STATEMENT REGARDING MEET AND CONFER
PURSUANT TO 16 C.F.R. § 3.22(g)

On February 3, 2012, Respondents' Counsel, Rachael Lewis, conferred telephonically at approximately 2:30 p.m. EST with Jason Kuzniar, counsel for CIGNA, in an effort in good faith to resolve the outstanding issues raised by Respondents' Motion to Compel Connecticut General Life Insurance Company to Produce Documents Requested by Subpoena Duces Tecum. Counsel were unable to reach an agreement on the outstanding items.

Respondents' Counsel and Counsel for CIGNA discussed these issues in correspondence on December 23, 2012, January 17, 2012, January 23, 2012, January 24, 2012, January 25, 2012, and January 30, 2012. Additionally, Respondents' Counsel met with Counsel for CIGNA by conference call, including on December 23, 2011, January 6, 2012, and February 3, 2012. During these calls, I was present on Respondents' behalf and Jason Kuzniar was present on CIGNA's behalf. During the telephone call on February 3, 2012, Counsel for CIGNA stated that CIGNA would not agree to produce documents responsive to several of Respondents' outstanding subpoena requests. As a result of these communications it was concluded that Respondents and CIGNA were at an impasse regarding the issues raised in the foregoing Motion.

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF RESPONDENTS' MOTION TO COMPEL CONNECTICUT GENERAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY TO PRODUCE
DOCUMENTS REQUESTED BY SUBPOENA *DUCES TECUM

Respondents OSF Healthcare System and Rockford Health System (“Respondents”) respectfully submit this Memorandum in Support of its Motion to Compel Connecticut General Life Insurance Company (“CIGNA”) to Produce Documents Requested by Subpoena Duces Tecum, pursuant to Rule 3.38(a) of the Federal Trade Commission’s Rules of Adjudicative Practice and Paragraphs 4 and 5 of the Scheduling Order.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Respondents served a subpoena duces tecum (“Subpoena”) in the instant proceeding on CIGNA on December 21, 2011. (See Exhibit A). The Subpoena is one of several subpoenas duces tecum issued by the Commission on Respondents’ behalf, pursuant to Rule 3.34(b) of the Commission’s Rules of Adjudicative Practice. Respondents’ Subpoenas were directed to managed care organizations (“MCOs”), including CIGNA, doing business in the areas served by Respondents’ hospitals, including Winnebago, Ogle, and Boone counties in Illinois. The Subpoena calls for certain documents from the period of January 1, 2007 to the present, to be produced for inspection on January 10, 2012.

CIGNA objected to the Subpoena on the grounds that “the burden of locating, assembling, reviewing, and duplicating the records demanded would be unduly burdensome,” and that CIGNA considered the records to be “highly confidential . . . competitively sensitive and proprietary.” (See Exhibit B, Dec. 23, 2011 Letter from J. Kuzniar). On January 6, 2012, Counsel for Respondents attempted in good faith to negotiate a resolution of these concerns with Counsel for CIGNA. Counsel for CIGNA represented that CIGNA (1) does not possess documents responsive to Subpoena Request Nos. 2-5, 7-17, and 20-24, (2) would search for documents responsive to Subpoena Request Nos. 1, 6, and 19, and (3) maintains its objections and refuses to respond to Subpoena Request No. 18.¹ (See Exhibit C, Jan. 17, 2012 Letter from R. Lewis). On January 30, 2012, Counsel for CIGNA stated that CIGNA would produce documents responsive to Subpoena Request Nos. 1 and 6, but CIGNA would not produce any additional documents in response to the Subpoena. (See Exhibit D, Jan. 30, 2012 Email from J. Kuzniar). To date, CIGNA has produced no documents in response to Subpoena Request Nos. 1, 6, 18, and 19. CIGNA confirmed its position on February 3, 2012, (See Exhibit E, Feb. 3, 2012 Email and Letter from J. Kuzniar).

The four Subpoena Requests at issue are as follows: 1) Subpoena Request No. 1, which seeks CIGNA’s communications with the FTC or the Illinois Attorney General’s office regarding the transaction that is the subject of the instant proceeding; 2) Subpoena Request No. 6, which seeks documents showing the number of covered lives in each of CIGNA’s health plan products; 3) Subpoena Request No. 18, which seeks documents relating to CIGNA’s negotiations with providers of general acute care inpatient hospital services in the areas served by Respondents' hospitals, including Winnebago, Ogle, and Boone counties in Illinois; and 4) Subpoena Request No. 19, which seeks documents relating to pricing models that compare rates for hospital services. (See Exhibit A).

