ONE HUNDRED AND ELEVENTH NAVAL CONSTRUCTION BATTALION

IN REPLY ADDRESS:
OFFICER-IN-CHARGE
ONE HUNDRED AND ELEVENTH NAVAL CONSTRUCTION BATTALION

From: Officer-in-Charge
To: All Hands
Subj: Pacific Cruise, Record of

On the pages of this publication is depicted the Pacific Campaign of the 111th U. S. Naval Construction Battalion. The Editorial Staff have endeavored to present an uncolored, truthful, and graphic record of the contribution of the officers and men of the battalion to the victory over our ruthless oriental adversary.

The 111th Battalion, famed veteran of bloody Omaha Beach, during the assault on Hitler's "Festung Europa", was redeployed to add its might to the final sledge-hammer blows which felled the Japanese War Machine. On the coral sands of the Philippines and the muddy beachheads of Borneo were written the final chapters in the History of the battalion.

Interspersed with these climactic highlights were the dreary, monotonous, soul-trying, build-up periods of the campaign so faithfully presented pictorially in this book.

As members of the 111th, we can review with pride the accomplishments of our organization. The traditional "Well Done", received from high Naval officials, was justly earned.

Thumbing through this volume in years to come will renew and refreshen the memories of a great adventure. In retrospect these memories will assume a true perspective free from the distortion of the days in which they were created. I trust that they will be a constant reminder of the duty of each of us to be ever alert to our responsibilities as citizens to the end that "it can't happen again".

Sincerely,

Edward J. Brook

Highlights in the Log...

1943

July 23—111th USNCB COMMISSIONED.

1944

January 31 — Battalion shipped to England.

June 6 — D-Day, Omaha Beach, Normandy, France.

October-November — Battalion returns to the States in sections; 30-day leaves follow.

December — Personnel return to NCTC, Camp Endicott, Davisville, R. I.

1945

January 15 — Left, ABD Thomas in bitter cold, early morning hours . . . special train right onto Commonwealth Pier, Boston, Mass., where USS Samuel Chase (APA 26) was moored. The "Lucky Chase," with Captain Edward H. Fritzsche, USCG as skipper, headed for the Pacific after five assault jobs in the ETO . . . formerly the SS African Meteor, a fine ship of 527-foot length, 75-foot beam and 16,000 tons. Up anchor at 2000.

January 17-18 — Called at NOB, Norfolk, Virginia . . . welcome relief for the sea-sick.

January 19 — Warships maneuvering off Virginia Capes . . . glad they're friendly.

January 21 — Sighted San Salvador in the Bahamas — here Columbus had first view of New World.

January 22 — Passed through Windward Passage between Cuba and Haiti. Weather becoming much warmer . . . in fact, hot!

January 24 — Docked at Cristobal, Canal Zone at 0100 . . . First close up of palms, tropical scenery . . . Started through Gatun Locks at 1615 with LCVPs trailing ship . . . rain . . . entered Gatun Lake . . . leisurely cruise through Culebra Cut by moonlight . . . casual conversation between Seabees aboard and GIs manning AA batteries along the banks . . . Pedro Miguel Locks, then Miraflores Locks . . . at Pacific level at 2310 (7 hours, 10 minutes, total elapsed time). And then the surprise—right on out into the Pacific . . .

January 25-February 5 — A long stretch on the Pacific, calm and blue . . . rarely we sight a ship, occasionally a spouting whale or a predatory shark . . . porpoises plentiful, flying fish abundant . . . several sea-turtles observed traveling in the direction of China. Shots for tetanus and smallpox . . . many sore and/or stiff arms . . . Signal and seamanship schools in session . . . pay day. Slight cooling of weather as we sail on but quarters are still hot, stuffy . . . water hours inadequate.

February 6 — Land on the port beam this morning . . . finally Oahu with Diamond Head, Honolulu, and finally Pearl Harbor. Passed through nets and tied up at Destroyer Docks at 1530 . . . good view of Hickham Field and other well known spots about the huge naval base.

