- 163 "BAY (THE) PSALM BOOK TUNES." A | Collection of | PSALM TUNES | with a Thorough Bass | for the | Harpsicord or Organ | with several | HYMNS, ANTHEMS, | and Divine Songs, | etc. Sm. 4to, old calf, pp. 120, beautifully engraved on copper. LONDON, n.d. $35 00
. "This rare volume contains most of the celebrated 'Bay Psalm Book' tunes. Judge Sewell, who was 'a leader in Israel's psalm-singing,' in his famous 'Diary,' makes repeated mention of seven tunes—no more. These are Windsor, Oxford, York, St. David's, St. Mary's, Litchfield, and Westminster. He remarks: 'I set Windsor tune, and the people, at the second going over, run into Oxford, & what I could.' Again, 'In the morning I set York tune, and, in the second going over, the gallery carried it irresistibly to St. David's, which discouraged me very much.' These tunes will be found—St. David's, p. 3; St. Mary's, p. 6; Oxford, p. 8; Windsor, p. 10; York, p. 11, etc.
"The Bay Psalm Book,' or New England Version, was first printed at Cambridge in 1640, again in 1647. It was revised in 1650 by President Dunster, of Harvard College, whose edition was in use among the churches till supplanted by that of Dr. Watts. The Rev. Thomas Prince, at the request of the Old South Church, prepared a revised edition of the work in 1757. This version was in long use among the churches—having passed through more than twenty editions—and was reluctantly exchanged by some congregations only after the American Revolution."

- 174 BRANDT (SEBASTIAN). THE SHIP OF FOOLS, translated by ALEXANDER BARCLAY. A Faithful Reprint of the PYNSON EDITION of 1509, with Introduction, Notes, and Glossary, by T. H. JAMIESON, with 120 curious and interesting facsimile wood Engravings from the Basle Edition of 1497. 2 vols., sm. 4to, dark blue levant morocco, gilt backs and edges, dentelle borders. EDINBURGH: MDCCCLXXIV. $28 00
- * * * "BARCLAY'S 'Ship of Fools,' is not only important as a picture of the English life and popular feeling of his time, it is, both in style and vocabulary, a most valuable and remarkable monument of the English language. Written midway between Chaucer and Spenser, it is infinitely more easy to read than either. Page after page, even in the antique spelling of Pynson's edition, may be read by the ordinary reader of to-day without reference to a dictionary, and when reference is required, it will be found in nine cases out of ten that the archaism is Saxon, not Latin."

334 ER-SIE-ES. P^{tc} aegyptische Humoreske. Nach der Natur abgemalt und niedergeschrieben 1302 Jahre vor Christi Geburt durch C. M. SEYPPPEL Hofmaler und Poët der seligen Majestat König RHAMPSINIT III. Memphis, Pyramidenstrasse N 36, 1st Etage. Meldung beim Portier. $6 00

* * "This work is an amusing parody on the SHAPIRA MS. forgery. According to the preface, this unique volume, the sole example of ancient Egyptian illustrated literature which has come down to us, was discovered just after the battle of Tel el Kebir by a savant who noticed some strange characters on a slab under the head of a sleeping guardsman, and who watched his opportunity and dug underneath this stony pillow until he discovered this illustrated MS. of the year 1302 B.C. The leaves of the volume are made to imitate papyrus, their edges are worn and rubbed, and the surface of them is stained and discolored, as though by all the juices of the earth and all the waters of the Nile. The cover is of brown sackcloth, much torn and ravelled at the edges. A coarse green string binds the leaves firmly to one another. One side of the cover is ornamented with a broad seal of green wax, having an uncouth impression of the head of 'König Ruppisippos.' Divers comical Egyptian stories are told in verse, and the illustrations, with their combination of modern humor and ancient form, are exceedingly laughable. The whole thing looks as though it had been dug up out of the earth, which, indeed, is what is pretended. The author of this ingenious burlesque is Karl Maria Seyppel, a young Dusseldorf artist, who was assisted in his work by Professor Ebers and other eminent Egyptologists."

335 SPENSER. The | WORKS | of that | Famous English | POET, | Mr. Edmond Spenser, | viz.: The FAERY QUEEN, | The SHEPHERD'S CALENDAR, | The HISTORY of IRELAND, &c. | Whereunto is added, | An ACCOUNT of his LIFE; | With other new ADDITIONS | Never before in PRINT. | Folio, pannelled calf. Frontispiece representing Spenser's tomb, engraved by R. White. LONDON: Printed by Henry Hills for Jonathan Edwin, at the Three Roses in Ludgate-Street. 1679. Scarce. $14 00

* * "The merits of Spenser are of so decided and exalted a nature as to place him, in spite of every deduction, in the same class with Homer, Dante, Shakespeare, and Milton. His versification is in general uncommonly sweet and melodious; his powers of description such, with respect to beauty, fidelity, and minute finishing, as have not since been equalled; while in strength, brilliancy, and fertility of imagination, it will be no hyperbole to assert that he takes precedence of almost every poet, ancient or modern."—DR. DRAKE'S Shakespeare and his Times.

- 526 VONDEL. J. V. VONDEL'S | LUCIFER. | TREURSPEL. | [Motto]
PRÆCIPITEMQUE IMMANI TURBINE ADEGIT. | t'AMSTERDAM, |
Voor ABRAHAM de WEES, Boeckverkooper op den Mid- | deldam in't
Nieuwe Testament, in't jaer 1654. | Sm. 4to., pp. xiii., 79. Unbound.
With the extremely rare engraved Frontispiece, representing the combat between the Angel GABRIEL and LUCIFER; and the expulsion of ADAM and EVE from the Garden of Eden. $70 00
-  THE FIRST EDITION of this exceedingly rare and curious Drama, from which Milton is supposed to have derived some portion of the plot of "Paradise Lost."
Some thirty authors have been cited as entitled to the credit of having probably or possibly contributed something to the conception, the plan, or the execution of Milton's great poem. Quite recently a claim has been advanced for the Dutch poet, JOOST van den VONDEL (1587-1679), one of whose productions—a tragedy called "LUCIFER," acted at Amsterdam, and published in 1654—describes the rebellion of the Angels, and otherwise goes over much of the ground of "Paradise Lost." Milton, it is argued, must have heard of this tragedy before he began his own epic, and may have known Dutch sufficiently to read it.

|. "I do not care for a First Folio of Shakspeare. I rather prefer the common editions of Rowe and Tonson, without notes, and with plates, which, being so execrably bad, serve as maps, or modest remembrancers to the text. On the contrary, I cannot read BEAUMONT and FLETCHER but in Folio. The Octavo editions are painful to look at. I have no sympathy with them."—Lamb.

- 629 LOBO. A VOYAGE TO ABYSSINIA. By Father JEROME LOBO, a Portuguese Jesuit. With a Continuation of the HISTORY of Abyssinia down to the Beginning of the Eighteenth Century, and FIFTEEN DISSERTATIONS on various Subjects relating to the History, Antiquities, Government, Religion, Manners, and Natural History of Abyssinia. By MR. LE GRAND. [Translated from the French by DR. SAMUEL JOHNSON]. 8vo, half calf, gilt back, marbled edges. LONDON, 1735. First Edition. Scarce. $3 00
- * * * "This being the first prose work of Johnson, it is a curious object of enquiry how much may be traced in it of that style which marks his subsequent writings with such peculiar excellence. It is reasonable to suppose, that his having been led to a particular study of the history and manners of Abyssinia, was the remote occasion of his writing, many years afterwards, his admirable philosophical tale, Rasselas, the Prince of Abyssinia, the principal scene of which is laid in that country."—Boswell's Johnson.

