The newest building at Florida Southern College is the multi-purpose Ludd M. Spivey Humanities and Fine Arts Center, adjacent to Branscomb Auditorium. Named for the late Dr. Spivey, president of Florida Southern for 32 years, the center houses the music, art, drama and industrial arts departments, faculty offices of the humanities division, the Melvin Gallery and the 336-seat Loca Lee Buckner Theater. The gifts of patrons made much of the new center possible. It was used during the annual Florida Conference sessions for meetings of boards, committees and other groups.

WHEREAS, one part of the difficulty in increasing the level of minimum salary support is the lack of available money from the Conference Benevolence Funds, and

Whereas, we believe that some of our ministers and many of our lay people wish to do something personally for this urgent need, and

Whereas, we understand that some other conferences in our jurisdiction (North Georgia, and Western North Carolina) have helped meet this need through a foundation plan,

Therefore Be It Resolved, that the Florida Annual Conference consider a foundation fund to receive gifts from interested persons, to be administered by the Florida Methodist Foundation, with the income to be used to increase minimum salary support in our Conference above the level attainable through the benevolence funds of the Florida Conference, We further request a report by the Minimum Salary Commission concerning this be made directly to the 1972 Annual Conference.

Resolution: Robert T. Standifer presented the following resolution.

To the One Hundred Twenty-ninth Session of the Florida Annual Conference

WHEREAS, The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church uses the term "minimum salary" in Paragraph 924, instead of the "minimum support" as used in the Journal of the Florida Annual Conference, 1970, and in the reports of the Minimum Salary Committee and the Commission on World Service and Finance to this session of the Florida Annual Conference; and

Whereas, the said Book of Discipline in Paragraph 927 states that: "The total of all travel, automobile, and other expenses allowed and paid to a pastor in addition to his salary shall be in a separate column from that of pastor's salary and adjacent thereto"; and

Whereas, the Manual for the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee used in each local church states under "Travel Expenses": "In addition to salary and fringe benefits the pastor should receive an adequate annual travel allowance to help cover the expenses of purchasing a car and traveling within the parish. This travel expense item is not to be considered as salary but it is to be charged to church administrative costs. The committee will be alert to make certain that the travel expense allowance is adequate to cover the very high costs of driving and maintaining a car in the discharge of a minister's parish ministry"; and

Whereas, it is impossible to determine a real or base salary when combined with a variable travel expense under "minimum support" or "minimum salary."

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, that the term "minimum support" be changed to "minimum salary" in the reports of the Minimum Salary Committee and the Commission on World Service and Finance, which will become a part of the Journal of the Florida Annual Conference, 1971, so as to coincide with the Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church.

Be It Further Resolved, that "minimum salary" be salary only, and not include travel expenses or other expenses, as directed above.

Be It Further Resolved, that travel expense be a negotiable item between a pastor and the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee within each local church, subject to annual review.

ROBERT T. STANDIFER

Whereas Our State, down to the smaller communities, is being flooded with public obscenity and commercialized hard-core pornography being disseminated by so-called "adult book stores," and "mini-adult theaters," and

Whereas such material presents human beings as supremely animalistic, engaged in acts of prostitution and bestiality, thus challenging and contradicting the Christian concept of man as a child of God and thus strongly undermining humanity and civilization:

Be It Therefore Resolved That: The Florida Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church go on record as urging the Florida State Legislature to see that State laws prohibiting public obscenity and commercialized pornography be diligently enforced and that additional legislation be enacted (as necessary) to curb such traffic—and that

Furthermore, The Florida Annual conference of The United Methodist Church urge all family newspapers to follow the constructive example of the "San Francisco Examiner" in refusing to accept advertisements promoting public obscenity and commercialized pornography.

PART VI

REPORTS

BISHOP JAMES W. HENLEY

The church is called into being for the spiritual cultivation of those within its fellowship, to become the koinonia or the rejoicing, committed, proclaiming body of those who have discovered God in Christ Jesus. The source of its light and hope and love is found in the cross of Christ. Its way of life is delineated in the pattern and example of Jesus, his teachings, his serving ministry, his love to the death. Its unfaltering hope is founded upon the Easter message and the prospect of eternal life. Its standard of ethics—of right and wrong—both personally and in society—are to be found in the teachings of Jesus and in the exposition of those teachings throughout the New Testament. Life Styles (ways of life) which contradict the teaching or example of Christ or the revelation of his spirit through the scriptures are not to be entertained. There are those who seriously question the teachings of Jesus and of the epistles with regard to the sanctity of sex. There are those who are defying the teachings of the New Testament with regard to the sanctity of marriage and the home. There are those among us, who in a day when we are desperately searching for safety on the highway and when we discover that well over half the fatal accidents involve drunken driving, proclaim themselves to be Christians but through public example teach others to drink. Personal morality is never practiced in a vacuum. The Christian life becomes the salt of the earth for the saving of others. The unChristian life becomes a virus which destroys the high and the holy. A Gallup Poll or a Kinsey Report have no relationship to what is good or bad. Their revelations end with their statistics on how much licentiousness and drunkenness there is abroad. This has nothing whatever to do with what is Christian or what is not Christian. Likewise the social practices of society are under the judgement of Christ. Wherever there is injustice or discrimination or callousness or prejudice there is evil. As such it is under the judgement of God and should be under the condemnation of the church.

But let us beware, lest we abandon the indispensable qualities of personal experience, personal spiritual renewal, personal moral discipline to pursue the other tangent of social concerns. The Christian message to the world begins with the Christian rebirth of the individual. Yet the individual who is not deeply concerned socially is a spiritual dwarf.

METHODISM AND ITS PEOPLE

Some years ago, during the period when Methodist union was being deliberated, there came a small volume from the pen of Dr. Paul N. Garber of the Duke Divinity School entitled "The Methodists Are One People." Let us consider this title in a different context from that in which Dr. Garber was writing. British Methodism was in the beginning unified through the dynamic leadership of the Reverend John Wesley. He was the seal and symbol of the Methodist revival. He was the self-proclaimed head of all the societies. He was the author of all articles of discipline, of government, and of rituals of worship. The ministers were appointed to their several stations of service by Mr. Wesley. Still, within the framework of this fellowship there was great liberty and the growth of the English church (which for five decades was spectacular), was attributable to the spiritual dynamics which motivated the ministry and the laity. All England knew about the Methodists and among them there was a cohesiveness and a conscious union in experience and purpose.

This movement which was evangelical, committed to social reform, and closely knit through effective administration had an influence in the British Isles which far outstripped its numerical power or the prestige of its leadership.

Historically it is significant that the Methodist movement, arising through pentecostal experiences similar to those of the early Apostolic church, found itself almost immediately confronted with the necessity of having an institutional form sufficiently strong to knit together the circuits and congregations of the entire country. So from the beginning of the Wesleyan movement in England one can easily trace the rapid developments of the structure of the institution which was to become the body for its spirit.

The example of Mr. Wesley's administrative leadership in England became basic in the development of American Methodism. But here the vast expanse of this sprawling continent and the fabulous growth of its population and, indeed, of the Methodist Church, required a more complex structure of the institution on these shores was to preserve the character of connectionalism so conspicuous in Wesleyan Methodism in England. Here the General Conference with democratic representation from the ministerial and lay ranks of the annual conferences became the law making body of the church. Here, too, the broad programs of world missions, of Christian education, of social concerns, and many others looked to the General Conference for such legislation and national structure as were necessary to project the general plans of the church. Here the overall budget for the national church is adopted by the delegates from the several annual conferences. Next come the jurisdictional or regional conferences where such programs and institutions are established as are deemed necessary and desirable in the locale of the region and where bishops are elected to serve within the bounds of the regional jurisdiction.

The components of the jurisdiction are the annual conferences. And within the annual conferences are the local congregations. This connectionalism—this linkage of the entire church through a series of conferences—establishes the unity of Methodism. In a day when all institutions are under scrutiny let us be cautious lest we surrender vital elements in our historic relations. A minister of the United Methodist Church belongs to an annual conference—but his ministerial membership is within the entire church and he is equally a part with any other minister anywhere in the fellowship of its clergy.

According to Miami papers, 7600 employees, many of them highly trained in technical skills, were layed-off recently in Miami alone in the aviation industry; highly trained men with advanced academic degrees and proven ability are without jobs in the area of Cape Kennedy; in certain of the disciplines of university instruction qualified Ph.D. professors by the hundreds are seeking employment. The current surplus of college teachers continues to worsen according to figures released a few weeks ago by the Cooperative College Registry, a non-profit organization which assists college teachers and administrators in finding and filling jobs. The number of registrants seeking teaching jobs has increased 25% in one year while the number of vacancies declined 25%. In the field of chemistry 476 academically qualified candidates were confronted with a total of only 10 vacancies listed. In the field of religion 223 candidates with graduate degrees stood against 8 listed vacancies. In the field of education, science, and industry persons with splendid qualifications are becoming occupied in menial jobs because there are no openings for the employment of their skills.

Yet there is not one single active member of the Florida Conference who is qualified for appointment, who does not have his church. At the same time, there will be no empty pulpits in the United Methodist Church in Florida. This is made possible by the fact that we are a connectional church. Together we are able to accomplish what would never be possible if we were congregational in nature. Having lived as a minister under the appointive system for almost three times as long as I have served as the chairman of the conference cabinet, I am quite persuaded that most ministers have at some time an appointment which they would not have chosen and most churches have at some time a minister whom they would not have preferred, yet I firmly believe the cabinet system of appointments made by one's peers who can have no personal rewards except through commitment to impartial service, is the most satisfactory structure in Protestantism.

The number of young men preparing for the United Methodist ministry has been increasing steadily for several years. The consolidation of churches into a larger parish system is steadily reducing the number of ministers required. Still, at least for the present, every qualified man has his appointment and receives the salary agreed upon by his church. Alas, perhaps there are some of us who, in a congregational system, where we were not guaranteed an appointment, would be lone and lost, seeking a job without a call or an invitation. It is not yet clear how or how soon a surplus of ministers will make necessary the establishment of greater selectivity of those received and the elimination of the less effective.

Just as a United Methodist minister in Florida is equally recognized throughout the church, being a lay member of a connectional church means, as I like to recall, that a lay person belonging to our smallest church in Florida is just as much a United Methodist whether he is in his own congregation on a Sunday morning or he worships in the First United Methodist Church of Seattle, Washington, or Portland, Maine, or Los Angeles, California.

We are in a period when our priorities do need to be examined periodically and when our structure needs to be revised from time to time more effectively to meet the needs of changing times, but let us beware lest we deal carelessly or iconoclastically with institutions which have proved their worth and which need seriously to be evaluated before being mutilated.

MISSIONS

I am confident that if we will allow ourselves to be God's instruments He will use us and our dollars to build His kingdom in a way that outruns our largest dreams. It is possible to fulfill the Great Commission because it is from God and because the risen Christ is with those who seek to obey it.

The first benevolent responsibility of United Methodists is World Service and Conference Benevolences. This is the very life-blood of Methodism. All of her boards and agencies depend upon it for their continued operation, and much of the program which enables us to be the "body of Christ" in the world is dependent upon World Service gifts. In a vital way this "First Mile" giving offers the local parish an arm which can be extended into all areas of Christian concern.

As Florida United Methodists we feel called to continue enthusiastically "Second Mile" giving through the ADVANCE FOR CHRIST AND HIS CHURCH. The ADVANCE has become for us a primary way in which to express our compassion and concern. Through Advance Special gifts churches, groups and individuals may enter into a more personalized relationship with missionaries, nationals and specific mission programs. Through these gifts we are able to establish partnerships in mission at home and around the world.

A priority for World Advance support is the salaries and needs of the missionary couples who have a special relationship to Florida. However, any United Methodist missionary deserves and will appreciate your support.

Among National Advance Specials our first priority is our Florida Spanish Ministry. $45,000 is needed each year to maintain the effective program now being offered to Spanish speaking people in our state. In addition we have a great concern for the pastors of our churches in Puerto Rico. Support for them is most urgently needed.

Through your support of the United Methodist Commission for Overseas Relief you participate in a very real way in meeting crisis needs among people around the world. Extending this hand of mercy is a most Christ-like ministry.

In addition, there are many needs within the borders of our Conference that deserve your generous support. In many of these we are able to invest time and talent as well as dollars. All these programs need to be undergirded by our prayers.

OUR MINISTRY IN THE SMALL CHURCH

We have some 350 churches in the Conference with less than 250 members. Nearly 200 of these have less than 100 members. Most of these churches were established in horse and buggy days. The grammar schools serving their children have been consolidated. The roads are good now and children can be transported over greater distances to be educated in better schools than the one room school house. This fact is for the churches, too. The roads on which our church people travel to these smaller churches are now excellent. Most everyone has some means of transportation better than the horse and buggy. The cabinet has been striving over a period of four or five years to get many of these churches together for the purpose of serving the membership better and of having a greater impact in the name of Christ on the country round about.

It is difficult to unite these churches under the Discipline without the cooperation of the people involved. Yet a minister who has one, two or three churches often does not have a full work load. There just aren't enough people (church members or otherwise) for him to serve. I am taking this opportunity to plead with the delegates from our small churches to give their support and encouragement to the members of their congregations in cooperating with the District Superintendents in bringing about these unions of historic church families into larger, more compact, more effective congregations. You ministers and lay people can help in this. If it is not done the Conference will be forced, sooner or later, to take such financial measures as will necessitate that which we should do voluntarily and cooperatively.

A number of mergers of small churches have been affected and without exception they are proving a blessing to everyone involved. The minister is able to serve his people more effectively. The congregation is sufficiently large to create a sense of confidence and security. Church property has been greatly improved in every case. This is the thing that should be done in many, many instances.

A WORD OF APPRECIATION

In many of our communities we have been able to launch new congregations because of the cooperation of school boards in either granting the church temporary use of limited school facilities on Sunday morning or through rentals of these facilities at very nominal sums. Several of our congregations have realized our indebtedness and have sought to reciprocate somewhat in making available, at least on a temporary basis, the use of certain church school educational facilities for the use of the public schools. I wish simply to take note of this commendable inter-relationship which I believe to be most salutary and appropriate. There are doubtless other situations throughout the conference where the churches can, at least make temporary arrangements for meeting the crisis in public school facilities.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

Some of us have been deeply concerned for five years now because of a gradual decline in Sunday School attendance (9:30 Sunday morning) which has become accepted as almost inevitable. At first it was attributed to changing life patterns in society—longer weekends, greater secular concerns, the lure of the mountains and the beaches, etc. Some attributed it to outdated church school curricula with literature that was not commensurate with the quality of materials to which children were accustomed in their public schools. But we changed literature and we had an outcry from teachers that it was either beyond their competency or inappropriate for the needs of youth and adults. The sober fact remains that Sunday school attendance continued to decline and the people involved in the total church school program was decreasing as well.

I have personally entertained the conviction that the primary reason for our disappointing statistics with regard to the Sunday school lies in the fact that neither ministers nor Sunday School leaders were making deliberate, sustained, and systematic efforts to reach children, boys and girls, youth and adults for this indispensable area of our program of Christian education.

Early in December I invited 5 District Superintendents serving the territory in or near Lakeland—(Orlando, Lakeland, St. Petersburg, Sarasota, and Tampa). I suggested that they talk with twelve of their ministers in each district, three in churches ranging up to 249 members; three in churches from 250 to 499; three in churches from 500 to 999; three from churches of 1000 upward. The ministers of these churches were to be asked if they would like to cooperate in an effort to see what could be done in reaching the people and enlisting them in their respective Sunday schools. Four or five persons came with their respective ministers from these five districts to Lakeland in two successive months. We explained that we had no formula to give them. There was no conference pattern according to which they would undertake their task. We shared together in our four groups bracketed according to the size of churches, pooling our ideas as to what could be done in our own communities. We were not attempting to do the same thing across the board. We were all seeking for such illumination as would make it possible to do our best in our local situation.

We took inventory on our gains and losses in January, February, March, and April. Our total net gain in the 58 churches for the four months was 1970—not spectacular but significant. It can be done.

Dr. William Osler spoke with profound wisdom when in addressing a class of graduating medical students he said, "young gentlemen, the first requisite in the care of the patient is to care."

CONFERENCE PROGRAM DIRECTOR

This conference should not go by without expressing its appreciation to Dr. John J. Rooks for the leadership he gave in the establishment of the Conference Council. The Florida Conference was in the vanguard of this structure development and preceded the action of the General Conference establishing the Conference Council as an official instrument of the boards and agencies of the conference in the implementation of the conference program. There were many rough places to be made smooth and many dark places which needed light. The entire church seems to have the conviction that the General Conference was well advised in the authorizing of the Conference Council structure. It was new. It had to be explained. It had to be molded and formed to the needs of each annual conference and we are still in the process. It was Dr. Rooks that began with us and has continued with us until this date as our Conference Program Director. I have presented the name of Dr. Melton Ware as a successor to Dr. Rooks who has requested to be returned to the ministry of the local pastorate. The Cabinet and the Conference have given their approval. An additional person will not be added to the staff to fill the numerical vacancy incurred through Dr. Rooks' new appointment.

THE LAITY

Methodism has been made great by the Holy Spirit working through its laity—these unordained and unappointed ambassadors of Christ who, like the first century Christians became witnesses of a new experience. They have been the supporters of the church in its fiscal needs because they love the church and because they believed its message. But the strength of their contribution to the church has been far greater than that of financial support. When Paul was taking up his offering for the poor saints at Jerusalem he told the Corinthians that the most generous Christians he knew were the Macedonians. They gave more than he expected and he was overwhelmed with their generosity. Then he adds this significant word: "First they gave themselves to the Lord" (II Corinthians 8:5).

Do we have things in the right order? Are we giving some money and a little time in the hope that this will restore the lost radiance of our lives? The correct order is always the same: First, we give ourselves; and then comes the power, the joy, the victory.

We in Florida owe a debt that transcends our awareness to the laymen and the lay women and, may I say, the youth, who across the years in an unbroken line of splendor have become known far and wide for their dedication of mind and heart to the fulfillment of the will of Christ. We in Florida have reason to rejoice in the quality of character, mind and heart of the laity of our church. So many have set noble examples of Christian discipline in all of life as to inspire their brethren of other communions and the ministry of the church which they have supported, with their great loyalty.

The Lay Retreats at Leesburg continue their fabulous records of attendance. They send back to the local churches some two thousand newly inspired men anxious to become involved in the enrichment of the spiritual life and ministry of their home congregation. This does not happen without consecrated leadership, arduous planning and earnest preparation. Our hope is that these laymen will also relate themselves to movements in their several communities seeking to interpret the gospel through better human relations and social concerns.

WOMEN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE

Hail to the ladies of the Women's Society of Christian Service! They do not need our adulation. However, we would be remiss if we did not pay tribute to the outstanding work of the Women's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild. These ladies are constantly in search of the significance of our Christian faith in a world of disorder. They are not only studying the causes of our dilemmas, they are seeking for Christian answers. I was greatly stirred by the tremendous representation of our local societies at the annual meeting in Daytona Beach and was deeply grateful for the privilege of having a small part in the program there. Blessings on you, Mrs. Allen Watson and Miss Mozelle Silas and all those who labor with you.

YOUTH WORK

Our youth in the United Methodist Church in Florida represent for us a renewed hope for life and growth, for depth and breadth within our church and state. Their dreams of a humane and more inclusive society can give energy to the church, can open her eyes to new vistas of opportunities and cause her to reflect more deeply and earnestly on her purpose for being Christ's church.

Our Florida youth have participated in a variety of program opportunities this year ranging from the informal group meetings to weekends in the study of the role of sex in Christian living and seminars on peace and world order. Our four Bishop's Convocations provided opportunities to experience the oneness which our connectional church provides us all as we come from small and large congregations located in the open country, in towns and urban centers.

I wish to express gratitude to the Council on Youth Ministries. These young people have been faithful and committed to their tasks in their desire to interpret the Youth Service Fund to young people and adults in the local church. They have published a 32-page primer on the Youth Service Fund entitled "Everything You Have Ever Wanted to Know About the Youth Service Fund." This material has been broadly accepted throughout the church. They have adopted several projects such as town and country work, camp, scholarships, and legislative affairs. The young people have published Doorways, a monthly newspaper, in order to realize their desire to communicate with youth in the local church and to keep our Conference informed concerning the opportunities open to young people.

It is my continuing hope that local churches will give additional opportunities for youth representation on policy making boards and agencies in the local congregation. Our young people are the church of today as well as tomorrow. They are a part of its life and should be a part of its planning and decision making in determining its goals and achievements.

MINISTRY TO CHILDREN

Our ministry to children is receiving increased attention year by year. Churches and communities are focusing their concern and study upon the little folk. Children's camping will be offered this summer for the first time as a United Methodist Conference program. Your church should be represented. The Convocation on Confirmation Classes has proved successful in reaching children and in giving them a feeling of the broader nature and ministry of the church. Approximately 900 boys and girls and adults shared a day with me this past February. What is most important about this event, I think, is that it is their day—a chance to learn about their church and to express their feelings. I wish to say a word of gratitude to the members of the Conference Staff, to district workers and pastors, church school teachers and parents who made the Children's Convocation so satisfactory an experience.

THE MIGRANT WORKER

The plight of the migrant worker in Florida has been brought to the attention of the nation. The TV, national periodicals, the public press all have a recurrent note of concern for the people in this area of our society throughout the country. This statement is not designed to lay the blame on any particular person or group of persons nor have I had the opportunity of broadly studying the prevailing conditions. The fact seems to be well established that boys and girls growing up under the circumstances existing among our migrant people have little promise of education, self-development or future accomplishment. Where does hope lie? In the federal government? in the state government? in the counties? in the hands of the growers and farmers? I do not have the answer, but I do know that the church must not be unconcerned about God's people wherever they are and under whatever circumstances they live. Such concern need not be a threat to anyone and it should be a source of hope to many. I trust that sensitive individuals, including farming people and citrus people, will band together in Christian concern and discover such answers as will bring reassurance and encouragement and hope. We have certain ministers working in this area at present. They are diligent and we thank God for the rich contributions they are making. We must not be unaware of the spiritual needs of people as well as their needs for sustenance, for educational opportunities, and for healthful surroundings. This is a great state and within it are great churches and throughout its borders are hosts of Christians. We are summoned to bestir ourselves on behalf of every man and woman who finds himself circumstantially repressed, discouraged, lonely or impoverished.

VIETNAM

We commend the President for his efforts to terminate the war and for the number of men who have already been withdrawn. We deplore the irresponsibility of some demonstrators who have sought to jam the machinery of the entire government in the expression of their indignation. Let us urge that all our forces be withdrawn at the earliest possible moment that will, at the same time, guarantee the safety and liberation of prisoners of war and the security of our men under arms during the war's termination. I, personally, fervently trust that this can be effected within the present calendar year. The tragedy of the conflict is not in the death of American youth alone, but also in the destruction of an ancient culture and the annihilation of multiplied thousands of people who really know nothing of the issues involved.

HOW THE BISHOPS ARE APPOINTED AND ASSIGNED

The Jurisdictional Conference has a standing Committee on Episcopacy consisting of one ministerial and one lay delegate elected from each annual conference by the annual conference delegation. Obviously, by this formula some areas have more representatives on the Committee on Episcopacy than others. The Atlanta Area, the Jackson (Mississippi) Area, the Birmingham Area, the Nashville Area, the Louisville Area and the South Carolina Area all consist of two or more annual conferences which give them a lay and a ministerial member on the Committee from each of their annual conferences while the Florida Area, the Holston Area, the Raleigh Area, the Charlotte Area and the Richmond Area have only one annual conference and consequently have only one lay and one clerical member on the Committee.

The Committee on Episcopacy assigns the bishops to their respective residences (that is, it recommends the assignment to the Jurisdictional Conference) but no newly elected bishop can be assigned to the Area from which he was elected during his first quadrennium.

When do the bishops know where they are going? I learned on Saturday night about 10:30 at the close of the session when the Committee on Episcopacy came into the Jurisdictional Conference and recommended the assignment. I considered myself the most fortunate bishop among them, but I'm sure I was as surprised as any member of the Florida delegation.

THE FEASIBILITY STUDY FOR HIGHER EDUCATION

On the recommendation of the Conference Council the Annual Conference of 1970 approved a feasibility study which would entail gatherings of Methodist leaders in every district of the conference for the discussion of the advisability of a campaign for Florida Southern College and Bethune-Cookman College. Marts and Lundy, a firm with a nation-wide reputation in fund raising, was employed to make the study. I was grateful for the response of the ministers and the laity, for their candid reactions to the questionnaires, and for the forthright presentation by the representatives of Marts and Lundy, Mr. Carlson and Mr. Dan Collins. We have two United Methodist Colleges in Florida of which we should be unapologetically proud. While Florida Southern College is owned by the Florida Conference, Bethune-Cookman College is owned by the General Board of Education of the United Methodist Church. Studies are being made now with the hope that our twelve Negro colleges, all located in the southeast, may be supported responsibly by the church at large so that the burden of adequately undergirding them will not fall upon the annual conference in which they are located. I commend to you the findings of the feasibility study as they shall be presented in these conference sessions.

A DAY AT BETHUNE-COOKMAN

I am extending an invitation to all ministers serving the churches historically related to the Florida Conference of the former Central Jurisdiction and to all members of these congregations, the cabinet, the president and vice-president of the Women's Society of Christian Service, the president and vice-president of the Board of Laity, the officers of the Boards of Pensions, Missions, Evangelism, the Youth Coordinator and representatives of the Council on Youth Ministries, the chairman and treasurer of the Commission on World Service and Finance, and the wives and husbands of those in attendance. It will be our privilege to see the new buildings at Bethune-Cookman, to worship together and to hear presented some important aspects of the life of our church.

I wish to express appreciation to all the ministers and lay people who have so heartily cooperated in the enrichment of our common fellowship since the merger of our conferences. Merger must be more than the bringing together of two conferences. It must be a merger of districts, communion between congregations, fellowship at assemblies, retreats, etc. We are one people. We will never be truly one unless we all strive so to become and unless we place ourselves in those associations where we truly know each other and thus come to appreciate and to love each other to the fullest. This requires purposeful, intelligent, devoted cultivation and fellowship in Christ.

It is my hope that all ministers and members of the black United Methodist communities and other interested friends will plan to be present at Bethune-Cookman College in Daytona Beach, on Saturday, June 12. Our session will begin promptly at ten o'clock in the morning and will conclude promptly at three o'clock in the afternoon. This is to be a day of fellowship. It is not a day of conference business or legislation. We expect to have a fine representation and a delightful occasion.

