DEAN'S MESSAGE

OUR 50TH ANNUAL GIVING CAMPAIGN was one of our most successful ever. Our 53% alumni participation rate marked our tenth consecutive year at 50% or above.

As I begin my eighth and final year as dean, I am deeply grateful for our graduates' unmatched generosity. It is a tangible reminder to our students and faculty that the culture of cooperation and goodwill that prevails in these halls is longstanding and worth preserving.

Thank you for your support and your loyalty to the Law School.

Paul G. Mahoney, Dean

David and Mary Harrison Distinguished Professor of Law

Arnold H. Leon Professor of Law

LEADERSHIP REPORT

THE 2014–2015 CAMPAIGN MARKED THE 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF ANNUAL giving support for Virginia Law. Your help has enabled us to continue our legacy of excellence in philanthropy. The campaign finished with 9,031 alumni donors and a 53.15% participation rate. This was the tenth consecutive year alumni participation surpassed 50% and the second year we had more than 9,000 alumni donors.

Our donors came from the Classes of 1934 to 2014. High participation levels were achieved over a broad range: the Classes of 1934, 1940, 1956, 1957, and 1965 joined the Class of 2014 in topping 70% participation. A remarkable 19 classes met or exceeded 60% participation. In addition, 20 regions finished with a participation rate of at least 60% and Birmingham, Alabama, achieved more than 70%.

The following is a financial summary of the Foundation and a report of the Alumni Association for the year ending June 30, 2015:

Law School Endowment and Total Assets

The Foundation holds more than $427 million in endowed and $28 million in non-endowed funds for the benefit of the Law School. In addition, the University holds $56 million and the Jefferson Scholars Foundation holds $4 million in endowed funds designated for the Law School. The combined value of these assets at June 30 exceeds $514.8 million.

Annual Contributions

The 50th Annual Giving Campaign raised $8.93 million. This year's graduation gift campaign, "Hoos Stepping Up," finished with 82% of the Class of 2015 making a pledge of future support. Gifts received by the Law School Foundation in fiscal year 2015, including annual giving, bequests, and special gifts, totaled $12,451,292. Five million dollars of the total was unrestricted and for current use.

Alumni Association

Last year Dean Paul Mahoney visited alumni at events in Atlanta, Birmingham, Boston, Dallas, Houston, Nashville, New York City, Northern Virginia, Philadelphia, and Washington D.C. The Law School also hosted an event with Professor A. E. Dick Howard '61 in London to celebrate the 800th Anniversary of Magna Carta.

This fall the Dean will host alumni and friends in Baltimore, Charlottesville, Los Angeles, Norfolk, San Francisco, Washington, D.C., and Wilmington. The Law School will also host an alumni reception in New York City.

The 2015 reunions were a tremendous success, with more than 1,200 graduates and guests returning to Charlottesville for Law Alumni Weekend in May. The 2016 reunion weekend is scheduled for May 13–15 for the Classes of 1956, 1961, 1966, 1971, 1976, 1981, 1986, 1991, 1996, 2001, 2006, and 2011. As always, all alumni are welcome to attend reunion weekend events regardless of their class year.

This year's annual report features current and recent students whose lives were changed by the scholarships they received while attending the Law School. The report also highlights alumni who manage to capture some of what is special about UVA Law. While their admiration for the school and the community is striking, it is not unusual.

The 2014-2015 annual giving results represent support from each and every class and constituency of alumni and friends. We are all strengthened by the community of respect and affection for this institution and its ideals. Thank you for providing the resources to maintain and enhance the Law School's legacy of community and quality legal education.

Best wishes,

50 YEARS OF ANNUAL GIVING

In 1965 the Law School Foundation formally embarked on an Annual Giving Program to meet the needs of the Law School. The program was introduced to alumni September 9, 1965, in a letter from the Dean.

... There is also the need, felt in all leading law schools, to so organize alumni relations as to provide an “annual giving” program productive of expendable funds. In keeping with this need, we have divided the country into 14 regions, carefully selected on the basis of geography and alumni concentration

ARITHMETIC

The arithmetic of annual giving is quite simple. If we consider the needs of the Law School which cannot be met either through State appropriation or the income from present Law School Foundation endowments (already heavily committed), we would require an additional endowment immediately of $2,500,000. Even in this age, that is a tidy sum. Yet, if a successful annual giving program is consummated in 1965 a sum equivalent to the income from $2,500,000 can be raised while the bite on the individual, distributed over 5,500 alumni, is relatively small. Q.E.D.