. The initial letters of the first 29 verses of the First Book of this curious poem, form the assumed name of the author, Marcellus Palingenius Stellatus, whose real name was Pier Angelo Manzoli. The many sarcasms contained in the poem against the Pope, Cardinals, and Church of Rome, secured it a prominent place among the first class of heretical books in the Index Librorum Prohibitorum, and the author's body was exhumed and burned to ashes. Pope is supposed to have made liberal use of this poem in his "Essay on Man."

. "When we read this violent diatribe against all plays and players, and consider that it was written at the very time that Shakespeare's great works had just been given to the world, we cannot help thinking of 'the deaf adder that stoppeth her ears,' etc. In his peroration the author says, 'Seeing that plays are inricht with fables, lies, dishonesties and all kinds of knaveries: seeing the actors of them have been counted ignominious . . . esteemed as vagabonds, corrupters of good manners, subverters of religion in people's heartes & seducers of men to destruction . . . then do I earnestly entreat every one as they love their owu soules to detest & abandon them.'"

This is a grand example of the esteem in which Shakespeare's plays were held in his own day.

* * A magnificent copy of this rare volume of early French poetry. The margins are wide, and this is one of the largest copies known (135½ millimètres) of this beautiful edition, printed in round type and ornamented with woodcuts.

“One of the most remarkable compositions furnished by the mediæval period in France is the Roman de la Rose. It is doubtful whether any other poem of such a length has ever attained a popularity so wide and so enduring. The Roman de la Rose extends to more than twenty thousand lines, and is written in a very peculiar style; yet it maintained its vogue, not merely in France, but throughout Europe, for nearly three hundred years from the date of its commencement, and for more than two hundred from that of its conclusion. The history of the composition of the poem is singular. It was begun by WILLIAM OF LORRIS, of whom little or nothing is known, but whose work must, so far as it is easy to make out, have been done before 1260, and probably earlier. The poem in this state extends to 4,670 lines, and ends quite abruptly. Forty or fifty years later, JEAN DE MEUNG (also called Clopinel from his lameness), continued it without preface, taking up WILLIAM OF LORRIS' cue, and extended it to 22,817 lines. It was frequently printed by the earliest typographers of France, and in the sixteenth century it received a fresh lease of life at the hands of Marot, who re-edited it. Abroad it was praised by Petrarch and translated by Chaucer; and it is on the whole not too much to say that for fully two centuries it was the favorite book in the vernacular literature of Europe. Nor was it unworthy of this popularity. The grace of the part due to WILLIAM OF LORRIS is remarkable, and the satirical vigor of the part due to JEAN DE MEUNG perhaps more remarkable still. But the real secret of its vogue, as of all such vogues, is that it faithfully held up the mirror to the later middle ages. In no single book can that period of history be so conveniently studied.”

4. CAVENDISH. CARD ESSAYS, CLAY'S DECISIONS AND CARD TABLE TALK. 8vo, cloth, portrait. Original English Edition. London, 1879.

5. BIBLIOPHILES FRANÇAIS, (SOCIÉTÉ DES). JEUX DE CARTES TAROTS et de CARTES NUMÉRALES DU 14^e AU 18^e SIÈCLE représentés en cent planches d'après les originaux avec un précis historique et explicatif. Folio, half morocco. Edition limited to 132 copies. Paris, 1844.

 A magnificent volume, containing one hundred plates reproducing about one thousand playing cards, many of which are colored by hand and others reproduced in chromo-lithography.

6. MERLIN, R. ORIGINE DES CARTES À JOUER. 4to, uncut, gilt top, bound with the original wrappers in half morocco, by A. Matthews. Paris, 1869.

 A most elaborate work, with a supplement of seventy plates with illustrations of six hundred playing cards. Rare.

7. JOST AMMAN'S KARTENSPIELBUCH, CHARTA LVSORIA. Nürnberg, 1588. 4to, original cover. Facsimile reprint. München, 1880.

 An old poem, with many curious illustrations of old German playing cards.

8. SINGER (S. W.). RESEARCHES INTO the HISTORY OF PLAYING CARDS. With illustrations of the origin of printing and engraving on wood. 4to, half morocco, uncut. London, 1816.

 Beautiful clean copy of this rare book, with many of the plates on India paper.

9. WILLSHIRE (WILLIAM HUGHES). DESCRIPTIVE CATALOGUE of PLAYING and other CARDS in the BRITISH MUSEUM, accompanied by a concise general history of the subject and remarks on cards of divination and of a politico-historical character. Royal 8vo, cloth, uncut. London, 1876.

 The most elaborate and authoritative of all recent works on playing cards, containing a great many illustrations of all kinds, photogravures, steel engravings, woodcuts, and colored prints.

 ALSO MANY INTERESTING CURIOSITIES CONNECTED with playing cards, including a facsimile advertisement of the PATRIOTIC AMERICAN DECATUR CARDS, of which the backs were adorned with a cut of Decatur's victory, various comic cartoons and caricatures in imitation of playing cards; a lot of the internal revenue stamps issued by playing card manufacturers; and specimens of the "marked back" playing cards used by gamblers.

The collection of playing cards contains over forty complete packs, FRENCH, BELGIAN, GERMAN, SWISS, and AMERICAN. It contains nine packs of comic cards, includ.

ing the rich Harlequin cards of Tiffany & Co., almost equally rich packs from Frankfort, an early American pack with curiously crude designs, and a pack of English character cards. Among the eight French packs is a pack of fortune-telling tarots, a pack made for the Spanish market, packs illustrating the fashions, Dumas's "Three Guardsmen" and contemporary sovereigns, also two miniature packs, the smallest of which is about half the size of a postage stamp. The ten German packs include several adorned with steel engravings of German landscapes at Baden and on the Rhine, a jockey club pack, a pack commemorating the Schützenfest of July, 1862, at Frankfort, a very elaborately adorned illustrated pack, and two packs of common tarots as used by the lower classes. Among the six Swiss packs are four packs of the tarots used to-day and curiously like the old tarots, and one pack with colored steel engravings of Swiss scenery.

Among the American packs is a box of the old circular globe playing cards, patented in 1874, and a most extraordinary set of Brazilian magic musical cards, by means of which an endless succession of new music may be composed.

The gem of the collection is a duplicate set (the second not complete) of the very scarce heraldic pack issued in the middle of the seventeenth century. These cards are illustrated in Boiteau d'Ambly (p. 139) and in Taylor (plate 38), but as Willshire omits them there is probably no such set in the collection of the British Museum.

The cuttings are in a scrap-book.

1021 VIGELLUS (WILHELMUS), [i. e., NIGELLUS WIRECKER, monachus cantuariensis]. Speculum Stultorum.

[IN FINE.] Explicit speculum stultorum.

Quisquis theologus, quisquis legista peritus
Fisleri: multos semper habeto libros.

Pristina gestorum que condita vulgus haberet
Cum legis in carta mens tua commemorat,
Non in mente manet quicquid vidimus ipsi:
Quisq; sibi libros vendicet ergo. Vale.