CONCLUSION

Well, this has been a long treatise on many subjects. But there are many others which I omit with tremendous regret. I would like to point once more to the absolute importance of the improvement of our facilities at the youth camp at Leesburg. We have a magnificent site and the rudiments of one of the finest church camps in the nation. I am eagerly awaiting the time when the Conference will devise plans to make it all that it needs to be.

I would liked to have included commendation of the United Methodist Foundation. It has been an invaluable instrument in the fiscal affairs of this Conference and we remain deeply indebted to Dr. Robert C. Holmes and his Board of Directors for the leadership they have given.

I would liked to have emphasized again the importance of yoked churches—or instances where two or more churches plan their lives and programs together and seek to be of mutual assistance. This is of inescapable importance and the situations where it is being done commend it.

I would liked to have been able to tell you how the bishops are elected at the jurisdictional conferences, where the five jurisdictional conferences will meet, etc. But time has run out. I leave the thoughts of this message with you for your consideration. I assure you that my heart, my prayers, and my devotion are now and will forever be in the work of United Methodism and most especially, in the Florida Conference.

BOARD OF MINISTRY

REPORT NO. 1

Your Board of the Ministry has tried to fulfill its twofold mission: (1) Guiding men through the Disciplinary requirements, step by step, for the ministry within the Florida Annual Conference; and (2) lending a brotherly hand to all fellow ministers in an ever deepening fellowship. This has been done through its Committees on Recruitment and Nurture, Pastor's School and Continuing Education, Conference Relations, Ministerial Education Fund, etc. Individual members continue to spend many hours in Counseling. Campus visitations have kept us in touch with our Florida men who are away in school.

Contact has been made with all other Boards of Ministry within the Southeastern Jurisdiction in regards to reciprocal agreements for loans from the Ministerial Education Fund. Some common approach to this problem will be found.

We rejoice in the increased participation of churches in accepting and paying the 2% apportionment for ministerial Education. Needs still greatly exceed funds. It is hoped that each one will read carefully the following accounting of these funds.

FLORIDA CONFERENCE CREDIT UNION

The real purpose of a credit union is to provide its members with a safe place to save their money, to earn dividends on their savings, and to provide them with loans when needed at the lowest cost possible.

What is the value of the credit union to you? You, who are ministers, elected lay members of annual and district conferences and institutional boards and employees of United Methodist Churches and Institutions, and members of their immediate families in the Florida United Methodist Credit Union.

Probably foremost in the list of values is the knowledge that you can help a brother obtain a loan and financial counsel when it is desired. We are our brother's keeper.

A 5% dividend currently is paid on share deposits. Up to $500 loan on signature only, which may be just what you need to save cashing investments prior to dividend payments or to give you rather immediate cash at a very convenient time.

Insurance on share deposits up to $2,000 at no additional cost when eligible. Brochures are available with exact details on both share deposits and loan protection insurance.

Loan protection insurance on any money may borrow against at no additional cost when eligible.

We can save you money on nearly any occasion you may desire to borrow.

The Credit Union needs to become self-supporting and will need a thousand members and $250,000 in share deposits. We should be able to do this in two or three more years.

A Joint Account—When a person has a single account, it doubles the share deposit insurance on the first names.

Multiple Memberships—A separate account for 1) you 2) your wife 3) a child or children still in school. Probate laws and interpretations by different judges sometimes ties up bank accounts if something untoward should happen to you. To be absolutely safe, an account in your mate's name in a bank, savings and loan or preferably in a credit union, gives them immediate money to tide them over until the release of other funds. I know the proper wording on joint accounts should avoid any delay but I have had experience enough to know that widows have suffered unnecessarily.

Members may withdraw their money at any time.

Someone will be at the credit union table at Annual Conference to give you all the attention possible and to answer any questions you may have and, of course, to accept memberships and share deposits.

1971 ANNUAL REPORT FLORIDA CONFERENCE UNITED METHODIST CREDIT UNION

Your Conference Credit Union is now approximately a year and a half old. We have had good growth in the number of members, and share deposits, as well as the number of loans we have been able to service.

Last year we were able to pay a 5% dividend, and we have every indication that we can again pay 5% this year.

Perhaps a few comparisons will show you the growth the Credit Union has had. Last year at this time we had made 20 loans; as of this date, we have made 110—a four and half-fold increase. Last year at this time we had loaned $12,618; this year we have loaned $66,484—more than a five-fold increase. Last year we had 196 members, but as of this moment there are just a few members short of the 400 mark—a doubling of our membership. The share deposits in the Florida Conference United Methodist Credit Union last year at this time were a little over $13,000. Now there are over 71,000 in share deposits. This is a growth of almost four and a half-fold in one year.

We look forward to a continued growth next year; and it is our hope that when we report to you at the Annual Conference next year, we can report that the goal we have set amongst ourselves for $200,000 in share deposits has been reached. At that time, we believe we can be completely self-sustaining and pay a 5% dividend.

We anticipate a measurable increase in loan applications for the next few weeks, and it is our hope that as a result of this Conference, and our lifting this before you, that we can have an increase in our share accounts to compensate for these immediate needs. We need our Conference members—both laymen and ministers—to support the Credit Union, as an investment for themselves and to provide a service for others.

We are grateful for the cooperation we have had from the Program Council and the Conference Treasurer's Office.

I close by saying that of the funds on hand at the Florida Conference United Methodist Credit Union at this date, we are over 93% loaned to our members; and all funds are either loaned to members, or invested in dividend-paying accounts.

Please visit us at our booth in the Book Store. We welcome the opportunity to serve you.

FLORIDA CONFERENCE BROTHERHOOD

The Florida Conference Brotherhood has again, as in the years past, sent help to several families of our deceased brothers in the ministry. Upon notice of the death of one of our members, a check of $1,000.00 is promptly sent to the beneficiary who is named by the deceased. The widow or the family has often expressed their thanks for this quick response to their need.

Membership is open to all ministers of the conference under 45 years of age. Those eligible are members in full connection, full time lay-pastors, conference evangelists, members serving as missionaries in foreign conferences, and new members on probation. Those on probation are given special consideration while at school or otherwise during their first four years on probation.

To join, one pays One Dollar membership fee plus One Dollar annual dues. Upon the death of a member, the membership is assessed $3.00 per call, and the probationary member is assessed $1.00 per call. Before this is even collected, a check of $1,000 is sent to the widow or the beneficiary.

Members of the conference who are over 45 years, may join by paying the initial fee and the annual dues plus the assessments for the years from their 45th birthday to the present time of their application. This amount may be pro-rated over four years.

You may write to our Secretary-Treasurer, Rev. George H. Carlton at 1706 Carr Street, Palatka, Florida 32077 for an application or further information regarding the Brotherhood. However, anyone may attend our Brotherhood Breakfast in the Cafeteria during Annual Conference. This will be at 7:15 A.M. Friday morning, this year.

The Florida Conference Brotherhood
Palatka, Florida

Gentlemen:

We have examined the statement of cash receipts and disbursements of the Florida Conference Brotherhood for the year ended March 31, 1971. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the accompanying statement of cash receipts and disbursements, including the footnote, presents fairly the cash transactions of the Florida Conference Brotherhood for the year ended March 31, 1971, on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Respectfully submitted,
MOORE, COBB, CLOUD & CRIPPEN

CONFERENCE PROGRAM COMMITTEE

The Annual Conference Program Committee is grateful to the many persons who have been involved in the year long process of preparing for this Conference, and for all of you whose suggestions have helped refine and polish the format for our procedure. We request that you make notes as the Conference moves along and write your helpful suggestions to the chairman by the first of October.

The time of the Conference itself has been extended this year to allow for the balloting for delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conference in addition to other conference business.

Tuesday calls for the organization of the Conference, an executive session for the ministry and an orientation session for lay members. The rest of the day will be given to all matters pertaining to the ministry, including ordination.

Wednesday morning we will review the work of the Church in Florida for the past year, including some representative ministries which are now being performed across the state. Wednesday afternoon is reserved for an in-pur of all program and project proposals, including costs, to come before the Conference, including proposals and amendments from the floor. By Wednesday evening, all such proposals to come before the Conference should be before the house for overnight contemplation and reflection.

Beginning Thursday morning each item will be presented for debate and action. Important reports from Conference Boards and committees will be heard on successive days. World Service and Finance will present the Conference budget, as revised by Conference action, on Friday afternoon.

It should be noted that the worship and devotional life of our Church is emphasized in the opening service of Holy Communion, the ordination service, devotions each morning, the reserving of each evening as a service of preaching and music, and at other moments of spontaneous response throughout the Conference.

Many boards, committees, and individuals request time on the Annual Conference Program. Reports to the Annual Conference often include resolutions, and they are passed in the Committee reports. We are happy to receive these resolutions as requests. Such requests are not binding upon the Program Committee who has the responsibility for the whole.

All sessions of the Annual Conference, devotional or otherwise, are the business sessions of the Annual Conference, and may be called upon by the presiding officer to transact business items, receive reports, or ballot for delegates. We, therefore, urge all members to be present at all sessions of the Conference.

To preserve the schedule and maintain the order of the Conference, we suggest that delegates be seated in time for the morning devotions or wait outside until they are completed; that speakers conform to the time limitations, and that written reports be referred to in the Program Book while bringing recommendations for action to the attention of the Conference.

Your Program Committee recommends that the printed program become the program for this session of the Annual Conference, with such alterations as may become necessary in the opinion of the Presiding Officer, the Conference Secretary, and the Chairman of this Committee.

We call attention to the Standing Rules, Section I, Paragraph I, and all the sub-paragraphs thereunder, Page 282, 1970 Journal, for the procedure to be observed to expedite the business of the Conference.

RALPH B. HUSTON, Chairman

CONFERENCE PROGRAM COUNCIL

The Conference Program Council met on June 5, immediately following Annual Conference, and established its agenda of work for the year as follows:

1. Committee on Planning and Research recommend 1972 priorities and goals to Council Fall meeting, Leesburg, October 9.

2. Staff disseminate information of these goals and priorities to Conference Boards and Agencies asking that October 10-February 19 be period for preparing program recommendations to meet these goals and priorities. —Deadline for receiving program recommendations from all sources February 10, 1971.
3. February 11-17—The staff prepare all the recommendations for study, consideration and coordination by the Coordinating Committee.
4. February 17-18—Two day meeting of the Council Coordinating Committee with aid of staff for purpose of preparing a proposed 1972 Conference program from all recommendations.
5. March 1—Staff mail copy of Coordinating Committee's recommendations for 1972 program to each member of the Program Council.
6. March 1—Staff mail to each member of World Service Committee the Coordinating Committee's proposed program with financial estimation of its cost—also registering opinion as to the feasibility of the funding of the program.
7. March 18-19—Meeting of the Council to approve recommended 1972 program to Annual Conference.
8. April 20—Mail recommended 1972 program to lay and clerical members of 1971 Annual Conference.
9. April 26-May 7—District meetings of the members of 1971 Annual Conference to study proposed 1972 program and other recommendations.
10. May 11—Executive Committee meeting to consider changes and unforeseen matters which are inevitable.

Also, in this meeting, changes were made in the Committee on Planning and Research, such as adding new personnel to the Committee and electing a new Chairman, the Reverend Rudolph McKinley. This Committee started its work in the summer with a lengthy consultation with Dr. Virgil Sexton, of the General Program Council staff, helping to establish the function of the Committee as a data-gathering agency for the Conference, so that the need of the state of Florida could be determined when our ministry is planned within the Florida Conference.

It was the goal of the Program Council to have its 1972 Priorities for Ministries within the state prepared so that they could be distributed to the Boards and Agencies of the Conference. Dr. Sexton's guidance revealed to us that we were too late for this. To determine Priorities without full supporting data was just impossible! The Council, in its fall meeting, did not attempt to establish any 1972 Priorities, but advised the Boards and Agencies to prepare 1972 Program Recommendations in the best manner possible. It was felt that the Priorities and purpose for the year 1973 would be the earliest we could possibly arrange for, and this was scheduled for the 1971 spring meeting of the Program Council.

The Program Council Staff has endeavored to serve when invited by District and Local Churches for a variety of enterprises relating to the local church program, to the administrative process, leadership development, and resource materials. An impressive list of these engagements is available in The United Methodist Building to anyone interested.

In relationship to its staff the Council has developed studies and guidelines for enabling each member to know his or her responsibilities and enjoy equitable treatment in his working relationships and compensation. This work has been done principally through two committees—(1) Staff and Personnel and (2) Finance. Through the studies of the first Committee, proposed job descriptions are being designed in consultation with each person involved. The Finance Committee has diligently provided salary scales on an equitable basis in consultation with Committee on Staff and Personnel.

The Council, through its Committee on Publishing Interests, worked diligently with the plans used by The Methodist Publishing House in conducting the TOGETHER MAGAZINE Campaign in October. The District Secretaries of publications were of great help.

Full attention by the staff has been given to working with the Cabinet and the Boards and Agencies in carrying out the programs authorized by Annual Conference. Supervision of this work has been given by the Executive Committee in its two meetings held September and December. The Budget, and disbursement of same, for 1970 is listed at the conclusion of this report. Note should be made of the fact that the Program Council has operated substantially below its budget.

Our Service Department has served in printing and mailings whenever called upon. The total gross income from this service has amounted to $657.00 during the seven months period.

The Council has improved its use of the Annex, Chapel, Assembly Room, and Conference Rooms this year. Over 320 paid guests have used the Annex for overnight accommodations. Over 110 meetings have been held in The United Methodist Building, with over 2,000 persons attending.

Our Committee on Interpretation has regularly met and has been faithful in designing materials for promoting Conference Benevolences and World Service, as well as the Advance. A very impressive booklet distributed in all parts of our Conference entitled "Many Beginnings But No Endings" is the main example.

The editorial functions of the staff have kept up not only with COM/line, published monthly from September through December, FLORIDA UNITED METHODIST, but designed, printed and distributed several significant booklets, among which were "Handbook for the Ministers" and "Our Church In Our Town, The Council on Ministries and the Annual Conference," which gave the Conference Approved Program to the local churches for their use in designing program at the local level.

THE COUNCIL ON YOUTH MINISTRIES

The youth members of the 1970-71 Florida Conference Council on Youth Ministry were elected at Officer's Assembly at Leesburg during the summer of 1970. These 12 youth, along with 12 adults from conference boards and agencies formed the council which carried on conference programs in youth ministry throughout the year. The council met four times during the year, in Lakeland (2), Brandon and New Smyrna Beach.

1. In an effort to reach more youth of the church with information concerning the programs for youth, the council began publishing a newspaper, Doorways, in September. This monthly paper covered all the programs instituted by the Council on Youth Ministry, as well as news of local church youth ministry from the conference. The Legislative Affairs page of the paper dealt with issues and concerns of extreme importance today. It also kept youth from all parts of the conference in touch with the National Legislative Affairs project. The paper also kept an up-to-date report of the giving to the Youth Service Fund, along with ideas for local churches to use in promoting the fund. Coverage was also given to the National United Methodist Council on Youth Ministry in its work with annual conferences.

2. a. An Informal Group Training weekend was held in November in Leesburg under the direction of the council. This program gave local church youth and adults a better insight into the informal group setting for ministry with youth.

b. Four Bishop's Convocations were held in November in Lake City, Orlando, Sarasota, and Hollywood. Bishop Henley met with youth from across the conference at these Convocations in a time of sharing and exchanging of ideas and feelings. Ken Jones of Atlanta and Rogers Fair of Bethune-Cookman College were featured speakers at the convocations.

c. The annual United Nations-Washington Seminar was held January 29 through February 6 in New York and Washington. Thirty-seven youth and seven adults made the trip which included study sessions at the UN and governmental agencies in Washington, along with sightseeing and worshipping in different atmospheres.

d. Two Sex in Christian Living weekends were held in Leesburg in February and over 500 youth from the conference attended with adults from local churches to study the meaning of sexuality for a Christian in today's world.

e. The Christianity and the Arts Seminar, an addition to the program this year, enabled 30 youth, young adults and adults to study the arts, (music, art, dance and theatre) in New York City for a week and related them to Christianity.

3. Since the General Conference of the Church granted control of the Youth Service Fund to the United Methodist Council on Youth Ministry in April of 1970, one of the emphasis for the year was the promotion and expansion of the Youth Service Fund. A comprehensive booklet, "All You Ever Wanted To Know About Youth Service Fund But Couldn't Find Out!" was produced by members of the council and other concerned youth in January. The booklet went to every local church and has been included in national promotion material for the fund.

4. The Council on Youth Ministry adopted the theme "A Time for Risk" for the camping program for the summer of 1971. Five areas of study were also adopted by the council upon the evaluation of campers from the summer of 1970. The areas, Black and White America, The Meaning of Death, Vocations, Sex, and the Church, will be topics for informal groups during the camping program.

5. Members of the Council attended the Southeastern Jurisdictional Youth Caucus held in Atlanta in April, at which time workshops on youth ministry were held in conjunction with the election of two youth members to the National Council on Youth Ministry.

6. Because the council found it quite frustrating to use a large majority of its time for program implementation rather than work with local and district church groups, a new structure for the coming year has been proposed. This new structure calls for 24 youth, two from each district, to be elected by district youth at rallies or meetings before the Youth Ministry Assembly in July. At least six of the 24 youth are to be from minority groups, with one minority person coming from each of the following districts: West Palm Beach, Miami, Tampa, Gainesville, Jacksonville, and Deland. The Council felt a strong need in insuring the right of minority representation on the council. The 12 District Coordinators of Youth Ministry are to be included on the new council, along with the Conference Coordinator of Youth Ministry, the Conference Director of Camps, one representative of the Board of Laity, one representative from the WSCS, and two "at large" adults to be elected by the new council. These 42 people would meet twice a year to coordinate any conference programs, and work on district programs. The teams of three people, two youth and one adult, from each of the districts would be in charge of one specific area, with the program of administration. The President of the Council will be elected by the participants of the Youth Ministry Assembly during the summer from the district's previously elected youth members of the council.

3. Greater Emphasis in Districts. (A) It is recommended that each district in the Florida Conference consider at least three experiences during the year which will help meet their needs in the area of youth ministry. (B) That district workshops in Administrative Setting be held so that by December, 1972 one adult and two youth from every local church will have participated.

Other experiences on the district emphasis may consist of: lab school, role of sex, informal group training, purpose of church and priority issues, forms of worship and encounter groups.

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL CONCERNS

REPORT NO. 1

The Board of Christian Social Concerns held its annual meeting February 12 and 13, 1971, at The United Methodist Building in Lakeland. This Board has been very busy during the past year in the program and work of Christian Social Concerns. The membership of the Board has demonstrated responsible and constructive leadership, energy and enthusiasm.

1. We continue to sponsor, support and promote the Community Service Volunteer Program which is under the sponsorship of the Florida Parole and Probation Commission. Any qualified citizens may become a volunteer probation officer. In many areas of Florida, the probation officers are supervising double the caseload expected of them because of limited funds and limited personnel. Many justifiable cases are being denied probation because of the lack of supervisory care. This program does not cost any money. It is an opportunity for individuals of every United Methodist Church across the conference to assist in the rehabilitation of people who have stumbled into trouble. It is also a Christian opportunity to be concerned with a person in need of a friend.

2. This Board strongly supports the Conference School of Christian Mission. We have contributed personnel and substantial time and effort in the work of the school and feel that it has tremendous potential for good and for spiritual growth in the Florida Conference. Its purpose is: "to provide an opportunity for study and training in the mission of the church with particular emphasis on the current mission study themes and spiritual enrichment as they relate to the task of the several program areas in the local church both separately and as a whole." 916 individuals attended the school in 1970, and it is anticipated a greater number will be in attendance in the weekend and week session which commences July 9 and concludes on the 16th, 1971 at Florida Southern College. Along with Mrs. George Carlton, I am honored to be one of the deans for the 1971 School. I served in the same capacity with Mrs. John Wilson for the 1970 School. You can see I have good reason to be sold on the school. If you will attend one of its sessions, I am sure you will feel the same. We strongly urge every church to send one or more of its members to the school.
3. This Board has established a film library on Alcohol and Drug Abuse at the United Methodist Headquarters in Lakeland. These filmstrips and films can be used at no rental cost but a service charge of $1 per film will be assessed. They are available to local churches, church schools, and local church groups. Users are responsible for the proper care and safety and must return the films at the designated time.
4. We are enlarging the scope of the work against Alcohol and Drug Abuse in the Orlando Project. We have experts in this program who are experimenting and testing to find new techniques and more effective ways to combat the evils which beset humanity.
5. Many of the recommendations adopted by the 1970 Annual Conference were directed as guidelines for local churches such as: Study-Action groups in local churches, praying for peace, and the observance of World Order Sunday, United Nations Week, etc. There was extensive involvement in these areas by individuals and local churches across the conference.
6. The Board has the personnel and resource material to sponsor alcohol and drug seminars in the districts in cooperation with the District Superintendents, district officers, and the local churches, as time and circumstance will permit. The desire and motivation for such a program must generate from a local sponsoring group.
7. The services of the Board are available to assist in seminars and workshops on reconciliation. We strongly urge that every church make a survey, become conscious and concerned with the problems of Social Concerns within their own church and community. There are so many problems literally begging for Christian concern in your own local community that it would be impossible to properly handle all of them, in this generation, but it is the duty of the church to answer the call and cry of the needy, the distressed, the aged, and the many problems of inequality and discrimination that exist all round us.
8. We have continued to bring to the attention of our people the importance of peace and world order. We promote a UN-Washington Seminar each year.
9. The officers and members of this Board have been alert and active throughout the year and bring to the attention of the churches the many great social problems and concerns that are before us. We are regularly advising them of the availability of resources and services available to assist in any Social Concerns program. We recognize that to be successful in the field of Social Concerns the willingness and the desire to do most of the work must be generated and developed within the local churches and the local communities. The Board and its members stand ready to render whatever assistance, material and resources the local churches desire, and to perform it in a way that will fit into local program and local needs. It is not the purpose of this Board to go into the local community or into the local church and

- attempt to develop a program unless and until the local group requests it and is ready.
10. Our work program is divided into three divisions. The Division of General Welfare, John Fletcher, Chairman, has the responsibility for 23 major programs centering around Christian Social Concerns. The Division of World Peace, Jimmy S. Jones, Chairman, has the responsibility for 14 major programs centering around Social Concerns. The Division of Human Relations, Mr. Cashus Richardson, Chairman, has the responsibility for 18 major programs centering around Christian Social Concerns. We have no special measuring device to tell us statistically the success of our work. We do know that we are touching the lives of more people each conference year.
 11. The members of this Board are very seldom in agreement on many of the great issues before us. We have developed a fine spirit of working together, and when everyone has expressed himself we abide by a majority vote. The members have developed an excellent working relationship and a deep sense of Christian dedication. I am honored to be a member of this group and count it a high privilege to be the chairman of this Board.

JUDGE P. B. REVELS, Chairman

PROGRAM FOR 1972

1. The Drug Abuse Countermeasures Project—phase two. This is an experimental program designed as a model for church and community action. It involves youth leadership in a preventative program regarding drug abuse. A distinctive element in this phase will relate to emphasis on alternatives to drug usage. The program is based in the Orlando District and is financed by the Board of Christian Social Concerns budget.

2. The Drug and Alcohol Abuse Project. The proposal is made that the Board conduct a “drug and alcohol abuse project” in at least six areas of the state in the month of February, 1972. The approach would be flexible, with areas selected determined by interest. Other Christian Social Concerns would be included as developed by planning groups. Cost: $600—included in CSC budget.

3. A Continuation of the annual UN/Washington Seminar for adults. We recommend that the Adult Department be invited to participate jointly in the seminar and that Charles Penney be named as coordinator. Date: The month of November, 1972 has been set as the date of the seminar. Cost: No budget costs involved.

4. That United Methodist Churches in Florida be urged to observe the following special days: World Order Sunday, Oct. 15, 1972; United Nations Week, October 15-20, 1972; Trick or Treat for UNICEF, October 31, 1972; World Day of Prayer, March 3, 1972.

5. That attention be called to Paragraph 97 in the Book of the Discipline of the United Methodist Church, which recognizes the position of the conscientious objector as a valid option and we encourage: (a) an openness of mind to the concept of the “conscientious objector” materials which offer guidance to the conscientious objector. These materials are available through the Board of Christian Social Concerns, the United Methodist Church, 100 Maryland Ave., Washington, D.C. 20002, and/or P.O. Box 70, Lakeland, Fla. 33802; (b) we urge our ministers to become knowledgeable in this area; (c) we call attention to the fact that the status of conscientious objector should be applied for prior to one's selective service classification. The foregoing is not intended to promote avoidance to the draft, but to provide legal and competent counsel to anyone who requests it.

6. We recommend the establishment of committees developed from district and local church work areas on Christian Social Concerns, such committees to tour local areas, discuss and recommend solutions to the problems dealing with housing.

7. We recommend that panel discussions be held in local communities, in cooperation with other agencies, with representatives of both landlords and tenants for an overview of both sides of the problems of open housing and possible solutions.

8. We recommend that groups obtain, as a follow-up, information from city and county housing authorities on the need, availability, financing and increased need for adequate housing.

9. That the Board of Christian Social Concerns provide leadership and resources for district and local church meetings on the Quadrennial Emphasis of reconciliation; such meetings to be held at times and places convenient with the district superintendent and district or local planning groups.

10. That the Board continue its parolee program in cooperation with the State Parole Board. Cost: $100—included in CSC budget.

11. In cooperation with the State Emphasis, the Board Support of the "Alcohol Safety Countermeasures Program" whereby the federal government is seeking to isolate problem drinkers and get them off the highway. Problem drinkers cause about 20,000 alcohol-related traffic deaths annually.

12. That during the months of October-November, 1972, study action groups be created in local churches to help develop such settings for study action in the Christian community. Such study-action themes could include: United Nations, Foreign Policy, World Development, Food and Population, the Arms Race, etc.

One of the foundations of a warless world finds its origin within the thinking of individual Christians. When the teachings of Jesus are fully accepted and implemented by vigorous action, war as a means of settling international disputes will die.

