Grants, established a $100,000 scholarship endowment. It is thanks in large part to Sumi's leadership, that both the '60s and '70s alumni endowment campaigns generated such remarkable support from our alumni — many of whom still consider Sumi a good friend and mentor. The Sumi Makey Awards will benefit worthy degree candidates who have a background and interest in the arts and humanities, with a preference for women from S.E. Asia.

The Amanda & Natalie Ellis Women Leaders Scholarship Award

EWC alumnae Amanda Ellis established this $50,000 scholarship endowment in honor of her mother, Natalie Ellis, who has made significant contributions to the education of young women for more than 50 years. The scholarship aims to encourage young women leaders from Australia and New Zealand to study in the Asia Pacific Leadership Program.

Buddy & Melga Torre Gendrano Fellowships

Buddy and Melga Gendrano created the Buddy & Melga Torre Gendrano Fellowships as a $50,000 Permanent Named Endowment. Awards will assist Degree Fellows or APLP participants from the Philippines or Hawai'i with preference given to those with a past record and intention of future involvement in the fields of education and/or agriculture.

Ashok Kumar Malhotra Seva (Compassionate Service) Award

A dedicated volunteer himself, 1960's alumnus Ashok Malhotra created a $25,000 fund to reward and encourage public service. The Ashok Kumar Malhotra Seva (Compassionate Service) Award provides support to international students with an outstanding academic record and a record of and intention to be involved in continuing community service in the Asia Pacific region.

EAST-WEST CENTER

FORMING AND INFORMING LEADERS

THE EAST-WEST CENTER was established by the United States Congress in 1960 to “promote better relations and understanding between the United States and the nations of Asia and the Pacific region through cooperative study, education, and research.”

The Center works to strengthen relations in the region and serves as a national and regional resource for information and analysis on Asia and the Pacific. It provides a meeting ground where people with a wide range of perspectives exchange views on topics of regional concern. Since its founding more than 50,000 people have participated in Center programs. Many of these participants occupy key positions in government, business, journalism, and education in the region.

Officially known as the Center for Cultural and Technical Interchange between East and West, the East-West Center is a public, non-profit institution with an international board of governors. Funding comes from the U.S. government in addition to support provided by private agencies, individuals and corporations, and governments in the region.

Located in Honolulu, three miles from Waikiki and adjacent to the University of Hawai‘i, the Center’s 21-acre campus includes conference facilities, a research and administration office building, and three residential halls.

EAST-WEST CENTER ASSOCIATION

The East-West Center experience unites more than 50,000 students, scholars, and professional associates from more than 50 countries. For many, the Center provided a defining chapter in their lives, affecting their outlooks and aspirations and building lifelong personal and professional networks.

The East-West Center Association (EWCA) is an international network of professionals who have a past affiliation with the East-West Center. Regardless of length of stay or type of participation, all are automatically members (associates) of the EWCA. There are no membership fees or other requirements to participate in the EWCA. The Association is led by an international Executive Board representing the various professions, regions, and decades of its members.

While participating in education, research, and collaborative programs at the Center, EWCA members enriched the institution with their array of talents, cultural perspectives, and ideas. Today, in countries around the globe, these individuals continue to further the mission of the Center. Collectively, they are contributing to global understanding, building an Asia Pacific community, and making a world of difference.