Sm. 4to, old green morocco, gilt leaves by DERÔME, title restored with a pen, and ornamented with a curious drawing of two figures conversing. [PARHISIIS, M. D. VI.] (1506.) $15 00

* * * "The most amusing of all our early classical poems is a satire called 'The Mirror of Fools,' written by NIGEL WIRECKER, a monk of Canterbury. The hero, Brunellus, is literally an Ass, who, ambitious of distinction, studies in the University of Paris, and successively all the monastic orders. Dissatisfied both with the learned men and the monks, he sets about forming a new sect of his own, but, caught by his old master, he is compelled to resume his natural station, and close his life carrying panniers." See FABRICIUS, Bibl. Lat. Mediæ et Inf. Ætatis. SPALDING, History of English Literature.

Catalogue.

Interesting Fac-simile Reproduction.

- 1043 A KEMPIS (THOMAS). THE IMITATION OF CHRIST: Being the AUTOGRAPH MANUSCRIPT of THOMAS À KEMPIS, REPRODUCED in FAC-SIMILE from the ORIGINAL, preserved in the Royal Library, Brussels. With an Introduction by CHARLES RUELENS, Keeper of Department of MSS., Royal Library, Brussels. 32mo, in contemporary binding. London, 1879. $2 00

. This Volume is copied by a Photographic process which exactly reproduces the original page for page; it is printed on Dutch hand-made paper of the same texture and color as that on which the original is written, and is bound in contemporary leather binding of very beautiful design. The reader will thus be able to see the exact form in which this most valued and widely read book of devotion came fresh from the pen of the author in the fifteenth century.

- 1044 ALISON (ARCHIBALD). ESSAYS, Political, Historical, and Miscellaneous. 3 vols. 8vo, cloth, uncut. Edinburgh and London. 1850. $7 50

THE FIRST ENGLISH BOOK ON FISHING.

- 1045 ANGLING. The Treatyse of Fysshynge wyth an Angle, by DAME JULIANA BERNERS. A fac-simile Reproduction of the First Book on the subject of Fishing, printed in England by Wynkyn de Worde, at Westminster, in 1496. With an Introduction by the Rev. M. G. WATKINS. With curious woodcuts, 4to, printed upon hand-made paper, bound in antique vellum, in imitation of 15th century binding. London, 1880. $5 00

. This fac-simile is reproduced from a copy of the original edition in the British Museum by means of photography, and consequently renders every peculiarity of the original in faithful detail; the rude Illustrations which adorned the first edition of this "lytyll plaunflet" are here given in all their quaint roughness. The work is printed on hand-made paper of the same texture and color as that on which the first edition appeared, and the binding is of contemporary pattern and material, so that the reader of to-day in handling this volume can realize the form and appearance of the original, which must have delighted the eyes of those who studied "treatyses perteynyng to dyuers playsaunt matters belongynge vnto noblesse."

- 1046 ANGLING. AN OLDER FORM of the TREATYSE OF FYSSHYNGE WYTH AN ANGLE. Attributed to DAME JULIANA BARNES. Printed from a MS. in the possession of Alfred Denison, Esq. With PREFACE and GLOSSARY by THOMAS SACHELL. Small 4to, half rox. London, 1883. $3 00

. Only 200 copies printed.

"The only known manuscript of the 'Treatyse of Fysshynge,' formerly in the possession of Mr. William Herbert, afterward of Mr. Joseph Haslewood, and now in the famous Denison collection, has been examined by Mr. Satchell, who finds it to contain an independent text, of a date not later than 1450. It is drawn from the same original as that printed in 1496, but instead of the 'readings between it and the printed copy' being, as stated in the preface to Mr. Pickering's reprint, 1827, 'very few and unimportant,' it varies the phrase throughout, and in many places alters the sense, besides containing many short passages not included in the printed version."

—Athenæum.

- 1047 ANGLING. THE SECRETS of ANGLING. BY J[OHN] D[ENNYS], Esquire. 1613. A Reprint. With Introduction by THOMAS WESTWOOD. Small 4to, half rox. London, 1883. $3 00
  Only 200 copies printed.
 "We congratulate Mr. Westwood on his charming reproduction of this old and rare angling poem. . . . Beloe said of it that 'perhaps there does not exist in the circle of English literature a rarer book than this.' Indeed, Sir John Hawkins confessed he could never get a sight of it. . . . Anglers will now [for the first time] be able to read this poem as it was presented to the world."—Notes and Queries.
- 1048 ANGLING. THE CHRONICLE of "THE COMPLEAT ANGLER," of ISAAK WALTON and CHARLES COTTON: being a Bibliographical record of its various editions and mutations, by THOMAS WESTWOOD. The second edition, with some notes and additions by THOMAS SATCHELL. Small 4to, half rox. London, 1883. $4 00
  The present volume contains a record of 97 editions of Walton's famous book; the previous edition (1864) enumerated 53.
- 1049 ATTIC (The) MISCELLANY; or CHARACTERISTIC MIRROR of MEN and THINGS, including the Correspondents' Museum. Illustrated with numerous curious and comic engravings, folded, and Political and Theatrical Portraits, Drawn by COLLINGS and CRUIKSHANK, and etched by Barlow. 3 vols. 8vo, bound in 2, half calf, citron edges. - 1193 BLAKE (W.). THORNTON (R. J.). The PASTORALS of VIRGIL, with a course of English Reading, Illustrated with 230 engravings by W. BLAKE, CRUIKSHANK, BEWICK, etc. 2 vols. 12mo, FINE PERFECT COPY, calf super-extra, gilt leaves by F. BEDFORD. LONDON: 1821. Very scarce. Fine perfect copy. $40 00

. These most interesting Volumes, having been used as School-books, are rarely found perfect or in good condition. They contain some of Blake's finest and most imaginative work.

- 1194 BOSSUET. AN UNIVERSAL HISTORY, from the CREATION of the WORLD to the Time of CHARLEMAGNE. From the French of M. Bossuet, Preceptor to the Dauphin, and Bishop of Meaux. A New Translation. 8vo, half calf. LONDON: Samuel Bagster, 1810. $2 50

- 1195 BRANDT (SEBASTIAN). The Ship of Fooles, wherein is shewed the folly of all States, with divers other workes adioyned unto the same, very profitable and fruitfull for all men. TRANSLATED out of LATIN into ENGLISH by ALEXANDER BARCLAY, Priest. Folio, Black letter, very fine copy, dark red morocco super-extra, gilt edges, by Bedford. IMPRINTED at LONDON in Paules Churchyarde by John Cawood, printer to the Queenes Maiestie. 1570. $225 00

. A large cut of vessels filled with fools is inserted between the Latin and English titles. The English is in black letter, and the Latin in Roman, in the same order as in the Pynson edition. The wood-cuts, including the one on the title-page, number 117. They are the same as those of Pynson's edition. The borders only differ, being of a uniform type, while those of the previous edition are wood-cuts of several patterns.

"BARCLAY'S 'Ship of Fools' is not only important as a picture of the English life and popular feeling of his time, it is, both in style and vocabulary, a most valuable and remarkable monument of the English language. Written midway between Chaucer and Spenser, it is infinitely more easy to read than either. Page after page, even in the antique spelling of Pynson's edition, may be read by the ordinary reader of to-day without reference to a dictionary, and when reference is required, it will be found in nine cases out of ten that the archaism is Saxon not Latin."

