Biographical Sketch

(L) Photograph from Karel Husa Archive, Box 138/9; (R) Photograph by Caroline Radice, from Karel Husa Archive, Box 137/58.

Karel Husa, internationally known composer and conductor, was born on August 7, 1921, in Prague, Czechoslovakia. He studied composition and conducting at the Prague Conservatory and the Prague Academy before relocating to Paris in 1947. Husa then earned diplomas at the École Normale de Musique de Paris and the Conservatoire de Paris. His primary teachers were composers Nadia Boulanger, Arthur Honegger, and Jaroslav Řídký as well as conductors Jean Fournet, Eugène Bigot, and André Cluytens.

In June 1950, Husa won the 1950 Lili Boulanger Award and the 1951 Bilthoven Festival Prize for his String Quartet No. 1, resulting in international attention and additional concerts in Brussels, Darmstadt, Netherlands, Germany, France, Sweden, England, Switzerland, Australia, and the United States. During this time, his main compositional influences were Vítězslav Novák, Leoš Janáček, Béla Bartók, and Igor Stravinsky.

In 1954, Husa immigrated to the United States to serve as faculty at Cornell University, where he remained until his retirement in 1992. He became a US citizen in 1959. He also served concurrently as a lecturer at Ithaca College from 1967 to 1986 and conducted the Cayuga Chamber Orchestra from 1977 to 1984 as its first director.

Husa wrote Music for Prague 1968, his most celebrated work and a standard of wind ensemble repertoire, after the Soviet Union crushed the Prague Spring reform movement in Czechoslovakia. Husa was listening to the BBC broadcast of these events from the dock of his cottage home in the United States when he was inspired to write the work to memorialize the events. The piece was commissioned by Ithaca College and received its premiere in January 1969 at the Music Educators National Conference in Washington, DC. That same year, Husa's String Quartet No. 3, commissioned for the Fine Arts Quartet, won the Pulitzer Prize. In subsequent decades, he received numerous commissions from major orchestras and arts organizations, including the New York Philharmonic, the Chicago Symphony, the National Association of College Wind and Percussion Instructors, the American String Teachers Association, and the Koussevitzky Music Foundation. In 1983, Husa was the winner of the first Louis Sudler International Wind Band Composition Competition for his Concerto for Wind Ensemble, and in 1993, he received the prestigious Grawemeyer Award for Music Composition for his Concerto for Violoncello and Orchestra.

Beyond his compositional success, Husa was actively sought out as a guest conductor for ensembles throughout the US and internationally, conducting both his own works as well as standard orchestral and wind band repertoire. He conducted numerous major orchestras including those in Paris, London, Prague, Zurich, Hong Kong, Singapore, New York, Boston, and Washington, DC. Additionally, he frequently appeared as a guest composer/conductor and clinician at universities, high schools, conferences, festivals, and clinics throughout the US, ultimately conducting ensembles in all 50 states.

Among Husa's numerous honors are awards and fellowships from the American Academy for Arts and Letters, UNESCO, the Kennedy Center, the Guggenheim Foundation, and the National Endowment for the Arts, as well as Koussevitzky Foundation commissions; the Czech Academy for Arts and Foundation prize; the World Association of Symphonic Band Ensembles (WASABE) Lifetime Achievement Award; and the Czech Medal of Merit, first class (the country's highest civilian honor), which was presented by President Vaclav Havel. He has also been awarded ten honorary Doctor of Music degrees from various institutions, including Coe College (1976), the Cleveland Institute of Music (1985), Ithaca College (1986), Baldwin Wallace College (1991), the New England Conservatory (1998) and the Academy of Musical Arts in Prague (2000).

Karel Husa died on December 14, 2016, in Apex, North Carolina. He was 95 years old.

Provenance

The Karel Husa Archive was originally donated to and housed at Ithaca College under the curation of Dr. Mark Radice. The materials that comprise the collection were direct donations from Karel Husa, the first of which were received by Ithaca College in October 1998; Karel Husa continued to make periodic deposits of material to Ithaca College through 2014.

In November 2016, upon Dr. Radice's impending retirement from Ithaca College and in accordance with Karel Husa's wishes, the Archive was transferred to Sibley Music Library.