RESOLUTIONS

The Conference Board of Christian Social Concerns approved five resolutions and herewith submits same to this annual conference. They are as follows:

1. We express our appreciation and commend the committee appointed two years ago to investigate and study the United Christian Action and submit its report and recommendations. The committee was composed of Gordon Strickland, chairman, Jimmy S. Jones and Ranston E. Davis.

United Christian Action has established a constructive approach in program planning and stewardship to implement the recommendations which appear on pages 178 and 179, Florida Annual Conference 1970 Journal. We are grateful to that organization for its willingness to set in motion procedures which will create a more favorable relationship with the Florida Conference of The United Methodist Church.

2. WHEREAS, the state prisons and many of our county jails are grossly overcrowded, Whereas, this overcrowding fosters criminal acts, immorality, physical, social and spiritual sickness among the inmates, and, Whereas, the process of justice is unduly delayed and hindered by the retention of the accused in our county jails for long periods of time, and,

Whereas, in many instances the right of the accused to a fair and speedy trial is being denied:

Be it therefore resolved that the Florida Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church urge the Governor and the Legislature of the State of Florida to take the necessary steps to eliminate and relieve the overcrowded jails and to afford the accused a fair and speedy trial.

Whereas, there are some eighty prisoners on death row in the Florida State Prison (with some prisoners having been there as long as ten years) and the Supreme Court has not acted on the constitutionality of the death penalty in the State of Florida;

Be It Therefore Resolved, that the Florida Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church urge the Governor to examine the cases of each prisoner sentenced to death in the Florida State Prison, with the intent of commuting to life imprisonment the death sentence as an expression of Christian love and humane treatment of prisoners.

3. With the development of increasingly horrible weapons of mass destruction, mankind stands at the threshold of possible extinction. In the face of this situation, Christians everywhere are confronted with a definite challenge. The Church faces a new urgency to fulfill the ministry of reconciliation. In order to have some concredited guidelines and directions for our efforts as peacemakers we submit the following recommendations:

- A. We cannot prescribe all that leaders of government should do but "we believe that Christianity cannot be nationalistic; it must be universal in its outlook and appeal." (Discipline, Paragraph 96E) In the name of the Prince of Peace and of suffering humanity, we ask that our Nation leave no stone unturned in cooperating with all concerned nations and peoples to effect negotiation and reconciliation to bring all the tragic warfare in Southeast Asia to a speedy end.
- B. Given our spiritual heritage and the frightening consequences if we fail to build lasting peace, it is our responsibility as churchmen today: (1) to declare that war is contrary to the will of God, (2) to be ready and eager to take calculated risks for peace, (3) and to be diligent and sacrificial in the pursuit of peace as the nations have been in the prosecution of war.
- C. We urge that concerted efforts be made to assure humane treatment of all prisoners of war and that increased efforts be for an immediate exchange of prisoners of war.
- D. We recommend that local churches utilize the resources and numerous services available from the Conference Program Council, P.O. Box 70, Lakeland, Fla. 33802 and the General Board of Christian Social Concerns, Division of Peace and World Order, 100 Maryland Ave., Northeast, Washington, D.C. 20002.

4. WHEREAS the public furor against the abuse by some churches of their tax-free status as non-profit organizations reflect against all churches, and

Whereas we do not view as proper such misuse and abuses of a privileged situation by any church, and,

Whereas to avoid unfair competition with private enterprise tax exempt status on all business and income producing property owned by religious organizations should be eliminated,

We there resolve that The United Methodist Church, the Florida Conference of The United Methodist Church and/or each individual United Methodist Church shall pay taxes on all business and income enterprises which are not directly related to their primary function of religious worship, teaching, extension, care, and Christian Social Action.

5. Whereas we are, as a nation and as its citizens deeply concerned because of the grave and threatening situation in the Near East,

Whereas, we believe the continuance of the cease fire create a more favorable climate for arriving at a permanent settlement of the strife between the Arab and Jewish peoples,

Therefore, be it resolved that all churches and Christians everywhere be urged to pray for the continuance of the cease fire and for a lasting peace, And further that our nation use its prestige and best efforts in aid of obtaining a peaceful solution to this very dangerous and volatile situation.

We will endeavor to include legal procedure that guides and protects the tax-free status of all property used for religious purposes.

Whereas to avoid unfair competition with private enterprise, tax exempt status on all profit-making businesses and property owned by religious organizations should be eliminated.

We request that copies of the foregoing Resolutions be sent to the appropriate parties.

SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT OF

FLORIDA CONFERENCE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL CONCERNS

During the 1970 annual conference, Don Hughes moved that the Florida Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, local churches of the Florida Annual Conference, institutions, boards and agencies of the Florida Annual Conference become participating members of Project Equality.

The matter was discussed at some length whereupon Harold Miller moved that the matter be referred to the Conference Board of Christian Social Concerns and the Commission on World Service and Finance for a study and report to the 1971 annual conference. Mr. Miller's motion was approved.

In accordance with the direction of the 1970 Florida Annual Conference the Conference Board of Christian Social Concerns, on May 1, 1971, held a public hearing after notice through the Florida United Methodist Magazine and the Conference Coordinating Mail. The Division on Human Relations had been gathering information and preparing for this meeting for approximately three months, also other members of the Board obtained additional information on Project Equality. Several interested parties from across the conference attended and participated in the discussion.

After several hours of discussion and exchange of views based upon the available information the following action was taken:

"Gordon Strickland made the following motion which was seconded by Tom Hagler: 'We endorse the principle of Project Equality and recommend this principle to the annual conference, its institutions and the local churches, to implement equal employment opportunities in their own way. However, because complete information concerning financial involvement, organizational structure and representation on the board has not been available since January, 1971, the Board of Christian Social Concerns requests the opportunity to secure complete information and to report to the next annual conference.'" This motion was passed.

The Conference Board of Christian Social Concerns and the Commission on World Service and Finance recommends that this matter be returned to the Conference Board of Christian Social Concerns and Commission on World Service and Finance to complete the study and report to the 1972 Florida Annual Conference.

RESOLUTION REGARDING GEORGIA SEAGLE HOLLAND TRUST

WHEREAS, The Board of Education of the Florida Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church is the duly appointed and regularly acting Trustee of the trust established under the Last Will and Testament of Georgia Seagle Holland, Deceased, and,

Whereas, The Board of Education has devoted an increasing amount of time to the operation of said Trust, and,

Whereas, due to the problems of administering the properties held in the Georgia Seagle Trust and the conflicts which have developed with the beneficiaries of the Trust, the Trustee feels that it is to the best interest of the Conference for it to resign, and,

Whereas, The Board of Education, after due consideration, desires to petition to Circuit Court in and for Alachua County to resign as Trustee of the Trust Under the Last Will and Testament of Georgia Seagle Holland, Deceased,

Now Therefore Be It Resolved that The Board of Education of the Florida Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, be, and it is hereby authorized to present a petition to the Circuit Court in and for Alachua County, Florida requesting permission to resign as Trustee of the Trust Under the Last Will and Testament of Georgia Seagle Holland, Deceased, and that, upon approval of the resignation by the Court, that it be authorized to do all things necessary to carry out said resignation and to surrender the assets of the Trust to a successor Trustee, as appointed by the Court.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION—FLORIDA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

- I. The Board of Education expressed an interest and concern regarding church school decline in the Annual Conference of 1969. The Board recommended that a survey be conducted by a professional organization and the Annual Conference approved it; however no study followed since there was no provision for funding.

Bishop Henley conducted a three month study and experiment in church school attendance with 60 churches in districts around Lakeland. It was a successful experiment, and with the statistics of this study in hand, the Board of Education can now pursue a program of emphasis on church school attendance.

II. SOME OBSERVATIONS:

1. Adults are the criteria to the entire concern of keeping the church school alive. The study has revealed a direct relationship of adults involved and its ratio of involvement of youth and children. Eastern Conferences are good examples of church school programs which permit their adult education programs to decline and die, thereby affecting not only the children and youth in church school but directly relating to a declining church as a whole.
2. A new philosophy needs to be established with regard to church school meeting on Sunday morning. The Committee on Settings and Groupings has revealed that many local churches are not aware that study can take place outside the traditional Sunday School hour.

With the busy schedules of the various individuals who make up our church membership, they may not find it possible to be a part of a study group which meets on Sunday morning. These same individuals would be enthusiastic about a class meeting at another time during the week. There is the possibility that "Church School" represents a stereotype among some adults. A week-day adult class would erase this image. Adults will respond to a study course of short duration in preference to being committed to a 9:45 AM Sunday morning class for an indefinite period of time.

3. The statistics from the Bishop's study on church schools revealed that a pastor's interest in church school and the emphasis he places on it are both vital to the attendance of a growing church school.
4. Based on the results of the recent study, it seems the enthusiastic concern of one or two individuals within every local church is a key factor to an increase in attendance.
5. The concern of the Board of Education regarding the decline in attendance does not mean that we are any less interested in excellence of Christian Education. This will not, however, be the primary objective of this study program.
6. The decline in attendance in our church schools may be for several reasons. One could be that while we have been so concerned with a sophisticated and intellectually acceptable education approach, we have missed the beauty and simplicity of the Bible itself and its dramatic stories.
7. The frustration of the local church in having no one person to whom they can specifically relate concerning matters of church school attendance is a matter of great importance. We would like to recommend that the Board of Education make available a representative whose function would be to assist the local churches and districts in such matters.
8. An enthusiastic concern for a declining church school is a good place to begin although enthusiasm alone will not solve the problem. It was discovered in the Bishop's study we have not always shown much excitement and concern for our church school. These simple ingredients alone have made a statistical difference during this three month attendance survey.
9. We have not always conveyed to our people that we care and are interested in their needs. We hope to overcome this image should this be the case. We want to fulfill the parable of "going into the highways" and bringing them in to be cared for and loved.

III. PROPOSALS:

1. The Board of Education establish a committee to work toward an increase in Church School attendance with special emphasis on the Sunday morning setting for the conference in the year 1972.
2. The purpose of this committee will be to stimulate attendance in Sunday school, not for the sake of numbers alone but for the sake of individual Christian Commitment/growth and the future of the church.
3. A representative from every district in the Conference to be chosen by the District Superintendents. These representatives will create a committee under the Board of Education for the purpose of stimulating Sunday school attendance. Suggested committee members-at-large with particular skills: President of Directors of Christian Education; Secretary, Board of Education; Committee on Settings and Groupings, Board of Education; Cabinet Representative; Program Council Representative, and such other members as the Board of Education may choose.
4. Each District Superintendent may select a committee to work toward the increase in Church School in their District. The success of this program will depend on an active District Committee and active District participation.

5. The committee may work toward a quarterly evaluation technique in order to share the results.
6. $1,000.00 from Conference Budget to fund the programs.

BOARD OF EVANGELISM

The Conference Board is profoundly aware that no narrow limits can circumscribe the work of evangelism. Old stereotypes are rapidly giving way to a wider vision of how the yeast of the Gospel is at work in the world. "New occasions teach new duties. Time makes ancient good uncouth." Experimental forms, unconventional ministries, and new adaptations of old procedures give evidence of a widespread effort to provide new wineskins to contain the ferment of God's Spirit in the land.

Old ideas of a separation between evangelism and social action are being dispelled and it is being demonstrated that either one without the other makes on the one hand for a sterile, self-centered, and increasingly irrelevant pietism or on the other for a type of social engineering in which there is a tragic lack of compassionate concern for individuals in their spiritual dimension. When the two are joined together the gates of hell will not be able to stand against the transforming forces of the followers of Christ.

The arena of action is the local church, placed as it is in the context of its community. And it is there that the healing ministry of Christ must be carried on through individual disciples in whose hearts are kindled that passion of historic evangelism that seeks to call others into discipleship and at the same time responds in compassionate service to the hurts and hungers, the frustrations and fears of those about them.

During 1970, the Board of Evangelism has sought to serve through its involvement in the following programs:

1. Assisted in planning and staffing the 1970 Inter-board School of Christian Mission.
2. Planned and carried out the Bishop's 1970 Convocation on Evangelism, Aug. 31 and Sept. 1 in Lakeland.
3. Conducted overnight Workshop on Evangelism, Sept. 1 and 2, 1970, for Ministers in their first year of service.
4. Planned and carried out in cooperation with Conference Council Staff the Bishop's Convocation for Confirmation Classes on March 7, 1970, at Florida Southern College. This was the third such event.
5. Planned and carried out the fifth annual Day-Away for Ministers and Wives, March 31 and April 1, 1970, at Orlando, with approximately 200 persons attending.
6. Provided training opportunities for District Secretaries of Evangelism and other members of the Executive Committee at the Candler Camp Meeting at Lake Junaluska, N. C., July 26-31, 1970.
7. Maintained liaison with United Methodist Leadership in the field of evangelism by representation at the Cincinnati meeting of the Council on Evangelism, Jan. 6-8, 1970.

8. Maintained liaison with the Conference Committee on Lay Renewal.

9. Provided leadership through District Secretaries in stimulating creative programs of evangelism in the local churches of the Conference.

During 1970 Florida United Methodism received 7,246 on Profession of Faith, 15,582 from other denominations and from other United Methodist Churches. Total additions were 22,828, making membership in the churches of the Florida Annual Conference at the end of 1970 a total of 316,056. There were 22,483 removed from the church rolls during 1970 by death, transfer, withdrawal, or action of the Administrative Boards.

DONALD M. MACKAY, Chairman

PROGRAM

1. Under the guidance of the district superintendent, district secretary of evangelism, and with other qualified leadership, that a 30 minute discussion be held with Pastors on a District basis, on new concepts and new materials for confirmation classes and membership training classes. This discussion is to be held before January 30, 1972 in each district.

2. A seminar and sharing opportunity for ministers in their first and second year of pastoral appointments. Date: January 24-25, 1972 at the United Methodist Building in Lakeland. Cost: $400, ½ included in Conference budget; ½ at rate of $10.00 per man to be requested of each district through district superintendent.

3. That each pastor and local chairman of work area on evangelism subscribe, or have church subscribe for them, the "Tidings Subscription Service." Cost: $7.50 secured from Tidings, 1908 Grand Ave., Nashville, Tenn., 37203.

4. That following suggestions be made to local church:

a. Each local church work area on evangelism be encouraged to use "Handbook for Local Church Work Area of Evangelism" and "Guidelines for Evangelism."

b. Consider the use of membership training materials "A New Adventure" from Tidings.

c. Encourage each pastor to conduct confirmation classes using the materials provided by Cokesbury.

d. Plan local church Administrative Board Retreat.

e. Consider having a "New Life Mission" in the local church.

5. The Bishop's Convocation for Confirmation Classes—a continuing opportunity in cooperation with the Children's Dept. Date: March 11, 1972, FSC, Lakeland.

6. A Florida Congress on Evangelism April 27-30, 1972 at the Lake Yale Assembly, Eustis. Planned for ministers (April 27-29) and laymen (April 28-30), the overlapping dates make possible a time together. Cost: $500, included in the Conference budget, plus fees.

7. That every local church follow the requirements of the Book of Discipline, PPs 127-129, and prepare on the prescribed form the annual "Membership Audit." This audit is to be prepared before the annual charge conference.

8. Membership Recovery Experiment: To train laity from participating churches in plans for membership recovery. The board asks that at least 20 churches (at their request) from two specific geographical areas, (a) Tampa-St. Petersburg and (b) West Palm Beach-Miami, be involved in this endeavor under the direction of Harold Rogers of Nashville, Tenn. Date: Early in 1972.

9. A "New Life Mission" in at least 100 churches in Florida in 1972. This involves two training events: (a) Training for New Life missionaries (pastors), August 30-September 1, 1971 at the United Methodist Building in Lakeland; (b) followed by training sessions located in five areas of the conference for training local church leadership in January, 1972. Cost: $300 included in conference budget.

10. That a "Bible Hour" be suggested to the annual conference Program Committee for 1972. Purpose: To make a meaningful, Biblical-founded, spiritual contribution to the lay and clerical members of the annual conference through an outstanding and inspirational Bible scholar. Participating: Annual Conference Program Committee. Cost: $300, included in the Conference Budget.

11. Non-resident Information Exchange—information to be brought to Pastor's School, handled similarly to book exchange. Date: October 3-6, 1972. (The Coordinating Committee suggested this item be directed to the Pastor's School Committee for consideration.)

12. The Board of Evangelism recommends that the following members of the Conference be continued in the appointments as Approved Conference Evangelists: Herbert Bowdoin, James Ridgway and Frank Seghers.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON LAY RENEWAL

The Committee was established by the conference to promote and encourage the renewal of the Church through individuals and congregations with special emphasis on the laity. During the year the Office of Lay Renewal (Melton Ware, Director, Box 70, Lakeland, 33802) has aided in the scheduling of 33 Lay Witness Missions and 3 Christian Growth Conferences. These renewal thrusts have been conducted under the leadership of 17 different laymen serving as coordinators and approximately 250 serving as witnesses or group leaders. The evaluations of these experiences by the pastors of the churches involved have been uniformly positive. Such statements as "superior to or at least favorable to any other attempts at renewal I have tried," have been common. There have also been a few wistful hopes that there could be a little more creativity and freshness expressed in the witness being made. A synthesis of these evaluations indicates that the Lay Witness Mission and Christian Growth week-ends have been a positive and helpful renewal thrust during the past conference year.

The third Lay Renewal Conference was held at Lake Yale Assembly Grounds, with 435 persons registered, April 30-May 2, 1971.

The Advisory Committee on Lay Renewal is composed of two Lay Witness Coordinators, George Erickson of Tampa and Bill Robertson of Sarasota; two representatives of the Board of Laity, John Morris, Ft. Lauderdale and C. I. Babcock, Jr., Coral Gables; two representatives of the Board of Evangelism, W. L. Joyner, Largo, and Hugh Lake, Jr., Maitland; and Melton Ware as Director of Lay Renewal. The members of the Committee will appreciate your ideas, suggestions or criticisms.

GEORGE ERICKSON, Chairman
W. L. JOYNER, Secretary

PROGRAM

1. That the work of the Advisory Committee on Lay Renewal in coordinating Lay Renewal activities in the Florida Conference be continued for another year.

2. That efforts encouraging and reporting on the availability of renewal thrusts be extended wherever possible.

3. That efforts of responsibility screening, criticizing and cautioning on programs and procedures be continued.

BOARD OF MISSIONS

PROGRAM

1. A week-end Seminar for Young Adults (18-34) for the purpose of studying mission involvement of the United Methodist Church.

This Seminar is to be held at Florida Southern College the week following the School of Christian Mission 1972, and it will be financed by registration.

2. A Seminar on Town and Country Ministries to be held at the Leesburg Camp February 1972 at a cost of $1,000. Of this amount, $500 has been placed in the Board of Missions budget.

The following are recommendations made by the committees and accepted by the Board.

Urban Work:

1. Support be given to men in specialized urban ministries.
2. Attention needs to be given to new norms for achievement in urban ministries.
3. New ways be sought to train men for specialized urban ministries, especially through our seminaries.
4. The Board recommends that ACTS (Association for Christian Training In Service) be supported by the Board of Missions.
5. Maximum use of local church facilities be emphasized.
6. Surveys be made to make us aware of additional fields of need.
7. It is requested that each urban center conduct a sociological survey in each area at least every ten years.

Spanish Work:

Recommendations have been sent to the Commission on Religion and Race of the Methodist Church.

1. To guide the local Spanish churches in a more active work in the life of the Community.
2. To have representation of the hispanics in the boards, commissions and committees of the Annual Conference.
3. That 50% of the members of the Spanish Work Committee of the Conference Board of Missions be hispanics; and that the Committee should meet at least twice a year with the hispanic ministers of the Conference and selected laymen.

Town and Country Work:

1. A Seminar on Town and Country Ministries, Leesburg Camp, February 1972.
2. Surveys to be conducted by Districts; aided by the Department of Research and Survey of the General Board of Missions.
Districts are to bear the costs and determine the time of the survey.

Advance Special Committee:

1. Recommendation that Missions be the top priority of the Florida Annual Conference.
2. Recommend that at the 1971 Florida Annual Conference be made aware of the fact that there are 16 Florida Missionaries that need $68,000. per year in salary support. Further, that these missionaries be personally identified as to home church, etc., so that every Florida Methodist will be personally acquainted with them.
3. Recommend that any missionaries attending Annual Conference be recognized, and if possible, be given an opportunity to make a "real" mission presentation.
4. The Study Committee present to the 1971 Annual Conference a dramatic presentation for the cause of Advance Specials.
5. Recommend that each month a free Advance Special leaflet (that can be ordered in quantity for local church distribution) and a suggested mission film be included in the COM/line.
6. Recommend that the Conference Council Staff person with responsibility to the Board of Missions bring a team of representatives from the General Board of Missions into each district with an afternoon meeting with ministers to answer specific questions, with an evening meeting for lay persons.
7. Recommend that the Florida Annual Conference have a realistic look at the future of Advance Special Program with respect to the amount of apportionments to the local church. Suggest that the World Service Commission study the entire conference financial structure in the light of decreased giving to benevolences.

8. Recommend that annually the District Mission Secretaries and Board of Mission members meet in the 2nd or 3rd week of September for a one and one-half day of orientation and instruction session.

In addition, the District Mission Secretaries rather than going to Conference on Christian Mission at Lake Junaluska, be sent to the General Board of Mission in New York for a study of structure and workings of the Board of Mission. The District Secretaries would be able to interpret mission in the United Methodist Church at the district and local church level.

The trip would be open to all members of the board and others at own expense.

BOARD OF PENSIONS

The Conference Board of Pensions takes this opportunity to express appreciation to the people of the Florida Conference for making it possible for us to meet in full all obligations to the pensioners at the established rate for the year 1970-71, and to the Minister's Reserve Pension Fund for the year.

We also express our sense of great loss upon the death of our late chairman, Dr. John M. Sikes.

I. Question 11:

1. That the amount required to meet the needs of both the Current Income claimants and the requirements of the Minister's Reserve Pension Fund for 1972 be approved as requested in the budget report of the Commission on World Service.
2. That the annuity rate for fiscal 1972 be fixed at $87.00 per service year for retired ministers who are members of the conference, associate members, and lay pastors; 75% of that amount for widows and 25% for each dependent child. This is based on 1.07% of the average salary of the conference which is $8,125.00.

II. Question 15:

1. That annuity claimants working under a general board, institution, or agency of the church who have been approved for annuity credit, shall pay, or his board, institution, or agency shall pay $850.00 for the appointment year 1971-72.
2. That the following institutions or organizations be approved for annuity responsibility: Florida Southern College, Bethune-Cookman College, Paine College, Florida Methodist Children's Home, conference evangelists, Crystal Beach Community Church, Jacksonville Improved Living, Jacksonville Urban Ministries, Miami Coordinator of Urban Ministries, Tampa United Methodist Centers, and Fort Lauderdale Specialized Ministries, Florida Spanish Ministry.

III. Other Recommendations:

1. New Claimants and their Florida years:
 - A. Members of the Conference: S. Paris Bell, Russell C. Boaz, Franklin Carwithen (27); Leroy Dell (26.25); Russell Lenox (11); Arthur J. Mack; J. E. McKinley (39.50); Oscar Magarian (37.50); Jay M. Reichenbach; Joe A. Tolle; Richard Span (14.50); Leonard Vanderwater (36); Gene Wetherell (6); C. W. Sappington.
 - B. Associate Members: L. E. Denslow (23.50); Donald E. Stocum.
 - C. Widows of ministers who died during the year: Mrs. C. E. Brantly (8); Mrs. Howard Porter (19.75); Mrs. John M. Sikes (29.50); Mrs. Thaxton Springfield (28.25); Mrs. Ira Barnett (41.50); Mrs. A. C. Riviere (28); Mrs. Milton J. Johnson (21.50)
 - D. "Twenty-year Rule": Troy Brady; Howard Wilfong; Lloyd Mullis.
 - E. Additional years of service: Raymond L. Hayes (2), (1950-52).

2. That for fiscal 1971 the Annual Conference contribute to MRPF an amount equal to 11% of the average salary of the Conference instead of 10% for members under this program and that the amount provided by the ministers involved be reduced from 2% to 1% of the average salary. That the necessary funds requested in the Board of Pensions budget of the Commission on World Service and Finance report be approved.

JOHN B. F. WILLIAMS, Chairman

THE COMMITTEE ON INSURANCE

(A Committee of the Board of Pensions)

The Committee on Insurance has been striving throughout this year to be conscientious and diligent in handling the matters that have come to our attention regarding the life and health insurance programs of the Florida Conference. The members of the committee have been faithful in attending meetings and in making constructive contributions to the deliberations. A special word of appreciation to the Secretary-Treasurer, D. G. "Bert" Dieffenwierth, who has given freely of his time.

We are glad to report that our relationships with the insurance carriers, Time Insurance Company and Ministers Life & Casualty Union, have been very satisfactory. Both companies have endeavored to be cooperative and have given prompt and fair service, and on occasion have gone well beyond what might have been expected.

I. Health Insurance Program

For five years the ministers and employees of our Florida Conference have received comprehensive major medical coverage through a policy with Time Insurance Company, Milwaukee. As of April 30, 1971 our enrollment in this program was 517. Again this year our claims have been running very high in relation to the premiums we have paid (see summary). It appears we will have a rate increase when the contract is up for renewal in October, 1971. In consideration of the rapidly escalating cost of health care, the recent increases in rate by other health insurance carriers, and the experience of our conference, the Committee on Insurance feels the probable rate increase is reasonable and we are getting very good major medical coverage at a comparably low rate.

Summary of Health Insurance Program

(May 1, 1970 to May 1, 1971)

Group #3960 (active ministers):
1. Health premiums paid	$145,203.20
2. Claims paid (No. of claims 461)		$156,526.35
3. Life premiums paid	$ 6,250.30
4. Claims paid (No. of claims 2)		$ 4,000.00
Group #3961 (retired ministers—medicare supplement plan):
1. Health premiums paid	$ 2,928.63
2. Claims paid (No. of claims N/A)		$ 2,500.64
3. Life premiums paid	$ 296.98
4. Claims paid (No. of claims None)		$ NONE
Total enrollment 4-30-71: 517

II. Life Insurance Program

Last year our Annual Conference approved entering a new group life insurance program for ministers of our conference with Ministers Life and Casualty Union, Minneapolis, to be effective July 1, 1970. The initial enrollment on July 1, 1970 was 381. As of April 30, 1971 our enrollment in this program was 542. This is a group insurance program which is designed to supplement an individual minister's basic life insurance program, not to supplant or be the only life insurance program for the individual. It appears we may have a rate increase effective October 1, 1971 due to two factors: (1) the average age of the members enrolled in this program was 13% higher than had been anticipated by M.L.C.U. prior to enrollment, and (2) the average age of the members enrolled has advanced a year since the initial enrollment last year. Of course, new enrollments of younger men would help prevent an increase in rate.

