

Alumni Achievement

Jack A. Weisbaum, B.B.A. '64

Jack A. Weisbaum has been employed in public accounting for more than 50 years. He is currently the CEO of BDO USA, LLP, a position he has held since 2003, and previously served as chairman of the board. He has also served as national leader for the firm's specialized services business line, where he focused on bankruptcy and restructuring. Mr. Weisbaum has been a trusted adviser to hundreds of businesses, ranging from small private companies to major corporations listed on the New York Stock Exchange. He has been honored by various organizations for his contributions to the business community, including the American Jewish Congress, B'nai B'rith, and New York Institute of Credit.

He is professionally affiliated with the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants, serves on the board for the Center for Audit Quality, and serves as associate chair for the Catalyst Awards annual reception.

In addition to his leadership roles at BDO, Mr. Weisbaum and his wife Mary are very active in local and national charities. He received awards of recognition from various charities, including the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation.

Since receiving a B.B.A. from Hofstra in 1964, Mr. Weisbaum has maintained a strong connection to the University. He is currently a member of the Dean's Advisory Board of the Frank G. Zarb School of Business, and he also established the Jack Weisbaum '64 Endowed Scholarship.

Jack Weisbaum resides in Vero Beach, Florida, with his wife, Mary, of 32 years, where he is able to enjoy his favorite pastimes, boating and fishing. They have three adult children and two granddaughters.