Scope and Content Note

The Karel Husa Archive richly documents Dr. Husa's lifetime of professional activities as a composer, conductor, educator, and mentor. The materials represented include recordings, performance scores, manuscripts, books and scholarly journals, papers/files (e.g., press clippings, correspondence, concert programs, publicity materials, contracts, photographs, and other documents), photographs, and ephemera.

Nearly all of Dr. Husa's compositions are represented in the Archive in some manifestation, whether as sketches, drafts, fair copies, publisher's proofs, published scores, or full performance sets. Notably, several of the scores contain annotations by Dr. Husa such as conducting cues, performance markings, and emendations, including corrections of errata. Dr. Husa's compositions are also well-represented within the library of recordings, and the files contain numerous concert programs, press clippings, publicity materials, correspondence, contracts, and other relevant materials pertaining to performances and broadcasts of his works throughout the United States and internationally.

The Archive also documents Dr. Husa's international renown as a conductor, which is evidenced in the library of performance scores; numerous recordings with Husa conducting; and concert programs, press clippings, publicity materials, and other files. Among these materials are documents from Dr. Husa's tenure directing ensembles at Cornell University and Ithaca College, materials from his work with the Cayuga Chamber Orchestra, and records of his numerous appearances as a guest conductor. Of these materials, the library of performance scores is of particular significance as many of the scores contain copious annotations and performance instructions by Dr. Husa.

The music library also contains scores from several of Husa's students and colleagues, some of which are inscribed to Dr. Husa and/or autographed by the composer. More significantly, there is a distinct series of presentation manuscripts, comprised of holograph sketches, fair copies, and published scores from various composers; these materials were solicited from several of Dr. Husa's composer colleagues and friends for an exhibition in celebration of his 80th birthday. Among the composers represented are William Bolcom, John Corigliano, Chen Yi, Libby Larsen, Daniel Pinkham, George Rochberg, Ned Rorem, Joseph Schwantner, Augusta Reed Thomas, Yehudi Wyner, and Zhou Long.

The correspondence in the collection is also quite noteworthy, as it includes letters between Dr. Husa and other prominent composers and colleagues, such as Darius Milhaud, Francis Poulenc, Leonard Bernstein, Aaron Copland, Lucas Foss, Héctor Tosar, and many others. Dr. Husa especially valued the letters from his teacher and mentor, Nadia Boulanger; several dozen such letters are present in the collection, spanning more than three decades (1947–1979). Dr. Husa also saved copious professional correspondence from the duration of his composing and conducting career. Taken together, this correspondence is invaluable to our understanding of the concert music of the twentieth century.

Restrictions and Use

There are no restrictions on the Karel Husa Collection. In regards to any reproduction of any of the contents, the provisions of the United States Copyright Law (1976) and its revisions do apply. The written permission of the Depositor must be obtained for citation and for photocopying.

Associations

RTWSC houses the papers of numerous composers associated with the Eastman School of Music, including both faculty members and alumni. Counted among these are the collections of composers Samuel Adler, Wayne Barlow, Warren Benson, Gordon Binkerd, Howard Hanson, Sydney Hodkinson, Burrill Phillips, and Bernard Rogers; several of these composers and/or their works appear throughout the Archive in the correspondence, recordings, and scores.

Given Dr. Husa's significance as a wind band composer and conductor—as well as his professional ties and personal rapport with each of the Eastman Wind Ensemble's directors—the Frederick Fennell Collection may also be of interest. The Fennell Collection contains a substantial personal music library, including extensively annotated conductor's scores, as well as a substantial body of correspondence, professional papers, writings, and research related to the EWE and, more broadly, the wind band and its repertoire.

RTWSC also holds the papers of Dr. Abram Loft, who enjoyed a long performing career with the Fine Arts Quartet (1952–1979) before joining the faculty of the Eastman School of Music; it was during Dr. Loft's tenure with the Fine Arts Quartet that the ensemble commissioned, premiered, and recorded Dr. Husa's Pulitzer-winning String Quartet No. 3 (1968).

DESCRIPTION OF SERIES

The Karl Husa Archive is arranged in six series according to material type, with sub-series as described below. Within each series, the materials have been maintained in the order originally imposed by Ithaca College as much as possible.

