

4 die after having 'poisoned' toddy in Chhota Udepur

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
VADODARA, JUNE 9

A FAMILY of four from Sinhada village in Kavant taluka of Chhota Udepur district died of alleged poisoning on Tuesday, after consuming toddy (palm wine) from a tree in their farm. Police said that prima facie, the probe hinted that the toddy was poisoned due to pesticides sprayed on the tree to keep honey bees away from mixing with the liquid. Superintendent of Police, Chhota Udepur, MS Bhabhor said that a detailed investigation was underway to ascertain the cause of death of 45-year-old Devisinh Rathwa, his wife Derdhi (40) and sons Manish (25) and Suresh (20) who consumed the toddy from their farm on June 8. A fifth person — a woman relative of the family — also consumed the toddy in a smaller quantity and is undergoing treatment. Bhabhor said, "The primary investigation and the accounts of villagers around their house have indicated that a few days ago, the family sprayed pesticides on the tree to ward off honey bees as a hive was coming up. Subsequently, they had also tied the customary pot to the tree to extract the sap from the flower stump. However, it has rained over the last few days and the pesticides may have washed down and gotten mixed with the sap collected in the pot. The family must have not realised this while consuming the toddy." The freshly extracted palm nectar, which is called Neero, is sweet and not considered to be an alcoholic product. However, when left to ferment through the day, it turns into toddy which is among the prohibited alcoholic beverages in Gujarat state.

Five persons detained for 'kidnapping, murdering' man in Dahod

Vadodara: The Dahod Police on Tuesday detained five persons for allegedly kidnapping and assaulting a man who later succumbed to his injuries. The victim, Shankar Baria, a native of Rama village was allegedly kidnapped while he was on his way to buy groceries from his house. The prime accused in the case, who is also a member of the village panchayat, was enraged after his daughter and the victim's brother-in-law had eloped from the village after the families had opposed their alliance.

Earlier this month, Shankar was allegedly kidnapped and kept in confinement. The accused threatened him with dire consequences if he did not share the details of the couple's whereabouts. On June 3, he was released in an injured state, his wife stated in her complaint. Two days later he died at his home while sleeping. Initially a case of accidental death was registered.

However during the post-mortem, the doctors confirmed his death due to internal injuries following which a case of murder was registered against the accused. Two other unidentified persons were also mentioned in the complaint who are yet to be traced. The accused were moved to a quarantine centre for Covid-19 test. ENS

Man held for trying to extort Rs 20L, say police

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
AHMEDABAD, JUNE 9

THE AHMEDABAD Crime Branch arrested a 35-year-old man for allegedly writing a threat letter to a family based in Satellite area of the city, seeking Rs 20 lakh as extortion in order to take revenge from his former colleague.

According to police, a complaint was registered at Satellite Police station on June 4, wherein a handwritten letter was found at the gate of a bungalow in Satellite area. In the letter, an extortion amount of Rs 20 lakh was demanded and threats such as "rape of daughter" and "murder of entire family by Naxals" were mentioned, police said. The letter then mentioned the extortionist as one Sumit and a phone number was also listed.

According to officials of Detection of Crime Branch (DCB), Anup Gajbhiye (35) — a resident of Bopal and native of Bhandara in Maharashtra — was arrested in this connection on Tuesday. Police said that the arrested accused had a fallout with his former colleague named Sumit, after which he was fired from his job. He wanted to take revenge from Sumit and therefore, wrote Sumit's name and number on the threat letter.

"Anup used to work in a tea shop, where he had a fight with Sumit and was fired. He wanted to take revenge from Sumit, so he wrote a threat letter in general. Without doing any revenge of the house or the target family, he dropped the letter outside one of the bungalows in Satellite with Sumit's name and number. There is no connection of Anup with the victims and he has been booked under IPC section 507 for criminal intimidation by anonymous communication," said PD Darji, in-charge officer, Satellite police station.

Two held with drugs worth Rs 38 lakh

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
AHMEDABAD, JUNE 9

THE GUJARAT Anti-Terrorist Squad (ATS) arrested two persons in Ahmedabad for allegedly carrying methamphetamine drugs worth Rs 38 lakh on Monday night.

According to officials, the two accused, identified as Naseeruddin alias Nannu Kathiyara, a resident of Juhapura in Ahmedabad and Javed Ali Saiyyed, a resident of Jamalpur in Ahmedabad, were arrested by a team of ATS at Danilimda around 8:30 pm on Monday, when the duo was allegedly carrying 0.38 kg of methamphetamine in their Swift car. "We had received an input that Nannu and Javed were carrying drugs from Danilimda to Juhapura. A trap was laid and the duo was held near Danilimda intersection. They were arrested under sections of Narcotics Drugs and Psychotropic Substances (NDPS) Act," said an officer of the Anti-Terrorist Squad.