- 1197 BROWNE (WILLIAM). BRITANNIA'S PASTORALS. Folio, LARGE PAPER, the title engraved on copper by W. Hole, a very fine clean copy, red morocco, super extra, gilt edges, by Bedford. Lond: print: for Geo: Norton, dwell: at Temple-barr. 1613-16. $110 00

. So fine a copy is of the rarest occurrence even on small paper, and on large paper it is of the utmost rarity.

A ROVEN, | Chez Martin de la Motte, | ruë de la Haranguerie proche du Quay. | M.DC.XXXV. (1635). A beautiful copy of this intensely amusing volume. $60 00
- * * * SIEUR DES LAURIERS, called Bruscambille, was an actor of farces during the reigns of Henry IV. and Louis XIII. The first collection of his writings which appeared was printed in 1609, and contained only sixteen Prologues. Readers of Tristram Shandy will remember Mr. Shandy's scream of delight at finding a copy of Bruscambille's Prologue on Noses. "There are not three Bruscambilles in Christendom (said the stall-man), except what are chained up in the libraries of the curious. My father flung down the money as quick as lightning—took Bruscambille in his bosom—hied home from Piccadilly to Coleman Street with it, as he would have hied home with a treasure, without taking his hand once off from Bruscambille all the way."—Tristram Shandy, VOL. III., chap. 35.

- 1303 LOCKER. LYRA ELEGANTiarUM. A Collection of some of the best specimens of Vers de Société and Vers d'Occasion in the English Language. By Deceased Authors. Edited by FREDERICK LOCKER. 16mo, cloth, gilt, uncut. LONDON: Moxon, 1867. FIRST EDITION, rigidly suppressed, and now excessively rare.

. "Among the few modern books which are really scarce may perhaps be included the first edition of Mr. Frederick Locker's Lyra Elegantiarum, a collection of vers de Société unique in its plan, complete, and put together with delicate judgment. The first edition was suppressed because it contained some of Landor's pieces. A fuller account of the matter is supplied by a note to a copy which was once the property of Mr. Francis Turner Palgrave, himself the editor of one of the most popular anthologies extant, the 'Golden Treasury.' Mr. Palgrave's note on the verso of the fly-title is as follows:

" 'First Edition: Suppressed at once in consequence of Mr. John Forster's refusal to allow the poems by W. S. Landor, whose copyright he was possessed of, to be here republished.'

- 1304 LONGFELLOW (H. W.). The COURTSHIP of MILES STANDISH, and Other Poems. 16mo, cloth. Boston: Ticknor and Fields, 1859.

- 1305 Morris (Guil.). Le Rommant de la Rose. Imprimé à Paris.

[Colophon]: Cest fin du rommant de la rose
Ou lart damours este tout enclose.

Imprimé nouvellement à Paris. [Par Antoine Verard vers 1490.]
Folio, Black letter, numerous woodcuts, very fine copy, red morocco extra, with broad dentelle borders on the sides, gilt edges. $125 00

. FIRST EDITION PRINTED BY ANTHONY VERARD of this famous book. It accords exactly with the description given by Brunet. It has, as he describes, 142 leaves, printed in two columns of forty-three lines each, without pagination or catch-words, but with signatures, and the last leaf bearing on the recto a large woodcut of the author in his library, with the reverse quite blank. Brunet does not, however, seem to have known of this particular issue, which differs from that which he describes in not having the printer's mark on the title, and is therefore probably the earlier impression.

1313 MARIE ANTOINETTE.—LES AMOURS DE CHARLOT ET TOINETTE. PIECE DÉROBÉE A V. Scilicet is superis labor est, ea cura quietos sollicitat. VIRG. ÆNEID. MDCCLXXIX. With Portraits of MARIE ANTOINETTE and CHARLES PHILIPPE, COMTE D'ARTOIS, inserted. 8vo, 8 pages, bound in full orange crushed levant morocco, tooled sides and back, inside dentelle borders, gilt edges by QUINET. $300 00

* * * Beautiful copy with wide margins of the ORIGINAL EDITION of this curious poem. Excessively rare and probably unique in this fine condition. V. stands for VERSAILLES. This little satirical poem is written by no weak hand. The amours of Marie Antoinette with the Comte D'Artois and the worn-out incident of the "cordon de sonette" are brought into requisition. GAY notices the work as follows: "Piece en vers assez spirituelle. . . . Ou ne connaît de l'édition originale (1779) que quelques exemplaires échappé (sic) au pilon de la Bastille, l'édition fut achetée par ordre de la cour et payée par Goetzman au libraire Baissière, à Londres la somme énorme de 17,000 francs non compris les menus frais et le pot de vin."

* * A TRULY MAGNIFICENT SPECIMEN OF THE VELLUM PRINTING OF THE CELEBRATED GIUNTA PRESS.

The book is printed throughout in a beautiful square Gothic type, the black and red inks having a fine lustrous effect on the very fine pure vellum on which the book is printed. As an example of sixteenth century vellum printing, it is not to be surpassed, and in condition it is as clean and perfect as though it came from the press but yesterday.

The title, calendar, and "Ordo Misse" occupy twelve leaves, and the text of the book runs in folios 1-215, being numbered on the right side of the leaf only.

1323 MYRROUR FOR MAGISTRATES. WHEREIN MAY BE SEENE BY EXAMPLES PASSED IN THIS REALME, WITH HOW GREVEOUS PLAGUES, VYCES ARE PUNISHED IN GREAT PRINCES AND MAGISTRATES, and how frayle and unstable worldly prosperity is founde, where Fortune seemeth moste highly to fauour. * * This little volume has long been looked upon as among the rarest of the Elzivers. The present copy is in perfect preservation, in the original vellum binding, clean and fresh; it measures 128 millim. by 78. The engraved title, which is a brilliant impression, represents the interior of a kitchen with cooks preparing various articles of pastry.

"Quelle est me demande-t-on quelquefois, l'édition elsevirienne la plus précieuse? est-ce le Virgile de 1656, le César de 1635, l'Imitation sans date; ou bien plutôt ne serait-ce pas la Sagesse de Charron, de 1646, ou le Comines de 1648? Non, suis-je obligé de répondre; toutes ces jolies éditions doivent céder le pas à un petit bouquin, assez mal imprimé, qui a pour titre 'Le Pastissier françois,' et dont presque tous les exemplaires ont dû nécessairement périr sous la main onctueuse des honnêtes artisans qui en ont fait usage. Il ne peut donc exister de collection elsevirienne complète sans ce merveilleux volume, et il faut se le procurer à tout prix."—Brunet.

* * * "When we read this violent diatribe against all plays and players, and consider that it was written, at the very time that Shakespeare's great works had just been given to the world, we cannot help thinking of 'the deaf adder that stopeth her ears,' etc. In his peroration the author says, 'Seeing that plays are inricht with fables, lies, dishonesties and all kinds of knaveries: seeing the actors of them have been counted ignominious . . . esteemed as vagabonds, corrupters of good manners, subverters of religion in people's heartes & seducers of men to destruction . . . then do I earnestly entreat every one as they love their own soules to detest & abandon them.'"

This is a grand example of the esteem in which Shakespeare's plays were held in his own day.