THE MARGIN OF EXCELLENCE

“Excellence” is what we have had, what we need and what we insist upon. Now while “excellence” cannot be measured, it can be sensed. The “feeling” of excellence that animates an institution is not solely a matter of money, yet money makes it possible. As the logicians put it: “Money is not a sufficient condition, it is only a necessary one.” Furthermore, in this highly competitive world, to stand pat is to slip back. I do not hesitate to proclaim that had it not been for the help furnished by our alumni these past ten years, through the Law School Foundation, supplementing the help of the State, this Law School would have slipped back badly.

I am told that a fanatic is a man who redoubles his efforts after forgetting his aim. Well, we haven’t forgotten our aim: It is to build the best law school in the United States and to achieve not spotty excellence but total excellence—faculty, students, staff, library, law review, moot court, placement office, student activities, graduate work—up and down the line.

Now, some alumni may feel that since we are a “State” law school, there is no occasion for alumni support. The answer, as every alumnus knows, is that we are not only a state but a national law school—a point emphasized by Dean Lile many years ago and now deeply entrenched as part of our tradition and reputation. Furthermore, we are not talking about our basic “on going” expenses, such as faculty and administrative salaries and the maintenance of the library and the building. The State does its share in meeting these demands. We are talking about a unique kind of help—the kind that spells the difference between a merely good law school and a truly great one. We are talking about the marginal yet critical difference between potential mediocrity and sustained excellence. In short, we are talking about a Law School that welds together in vigorous partnership the students who pay tuition, the State which contributes tax money, and those of our alumni who wish the Law School to grow in stature and influence and whose loyalty is tangibly demonstrated.

—HARDY CROSS DILLARD ’27

“Building on our established tradition, there is almost no limit to what we can do if we have adequate resources.”

—HARDY CROSS DILLARD ’27

One week later the first National Appeals Chairman wrote to alumni:

... While it is important to increase contributions of principal as rapidly as possible to supply additional income, it will probably be many years before endowment income can keep up with the burgeoning needs of the Law School which must be met each year. So it is imperative to supplement the available income by gifts which can be used currently. That is the purpose of the Annual Giving for Current Use Program. This year it is our goal to obtain contributions of $100,000 for the Annual Giving for Current Use Fund.

... When you are solicited just remember—the “Margin of Excellence” of your Law School must be maintained and that can be best done by your annual giving which will be available for current use.

—WILLIAM S. POTTER ’27

CHAIRS OF THE NATIONAL APPEALS COMMITTEE

Since the first campaign in 1965, thousands of alumni have volunteered their time as class managers, regional managers, class and regional agents, reunion committee chairs and members, and law firm contacts. Twenty-five alumni have served as Chairs of the National Appeals Committee:

DEAN'S COUNCIL

Members of the Dean's Council are the leading contributors of private support to the Law School. We deeply appreciate the substantial commitments made by the following individuals.

LIFE MEMBERS

Recognizing donors of gifts of $200,000 or more over a lifetime, for any purpose.

“To this day, when I say to other lawyers, ‘I loved law school,’ they have one of two reactions: They either look at me like I’m crazy or they say, ‘Oh, you must have gone to Virginia.’”

100% PARTICIPATION PROGRAM

The 100% Participation Program challenges and recognizes firms and companies (with at least five Virginia graduates) that achieve 100% participation in annual giving. Because many firms and companies are in multiple cities, offices with five or more graduates are recognized in the program. Those interested in achieving 100% participation should contact Helen Snyder '87, Chief Operating Officer, at (877) 307-0158, or at helensnyder@virginia.edu.

Paul Kenneth Ritchey

The Class of 2015 stepped up during its graduation gift pledge drive, Hoos Stepping Up, with 297 members of the class making a pledge, for an 82% participation rate.

This is the 11th consecutive year that 80% or more of the graduating class has committed to support the Law School in future Annual Giving Campaigns.

ESTATE GIFTS

Alumni and friends ensure the continued excellence of the University of Virginia School of Law by remembering the school in their estate plans. The Law School recognizes with gratitude the following individuals whose bequests, in part or in full, were received this year and are providing valuable support for today's students and faculty.

Robert P. Buford III '50
