OUTPOST ON THE NORTHERN HIGHWAY TO VICTORY

POEM

Three cheers for the 32nd N. C. B.
That plucky crew of men,
Who faced the violence of the sea,
And all that lurked therein,
To land in these Aleutian Wilds,
Decreed unfit for man,
Where misery sets her various styles,
And joy in contraband.

Through rain and snow with mighty gales,
That hid the light of sun,
They plied the tools and drove the nails,
Until their job out here was done,
And thus, this great Battalion,
With all its sentiments and trades,
Has won its own medallion,
With various tools and spades.

So the best of luck to all of you,
With all life has in store,
Until we muster for review,
On that Eternal Shore,
And march up through the Gates of Gold,
Into that balmy air,
That's always free from wind and cold,
And the sky is always fair.

Here in this land of mud and rocks,
Where islands tremble in their fright,
As earthquakes give out their shocks,
And mountains glow at night,
These men have taken it on the chin,
While days and months went by,
To bring their labors to that end,
Where Duty says, "Good bye."

Mids't Joys that come from Victors' hearts
They view that Emblem in the sky,
And read what it imparts,
Of all that has gone by,
To bring the hour, as such days do,
Well linked in Time's great chain,
When each must say, that last "Adieu,"
That mem'ry only can retain.

Dedicated to the 32nd Naval Construction Battalion.
