
A STATEMENT FROM REED EXHIBITIONS – ORGANIZERS OF SITL AMERICAS

April 15th, 2020

We are writing today to inform you that SiTL Americas event, scheduled from June 16 to 18, will now take place from October 19 to 21, 2020 at Centro Citibanamex. This is due to the escalation of the COVID-19 crisis in Mexico and around the world.

This action was made following extensive consultation with all stakeholders and in alignment with the advice from the Mexican public health authorities regarding travel to and from impacted countries, and in addition to public authority advice to restrict public events.

Cargo Week Americas - Expo Carga and Intra Logistics will host the worldwide platform of SiTL Transport & Logistics Innovation Week; it will be the show to find all the answers for the logistics, transport, foreign trade, IoT, supply chain, warehousing, infrastructure, cybersecurity, e-commerce, packing, and pallet needs.

Commenting on the announcement, Elias Gamboa, Show Director, stated, “All our thoughts are with those impacted by COVID-19. Our top priority is to ensure the health and safety of everyone at our event. We are confident that our rescheduled show will live up to the high standards participants have come to expect, and will provide a vital service to the industry.

The industry does not stop and it is crucial that as demands on food, medicines and medical equipment increases, now more than ever, our commitment is to keep the industry connected, we continue to offer businesses, networking, collaboration, and educational opportunities, and create ways for the industry moving forward during this difficult period”.

“On behalf of Reed Exhibitions, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to all exhibitors, partners, attendees, suppliers, media, and staff for their support during this challenging time, and we look forward to welcoming the transport and logistics industry,” Gamboa concluded.

For further information, please visit: <https://www.sitlamericas.com/>