- 1784 POLIPHILE.—HYPNEROTOMACHIE ou DISCOURS du SONGE de POLIPHILE, deduisant comme amour le combat a l'occasion de Polia. Soubz la fiction de quoy l'auteur monstrant que toutes choses terrestres ne sont que vanité, traicte de plusieurs matieres profitables, et dignes de memoire. Nouvellement traduict de langage Italien en François. [Engravings]. Folio, old calf. PARIS: Jaques Keruer. MDLIII (1554).

* * A very beautiful and tall copy with broad margins. The first edition was printed in Latin by Aldus in 1499 with the illustrations, reproduced in this edition with some slight change, but without losing anything of their original beauty. The artist's name is still unknown; the drawings have been attributed to J. Goujon, Jean Cousin, Giovanni Bellino, Raffaele, and others. The question as to the original designer will probably give rise to many discussions in the future, before it can be satisfactorily decided.

- 1785 RAPIN de THOYRAS (Mr.).—The HISTORY of ENGLAND. Written in French by Mr. Rapin de Thoyras. Translated into English, with additional Notes by N. TINDAL. The Third Edition with Tindal's Continuation. Illustrated with Maps, Coins, Genealogical Tables, and the Heads (Portraits) and Monuments of the Kings engraved on Seventy-seven Copper plates by HOUBRAKEN, VERTUE, and PICART. Fine impressions of the portraits. 5 vols. folio, old calf. London: 1743-'47. $40 00
- 1786 RAYNAL (Guillaume-Thomas). HISTOIRE PHILOSOPHIQUE et POLITIQUE des Etablissements et du Commerce des Européens dans les deux Indes. Portrait and engravings. 11 vols. (10 vols. Text, 1 vol. Atlas) 12mo, mottled calf, gilt edges. A Geneve. Jean Leonard Pellet. 1780. $12 00
- 1787 RECUEIL DE QUELQUES PIECES NOUVELLES ET GALANTES. Tant en PROSE qu'en VERS; Dont les Titres se trouveront apres la Preface. 24mo, full crushed levant morocco, gilt back and edges. A COLOGNE, chez Pierre du Marteau. MDCLXIII (1663). $25 00

* * Brunet describes this edition as being the earliest, prettiest and most complete of the various editions mentioned by him.

- 1788 RUSKIN (John). The SEVEN LAMPS of ARCHITECTURE. With 14 Illustrations, drawn and etched by the author. Imp. 8vo, embossed, cloth, gilt top, uncut. London, 1849. FIRST EDITION. $55 00

* * "The quite First Edition, with the original plates, will always, I venture to say, bear a high price in the market; for its etchings were not only, every line of them, by my hand, but bitten also by myself, with savage carelessness (I being then, as now, utterly scornful of all sorts of art dependent on blotch, or burr, or any other 'process' than that of steady hand and true line): out of which disdain, nevertheless, some of the plates came into effects both right and good for their purpose, and will, as I say, be always hereafter valuable. Preface to the Edition of 1880.

- 1789 RUSKIN.—THE SAME. With 14 Illustrations, drawn and etched by the author. Imp. 8vo, embossed cloth, gilt top, uncut. London, 1855. SECOND EDITION. $50 00

* * * "I have only to add that the Plates of the present volume have been carefully re-etched by Mr. Cuff, retaining, as far as possible, the appearance of the original sketches, but remedying the defects which resulted in the first edition from my careless etching. Of the subject of the 9th Plate I prepared a new drawing, which has been admirably engraved by Mr. Armytage. The lettering and other references, will, I hope, be found more intelligible throughout."—Preface to the Second Edition, 1855.

- 1790 RUBENS.—POMPA INTROITUS HONORI SER. PRINCIPIS FERNANDI à S. P. Q. Antverp, decreta et adornata, Arcus, Pegmata, Iconesque à Pet. Pavlo Rvbenio inventas & delineatas. BASILEAE EXCUEBAT HENRICVS PETRVS MENSE AVGVSTO.

COLOPHON: Basileae excvdebat Henricvs Pe- | trvs Mense Avgvsto | Anno MDXXXIII. | (1533.)

* * This volume actually contains six different parts or dissertations ; but in making the above abridged transcript of the title-page, it was thought sufficient to indicate only the First Part and the Third Part (the letter of Columbus). The early authors, when referring to the "first letter of Columbus" generally quote this collection. The full title of this letter occupying pages 116-121, runs thus: "CHRISTOPHERI CO- | LOM DE INSVLIS NVPER INVENTIS IN MA- | RI INDICO SUB FERNINANDO REGE HISPANIA- | RUM epistola, ad magnificum dominum Raphaëlem Sanxis : deinde per Alexandrum de Cosco | latinitate donatum.

* * * As indicated by the title, this work contains the three decades of Peter Martyr d'Anghiera, "counsellor of the late sovereigns of Spain, Ferdinand and Isabella," and "sets forth in a copious, faithful, and learned manner everything concerning the countries recently discovered that may captivate the attention of the reader curious of novelties." Also, "three books of the same concerning his embassy to Babylon [Cairo], which, besides the finest specimen of oratorical talent, exhibits, in language most elegant and of the highest interest to the reader, every remarkable thing seen by him on the subject of the customs and institutions of the different nations."

* * * One of the most valuable of sources for the history of the discovery of America, the author being at once the friend of Columbus, Vespucci, and Cabot.

1839 NUEVAS LEYES. [Under a beautifully ornamented border containing the arms of Spain.] Leyes y ordenanças nuevamēte hechas | por su Magestad, pa la gouernacion de las Indias y buen trata- | miento y conseruation delos Indios: que se han de guardar en el | consejo y audiēcias reales q en ellas residen: y por todos los otros | gouernadores, juezes y personas particulares dellas. | Con privilegio imperial. Colophon: Las presentes leyes, y nuevas | ordenanzas, y declaracion dellas | para la gouern- | acion de las Indias, y buen tratamiento de los naturales dellas. Fueron im- | presas por mandado de los se- | ñores: presidēte, y del co | sejo de las Indias | : en la villa de | Alcala | de | Henares: en casa de Joan de Bro- | car a ocho dias del mes de | Julio del año de | nro salvador | Jesu Chri- | to MDXLIII (1543). Folio, full red calf, Spanish binding, gilt edges.

* * * A beautiful tall copy of the first and excessively rare edition of the publication known among historians as the "Nuevas Leyes." Rich calls the volume "the first collection of printed laws relating to the New World;" and Ternaux, "le premier recueil qui ait été publié." It is not, however, a collection or "Recopilacion," but two ordinances of Charles V., issued especially to insure the better treatment of the Indians, and for limiting the partition of lands among the conquerors. Leon Pinelo states, on the authority of Juan de Grijalva, that these laws "tan odiosas," were prompted by the publication of the manuscript tract, "Diez y seis remedios contra la peste que destruye las Indias." They were issued at Barcelona, Nov. 20, 1542, completed at Valladolid, July 4, 1543, and ordered to be printed and enforced immediately throughout the Indies. They were announced by the public herald in Mexico, May 24, 1544.