Summary of Life Insurance Program

(July 1, 1970 to May 1, 1971)

Lapses during the year—not reinstated	3
Death claims paid (as of 4-30-71)	3
Howard R. Porter	$5,000
John M. Sikes	$6,000
W. T. Springfield	$6,000
Total enrollment 4-30-71: 542

The former group life insurance contract with Metropolitan Life Insurance Company was cancelled effective July 1, 1970. The company withheld the final dividend payment for several months to clear up all claims and any other miscellaneous matters. The treasurer of our conference for that program, Bruce F. Gannaway, plans to close out his records and have an audit of the records as soon as he receives the final dividend from Metropolitan. Then he will transfer the reserve funds, $50,000 plus, that accumulated over the fifteen years of that program, to the Committee on Insurance. These funds will be held as reserve funds for the present life insurance program and will be deposited with the Florida Methodist Foundation. Since these reserve funds were not available to the committee during this past year the share of the quarterly premium paid by the conference to Ministers Life & Casualty Union, $2.76 for each active member and $2.25 for each retired member, has been paid with funds that were borrowed from the Florida Methodist Foundation. This debt will be paid when the transfer of funds has been accomplished.

Recommendation:

The Committee on Insurance recommends the Florida Conference continue the group health insurance program with Time Insurance Company, Milwaukee, and the group life insurance program with Ministers Life and Casualty Union, Minneapolis. Further, that a possible rate increase on the group life insurance program with Ministers Life and Casualty Union be paid by the conference from the reserve fund that accumulated during the former life insurance program.

A special Word to New Ministers in the Conference:

All new ministers in the conference are asked to give serious consideration to enrolling in the group health and life insurance programs of the conference. These plans offer extremely good coverage at a comparably low cost. Don't pass up this opportunity and regret it at a later date! Enrollment cards and information about these programs are available at a table near the front entrance to Branscomb Auditorium. A representative from each insurance company is there to assist you with any information you may need to have relative to these conference insurance programs.

BOARD OF HEALTH AND WELFARE MINISTRIES

The Board of Health and Welfare Ministries had a busy year in 1970. The activities under the auspices of our Board were as follows:

- (1) In the Spring of 1970 we conducted a workshop for all the District Directors of Health and Welfare Ministries. Dr. George Basset of the General Board of H. & W. Ministries came to direct it. The meeting was held at the Florida Methodist Children's Home and was most successful in helping our District Directors implement their work.
- (2) In April of 1970 we cooperated with the Board of Education in the program for persons of mature age. This adult conference included a workshop on the ministry of the church to the aging. We brought to this meeting Dr. John F. Norwood from the General Board H. & W. Ministries. He did a splendid job of leading this workshop.
- (3) This Board has actively participated in the Southeastern Methodist Agency for the Retarded. John Hires did an excellent work in directing the affairs of this committee. They conducted a workshop for the church's ministry to the retarded in the Fall of 1970. More than 30 persons attended. In the summer of 1970 we sent one delegate to the Southeastern Workshop at Lake Junaluska.
- (4) We distributed more than 100,000 attractive brochures describing all the agencies of Health and Welfare Ministries of the Florida Conference. This included The Florida Methodist Children's Home, The Methodist Hospital, and the four retirement homes, Wesley Manor, Asbury Towers, Sunny Shores Villas and Biscayne Manor.
- (5) The Board of Health and Welfare Ministries presented a resolution to the 1970 Annual Conference regarding financial support for the retirement facilities owned by three of our Districts—Sarasota, Jacksonville and Miami. Though the resolution was defeated it did bring before the conference the urgent needs of these institutions. This report was given in conjunction with a report from the Florida Conference Corporation of the Facilities for the Aging.

ROBERT M. BLACKBURN, Chairman

Recommendations:

1. That the Board of Health and Welfare work cooperatively with the Adult Department in the planning of Mature Years Conference for 1972. Date: April 24-27, 1972 at the Leesburg Camp.

2. That we develop an in-service training program at the Methodist Hospital in Jacksonville in which ministers would be trained by the hospital chaplain in the ministry to sick persons. The Board voted to try to provide for two scholarships in this program at a cost of $2,000. Cost: Cost not provided for.

3. That a Conference Advance Special be approved by the Florida Conference to raise funds for the construction of a chapel at the Sunland Hospital in Fort Myers. The Rev. Fred Stinson to be in charge of this project for Board of Health and Welfare Ministries. Referral: Since the Discipline states that Advance Specials must be administered by the United Methodist Church, the Coordinating Committee has referred this matter to the Commission on Ecumenical Affairs.

4. We recommend that Workshops for workers with Retarded Children be held in Miami on October 26, and in Tampa on October 28. This will include pastors, teachers and other workers with Retarded Children.

(This is to be financed by the budget of the Florida Conf. Bd. of H & W Ministries)

5. We recommend the approval for Asbury United Methodist Church of Maitland to co-sponsor with First Presbyterian Church of Maitland a low-income retirement housing project under HUD 236.

UNITED METHODIST FACILITIES FOR THE AGING

This agency met twice during the year 1970 and cooperated with the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries in recommending to The Florida

Annual Conference support for Asbury Towers in Bradenton. It has also adopted resolutions during the Florida State Legislature not to impose ad valorem taxes on the four Methodist facilities for retired people. This group also endeavors to coordinate planning and cooperative enterprises of the four retirement facilities in Florida.

COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL AFFAIRS AND DELEGATION TO THE FLORIDA COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

I

The primary concern of the Commission on Ecumenical Affairs this year has been that of encouraging and aiding our local churches in becoming involved in the Consultation on Church Union study, A Plan of Union for the Church of Christ Uniting. Materials for this study were completed in November, 1970. At the same time committees involving denominational executives (bishops and "bishop-types") were set up all over the nation, including Florida, to begin organizing for promotion of the study. Florida was divided into five major metropolitan and geographical areas, each having a Committee of Eighteen (one layman and one clergyman from each of the nine participating denominations) for the purpose of initiating study promotion. Suggestions and aids for the study have been made available through our conference publications and coordinated mailing. Countless United Methodist congregations, pastors, and groups are currently involved in the Plan of Union study.

The Commission has continued to carry on much of its work through its three task force groups. The Task Force Committee on Councils was created to consider any inquiry regarding Councils of Churches, but none has been received this year. The Task Force Committee on Inter-Church Strategy, through cooperation with the Conference Board of Missions, has found new in-roads of ecumenical cooperation in our state, especially as witnessed in the Florida Mission Strategy Development Consultation and the Florida Council of Churches' Commission on Church Planning and Strategy. The Task Force Committee on Local Church Ecumenism has continued to respond to the needs and requests of local church work area chairmen and commissions.

The elected membership of the Commission continues to act as the membership of the United Methodist delegation to the Florida Council of Churches. We, along with the other eleven denominational members of the Council, rejoice in the installation of The Reverend William M. Belk as the Council's Executive Secretary. Florida United Methodism continues to support the Florida Council not only financially but also personally as 20 of our clergy and 7 of our laity serve on 11 commissions and departments of the Council.

II

In regard to a program in ecumenical affairs for the forthcoming conference year the Commission makes the following recommendations to the Conference:

1. We call upon every pastor and congregation to cooperate with other Consultation churches in initiating studies of the plan of union in their respective communities, and to make appropriate response and reaction to the Conference Commission regarding acceptance of, or proposals for, alteration of the plan by April 1, 1972 (the deadline for a total denominational response is June 1, 1972).
2. We recommend that two (rather than one) separate agencies shall serve the Florida Conference as its Commission on Ecumenical Affairs and as its delegation to the Florida Council of Churches beginning in the 1972-76 quadrennium based on the following pattern of membership:
 - a. Conference Commission on Ecumenical Affairs
 - 1 clerical member from each district
 - 1 lay member from each district
 - the District Secretaries of Ecumenical Affairs
 - Liaison from the Cabinet
 - and up to three optional members-at-large may be added (including liaison from Conference Staff)
 - b. Delegation to the Florida Council of Churches (the number of which is set by FCC by-laws according to the formula of 1 per every 10,000 communicant members or major fraction thereof, with half as many more elected to serve as alternates, or 36 delegates and 18 alternates for United Methodists):
 - DELEGATES:
 - Bishop
 - Conference Program Director
 - 4 District Superintendents
 - 3 officers of the Commission on Ecumenical Affairs
 - District Secretaries of Ecumenical Affairs
 - 11 representatives (one each) from the following conference boards and agencies (Christian Social Concerns; Education; Evangelism; Health and Welfare; the Ministry; Missions; Worship; Methodist Information; WSCS; Lay Activities; Conference Youth)
 - 4 delegates-at-large or as many more as needed, including Program Council Staff personnel
 - ALTERNATES:
 - 4 District Superintendents
 - 4 lay members of the Commission on Ecumenical Affairs
 - 4 clerical members of the Commission on Ecumenical Affairs
 - 4 alternates-at-large or as many more as needed, including Program Council Staff personnel
3. We recommend the election of a Work Area Chairman, and where desirable, a Work Area Commission on Ecumenical Affairs in every local church, together with a continued emphasis on local church ecumenism.
4. We recommend the continued availability of the Commission's three task force committees on church councils, interchurch planning and strategy, and local church ecumenism.
5. We recommend the special observances of days and occasions which have ecumenical significance: especially, World Wide Communion Sunday, World Order Sunday, Reformation Day, the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, World Student Day of Prayer, Race Relations Sunday, COCU Sunday, Pentecost, and United Methodist Heritage Sunday.

6. We encourage ecumenical fellowship and encounter at the various levels of life and activity in the Florida Conference.
7. We encourage our churches to double their efforts in receiving offerings for Florida Christian Migrant Ministry, an affiliate arm of the Florida Council of Churches.
8. We recommend at least one annual meeting of the Commission (January 21, 1972); we further recommend the sending of at least one of our number to the annual National Conference on Christian Unity (March, 1972).

ROBERT M. TEMPLE, JR., Chairman
MRS. ALLEN WATSON, Secretary

PROGRAM

1. Election of work area chairman (and commission if desirable) in every local church.
2. Continued emphasis on local church ecumenism.
3. Observance of special days and occasions that have special ecumenical significance, such as: World Wide Communion Sunday, World Order Sunday, Reformation Day, Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, World Student Day of Prayer, Race Relations Sunday, COCU Sunday, Pentecost, and United Methodist Heritage Sunday.
4. That we encourage ecumenical fellowship and encounter at the various levels of life and activity in the Florida Conference all through the year.
5. We encourage our churches to double their efforts in receiving offerings for Florida Christian Migrant ministry.
6. Cooperation with other COCU Churches in initiating studies on Plan of Union, and to make response and reaction by April 1, 1972.

COMMITTEE ON MEMOIRS

During the past year—beloved members of the fellowship of “servants of the servants of the Master” have gone to continue their service in the Father’s “house of many rooms.” We shall miss them but rejoice with them in their fulfillment.

Washington Gladden has written:

O happy soul, be thankful now, and rest!
Heaven is a goodly land;
And God is love; and those he loves are blest;—

CONFERENCE COMMISSION ON STEWARDSHIP

Our Goals for the year included:

1. Conference Workshop for District Directors.
2. District Workshops for persons responsible for Stewardship program in the local church.
3. Each church select one period for concentrated efforts on opportunities of stewardship.

Dr. John Rooks and Rev. Charles Penney have given extensive time, effort, and guidance to the committee as have other members of the program council.

JAMES I. JONES, Director of Stewardship

PROGRAM

1. That a three-phase stewardship program be conducted in every church dealing with (1) commitment, (2) service, (3) and sharing.
2. That each local church continue its studies on Christian Stewardship.
3. That each local church develop a Committee on Wills and Legacies.
4. That Stewardship Emphasis Rallies be held in areas, districts and sub-districts throughout the conference. The rallies would focus on speakers, speaking on the subject "God's Love—Our Response"; small groups studying sections of Theological Perspectives of Christian Stewardship; preparing of persons to hold church conferences on stewardship to establish goals; and further consideration to be given to study of personal devotional life, faithful attendance, visitation, proportionate giving, mission concern, witness, development of membership and study courses; and the use of all resources available in each area.

COMMISSION ON PUBLIC RELATIONS AND UNITED METHODIST INFORMATION

This commission was first constituted by action of the 1960 session of the annual conference. The purpose was then clearly stated and responsibilities were outlined including the establishing of an Area Methodist Information office, the supervision of the then "Florida Methodist," and the developing of appropriate means for conference public relations. A director of Methodist Information was subsequently secured and Mr. O. B. Fanning has continued in this position through the intervening years. He now devotes one-fourth of his time serving the conference as a part-time staff member of the Program Council.

Time has brought about changes including the placing of the "Florida Methodist" under the responsibility of the Program Council where it is published primarily as a promotional magazine.

During 1970 the work of this commission has centered around three foci: First, four members served on the Study Committee set up by the 1969 annual conference to survey conference publications: This work was completed and appropriate recommendations were received and acted upon by the 1970 session of the annual conference which resulted in the establishing of a Board of Publication looking toward the possible publication of a conference newspaper. Second, through the combined efforts of the Cabinet and Program Council a plan was devised whereby daily reports were dispatched by first class mail to local churches covering pertinent action of the 1970 session of the General Conference. These reports filed by Mr. Fanning from St. Louis were received with great appreciation by pastors throughout the conference. A similar coverage of the 1972 General Conference in Atlanta is anticipated. Third, a very successful "Public Relations Workshop" on the conference level was held in December and more than eighty persons were in attendance.

In the light of its changing role, the commission now looks upon its purpose as follows:

"To make the Florida United Methodist Church more widely and more favorably known and understood; and, to seek to know, evaluate, and influence public opinion so as to broaden the witness of the Church." Toward this end the commission continues to devote itself.

WILLIAM S. ECHOLS, Chairman

PROGRAM

1. That each district consider sponsoring a Public Relations Workshop in 1972 with the help of the Commission on Methodist Information and Public Relations and the conference Program Council. Cost: $500, included in the proposed Conference Budget.

2. That the signs erected on Interstate and other highways continue to serve the purpose they are presently serving, that four new designs be created through a conference-wide contest to select designs, that each sign be rotated every nine months and be freshly painted every year, or more frequently if needed, and that some changes be made in the present locations. Cost: $3,600—Included in asking from Conference Budget.

3. A proposal that the conference maintain the present Public Relations and Methodist Information staff person in 1972 as presently set up, looking forward to the time when a full-time Public Relations and Methodist Information person may be employed. Cost: Same as 1971. Included in Program Council Budget.

4. That Mr. O. B. Fanning's expenses entailed in his work as Director of United Methodist Information be consolidated with the Program Council Budget, and that he be allowed to do his work where it can best be accomplished. Cost: This Commission feels that Mr. Fanning's expenses should be included in that of the Program Council budget as are other members of the staff.

5. That the 1972 General Conference News be reported to the Florida Conference through a similar type of information distribution as was done at the 1970 General Conference. Cost: Recommended that the cost be included in the budget of the Program Council as was done in 1970.

BOARD OF PUBLICATION

At the 1970 Florida Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, the Board of Publication became an agency of the Church. Over a quarter of the Conference Year elapsed before the appointment of its membership was made. At the first meeting on October the 14th the following officers were elected: Mr. Victor Leavengood, Chairman; Clarence Whitley, Vice Chairman; Donald Kokomoor, Secretary. There have been four meetings of the full Board and three working committees have met for special needs.

The Board of Publication requests that the following changes be made in the enabling legislation of the 1970 Annual Conference:

1. The addition of a representative of the Women's Society of Christian Service and a youth representative from the conference be added to the committee as was requested from the floor of the 1970 Annual Conference.
2. The deletion of the statement "after consultation with the Program Council director," on line 2 of paragraph 4 of the 1970 report. The reason being that this individual will be ex-officio members of the Board and in consultation already.

The Board of Publication recommends:

- a. That the United Florida Methodist continue to be published through 1972 by the staff of the Program Council, but expanded in scope and format to serve more adequately as a Conference newspaper, including information about the official program of the Conference, within the limits of the present (1971 and 1972) budgets of the Program Council.
- b. Meanwhile, the Board of Publication and the Program Council staff will cooperate in making a gradual transition from the present format and contents of the United Florida Methodist to a newspaper, and change the name of the publication as soon as a new name is decided.

DONALD KOKOMOOR, Secretary

ADVISORY COMMITTEE FOR CHURCH AND COMMUNITY WORK

The Church and Community Worker, a professionally qualified person, is employed by the Department of Town and Country Ministries, National Division of the Board of Missions. They are appointed annually, in response to requests from annual conferences or districts, usually to a larger parish whereby clusters of small churches and communities may develop leadership and organizational resources capable of meeting real needs of people.

Involving persons in rural communities with social issues and human needs is a part of the program of the Church and Community Worker. To move against injustice, repression and poverty requires personal motivation, individual and group skills, and organizational tools.

The workers see their mission in terms of personal and group engagement with issues and needs, as well as planning and team coordination among community people, clergy and laity.

One of the 86 Church and Community Workers assigned to 40 conferences was appointed to the Leon-Wakulla Larger Parish 1970-1971. The worker, Mrs. Lyon B. Crosby, is an integral part of the Larger Parish staff.

For the year 1971-1972, we have requested three additional workers for the Florida Conference, one to serve in the Madison County Larger Parish in the Tallahassee District, and two to be appointed to the developing Larger Parish in the Gainesville District.

This committee is also responsible for the Summer Worker in Town and Country program offering to young adults with one or more years of college an opportunity to serve in teams of two for eight weeks in rural and small town churches. One week of concentrated training in youth activities, use of vacation church school materials, and recreation is provided by members of the Conference staff. An honorarium of $400.00 is given to each participant.

For the Summer 1971, ten young adults have been selected to participate in the Summer Worker in Town and Country program. Funds provided by the Florida Conference Women's Society of Christian Service, Wesleyan Service Guild, Council on Youth Ministry, and Fund for Reconciliation make this possible.

MRS. GUY THOMAS, Chairman

PROGRAM

1. A continuation of the Summer Worker in Town and Country program. This program is designed for young adults with one or more years of college, serving in rural and small town churches and in the community. Work is done in teams of two. Young adults working in this program receive one week of training by conference staff members. They serve for a seven-week period working in Vacation Church Schools, Youth Activities Weeks, Day Camps, etc. Cost: $5,850. Partially funded by WSCS, WSG, Youth Council on Ministries, and Board of Christian Social Concerns. Are requesting additional funds through the Commission on World Service and Finance.

COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN ENLISTMENT

As a part of its quadrennial program, the Commission on Christian Enlistment for Church Occupations had planned a Christian Vocations Workshop in cooperation with the Youth Ministry Council for the fall of 1970. This workshop was postponed until the spring of 1971. A Guidance Consultation workshop is planned for the fall of 1971.

LARRY HENIZE, Chairman

FLORIDA SOUTHERN COLLEGE

The College opened its academic year on Friday, September 4, 1970. Bishop James W. Henley was the preacher for the opening worship service which was held in Branscomb Memorial Auditorium on Sunday, September 6th. The year concluded on Monday, May 10, 1971 with the Commencement Service.

The College opened with 1,344 full-time students and 124 part-time students. (The figures a year ago were 1,386 and 142.) In addition, five of our students were studying abroad as compared with 11 last year. A total of 329 students were graduated during the year; 44 received degrees on August 7, 1970 and 285 received degrees on May 10, 1971. (The figures a year ago were 308; 38 in August and 270 in May.)

Losses in the College family during the past year included Dr. John O. Gross, former Vice-President with special responsibilities in the areas of development, personnel and curriculum. Dr. Gross, who had retired at the end of December, passed away February 4, 1971. Justice Campbell Thornal, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, passed away November 4, 1970. Dr. Howard M. Field, a member of our Biology Department since 1954, was stricken while teaching September 29th, and passed away within a few minutes. Angus Sumner, Trustee Emeritus died May 30th, 1970.

At the meeting of the Board of Trustees February 18th, 1971 Dr. Richard W. Pearce, Vice-President and Dean of Academic Affairs, was named Dean of the College, and Dr. Branson Thurston, a member of our Religion and Philosophy Department, was elected Assistant Dean for Academic Affairs on a part-time basis for a period of two years. The position of Dean for Academic Affairs is vacant pending the employment of a suitable person for this position.

Enrollment for 1971-1972. Last year 77% of those eligible to pre-register (1,076) actually returned (832). The same percentage this year (77% of 1,049 who are eligible to pre-register) would give us 808 students returning. At this time we now expect 374 new students to enroll. At the same time last year we expected 335. Since applications are down 70 from last year, it is anticipated that this lead will not be able to be maintained, and that three will be no increase in new students, with the possibility existing of a decrease of at least 25. The projected enrollment for the fall of 1971 is 1,300 students.

Growth and Expansion. Despite the increased cost of living which affects the College in all aspects of its operation, by careful management of funds available we were able to avoid an increase in tuition for 1970-71. However, there will be an increase of $150 per year for resident students and $40 per year for non-resident students for the academic year 1971-1972.

The budget for 1970-71 follows:

INCOME		EXPENSE
Students Fees	$2,179,735	Educational and General ..	$3,006,028
Florida Conference	427,000	Auxiliary Enterprises	1,339,273
Endowment Income	350,000	Student Financial Aid	488,820
Miscellaneous Income	471,000	Capital and Other	107,914
Auxiliary Enterprises	1,514,300
	$4,942,035		$4,942,035

R.O.T.C. Effective with the beginning of the 1971-72 academic year the R.O.T.C. program will become elective to all young men wishing to enroll.

Concert-Lecture Series: During 1970-71 the College presented an outstanding series of concerts and lectures under the guidance of Dr. Juliane Jordan. Attendance has been excellent and has attested the fine caliber of these programs. A similar series is planned for 1971-72.

Women's Society of Christian Service Scholarship. Continuing a program begun in 1969-70, the Florida Conference Women's Society of Christian Service awarded a scholarship to Miss Audrey James through an exchange student arrangement with Isabella Thoburn College in Lucknow, India. This has been a beneficial program for all concerned.

College Government. After more than a year of study, the Board of Trustees adopted a new plan of faculty organization at their meeting in February.

Prepayment Plan. A Prepayment Plan has been developed in order to assist students in making monthly payments on their accounts. The Plan becomes effective with the beginning of the 1971-72 academic year.

Financial Aid to Unmarried Children of All Florida Conference Members, Associate Members and Lay Pastors Serving Full-Time Appointments. Beginning with the first semester of the 1971-72 academic year, a tuition discount of $1,200 a year, $600 for the fall semester and $600 for the spring semester, will be available to the unmarried children of all Florida Conference members, associate members and lay pastors serving full-time appointments. No discounts will be available, however, for the summer session.

Service to the Florida Annual Conference. Faculty and Staff members of Florida Southern College are happy to be of assistance within the Conference. During the past year many have preached or spoken in churches of the Conference at the invitation of the host pastor. In addition, the College is well represented in churches in the Lakeland area where its personnel are serving on administrative boards, as Sunday School teachers, members of Chancel Choirs, advisers to youth groups, and in other areas of responsibility.

The students, too, are happy to represent the College to the Conference and have particularly done so through the traveling groups: The Vagabonds with their chancel drama presentations; the Concert Choir which has sung for both morning and evening services; the recently formed Handbell Choir which has presented something quite new and different in most churches; and the Concert Band. Dr. Gene Wetherell has been instrumental in scheduling these groups throughout the Conference. The opportunity presented in such performances for the students and the members of the Conference to meet each other and become acquainted as a privileged one, and it is hoped that even such opportunities can be presented in the future.

REPORT OF BETHUNE-COOKMAN COLLEGE

The entire Bethune-Cookman Family considers it a high privilege to report to the 1971 session of the Florida Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church as we conclude the 67th year of successful service.

Our hearts were saddened with the death of Dr. John O. Gross, the first vice chairman of the Board of Trustees of Bethune-Cookman College, on February 4, 1971. The College was well represented at his funeral in Nashville, Tennessee.

The year began on September 1, 1970 with a Faculty, Staff and Students Preplanning Conference where three important goals were examined—

1. Improve our academic program,
2. Find new ways to reach the type of students who desire a Bethune-Cookman College education, and
3. Find additional ways to finance a quality educational program.

We have an outstanding faculty with 44% holding the earned doctorate degree and all others holding the earned Master's degree or above. We have 1,165 students enrolled, which is the largest enrollment of any black institution related to the Board of Education of The United Methodist Church. We were unable to enroll 400 qualified students who applied for admission, due to our limited facilities.

Excellent progress has been made in the past year, especially in five areas. These are:

1. Completion of Self-study, the visit of the Visiting Committee of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools and the reaffirmation of accreditation of Bethune-Cookman College.
2. Improved communications between faculty, staff, alumni and students working toward the same goals.
3. Occupancy of the new $1,200,000.00 Carl Southwick Swisher Library, debt-free.

4. Participation of the College Concert Chorale in the Jerusalem Festival of American College Choirs in Israel in which they received a certificate of excellence.
5. The construction of the Ja-Flo Davis Dormitory which will house 192 young women and will be ready for occupancy in September, 1971.

This is a great moment in the destiny of church-related colleges. The task today is a difficult one. If they will live through these uncertain times, they must face their responsibilities realistically with optimism and courage, not resting on laurels of past accomplishments or justifying their claims on mere traditions or historical significance, but on the ability to render service that will, in the light of changed conditions, fully justify public confidence and command support.

A the present time, a certain phase of Bethune-Cookman College's mechanics is out of harmony with its dynamics. We need more stable financial support to establish a fair balance. Past accomplishments have been great. Our major responsibility now is to provide adequate financial support in order that the results of the vision, perseverance and accomplishments of the past may be continued. The addition of $400,000.00 annually above our present income will enable us to meet this responsibility.

The future will demand more of us. It will require the cooperation and support of the entire Methodist constituency. The College faces one of the greatest years in the history of its development and of its great heritage.