By this motion, Respondents do not challenge CIGNA's representation that it lacks documents responsive to Subpoena Request Nos. 2-5, 7-17, and 20-24. The sole focus of this motion is on CIGNA's failure to produce documents responsive to the four other Requests: Nos. 1, 6, 18 and 19. It is urgently important that Respondents receive prompt production of these requested documents. On February 10, 2012, Respondents are scheduled to take the deposition of CIGNA's Director of Provider Contracting, Mr. Thomas Golias. (See Exhibit F). Timely receipt of these materials is necessary for Respondents to have adequate opportunity to review them in preparation for the deposition. CIGNA's refusal to comply with the Subpoena, coupled with the impending close of discovery on February 17, 2012, leave Respondents with no recourse but to seek the Court's intervention at this time.

ARGUMENT

The Commission's Rules of Adjudicative Practice provide that Respondents have the right to "obtain discovery to the extent that it may be reasonably expected to yield information relevant to the allegations in the complaint, to the proposed relief, or to the defenses of any respondent." 16 C.F.R. § 3.31(c)(1); In re Polypore Int'l, Inc., 2009 FTC LEXIS 41, at *8 (Jan. 15, 2009). The Commission has held that the party requesting a subpoena is only required to show that the information sought is "reasonably expected to be 'generally relevant to the issues raised by the pleadings.'" In re Rambus, Inc., 2002 FTC LEXIS 90, at *9 (Nov. 18, 2002) (quoting In re Kaiser Aluminum & Chem. Corp., 1976 FTC LEXIS 68, at *4 (Nov. 12, 1976)). Therefore, the relevancy of the information sought by a subpoena is determined by "laying the subpoena along side' the pleadings." Rambus, 2002 FTC LEXIS 90, at *9 (quoting Kaiser, 1976 FTC LEXIS 68, at *5).

Evaluating Respondents' Subpoena "along side the Complaint" demonstrates that the Subpoena seeks materials reasonably expected to yield information that is relevant, material, and critical to Respondents' defense. For example, to rebut the Commission's allegation that the Acquisition will "increase Respondents' ability and incentive to unilaterally demand higher reimbursement rates from commercial health plans" (Compl. ¶ 40), Respondents require information concerning MCOs' negotiations with providers, as well as and information concerning MCOs' pricing models that compare contract rates in the relevant area. (See Subpoena Request Nos. 18-19 (Exhibit A)). To rebut the Commissions allegation that the acquisition will adversely affect competition for inclusion in each health plan's provider network (Compl ¶¶ 43-45), Respondents require information concerning MCOs' health plans, including the number of covered lives in each health plan product. (See Subpoena Request No. 6 (Exhibit A)).

Indeed, the Subpoena seeks documents that are reasonably expected to yield relevant information, as the requests are tailored to seek only documents that are relevant to the factual issues raised by the allegations in the Commission's Complaint. Therefore, Respondents seek the immediate production of CIGNA's responsive documents as they are pertinent to Respondents' defense in this matter. Without the requested documents, Respondents will not have ample opportunity to "develop those facts which are essential" to their defense. In re Gen. Foods., No. 9085, 1978 FTC LEXIS 412, at *6 (April 18, 1978).