Carefully collated with the several Editions of the Original, and augmented with a Translation of the Quotations from eminent writers in various languages. To which is prefixed the Life of the Author. Revised, corrected, and enlarged by des Maizeaux. A neat copy with fine portrait. 5 vols., old calf. London, 1734. $25 00
- . The Dictionary is Bayle's masterpiece, and in it appears to perfection his various qualities—extensive and curious information, fluency of style and that light, skeptical spirit which has become closely connected with his name.—Ency. Britannica, 9th Ed.
- 1851 BEROALDUS (P.). PHILIPPI BEROALDI de FELICITATE OPUSCULŪ. The remainder of the title-page is occupied by a large emblematic design. At the foot of this is printed in large characters: JEHAN PETIT. Venditur in leone Argenteo vici sancti iacobi. The work consists of two parts, entitled, "De Felicitate," and "De optimo statu." The colophon of the first part reads thus: Impressum est tertius opera THIELMAÑI KERUER in inclyto parrhisiorum gymnasio. V calendas aprilis Anni millesimo quingentesimi; and the colophon of the last part: *IMPRESSUM PARRHISIIS quarto idus aprilis anno millesimo quingentesimo per THIELMANNUM KERUER. Paris, 1780-84. $65 00

. An elaborate description of this superb work is given in M. Em. Boucher's Catalogue d'Ang. de Saint-Aubin. It is embellished with an emblematic full-page frontispiece, containing the portrait of Louis-Philippe, the Duke of Orleans, and 2 head-pieces by Cochin and Saint-Aubin, 56 charming tail-pieces, and 179 fine full-page engravings from ancient cameos and intaglios. The first volume ends with a beautiful allegorical design by the Countess Eléonore de Sabran. The last engraving or tail-piece of the second volume contains 12 highly finished medallion-portraits of the Orleans family.

"Of all memorials from antiquity, there are hardly any from which a more varied and refined instruction may be drawn than from engraved stones. They exhibit with marvellous distinctness the images and attributes of the ancient deities, the features of great men and distinguished personages. Some of these cameos reveal to us curious details of primitive beliefs; others, again, represent religious and moral allegories or present beautiful fragments of Greek sculpture. Many of these engraved gems combine beauty of material with perfection of execution. . . . For various reasons, they assuredly deserve the attention of the scholar, artist, philosopher, archæologist, and the man of refined taste." Preface.

- 1885 CATHARINA DA SIENA (Sancta). DIALOGUS SERAPHICUS ac DI | UE CATHARINE de SENIS | cum nonnullis aliis | orationibus | per eam factis | . Raymundo Capuano interprete. Ad op. calcem additæ sunt ejusd. Catharinæ orationes, Pii II. epist. ac versus, Catharinæ epithaphium, &c. Small 8vo, size of a modern 16mo, bound in wooden boards with calf back, in imitation of the 15th century binding. BRIXIA per Bernardo de Misintis de Papia, 1496. $35 00
- * * * This work is in every respect a remarkably fine specimen of early gothic or black-letter printing in Italy, and bears the distinctive marks of a genuine incunabulum. It consists of 187 leaves without pagination, printed in double columns of 40 lines each. The large initial letters are colored in red and blue ink, and all the small capital letters throughout the text are rubricated or marked with lines in red ink. Like the first products of the early typographic art, it lacks a separate title-page indicative of the date and place. Brunet, Hain, and Graesse—bibliographers whose dicta carry the greatest authority—all agree, however, in recording this work as printed in 1496 at Brixia.
- 1886 CHINA—The WORLD in MINIATURE, edited by Frederic Shoberl.—China. Illustrations of the Manners, Customs, Character, etc., of that Empire. Colored engravings. Vol. I. 16mo, full calf. London, n. d. $.30
- 1887 CICERO.—M. T. CICERONIS de OFFICIIS libri tres. Cato Major, vel de Senectute, Lælius, Paradoxa Stoicorum sex. Somnium Scipionis. Engraved title-page. 16mo, half roan. AMSTELODAMI, ex officinâ Elzevirianâ. 1664. $1 00

The BIBLIOGRAPHICAL DECAMERON; or, TEN DAYS' PLEASANT DISCOURSE upon ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPTS and SUBJECTS connected with Early Engravings, Typography, and Bibliography. With a beautifully engraved series of several hundred woodcuts and copper-plates of Portraits, facsimiles, Illuminations, etc., some on India paper. 3 vols., royal 8vo, full diamond-tooled Russia. London, 1817. $125 00
. This comprehensive work contains a variety of interesting details relating to illuminated manuscripts; printed missals and breviaries; books printed from wooden blocks, and books containing early and curious specimens of engraving; bibles; books of games and sports; the origin and progress of printing upon the Continent; facsimiles of devices and marks of ancient printers; accounts of bookbinding and bookbinders; literary bibliography; book sales by auction; notices of eminent English booksellers and printers, and a description of some of the most distinguished public and private libraries in Europe.
“ From the information which it contains, and the splendor of the decoration and printing, the work will ever be considered as a model of excellence and good taste in typography and the arts.”—Londres.
- 1897 DICKENS (CHARLES). DOMBEY and SON. With frontispiece, vignette, and thirty-eight full-page illustrations by Phiz (H. K. Browne), and ten extra plates by the same artist, inserted. 8vo, half crushed levant morocco, gilt back and top. London, 1848. $15 00
. FIRST EDITION.
- 1898 DU ROSOI.—LES SENS, Poëme en Six Chants. With seven full-page engravings and eight very charming vignettes and tail-pieces, designed by EISEN and WILLE, engraved by de LONGUEIL. 8vo, original calf binding, gilt edges. A Londres (Paris), 1766. $25 00
. A large paper copy in fine condition, prized very highly in France.

1899 EGAN (PIERCE). The LIFE and EXTRAORDINARY ADVENTURES of SAMUEL DENMORE HAYWARD, denominated the Modern Machteath, with an address to the Rising Generation. *Embellished with a highly finished miniature by Mr. Smart; etched by J. 1905 FORTSAS.—CATALOGUE d'une TRES-RICHE mais peu nombreuse COLLECTION de LIVRES provenant de la BIBLIOTHÈQUE de feu M. le Comte J. N. A. DE FORTSAS, dont la vente se fera à BINCHE, le 10 aout 1840 à onze heures du matin, en l'étude & par le ministère de McMourlon, notaire, rue de l'Eglise, 9. 8vo, half crushed levant morocco, gilt top, uncut. Bruxelles, n. d. $20 00

. This copy is printed on yellow paper, one of 10 so printed.

. This is a fac-simile reprint of the famous sale-catalogue of Count de Fortsas, facile princeps among modern bibliographical hoaxers. It contains a detailed description of his books, each of them, to say the least, worth its weight in gold. This wonderful collection was announced to be sold on a certain day in 1840 by auction. An extraordinary excitement was created among book-collectors, who from far and near flocked together at Binche, a small town in Belgium, where the sale was to take place. The day before the sale, however, the newspapers of Brussels contained a notice that the little town had bought the entire collection for its public library. This is not the place for narrating all the serio-comic incidents of this rude practical joke; suffice it to say that the whole affair from first to last was a downright canard. The Count de Fortsas and his book-treasures were found to be a myth. As to the catalogue it had unquestionably been prepared with all the savoir-faire of an expert in bibliography; the titles of the books with the appended notes seem so attractive and authentic that one almost regrets that this unique collection was only "airy nothing," without a "local habitation" beyond this catalogue, which will always occupy a foremost though unenviable place in the annals of bibliographical hoaxing.