February 7-10 — Down to the bottom of the seabag, break out the whites. Liberty — Liberty — Liberty . . . sight-seeing trips — then relaxation . . . photos with Hula girls to send home . . . Waikiki, the famous beach, the Royal Hawaiian Hotel — not bad at all. But best of all — the first mail from home!

February 11 — Weighed anchor, cleared last harbor buoy at 1615. Formed convoy with a Fletcher class DD and a trio of DEs as an escort. The battalion moves on.

February 12-19 — Normandy decorations awarded at ceremony on quarterdeck . . . Navy & Marine Corps Medal to Dorsey and Bishop, letters of commendation to others. Volume II, No. 1 of "HEAR NOW" makes its appearance. We cross the International Date Line and the 16th of February drops out of our lives. Weather hot . . . difficult to keep clean with water shortage.

February 20 — Arrived Eniwetok Atoll, northwestern Marshall Islands . . . anchored at 0930. Islands of atoll white coral, extending but a few feet above the sea . . . little vegetation . . . most of palm trees shot up in assault just one year ago. Lagoon extends as far as the eye can reach . . . beautiful turquoise blue water . . . countless ships in these sheltered waters.

of the 111th U. S. Naval Construction Battalion

February 20-22 — Liberty for all hands . . . enlisted men to Parry Island, officers to Eniwetok . . . good swimming, sports, beer and coke . . . and a chance to stretch the legs.

February 23 — Up anchor. En route westward with larger convoy . . . and 6 APDs as an escort.

February 24-March 2 — Monotony relieved by abandon ship drill, target practice by convoy's gunners . . . at dusk on March 1st, passed island on port beam — said to be Ulithi. Our destination — the Philippines. Atabrine medication started.

March 3 — Mysterious flares noted ahead . . . sub contact . . . depth charges dropped . . . only 150 miles from Leyte Gulf.

March 4 — Sight Philippines early in morning . . . pass between Dinagat and Homonhon Islands into Leyte Gulf and steam to Tacloban area.

March 6 — Disembark in darkness at NSD Dock, Calicoan Island after Chase managed to reach pier . . . a little trouble on the reefs, you know.

March 7 — Arrival at new camp site about 0030. Our neighbors — PAD No. 4 — give us a welcome with coffee and sandwiches in the early morning hours.

March 7-30 — Camp construction begins midst a native village . . . the tail end of the rainy season. Temporary galley warms up the "C" rations . . . rain . . . more rain.

March 23 — First task force (2 officers, 30 men) leave camp. Sizeable detail already working at ABCD yard.

April 1 — Jap scare . . . scuttlebutt indicated a raid on Guiuan . . . carbines issued, guards doubled.

April 7 — Brig completed — the biggest and best (in fact, the only one) on the island.

April 12 — Laundry opens . . . no more scrubbing.

April 17 — FDR passes away . . . Battalion flag at half-mast.

April 22 — The 111th makes its combat debut in the Pacific operating pontoon causeways at Polloc Harbor on Moro Gulf, Mindanao, as the U.S. 31st Division goes ashore there.

April 25 — Permanent galley completed . . . no more "C" rations for a while.

May 1 — Second assault job for the 111th . . . oil-rich Tarakan Island, just off Borneo coast. Causeways operated for Aussies this time.

May 8 — V-E Day . . . all of which should make the job faster and easier over here.

May 15 — Battalion theatre completed; already famed as the only covered show-place in this area.

June 10 — The 111th combat crews work with the Australian 9th Division in storming Labuan Island at the entrance to Brunei Bay, Borneo.

U.S.S. SAMUEL CHASE (APA-26) — Boston to Samar — Half way around the world . . .
50 days . . . 12000 Miles . . . A cruise indelibly and unforgetably etched in the mind of each member of the Battalion. A lasting and final memory of the Pacific Cruise of the 111th U. S.
Naval Construction Battalion.