CIGNA's assertion that the Subpoena imposes an undue burden lacks both factual and legal support and is undermined by CIGNA's failure to produce documents responsive to just four of the twenty-five Subpoena Requests. A non-party's allegation that a subpoena imposes a burden is "insufficient to carry its burden of showing why the requested discovery should be denied." Polypore, 2009 FTC LEXIS 41, at *10. Indeed, "[t]he burden of showing that the request is unreasonable is on the subpoenaed party." Polypore, 2009 FTC LEXIS 41, at *9 (quoting FTC v. Dresser Indus., 1977 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 16178, at *13 (D.D.C. April 26, 1977)). This is a heavy burden – one that "is not easily met where, as here, the agency inquiry is pursuant to a lawful purpose." Polypore, 2009 FTC LEXIS 41, at *9 (quoting FTC v. Dresser Indus., 1977 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 16178, at *13 (D.D.C. April 26, 1977) (enforcing non-party subpoena served by respondent) (internal quotations omitted)); see also Rambus, 2002 FTC LEXIS 90, at *9 (non-party "bears the burden to show that compliance would seriously disrupt its business operations"); In re Flowers Indus., Inc., 1982 FTC LEXIS 96, at *15 (March 19, 1982) ("a recipient of a subpoena duces tecum issued in an FTC adjudicative proceeding who resists compliance therewith bears a heavy burden. That burden is no less because the subpoena is directed at a non-party."); In re Kaiser Aluminum & Chem. Corp., 1976 FTC LEXIS 68, at *19-20 (Nov. 12, 1976) ("Even where a subpoenaed third party adequately demonstrates that compliance with a subpoena will impose a substantial degree of burden, inconvenience, and cost, that will not excuse producing information that appears generally relevant to the issues in the proceeding.").

CIGNA's claim that the documents requested are "highly confidential . . . competitively sensitive and proprietary" (Exhibit B) is insufficient to overcome CIGNA's burden to produce responsive documents. Flowers, 1982 FTC LEXIS 96, at *11 (assertion that the information requested "involves sensitive, financial and trade data does not limit the power to obtain it."). Respondents' need for this material far outweighs CIGNA's concern about the information's sensitive nature. Furthermore, the provisions of the Protective Order Governing Discovery Material Order in this proceeding protect CIGNA's information against improper use and disclosure. Indeed, the Commission recognizes the need for information of a sensitive nature and has held that in antitrust cases, records of this nature "are not only not immune from inquiry, but are precisely the source of the most relevant evidence." Id. at *12. (emphasis added).

In light of Respondents' efforts to resolve these disputes, and in consideration of the fast approaching discovery deadline, it is essential that Respondents immediately receive the requested materials to proceed with the noticed deposition and meet the current discovery deadline.

CONCLUSION

For all of the foregoing reasons, Respondents respectfully request that the Court grant its Motion and issue an Order requiring CIGNA's immediate production of documents.

PROTECTIVE ORDER GOVERNING DISCOVERY MATERIAL

Commission Rule 3.31(d) states: "In order to protect the parties and third parties against improper use and disclosure of confidential information, the Administrative Law Judge shall issue a protective order as set forth in the appendix to this section." 16 C.F.R. § 3.31(d). Pursuant to Commission Rule 3.31(d), the protective order set forth in the appendix to that section is attached verbatim as Attachment A and is hereby issued.

ORDERED:

D. Michael Chappell
Chief Administrative Law Judge

Date: November 18, 2011

ATTACHMENT A

For the purpose of protecting the interests of the parties and third parties in the above-captioned matter against improper use and disclosure of confidential information submitted or produced in connection with this matter:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT this Protective Order Governing Confidential Material ("Protective Order") shall govern the handling of all Discovery Material, as hereafter defined.

1. As used in this Order, "confidential material" shall refer to any document or portion thereof that contains privileged, competitively sensitive information, or sensitive personal information. "Sensitive personal information" shall refer to, but shall not be limited to, an individual's Social Security number, taxpayer identification number, financial account number, credit card or debit card number, driver's license number, state-issued identification number, passport number, date of birth (other than year), and any sensitive health information identifiable by individual, such as an individual's medical records. "Document" shall refer to any discoverable writing, recording, transcript of oral testimony, or electronically stored information in the possession of a party or a third party. "Commission" shall refer to the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC"), or any of its employees, agents, attorneys, and all other persons acting on its behalf, excluding persons retained as consultants or experts for purposes of this proceeding.
2. Any document or portion thereof submitted by a respondent or a third party during a Federal Trade Commission investigation or during the course of this proceeding that is entitled to confidentiality under the Federal Trade Commission Act, or any regulation, interpretation, or precedent concerning documents in the possession of the Commission, as well as any information taken from any portion of such document, shall be treated as confidential material for purposes of this Order. The identity of a third party submitting such confidential material shall also be treated as confidential material for the purposes of this Order where the submitter has requested such confidential treatment.
3. The parties and any third parties, in complying with informal discovery requests, disclosure requirements, or discovery demands in this proceeding may designate any responsive document or portion thereof as confidential material, including documents obtained by them from third parties pursuant to discovery or as otherwise obtained.
4. The parties, in conducting discovery from third parties, shall provide to each third party a copy of this Order so as to inform each such third party of his, her, or its rights herein.
5. A designation of confidentiality shall constitute a representation in good faith and after careful determination that the material is not reasonably believed to be already in the public domain and that counsel believes the material so designated constitutes confidential material as defined in Paragraph 1 of this Order.