1913 HAMERTON (PHILIP G.). LANDSCAPE.

With Forty Illustrations on Copper, of which one-half are Etchings or Engravings, some of them from Pictures, and others entirely original, after CLAUDE, COROT, COURBET, DAVID COX, DAUBIGNY, HOBBERMA, LALANNE, PALMER, PENNELL, TURNER, etc., besides a number of minor illustrations. Columbian 8vo, half roxburgh. London, 1884. $35 00

1914 — THE SAME. LARGE PAPER, OF WHICH ONLY 500 COPIES WERE PRINTED, each numbered, with Proofs of the Engravings. London, 1884. $70 00

* * This is a new work by Mr. Hamerton, similar in importance to "The Graphic Arts." It consists of a series of Chapters or Essays on landscape in nature, literature, and art, in which, although Painting is not unfrequently referred to, there is little of a technical character and nothing likely to repel a general reader who takes some interest in landscape. The text includes an analysis of various important divisions of natural landscape and studies of literature in connection with it. Other subjects treated at length are the association of architecture with landscape, the choice of places of residence and sites of houses, and the degree of injury or improvement resulting to natural landscape from human industry and habitation.

The sea is included amongst the subjects of study, especially in connection with shipping and coast scenery. Several chapters are given to lakes and rivers, of which the author has an intimate knowledge, both from his artistic studies and his love of aquatic recreation.

Mr. Hamerton, while considering the effects of human industry on landscape, has not neglected the presence of men and animals as adjuncts to landscape in nature and the graphic arts.

1915 HAMERTON (PHILIP GILBERT). THE GRAPHIC ARTS. A TREATISE on the VARIETIES of DRAWING, PAINTING, and ENGRAVING, in comparison with each other and with Nature. With 54 Illustrations after ancient and modern masters; comprising Drawings after MACLISE, TURNER, SIR F. LEIGHTON, MULREADY, RAPHAEL, etc., reproduced in facsimile; woodcuts after HOLBEIN, DÜRER, BEWICK, TITIAN, and others; Etchings and Engravings after HOLLAR, REMBRANDT, HOLL, HURST, etc.; Line Engravings of DÜRER, DELANNE, VISSCHER, STRANGE, and others reproduced in facsimile. Imperial 4to. VILLON SOCIETY.

- 1995 PAYNE (JOHN). TALES FROM THE ARABIC of the BRESLAU and CALCUTTA (1814-18) editions of the book of the Thousand Nights and One Night not occurring in the other printed texts of the work, now first done into English by John Payne, 3 vols. finely printed on hand-made paper, bound in vellum, gilt top, uncut. LONDON, 1884. Printed for the Villon Society by private subscription and for private circulation only. $30 00

. This work that forms a continuation to "the Arabian Nights," contains a large number of fresh stories now rendered for the first time into English. They are collected from the most authentic and complete texts, and have been translated by Mr. Payne on the same system as that adopted by him in his version of The Book of the Thousand Nights and One Night.

- 1996 ARABIAN NIGHTS. The Book of the THOUSAND NIGHTS and ONE NIGHT, now first completely done into English Prose and Verse, from the original Arabic by JOHN PAYNE, Author of "Villon Poems," etc. 9 vols. 8vo, beautifully printed on hand-made paper. LONDON: Printed for the Villon Society, 1883.

. This is a genuine copy of the edition of the Arabian Nights published by the Villon Society, the only literal translation ever issued; the limited number printed has caused the work to become quite rare, and it is also rapidly going up in price.

- 1997 VIRGILIUS.—OPERA VIRGILIANA, cum decem commentis . . . exposita a Servio, Donato, Mancinello & Probo, cū adnotationibus Bernoaldi, Calderini, Ascensii, etc. Folio, light calf, blind tooling in imitation of the binding of the XV. century, by Claessens. LUGDUNI in Typographaria Officina Joannis Crespini, Anno Virginie partus, MDXXIX (Lyon, 1529). In a sliding case. $100 00

. Brunet speaks of this rare Lyon edition as still very valuable. It is illustrated with upward of 200 curious engravings. In his Essai sur L'Histoire de la Gravure sur Bois, M. Ambroise Firmin Didot refers to this edition of Virgil in the following words: "Jean Crespin a imprimé en 1529 une grande édition in-folio de Virgile, dont le texte, entouré des commentaires de Servius, etc., et des annotations de Bernoalde, a été revu par Josse Bade qui y a joint l'opuscule in Priapi lusum. Les plupart des gravures de Grüninger ornent cette importante édition."

. A fine copy of one of the most valuable and useful works to an architect or sculptor. The original cost, or subscription price, was upward of £35.

. No small sensation was caused in the literary world by the discovery of the extraordinary forgeries of the Shelley Letters, printed in this volume. They were sold at a large price to Mr. Moxon, who published them in 1852, after they had been examined and thought genuine by Mr. Sotheby, an expert in such matters. No doubts as to their genuineness were expressed in a review which appeared in the Athenæum shortly after their publication. A fortnight later, however, the same paper announced the startling intelligence that, with two or three exceptions, the letters from which the volume was printed were forgeries. The discovery was singularly made. It was thus, as stated in the Athenæum: "Mr. Moxon sent a copy of the book to Mr. Tennyson. During a visit which Mr. Palgrave was paying to Mr. Tennyson, he dipped in the Shelley volume, and lighted upon a letter written from Florence to Godwin, the better half of which he at once recognized as part of an article on Florence, written for the Quarterly Review so far back as 1840, by his father, Sir Francis Palgrave, who, after comparing the printed letter with the printed article, wrote at once to Mr. Moxon informing him that the letter, by whomever written, was a 'crib' from an article which he had written for the Quarterly Review."

- 2109 SHELLEY. The Poetical Works of Percy Bysshe Shelley. Edited by Mrs. Shelley. Portrait. 4 vols. 16mo, full crushed Levant morocco, with leather joints, uncut, gilt tops, by ALFRED MATTHEWS. LONDON, Moxon, 1839.

. First collected edition. Scarce.

- 2110 SOUTHEY (Robert). The DOCTOR, &c. Edited by his son-in-law, John Wood Warter. New edition, complete in one volume. With 2 portraits and engraved title-page. Royal 8vo, cloth, uncut. LONDON, Longman, 1862. $5 00

2111 SELECTIONS FROM THE EDINBURGH REVIEW; comprising the BEST ARTICLES in THAT JOURNAL, from its commencement to the present time. With a preliminary dissertation and explanatory notes. Edited by MAURICE CROSS. 4 vols. large 8vo, 2700 pages, cloth, uncut. LONDON, Longman, Green, 1833. $7 50

. The celebrity of the authors, the variety of style and subjects, make these volumes very valuable. The last volume contains a copious analytical index.

2112 SHAW (Henry, F.S.A.). A HANDBOOK of the ART of ILLUMINATION as practised during the Middle Ages. With a description of the metals, pigments and processes employed by the artists at different periods. Illustrated by 16 large separate plates of Miniatures, with Initial Letters and Ornaments, executed in facsimile after the designs of illuminated MSS. in the finest style of wood-engraving. Folio, half morocco. London, 1866. $9 50

2113 STONE-HENGE—WEBB (John). A VINDICATION of STONE-HENGE RESTORED: in which the Order and Rules of Architecture observed by the ancient Romans are discussed. Together with the Customs and Manners of several Nations of the World in matters of Building. With Engravings on copper. Small folio, old calf. London, 1665. $3 00

. Very rare.