We are most grateful to Bishop James W. Henley, chairman of the Board of Trustees of Bethune-Cookman College; the following members of the Florida Conference of The United Methodist Church who serve with distinction as members of the Board of Trustees: Dr. J. Milburn McLeod, The Honorable P. B. Revels, The Honorable William A. Meadows, The Reverend A. D. Hall, Dr. Jack A. Davis and Mr. Leroy E. Northrup; and to the district superintendents, ministers, laymen and laywomen of the Florida Conference for their leadership, concern and support for this educational enterprise. With your continued cooperation and support, we face the future unafraid.

OTTERBEIN COLLEGE

Board of Trustees

Prior to the first session of the East Ohio Conference, Otterbein's Board of Trustees took action which gave her national publicity by adopting a new college governance and reorganizing the Board of Trustees to include students and 3 faculty as full voting members.

The governance plan gives students a voting voice on every decision-making body in the school. The traditional faculty meetings and student senate meetings have been replaced with a College Senate comprised of faculty, key administrators, and an equal number of students. This brings together people from all departments into one responsible body where issues may be discussed and acted upon.

On January 21, 1971, Dr. Harold Boda, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, announced that Dr. Thomas Jefferson Kerr IV, 37, will be the eighteenth president of Otterbein College. Dr. Kerr was selected from 117 candidates screened by a trustee-faculty-student committee. He holds degrees from Cornell University and the University of Buffalo, and his Ph.D. is from Syracuse University. He is presently Associate Professor of History at Otterbein where he has taught since 1963 except for seven months in 1970 when he served as acting Academic Dean of the College. Dr. Kerr and family are active members of the United Methodist Church of the Messiah in Westerville.

Library

The cornerstone on the $2.2 million library was dedicated at the 1970 Fall Homecoming just 100 years after the cornerstone was laid for Towers Hall, our oldest building.

Contributions to the library have come from three principle sources, Members of the United Methodist Church $818,322.91, Alumni and friends $403,171.04, and a Federal Government Grant $657,000. $300,000 is still needed to complete the financing of the building.

Admissions

The freshman class for September, 1971 will be filled when the Fall Term begins. As of March 31, 1971, we have 37 more acceptances than one year ago and 65 additional initial payments have been made.

125th Anniversary

Plans are being made for our 125th Anniversary which will include a President's Day this fall. Past presidents will be honored and Dr. Kerr will be installed. Appropriate functions for the 125th will be announced at a later date. In connection with 125th Anniversary, a Capital funds campaign will be launched.

Finances

You will be disappointed if something is not said about finances. In 1960-61 it required $1½ million to operate the college. In 1970-71 it will require $5 million. By 1980 it is estimated that it will take $8½ million with no increase in student body.

For this current year, approximately ½ of our income will go for salaries and wages in all categories. To operate the dormitories, dining hall, health center and other student services will require $1¼ million. This is a sampling of expenditures.

A perilous dilemma faced by all church-related colleges lies in the shifting nature of their financial support. While contributions from the church to our operating budgets have increased considerably since 1950, they have fallen farther and farther behind as a proportion of the total income, while fees charged the students have taken up a larger share of the burden. Ten years ago we could say that the Otterbein student (or his parents) paid three out of every four dollars required to educate him, while church, alumni, community and friends contributed the other dollar. The student now pays $3.44 of every four dollars, while the contributed part of our income has shrunk to only fourteen percent of the whole. Of this, direct support from the church represents about one-fourth, or about 3½% of total income.

We wish to express our appreciation to those of you who make contributions to the colleges through the church, for the church remains, and hopefully will always remain our single largest voluntary contributor.

The $124,000 received from the church last year has been distributed as follows:

Grant-in-aid to children of Ministers	$ 35,000.00
Grant-in-aid to former E.U.B. students (Former Dollar-Per-Member Program)	7,000.00
Religious Activities Program	18,000.00
Department of Religion and Philosophy	52,000.00
General Operating Expenses	12,000.00
	$124,000.00

We are likewise glad to report that the United Methodist students attending Otterbein make up above 55% of the student body and they receive from all sources of student aid more than $380,000.00

Long Range Plan, excerpts from (adopted June 1970):

Otterbein must "lead change" or be a victim of change. The question we face is whether we possess the will and ability to lead. The following ideas, proposals, and projections are based on the assumptions that we do want to invent positive changes and will commit ourselves fully to the process.

* * * * *

The purpose of Otterbein College is to sponsor a program of liberal arts education in the Christian tradition. . . .

...The "liberal arts" also lays foundations for careers in which one embodies the value commitments relevant to contemporary problems and issues. . . . We will not train students in routines designed to meet yesterday's problems and needs but will address ourselves to understanding careers, fields of endeavor, institutions and how changes are accomplished.

The "Christian tradition" refers to the value inclination we expect to opt for in place of the neutral bias sought on many campuses and of necessity in many parts of our pluralistic society. . . . There are values in addition to intellectual values which must be sought. Values . . . which emphasize the worth and dignity of persons, the worth of cooperative patterns, the healing function of human relationships, the flexibility of thinking born of breadth of perspective, self-awareness, and openness to renewing experiences. . . . This tradition . . . should lead into creative tensions. . . . Creative tension does not show up in bickering, logrolling, politicking, suspicion, gossip, demonstration or violence, but does manifest itself in commitments to significant alternatives.

Basic policies on structures: (These policies limit decisions which may be made).

1. The Board of Trustees is the final legal body.
2. As a matter of choice, Otterbein will remain related to, but not controlled by the United Methodist Church.
3. . . . will maintain a close and vigorous relationship with its alumni association.
4. . . . will maintain a residential character and devotion to the liberal arts.
5. . . . will seek a qualified student body not only in academic ability but also in the many other abilities which make viable leaders in the human community.
6. The educational values must receive priority with all other values related to these educational values.

THE FLORIDA METHODIST FOUNDATION

The Foundation is a channel, as Trustee, through which a person may give to his local church, Institutions and other Agencies of our Church.

Have you a Committee on Wills and Legacies in Your Church? If not, will you join the growing list.

It is a part of our Christian Stewardship to make a Will. Wouldn't you like to leave at least a tithe of your estate to The Florida Methodist Foundation—designating your Church or some Institution or Agency of The Annual Conference as beneficiary?

There are those who prefer LIVING TRUSTS with the Foundation with all earned income going to the Donor or his wife so long as either lives, the principal going to the agency designated as a memorial to those named by the Donor.

The SHARING PLAN of the Foundation is growing. We now have Churches and Boards and Institutions placing their Funds in the Plan. Interest is paid from date received until day of withdrawal. The basic rate is 6½ per cent compounded every six months plus extras. For the year 1970 the Foundation paid 7.125 per cent.

Gift Annuities are attractive for an annual income is guaranteed for life, certain capital gains are applicable and a considerable portion of income is tax exempt.

Six District Seminars on Estate Planning were held during the year.

RECOMMENDATION:

That Seminars on Estate Planning be held in every District, if possible October and November.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

NO. 5

Concerning lay members to the Annual Conference having been members of the charge they represent "one year next preceding their election."

The 1970 Special Session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church, held in St. Louis, Missouri, April 20-24, 1970 approved the following amendment to the Constitution of The United Methodist Church and submitted it to the Annual Conferences for vote.

That Paragraph 36, Article I which now reads:

"The Annual conference shall be composed of ministerial members as defined by the General Conference, together with a lay member elected by each charge, the conference president of Women's Society of Christian Service, the conference president of United Methodist Men, the conference lay leader, and the president of the Conference Youth Organization. Each charge served by more than one minister shall be entitled to as many lay members as there are ministerial members. Except for the president of the Conference Youth Organization, the lay members shall be at least twenty-one (21) years of age and shall have been for the four years next preceding their election members of one of the constituent churches forming this union, or of The United Methodist Church."

be amended by deleting from the last sentence the words "shall be at least twenty-one (21) years of age" and by adding the following words at the end of the Paragraph: "and for one year next preceding their election as a member of the charge they are to represent," so that the Amended Paragraph 36, Article I will read:

"The Annual Conference shall be composed of ministerial members as defined by the General Conference, together with a lay member elected by each charge, the conference president of Women's Society of Christian Service, the conference president of United Methodist Men, the conference lay leader, the president of the Conference Youth Organization. Each charge served by more than one minister shall be entitled to as many lay members as there are ministerial members. The lay members shall have been for the four years next preceding their election members of one of the constituent churches forming this union, or of The United Methodist Church, and for one year next preceding their election as a member of the charge they are to represent."

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

NO. 6

Concerning the election of two young persons under twenty-five years of age, from each District, to membership in the Annual Conference:

be amended by adding at the end of the first sentence the words "and two young persons under twenty-five (25) years of age from each district to be selected in such manner as may be determined by the Annual Conference" so that the Amended Paragraph 36, Article I will read:

"The Annual Conference shall be composed of ministerial members as defined by the General Conference, together with a lay member elected by each charge, the conference president of Women's Society of Christian Service, the conference president of United Methodist Men, the conference lay leader, the president of the Conference Youth Organization and two young persons under twenty-five (25) years of age from each district to be selected in such manner as may be determined by the Annual Conference. COMMISSION ON WORSHIP

We your Commission report the following:

During the year of 1970 there were two worship workshops held, one in the Saint Petersburg District, and one in the Melbourne District. We were responsible for the worship service at the Pastor's School 1970. We have representation on the Youth Council and the School of Mission.

ROOSEVELT DELL, Chairman

PROGRAM

Leadership Development: Opportunity to either send members of Commission to training sites, or bring personnel to us.

Special Worship Experiences: We have the opportunity this year to plan worship experiences for Conference, yet there is no resource on our Commission to draw from, also if we are asked to continue at Pastor's School in programming.

"Where the Need is": This is to be the new emphasis whereby the Commission will make itself available to local churches, groups of churches in increasing effectiveness in worship, this probably in areas where resources are not always available. We are budgeting this amount so that we can go some places where local funding is not available but there is a real need.

"Sing Out, Speak Out": We want to find ways in reaching our youth and some adults by meetings bringing together youth talent from an area, and having youth from around that area come for song, drama, word, all kinds of expressions of worship that are valid. Somewhat like some groups have "Gospel Sings." Plans are fragmentary.

Jurisdiction or church wide planning meetings: This couldn't even cover travel to such meetings, but we feel it might help make it possible for someone to find other funds to represent us and our Conference in these meetings.

Our Commission spends a great deal of its own members money to carry on programming, because we believe in the possibility of greatly enriching the conference worship experiences, conference wide as well as through the church settings.

ROOSEVELT DELL, Chairman

 COMMITTEE ON THE LAY WORKER

The committee interviewed and recommended to the 1970 session of the Annual Conference for consecration and membership 10 directors of Christian education, nine directors of music, one deaconess, and one educational associate. These persons were presented to Bishop James W. Henley who consecrated them after the Conference voted acceptance. An appropriate certificate has been prepared for each of them and is being presented at this Conference.

Mrs. Marjorie Cass has withdrawn from membership, and will be removed from that roll.

During the year the committee has met with a number of candidates for admission and consecration as Lay Workers, and recommends the following:

Directors of Christian Education
Elizabeth Ann Brown
Thomas Webb Hamilton
Suzanne Lynch

By transfer from another conference:
Director of Music
Robert G. Carr

M. C. CLEVELAND, Chairman

PROGRAM

1. That all candidates for Lay Worker membership in the annual conference meet with the Committee on the Lay Worker for interviews preparatory to recommendation to annual conference. Date: April 12, 1972 at the United Methodist Building, Lakeland.

All such candidates must be recommended by the local church which should provide pension plan for those lay workers in their employ. Cost: $150—included in proposed Conference Budget.

WOMEN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE & WESLEYAN SERVICE GUILD

The Women's Society of Christian Service and Wesleyan Service Guild operated under an administrative committee from June 1969, to May 1970. This committee was composed of nine members from the historically Central Jurisdiction and the historically Southeastern Jurisdiction. This report covers the seven-month period from May 1970, through December 1970. At the May 1970 annual meeting election of officers was held.

During this seven-month period we have been examining every facet of our program in the light of our purpose: "... To help women grow in the knowledge and experience of God as revealed by Jesus Christ; to challenge them to respond to God's redemptive purpose in the world; to unite them in Christian fellowship to make Christ known throughout the world; and to develop a personal responsibility for the whole task of the church." To do this the conference executive committee spent a weekend under the guidance of a team from Women's Division and set up the following goals for 1970-71:

1. To provide leadership, enthusiasm, and to be a motivating resource for the local woman as we relate to the total church program. Leadership training workshops were held in each district. Learning opportunities have been provided in the work areas of drug abuse, literacy, operation-know-how, missionary experience days, work training for community projects in which the local church participates, ecumenical projects in the local community, observance of United Nations Day, etc.

2. That the merged society continue to be an active channel for Christian development across racial and cultural barriers. In addition to the personal influence each officer can be, district presidents have kept informed of opportunities available to local societies and guilds to experience growth in this area and have worked diligently to promote attendance.

The Jurisdiction Task Group on World Issues conducted a workshop on racism for the conference executive committee. From this experience a committee was set up to train and make available three teams to conduct workshops on this subject in local communities upon request.

3. To interpret the program of the Women's Division; how policy is made; how pledge money is spent.

District meetings were conducted by the regional secretary and the conference treasurer to help overcome a feeling by some of mistrust in the use of pledge money. Some districts held similar meetings in local areas. We believe these meetings have contributed greatly to the up-swing of pledging and mutual trust.

4. To develop more sensitivity to the needs around us as well as world wide needs. Each district has held one or more spiritual growth retreats, day-a-part meetings, and more districts are sending representatives to regional and national meetings.

5. To stimulate more enthusiasm and/or involvement in specific action by local women.

6. To become informed about district finances. A task group on district cultivation money is functioning to discover how districts with a small membership can be aided in having sufficient money for an adequate program without assessing the membership more than is necessary in larger districts.

7. To study the amount of involvement of women in leadership roles in the Florida Conference. A committee making the study find that today's women are not satisfied with helping to provide finances and forming a major portion of the personnel in the local church programs while being denied a part in formulation of policy and of helping make decisions affecting finances.

MRS. ALLEN WATSON, President
MRS. W. W. POUNDS, Secretary

PROGRAM

1. Continued cooperation in the Conference School of Christian Mission.
2. Continued cooperation in the Summer Worker program in Town and Country,
3. Continue the practice of receiving a Love Gift Offering at the Annual Meeting determining how it shall be spent from year to year,
4. To hold a conference-wide Spiritual Growth Retreat every other year,
5. To hold Leadership Training for conference and district officers at the beginning of each Quadrennium conducted by a Women's Division team,
6. Continue the society-guild Scholarship Program—revised policy follows—

The Florida Conference Society-Guild scholarship aid program in the beginning was for black girls going to black colleges. This year it has been revised to what we feel is a greater need—to make assistance available to any young Methodist student desiring to attend junior colleges and vocational schools. Instead of each district sending one girl to a four year college we are making a gift of $1200 annually to each of the following United Methodist Colleges: Paine College, Clark College, Bennett College, Bethune-Cookman College and Florida Southern College; also, $500 annually to Vashti School and Boylan-Haven-Mather Academy.

We also participate in the support of a student from India to attend Florida Southern College—$4500—and contribute the same amount toward the foreign student program of Bethune-Cookman College. This is voted each year.

7. World Understanding Workshop in 1972.
8. Conduct workshops on Racism in local areas by trained teams upon request,
9. To meet and plan with the boards and agencies of the conference where possible.

CONFERENCE SCHOOL OF CHRISTIAN MISSION

The 1968 annual conference converted the School of Missions of the Women's Society of Christian Service and Wesleyan Service Guild into a Conference School of Christian Mission. The purpose was to make it a total conference training and spiritual growth experience for men, women, and older youth.

Its purpose is "to provide an opportunity for study and training in the mission of the church with particular emphasis on the current mission study themes and spiritual enrichment as they relate to the task of the several program areas in the local church both separately and as a whole."

It is divided into two sessions; one session commences on Friday evening and closes Sunday noon, designed primarily for those who cannot be away from home or work for as much as five days. The same program is given to the weekend session as for the longer session, but it is in a more streamlined form. The week session commences on Monday and concludes at Friday noon. The 1970 school had in attendance for both sessions a total of 916 individuals.

The courses of study for the 1971 school, July 9-11, July 12-16, will be on the book of Matthew, under the leadership of Dr. Charles Laymon; New Machines and the New Humanity, with Melton Ware, Victor L. Rankin, Harry Burney, Charles Brewster, William Tiffin, and J. P. Floyd as teachers; the New Generation in Africa, with Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Hughlett, L. O. Shirley, Mrs. Billie Starnes, Dr. Leslie C. Sayre and Mrs. H. M. Russell, as teachers; a local church leadership training program under the direction of Dr. Richard Nesmith of the National Division, Board of Missions with other ministers of the Conference; seminars sponsored and staged by the major work areas of the church, including Christian Social Concerns, Ecumenical Affairs, Education, Evangelism, Laity, Missions, Stewardship, and Worship.

Classes will be designed to instruct local church membership in the purpose, plan, and techniques of properly carrying out the program and mission of the local church.

Date: July 21-28, 1972, Florida Southern College, Lakeland

Cost: Has been included in Conference Budget (expenses of leadership)

2. Specific goal: To have 10% of local Church Work Area Chairmen of all work areas present for leadership training at the Conference School of Christian Mission, July 21-28, 1972.

REPORT NO. 2

Referring to paragraph 924 in the 1968 Discipline, we concur with the recommendation of the Commission on Minimum Salary for minimum support for 1972: Lay Pastors $5500; Associate Members $5900; Ministers in full connection without B.D. or equivalent $6300; Probationary member with B.D. or equivalent $6600; Ministers in full connection with B.D. or equivalent $6800.

1. The salaries are to become effective January 1972

- A. Minimum Salary Fund shall be administered by the Commission on Minimum Salary. This Commission is to be composed of representatives from the Board of Missions, two Cabinet Members and representatives from the Board of Ministry and World Service and Finance.
- B. The Commission on Minimum Salary shall see that the amounts of Minimum Salaries are collected, and they shall be disbursed by the Cabinet.
- C. Payments shall be made quarterly, providing funds are available.
- D. The Commission on World Service and Finance calls the attention of each minister to the Disciplinary requirements concerning ministerial support, pensions and benefit programs as outlined in paragraph 1380.6 and paragraph 921, with special reference to proportional payment and the effect of default of payment in these areas upon pension benefits.

2. After study and review of salaries of District Superintendents we recommend that the formula adopted in 1970 be continued. It is based, first on the top two salaries plus expenses in each of the twelve districts. Then, from the Conference at large the top four salaries and expenses not previously used. The average of these twenty-eight salaries and expenses makes up the formula. We further recommend for 1972 in addition to the formula, $1000 travel expenses plus expenses for Pre-Conference Cabinet Meetings. District Superintendents salaries for 1971 were $14,003, calculated by the above formula.

3. In compliance with paragraph 885 and approval of the General Conference, the Episcopal Fund shall be 2% of the Ministers' salaries.
4. We further recommend that the amount of ministerial support be remitted by the treasurer of the local Church to the Conference Treasurer as a part of the Christian Service Fund of that Church. The Conference Treasurer shall distribute each item of ministerial support its prorated share based on budgeted amounts.
5. We recommend that the Interdenominational Cooperation Fund and Ministerial Education Fund be apportioned to each District, using the same formula as used in the Christian Service Fund. The Apportionment to the local Church shall be made by he District Superintendent over and above the Christian Service Fund.
6. We recommend that for 1972 the Christian Service Fund be separated into four categories, as follows:

MINISTERIAL SUPPORT	$1,061,736
WORLD SERVICE AND CONFERENCE BENEVOLENCES	1,594,359
ADMINISTRATION	525,960
CAPITAL FUNDING AND DEBT PAYMENTS	214,233
TOTAL	$3,396,288

REPORT NO. 3

Contingency Fund

We recommend setting up the following Contingency Fund from the Conference Reserve Fund:

1. The Conference Contingency Reserve Fund of $21,700 to be used by the Commission on World Service and Finance for emergency needs of the Conference Boards and Agencies during the year 1972.

REPORT NO. 4

Travel Allowance

We recommend that the car allowance for members of Boards, Commissions, and Committees where allowed, be set at 5¢ per mile for each member, an additional 3¢ for one passenger and an additional 2¢ for two passengers or more, with top mileage of 10¢ per car plus tolls for roads and bridges. Members who choose to travel to Conference Meetings by other than automobile will be reimbursed at the above highway mileage rate. In addition, meals and lodging for Board members shall be paid at the rate of $6.85 per diem. We further recommend that the Conference facilities at Lakeland and Leesburg be used by the Boards and Agencies.

REPORT NO. 5

Conference Boards

1. We appreciate the use of the Conference Treasurer's office by all Conference Boards and Agencies and urge them to make full use of this office for both the collection and disbursement of their funds.
2. We call attention to paragraph 2 of the Standing Rule III which requires all Agencies receiving funds through the Commission on World Service and Finance to give an Annual Report or an audit on all monies received and disbursed; and urge more faithful compliance with this rule. We suggest that the reports in question be in the hands of the Commission Chairman within 60 days after the end of the fiscal year. Unless there is compliance with Standing Rule #3, the Commission on World Service and Finance cannot consider requests for funds for the following year.

REPORT NO. 6

Christian Education Sunday Offering

We recommend that the Conference Council be authorized to use the Christian Education Sunday Offering for the work of the twelve District Councils and that the District Superintendent administer the funds received from the offering within their districts.

REPORT NO. 7

1. We recommend the Florida Methodist Foundation for its outstanding work and encourage and urge all Agencies of the Conference to make full use of its advantages and to help the Foundation attain its maximum potential for the Conference.
2. We recommend, with the concurrence of the Cabinet, that one half of the surplus earnings, current and future of the Florida Methodist Foundation be retained as a Conference Reserve Fund, up to and including the amount of $100,000. The Conference Reserve Fund shall be used to meet Conference emergencies including an emergency of the Florida Methodist Foundation, at the discretion of the World Service and Finance Commission. As the Conference Reserve is less than $100,000, earnings shall be further retained to bring it up to that amount. At any time the Conference Reserve Fund exceeds $100,000, the excess shall be available to the Conference.

REPORT NO. 8

1. FUND FOR RECONCILIATION

Florida Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church
 Lakeland, Florida

We have examined the balance sheet of the Central Treasury of the Florida Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church as of December 31, 1970, and the related statement of receipts, disbursements and fund balances for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

We did not ascertain the values nor did we verify clear title to the other fixed assets stated on the balance sheet. These assets are explained in detail in Note 1 of the Notes to Financial Statements.

In our opinion, subject to the preceding paragraph, the accompanying balance sheet and statement of receipts, disbursements and fund balances present fairly the financial position of the Central Treasury as of December 31, 1970, and the recorded receipts and disbursements for the year then ended, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

United Methodist Church
Lakeland, Florida

We have examined the balance sheet of the Board of Education, Florida Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church as of December 31, 1970, and the related statement of receipts, disbursements and fund balances for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

We did not ascertain the values nor did we verify clear title to real estate stated on the balance sheet. These assets are explained in detail in Schedule 1 and Notes to Financial Statements.

In our opinion, subject to the preceding paragraph, the accompanying balance sheet and statement of receipts, disbursements and fund balances, present fairly the financial position of the Board of Education, Florida Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church as of December 31, 1970, and the recorded receipts, disbursements and fund balances for the year then ended, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Board of Pensions
Florida Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church
Lakeland, Florida

We have examined the balance sheet of the Board of Pensions of the Florida Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church as of December 31, 1970, and the related statement of receipts, disbursements and fund balances for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The General Board of Pensions of the United Methodist Church collects and disburses monies for the Superannuate Endowment Fund, Stabilization Fund, Initial Reserve Fund, Conference Endowment Fund, and Conference Claimants Distribution Fund. We did not independently verify the receipts and disbursements of these funds. The balances of these funds were confirmed directly to us by the General Board of Pensions of the United Methodist Church.

In our opinion subject to the preceding paragraph, the accompanying balance sheet and statement of receipts, disbursements and fund balances present fairly the financial position of the Board of Pensions of the Florida Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church and the recorded receipts and disbursements for the year then ended, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF BOARD OF LAITY

The program of the Board of Laity must begin with the Leesburg Retreat. As in the past four years, over 2,200 men from every district of the conference attended. Each of the four weekends were led by outstanding minister and lay personalities. Each was alike in purpose and attitude, but provided variety of approach. Among those who led were: Bishop James Armstrong, Dr. Ford Philpot, The Reverend Sam Coker, Dr. Myron Augsberger, Dr. Bill Bright and Miss Eulalie Ginn. Hundreds of men made a new commitment of themselves to God at the Retreat and many reports have been received indicating continued dedication by the men in their own community. The Leesburg Retreats have been recognized throughout Methodism as the greatest event of their kind for a number of years. This recognition has now spread outside the Methodist Church as one of the best examples of the Spiritual Retreat. All effort has been made to analyze the success of Leesburg, resulting in one clear conclusion: The program includes most of the factors which tend to create an attitude of receptivity by those who attend preaching, singing, praying, study, silence, dialogue, fellowship—timed well, with a proper balance of aggressiveness and top-quality leaders in each area. We recommend the format unhesitatingly because we know that it works. We thank God for all that has happened at Leesburg.

Another successful event this past year in which the Board of Laity played a part was the Bishop's Convocation for the Laity. The evangelistic event, led by Bishop Henley and Bishop Hunt "set the scene" for continuing the efforts to communicate the Christian message meaningfully to the youth and young adults where it is so greatly needed. Again, thank God for His inspirational direction!

This year's report must also make special reference to the area of stewardship. Under the leadership of Jim Jones, the Conference Director of Stewardship, a new emphasis has begun, aimed at helping the local church program. The highlight of the year was a day-long meeting attended by District Superintendents, Bishop Henley, and lay leadership for Stewardship from all over the Conference. We encourage all lay leadership to get behind this great need, asking God's guidance as to the way of persuading all laymen that tithing of money—as well as service—is a vital part of the Christian's spiritual growth.

There were many other areas of worthwhile activity: Lay leadership of the local church (Methodist Men's Fellowships), participation in Southeastern Jurisdiction programs and cooperation with all other Boards. Others of the Laity who deserve an expression of appreciation for their work are: Mrs. Ethel Gray, Mrs. Allen Watson, Dr. Richard Moore, Charles Babcock, Jr., John Morris, William Furr, John Grant, Ed Boardman, Ray Redstone, John Sargeant and all of our District Lay Leaders.