6. Material may be designated as confidential by placing on or affixing to the document containing such material (in such manner as will not interfere with the legibility thereof), or if an entire folder or box of documents is confidential by placing or affixing to that folder or box, the designation "CONFIDENTIAL--FTC Docket No. 9349" or any other appropriate notice that identifies this proceeding, together with an indication of the portion or portions of the document considered to be confidential material. Confidential information contained in electronic documents may also be designated as confidential by placing the designation "CONFIDENTIAL--FTC Docket No. 9349 or any other appropriate notice that identifies this proceeding, on the face of the CD or DVD or other medium on which the document is produced. Masked or otherwise redacted copies of documents may be produced where the portions deleted contain privileged matter, provided that the copy produced shall indicate at the appropriate point that portions have been deleted and the reasons therefor.

7. Confidential material shall be disclosed only to: (a) the Administrative Law Judge presiding over this proceeding, personnel assisting the Administrative Law Judge, the Commission and its employees, and personnel retained by the Commission as experts or consultants for this proceeding; (b) judges and other court personnel of any court having jurisdiction over any appellate proceedings involving this matter; (c) outside counsel of record for any respondent, their associated attorneys and other employees of their law firm(s), provided they are not employees of a respondent; (d) anyone retained to assist outside counsel in the preparation or hearing of this proceeding including consultants, provided they are not affiliated in any way with a respondent and have signed an agreement to abide by the terms of the protective order; and (e) any witness or deponent who may have authored or received the information in question.

8. Disclosure of confidential material to any person described in Paragraph 7 of this Order shall be only for the purposes of the preparation and hearing of this proceeding, or any appeal therefrom, and for no other purpose whatsoever, provided, however, that the Commission may, subject to taking appropriate steps to preserve the confidentiality of such material, use or disclose confidential material as provided by its Rules of Practice; sections 6(f) and 21 of the Federal Trade Commission Act; or any other legal obligation imposed upon the Commission.

9. In the event that any confidential material is contained in any pleading, motion, exhibit or other paper filed or to be filed with the Secretary of the Commission, the Secretary shall be so informed by the Party filing such papers, and such papers shall be filed in camera. To the extent that such material was originally submitted by a third party, the party including the materials in its papers shall immediately notify the submitter of such inclusion. Confidential material contained in the papers shall continue to have in camera treatment until further order of the Administrative Law Judge, provided, however, that such papers may be furnished to persons or entities who may receive confidential material pursuant to Paragraphs 7 or 8. Upon or after filing any paper containing confidential material, the filing party shall file on the public record a duplicate copy of the paper that does not reveal confidential material. Further, if the protection for any such material expires, a party may file on the public record a duplicate copy which also contains the formerly protected material.

10. If counsel plans to introduce into evidence at the hearing any document or transcript containing confidential material produced by another party or by a third party, they shall provide advance notice to the other party or third party for purposes of allowing that party to seek an order that the document or transcript be granted in camera treatment. If that party wishes in camera treatment for the document or transcript, the party shall file an appropriate motion with the Administrative Law Judge within 5 days after it receives such notice. Except where such an order is granted, all documents and transcripts shall be part of the public record. Where in camera treatment is granted, a duplicate copy of such document or transcript with the confidential material deleted therefrom may be placed on the public record.

11. If any party receives a discovery request in any investigation or in any other proceeding or matter that may require the disclosure of confidential material submitted by another party or third party, the recipient of the discovery request shall promptly notify the submitter of receipt of such request. Unless a shorter time is mandated by an order of a court, such notification shall be in writing and be received by the submitter at least 10 business days before production, and shall include a copy of this Protective Order and a cover letter that will apprise the submitter of its rights hereunder. Nothing herein shall be construed as requiring the recipient of the discovery request or anyone else covered by this Order to challenge or appeal any order requiring production of confidential material, to subject itself to any penalties for non-compliance with any such order, or to seek any relief from the Administrative Law Judge or the Commission. The recipient shall not oppose the submitter's efforts to challenge the disclosure of confidential material. In addition, nothing herein shall limit the applicability of Rule 4.11(e) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, 16 CFR 4.11(e), to discovery requests in another proceeding that are directed to the Commission.

