

Fellowship: Hosted by Lugar a Dudas, Cali, Colombia
Period: 2 month residency between September and December 2019
Eligibility: Artists based in the UK
Application deadline 10am, Monday 13 May, 2019

Gasworks' International Fellowships Programme offers UK-based artists the opportunity to undertake a residency at one of Gasworks' partners abroad. This programme is funded by Arts Council England.

Gasworks is the hub of the Triangle Network, an international network of arts organisations and projects, mostly based in Africa, Asia and South America. The Network's main activities include artists' workshops, residencies, exhibitions and events that promote international mobility and exchanges. One such project is our Fellowship Programme, which enables UK-based artists to spend between 4 and 8 weeks in residence with a Triangle partner to carry out research and/or develop new work influenced by dialogue with the host organisation and a new artistic context.

Applicants are required to submit a research proposal (up to 300 words) illustrating how they might approach the residency and what they hope to achieve. The panel will be looking for well developed, context-specific proposals.

Lugar a Dudas

Lugar a Dudas is a non-profit independent space. Its purpose is to promote and disseminate artistic contemporary creation through a process of investigation, production and open discussion. It is a laboratory that promotes knowledge of contemporary art, facilitates the development of creative process, and encourages community interaction through artistic practices. www.lugaradudas.org

As its name suggests “place for doubts”, it is a space for thinking and reflecting on the artistic practices and the complexities of the context in which we live.

Cali is the capital of the Valle del Cauca Department and considered the third most important city in Colombia. It is a city well supplied with water resources, being known as the ‘city of seven rivers’. Strategically located in the South-West of the country, in big plains surrounded by “Los Farallones” National Natural Park, circled by seven rivers and within Buenaventura port, the most important ocean exit in Colombia, which connects the country to the Pacific Coast.

The Fellowship Comprises:

- Accommodation (private room in shared house with small workspace inside room)
- Shared workspace with other artists, 24-hour access
- Basic living expenses
- Materials budget
- Economy return flights
- Local travel budget
- Public event/s as agreed with the host organisation, such as an Artist Talk or Open Studio