A special expression of appreciation for the dedicated leadership of Justice Campbell Thornal—His active participation in the program of the Leesburg Retreats and his counsel to me was of inestimable value and we thank God for his life and pray that God will raise up other leaders of his ability and character.

We have not done all that needed doing, but pledge our best effort to do so next year, as we praise, follow, and serve our Lord.

BILL MEADOWS, Conference Lay Leader

PROGRAM

1. That Bishop's Convocations for the Laity be held on February 10-13, in locations to be determined. Sarasota and Hollywood.
2. That a workshop for Board of Laity officers and district lay leaders be held June 23-25. (place to be decided)
3. That the annual Lay Retreats be held during the month of October at the United Methodist Youth Camp. Dates: 6-8, 13-15, 20-22 and 27-29.

TRUSTEES OF THE PREACHER'S RELIEF FUND

During the year your Trustees of the Preacher's Relief Fund have been able to provide homes for fifty-one of our claimants, and temporary housing for a number of our Methodist Cuban Refugees, and other laymen, in properties that had not been needed for retired ministers and widows of our preachers.

Our actual and potential assets have been increased this year by the addition of one house which has been deeded to us, and we have knowledge of property valued at $35,000 that has been put in wills for our Board. Our total assets have been increased from $432,852 in 1967 to $605,906 in 1971. We have sold four unused properties during the conference year and we are endeavoring to improve the property which is in use. A number of our claimants are contributing to maintenance and enhancement of their units, and otherwise cooperating with the work of the Board.

A long range planning committee has been appointed to study the changing needs of our claimants, and to recommend amendments that should be made to the charter and by-laws of our Board.

Our executive secretary and property manager continues to visit the claimants occupying our homes to express interest in and concern for their welfare, and to inspect our property and arrange for its maintenance.

Our greatest need just now is a conference sponsored retirement home and unfirmary where our retired preachers and widows of ministers of modest means might go when they are no longer able to maintain themselves in these houses. A number of the occupants of our units are of advanced age and will not long be ambulatory.

We commend Dr. Henry W. Blackburn for his excellent work as Executive Secretary and Property Manager, and respectfully request that he continue to be the staff member assigned to this Board.

GEORGE A. FOSTER Chairman

TRUSTEES OF THE FLORIDA CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

After careful preparation of plans on the part of the Camp Committee, and under authorization of the Florida Conference, the contract for the installation of a central sewage disposal system at the Youth Camp in Leesburg has been signed by the proper officers of the Trustees. It is anticipated that construction will be completed in time for use in the summer program at the Youth Camp this summer. The total cost is just under the $100,000.00 figure which the conference authorized.

At your direction the Trustees have made a study of staff housing for members of the Conference Program Council. As a result of that study, the Trustees make the following recommendations:

1. That Conference Staff members who are ministerial members of the Florida Conference be provided with parsonages.
2. That members of the Conference Program Council Staff who are not ministerial members of the Florida Annual Conference be compensated so that they can provide their own housing, said compensation to be determined by the Program Council.
3. That this policy shall apply uniformly to all future Program Council Staff members, and to any present Staff members who choose to come under it.

Attached hereto, and a part of this report, is a list of the obligation of the Conference on properties for which the Trustees hold title for you, together with method, amount and date of final payment of the indebtedness.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF FLORIDA METHODIST CHILDREN'S HOME

January 1, 1970-December 31, 1970

A report on the work of The Florida Methodist Children's Home could be entitled "Service With Adventure." Various services have been rendered in your name to 209 children and their families. A much larger total would be listed if we included referral services.

New requests for service to 195 children and their families were received in our office this year. From this number we were able to accept 60 children into care for direct service. Nine adoptions for older children were completed and eighteen children placed in pre-adoptive homes, one hundred fifty-three children received care in the institution, twenty-eight lived with licensed foster families, and twenty-six children have been receiving supervision in their own homes. Altogether we have provided 49,995 days of care for children.

How grateful we are to the United Methodist Churches of Florida for sharing $376,666.85 with us to make this service possible. One hundred eleven churches gave $1,000.00 or more, and giving by some congregations which totaled less than $1,000.00 was still remarkable. Other funds necessary to operate our program were obtained from The Endowment Fund, from wills and bequests, and from special gifts by friends who are not Methodists.

While we cannot focus on many outstanding gifts, we feel we must mention that Dr. Frank Reynolds of Bunnell gave $9,000.00 in dental services. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Carpenter of Sarasota gave $11,700.00 to provide clothing and recreational facilities. Many members of the Women's Society for Christian Service joined in giving enough trading stamps and coupons to purchase for the Home three 15 passenger club wagons. Thanks to all who shared in any way.

During the year our long-needed group home for high school girls was started. This is a significant part of the program in which older girls live in a program designed to assist them in learning the skills of homemaking and to move toward independence.

Our present program consists of group care in the institution, including the cottage at the former Sarah Hunt Home, foster care with licensed families, foster care in an agency subsidized foster home, the group home for high school girls, a program of adoption for older children, the "outpost" office for family counselling and referral service, and hopefully, before conference meets, the opening of a group home for mentally ill children in Orlando.

The trustees request that the annual conference continue the present policy of financing this program by asking all church schools to remit the offerings received on each Fifth Sunday and at Christmas, and by asking all churches to remit undesignated monies (loose offering) received in morning worship services on the same Sundays.

In order to underwrite the budget we feel is minimal for the operation of this program we are asking that each church set as its goal for giving $1.50 for each member. All offerings should be sent directly to The Florida Methodist Children's Home, Box 8, Enterprise, Florida 32763.

We commend the superintendent and staff of the Children's Home for serving so many children on our behalf as United Methodist People. They are the arms and hands doing what each of us would like to do for the boys and girls.

C. DURWARD McDONELL, President
ROGERS P. FAIR, Secretary

PROGRAM

1. Continuation of group care programs at Enterprise and Daytona Beach.
2. Continuation of the group home for high school girls.
3. The opening of the program for mentally ill children (already approved by the annual conference).

4. Continuation of program for foster and adoptive placements.
5. That the conference continue to share, as previously, through fifth Sunday and Christmas offerings, memorial gifts, gifts through wills and bequests, special gifts from church school classes and other church organizations.
6. Strengthening the present approved plan for support of this agency by providing good literature, speakers to interpret the program, and by providing special programs in cooperation with conference officials, district superintendents, and others.

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

As we continue to be thrust into God's new future, we need to remember with appreciation those of the past whose faith in God has laid a foundation for our present work and witness.

We commend Trinity Church, DeLand, for celebrating their 75th Anniversary and submitting an up-to-date history to the curator; and Havana (Salem) Church for a several day celebration of their 100th Anniversary.

We urge churches to plan special celebrations marking each 25-year interval since their founding and to bring their histories up-to-date for these occasions. Since our conference program and reporting year has now been changed to the calendar year, it will be necessary for local churches to submit their histories to the curator, Robert Carr, by December 31, in order for recognition to be included in the Conference Journal for the year in which the celebration was held.

We thank Dr. Charles Thrift and Florida Southern College for space in the Library for the Conference Archives. Mrs. Otye Bly continues to give us valuable service with the Archive Materials.

There will be a special celebration at Lake Junaluska, on Labor Day Week-end, of the Bicentennial of the coming of Francis Asbury to America. We recommend that each local church encourage a delegate or delegation to share in this historic occasion.

THE COMMITTEE ON THE STUDY OF THE MINISTRY

INTRODUCTION

Last year the Committee on the Study of the Ministry expressed many major concerns which are now being considered by the Committees on Minimum Salary and Research and Planning. This year our work has been devoted to conducting dialogue groups for ministers throughout all Districts of our Conference in order to determine the feelings and concerns of ministers as they related to their profession.

Nearly 300 ministers throughout the Conference participated in these dialogue groups, and twelve district representatives met with Bishop Henley in February to share the results. Bishop Henley approved both the idea and purpose of an Opinion Survey which was sent to all ministers serving in the pastorate of our Annual Conference. This survey included 54 statements, 46 which originated from the dialogue groups and eight which came from discussion of committee members with our consultant.

As a result of Bishop Henley's support, the encouragement of the members of the Cabinet, and the interest of ministers, 565 out of 644 surveys were returned—a response of 88 percent.

Ministers were asked to circle the response which most nearly agreed with their feelings about each statement:

- | | |
|----------------------|-------------------|
| 1. Strongly disagree | 4. Agree |
| 2. Disagree | 5. Strongly agree |
| 3. Neutral | |

A sixth category, O, was added when the results were compiled to represent refusal to state an opinion on any given statement. A summary of the responses to each question is included in this report.

Our committee is indebted to the Reverend Jim Dale for his assistance in formulating the Opinion Survey and in compiling the massive data received, and to William T. James, Director of Martin Marietta Data Systems, who served as our consultant in the interpretation of data received from the Survey. Mr. James is a member of the Rockledge United Methodist Church where he is presently serving as Chairman of the Administrative Board and Chairman of the Work Area on Evangelism.

The following interpretation does not deal with all of the information received, but it does represent the general feeling of our ministers. The "suggestions" are meant to be used by interested persons as ideas and discussion starters. When we have intelligent discussions about these areas of mutual concern, we are more likely to find effective ways to deal with them.

I. THE MINISTER AND HIS WORK

A. Finding: The majority of ministers do not understand the role of the minister.

B. Evidence:

1. Seven out of ten ministers agree that seniority should be given weight in appointments. One-third of those who agree with this agree strongly. Seniority alone makes no reference to a man's ability, motivation, experience, effectiveness, previous performance, difficulty or ease of previous appointments, emotional stability, intelligence, family situation, or even desire to be of service. Therefore, the minister's response to the statement about seniority would indicate some confusion as to the role of the minister. This could indicate a desire for an automatic promotion with each move regardless of how well one performed previously.
2. Only 25% of the ministers oppose a job description. It is interesting to note that a very specific job description already exists for the Methodist pastor—paragraph 35—of the Discipline. Many ministers may not be aware of this or feel that it is not adequate.

3. Only 25% agree that the "present method of measuring a minister's effectiveness" is adequate. Although the "present method" was not specifically defined, it could mean the Cabinet's evaluation of a minister's effectiveness, or that of a local church, or even that of the minister himself. The response indicated that most ministers are at best uncertain in their role.

4. It should be noted that a Gallup poll which appeared in the Miami Herald on April 9, 1971, based on a questionnaire sent to 2,517 clergymen was headlined "Clergymen Bewildered Over Roles." The poll pointed out that 40% of the present Protestant and Catholic clergymen have seriously considered leaving the ministry because they are disillusioned and bewildered over their role in the church and society.

C. Suggestions:

1. A basic program could be initiated to help ministers learn their identity and role in contemporary times. The minister's responses to statements about continuing education indicate that such a program would be well received.

2. Every minister should have some recognizable feed-back about his performance in his role as a minister. Suppressed problems are ultimately damaging to the minister, his church, or both.

II. THE MINISTER AND HIS IMAGE

A. Finding: Many ministers are having a major problem in relating to the secular world. The critical issue here is not his ecclesiastical relationship to the church, but his occupational identity in the world of work.

B. Evidence:

1. The opinions on the two statements concerning Florida Southern College should correlate highly. The statements were: "Florida Southern College fills a basic need within our Conference" and "I Support a Florida Southern College Financial Campaign." The opinions on the two statements did not correlate. The ministers felt that Florida Southern College fills a basic need, but they would not support a financial campaign for it. In the secular world, how one uses his financial resources is evidence of his value judgments.

2. Most ministers were not decisive in their opinions on the survey. They felt strongly (that is, answered 1 or 5) only 14.2% of the time, while they felt neutral 19.4% of the time. Although most people have the image of the minister as being very decisive, the evidence indicates otherwise.

3. Many ministers revised the wording of the survey statements, which suggested they were not willing to take them at face value. For instance, many did not like and refused to relate to the word "success." Others insisted that the ministry was not a "profession," but a "calling." Almost all of the secular questions were labeled as "unclear" and "irrelevant" by scores of ministers.

4. Only 27% of the ministers agreed that "An article for sale is worth what people will pay for it." The inclusion of the words "for sale" would indicate that in the secular world, the statement is true. The response of the ministers to this question indicates that they see themselves more as technicians than as motivators or managers.

5. The secular questions drew by far the most hostile comments and the greatest number of refusals to answer.

6. In response to the statement, "The image that most people have of the ideal minister is outdated," 68% were in agreement, 18% disagreed, and 14% were neutral. This would indicate that most ministers feel uncomfortable with the image they think people have of them.

7. The previously mentioned Gallup poll also states that among Protestant ministers, Catholic priests, and Jewish rabbis, the chief reason for their leaving the ministry was an inability to communicate with people.

C. Suggestions:

1. Again, a basic program designed to aid ministers in determining their present-day identity would be entirely applicable here. Any number of things could be listed that would relate the minister to the world primarily as a human being rather than only a "minister"—coaching a Little League team, for instance, or some other community related activity. Reflection upon these experiences in light of the demands of the church and the meaning of Christianity could prove invaluable to the minister and to his congregation.

III. THE MINISTER AND HIS VALUES

A. Findings:

1. Those churches which restrict the minister to a particular image and do not provide flexibility should anticipate problems for themselves and for the minister.
2. Response to the statement: "The expenditure of physical, mental, and emotional effort in performing ministerial duties is as natural as at play," indicates that most ministers either do not enjoy their work or believe that they shouldn't enjoy their work, or they are afraid of the word "play." (The response was 41% disagreed, 35% agreed, 24% neutral.) Investigation into the meaning of this statement for the individual minister could reveal the source of many emotional and psychosomatic difficulties.

IV. THE MINISTER AND HIS INCOME

A. Finding:

1. Salaries are a big problem for many ministers. This is the number one financial priority for the church in the mind of the majority of the ministers.

B. Evidence:

1. The statements about the relative importance of the benevolent programs of the church and salaries as compared with a similar statement given earlier to ministers in one district (Pilot Survey in the Melbourne District) indicate that most ministers want salaries to be the first priority.
2. The other statements about salaries, cost of living increases, etc., got overwhelming approval.
3. The comments written on the Survey bear out this finding.

C. Suggestions:

1. Deal realistically with salaries at all levels of the church.
2. Determine the real expectations ministers have about the material benefits of the ministry.

V. THE MINISTER AND PEOPLE

A. Finding: Many ministers do not trust people.

B. Evidence: This finding is based on a study of the response to the statement: "I feel the ministry is a lonely profession."

The opinions on this statement were:

- | | |
|----------------------|----------------------|
| 1. Strongly disagree | 68 ministers or 13% |
| 2. Disagree | 183 ministers or 34% |
| 3. Neutral | 55 ministers or 10% |
| 4. Agree | 176 ministers or 33% |
| 5. Strongly agree | 45 ministers or 9% |
| 6. Refused to answer | 7 ministers or 1% |

Only 47% disagreed with the statement. An analysis was then made of the 68 Survey returns that strongly disagreed and the 45 returns that strongly agreed to see how these men responded to the statement, "In the ministry you can only trust friends and relatives."

The response was as follows:

	Ministers who strongly disagree that the ministry is a lonely profession	Ministers who strongly agree that the ministry is a lonely profession
1. Strongly disagree	68%	15%
2. Disagree	13%	17%
3. Neutral	10%	17%

4. Agree	6%	24%
5. Strongly agree	3%	22%
0. Refused to answer	0%	5%

There is a strong correlation between lack of trust in people and loneliness in the ministry. The logical implication is that those ministers who trust people will not find the ministry to be a lonely profession, while those who do not trust people will find the ministry to be lonely.

C. Suggestions:

1. Determine why many ministers do not trust people. The first step in dealing with this serious problem is finding its cause. Is lack of trust on the part of some ministers a kind of battle wound? That is, did they trust people before entering the ministry, but experiences in the ministry have caused them not to trust now? Do some men enter the ministry looking for trust because they lack it to begin with? These kinds of questions need to be answered.
2. Encourage ministers to participate with one another in some kind of Encounter Group which would emphasize openness and trust.

VI. THE MINISTER AND HIS DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT

A. Findings:

1. Most ministers (65%) indicated no difficulty in communication with their District Superintendents. Only 21% said they have a great deal of trouble in this area. Considering the nature of the District Superintendent's job within the connectional system, this difficulty may reveal as much about the minister as a particular District Superintendent.
2. The ministers want more personal contact with their District Superintendents.

VII. THE MINISTER AND CONTINUING EDUCATION

A. Finding: Ministers want and need continuing education. This reveals a healthy readiness to do something about the needs revealed in this survey.

B. Evidence: Ministers overwhelmingly agreed with all of the statements about continuing education.

C. Suggestions:

1. Determine to what extent ministers are now engaging in continuing education.
2. Institute an extensive program of continuing education in cooperation with the cabinet.
3. Recommend more emphasis on Pastor's School as a continuing education experience.
4. Make some money available for continuing education where a clear need is indicated.

VIII. THE MINISTER AND THE APPOINTMENT/CONNECTIONAL SYSTEM

A. Finding: Many ministers feel left out of the appointment/connectional system. They want to be consulted, especially about appointments, in a meaningful way. They do not know the meaning of an "effective" minister in the eyes of the appointive system.

B. Evidence: Several of the important statements in this group would have been more revealing of ministers' feelings if they had contained different verbs. For instance, the statement, "A general policy about what constitutes 'consultation' concerning appointments should be established by the cabinet," would have been a far more effective indicator of ministers' opinions about consultation if the words "has been" or "has not been" were used instead of the words "should be." With this in mind the following evidence is presented:

1. 83% of the ministers agree with the above statement about establishing a policy on "consultation."
2. 79% agree that the Bishop and Cabinet should recognize in appointments and other matters that affect the ministers.

3. 87% agree that there should be some consultation between senior and associate ministers before appointment.

4. Only 25% of the ministers agree that "The present method of measuring a minister's effectiveness is adequate."

C. Suggestions:

1. The Cabinet could arrive at a consensus on the meaning of an "effective" minister. This could be made the subject of extensive debate in the Conference by both clergy and laity. Such open discussion would offer insight and feed-back to both the Cabinet and the ministers.

2. The Cabinet could establish and publish a definite policy about what constitutes "consultation." Dialogue groups could be held in each District with the District Superintendent concerning this definition before and after the Cabinet establishes the policy.

IX. CONCLUSIONS

The results of this Opinion Survey reflect the crisis in the ministry that is being experienced by all denominations all over the United States. The primary aspect of this crisis appears to be that of the minister's role or identity. This is true not only of younger men, but also of older men as well. Many ministers are having difficulty relating to the world of their parishioners. We may deal with part of the crisis in the ministry by considering the following:

1. We have too many professionally trained, ordained ministers for the present number of viable professional openings.
2. Most ministers have a background of academic education as preparation for the ministry while the role of the minister in the world today demands not only academic education but also training in interpersonal relationships and leadership skills.
3. Ministers in Florida are faced with low pay scales in a time when society consciously or unconsciously associates worth and value with remuneration.
4. We are a part of a system whose very foundation is faith and trust in God and Jesus Christ, yet there is evidence that lack of trust in each other is a major problem. Serious discussion of the findings of this report among the ministers of the Conference might do much to help restore trust in each other.

COMMITTEE ON QUADRENNIAL EMPHASIS

The United Methodist Church in Florida is stronger today because of the quadrennial emphasis. Unique services and opportunities are being offered through the church. Concerned churches and their ministers and laymen are finding increasing numbers of meaningful ways to respond to human needs and improving life styles.

Motivation for this increasing ministry in urban and rural areas is "The Life and Teachings of Jesus," second phase of the Quadrennial Emphasis Bible Study.

This ministry of reconciliation is being funded through the Fund for Reconciliation, and efforts of concerned people.

Churches of the Florida Conference contributed $58,179.15 to this fund from June 1, 1970 through May 4, 1971, one-half being forwarded to projects of the general church and the remaining half being retained in our Conference for projects approved by the 1970 Annual Conference. While funds have not been available to accomplish all we had hoped, tremendous things are being done for God's children.

With a budget of $45,900 for use in the Florida Conference this past year, here are brief statements concerning its use. Gainesville District Rural Ministries saw numerous rural churches uniting in a cooperative effort for more effective ministry. The Jacksonville Urban Center Pilot Project is clearly identified with the struggles and needs of low income and minority people within the Jacksonville District. "Seed money" was supplied to each of the twelve districts to assist in launching local projects of reconciliation. Because of early support from the Fund for Reconciliation, Tampa's Intensive Tutorial Project continues to grow, both numerically and financial support from the community to such an extent that surplus budgeted funds from FFR are being redirected to new and urgent pilot projects in Tampa. Five full-time volunteers have served within this Conference, supported by minimal subsistence allowances. Ft. Lauderdale's Specialized Urban Ministries was founded during this year, with already amazing accomplishments in an exciting new missionary outreach through tutor banks, summer training and enrichment programs, programs of housing re-build, drug abuse ministry, community relations, camping, intern program, black church parsonage construction, and with many more developing ministries.

In hearing the numerous requests for funds to help meet the increasing human needs, one of the most difficult tasks confronting your Conference Quadrennial Emphasis Committee came in seeking to determine which of the numerous deserving projects would be supported by the limited available funds. This year's new project recommended for your approval is in the Tallahassee District, known as Tallahassee Urban Ministry (TUM), Leon Wakulla Larger Parish, and Madison County Parish. Embodied within these proposed projects is a director of youth activities, parish director of Christian Education, ministry to senior citizens, combining of ministries of smaller churches, as well as increasing urban problems of Tallahassee.

Recommendations

A. Recommended projects and budget for the 1971-1972 conference year are:

1. Gainesville District Rural Ministry	$ 2,200
2. Jacksonville Urban Center Project	12,000

4. U.M.C. Voluntary Service	7,500
5. Ft. Lauderdale Specialized Urban Ministry	8,500
6. Tallahassee Urban Ministry	2,000
7. Research, Planning, Contingency	789

$35,289

B. That October 24, 1971 be designated "Fund for Reconciliation Sunday" and that determined efforts be made to secure increased contributions for the Fund in order to increase our conference ministries in areas of urgent human need.

THE COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE UNION

The Committee on Conference Union was created two years ago to deal with any problems that might arise as a result of our conference merger. We are exceedingly happy to report that we have not been kept busy with a multitude of problems. We are most grateful to the ministers and laymen of Florida for the splendid spirit of Christian brotherhood and cooperation which has been so much in evidence, in so many ways.

This congenial spirit has been manifested during this session, in our election of an inclusive slate of delegates to the general and jurisdictional conferences. We commend Bishop Henley for another very significant decision, the appointment of a black district superintendent. Our committee has great confidence in the ability of the man selected, the Reverend J. B. F. Williams. We are equally confident that he will be cordially received by the wonderful people of his district and the entire Florida Conference.

We are genuinely grateful for the excellent progress that has been made in Christian unity. We are confident it shall continue!

RECOMMENDATIONS BY THE "COMMITTEE OF NINE" CONCERNING THE CONFERENCE FEASIBILITY STUDY FOR FLORIDA UNITED METHODIST HIGHER EDUCATION

Having reviewed the Marts & Lundy report and having shared in our deliberations with the Cabinet of the Annual Conference, the "Committee of Nine" in session on Friday, April 16, 1971, unanimously approved the following motions:

The "Committee of Nine" recommends approval by the Program Council of a special gifts campaign structured as outlined by Marts & Lundy and suggesting the Annual Conference Year 1971-72 as the time for this campaign. We further recommend that the goal be established between $2,000,000 and $4,000,000.

The "Committee of Nine" recommends the establishment of a steering committee to be composed of 15 members selected as follows:

- 5 to be named by the Bishop and the Cabinet
- 5 to be named by the Chairman of the Board and the President of Florida Southern College
- 5 to be named by the Chairman of the Board and the President of Bethune-Cookman College.

The recommendations of the Committee of Nine were approved in full by the members of the Program Council and will be directed to the Annual Conference in June 1971 for its consideration and action.

SUMMARY OF THE FUND-RAISING SURVEY REPORT PREPARED BY MARTS & LUNDY, INC. WHICH WAS PRESENTED TO THE PROGRAM COUNCIL ON SATURDAY, APRIL 16, 1971

I. STATISTICS

- 1,753 ministers and laymen attended 12 district survey meetings.
- 1,509 completed questionnaires
- 68 ministers and laymen were personally interviewed

II. ANALYSIS OF REPLIES TO SURVEY QUESTIONS

We know there are many methods used to raise funds within a group of churches, but in the survey we presented a campaign which has been most successful in our experience, so that those attending the survey meetings or personally interviewed could react to that particular plan. Both the direct replies to the specific questions and the comments received were considered.

Of those who completed questionnaires and were interviewed thirty-six percent approved the campaign plan. This is below the range of replies in similar surveys.

The comments were nearly evenly divided between the approval of a special gifts campaign and the disapproval of person-to-person visits in each congregation; 101 were favorable toward a special gifts campaign and 116 disapproved the person-to-person plan.

The laymen personally interviewed approved the campaign plan seventy percent which is within the range. This is significant because these were selected individuals with a potential to make a special gift.

There is approval for the special gifts phase even by those who disapproved the total plan; twenty percent of those who disapproved the total plan expressed a desire for a special gifts campaign.

The results from the survey meetings and the personal interviews plus the additional information supplied by the Conference and the two Colleges formed the base for our conclusions and the recommendations for a special gifts campaign.

III. CONCLUSIONS

The conclusions are based on the responses relating to four basic questions:

1. Is there a need which is readily recognized by the members as urgent? Do these members feel these needs should be met in order to maintain and improve the institutions and programs?
 2. Is there a constituency with the giving ability to meet the needs?
 3. Are the members ready to give and to work to meet the needs?
 4. What steps are required to stimulate the maximum interest and insure the maximum financial return?
1. We conclude that an educational program by the combined efforts of the Conference leaders and the leaders of the two Colleges is first priority. We arrive at this conclusion because of the confusion in the minds of the people to whom the program was presented during the survey.
 2. We conclude that there must be more discussion among all concerned and agreement on the priorities.
 3. We conclude that there should be arrangements for designated giving.
 4. We conclude that the Conference has the leadership of the ministers of the leading churches, the District Superintendents and laymen of the two Colleges who are willing to lead these Colleges to greater achievement. We conclude the need for the combined involvement of these leaders. A willingness to give follows involvement and commitment to a program which is well-managed and directed for the institutions in which these leaders believe.
 5. We conclude that The Florida Methodist Conference together with the combined efforts of Bethune-Cookman College and Florida Southern College can raise between $2,000,000 and $6,000,000 under the present circumstances. This could probably reach the higher amount if a thorough and well-organized educational program is conducted and a detailed search for and cultivation of special gift prospects followed by an unusually careful special gifts solicitation.