12. At the time that any consultant or other person retained to assist counsel in the preparation of this action concludes participation in the action, such person shall return to counsel all copies of documents or portions thereof designated confidential that are in the possession of such person, together with all notes, memoranda or other papers containing confidential information. At the conclusion of this proceeding, including the exhaustion of judicial review, the parties shall return documents obtained in this action to their submitters, provided, however, that the Commission's obligation to return documents shall be governed by the provisions of Rule 4.12 of the Rules of Practice, 16 CFR 4.12.

13. The provisions of this Protective Order, insofar as they restrict the communication and use of confidential discovery material, shall, without written permission of the submitter or further order of the Commission, continue to be binding after the conclusion of this proceeding.

Re: Federal Trade Commission v. OSF Healthcare System and Rockford Health Systems

Case No. : 3:11-cv-50344 (N.D. Ill)
Our File No. : 09855.00049

Dear Ms. Lewis:

Per my voicemail message on December 22, 2011 and our call today, my firm has been retained to represent the interests of CIGNA Corporation ("CIGNA") relative to the three subpoenas you have issued: (1) a subpoena for records dated December 9, 2011 issued to CIGNA, Inc. in the above-referenced case ("December 9 Subpoena"); (2) a records subpoena dated December 21, 2011 issued to CIGNA, Inc. in In the Matter of OSF Healthcare System and Rockford Health Systems (Docket No. 9349), pending in the U.S. Federal Trade Commission ("December 21 Subpoena"); and (3) a subpoena for the deposition of Thomas Golias dated December 14, 2011 issued in the above-referenced case ("Subpoena for Deposition"). For the reasons discussed below, we hereby submit our written objection to the December 9 and 21 Subpoenas.

Preliminarily, CIGNA, Inc. is not a legal entity. CIGNA Corporation is a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in Bloomfield, Connecticut. The December 9 Subpoena, however, was issued by the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois and purports to command production of documents to your office in Washington, D.C. For these reasons, the December 9 and 21 Subpoenas are invalid on their face and, in all events, the December 9 Subpoena was not properly issued. Please note that the proper entity for purposes of your subpoenas is Connecticut General Life Insurance Company.

In addition, the demands within the December 9 and 21 Subpoenas are unduly burdensome in multiple respects. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure (“Rule”) 45(c)(1) states “an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena.” The December 9 and 21 Subpoenas evidence no effort to comply with those requirements, nor have you offered to pay for the expense of compliance. Given the sheer quantum of documents you have demanded, the cost and burden of locating, assembling, reviewing and duplicating the records demanded would be unduly excessive. Moreover, your demands call for production of electronically stored information (“ESI”), which ESI would not be reasonably accessible due to undue burden and cost. See Rule 45(d)(1)(D).

As a non-party, CIGNA is entitled to the same scope of discovery set forth by Rule 34. See Advisory Committee Notes for 1991 Amendments. You have not described the documents you seek “with reasonable particularity”. See Rule 34(b); 16 C.F.R. §3.34(b). For example, your demands purport to require production of “all” material “relating to” various subjects. See Definitions ¶¶ 1-2, 8; Instructions ¶¶ 1, 13; Requests Nos. 1, 8, 11-15, 18-24. Likewise, many of your demands impermissibly seek to impose on CIGNA an obligation to produce “[d]ocuments sufficient to show [or to identify].” See Requests Nos. 2, 4, 6, 9, 10, 16, 17. There is no “particularity” in such requests, nor is there any effort to limit the request to information to any reasonable scope of discovery under Rule 26. Complying with such demands would impose an undue burden. In any event, many of your demands are duplicative in that CIGNA previously produced voluminous records to the Federal Trade Commission (“FTC”) in 2011.

Moreover, most of your demands call for material that is highly confidential and is competitively sensitive and proprietary, and many other of your demands incidentally invade privileged matter and call for material that is subject to other privileges and immunities, such that your demands seek disclosure of trade secrets and other confidential research, development, and commercial information. See Rule 45(c)(3)(B). We understand that the District Court in the above-referenced lawsuit entered an order on December 20, 2011 (ECF No. 105), denying the parties’ joint motion for entry of a stipulated interim protective order (ECF No. 64).