Series 1: Recordings

This series is comprised of more than 1,400 recordings, representing multiple recording formats (i.e., LPs, CDs, audiocassette tapes, and audio reels) as well as both commercial and personal (i.e., self-produced) recordings. More than 700 of the recordings in the series contain works by Karel Husa and/or works conducted by Karel Husa; this includes several recordings from band festivals (e.g., CBDNA and state MEA festivals) and other recordings of high school and college ensembles. Other recordings appear to have been gifted to Karel Husa by his students, colleagues (whether composers or conductors), or record labels, whereas other recordings were likely collected by Dr. Husa for his personal library of recordings.

The recordings were received from Ithaca College with labels that assigned a Husa-# (H-#) to each item. This organization has been preserved here, and following the procedure established by Ithaca College personnel, recordings that were received at RTWSC without a Husa-# were added to the sequence and assigned sequential Husa-#. For ease of access and to utilize shelving space efficiently, the materials have been grouped first by format, which has resulted in some discrepancies with the numerical order of H-#. That is, numbered materials often skip from media format to media format.

The item description is comprised of the title or other identifying note or label on the recording; recording label (for commercial recordings); date; and format. The performers, such as the ensemble, soloist, and conductor, are then given, as well as the date and location of the performance (for live recordings), if the information is available. This is followed by a track list. Composition titles and spellings have been transcribed as present on each item; thus, spellings of non-English composer surnames have not been standardized.

Sub-series A: LPs

Sub-sub-series 1: 12" discs

Sub-sub-series 2: 10" discs

Sub-sub-series 3: 7" discs

Sub-series B: Reel-to-reel tapes

Sub-sub-series 1: 10.5" reels

Sub-sub-series 2: 7" reels

Sub-sub-series 3: 5" reels

Sub-series C: Cassette tapes

Sub-series D: Compact discs

To aid the researcher, RTWSC personnel have compiled an Index of Select Recordings that succinctly lists the recordings within the Archive that contain (1) works by Karel Husa, organized by composition; (2) works by other composers conducted by Karel Husa, organized by composer surname; and (3) spoken remarks by Karel Husa (see Index of Select Recordings).

Series 2: Music Library

Series 2 is comprised of Karel Husa's music library, including conducting scores (many of which contain performance markings or conducting cues in his hand) as well as presentation manuscripts and miniature study scores. These materials have been arranged by format as indicated below. Within each sub-series, the scores are arranged in alphabetical order by composer surname, then alphabetical by title. To preserve Dr. Husa's original arrangement, compositions by J. S. Bach, Leoš Janáček, and W. A. Mozart are arranged by catalog number instead of alphabetically by title.

Sub-series A: Scores

Sub-series B: Presentation manuscripts

This sub-series contains 18 partial or full scores that were collected from several of Dr. Husa's composer colleagues and friends for an exhibition in celebration of the composer's 80th birthday. Several of the scores have been inscribed to Karel Husa and/or are accompanied by personal correspondence to Karel Husa in commemoration of his birthday. Among the composers represented are William Bolcom, John Corigliano, Chen Yi, Libby Larsen, Daniel Pinkham, George Rochberg, Ned Rorem, Joseph Schwantner, Augusta Reed Thomas, Yehudi Wyner, and Zhou Long.

Sub-series C: Miniature scores

N.B. Oversized scores in Series 2 have been housed in storage containers appropriate to their respective dimensions. This has resulted in some inevitable discrepancies between the alphabetical (i.e., by composer surname) organization of the materials and the numeric box order in Sub-series A (Scores) and Sub-series B (Presentation manuscripts).

Series 3: Compositions by Karel Husa

Series 3 is comprised of compositions by Karel Husa, including sketches, drafts, fair copies, publisher's proofs, published scores, or full performance sets. Nearly all of Dr. Husa's compositions are represented here in some manifestation.

The materials in this series have been divided into six sub-series by genre, and within each sub-series, the works are ordered chronologically by date of composition; for convenience, in the finding aid, the date of composition (taken from Dr. Husa's works lists) is provided in brackets before the composition title. This arrangement is adopted from the organization used by Dr. Husa in several of his own works lists. (See Series 5 [Files] for copies of works lists Dr. Husa compiled over the course of his career.) A similar arrangement was adopted by Susan Hayes Hitchens in Karel Husa: A Bio-bibliography (New York: Greenwood Press, 1991), in which Dr. Husa's works are organized by genre and sub-arranged chronologically by date of composition. Hitchens subsequently assigned each composition a work number (e.g., W1) for convenience, and Dr. Husa occasionally referenced these work numbers in the folder headings within his files (see Series 5). Thus, to facilitate cross-referencing, the work numbers (where available) are provided in brackets after the date of composition in the folder headings (e.g., [1943/W1.] Sonatina pro clavier, op. 1.) Where there exist discrepancies between Dr. Husa's and Hitchens's works lists with regard to genre divisions or chronology, Dr. Husa's arrangement has been prioritized.