IV. RECOMMENDATIONS

In making our recommendations we have taken into consideration the following:

The two Colleges have needs in addition to the needs presented during the survey. That these needs were listed in the resource material which was distributed during the survey. That The Florida Methodist Conference presently includes in its budget annual support for the two Colleges. That the Boards of Trustees, alumni and friends of the two Colleges are prospects for the support of the two Colleges many of whom have contributed generously to the College of their choice. That the districts and local congregations also have needs which must be considered. That this program should attempt to meet the needs of the two Colleges without financial loss to the annual program, and by its example and assistance improve the giving in the local churches and their support of the Conference.

A. CAMPAIGN LEADERSHIP

1. We recommend that a steering committee be formed including representatives from The Florida Methodist Conference and the Board of Trustees from the two Colleges. Representatives from the "Committee of Nine" should also be included on this committee in addition to the other representatives.

a. A leading layman, well-known and respected, should be enlisted to head the committee.

b. Responsibilities would include decisions on needs, campaign promotion, procedures, staffing, etc. covered in this section. Implementation would be after consultation and in cooperation with Conference Boards, Boards of Trustees of the two Colleges, District Superintendents and their Boards or committees.

2. We recommend that each district form a representative committee of the district and the two Colleges with the responsibility for policy decisions and implementation of the program in the district and among the constituencies of the two Colleges within the district.

B. THE NEEDS AND THE OBJECTIVE

1. We recommend that the Steering Committee review the total list of needs of the two Colleges and determine those needs to be included in the specific list totaling $6,000,000. There are other needs in the lists of the two Colleges, they should be projected as long-term objectives, and the Committee should determine the fund-raising method to be used to meet these needs.

a. The Committee should carefully review each need on the lists to be certain it can be documented, justified and supported by the Conference and the other constituencies of the two Colleges.

b. We consider $6,000,000 to be raised by the Conference and the two Colleges a very substantial objective. The degree of success in reaching this total will be determined by the willingness of the three groups—Conference leaders and the leaders of the two Colleges—to work together in a spirit of cooperation and determination to strengthen and support Bethune-Cookman and Florida Southern. The caliber of leadership willing to assume this responsibility will be a deciding factor in the degree of success. The acceptance of the needs selected by the potential donors naturally follows as a prerequisite for success.

C. EDUCATION AND INTERPRETATION

1. We recommend that a strong educational program be instituted to obtain the maximum understanding of the relevance and urgency of the needs to the future of Christian Higher Education in The Florida Methodist Conference. Not only must the needs be carefully explained in terms of people to be served, but also the best way to fund the work must be understood.

2. We recommend that you plan a series of information meetings for special gift prospects, the ministers of the leading churches, the alumni, parents and friends of the two Colleges and for district leaders before any request for funds.

3. We recommend that you develop brochures, visual aids, a film-strip, newsletters and other printed materials to adequately present the needs.

4. We recommend that you make maximum use of existing media within the Conference, publications of the two Colleges, and channels of communications with District Superintendents, district leaders, ministers and laymen.

D. SPECIAL GIFTS

1. We recommend that a state wide special gifts committee be enlisted to seek gifts from a selected few individuals who might be in a position to make very substantial contributions. This committee should be composed of leading Methodists and members of the Boards of Trustees, alumni and friends of the two Colleges. A prominent and influential layman should be enlisted as chairman. He should be requested to add a few committee members who are capable and willing to seek the leadership type gifts.

a. We recommend that this committee together with the two College Presidents initiate discussions with a few close friends of the Conference or the Colleges who are in a position to make very substantial gifts.

2. We recommend that a special gifts committee be organized in each district and the local communities of each College, similar to the state-wide committee in membership and responsibilities to seek substantial gifts in their districts and communities. The efforts of the state-wide committee and the district and community committees should be coordinated by a campaign staff member.

3. We recommend that all special gifts be credited to the donor's various categories—district, congregation, alumni organization and class, parent or friend group—unless he wishes otherwise.

To date the number of potentially large donors is relatively small. Seeking such donors must be done with the help of Conference leaders, District Superintendents, members of the Boards, the Presidents and the Development Directors of the two Colleges plus the ministers. All concerned must approve and cooperate in the gathering of names and the solicitation of gifts. This is a slow process, but undoubtedly there are individuals with substantial giving ability who will recognize and respond to the opportunity to provide leadership in giving.

E. COMMUNITY AND ALUMNI

1. We recommend that campaigns be conducted among the alumni, parents and friends of the two Colleges and within their local communities.

F. DESIGNATIONS

1. We recommend that the Steering Committee agree on a policy for designated gifts and the distribution of undesignated receipts.

G. DEFERRED GIFTS AND ESTATE PLANNING

1. We recommend that the Conference, through the Florida Methodist Foundation, Inc., and the two Colleges initiate, as a part of the proposed program, an intensive effort to discover and personally contact individuals for bequests, life income contracts and other deferred giving plans. This would be a continuing program and would provide one way to help meet the immediate need for endowment income and eventually some of the long-range needs.

H. STAFF AND FUND-RAISING COUNSEL

1. We recommend that the Conference designate a director to serve as liaison between the Conference, the two Colleges and the resident campaign director.

2. We recommend the appointment of a director of information.

3. We recommend that Mr. Mead F. Rogers, Jr. and Mr. Harry L. Burney, Jr. be assigned to give full time to this program.

4. We recommend that you retain fund counsel to supply you with a full-time resident campaign director for a period of about twelve months.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

WHEREAS, our spirits have been renewed by the messages both in word and in music, our minds and hearts challenged by the reports given and recommendations made for the coming year; and

Whereas, the total experience of our conference has been strengthened by guest speakers, choirs, groups from local congregations and others too numerous to mention; and

Whereas, Florida Southern College has extended through its president, Dr. Charles T. Thrift, Jr., the hospitality of the campus, and the Program Committee led by Dr. Ralph Huston has thoughtfully prepared a comprehensive and all encompassing program; and

Whereas, Bishop James W. Henley has guided us with dignity and a sense of profound understanding;

Be It Therefore Resolved that both clerical and lay delegates to this 129th session of the Florida Annual Conference go on record as extending our sincere gratitude to each person who has made this session a success, and that we give thanks to Almighty God for his guidance in the past and the assurance of his continuing love.

THAXTON SPRINGFIELD

Thaxton Springfield was a man with a passionate concern to bring life and faith together. In his mind they could not exist apart so he struggled to put flesh and blood on the bones of creed and doctrine and immerse them in our common life. He had the clear vision to see that the great doctrines of our faith; Creation, Crucifixion, Resurrection, Redemption, spoke to the actual human situation. They were God's gifts to the frailties and failures of our common life. With one hand he held firmly to life as it is, being neither naive nor simplistic. With the other he held strongly to the faith that God could and would bring rich and radical changes to one life or a whole world. He pulled at these two things to bring them together and the strain was often visible in him and audible in his sermons.

His own life was the best evidence of his success. There are also countless numbers of us who learned from him that you do not have to turn away from life to have faith but you turn toward it and embrace it with hope, and life and God will embrace you. It was his kind of piety that convinced many of us that we, too, could live by faith.

In the biblical sense he was a man who often swore to his own hurt and thus fought with himself or expended himself far past his own self interest. But he had come to the conclusion that the crucifixion was at the heart of the Christian faith and that God was best known to us through a love that expended itself; he therefore choose to do the same.

He was born in Sulligent, Ala. on Nov. 20, 1915 and died on July 22, 1970. He is survived by his wife, Molly, and five sons, Thaxton, Jr., Dempsey, Whitley, Jimmie, and Emory. He is loved and remembered by innumerable friends who found themselves and God through his ministry and friendship.

GENE ZIMMERMAN

JOHN MORELAND SIKES

"Let's Get With It!"

It is significant that the cover message of the October 11, 1970 bulletin of First United Methodist Church of Fort Myers bore this title. It was the last such message that John Moreland Sikes wrote for his congregation, and it was typical of his ministry of thirty years in the Florida Conference. Looking inside that bulletin, one found a sermon subject that must have served as a companion message to the one on the cover: "A Backward Look—A Forward Thrust," and it was based on the Scripture Lesson found in Luke 9: 57-62. John Sikes was calling his people to action! A great past was something to glorify, to be sure, but First Church's true greatness was yet to be realized. And realization of such a splendid destiny could come about only through total commitment to Jesus Christ.

Throughout his ministry this call had been John's theme song. It was the motivation that drove him to his knees in prayer and impelled him to spend endless hours laboring for the Kingdom of God. Thus his life was characterized by a unique combination of deep piety and social vision, eventuating in the fervent desire to get on with the work to which our Lord has called us. Sometimes this desire assumed the spirit of impatience, when committees failed to act decisively, or when individuals who were slow to catch the vision indulged in a bit of holy foot-dragging. Prayer vigils and committee meetings were no good unless they resulted in the "forward thrust" that John preached about on the morning of October 11, 1970.

There is no phase of the Christian ministry in which John Sikes did not discharge his responsibilities with excellence. He was an able and persuasive preacher of the Gospel. He was a thorough and competent administrator of the affairs of the Church. He was warmly and effectively evangelistic in every aspect of his ministry. He was an articulate and powerful debater on the conference floor. Most important of all, however, he was a faithful pastor, who loved people, and who never recovered from the wonderment that God had called him to be a preacher.

How does God produce a man like John Moreland Sikes? You have to go back to a little village in Columbia County, Florida, to find an answer to that question. It was there, in Fort White, that John was born on July 16, 1917, the red-haired son of John Moreland and Mary Sikes. Surrounded by all of the influences that can make a growing boy aware of God, he spent his boyhood and youth in that community. A Christian home, godly parents, the fields and streams of God's beautiful out of doors, a tiny country church served by a succession of dedicated pastors, all of those factors left their indelible imprint upon John Sikes' personality. He could speak of a "conversion experience," when he accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Savior; but he could also describe the importance in his life of the way of constant spiritual nurture. Add it all up and you get the inevitable result—a winsome young Christian whom God called into the ministry.

John was graduated from Asbury College and the Candler School of Theology. On November 8, 1941, he was married to Florence Weldon in Hopkinsville, Kentucky. Throughout his ministry Florence created the kind of atmosphere in the parsonage that sharpened John's effectiveness as a minister. Three wonderful children came to make life in the Sikes home happier—John Larry, Walter Moreland, and Virginia Ruth. As a family, the Sikes gave a commendable witness to the Christian faith.

John and Florence Sikes began their ministry at the Reddick Methodist Church in 1941. Other appointments include Dunnellon, Tarpon Springs, Pompano Beach, and Southside in Jacksonville. Prior to his assignment to First Church, Fort Myers, John provided six years of creative leadership as Superintendent of the Gainesville District.

John gave faithful and effective service to several Florida Conference Boards. At the time of his death he was vice chairman of the Conference Council. Perhaps he will be remembered best for his remarkable leadership in effecting the historic merger of the Florida Conference, Central Jurisdiction, and the Florida Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction. Loved and respected by the members of both groups, John was chairman of the Advisory Council on Inter-Jurisdictional Affairs, which provided guidance in the merger.

When one tries to analyze the whole spectrum of John Sikes' ministry, there is one quality that seems to account for his greatness. In all things he demonstrated in his daily life the adequacy of the Christian faith. To be in his presence caused one to desire to be a better person.

John became ill after that eventful Sunday, October 11, at First Church, Fort Myers. He entered into the Father's House early the next afternoon, October 12, 1970. A worship service, conducted by Bishop James W. Henley, was held in the sanctuary of the First United Methodist Church of Fort Myers on October 15, 1970. Bishop Henley was assisted in the service by the Rev. Charles Hamilton, District Superintendent of the Sarasota District, and the Rev. C. Durward McDonell, Pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Miami. Several hundred laymen and pastors filled the sanctuary and later accompanied the family to Memorial Gardens, in Fort Myers, for the graveside service. John's body was laid to rest in the "Garden of Prayer," just a few feet away from a statue of Christ Praying in the Garden.

But, in death as in life, John Sikes would say, "Let's get on with the work of the Kingdom!"

C. DURWARD McDONELL

HOWARD ROSS PORTER

Howard Ross Porter, a Native of Florida, was born in Daytona Beach, October 3, 1914. Late in life, after he had already become successful at his trade as a painter, God laid His hand upon Howard and called him into the special work of the Ministry of the Church.

Feeling this Call and his need to prepare for it, he entered Florida Southern College from which he was graduated. Even while he was a student at Florida Southern, he served the Churches at Lake Placid and Lake Alfred. Upon graduation, he served as Pastor at Cocoa Beach and Zellwood and then became a student at Duke Divinity School as further preparation for the Ministry. Upon completion of his work there he was appointed to the Livingston Memorial Church in Daytona Beach; then to Bunnell and to Immokalee. He was received on Trial in the Florida Conference in 1957 and into Full Connection in 1959.

In 1968 he was appointed to First Church, Clewiston, where he was serving in a most commendable manner at the time of his death. In November, 1970, after preaching his Thanksgiving sermon, Howard became ill and the next week, went to the hospital in Clewiston. As he gradually grew worse, he was moved from Clewiston to the Good Samaritan Hospital in West Palm Beach, where surgery was performed; and, then to Jackson Memorial, in Miami. But after Surgeons, Doctors and Nurses had done all in their power, death came as the only relief from his suffering. He passed away, December 28 and Memorial Services were held, December 31 in his Church in Clewiston which he had served so faithfully for 2½ years. His District Superintendent, Dr. Lewis N. Head, conducted the service, assisted by a neighboring Pastor, The Rev. Fred Stinson of Belle Glade. His body was taken back to the place of his birth and laid to rest in the Bellevue Memorial Park, Daytona, Beach.

Howard was married to Vivian Bryan at Grand Canyon, Arizona, where they met when he was working there at his trade as a painter and she was attending school nearby. They had two sons, Ross Bryan, who is married and lives in Daytona Beach, and Paul Howard, who is a student at Florida Southern College. There are two Grandchildren.

During his active Ministry, Howard, in his quiet, unassuming manner, wherever he served, got the job done and done well. Like the Master, whom he tried to serve, he "loved the Church and gave himself for it and to it." He was thoroughly dedicated to his Calling and wherever he was appointed, he did his best to uphold his Christ and advance the Kingdom through his church. His real achievements are not shown in the statistical columns of the Annual Conference Reports, but in the hearts and lives of the people whom he served. He loved people and was a good Pastor to them.

On the Sunday following his death, there appeared in the bulletin of the Church in Clewiston, where he last served, the following tribute to his life and ministry which shows the love and esteem in which he was held by those who knew him best:

"Reverend Howard Porter—a great servant of the Lord—spent his relatively short ministry with us continually doing his best to convince each of us that the biggest thing we have the opportunity of knowing is the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. He realized how exceedingly casual nearly all of us regard the marvelous, infinite love of our God! Reverend Porter conducted each of his services in a manner that made us conscious of the presence of Christ; that Christ was sitting with us, and was anxious to go home with us. Certainly, we'll miss him, but let us demonstrate by precept and example that his ministry to us was fruitful."

After all, what more could anyone say about a faithful servant of the Lord?

LEWIS N. HEAD

ROBINSON IRA BARNETT

Robinson Ira Barnett, son of the beloved Robert Howren and Sarah Epper-son Barnett, was born at Stafford's Pond, near the present town of Williston, Florida, on November 21, 1876, and died at his home in Lakeland on September 23, 1970 after a long, useful and inspiring term of service in the ministry of The Methodist Church.

Reared in a godly parsonage home, and nurtured in the Wesleyan tradition, he united with the Methodist Church at an early age. He answered the call to preach and was licensed to preach at a district conference in Melrose in 1896. In 1900 he graduated from the Florida Conference College (the predecessor to Florida Southern College), and he was among the very few ministers in our Conference in that day to earn the Bachelor of Divinity degree—having graduated from the seminary of Vanderbilt University in 1904. The Doctor of Divinity degree was conferred upon him by Florida

Southern College in 1927. He was admitted on trial in the Florida Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South in 1903, and was received into full connection in 1906.

He was married to Miss Beulah Agnes Wilson at the First Methodist Church of Bartow on November 20, 1907. Three children were born of this union, Vida, Elizabeth and Hoyt. Ill health on the part of Vida made it necessary for Brother Barnett to transfer to the Denver Conference for four years during which time she recovered sufficiently for him to return to his home state and conference.

The appointments served by this son and grandson of Methodist itinerants were: Sutherland Mission, Lake City, West Palm Beach, Colorado Springs, Perry, the Ocala District, Riverside Park, Jacksonville, the Orlando District, the Miami District, and Executive Secretary of the Board of Education, which office he held for twenty-one years. During most of his twenty-one years of retirement he gave effective service throughout the connection, in his conference and in his local church.

His memorial service was held at Temple Methodist Church, Lakeland, on September 25, 1970, with the following persons participating: The Reverend Lee Pearson, his pastor, The Reverend Henry W. Blackburn, Miss Eulalie Ginn and Miss Vivian Postell. Survivors include: his widow Beulah Wilson Barnett, a daughter Elizabeth Adams, a son Hoyt W., a sister Miss Loulie, two brothers, Doak and Henry, and grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Dr. Barnett represented the Methodist itinerancy at its best. He had a pastor's heart so he was a tender and faithful shepherd to all his parishioners, and he carried this fine quality into his ministry as a presiding elder. He was esteemed and respected by his fellow ministers and the adults in his congregations; admired by the many young people whom he befriended and challenged; and beloved by the children who responded to his devoted pastoral care.

He had the enthusiasm and earnestness of an evangelist and this was finely balanced by his knowledge and skill as a teacher, so he was an effective and forthright gospel preacher . . . welcomed in any pulpit in our Conference. He was a natural-born Methodist . . . a true son of John Wesley . . . a superior administrator! It was not by accident that he was chosen to head up the educational program of our Conference for more than two decades, for he had demonstrated his gifts and ability as an educator and leader in the local church school and as a district director of education. His work as an executive secretary of the Board of Education was unexcelled anywhere in American Methodism.

Dr. Barnett was in demand throughout connectional Methodism as an instructor in training schools and as a counselor at educational conferences; he made valuable contributions to our periodicals, and he gave leadership to important boards, commissions and agencies in the field of missions, evangelism, temperance and education. He rendered distinguished service at the Lake Junaluska Assembly, as editor of The Florida Advocate, as a delegate to the General Conference of his denomination, as president of the Executive Secretaries of Education and president of the National Methodist Conference on Education, but perhaps his crowning achievement was the development of Florida Methodism's program for local church and college youth throughout the state, which will reflect his influence for generations to come. He was the dominant force behind the development of the Youth Camp at Leesburg where the main building is very appropriately named for him. I have often said that I believe more good is accomplished with Methodist youth at that camp each summer than in any other place in the world.

In his so-called years of retirement he gave valuable service in setting up Methodism's program for older adults and in the establishing of "Mature Years" as a publication in that field. He was the first person to teach an accredited course in that area, and was influential in proposing the plan to hold conference-wide meetings for senior citizens throughout the denomination.

If our Conference has been better prepared for mergers and unions with other denominations and races than some others I believe it is due in part to the godly example and wise leadership of this ecumenically minded servant of the church. At our youth camps and assemblies years ago our young people were being prepared for these days.

Dr. Barnett was a happy and a victorious Christian. There was a radiance about his countenance that was unmistakably Christlike. He was the kind of man of whom it could be said "This man's religion is real!" Whatever it is that enables one Christian to recognize genuine Christianity in another . . . he had it! And whatever it is about a Christian that makes a non-Christian want what he has . . . he had just that! What for so many seems intermittent . . . seemed in him to be quite continuous. We would do well to ponder this man's life, and we should try to bring into the confusion and uncertainties of our day something of the radiance, joy, hopefulness and faith of this mature Christian.

How do we account for such a useful life? I think Paul gives us the clue in the third chapter of his Epistle to the Colossians when he said "Your life is hid with Christ in God"! There is the secret of his success. Ira Barnett was a surrendered man . . . irretrievably committed to Christ, and to the very end he was a faithful and effective witness for his Master.

HENRY W. BLACKBURN

ARTHUR COLEMAN RIVIERE

Arthur Coleman Riviere was born in Alachua County, Florida on January 8, 1895, and received his final appointment to the Father's House on October 26, 1970 while a patient in Morton Plant Hospital, Clearwater. He was the son of Godly parents, Henry Lawson and Martha Ann Riviere. His mother's prayer was that he would be a minister.

The family moved to Sutherland in 1902. At an early age he gave his heart to God and felt the call to preach under the ministry of Rev. R. F. Hodnett, who was the minister at old Southern College at Sutherland (now Palm Harbor) and also pastor of Curlew Methodist Church near by. He attended Southern College, graduating in 1920. While a senior he became a Student Volunteer desiring to be sent to the mission field. But because of some change in the policy of the Mission Board, he was unable to go and became a minister in the Florida Conference.

After graduating from Southern College he attended Emory University and received his Bachelor of Divinity Degree in 1923. His first full-time appointment was at Pierson.

While attending Emory University, he met Miss Minnie Womack, a teacher in the Atlanta Public Schools whom he married September 8, 1925, in the Emory Theological Chapel. She served faithfully beside her husband through his entire ministry as a homemaker and companion. She was devoted to him, his church and his Lord. She and two adopted children, Herbert Riviere and Edith R. Johnson survive him. Mrs. Riviere now resides at Dunedin where they have had a home for some years.

His second appointment was to Bonita Springs-Naples. At Naples he was instrumental in building a church, the first ever built in that area. Other churches he served were: New Port Richey, Stuart, Largo, Tarboux Memorial in Miami and Key West. At Key West (1940-44) he served well the needs of his congregation as well as a large contingent of service personnel at the Navy Base. From Key West he moved to Madison and to Cocoa in 1946. While at Cocoa his health was not good and during the conference year 1949-50 he took Sabbatical leave. The next year, 1950-51, he served at Euclid Avenue Church in St. Petersburg, and in 1951-52 he held a supernumerary relationship. Brother Arthur retired in 1952 because of health reasons. During the years from 1952-1967 he underwent four major operations. However, he was able to serve as a retired supply for some years. He served the Spring Lake church 1952-54 and at Oldsmar 1954-56. The next four years he served the Dunedin Methodist Church as a part-time visiting minister. In 1960 he organized Union Street Methodist Church of Dunedin and served as interim pastor for a short time. In July 1967 Brother Riviere's health began to fail and continued deteriorating until he sustained a fall on August 31, 1970. He remained hospitalized until his death October 26, 1970.

Funeral services were held in the beautiful new Curlew United Methodist Church October 28, 1970, conducted by Dr. Gaylon Howe, Superintendent of the St. Petersburg District, assisted by Rev. Edison Russell and Rev. R. J. Sharp. His body was tenderly laid to rest in Curlew Cemetery on the morning of October 28, 1970, beside those of his mother, father and brother.

Arthur Riviere was a Christian gentleman of the highest order. He stood up bravely for what he thought was right. He served well the churches to which he was appointed and in almost every instance left behind him improvements to the physical property as well as a deep spiritual enrichment in the lives of his members. His prayers were a blessing and inspiration to those who heard. He considered it a great privilege to serve as a Methodist minister and preached in the tradition of the Wesleys to the best of his ability. There is so much about the life of Brother Riviere that could be said and yet is so difficult to put into words. How can you express how deeply you have appreciated friendship and constructive advice which has come your way over the major portion of your adult life? You feel the deep devotion of friend to friend and yet the inability to express it adequately to another. It is sort of like trying to explain the presence of God, you can't see it but you know it is there and are grateful. Brother Riviere was the pastor under whose ministry I was called to preach. For the last twenty-five years I have counted him as a very close friend. I feel that Florida Methodism has lost one of its truly great men of God, one who lived his faith as expressed in a life of service within the doctrines and discipline of the Methodist Church.

To my mind come two verses of scripture when I think of Arthur Riviere: Joshua 24:15, "Choose ye this day whom ye will serve . . . as for me and my house we will serve the Lord." This he did faithfully and well during his 47 years as a Methodist minister. And Matthew 25:23, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." I feel our Lord welcomed him to his final appointment with these words.

With the words of John Wesley at the funeral service of George Wakefield, may we take leave of our Brother, Arthur Coleman Riviere, holding dear in memory the friendship and love of this man of God:

"Servant of God well done,
Thy glorious warfare's past
The battle's fought, the race won,
And thou are crowned at last.
Of all thy heart's desire,
Triumphantly possessed,
Lodged by the great angelic Choir,
In thy Redeemer's breast."

CHARLES EUGENE BRANTLY, JR.

Charles Eugene Brantly, Jr. was born in Atlanta, Georgia, July 12, 1905. He married Venia Odell McElroy, December 24, 1927, at Kelley's Chapel Methodist Church in Decatur, Georgia. After several years of marriage, Charlie felt the call to the ministry, so he and his wife attended Westminster, Maryland Theological Seminary, where he graduated in 1934, and was Ordained into the North Georgia Conference.

His first pastorates were: 1934-1939 at Victory, Bowden, Union and Kelley's Chapel Churches. During this time his only child, Charline, was born.

From 1939-1943 he served Dunwoody and Winter's Chapel Churches, and 1945 Chamblee Methodist Church.

In 1945 he transferred into the Florida Conference, serving Apalachicola

Methodist Church until 1949. From 1949-1951 at Chattahoochee, 1951-1952 Groveland, Florida. At this time his health began to fail, so he retired on advice of his physician, and returned to Decatur, Georgia where he resided, and in June 1953, he retired from the Florida Church Conference.

On January 28, 1971, Charlie Brantly returned to his Heavenly Home after an acute illness of some few months. Funeral services were held in Decatur, Georgia and he was buried at his home church—Kelley's Chapel Methodist, Decatur, Georgia.

Charlie was an active participant in the Ousley Methodist Church and the ministers of that church, the Reverend George O. Greene, the Reverend Sydney W. Whiteman, along with a long time friend, the Reverend N. O. L. Powell, conducted the final rites.

In 1934 Charlie marked these words down as the motto of his life, "To live in the hearts we leave behind is not to die." Those who knew and loved Charlie Brantly know that he left a good deal of himself with those whom he served and worked, and he lives in the hearts of his family and his friends forever.