2127 UZANNE (Octave). L'EVENTAIL and L'OMBRELLE. Designs by PAUL AVRIL. 2 vols. large 8vo. QUANTIN, Paris, 1882-83. $350 00

. These two works contain a series of superb illustrations, engraved and printed in different colors, artistically colored inside covers, extra inside silk covers enriched with designs by Avril, not duplicated in the text.

L'EVENTAIL is sumptuously bound in blue crushed Levant morocco, super extra, in Jansen style, doublé with red morocco, ornamented compartments, corners with delicate toolings (aux petits fers), an emblematic design elaborately tooled, fly-leaves of antique watered silk, gilt edges, "témoins," and a sliding case. L'OMBRELLE is bound in red crushed Levant morocco, super extra, doublé with blue morocco, the binding in other respects similar to the preceding volume.

This almost matchless copy of L'EVENTAIL has all the lustre of freshness, and was printed in a highly artistic style before the copies on Japan paper. Added to this copy is an engraving of the "Fan" from the "Double Collection," printed in several colors, and a series of full-page illustrations separately printed on Japan paper, and with extra inside silk covers.

The following passages are translated from the bibliographical description which accompanies the two volumes:—"By comparing the number of copies at my disposal, I succeeded in distinguishing four varieties of engravings with regard to fineness and delicacy of execution, all of which, however, belong to the 'FIRST CLASS.' In the first variety the engravings seemed to me of such a fineness, that I believe they have been struck off before the hardening of the plates. Impressions of this description are at all events of the greatest rarity."

The variation or error occurring in the early impressions, by which they can be distinguished from the copies on Japan paper, shows that they were struck off before these latter. The early impressions can hardly exceed thirty in number. The fineness of the impressions, their rarity, and the fact that they were printed before those on Japan paper, will probably give them a value, the maximum of which it would be difficult to estimate exactly.

The following shows the variation or error occurring in the early impressions by which they can be recognized. At the lower margin of page 4 occur the following words:

' Soie ou de moroq ;
que Boucher nous'

while all other copies have :

' Soie ou de moroq,
que Fragonard no'

I call the first of these copies for artists' impressions ("Genre artiste,") because I consider them as the most beautiful with regard to the printing.

L'OMBRELLE forms a magnificent companion volume to the preceding work. It contains the portrait of the author, Octave Uzanne, by Avril, in two tints, on Japan paper, and a series of extra Engravings printed on Japan paper. This volume includes a bibliography of the two works, by G. Brunox (Paris, 1883), from which the following extract is translated:—"By comparing a number of copies, one with another, I noticed the inequality of the tints in the engraving at page 65, where a darkish-brown passes over into a clear violet one. I soon afterwards became aware of an error or variation in a copy on Japan paper. At the top of page 65 the text reads:

levards ; on nous a peint le'

while in most of the ordinary copies the following variation occurs :

' tresse sou la pluï des bou—
levards, on nous a peint le'

Ordinary copies similar to those on Japan paper with the error (treses) are very rare, and belong to the First Class, while those without the error fall within the Second Class."

2128 VOSSIUS. GERARDI JOAN VOSSII et aliorum DISSERTATIONES de STUDIIS bene Instituendis. Engraved Title. 18mo, pp. 720, calf. Trajecti ad Rhenum (Utrecht), 1658. Scarce. $5 00

. Contains 23 dissertations in Latin by Justus Lipsius, Acontius, Scioppius Comenius and other great scholars of the 17th century. According to a note on the title-page, the volume was once in the library of the "Oratory" of Paris. It bears the very rare autograph of the celebrated French philosopher Malebranche, author of "La Recherche sur la Vérité," &c.

2129 WALKER (Alexander). WOMAN, physiologically considered as to Mind, Morals, Marriage, Matrimonial Slavery, Infidelity and Divorce. 12mo, cloth, uncut. Second edition. London, 1840. $9 50

2130 WITHER (George). POETICAL WORKS of. With Notes and Observations by J. M. Gutch, Esq. 4 vols. in 3. 12mo, full polished calf, gilt backs and edges. LONDON, J. Lilly, 1863. Scarce. $20 00

* * * Wither is one of the few masters of octosyllabic verse in our language. Charles Lamb has dwelt lovingly on its curious felicities, and for compass and variety it would not be easy to name its superior. Never was there a purer or more honorable spirit, or one which kept closer to the best it knew; and as Wither has revealed himself in his works in a way in which few poets have done, it is natural to read him not only with admiration, but with sympathy."—W. T. Arnold.

The Rose and the Poets.

ROS ROSARUM, EX HORTO POETARUM. Dew of the ever-living Rose, gathered from the Poet's Garden of Many Lands. By E. V. B. (The Hon. Mrs. Boyle). Illustrated 12mo, beautifully printed on hand-made paper, bound in limp parchment, uncut. London, 1885. $2 75

* * * This is a charming volume, to be read at ease in a rustic seat, or reclining on a green lawn or beneath tall trees. It is a book for the meadows and lanes when the skies are blue and the birds are singing, and by and by, when the days shorten and darken, a book for the chimney-corner, which, amidst the chills of winter, will remind us of the vanished beauty of midsummer.

It contains hitherto unpublished verses from the pen of Lord Tennyson, Lord Lytton, Hamilton Aidé, J. A. Symonds, and a number of translations by Mrs. Herbert Hills. It is charmingly illustrated and handsomely printed, and the matter is worthy of its graceful form.

"Full of the fairest blooms of the whole world of poetry."—

Morning Post.

"E. V. B. has made a charming collection of what the poets have said about the rose. She has drawn from many sources—from the Bible, from the Palatine Anthology, from Hafiz, and from Omar Khayyam, from Dante, from Ronsard, from Victor Hugo, from Heine—in fact, from the poets of all ages and countries."—

Athenæum.

"The poems have been chosen and arranged most judiciously, and the book should form a welcome addition to the literature of flowers."—Garden Work.

"With its lovely typography, its appropriate cover, and the general excellence of its workmanship, this may claim to be one of the daintiest volumes ever issued from the English press"—Notes and Queries.

"It is just the book for a drawing-room table, and can be taken up and read at any moment, even as a rose may be enjoyed at any time."—Church Bells.

"A very dainty-looking volume is 'Ros Rosarum,' and the illustrations from the pencil of its well-known compiler enhance such pleasure as it might otherwise give."—Graphic.

"A tasteful miscellany worthy of its accomplished compiler."—Athenæum.

NOTICE TO BOOK BUYERS.
-----TAUCHNITZ EDITION OF BRITISH AUTHORS.

Few series of books exist which are at once so attractive and inexpensive as the TAUCHNITZ EDITION of BRITISH AUTHORS. This collection has been rapidly growing in numbers and popularity with the reading public, and comprises at present upwards of 2,000 distinct works in various departments of literature by the most eminent English writers. To render it still more acceptable and worthy of an extended patronage, I have the pleasure of offering a large assortment of this popular series to the American book buyer, in a special HALF MOROCCO BINDING of good workmanship which combines the three requisites of a well-bound book: BEAUTY, SOLIDITY and FLEXIBILITY.

A fac-simile of the binding printed in gold and colors will be found on the opposite page.

 THE PRICE OF EACH VOLUME IS $1.25, Net.

A List of those on hand will be sent on application, and special orders to import any volumes not in stock, bound in the same style and at the same price, will be promptly filled.