Certain manuscripts and scores were accompanied by correspondence, press clippings, and other documents. To preserve Dr. Husa's original arrangement, these items have been left interfiled within Series 3. Additional correspondence and documents (e.g., errata lists, program notes, and publicity materials) related to specific works can be found in Series 5 (Files).

Sub-series A: Keyboard

This sub-series includes works for solo keyboard instrument as well as works for piano four hands (i.e., Eight Czech Duets). Music for Chimes (Carillon) (later titled Tower Music), a composition originally written for the carillon at Cornell University, is also included in this series.

Sub-series B: Chamber ensemble

Sub-series B contains works for two instruments (including solo instrument with piano), small chamber groups (e.g., trio, quartet), and large chamber ensembles (up to 14 musicians).

Sub-series C: Orchestra

Sub-series D: Band

Sub-series E: Solo voice or chorus

This sub-series is comprised of works for solo voice or chorus, including large-scale vocal works for chorus and orchestra or wind ensemble (e.g., An American Te Deum). This sub-series also houses choral parts and an expanded score for Dr. Husa's adaptation of Apotheosis of this Earth for mixed chorus and orchestra; note that the sketches and original band score for Apotheosis of this Earth are filed in Sub-series D (Band).

Sub-series F: Transcriptions and modern editions

This sub-series contains Dr. Husa's transcriptions and arrangements of works by other composers. This includes a group of transcriptions of motets by the French Baroque composer Michel Delalande (1739–1812), which Dr. Husa completed in the 1960s with funding from a Cornell University research grant (see Series 5 [Files] for additional documentation and correspondence related to the grant and Dr. Husa's research). The source materials for these transcriptions are filed alongside Dr. Husa's transcriptions within the sub-series; this includes source materials for several works that he did not ultimately transcribe (primarily additional motets by Michel Delalande).

The materials in this sub-series are organized alphabetically by composer surname. Thus, this arrangement departs from that used by Susan Hayes Hitchens in Karel Husa: A Bio-bibliography; for convenience, Hitchens's works numbers for the arrangements have been provided in the finding aid in brackets.

N.B. The items in Series 3 are housed in storage containers appropriate to their respective dimensions. The varying dimensions of the scores, parts, and sketches throughout this series resulted in an inevitable discrepancy between the chronological (i.e., by composition year) or alphabetical (i.e., by composer surname) organization of each sub-series and the numeric box order.

Series 4: Books and Periodicals

Series 4 is comprised of writings by other authors (i.e., not by Karel Husa) and includes published books, dissertations, issues of periodicals, offprints, and individual articles (including both published articles and unpublished essays). In addition to numerous books on music composition, history, and theory, there are several books of poetry, dramatic scripts, and other fiction writing.

Sub-series A: Books and dissertations

Sub-series B: Periodicals, offprints, and articles

Within this sub-series, full issues of periodicals are filed first; these have been organized in alphabetical order by title then chronological by date issued. At the end of the sub-series are offprints and individual articles, which are arranged alphabetically by author surname.

Sub-series C: Sight-singing books

This sub-series is comprised of books for sight singing. Several of these books are in fragile condition due to brittle paper; accordingly, they were separated into a distinct sub-series by RTWSC personnel to accommodate their specific storage needs. Within this sub-series, the books have been arranged alphabetically by author surname.

Series 5: Files

Sub-series A: Correspondence

The Karel Husa Archive preserves an extensive body of correspondence documenting Dr. Husa's professional activities as a composer, conductor, and educator. Over his long career, Dr. Husa corresponded with numerous internationally recognized composers, conductors, and musicians, including Nadia Boulanger, Darius Milhaud, Francis Poulenc, Aaron Copland, Leonard Bernstein, Lucas Foss, Héctor Tosar, and many others. These letters from prominent colleagues, amounting to over 300 items, were collected by Ithaca College personnel and arranged in chronological order within five three-ring binders for display in the Karel Husa Gallery at Ithaca College. The first four binders (labeled vols. 1–4), held correspondence from 1947–2003, and the correspondence from Nadia Boulanger (along with a handful of letters from Ms. Boulanger's secretary and friend, Annette Diendonné) comprised the fifth binder. The original chronological arrangement of the correspondence—with material from Nadia Boulanger filed separately—has been preserved here, albeit the items have been rehoused in archival folders.