Finally, the December 9 and 21 Subpoenas fail to allow reasonable time for compliance. See Rule 45(c)(3)(A)(i). Compliance would require locating, assembly, review, and duplication of an extremely voluminous number of documents and ESI. As the December 9 and 21 Subpoenas were served on or shortly after their date of issuance, compliance cannot be accomplished before the December 30, 2011 and January 10, 2012 return dates, respectively. Moreover, those return dates impose an undue burden on CIGNA in light of previously scheduled vacations and time out of the office of its employees for the holidays.

The foregoing is made without waiver or limitation of any other applicable objections, including Rule 45(c)(3)(A)(i)-(iv) and 16 C.F.R. §3.34(c), or any applicable privilege, immunity or doctrine that may affect my client’s obligation to comply to the December 9 and 21 Subpoenas or any other demand. We are amenable to attempting to resolve these issues in good faith in accordance with Local Rule 37.2 of the Northern District of Illinois and 16 C.F.R. §3.22(g).

Separately, as to the Subpoena for Deposition, please be advised that Mr. Golias is not available on January 6, 2012, which date you indicated was merely a placeholder date in your December 14, 2011 email to Michael Wade of CIGNA. Of the alternative dates you proposed in that email, Mr. Golias is available January 11, 2012. Please let me know if you would like to proceed with his deposition on that date at your office in Chicago.

Rachael - Mr. Goliias is available for his deposition on Feb. 10, 16, and 17 starting at 9 a.m. CT at your Chicago office. Please confirm which of those dates works for you or, if none work, please provide alternative dates as soon as possible.

As to your January 17 letter, we will produce email between Michael Wade and the FTC (#1 to the subpoena rider), which consists of about 66 pages, and a spreadsheet that shows for 2011 the number of covered lives in the three counties that comprise the Rockford area (#6 to the subpoena rider). I will confirm/respond separately concerning the remainder of your January 17 letter, but this will confirm that my client will not be producing any additional records in response to the document subpoena.

In the meantime, please feel free to contact me with any questions or if you would like to discuss.

Jason,

By close of business today, we need proposed dates for Mr. Golias' deposition.

Also, I have yet to receive a response to my letter dated January 17 regarding the discovery requests. Please let this correspondence serve as notice that if we do not hear from you by close of business today, we will take that to mean that CIGNA does not intend to respond to the discovery requests served on CIGNA on December 9, 2011 and December 21, 2011. Please let me know if you have any questions or would like to discuss further.

Jason,

Thank you for promptly providing the data dictionary.

I believe that we have met and conferred regarding the document requests that were served on CIGNA in December. As I understand, CIGNA's position is that it will not produce documents in response to the document requests other than for Requests Nos. 1 and 6 as stated in your January 31, 2012 email. I ask that you return my call today to confirm my understanding of CIGNA's position before we move to compel.

Case No. : 3:11-cv-50344 (N.D. Ill)

Dear Rachael:

This responds to your letter of January 17, 2012 concerning the response of CIGNA Corporation and Connecticut General Life Insurance Company ("CIGNA") to the document subpoenas.

As separately advised, CIGNA will produce records in response to Requests Nos. 1 and 6 subject to the January 6, 2012 Amended Protective Order. Your January 17, 2012 letter correctly confirms CIGNA's response to Requests Nos. 2-5, 7-8, 13-17, and 21-25. As to the other requests:

Request Nos. 9-12, 18-19: CIGNA stands on its previous objections as set forth in my December 23, 2011 letter to you, including that the Requests lack reasonable particularity, are unduly burdensome, and call for production of electronically stored information ("ESI"), which ESI would not be reasonably accessible due to undue burden and cost. See Rule 45(d)(1)(D). Moreover, the information requested is more appropriately sought through deposition testimony, and we note that your office deposed Thomas Golias of CIGNA for four (4) hours on January 11, 2012 and have subpoenaed him for a second deposition on February 10, 2012 in the Part III proceedings.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, CIGNA previously produced documents to the FTC, which records the FTC turned over to Defendants, that are responsive to Request No. 18. See documents bates-labeled FTC-CIGNA 000001-000243.