EDITH WEBB TOUCHTON

Edith Webb Touchton was born in Muskogee, Oklahoma, January 15, 1905, and was transferred to The Father's House July 28, 1970. Edith was the daughter of a pioneer Methodist Minister, John S. Webb, New Mexico and North West Texas Conferences.

She was educated at Texas Wesleyan College, Ft. Worth, Texas, and Scarritt College, Nashville, Tennessee. She was Consecrated a Deaconess in the Methodist Church in 1930 and served under the Woman's Division at West Tampa, Florida for three years.

She was married to the Rev. Joseph Paul Touchton, July 31, 1933 and together they ministered in Lakeland, Albany, and Edison, Georgia; Ybor City in Tampa, Florida for a total of Ten Years in the Spanish Ministry. They have served churches in High Springs; Key West; Madison; Silver Palm; Springfield and Aldersgate in Jacksonville, and since retirement, Wesley United Methodist Church, as Minister of Visitation, Jacksonville, Fla.

To their union were born two daughters, Mrs. Sam Halverson, Lemmon, S. D., and Dr. Mary Jewel Touchton, Carrolton, Georgia. They have two foster daughters, Mrs. Martha Hall and Miss Betti Hamilton, both of Atlanta, Georgia, and two grandchildren, Sammy and Shannon Halverson. In addition to their family, they have given a home to many numbering into the forties, or more, some of which were with her at the end. She also leaves behind one sister, Mrs. Ernest Hutto, Ft. Worth, Texas, two brothers, John W. Webb, Houston, Texas and Bishop Lance Webb, Illinois Area of The United Methodist Church.

Among her many virtues was her deep love for little children and, more so, for the underprivileged. She and Brother Paul named their retirement home, "The Touchton International House," and its doors have never been shut to anyone in need.

In her latter years, sickness had bound her activities and she was in bondage to an ill flesh. She continued to have a burning message to tell about Jesus and what He had done for her, and what He could do for others. She was under pressure to serve where the need seemed to be the greatest, she found opportunities of service where countless thousands overlooked—she had a deep burning of the Commission of Jesus in her heart to go into all the world to serve people. . . . She had an anointing of the Holy Spirit on her life that made her the most unselfish person I've ever known, she had an ordination of the pierced hands of our dear Saviour and could not be physically bound by an ill flesh. As Jesus called out to Lazarus yonder in Bethany on that eventful day, "Lazarus, Come forth," He followed that command with, "Loose him, and let him go." This is what happened on that Tuesday morning at 5:45 A.M.—"He loosed her and let her go." She is free to serve again, she will no longer be bound by physical throes, her hands will never be bound that she cannot serve, her feet will never be bound that she cannot walk those streets prepared by our Heavenly Father, and she will never be bound that she cannot shed the radiance of Jesus Christ. She was born to serve!

Her memorial service was held at Wesley United Methodist Church, in Jacksonville, Florida, July 30, 1970 at 11:00 A.M. with the Rev. Eugene Pelt; Dr. M. McCoy Gibbs, Jacksonville District Superintendent; Mr. Rick Bonfim, Student, Atlanta, Georgia; Bishop Lance Webb, Illinois Area; and her pastor, the Rev. Damon S. Scott, with her pastor and Bishop Webb giving the eulogy. Her body was laid to rest in beautiful Evergreen Cemetery in The Bold New City of the South, Jacksonville, Florida.

To best sum-up her life and labors is expressed in a poem written to her by one of her dear friends, Mrs. James Foret;

"Oh Lord, Let me, I pray, put into words what I have to say,
About a lady who touched me so, in words, works, and deeds, you know!

Whose very life was an inspiration to one and all across the nation,
She made me feel that Jesus was very near, If I should pray, He would be here!

Her life, her actions were more than a gift,
When I felt depressed she gave me a lift!

I feel I'm a better person today, all because she came my way!"

The life and labors of such a lady as Edith Webb Touchton are certainly a rich heritage—the world is better because of her efforts and service, and her godly influence will never be forgotten by those many lives she touched in her journey of life.

EDNA HAZEL MORROW ELDER

Edna Hazel Morrow Elder was born September 19, 1884 in Mercer County, Pennsylvania. She was one of ten children born to the Morrrows. She and Reverend J. H. Elder were married, December 25, 1905 in Warren, Ohio. They were blessed with two daughters, Mrs. Frances Ruth Gibbons and Miss Elma Elder. She had one granddaughter, Hazel Ruth Ziers.

Reverend and Mrs. Elder served at Mount Dora from 1925 to 1931; at Hialeah from 1932 to 1933; and at South Miami from 1934 to 1940, after which they retired. After retirement they served Davie for six years and then organized and worked in the Opa Locka Church for two years. They received into membership one hundred people. The Elders did a fine work at Opa Locka in organizing that splendid congregation by visiting from house to house. Frances, their daughter played the organ in that church. This was the first church building to be built in Opa Locka. During their stay at Davie, the end of the war came and she rejoiced by ringing the church bell, that our men were coming home. While they were at the Hialeah Church, water got into the parsonage, so they had to move to Miami Springs. Mrs. Elder worked in the church and was a big help to her husband by playing the piano and teaching Sunday School Classes.

One of the first memories I have of the Elders was during my pastorate at South Miami. It was during the days of the Ladies Aid, in which she served and organized groups. They came for a covered dish dinner, which the Ladies Aid was having, followed by sewing.

Mrs. Elder had a good sense of humor and got a lot out of life. To her, religious work was not dull. One of her friends said of her, that she was loyal to the Methodist Church and loved all phases of it and wanted it to prosper. She gave her life in service to it, seeing that her money went in every Sunday, as well as supporting the women's work in the church and helping people when they were sick. She and her husband were especially interested in two women in Eustis, whom they helped to sell their house. These ladies remembered the Elders in their will and with this they purchased the home that she lived in and enjoyed so much. She loved to do her housework and cooking. She and her daughter, Elma, enjoyed doing things for each other. She liked to do her wash and was disappointed when she could not do it before going to the hospital.

She was a Greater Miami resident for 39 years and a member of the Tamiami Temple at the time of death. She was very proud, when the Tamiami Temple was remodeled and a pew was given in her honor by her daughters. She wanted to be there that day. She donated money for the erection of the Education Building at Tamiami and gave many helpful suggestions to help the church run more smoothly.

After a long illness, she died in South Miami Hospital on June 29, 1970. Funeral Services were held at Combs Funeral Home in Miami, and interment was at Woodlawn Cemetery. The pall bearers were pastors of churches the Elders had served; Reverend Ralph Jones, of the Opa Locka Church; Reverend Leo King, of the South Miami Church; Reverend Lee Rustin, of the Hialeah Church; and Doctor Hoyt Tatum, District Superintendent of the Miami District. Conducting the services was John A. Briley, a friend of the family for twenty-six years. Those assisting from the church where she held her membership, were Reverend Carl Stewart and Reverend Lloyd Knox.

At the end when she was in the hospital, she didn't want to be any trouble to anyone. Once she thought she saw Brother Elder waiting for her and another time she had a vision of a street lined with fruit trees in bloom. She was ready and expectant to the end. Death was not something to fear, but to be received of God.

MRS. LOUIS E. PATMORE

Margaret Lenhart Patmore was born on December 5, 1925, at Elrama, Pennsylvania. Her parents, now residents of Fort Pierce, Florida, are Mr. and Mrs. Jesse D. Lenhart. While a student at Eastern College, Allentown, Pennsylvania, she met Louis E. Patmore, whom she married on June 7, 1945. Three children were born to their union, a son, Jesse Dewayne, and two daughters, Patricia Louise and Dawn Elizabeth. Death came to Margaret on December 30, 1970, after an illness of over two years. She had spent much time in the hospital, but toward the end, by her own request, she remained at her parsonage home until her death.

Memorial services were conducted at Trinity Church, St. Petersburg, January 2, 1971. Bishop James W. Henley preached the sermon, with the District Superintendent presiding. The Rev. George Bourn and the Rev. Ezra Hall assisted in the service. Members of Trinity Church, and a host of friends, gathered at the church to express their love and sympathy to the bereaved family. Interment was at Hillcrest Memorial Gardens, Ft. Pierce, with the Rev. Harold Thomas officiating.

Her patience during her long illness, and her strength through her suffering, gave to all of us who knew her an unforgettable witness of her Christian faith. Margaret possessed an inner peace and assurance which seemed even more evident when her waning physical strength made her days more difficult. Her life expressed the truth of her favorite Biblical promise:

“. . . You are my servant, I have chosen you and not cast you off; fear not, for I am with you, be not dismayed, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my victorious right hand." (Isa. 41:9b and 10)

Her love for Christ and participation in the church began in her youth. This interest in the church never faltered. In 1963, at which time the Reverend Louis E. Patmore became a member of the Florida Conference, her own personal dream of even greater service for Christ found fuller opportunity for expression. The responsibilities of home and family were demanding, yet she made time in her busy life to minister by the side of her husband. She did not seek personal recognition for her work, but quietly went about the tasks which challenged her devotion and efforts.

She possessed a special, active interest in young couples. At Carabelle and Bayshore she led in organizing young married peoples' classes and fellowship groups. These groups have continued through the years to provide leadership and support for the entire program of each church. In addition to this special interest she shared in many ways in her husband's pastoral ministry. She was secure in her faith, and gave freely of herself out of her deep love for her family, the church, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

She is greatly missed, and her beautiful character and faithful witness shall not be forgotten by her family and her many friends.

MILDRED SUTTON HUGHES

The earthly pilgrimage of Mrs. Mildred Sutton Hughes lay between Fairchance, Pennsylvania where she was born July 30, 1918, and Lebanon Cemetery, Alabama, the final resting place of the "earthen vessel" in which she lived for 52 years. The daughter of Milton Sutton and Eve Hughes of Fairchance, "Dot" (as she was affectionately known) married Joe Bon Hughes on February 22, 1942. Until her death March 27, 1971, she was a devoted housewife and co-worker with her husband. She dated her real birth from December 2, 1910, when Christ touched her life, and for twenty years she lived for Him and His Church. She became a tower of faith and a witness for Christ in times of joy and in times of suffering.

She backed her husband fully in his response to the call to preach the Gospel. Tampa, Florida, was a spiritual center of their lives, for it was from what is now Branscomb Memorial Church that they set forth to serve. Following pastorates in Alabama, Dot and Joe served Hernando from 1965-69, Grace-Knights (Plant City) 1969-70, and then moved to Good Shepherd in Tampa in 1970 to be nearer the medical aid now so necessary. In each of these churches Mrs. Hughes was loved and respected, and lives were touched and lifted by her witness to Christ.

Several times Dot experienced a dramatic "healing" of the cancer in her body, but each time the disease returned to plague her anew. This dread enemy could not dim her soul nor quench the radiance of her faith, and she used every hospital experience as a time of witness to the Father's love. She was ready for the Heavenly Home when at dawn on March 27 the Angel of Death slipped into her hospital room.

Ministers and laity of the Tampa District gathered at Branscomb Memorial United Methodist Church March 29 to say goodbye. It was the writer's privilege to lead the service, which became an experience of joy and faith, rather than sadness and gloom. There was the sense of victory, for Dot lived a successful life—a life that knew God's eternal love and expressed that love to all she touched.

Accompanied by her faithful husband, her body was taken to Alabama, to Lebanon Cemetery. But no plot of earth could hold the spirit of Mildred Sutton Hughes, who is surely at some task of witness in the Heavenly Kingdom!

"Servant of God, well done!"

ROBERT C. BOGGS

EDNA LURCH SPRIGGS

Edna B. Lurch was born January 30, 1905 in Pocahontas County, West Virginia. Her parents were dedicated Christian people. Edna was converted at The Seventh Avenue Methodist Church in Huntington, West Virginia when she was nine years old. She immediately became active in the Lord's work and continued faithfully throughout her life.

When The Reverend Guy H. Spriggs became pastor of the Kellogg Nazarene Church in Huntington in 1932, he found, to his delight, a very attractive young lady serving as Sunday School Superintendent and Church pianist. On July 31, 1937, they were united in marriage and throughout their happy ministry she affectionately called him "Reverend."

Their first charge together was The Bowen Circuit with five churches in the Huntington District of The Methodist Church. Later they served Coxes Landing Methodist Church, and then The Stirratt Community Methodist Church in West Virginia.

In 1956 they came to The Florida Conference and served at Gibsonton, Hillsboro in Tampa, and Springhead near Plant City. The Spriggs' retired in 1966 and came to St. Petersburg to live and serve.

In spite of periodic illness, Mrs. Spriggs could be found in Worship Service Sunday Morning and Sunday Evening. During the week she attended two Bible Studies and Prayer Meetings regularly. She was truly an example to the believers. The personal experiences with Christ her Lord caused her to live a genuine life of discipleship. Her presence and spirit were indeed uplifting in any service. She was the kind of person once known in Methodist circles as a real "prayer warrior." Her good influence was felt for several years in the Aldersgate Church and then more recently here at Albright.

We here at Albright, although only having her in our church family briefly, came quickly to love her and have profited immensely by knowing her and her dear husband.

Suddenly, on May 19, 1971 she was called home. Brother Spriggs took her back to Huntington, West Virginia and laid her body to rest in the Woodmere Cemetery.

We shall miss her greatly, but still count her as part of our church family eternal. Her husband, Guy, faithfully carries on her spirit of love as he serves with us.

RICHARD M. SPRAGUE

HISTORICAL

LONG before the Pilgrims landed, there came to Florida another devout people seeking religious freedom. In June of 1564, French Huguenots established a colony at the mouth of the St. John's River. This colony, known as Ft. Caroline, was destroyed in September of 1565 by the Spanish. At the same time the city of St. Augustine was founded. From that date until 1821, when the United States took possession of Florida, it was closed to the work of the Protestant Church except during the years of English control 1763 to 1783.

Florida was purchased from Spain in 1819, but it was not until July 1821 that it was transferred into the hands of the United States. It is possible that William Hankins, the minister of St. Marys, Georgia, crossed over and preached in Florida as early as 1819 in Nassau and Duval Counties to Methodist families. It is also quite possible that John Triggs, who was appointed in 1821 to the "Lappahee" circuit, crossed over into Florida that year. The Mississippi Conference assigned Alexander Talley as a missionary to Pensacola, Mobile, Blakley, and the adjoining country in December 1821. In February 1822, the South Carolina Conference appointed Elijah Sinclair to St. Marys and Amelia Island.

John Slade, who has been called the "Father of Florida Methodism," was appointed as a Junior preacher with John Triggs to the Chattahoochee Mission in 1823. He located in 1830, but stayed active in Thomas County, Ga. working as a local Preacher. He was 55 when he was readmitted to the Florida Conference at its organizing session. The other men were in their 20's and 30's and since Slade was so much older than they were and had been in the beginning work, he was reverently called "Father Slade."

Methodism was taking root in the State of Florida in 1821 and 1822; by 1825 the work was so successful that a District called "Tallahassee"—named after the newly established capital of the Florida Territory—was created in the South Carolina Conference.

In 1830 the South Carolina Conference was divided, and the work in Florida became a part of the newly founded Georgia Conference. In 1844, at perhaps the most memorable General Conference since the Methodist Church was organized in 1784, the Florida Conference of the Methodist Church was created. The first Conference session was held in Tallahassee on February 6, 1845. This new Conference became a part of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

At the first General Conference after the Civil War, in 1866, it was decided to establish the South Georgia Conference, and all the work in Georgia was given up and the present boundaries of the Florida Conference were fixed.

The Methodist Episcopal Church started a Conference in Florida in 1873. This Conference because of racial differences was divided in 1886 into the Florida Conference and the St. Johns River Conference. The first Conference session of the St. Johns River Conference met in Jacksonville on January 25, 1886.

The Methodist Protestant Church organized a Florida Conference in 1889, but the work of this organization did not develop extensively.

In 1939, with unification, these different bodies were drawn together to establish the Florida Annual Conference of the Methodist Church.

Since 1939, Florida has known fabulous growth. The Florida Annual Conference in 1939 was 51st in size according to its membership, in 1964 it was fifth, and in 1968 it had grown to 3rd place according to membership with other conferences.

In the thirty year period from 1939 to 1969, the number of preaching appointments had grown from 269 to 635. The number of full connection members of the Conference has increased from 291 to 725.

The unification of the former E.U.B. Conference and the former C.J. Florida Conference had taken place at the end of this period.

The first E.U.B. Church was organized in Tampa in 1895 by the Rev. I. W. Bearss, who had moved to Florida a year earlier from Missouri. This church and the other early work was placed under the care of the Tennessee Conference. In 1900 a Georgia Conference was organized, of which Florida was a part. In 1913 the name was changed to the Georgia Florida Conference.

In 1941 the churches in the Florida Conference were organized into a Conference under the supervision of the Home Mission and Church Erection Society. The work never became large, but as E.U.B. people came to Florida in the 50's and 60's, it was expanded until at the time of unification on September 5, 1968 (the first E.U.B. Conference to unite with a Methodist Conference) there were twenty-eight elders as members of the Conference with seventeen under appointment. It had twelve charges, a total property value of $1,701,537.00 and a membership of 3,543.

The Florida Conference (former C.J.) dates back to 1873; until 1886 it was a both negro and white Conference. When the St. John's River Conference came into being the Florida Conference of the M.E. Church continued to be a Conference for the Negro people. In 1921, because of the distance and expense of travel, the work was divided into two Conferences.

In 1952 these two Conferences were united. In 1969 there were 81 churches served by 52 pastors in full connection. The total membership at the 1968 session was 8,352.

At the 1968 Florida Annual Conference (S.E.J.) session, it was voted to merge the two Florida Conferences in 1969. On September 21, 1968 at a special session of the Florida Conference (former C.J.) it was also voted to merge; and thus the first item of business in 1969 was this merger.

PART IX

STANDING RULES OF THE FLORIDA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

I. ORGANIZATION OF THE CONFERENCE

1. The following rules of procedure shall be observed to expedite the business of the Conference:

- a. All reports and resolutions shall be typed for submission to the Annual Conference, and shall be submitted to the Secretary in duplicate.
- b. No report or resolution shall be acted upon until it has been before the Conference 24 hours, and a copy has been furnished the Conference Secretary, except a resolution extending a vote of thanks. Publication of a report in the Conference Report Book shall be deemed to have fulfilled this requirement.
- c. Any resolution not coming from an established board, commission, or committee, shall be referred to the Committee on Reference before discussion on the floor of the Conference.
- d. Any report or resolution presented by a regular Committee or Board of the Conference, in accordance with the provisions above, shall be properly before the body of the Conference, when it is presented without a motion or a second.
- e. A member of the Conference who wishes to be recognized by the Chairman for a question, point of order, or discussion of a motion, shall address the Chairman and wait for recognition. When he is recognized by the Chairman, he will give his name, whether he is a lay or clerical member; and, if a lay member, he will give the name of his local Church.
- f. Debate and discussion of motions will be limited to three minutes per speech, and the speeches will alternate between those for and those against.
- g. A member of the Conference will be permitted to speak only one time in behalf of, or in opposition to, any motion before the Conference with the following exception: if no one wishes to speak opposite to the preceding speech, a member who has spoken on the motion may speak one more time. It is understood that this rule shall not be construed to debar the maker of a motion from concluding the debate.
- h. A motion to call for the previous question may be made at any time, if no one desires to speak. However, as long as there are those desiring to speak, a motion for the call of the previous question may not be made until there have been two speeches for and two speeches against the pending motion.

2. The Secretary shall be elected quadrennially at the first session of the Annual Conference following the General Conference, assuming office on January 1 of the ensuing year, and shall be eligible to serve no more than two consecutive quadrennia. In event of a vacancy, the Cabinet shall have authority to appoint a successor, subject to confirmation by the next session of the Annual Conference.

- a. The Secretary shall have such assistants as he may desire, elected by the Conference on his nomination.
- b. The Secretary shall edit and publish the Conference Minutes.
- c. He shall be the custodian of the books and archives of the Conference and shall annually report where they are kept. He shall cooperate with the Committee on Archives and History in the discharge of this responsibility and shall be an ex officio member of that Committee.
- d. The Secretary shall be an ex officio member of the Board of Pensions, and of the Service Years Committee of that Board.
- e. A committee on Journal shall be elected at the beginning of each annual session upon nomination of the Secretary, and shall consist of three members of the conference session. Such committee shall examine the daily journal, make any needed corrections, and report back to the next meeting, and the adoption of their report shall be the approval of the minutes.

3. The Conference Statistician shall be elected quadrennially at the first session of the Annual Conference following the General Conference, assuming office on January 1 of the ensuing year, and shall be eligible to serve no more than two consecutive quadrennia. In event of a vacancy, the Cabinet shall have authority to appoint a successor, subject to confirmation by the next session of the Annual Conference.

a. The Conference Statistician shall collect the statistics of the Conference, and shall edit the Statistical Tables in the annual Journal.

b. He shall employ such help as is necessary to do the work accurately and expeditiously, any expense to be paid by the Secretary out of the apportionment for "Minutes and Statistics."

c. The cabinet shall determine the date each year after which the Statistician shall accept no reports.

d. Fractions shall not be used in making statistical reports.

e. The Statistician shall see that every report made by a charge or a church agrees with the record of the Conference Treasurer.

4. The Conference Treasurer shall be elected by the Annual Conference and supervised by the Conference Commission on World Service as provided in the Discipline.

a. The Conference Treasurer shall make monthly distributions to the treasurers of the several Annual Conference boards and causes for all Conference work and to the treasurers of the several General Conference Boards and causes for all general work according to the percentage of the apportionments for general and conference work adopted by the Annual Conference. All amounts paid in on all causes beyond the apportioned amounts, other than the percentage for General World Service, shall be placed in the various Conference Reserve Funds at the end of each fiscal year, as stipulated by the Commission on World Service and Finance.

b. The treasurer shall procure from the Conference Statistician or from the district superintendents a report of the apportionments accepted by the several charges within the Conference and shall settle with those charges by that report. He shall have no power to waive or change this rule.

c. He shall regularly furnish each district superintendent a statement of the amounts of monies received by him for all causes from each pastoral charge within that district; each such statement to include all monies received from the closing of the Annual Conference to the date issued.

d. All special day funds shall be remitted through the Conference Treasurer.

2. An appointment to the District Superintendency shall vacate membership in any Quadrennial Board, Commission or Committee of the Conference, except Trustees, unless the General or Annual Conference provides otherwise.

3. Each District Superintendent shall, at the earliest possible date, file with the Chairman of the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance, with the Conference Treasurer, and with the Statistical Secretary an accurate statement of the amounts of apportionments accepted by the various Charge Conferences within his district.

5. Unless otherwise ordered by the Conference, the Commission on World Service and Finance shall distribute the apportionments to the districts on a basis agreed upon with the cabinet.

6. The Commission on World Service and Finance shall determine annually what amount shall be necessary to print and publish the Minutes and shall assess the same upon the Conference along with the other apportionments.

7. The Conference Trustees shall have the responsibility for the administration of the Conference Center.

8. When a Board, Commission, Agency, or individual member recommends to the Conference that a Committee be appointed, or that a task be performed by an existing Board, Commission, Agency, or individual that they either have the financial cost of such project covered in an existing budget asking, or present to the Conference the estimated cost, before final action is taken.

9. The Conference Commission on World Service and Finance shall designate the depository or depositories for Conference funds.

10. 12. Membership on a Quadrennial Board, Commission or Committee shall be limited to eight (8) consecutive years for both clerical and lay members. Membership on Boards of Trustees of Conference institutions shall be limited to nine (9) consecutive years for clerical members. Members rotating off any board, commission or committee under these provisions shall become eligible for re-election to such Board after a period of two (2) years. Membership shall not be held in more than one of the quadrennial boards, commissions or committees, provided, however, that this rule does not apply to trustees, to members of the Conference Committee of investigation, or ex-officio members, or to others established by the Discipline or the Standing Rules of the Conference. Beginning in 1970 no man shall serve longer than four years as chairman of the same quadrennial board, commission or committee.

13. Offices in the Annual Conference and membership on the Boards, Committees or Commissions shall be held only by effective clerical members

15. It shall be the duty of every board or commission holding property to provide the district superintendent with a complete list of its holdings within the district.  - 6) The primary appointment controls liability for annuity payments, with part-time employment disregarded in assuming annuity responsibility.

B. Ministers as Approved Supply Pastors or Lay Pastors

1. In determining eligibility for annuity credit for years of service as an approved supply pastor prior to 1952, applicant must prove full-time service in accordance with disciplinary requirements.

2. No approved supply credit shall be given for years in which the applicant is appointed as a student supply, while preparing for admission on Probation.

3. To be eligible for annuity credit as an approved supply, one must be receiving minimum salary support or the equivalent.

4. A Conference committee on service years shall investigate all cases in which the Cabinet, Conference Secretary, Board of Pension, or other authority questions the eligibility of the applicant for claimed years of service. Said committee shall be composed of one member of the Cabinet appointed by the District Superintendents, one member of the Board of Pensions appointed by said board, and the Conference Secretary. All applicants shall have the right of appeal to the floor of the Annual Conference from the decision of said committee, but lacking such appeal, the decision of the committee is considered final.

5. Nothing in this article shall be construed to interfere in any way with the full supervision over the granting of pension claims by the Board of Pensions when a man has entered the retired relationship. Nor shall this article prevent the Cabinet in clearly unusual cases granting a year of annuity credit under the proper disciplinary question.

6. It shall be the business of each approved supply pastor to ascertain that the Secretary's record of his annuity years is properly carried in the Conference Journal, and that he has been given annuity credit year by year under the proper disciplinary question. After June, 1962, an approved supply minister eligible for annuity credit for a year of service, whose name has not been included in answer to the Disciplinary question, shall be responsible for bringing this matter to the attention of the Conference Secretary, and shall secure a statement from the District Superintendent under whom he served, or his successor, that he is entitled to such year. Failure to do so by the next session of the Annual Conference shall negate any future claim for this year.

The Council shall have an Executive Committee on which the officers of the Council, the Bishop, one District Superintendent, chosen by the Cabinet, the Program Director, the Chairmen of the Conference Boards of Christian Social Concerns, Education, Evangelism, and Missions, the Conference Lay Leader, and the Conference President of the Women's Society of Christian Service, President of the Conference Council on Youth Ministries, Chairman of the Commission on Stewardship and Finance of the Board of the Laity and four members-at-large, elected by the Council will serve.