Notably, this sub-series represents only a small portion of Dr. Husa's correspondence. Several hundreds of letters—the bulk of Dr. Husa's correspondence—are filed throughout Sub-series B (Professional files). Additionally, a few letters that had been saved alongside scores in Dr. Husa's library have been preserved in place in Series 2, and a small selection of letters are among the framed items in Series 6. Thus, multiple series and sub-series must be consulted for a full accounting of Dr. Husa's correspondence.

Sub-series B: Professional files

Dr. Husa maintained an extensive body of professional papers documenting his activities and engagements. Altogether, the files contain correspondence, publicity items (including concert programs, press clippings, and various types of publicity materials), professional documents (e.g., contracts, letters of appointment), and ephemera. These were saved in one series, roughly organized in chronological order. When the files were received by Ithaca College in 1998, Dr. Husa's own arrangement was preserved, and subsequent deposits of documents by Dr. Husa were added to the sequence by Ithaca College personnel following the established organization. That entire arrangement is preserved here.

Most of the files—including all the folders that contain exclusively concert programs and press clippings as well as the majority of the correspondence—are dated and arranged in more or less chronological order; this includes some (but not all) of the folders pertaining to specific compositions by Dr. Husa. These dated folders are supplemented with subject-specific folders (e.g., “Diplomas and honorary degrees” as well as additional folders pertaining to Dr. Husa's works) that are separate from the chronological sequence (see Boxes 123–126, 133–136). As Dr. Husa periodically uncovered and deposited in the Archive documents from previous years (sometimes from decades past), three distinct but overlapping chronological sequences of documents were eventually created within the larger series of files, as outlined below:

- (1) Boxes 112–123, which contain concert programs, press clippings, correspondence, and various other documents (e.g., contracts, autobiographical material, invoices) dating from 1945–2012, arranged by year with subject-specific files interfiled within the chronological sequence (e.g., “Commissions – Various minor works, 1969–1973” and “Concerto for cello and orchestra [1988]”);
- (2) Boxes 126–131, which contain additional concert programs, press clippings, and correspondence dating from 1956–2014; and
- (3) Box 132, which contains further concert programs as well as some press clippings and correspondence dating from 1980–2014.

As a result of preserving the files’ original organization (as added to by Ithaca College), specific types of materials (e.g., concert programs; press clippings; and, especially, correspondence relating to specific compositions, commissions, and/or performances) may be found in multiple folders throughout the expansive series of files. To aid the researcher in navigating the Files, RTWSC personnel have prepared a chronological index of the files (see Index of Files).

Where present, Dr. Husa’s original folder headings have been preserved. Occasionally, these headings are inexact descriptions of the folder’s contents (e.g., the folder labeled “Programs, 1954–1959” contains concert programs and publicity materials for performances from 1945–1959); thus, more precise and detailed summaries of each folder’s contents are also given in this finding aid. Where text was added by RTWSC personnel, such as headings that were created for unlabeled folders or clarifying information that was added for convenience, the added text is indicated with brackets.

Within most folders, the documents are organized chronologically, with any undated items added at the end of the folder. Often (but not always), Dr. Husa grouped and stapled related correspondence together (e.g., a guest conducting invitation and subsequent correspondence to finalize arrangements); these items were generally saved in reverse chronological order. Dr. Husa’s original arrangement has been preserved, and such groups of letters are filed in the chronological sequence by the most recent letter. The dates given in the inventory refer to the most recent letter(s); consequently, in certain folders, some related correspondence from earlier dates may be present.

Sub-series C: Documents separated from recordings, scores, and books

Several of the recordings, scores, and books in the Archive were originally accompanied by documents or other papers (e.g., correspondence, concert programs, or press clippings). When possible, these papers were separated and housed in folders within this sub-series.

Sub-series D: Photographs and iconography

This sub-series is comprised primarily of photographs, negatives, and drawings of Karel Husa; additionally, there are a few photographs of his colleagues (e.g., a portrait of Erich Leinsdorf). The photographs primarily document Dr. Husa's professional activities, such as premieres of his compositions or other notable concerts as well as his conducting engagements and travels. Many of the photographs and drawings were originally interfiled in folders within Sub-series B (Professional files), but they were separated by RTWSC personnel into this sub-series for proper archival storage.

