

Edouard Trebaol

Titles: 5+    Sources: 1    Stills: 2

Born:    Hollywood, California; May 20th 1905
Elder brother of Yves and François Trebaol [\[qv\]](#)

Left, with Johnny Jones modelling his new baseball sweatband in "EDGAR'S COUNTRY COUSIN"

Source: The Silents Majority

The Moving Picture Boy entry:

"The French immigrant Trebaol family included fifteen offspring, nearly all of whom did film work. Eddie, the eldest boy, stocky and cocky, first caught the public eye as Johnny Jones's country cousin in the Edgar series. But he became still better known for his spirited Artful Dodger to the Oliver of Jackie Coogan.

Two of Eddie's younger brothers, the lanky Yves (born 6th August 1906) and the curly François (born 17th June 1910) joined him in "HONEST HUTCH", by which time they had been acting for four or five years. François can also be seen in "BREAKING INTO SOCIETY" (23)."

You gotta pick a pocket or two – Trebaol left as the Artful Dodger, with Jackie Coogan and Lon Chaney.
Source: A Pictorial History of the Silent Screen

FILMOGRAPHY

Year	Age	Title	Role
c18	13	RUTH'S MILLIONS
20	15	- - - "The Adventures and Emotions of Edgar Pomeroy" - - -	series
		with Johnny Jones, Joe Butterworth, Lucille Ricksen
20		HONEST HUTCH
		with brothers Yves and François
20		THE PENALTY
21	16	OLIVER TWIST	as the Artful Dodger
		with Jackie Coogan	