

Authorization, approval and training of coadjutant organizations

Senasica recognizes and authorizes individuals and companies with a solid background in the field.

Author

National Service for Agro-Alimentary Public Health, Safety and Quality

Date of publication May 20, 2020

These individuals and legal entities assist in the implementation and conformity assessment of the Systems for Contamination Risk Reduction in the Primary Production of Vegetables, Good Livestock Practices Applied to the Primary Production of Goods of Animal Origin and Good Aquaculture and Fishing Practices, as well as in the verification of Biological Effectiveness Studies of Pesticides for technical opinion purposes and Companies of Pesticides for Agricultural Use.

If you wish to obtain your recognition as a third-party specialist or authorized professional in the field of agricultural pesticides, contamination risk reduction systems, goods of animal origin and aquaculture and fishery safety, please consult us:

- Criteria and requirements for the recognition of technical competence in laboratory analysis of pesticide residues, detection of pathogenic organisms and other plant contaminants.
- Calls for Co-Advocacy Bodies

BOARD

- Authorized third party specialists
- Authorized professionals
- Recognized laboratories for analysis
- Testing laboratory approved to perform biological effectiveness studies of pesticides for agricultural use.
- Approved Certification Bodies