Certain photographs were kept interfiled in Sub-series B (Professional Files), including several photographs of Dr. Husa and other photographs from specific events or performances; additional photographs are also housed in Series 6, Sub-series B (Framed photographs). The folders that contain such photos are listed below:

- Box 112/2 (Programs, 1944–1954. Prague, Paris)
- Box 120/7 (1993 University of Louisville Grawemeyer Award)
- Box 124/2 (Ontogeny: ballet choreographed ... to KH's String Quartet No. 3)
- Box 131/10 (2005 Prague Spring Festival)
- Box 133/1 (Some programs [guest conducting] from Europe, [1946–1998])
- Box 133/4 (Some all-state and MENC performances ... [1961–1977])
- Box 133/10 (Some festivals and concerts conducted in the US by KH, [1967–99])
- Box 133/11 (Ithaca College, [1968–1992])
- Box 133/14 (Other universities and schools, [1972–1998])
- Box 133/15 (Hawaii [1977, 1980], Alaska [1982, 1987], Puerto Rico [1978])
- Box 133/17 (American premiere of Dvořák's The Jacobin [1979])
- Box 133/22 (Aspen Composer in Residence [1991])
- Box 133/25 (WASBE 1987, 1997)
- Box 134/15 (Sudler Prize [and military bands] [1970–1991])
- Box 134/17 (Prague – October 2000 [receipt of honorary doctorate])
- Box 134/19 (Some other honors)
- Box 135/3 (Music for Prague 1968: 1990 Prague, 1993, 1997)
- Box 135/11 (Ballets. [1 of 4: The Trojan Women] [1981–1997])
- Box 135/12 (Ballets. [2 of 4: Ontogeny] [1970–1992])
- Box 135/13 (Ballets. [3 of 4: Mosaiques as ballet] [1965, 1973])
- Box 135/14 (Ballets. [4 of 4: Other ballets to music by KH] [1965–1984])
- Box 141/1–15 (Series 6, Sub-series B: Framed photographs)

N.B. Photographs that do not document Dr. Husa's professional or personal activities (e.g., family photographs from Dr. Husa's students/colleagues or publicity photographs for other musicians) have been excluded from the above list.

Sub-series E: Oversized files

This sub-series has been created for the ease of filing and is comprised of documents that require special housing consideration on grounds of their oversized dimensions. These files were separated from the primary sequence of professional papers (Sub-series B: Professional Files), and the individual items and folder entries are annotated with respect to the box and folder from which the given documents were separated.

Sub-series F: Ephemera

This sub-series is comprised two items, namely the embossing stamp created for the Karel Husa Archive at Ithaca College and a “70” birthday candle that Dr. Husa had saved among his other files.

Series 6: Framed Items and Awards

Series 6 contains framed items, including notable letters, certificates/awards, and photographs; two plaques are also included here in sub-series C (Awards).

Sub-series A: Framed documents

Sub-series B: Framed photographs

Sub-series C: Awards

Karel Husa, manuscript sketches to Music for Prague 1968 [for concert band.] From Karel Husa Archive, Box 85/9.

INDEX OF SELECT RECORDINGS

PART I. RECORDINGS OF COMPOSITIONS BY KAREL HUSA

This index lists the recordings within the Archive (represented by H-#) that contain works by Karel Husa. Following the organization of Series 3 (Compositions by Karel Husa), this index arranges Dr. Husa's works first by instrumentation (i.e., keyboard, chamber ensemble, orchestra, band, and solo voice or chorus) and then chronologically by date of composition. Transcriptions of Dr. Husa's original compositions—whether by Dr. Husa or by other composers—are included in this index; these are listed immediately after the source composition regardless of instrumentation and are also listed in the appropriate instrumentation sub-series.

On some recordings, the label or track list provided insufficient information to identify the works definitively whether due to an incomplete (or incorrect) title or missing instrumentation. To accommodate these recordings, a distinct entry for Music for Prague 1968 (instrumentation unspecified) was created, and the remainder of these recordings are listed under the heading "Other/Unidentified" alphabetically by title as given on the recording.

Recordings on which Karel Husa conducted the listed work are indicated by bold and italic font (e.g., H-606).
